GOP condemns 'scare tactics' by Mayor Martin

The Rahway City Council majority condemned the administration of Mayor Daniel L. Martin for the mayor's announcement of layoffs of police, firemen and school guards.

The five added the announcement, "constitutes nothing more than a 'scare tactic' designed to protect the mayor's financially unnecessary job in the Public Works Division."

Council President and Second Ward Councilman John C. Harshbarger, "Essential services will not be reduced in any way. Police, fire fighters, and school guards provide the necessary protection to the lives and property of our citizens. There are the last department we should tamper with."

Councilman Martin did not rule out the possibility of reductions in those departments, but said the Republicans would have to first see the mayor's final budget, which was expected to be submitted to the governing body by Jan. 20.

"Until we see that budget," the Council president explained, "we do not know how deep the cuts will have to be to meet the 'scare' law, or where they can be made to have the least impact on services."

Sixth Ward Councilman James J. Pukoner recalled the Martin administration "has tried several times in the past."

Councilman Pukoner explained in 1973 the Republican Council majority was threatened with a law suit if they didn't support the cuts.

"Two of the five Republican councilmen, having been told they would be held personally responsible for any legal costs or penalties resulting from the cuts, renounced their votes to support the cuts," he said.

He said he would not bow to any pressure from any political bosses or special interest groups.

"My first allegiance must be to the residents of the Sixth Ward who put their trust in my word and their faith in my ability. I pledged to seek economic reforms and relief from high tax increases and I intend to carry out that pledge," he added.

"So far I have seen no evidence there is any need to eliminate any firemen, policemen, or school guards, and I am opposed to such cuts."

Councilman-at-Large Mr. Tom P. Shallick pointed out: "The administration has apparently set no priorities on services. They have stated all departments must suffer equally if Council reduces the budget, indicating the mayor has not considered the needs of the citizens at all."

Councilman Shallick said the budgeting thing is to establish a list of priorities in terms of the necessary services, putting police and fire protection, and the protection of children at the top of the list, and other services and unnecessary jobs, in the order of their importance to the citizens, at the bottom.

"This is not cutting from the bottom," she declared. "This is cutting from the top."

Mr. Shallick added across-the-board cuts are appropriate only if all services are of equal importance to the residents and if there are no unnecessary jobs.

"This is obviously not the case," she added.

Qualifications for school body are announced

The following qualifications to run for a seat on the Rahway Board of Education were announced by a Board spokesman this week.

Candidates must be able to read and write, must have been residents of the city for at least two years preceding the election, which will be held on Tuesday, April 7, this year, and they must submit a petition containing at least 10 signatures of registered city voters to the office of the school secretary, Anthony Russo, Jr., by 4 p. m. on Wednesday, Feb. 26.

According to Mr. Russo, petitions are now available in the office.

City residents will be voted on by the Board of Education to fill five seats this year.

Board members: Barry D. Henderson, Harold J. Young, and Richard B. Pukoner will have their terms expire.

Also to be voted on will be the two years remaining in the terms of:

City detective cited for capturing thief

A city detective who helped apprehend a man for running across the back of a car, was cited for his role in the capture of a thief.

The detective, John J. Jodie, was cited for his role in the capture of a thief who had stolen a car from a house on E. 10th Ave., Rahway, on Jan. 27.

The detective, John Jodie, was off duty and recovering from a recent attack when he noticed the man carrying a pillow case in the Jodie's back seat.

After the detective questioned the man and he attempted to flee, the policeman's son, Thomas Jodie, and two other city residents, James Conroy and Vincent DeLuca, Jr., chased the suspect to a house on Jasper Ave., Rahway, where he was caught.

"The Honorary Policemen's Benevolent Assn. members also presented a check for $500 to the city clerk of the Rahway Police Assn. for the year before."

Other awards were given to the following:

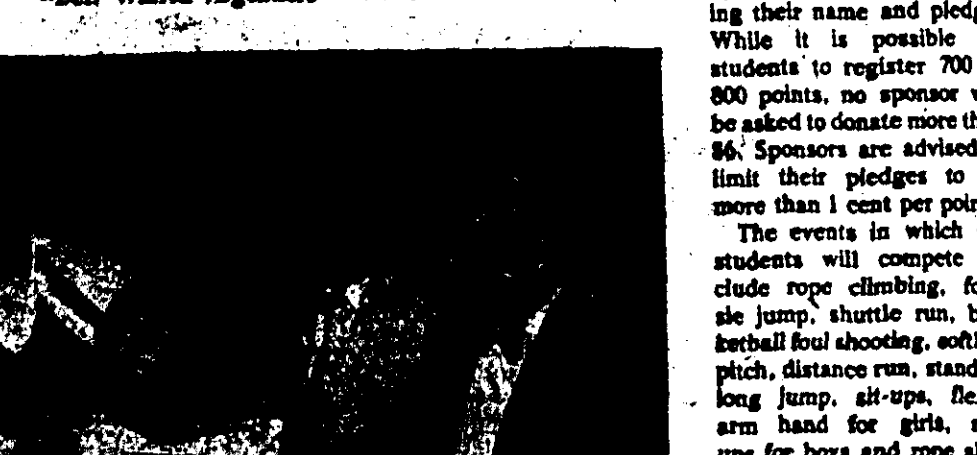

"Patrolman George Barak and James Kimble for investigating a person acting suspiciously on Hamilton St. and apprehending him to find out he had just taken part in a burglary."

"Det. Walter Fraz for arresting three suspects in an armed robbery at the Rahway 'Pantryville' Central Railroad Station."

"Patrolman James O'Leary and Richard Golia for assisting a building garage on W. Cherry St. and saving the lives of two occupants."

Det. Warren Argenteiro was cited for his role in the capture of a thief who had stolen a car from a house on E. 10th Ave., Rahway, on Jan. 27.

The "Superkids" event is being sponsored by the Rahway High School Key Club as one of its community service projects. It is open to all third, fourth and fifth-grade students, and will be held at 9 a. m. in Roosevelt School.

The boy and girl with the highest number of points will also receive special awards. There will be no registration fee and no admission charge. All activities will take place inside the school.

Sale ordinance introduced on geriatric-center site

The proposed construction of a geriatric center in Rahway came a step closer to reality Jan. 24 when City Council introduced an ordinance calling for the acquisition of the Washington School property from the Board of Education by the city and the Rahway Housing Authority.

If the ordinance is adopted at the regular Council meeting on Monday, Feb. 5, the city will pay $1 to the School Board for the acquisition and will contract with the Housing Authority for payment of an additional $50,000 for complete acquisition.

The total sum would be guaranteed by the city and would be payable no later than Wednesday, June 30, of next year.

After the acquisition the mayor and city clerk would be authorized to sell the property to the Authority for $1, providing the $50,000 is paid to the Board and the city is not held responsible for that payment.

Based on an announcement by Board members at their Jan. 19 meeting, the school body could vacate its offices, presently located in the school, by Wednesday, Aug. 12 of this year.

According to Anthony Russo, Jr., school business administrator, the deed may be transferred as soon as a written agreement is drawn up confirming the details of the acquisition.

Mr. Russo said the $50,000 will be used to renovate other schools in the district, to accommodate Board offices and to relocate present property at Washington School.

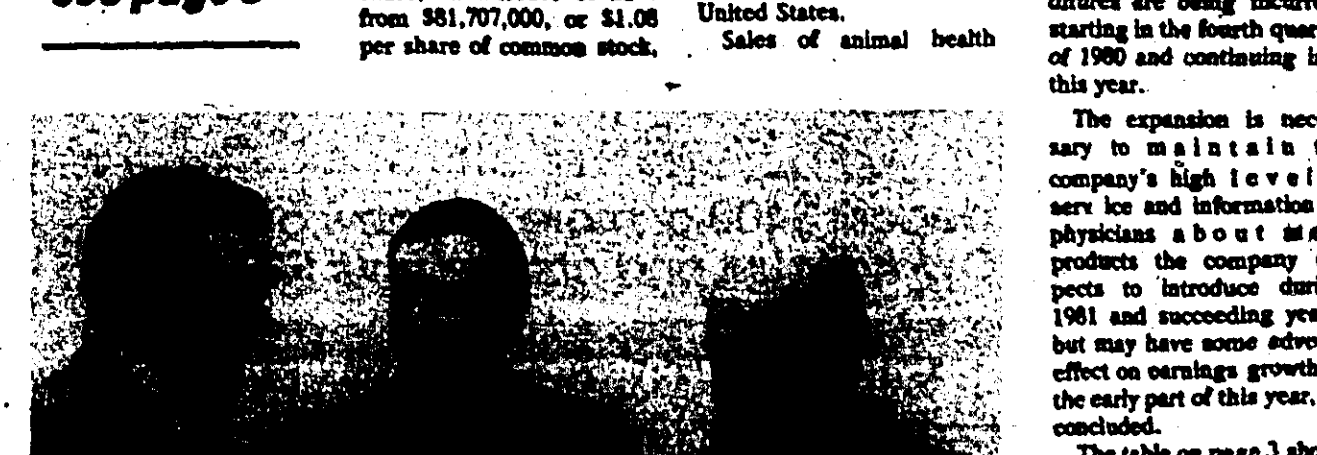

In other action, the Governing Body of the Rahway Housing Authority approved the 1981 temporary municipal budget to $135,440 for salaries and wages for operations, up from $131,000.

The municipal budget amendment brings the total current operating fund from $212,146.

"Amended the water utility's temporary budget for this year to provide a total of $135,440 for salaries and wages for operations, up from $131,000."

Merck sales increase 15% over 1979 total

A spokesman for Merck & Co., Inc. of Rahway announced sales for last year were $2,734,012,000, or 15% over $2,374,012,000 for the year before.

Net income for the year increased 14% to $433,984,000, or $5.79 per share, before adjusting for the previously announced change in 1980 to the last, first-out, LIFO method of valuing substantially all domestic inventories.

This company with net income of $433,984,000, or $5.79 per share, before adjusting for the previously announced change in 1980 to the last, first-out, LIFO method of valuing substantially all domestic inventories.

"Net income, before the LIFO adjustment, was $433,984,000, or $5.79 per share, an increase of 22% from $355,707,000, or $4.08 per share of common stock."

Sales for the fourth quarter of 1980 were $710,725,000, or 13% from $629,439,000 for the comparable period of 1979.

Net income, before the LIFO adjustment, was $181,707,000, or $2.18 per share of common stock.

The expansion is necessary to maintain the company's high level of service and information to physicians about new products the company expects to introduce during 1981 and succeeding years, but may have some adverse effect on earnings growth in the early part of this year, he concluded.

The table on page 3 shows the financial results for the company and subsidiaries for the quarter and 12 months ended Dec. 31, 1980, compared with the corresponding periods ended Dec. 31, 1979.

Last year the company adopted the LIFO method of valuing substantially all domestic inventories. LIFO or first-in-first-out data for 1980 are preliminary and may vary as more information is provided to the company's investors.

Brewer pupils chosen to take college tests

Five students at the Charles H. Brewer School in Clark were selected to participate in the Talent Research Project sponsored by the Office of Talent Identification and Development at John Hopkins University and the Office of Education, New Jersey Dept. of Education, announced school principal, David M. Hart.

The five Brewer seventh graders selected were Catherine Connelly, Julie DiGirolamo, Michelle King, Kim Prossack and Ellen Schiller.

"Students eligible to apply for the program," explained Mr. Sidney Hochman, guidance counselor, "had to be at the age of 12 or under who are currently achieving at or above the 95th percentile on a standardized achievement test in mathematics, verbal or combination scores."

Mr. Hart added, "These five youngsters recently took the Scholastic Aptitude Test along with college-bound high school students. Those who achieve a score equal to or superior to the average college-bound high school senior will receive a certificate of recognition for the achievement. Exceptionally high-achieving students will be invited to participate in a ceremony to honor their achievement at the end of the school year."

Statewide Savings reports record assets

The chairman of the Board and president of Statewide Savings and Loan Assn., Edward A. Maloney, announced increased deposits and continued growth for the past year, despite highly unfavorable economic conditions and widespread inflation.

According to Mr. Maloney, total assets for the 12-month period ending Dec. 31, 1980, were at the highest level in the association's history, climbing to $306,460,600.

Member savings also advanced to a new high with more than $20.3 billion in interest paid to depositors.

During 1980, Statewide Savings also continued to live up to its name in the way of expanded loanmaking and services. The institution's new Rahway office was successfully opened in March on St. George Ave. in the downtown Place Shopping Center.

The past year also saw the advent of interest-bearing checking accounts, now accounts at Statewide Savings, which now pay a 5.25% interest rate.

The association continues to offer the best legal rates on all savings and certificate accounts.
