There is an artistic beauty to the old people who sit beneath the railroad trussel on Irving Street. There is also a haunting aura surrounding the well-worn and lived-in Victorian quarters of our city. Yet there is an aspect of life in Rahway which does not touch on the historic, the poetic, or the artistic; it has to do with some of the old artifudes which so often contribute to the stagnation of life and ultimately lead to spiritual

Why is it that so often the "new" becomes associated with the evil? New ideas are often held suspect, unsafe, and almost conspiritorial. On the other hand, the old somehow becomes identified with the good. We think back to "the good old days." We long for the old values and the moral stamina of our ancestors without re-

Mr. Hartnett, in explaining the 142-point increase in the rate for municipal purposes, stated that 40 tax points were added to the hudget because of a $250,000 hike in mandatory expenses, including the appropriations for the Rahway Valley insurance payments. Forty-five points resulted from the $200 000 increase in salaries and wages and four points resulted from a $25,000 increase in reserve for uncollected taxes.

The reserve is necessary because of state regulations, Mr.
