So what is it really - this G. O. P. Elephant which emerged from last week's Republican convention? Same of our wise men would have us believe it is a wall of defense against our declared enemies; others that it is the snake of subversion; others that it is the flourishing and growing tree of liberty; others that it is a rope for hanging civilization as we know it. Still others tell us it is the spearhead of peace and their foes declare it to be a fan to blow up the flames of racial strife. Perhaps only time can remove the blinders of emotionalism and political fervor and let us see the whole Elephant as he really is - a trumpeting power of destruction or a disciplined and courageous force, ready and waiting to help in the construction of a better world. We wait hopefully.
