Letters to the Editor Fiscal restraint will aid Clark education: Hamilton demonstrate overwhelmingly on Tuesday, April 7, they As a candidate for the Clark Board of Education. I must emphasize my belief in fiscal conservatism

This form of fiscal conservatism does not envision the irrational cutting of school budgets Rather, it stands for reasoned and rational cuts that do not adversely affect basic education The key words are performance and accountability That is, each program must be examined and held ac countable. It is unfortunate some people equate this fiscal conservatism with a lowering of quality They must be reminded quality of education is an in tangible factor that cannot be measured in dollars. One dedicated teacher is worth more than $1 million in audiovisual equipment It is even more unfortunate the present School Board has approved a budget that calls for a decrease in the key subjects of language and mathematics while at the same____ time increasing the overall budget by 7.5 percent. The error of this policy will be reflected in future aptitude tests, tests which heavily emphasize language and Gibson bid for governol mathematics skills. I believe a conservative basic educa-- tion is the best type of education for our children. # Storm cloud gathers over state-aid-cut talk

Rarely has reaction to a Governor's recommendation come more swiftly, and more harshly, than that which erupted in the Legislature when Gov. Brendan T. Bryne proposed the abolition of the $64-million-a-year program of minimum and to local school districts. Bipartisan opposition zeroed in on the governor's office almost immediately, much of it coming from individuals who had been rather strong and consistent sup-If the governor is successful in killing off this fivevear old aid program, the taxpayers in the 234 school ALL ABOUT ENERGY - Noel Neral a past president of the Rahway Kwanis Club is shown left presenting up for the loss In Union County, for instance, 14 districts stand to lose $6.9 million, the second largest loss total in the state. In his recommendation to eliminate the program, originally enacted as a part of the state income tax. package, the governor said it was never intended to be a permanent part of the state support for local education system and it was unfair to allocate funds to highproperty value districts. I find the governor's rationale to be amazing in its audacity

He never offered any support for his argument the program was to be eliminated after five years and, in fact, there was not a single legislative voice raised in agreement with that contention. On the contrary, many legislators pointed out rather bluntly the minimum-aid program was in the nature of a "sweetener," something which made voting for the enact "sweetener," something which made voting for the enact ment of an income tax somewhat more palatable.
