By R. R. Faszczewski Although the Rahway fire chief has called the cause of the fire at the city's Young Men's Christian Assn. accidental, he said the installation of smoke detec- tors could definitely have prevented the blaze from being as serious as it was. According to Chief Robert J. Duffy, the blaze, which occurred on Nov. 11 destroyed much of the older section of the YMCA, which housed the old bowl- ing alleys, offices and the men's dormitory was caused by the spontaneous ignition	Asked about the state requirement for smoke detectors in multiple-boarding units like that at the YMCA, a state official, Kelly Ganges of the Rooming and Boarding House Standard Bureau of the New Jersey Dept. of Community Affairs, said his agency just took over the responsibility for inspection of facilities like the "Y's" about a year ago, and was just in the process of identifying those facilities which needed inspection when the city blaze occurred. SPELLING IT OUT - The Clark school district had its first afternoon in-service session for the 1981-1982 school year on Nov. 9. The major speaker was Richard 8. Buchanan, center, the senior marketing manager for the Kottmeyer Publications of the Webster Division of the McGraw-Hill Book Co., who presented a spelling workshop for staff members at the Carl H. Kumpf School. This workshop was held for all kindergarten-to-eighth-grade teachers of spelling as an introduction to the use of the "Basic Goals in Spelling" series in the district this year. Special subject area teachers also had workshops in their particular fields as part of this in-service session.
