Father Zuber marks 25th year in church

The 25th anniversary of the ordination of reverend Thaddeus F. Zuber, assistant pastor of St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church, 279 Hamilton Street, Rahway, was observed on June 1.

Father Zuber celebrated a solemn mass of thanksgiving at noon in St. Mark's Church. A testimonial dinner sponsored by parishioners and friends followed in the church hall of St. Thomas the Apostle Byzantine Rite Catholic Church of Rahway.

Reverend Thaddeus F. Zuber

Father Zuber, the son of Mrs. Adam Zuber and the late Mr. Zuber, was born in Bayonne and received his elementary school training at Mr. Carmel School there.

He furthered his education at St. Peter's Preparatory School in Jersey City, Seton Hall University in South Orange and Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington.

Father Zuber was ordained by his excellency, the late archbishop Thomas Walsh at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Newark on June 3, 1950 and offered his first mass in St. Carmel Roman Catholic Church in Bayonne.

He then served as assistant pastor of St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church in Jersey City. In September 1959 he transferred to St. Mark's Church in Rahway.

Father Zuber is contractor of Christian doctrine, director, a teacher, choir moderator and liturgical coordinator in St. Mark's parish. He also handles assignments with altar boys.

O'DONNELLS OUT Manner, Mrs. Wnuck win nod in city primary

It was a day for upsets in Rahway as non-organized Republican assembly candidates carried the city and the Rahway Democratic Party chairman and his wife lost their county committee seats to challengers.

Mrs. William (Linda) Wnuck of Rahway and Arthur A. Manner of Berkeley Heights easily outdistanced their opponents in the city for the Republican nod to run in the November election as party candidates for the assembly seats from the 22nd district.

The pair received 212 and 234 votes respectively. They had the strong support of city Republican organizations but not the county body.

Their opponents, William A. Maguire of Clark and Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains, obtained 149 and 130 votes respectively.

According to unofficial county returns, the districtwide winners in the assembly race were Messrs. Maguire and DiFrancesco with tallies of 2,892 and 2,929 respectively.

Mrs. Wnuck received 1,249 and Mr. Manner 1,665 votes according to the first tabulations.

City Democratic Party chairman Patrick O'Donnell and his wife garnered 42 and 37 votes respectively in their bid to keep their committee seats in the third district of the first ward.

However that was not enough as in a close race Raymond Canady of 1601 Essex Street and Mrs. Lawrence (Edith M.) Bryant of 1683 Lawrence Street received 49 and 51 votes respectively to unseat them.

It was the only challenge in the committee phase of the Democratic primary. There were no challenges on the Republican side as committee members from both parties won easy reelection.

Also on the Democratic side incumbent assemblywoman Mrs. James (Betty) Wilson of Berkeley Heights and William A. Wolf of Rahway obtained 424 and 495 votes respectively in an uncontested bid for the party nod in the November assembly race.

In the Democratic freeholder race Mrs. George (Leda) Persely received 362, Anthony Amalfi 402 and Abraham Rosenzweig 381 votes in their bid for party backing.

New congressional district for Rahway on Dem maps

Will United States representative Matthew J. Rinaldo be the last Union County resident to represent a congressional district based primarily in the county?

Probably not, but plans formulated by Governor Brendan T. Byrne and his Democratic-controlled state legislature would, if put into effect, divide the county into three parts of which at least two would be dominated by Essex County.

Rahway is part of the 12th congressional district which includes all of Union County except for Hillsdale, Linden and Winfield. Under the Democratic proposal the city would be joined with Elizabeth, Linden and Roselle plus the Essex County municipalities of Harrison, East Newark, Belleville, Nutley and a large part of Newark.

Union, Springfield, Mount Pleasant, Roselle Park and Hillside would be united with the remainder of Newark plus East Orange, another Essex County municipality.

According to many political analysts such a redistricting would guarantee to Democratic representative Peter W. Rodino, Jr. a "safe" Democratic district which would include Rahway.

Representative Rodino, made nationally famous through the televised Watergate hearings, represents the heavily black 10th district dominated by Newark.

Since he is a politician with strong liberal credentials, he had no trouble carrying his present district in the last election. Thus others analysts feel the redistricting would be more to open a seat for a black Democrat than as a favor to representative Rodino.

Analysts also say by creating two strong Democratic districts the redistricting would eliminate representative Rinaldo, the Republican from the lower house.

The western portion of Union County, which includes Clark, would be joined with communities in Middlesex, Morris, Somerset and Essex Counties.

Raising the possibility an out-of-county politician would fill that seat as well.

The proposal was revealed by the Democratic governor on May 15. Soon after the major politicians who would be affected by the move voiced their opposition.

Governor Byrne's administration is not mandated to change the congressional districts by any court order, representative Rinaldo stated, noting the present alignments, established by the courts in 1972, are closer to the one-man, one-vote standard than in any other state.

"The court has spoken in favor of sticking as close as possible to traditional county lines," the Republican national legislator said. "This gerrymander would outdate the counties and seriously weaken the effectiveness of county organizations, both Democratic and Republican."

It was also feared the redistricting would complicate the operation of countywide agreements and agencies such as a newly established plan for revenue sharing through a county agency.

Newark mayor Kenneth Gibson, considered by some a possible congressional candidate if a new district is created, objected to the plan saying the important thing is to meet the needs of his city and not the possible election of a black representative.

Gift of American Legion men represents New Jersey in British memorial park

Through the efforts of members of Rahway post no. 5 of the American Legion New Jersey finally is represented in Roosevelt Memorial Garden in Dorset, England.

The garden was designed and constructed by George Suber and other members of the 22nd United States general hospital medical corps of the United States army and was dedicated on May 30, 1945.

Soil, shrubs and trees for the park, located at the school of signals in Blandford Camp, were provided from states throughout the union as a memorial to the men of the American and allied armies who gave their lives in World War II.

However Paul Konic, a past commander of the city post and member of the national cemetery committee, learned from a city resident who was vacationing in England that New Jersey was not represented in the park.

Accordingly in January Mr. Konic sent a letter major R. J. Haywood, manager of the park, asking how such a situation could be corrected.

The major told Mr. Konic of two park projects legion members could join. The first was the erection of two 40-foot pine flag staffs and the second the placement of garden seats which could be donated by interested people or organizations.

The garden-seat project met with the approval of city post members. Mr. Konic noted. Final approval of the project was given by state officials soon afterward.

Major Haywood explained most of the park was not represented. The situation was corrected on May 23 when a plaque was placed on a park seat donated by members of the American Legion with the men in Rahway post no. 5 in the lead.

Because the letter appeared to be a photostatic copy, Mr. Schrof thought it was only for his information.

"He noted it is not his responsibility to forward a party-related document and would have declined to do so had specific instructions been given.

"It is like writing a letter to the president and delivering it to the governor with the expectation that he will mail it for you," the city clerk noted.

While conceding it was a form letter, Mr. Fulcomer said various items were typed onto it and signatures in ink were affixed to it. He agreed it was not in an envelope.

The party chairman said he received instructions from his county organization that appropriate forms should be delivered to the city clerk.

He said he was sure there was nothing intentional done on the part of the clerk and said most likely it was an oversight or misunderstanding.

Mr. Fulcomer said he could not recall what procedure was used in past years, Mr. Schrof said such a request had never been made on his staff.

Mr. Wagenhoffer declined the opportunity to present comments for publication.

"The rest of the mix up was the city county committee aspirants did not appear on the regular party line although they did carry the slogan 'Regular Republican Organization of Union County.'"

$200 million in notes to be offered by Merck

Officials of Merck and Company, Incorporated announced the filing with the securities and exchange commission of a registration statement relating to the proposed public offering of $200 million of notes due June 15, 1985.

Goldman, Sachs and Company was designated manager of the nationwide underwriting group which will market the notes to the public for the city-based pharmaceutical firm.

Net proceeds from the financing will be added to the general funds of the company and will be redeemable at the company's option at the principal amount plus accrued interest.

The notes will not be redeemable prior to June 15, 1982. On and after that date they will be redeemable at the company's option at the principal amount plus accrued interest.

Merck is a worldwide organization engaged primarily in the business of discovering, developing, producing and marketing products and services for the maintenance and restoration of health. The company's line includes more than 1,000 products.

Members of city adjustment board approve two, hold one variance

Of the three requests heard by members of the city board of adjustment on May 19, two were approved and one was taken under advisement.

The request of Mrs. Peter (Virginia S.) Orton of 911 Bryant Street for a variance to construct on a lot of insufficient frontage was approved. The lot is the Bryant Street address for which she was earlier given a subdivision.

Her variance will also need the approval of city councilmen, according to Mrs. John (Janet) Moran, board secretary. A variance to legalize the two-family dwelling of Antonio Garay of 1761 Rutherford Street met with approval at the meeting in council chambers of city hall.

Mrs. Moran explained the present structure, located at the Rutherford Street address, does not have sufficient area. She said no further action will be needed.

Ecumenical service will mark beginning of city '76 events

With the ringing of church bells throughout the city, Rahway residents of all creeds will gather on Sunday, June 8, at Veterans Memorial Field on Central Avenue for an ecumenical service to mark the beginning of the city's celebration of the national bicentennial.

The service of thanksgiving will begin at 3 p.m. The theme will be "One Nation Under God." In case of rain the service will be held in the auditorium of Rahway High School.

Guest speaker at the assemblage will be representative Matthew J. Rinaldo of the 12th district, the Republican representative for Rahway. He will speak on America's religious heritage and freedom.

The Rahway Junior High School chorus under the direction of Mrs. Robert Leech will assist in the singing of hymns. Music will be provided by the Junior High school band under the direction of Harold Magee.

In conjunction with the service there will be a display of religious banners and flags at the outdoor service.

The event was conceived and developed by members of the mayor's bicentennial committee chaired by Herbert H. Kiehn.

On May 30 mayor Daniel L. Martin issued a proclamation which said the gathering would be "in keeping with the highest traditions of our nation and would be 'in accordance with the spirit that gave birth to our great democracy.'"

Robert W. Schrof, letter should be forwarded along with the other material.

According to Mr. Schrof, no such instructions were ever given to anyone in his office. He said the letter, a single sheet without an envelope, was merely handed in with the other papers.

Move to alter city legal staff fizzles at special council meet

A move to reshape the office of the director of law materialized then faded at a special meeting of Rahway councilmen held in council chambers at city hall on June 3 to act on a municipal salary ordinance.

After sponsors of the move to alter staffing in the legal department rescinded their amendments to the ordinance, councilmen voted 6-2 to postpone action on the salary measure until their regular meeting on Monday, June 9, at 8 p.m. in council chambers in city hall.

The ordinance was postponed from the May council session to allow for further discussion upon the motion of second ward Republican councilman John C. Marsh.

A bipartisan coalition of Democratic councilman-at-large Tor Cedervall and Republican councilmen Louis G. Boeh of the sixth ward, Peter M. Donovan of the fifth ward and Richard J. Vojnyk of the third ward plus councilman Marsh passed two amendments affecting the director of law.

The first reduced the salary of the director from $17,280 to $12,500. Voting against this were Democratic councilmen-at-large Francis R. Senkowsky and Wilson D. Beauregard, council president.

Fourth ward Democratic councilman Walter McLeod did not vote and first ward Republican councilman Eugene D. Gentsch was absent from the roll call.

Passage was strongly attacked by councilman Senkowsky who said the reshaping of the department was illegal since positions are established by law and cannot be changed through amendments to a salary ordinance.

The Democrat, who earlier got into a sharp verbal exchange with councilman Marsh, then left the podium in protest.

'Money Mouse' to star as promotion for bank

With tongue planted firmly in cheek, First Federal Savings and Loan Association executive vice president Michael E. Barrett announced the "appointment" of a new spokesman for the 67-year-old savings and loan institution.

The latest addition to the organization's staff is named "Money Mouse," Mr. Barrett said the character follows the tradition of his famed cartoon counterparts Mickey Mouse and Mighty Mouse and will carry the title of "vice president in charge of advertising."

Mr. Barrett explained Money Mouse will perform as a communications service for the institution informing customers and area residents of the personal financial services offered by this firm.

Future plans, he said, call for bringing Money Mouse to life with appropriate costumes and personal appearances throughout the Union, Middlesex and Monmouth Counties area served by First Federal.

At present the association has seven locations including the main office in Westfield and branches in Clark, Edison, Freehold, Mountaineer, South Plainfield and Woodbridge.

AMERICAN HEROS REMEMBERED... The Clark Memorial Day parade was a many-sided affair ranging from solemn services at Veterans Park to a jubilant march through the township. The parade was highlighted by the traditional drum and bugle corps and beautiful girls plus an unusual, albeit impressive, vehicle called the "Rolling Roundhouse."

Robins serve as reminder for city family

For many Clark and Rahway residents the heavy rains may have hid the presence of spring, but Lee Haselden of 1960 Price Street, Rahway, has had a nest of noisy neighbors to remind him.

It appears a family of robins decided to home-stay on the light on the awning above his front door. The birds moved in about six weeks ago and shortly thereafter began raising a family.

Mr. Haselden, a city resident since 1960, said the eggs in the nest hatched about two weeks ago and four baby birds are beginning to get their feathers and open their eyes.

Administration degree given to Rahwayan

Frank A. Johannessen of 619 West Lake Avenue, Rahway, received a master of public administration degree on June 1 in Carnegie Hall in New York City culminating three years of evening studies.

The degree was awarded by John Jay College of Criminal Justice, a senior college of the City University of New York.

Mr. Johannessen, who holds degrees in nautical science and history from the United States merchant marine academy at Kings Point, N.Y., and Keon College of New Jersey at Union, respectively, is manager of an employment information center of the waterfront commission of New York harbor.

Rahway pair given awards from college

Miss Wendy Lynn Saracen of 150 Jensen Avenue and Paul Shuster of 1004 Westfield Avenue, both of Rahway, were among 58 Union College students who were presented academic and college and community service awards on May 29 at the annual class night held in the campus center theatre in Cranford.

Miss Saracen was presented the Fables memorial biology award and Mr. Shuster was given the Crosby criminal justice memorial award.

Robert Weeks elected head of United Way

Robert L. Weeks, vice president of Exxon Research and Engineering Company, was elected president of the board of trustees of the United Way of Union County on May 28 at the sixth annual meeting at the Ramada Inn in Clark.

Also elected as trustees at large were doctor Burton C. Beldon of Cranford, James Sweeney, Miss Anne W. Attridge, contributions manager of Sohering Corporation, John L. O'Marra, director of purchased products for Western Electric Company in Springfield, and Palmer Patton, senior vice president of Summit and Elizabeth Trust Company.

Card party, fashion show set to help fifth ward club

To raise campaign funds a card party and fashion show will be held in the Hoffman-Koos auditorium on Saturday, June 21, starting at 12:30 p.m. and sponsored by the Fifth Ward Democratic Club of Rahway.

Plans were discussed at the May 8 club meeting in Rocky's Bar and Grill for the citywide Democratic club event, a Chinese auction on Tuesday night, May 27, at the city American Legion hall.

Ladies of all six ward clubs are in charge of the fundraising event which was very successful last year, according to chair-lady Mrs. Eugene O'Brien. She will be assisted by Mrs. Paul Ohrin.

Miss M. Anta Higgins, vice chairlady of the city Democratic Party and recording secretary of the citywide club, gave a report of the mini-convention of the Union County Democratic committee to select freeholder and assembly candidates.

Former ward club chairman John Delargy spoke on voter registration in regards to the November election. Ward club chair-lady Mrs. Tor (Stephanie) Cedervall reported all committee positions were filled, petitions filed and pink slips for board of elections workers submitted.

A membership campaign is planned for the fall.

Note endorsement

In last week's issue it was mistakenly reported that the Union County Republican Women's Club endorsed the assembly candidacy of Arthur A. Manner and Mrs. William (Linda) Wnuck. Actually the Rahway Republican Women's Club made the endorsement.

Win 'roller rally'

Jim Binairis won first, Billy O'Connor second and Mike Dohoney third place in the first roller skating rally ever held at Charles H. Brewer School in Clark.

Carl Chesley cited by army @ second time

An air force major from Clark was decorated with his second award of the United States army commendation medal in recent ceremonies at Scott air force base in Illinois.

Major Carl H. Chesley, son of Mrs. Henry H. Chesley of 19 Conger Way, Clark, was cited for meritorious service as a weather detachment commander and staff weather officer with the second armored cavalry regiment at Feucht army airfield in Germany.

Now assigned at Scott, he serves as a weather officer.

The major, a 1958 graduate of Rahway High School, received a bachelor of science degree in 1962 from the University of Rochester where he was commissioned through the reserve officers training corps program.

Rahway Hospital responds well to mock disaster in township

The groans and moans of the children and the prompt and decisive actions of the staff of Rahway Hospital and area first aid squads were realistic but fortunately the industrial explosion in Clark and the bus accident in Winfield were strictly mock disasters.

The "disasters" on the morning of May 18 were designed to test the ability of first aid squads and hospital staff members to respond quickly and effectively to disaster situations.

The drill came as a surprise to all but key squad members and hospital personnel.

The disaster, planned months in advance, materialized at 7 a.m. on Sunday when John Hopkins, president of the Rahway First Aid Squad began applying moulage to the intended victims to make their injuries appear realistic.

The victims were members of two boy scout troops and children of some of the squad members who were enlisted to help in the drill.

At 9:40 a.m. the hospital was notified of the explosion and began preparing to receive the victims. Squads from Rahway, Clark, Winfield, Colonia, Cranford and Westfield responded and by 10:07 a.m. the first victim arrived at the hospital.

In all 30 victims were sent to the city hospital. As they arrived physicians and nurses began sorting them according to the severity of their injuries using the triage system. Some were immediately whisked to the operating room, and some were sent for x-rays or given laboratory tests while others were sent to patient floors.

The hospital's conference room was set aside for burn and shock victims. Three of the mock victims were firemen including one stricken with a heart attack and two overcome by smoke inhalation.

Meanwhile a second "disaster" struck: a busload of children collided with a car in Winfield at 10:47 a.m. The Winfield police called the Winfield First Aid Squad but it was tied up with the Clark disaster.

They then notified the mobilization chairman of the New Jersey First Aid Council who began calls to Roselle, Linden, Garwood, Roselle Park, Farwood and Hillside squads and to the Union callmen.

There were 15 victims in the second disaster, most with lacerations and fractures. At 11:03 a.m. an all clear was sounded for the first disaster and at noon there was an all clear for the second.

Throughout the mock disasters police used HEAR, the emergency radio system installed in the hospital and first aid rigs within the past year, to determine vital information such as the availability of beds and personnel. The disaster was said to have helped hospital and squad personnel to assess the strengths and weaknesses of their plans to respond to disaster situations. Involved in the planning were doctor Frederick Palmieri, chairman of the hospital's disaster committee, and Edward Guy, director of security at the hospital.

Also Irving Memberg, captain of the city squad, Arthur Peluso, captain of the township squad, Clark police and fire department personnel and Clark civil defense council members, State First Aid Council, second district members and Arthur Slinger, director of security at Cosmair, incorporated, the site of the mock disaster also participated in the preparations.

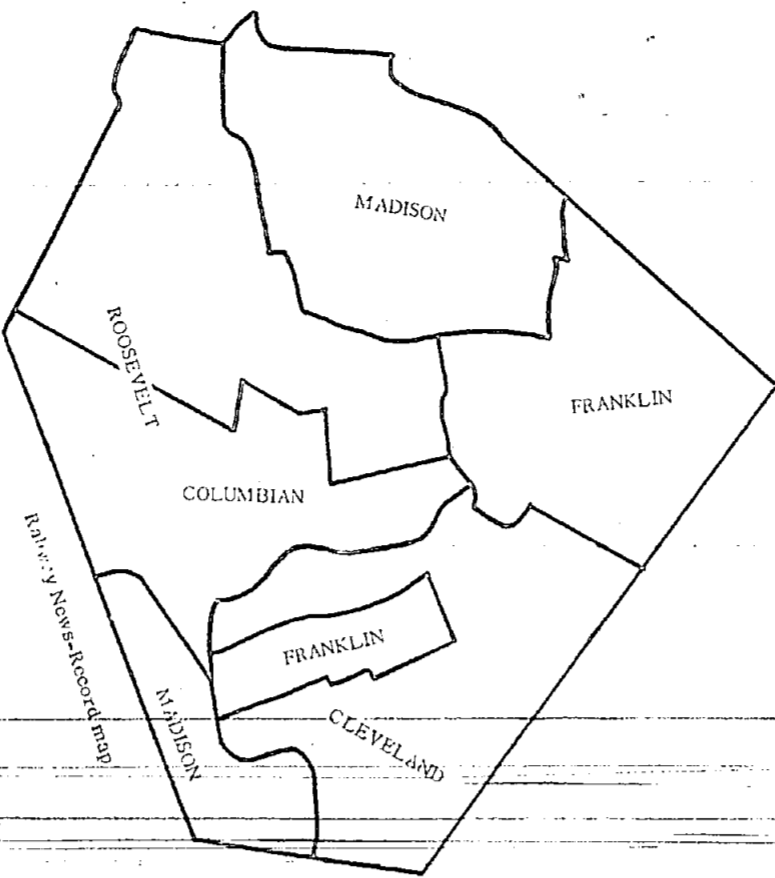

In addition agencies in Rahway were notified that the drill would be called out of their area and that Rahway Hospital would receive all victims.

Installation ceremonies for newly-elected officers of the American Association of Retired Persons, incorporated, chapter no. 607 of Rahway, will be held Thursday, June 12, at 1 p.m. at the senior citizens center, 1306 Esterbrook Avenue, Rahway.

A refreshment hour commencing at noon will precede the business meeting and installation. All officers were unanimously elected at the May 8 club session.

Those chosen were Cass Belger as president, Arthur S. Degroat as first vice president, Harry T. Enquist as second vice president, Mrs. George (Madeline) Desch as treasurer, Mrs. George (Anne) Noterup as recording secretary, Randolph Gilman as chaplain and Harry Hanf as three-year trustee.

PROPOSED NEW ATTENDANCE AREAS

Proposed school areas announced by Brunette

The proposed school district map for Rahway elementary schools, which will be discussed at a special board of education meeting on Monday, June 9, was revealed by assistant superintendent of schools Frank D. Brunette.

The meeting will begin at 7:55 p.m. at Roosevelt School on St. George Avenue, according to the assistant superintendent.

Mr. Brunette said the map was based on an attempt to equalize case loads in all the schools and at the same time create racial balance.

He said this explains why the attendance area for Franklin School consists of two, unconnected locales. The first is bordered by the northerly side of Westfield to Madison Avenue, both sides of Westfield to St. George Avenue and the easterly side of the latter south to Central Avenue.

From there it is marked off by the northerly side of Central Avenue to the North Branch and along the river until a line running to the westerly side of Allen Street.

The second part of the Franklin School district will be both sides of Montgomery Street from the river to the southeast of East Milton Avenue, from there the southwesterly side of the street to Washington Street and from there both sides of Bond Street north to East Grand Avenue.

The first will extend from the Clark border taking in the southern side of Westfield Avenue until Madison Avenue. From there it will run along a line to the south of the southern side of Westfield Avenue to St. George Avenue.

It will proceed along the latter street taking in the western portion of it until West Lake Avenue. It will then extend along a line north of the northern side of the latter road until Madison Avenue.

From that intersection until the Clark border it will be marked by the northern side of West Lake Avenue.

The second part of the Madison district will start at the intersection of the Rahway River with Linden and follow the water to Route no. 1.

From there it will follow a straight southwesterly line stopping at the east of the eastern side of Leesville Avenue. It will end along the northeasterly side of Martin Street to the Woodbridge border.

The Grover Cleveland School district also starts where the river enters Linden and goes to Main Street. It proceeds along the northeasterly side of the street to the intersection with Central Avenue.

From there it follows a line to apoint in the river and again follows the river stopping at a point west of the westerly side of Allen Street.

The combined district for the two schools starts at the intersection of West Lake Avenue and Beechwood Drive.

To mark off the Cleveland portion follow the railroad lines up from Woodbridge to a point south of the south side of East Hazelwood Avenue. It goes from there to a point west of the western side of Jaques Avenue.

It extends along the west of the western side of that road to West Milton Avenue where it proceeds east including the southern portion of the street until a point west of the western side of Campbell Street.

From that point it follows a straight line up to the intersection with Central Avenue.

Installation program set for city retirees' group

Installation ceremonies for newly-elected officers of the American Association of Retired Persons, incorporated, chapter no. 607 of Rahway, will be held Thursday, June 12, at 1 p.m. at the senior citizens center, 1306 Esterbrook Avenue, Rahway.

and guests on May 22. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Witcofski, in charge of the affair, were assisted by a large committee.

Walter S. Clapp, special program chairman, announced there are still a few openings for those interested in a trip to the midwest which will begin Tuesday, August 12.

The first business meeting after the summer vacation will be on Thursday, September 11, according to publicity chairwoman Mrs. Desch.

Wine not? By Enrico

Good wine deserves good wine glasses. You needn't choose exquisite crystal goblets costing $20 to $30 apiece; the glasses should, by their design, add to your enjoyment of the wine.

Clear glass, to be sure, not tinted or cluttered with "cute" designs. How else will you admire the wine's color and clarity?

The glass will be big enough so you can fill it less than half-way, so you can swirl the wine around and release the bouquet. Big enough so you can get your nose in to sniff that bouquet. If you choose only one wine glass, better too big than too small.

Good glasses deserve good wines. Choose yours from the complete assortment at

Right of non-smokers not to breathe smoke upheld by legislation

By E. Sidman Wachter

Nobody will deny we live in a free country and individuals who wish to breathe the lungs and pollute the air in their homes have a perfect right to do so. However when it comes to breathing the air in enclosed areas which is also breathed by non-smokers, it is a different matter. Scientists have statistically determined inhalation of tobacco smoke is detrimental to health.

Most people who ride public transportation in New Jersey have watched a bus driver, sitting right under a "No-Smoking" sign, derisively smoking a cigarette. Others have undergone the frustration of asking a bus passenger to stop smoking and receiving insolence and defiance rather than compliance. Requesting the bus driver's assistance in enforcing such regulations is usually non-productive.

All this should be changed and will be if a bill now pending in the state legislature receives loud backing from non-smokers, former smokers and concerned environmentalists. Assembly bill no. 1780 would prohibit smoking in public places, except in areas marked "smoking permitted." Signalized are certain hospital rooms, elevators, indoor theaters, libraries, art museums, concert halls, public meeting rooms, elementary or secondary school buildings and athletic facilities and railroad passenger cars or buses used by or open to the public. A civil penalty of $100 would be levied for an offense committed in an area frequented by children and a civil penalty of $25 in other cases.

This commendable, common-sense bill was introduced a year ago by 31 state legislators. Unfortunately 22nd district legislators are conspicuous by their absence. Why not write assemblywoman Mrs. James (Betty) Wilson of Berkeley Heights and assemblyman Arnold D'Ambrosia of Rahway and seek their support.

Support of this proposed legislation, which is still languishing in the committee of Institutions, Health and Welfare, is being spearheaded by New Jersey Group Against Smoking Pollution, or GASP, a citizens' group headquartered in Summit. It is fighting a battle for the comfort and health of New Jersey residents.

Fundamental answers to medical questions must precede reforms

By United States senator Clifford P. Case

It is an old cliché but is just as true today as it ever was: nothing is more important to you than your health, especially when it is in good. And illness is no respecter of age or economic status. It is something we must all face at some point in our lives. In light of the administration request for a one-year moratorium on new federal spending programs, final action on a program as large as national health insurance is not likely this year. So we have time to find the answers we need.

I am particularly pleased the technology assessment board, the research arm of congress on which I serve as vice chairman, has received recommendations from its advisory council on how best to proceed on assessments in the health area.

The advisory council was headed by doctor Frederick Robbins, a Nobel laureate and president of Rockefeller University. The council recommended the office of technology assessment undertake studies of five important health areas: medical malpractice and insurance, medical technologies, hospital out-patient services, medical records and health information and adverse drug reactions. There were selected as the most important from a number of studies requested by legislative committees of the congress.

The federal government already pays for some $40 billion a year in medical care or 40% of the total costs. Judgments in the rising number of malpractice suits are causing sky-rocketing premiums and forcing medical bills up even more. We need to come up with alternatives which would reduce these costs.

In the area of medical technologies, where the taxpayer pays for almost all of the medical research undertaken, questions also arise as to the best use of public money. Should funds be used primarily in pursuit of the technology needed to prevent or cure disease or should they be directed at means of controlling diseases for which no cure is presently known? What should the role of the public be in reaching these decisions?

Expanded provision of out-patient services in recent years has added tremendously to the cost of running a hospital. Large numbers of people now rely on these services as their primary source of medical care. We need to find out if some of these medical services could be provided elsewhere more efficiently, at the same time insuring the patient is treated humanely.

The use of computers to store medical records raises the question of the protection of the confidentiality of the physician-patient relationship. Computer use in the medical field could expand greatly but this question would have to be resolved as well as others such as standardization of the vocabulary used.

Adverse drug reactions cause longer hospital stays and thus increase the costs of medical care. A number of studies have been carried out in this area and they reveal up to 80% of these reactions need never have occurred. Some 130,000 people die from such reactions each year. We urgently need to analyze the recommendations made in these studies and revise existing procedures accordingly.

All of this means if we are going to have a viable system of national health care we must take a long, hard look at ways to bring down its cost while at the same time improving its quality.

Letters to the editor Mrs. Wnuck criticizes Wagenhoffer, Mrs. Rinaldi for newspaper letter

As a recent primary election candidate for the general assembly and as a Republican committee woman, I think the people of Rahway should be aware of the duplicity of George Wagenhoffer and his protégé Mrs. Irene Rinaldi.

Both of these characters were at the Rahway Republican Union County Committee meeting which endorsed Arthur A. Manner for the assembly. Mr. Wagenhoffer actually moved the motion to endorse Mr. Manner and he even leveled a vicious verbal attack on the candidacy of former freeholder William J. Maguire which caused city chairman James J. Fulcomer to come to Mr. Maguire's defense because both Mr. and Mrs. Fulcomer think Mr. Maguire has very fine credentials.

The motion endorsing Mr. Manner carried unanimously. There were no abstentions. At the city committee meeting which endorsed my candidacy Mr. Wagenhoffer was present. The motion carried unanimously. There were no abstentions. At the Republican Club meeting which endorsed my candidacy Mrs. Rinaldi was present. The endorsement carried unanimously and there were no abstentions. After in fact voting for endorsements of the Mr. Manner and Mrs. Wnuck team these unreliable characters last week publicly urged our opponents to be supported instead. Their irresponsible actions in this instance and elsewhere constitute a betrayal of the Republican organization in Rahway and in the peculiar case of Mrs. Rinaldi also a betrayal of the Young Republicans, whose cause both Mr. Manner and myself espoused, along with the cause of women Republicans and Republicans in the fourth ward.

On the basis of this and other experiences with Mr. Wagenhoffer and his "protégé" it is clear to me their word cannot be trusted, as to reasons for their unreliability, while Mr. Wagenhoffer is notorious for shooting from the hip and jumping to unwarranted conclusions Mrs. Rinaldi's motives for this betrayal and their absurd letter appear to be nothing more than base jealousy and an insatiable appetite for personal political advancement.

Mrs. William (Linda) Wnuck Primary assembly candidate 453 West Inman Avenue Rahway

Says Wagenhoffer, Mrs. Rinaldi censured by Young Republicans

This is to inform the public the Rahway Area Young Republicans at their last meeting unanimously voted to censure George Wagenhoffer and his ally, Mrs. Irene Rinaldi, for making false charges in their recent letter to the editor.

We also unanimously voted to ask our city Republican chairman, James J. Fulcomer, to run for reelection not only because of his outstanding integrity and service to the public but also because he is one of the most hard-working, unselfish and idealistic city chairmen in Union County, Rahway and the party need men like him if we are to have clean politics and good government.

As to Mr. Wagenhoffer and Mrs. Rinaldi we would suggest they carry out the responsibilities appropriate to the posts which they hold in our party; many responsibilities of which they have failed to do or worked harder or more efficiently and questionably manner.

Albert J. Petras Rahway Area Young Republicans Public Information Liaison 112 Russell Avenue Rahway

Miss Oppmann says action taken to stop claims from Wagenhoffer

Regarding the recent false charges made by George Wagenhoffer, this is to inform the public that at the last executive board meeting of the Rahway Republican City Committee we overwhelmingly voted to urge our city chairman to proceed with a libel suit if Mr. Wagenhoffer and his co-signers do not retract their false charges. This action was taken after hearing Mr. Wagenhoffer, what little his co-signers had to say and the facts of the matter.

We also overwhelmingly voted to ask our very fine city Republican chairman to run for reelection. We know no one in Rahway has worked harder or more honestly in executing the responsibilities of his office than our outstanding city chairman James J. Fulcomer.

Miss Joanne Oppmann Acting corresponding secretary of the Rahway Republican City Committee 934 Aggar Terrace Rahway

New policy on sale stories necessitated for newspaper

Articles reporting garage or rummage sales, Chinese auctions, flea markets or similar sale events will have to be accompanied by an advertisement in order to be published in The Rahway News-Record and The Clark Patriot.

The new policy will take effect as of the issue of May 22. It will cover sales conducted by all civic and social organizations including charitable and religious societies.

According to a spokesman for the newspaper, the new policy is necessitated by rising costs and an increased demand for editorial space. It was noted such articles are in a sense already advertising.

While no dollar value will be established as a standard, the smallest advertisements which will be possible are classified or small display notices.

Public service work in return for college should be considered

By representative Matthew J. Rinaldi

More than 1,200 students attending colleges and post-high school vocational training in Union County will share more than a half million dollars in various federal loan and student grant programs in the next academic year. The figures do not include the amount of money available to Union County residents attending institutions of higher learning outside the county and the state.

Despite this impressive amount of federal aid there is not enough money to keep abreast of sharply rising costs. In the last decade college costs increased 15% faster than the cost of living index. By next fall tuition, room and board will rise by another 6 to 8%, according to the College Entrance Examination Board.

I have received many complaints from middle-income families who feel too much attention and resources are directed towards minority students.

Competition for academic dollars is breeding a great deal of hidden resentment against New Jersey's open enrollment system.

The loudest protests concern medical schools where thousands of highly qualified students are rejected because of quotas for minority students with much weaker academic records. It was precisely for this reason I supported an amendment to legislation before the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee to reject any kind of quota system for admission to medical schools.

In my judgment all students should be entitled to equal consideration for admission based on their academic record and not on any arbitrary quota established by some bureaucratic agency of government.

This would not by itself resolve the problem of financing higher education, I believe we must have a more imaginative approach that balances the needs of students and the demands of the community to receive something directly in return for the public's support of higher education. The public is obligated by law to provide students with a college education.

One interesting idea which deserves study is to have high school graduates earn work credits in public service jobs which would entitle them to state scholarships and low interest loans for college.

What I have in mind is a broad plan under which qualified high school graduates could earn their way into our public and private colleges by working at minimum wages in such critical areas as nursing homes, mental institutions, homes for the retarded, juvenile centers, conservation corps or in military service.

Each year of such employment would qualify a student for two years of federal aid and state assistance for college, either through grants, scholarship money or low-interest loans, or a combination based on financial ability and the cost of tuition. The program would raise the levels of a family's income to give middle class students equal opportunity to qualify along with other groups. Academic achievement and work performance would be major factors in qualifying.

Practically speaking, we had this form of financial aid in the late forties and early fifties when World War II and Korean War veterans flooded by the millions into our colleges. They earned their way and they had managed sufficiently to make good use of their college education.

Mackow, Mrs. Fulcomer challenge assertions made by Wagenhoffer

The latest piece of fiction from the pen of George J. Wagenhoffer is so filled with falsehoods and misinformation one wonders whether he isn't touch with reality.

As witnesses to the screening committee proceedings which Mr. Wagenhoffer ignorantly refers, it should be noted our city chairman in his capacity as parliamentarian stated he considered the proceedings of the screening committee to be illegal because of the recent Camden County grand jury indictment and because of its voting members at the time consisted only of heads of committees which were forbidden to endorse prior to the primary elections.

In addition two city chairmen voiced similar views on the illegality of that screening. Moreover our city chairman strongly objected to the elimination of state committee members and Young Republicans from the screening committee when this illegal action took place in February and stated at the February meeting that with the exclusion of youth, women, blacks and state committee members, he considered whatever argument for legality which the screening committee had was at that moment wiped out.

He also stated he personally would not be bound by the decision of such an illegal screening committee and his action on a possible primary contest would be only in accordance with the wishes of our city committee.

Also it has been the standing policy of the Rahway Republican city committee for at least a year that Republican youth, women and blacks should have representation on all key decision-making bodies of the Republican organization.

The Rahway Republican organization and its leader, unlike Mr. Wagenhoffer, are not in the habit of bed-mouthing. We simply have had a difference of opinion with certain party co-leaders on whether the base of the party should be broadened and on whether we should promote only the most qualified persons as candidates.

As far as Mr. Wagenhoffer's strange obsession with the work "kingmaker" goes, we can only note the individual who has tried the hardest to be the "kingmaker" is none other than Mr. Wagenhoffer. The only trouble is the majority of our Republican workers do not share Mr. Wagenhoffer's wild ideas and as a result he is seeking an outlet for his frustrations and is winning the misinformation award of the year.

Finally we must note if everyone did as little work as Mr. Wagenhoffer did last year we would have lost the last mayoral election by two-thousand votes instead of only 89.

Mrs. Wnuck, Manner carry city, but lose

The lone challenger, William A. Pagano who ran on the slogan "no state income tax," garnered 84 votes.

Returning to the Republican side freeholder hopefuls Walter Ulrich of Rahway and Herbert J. Hellmann, Jr., both incumbents obtained 317 and 294 votes respectively. Mrs. John (Rose Marie) Sinnott tallied 296.

On the Democratic side Mrs. Wilson won 2,512 votes and Mr. Wolf 2,361 districtwide.

In the freeholder races Mrs. Peregely had 8,835, Mrs. Amalie 9,904 and Mr. Rosenzweig 9,238 votes countywide. Mr. Pagano received 3,577.

On the Republican side Mr. Ulrich obtained 9,499, Mrs. Sinnott 9,505 and Mr. Hellmann 9,489 votes countywide according to the preliminary returns.

In the most hotly-contested race, the Republican assembly battle, scattered support for the team of Messrs. Maguire and DiFrancesco appeared throughout the city.

In the first district of the second ward they beat their foes—Mrs. Maguire tallied 10 and Mr. DiFrancesco nine votes to Mr. Manner's seven and Mrs. Wnuck's three.

In the first district of the third ward the total votes for the organization-backed pair was 12 to their opponents' 11 and in the fourth district of the fourth ward it was 11 to their rivals' nine.

In the third district of the fifth ward Messrs. Maguire and DiFrancesco scored 31 combined votes to 30 for the team of Mrs. Wnuck and Mr. Manner and in the fourth district of the sixth ward the organization-backed pair pulled 17 votes to the challengers' 16.

Staff offers suggestions on club press releases

The staff members of The Rahway News-Record and The Clark Patriot welcome news items and press releases from club publicity chairmen and readers, and to help them with their statements they offer a few suggestions.

Whenever preparing a statement on a future event be sure to include the full address of where the affair will take place plus the exact time it will start. Always be sure to designate participants by their full names, avoiding nicknames, and by their organizational titles. It is impossible to identify an individual too fully.

One item often omitted is the "why" of a story. Always be sure to explain why a meeting will be held, why a fundraiser is being undertaken or why someone will receive an award.

Also remember other readers may not be as familiar with an organization as are club members. Therefore avoid jargon and explain fully what the event being planned will include.

When a past event is being described both the date and location of the occurrence should still be given, although an exact time and street address would no longer be vital. Information on names would still apply.

When describing a series of events remember future occurrences always have preference over past incidents. They should be detailed first in the release.

Many publicity chairmen write fine releases but forget to include a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the newspaper, 1470 Broad Street, Rahway.

No other household appliance is called upon to do as big a job, with so little attention, as an automatic gas-fired water heater. Just set the thermostat at the desired temperature, and you should get years of satisfactory service without interruption.

Selecting the proper location for your automatic gas water heater is a matter for careful study. Whether you are building a new home, remodeling an older home, or replacing an old water heater, these are the most important things to remember about the location of your water heater.

Hot Water... Get more faster, use less gas... with a new efficient Gas Water Heater

- It should be as close as possible to hot water outlets for economy and efficiency. For homes with long pipe runs, insulation of the pipes is recommended.
- It should be readily accessible, for servicing and to permit good housekeeping.
- It must conform to local codes as to surrounding wall clearances, so that there is a free circulation of air.
- It should be located as close as possible to the vertical vent.
- Your water heater should always rest on a strong, firm floor or base.
- Water piping should be of adequate size, capable of delivering a satisfactory flow of hot water to meet your requirements.

In weighing the value of the water heater, there is no escaping the old axiom that you get pretty much what you pay for. A quality appliance should give you greater longevity, a minimum of service calls, more satisfactory operation and better operating temperature control devices.

A new gas water heater big enough for your whole family can keep you in hot water—while conserving gas at the same time. With a modern unit, you'll have all the hot water you need for dishes, laundry, and baths or showers. No waiting, wishing or wondering.

These new efficient models, with their advance design safety features, recover hot water much faster yet consume less gas than older units.

So you'll get that nice feeling that comes from conserving energy and saving money at the same time.

Visit our nearest showroom to see new models by famous Lovekin and A.O. Smith, ready for fast delivery. All carry a one-year warranty on parts and service. The tank has a ten-year warranty. At Elizabethtown, the price includes delivery and normal installation. Liberal credit terms are available.

ALJ swatters Deposit clippings in dump beat Westfield say flood committee people but lose to NP

The Clark Crusaders scored six runs in the last of the sixth as they walloped the Westfield Blue Devils 7-3 at Nolan Field.

The keys to the big Crusader inning were a two-run single by Jim Grygiel and three Blue Devil errors. Dave Watchilla hit a bases-empty homer in the third for Westfield.

Clark's record is 11-10 while Westfield's is 9-12. Winning pitcher was Mike Jasman who is 6-4 for the season.

North Plainfield utilized six of its nine to score all five runs in the last of the fourth as the Canucks defeated the boys from Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School 5-3 on Memorial Day.

Tony Santacross doubled two of the runs across. Bob Snyders was the losing pitcher. He is 4-5 on the season.

A call to Clark residents for cooperation in the dumping of grass clippings and other debris was sounded by members of the township flood control committee at a recent meeting.

"Residents have been observed dumping grass clippings in open fields, culverts and wooded areas," a spokesman noted. "With the rainy season upon us these clippings get washed down drain basins and after a while start to clog them and contribute to flood problems."

"In the Georgia and Carolina Streets storm project area some residents are dumping near the railroad tracks and also behind the homes which border Westfield," he continued.

NCE pupil cited Frank T. Stankiewicz of 14 Lexington Boulevard, Clark, was among 57 students of the New Jersey Institute of Technology who received certificates of completion on May 30. He finished a three-year program in architectural technology.

A 1973 graduate of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark, he joined the navy in July of last year.

Rinaldo says no to doctors on federal insurance plan

"Medical insurance coverage should remain a private matter with regulation or the insurance industry left to the states," declared representative Matthew J. Rinaldo.

The 12th district legislator was reacting to a two-week strike by doctors in northern California and threatened action by New York physicians who were protesting the rising cost of medical malpractice insurance.

While conceding the number of suits against doctors plus the cost of coverage against them is rising, representative Rinaldo also said, "Federal takeover of malpractice insurance would guarantee no improvements."

"The billions of dollars lost in the medicare and medicaid programs are a warning of what might happen if the federal government attempts to regulate medical malpractice," the Republican-national legislator said.

He claimed congressional enactment of a no-fault, medical insurance system would "stimulate a rash of small claims because of the ease of filing for compensation."

"The best remedy is the cheapest: mutual trust and medical competence," the representative-for Rahway and Clark concluded. "It is something money cannot buy and the government cannot legislate."

City man makes friends with 10-foot alligator

Clarence F. Oliver of Rahway has struck an acquaintance with a most unusual neighbor while he was vacationing in Florida. His new-found companion is a 10-foot long alligator.

The reptilian comrade is a resident of Jerry Lake in the adult community of Greenbrier in Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Oliver said he learned about the friendly alligator from a neighbor on Indigo Drive.

"He responds to the name George by clapping your hands and calling him at a distance of no greater than 700 feet," Mr. Oliver explained. "He responds as fast as his little feet can paddle him leaving a wake in the water like that made by a small boat."

The alligator then rests in the water about five feet from Mr. Oliver with his head pointed toward him. "I have found he likes white, whole wheat and raisin bread but does not care for apples or pears," he noted. "I tried to feed him dog food, the kind which looks like raw hamburger, but he nosed it and turned away."

Mr. Oliver explained George lives in a 65-acre lake well stocked with fish but posted with no-fishing signs. "I found the fish community of the lake very good."

Sticker plan enrolls 60%; will continue

About 60% of the automobile vehicles in Clark have been registered in the volunteer sticker program sponsored by members of the Clark Patrolmen's Benevolent Association and their honorary group, according to a project spokesman.

It was also said plans were made to continue the program into June with registration to be held every Saturday between noon and 4 p.m. and every Tuesday between 6 and 8 p.m. at the police range house.

The project aims at reducing long lines at the township dump caused by the necessity of having people show proof of residence, helping police identify vehicles in high-crime areas and reducing the number of calls to Trenton for registration checks.

The cost of the numbered stickers is 50¢. Registration will be free for senior citizens over 60 years of age.

This was an increase of $357,433 from last year's expenditure of $1,290,960 to this year's budgeted figure of $1,648,393, according to a survey released by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association. An association spokesman said inflation and "swelling enrollments" contributed to total county appropriations of $36.6 million this year for county community colleges. Trio of dogs at city kennel awaiting homes

A flop-eared young male German shepherd, a female Alredale mix who has all the markings of an Alredale, but is a little smaller than average and a female Weimaraner who was turned in for adoption by her former owner are awaiting adoption at Kindness Kennels, 905 St. George Avenue, Rahway.

The kennel has many good-natured, all-American pets for adoption. Many are cats and kittens. A friend of the kennel is caring for several young kittens who will soon be ready for adoption. Any resident interested in these kittens should telephone 382-2987.

As the weather gets warmer pet owners should be especially careful not to leave pets in parked cars even with the windows partially open. Temperature rises very fast regardless of whether the car is parked in the shade or sun. "Mutts Who Made It," a new booklet, is on sale at the kennel and in local stores for $1.95. Each purchase helps an orphaned pet.

Registration forms may be completed at any elementary school weekdays between the hours of 9 and 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Proof of birth plus immunization records will have to be presented. Pre-school candidates will also receive free visual and auditory screening by the school nurse.

Candidates in the Madison, Franklin and Roosevelt Schools attendance areas may register Monday through Friday. Candidates in the Grover Cleveland School attendance area may register Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and those in Columbia School on Thursday and Friday.

Final selection of candidates will be announced after state approval of the FY 76 title no. 1 application and the completion of a pre-school screening test. All registrants will be notified about the status of the application and the results of the screening tests.

Another important reason for a family not to delay its purchase of a home, Mr. Colangelo said, is because since the 1950s the value of an average American, single-family dwelling, including the land, has risen twice as fast as the rate of inflation.

He added, "Since inflation is expected to continue in the years ahead all of us will be hit by it. But the homeowner may be able to enjoy a large measure of comfort from the fact the market value of his house will be higher than when he purchased it this year.
