Health Fair to be held on Oct. 24

The city of Rahway will hold its Second Annual Health Fair on Sunday, Oct. 24, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Municipal Complex at the corner of Main St. and Milton Ave.

The fair is open to all residents, and will offer representation from over 50 health and social agencies providing information, consultation and free medical screening and tests, reports a city spokesman.

Tests and examinations will be available for detection of glaucoma, hearing deficiencies, both adult and pre-school children, lung disorders, hypertension, diabetes - a two-hour fast following a full meal is required; mouth disease, sickle cell anemia, curvature of the spine, colorectal cancer, breast cancer and podiatry (foot) problems, he added.

In addition, for $7.50, residents will be able to receive a C.B.C./SMAC-23 blood test, which is a complete blood count to detect blood disorders, as well as 23 other blood chemistries to detect various disorders such as kidney, liver, bone disease, cholesterol level and gout, the spokesman noted.

This test requires a six-to-12 hour fast prior to drawing blood, and only one sample is necessary. Free juice and pastries will be available following this test, it was pointed out.

Free leaf bags will be distributed courtesy of the city in addition to free manufacturer's samples from companies, he added. Transportation to and from the fair for senior citizens and the handicapped will be provided by the city. Arrangements may be made by telephoning 381-8000 no later than Thursday, Oct. 21, the spokesman explained.

In addition, six 20-pound (approximate weight) turkeys will be awarded from drawings from those participants in the various screenings, concluded Anthony D. Deige, health officer.

Hospital cites shutterbugs

The winners of the 1982 Rahway Hospital Photography Competition were treated to a celebration luncheon, and heard a critique of the winning entries by judges. Peter Russell and Greg Price recently.

The audio-visual coordinator for the hospital, Mr. Russell, said, "a successful photograph has got to have a strong impact."

Mr. Price, a photographer from Cranford, added, "the impact, plus the creativity and composition of the photograph" were the elements the judges took into consideration.

The Best of Show Award went to Dr. Eugene Lind of Edison for his photograph of the New York skyline.

Dr. Lind also took first-place honors in the people category, with second place in that category going to Juanito Canete, Jr. of Colonia.

Ann Kircher of Plainfield took first place in nature, and Tom Finer of Rahway took second place in that category. The first and second prizes in the category of places were taken by Dr. Theodore Chenkin of Carteret, and Barbara Stack of Perth Amboy, respectively.

The Ramblers Athletic Club also had a bowling team.

ROYAL WELCOME - Mrs. Sheila Huxford, the Parent-Teacher Assn. president, presented a six-by-eight-foot hallway mat to Rahway's Grover Cleveland School. The mat features a Rahway Indian insignia in red, white and black inlaid on a light-gray background. Red letters welcome visitors to the school. The perimeter of the mat is outlined in black. Mrs. Huxford stated the P. T. A. agreed to the purchase in order to contribute to the school spirit, which is already high. Arthur Lundgren, the school principal, left, stated the mat would be placed in the front entrance hallway, which is already identified as the "Grover Cleveland Hall of Fame," and includes banners and photographs of previous activities at the school.

Ramblers to sponsor 35th reunion

The 35th Annual Reunion of the Rahway's Rambler Athletic Club will be held on Thursday, Oct. 14, in the Elks Club on W. Milton Ave., Rahway.

The reunion dinner committee is the sponsor of the J. Howard "Oggie" Farrell Memorial Fund.

This fund is used to help a deserving Rahway High School student further his or her education.

Last year a brother and sister, Geraldine and Christopher O'Brien, were the recipients of this fund.

The Rambler Athletic Club was an amateur athletic club during the 1920's and early 1930's. Unlike most amateur clubs at the time, the Ramblers members played in several sports.

Mr. Singer started his athletic career at Dover High School and played halfback on the outstanding Rutgers University 1924 Football Team, playing with a backfield consisting of Homer Hazel, Henie Benkert, Buzz Terrill and Ozzie Nelson.

Later Mr. Singer coached the Rahway High School Football Team.

He was then appointed as the superintendent of schools, and served in this post for several years.

While the Ramblers were playing an independent football schedule at the Rahway River Park, Mr. Singer, along with Elmer "Doc" Armstrong were the officials.

Assisting Mr. Singer on the committee are Andrew N. Barnes, John Schmidt, Abe Keppen, John Gallo, Thomas Gagliardo and Ralph L. Smith.

The J. Howard "Oggie" Farrell Memorial Fund was established in Mr. Farrell's memory, as he was an outstanding member of the early Ramblers football teams, who joined the Canadian Army prior to the United States entry into the Second World War. He was killed in the Battle of the Bulge.

Other plans include possible health fairs for the community and a youth conference in which they will take part. The Annual March of Dimes Super Ride Bike-A-Thon will be held on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Rahway River Park will be the location, and all traffic will be blocked from the park on that day. Some 200 bikers are expected to participate. City man helps plan Pearl Harbor rite

A resident of Rahway, Benjamin Fleischman, who is a native of Jersey City and a veteran of the attack on Pearl Harbor, was recently named co-chairman of the nation's largest observance of Pearl Harbor Day Memorial Services, held annually at Liberty State Park in Jersey City, reports Richard T. Bozzone, Sr., the founder of the event, who was recently re-elected chairman for the memorial.

Mr. Fleischman was serving on board the U.S.S. Honolulu when the Japanese attacked the Hawaiian Islands on Dec. 7, 1941.

He served throughout World War II, and is a retired businessman. He is active in the Pearl Harbor Survivors Assn., and is involved in many civic and community activities.

The annual observance, founded in 1977, has become the biggest of its kind in the United States and commemorates the attack on Hawaii on Dec. 7, 1941, by the Japanese, what President Franklin D. Roosevelt immortalized as "The Day of Infamy."

Mr. Bozzone also chose Edward Meenan, an organization chairman of the Jersey City-East District Elks; Stanley Stine, a Navy veteran who served aboard the battleship, U.S.S. Missouri; Dr. John Kopycinski of the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry, and a Polish American leader, and George Danko, an Army veteran who was at the attack, as co-chairmen. Others will be named shortly, Mr. Bozzone said. Plans will be made to change the ceremony from an outdoors one to an interior one, possibly at the old Central Railroad Terminal, now being refurbished as part of the restoration and upgrading of the Liberty State Park area.

The memorial this year is set for Sunday, Dec. 5, the chairman announced.

Mrs. Rinaldi disavows Fulcomer campaign

Stating she is "fed up to the ears with name-calling, character assassinations and empty accusations," Republican Councilwoman Irene F. Rinaldi today formally disassociated herself from the campaign of the GOP mayoral candidate, James J. Fulcomer.

"I've maintained an arm's length position with regard to his campaign from the beginning," Mrs. Rinaldi pointed out, "because years of experience with his campaign tactics told me a nasty, vindictive campaign might develop. Anyone who has followed the progress of the campaign knows I was correct in this assessment."

"It's been a mess from the outset," she declared, "and I simply don't want my name associated with it or the people responsible for it."

Councilwoman Irene Rinaldi, the only local Republican to win a city-wide election since 1966, said the

GOP trio backs new jail managers

Union County Freeholders Blanche Banasiak of Elizabeth, Robert Miller of Berkeley Heights and Bernard Yarusavage of Clark and Freeholder candidate, John Kulish, pledged today to keep the administration of the Union County Jail out of the hands of elected politicians and in the hands of professional correctional officers only.

"Before the new Republican majority took the control of the jail away from the sheriff, political favoritism was the rule, and professional competence was not the criterion for advancement. Under the new professional management of our county jail the old political-patronage system has been rooted out, and a new system of striving for the highest professional standards possible has been established under the leadership of Freeholder Chairwoman, Freeholder, said Mr. Kulish.

Freeholder Yarusavage reported under the new professional management of the county jail, "significant improvements" have been noted by United States District Court Judge Harold A. Ackerman in controlling the prisoners and in prisoner services.

"Normal inmate-visitation privileges have been restored, and medical ap-

Mayor Martin: Change orders were normal

According to the April 20, 1981, post-construction report of the architects for Rayway's new City Hall and Police Headquarters, construction change orders amounted to 13% of the building cost, or $1.3 million. Mayor Daniel L. Martin described as "well below" the acceptable range of 15% to 20% for building projects.

"Construction budgeting and expediting, however, to be my profession," Mayor Martin said, "and certainly any project that is brought in with changes of only 4.3% is considered successful."

The report, issued by architects, Herbert Southern and William Cramer, showed the following changes to the contracts for construction of the facility: General construction, 4.7%; electrical, 6.98%; structural steel, no changes; plumbing, 9.9%, and heating, ventilating and air conditioning, 1.76%, with the total changes for all contracts amounting to 4.3%.

The mayor said it is true since issuance of the ar-

Johnson PTA to sponsor parents night

The parents of the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark students may attend the Annual "Back-to-School Night," sponsored by the PTA, at the school on Thursday, Oct. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

A PTA business meeting will open the program, conducted by Mrs. Joyce Greco, the president of the organization, who will introduce the officers for the 1982-1983 school year.

The officers are: Mrs. Rose Zukowski, vice president; Mrs. Francine Back, recording secretary; Mrs. Lois Doran, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Barbara Perrelli, treasurer.

The 1982-1983 PTA budget will be presented by Mrs. Perrelli, and the approval will be requested by the members present.

The principal, Louis De Rosa, will explain the procedures to be followed by the parents, who will go to the individual classrooms where the teachers will review the curriculum and answer questions.

October is PTA membership month, and the parents will be encouraged to pay their dues at this time.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria at the conclusion of the program.

"Whether I win or lose, I want to do so with pride and a sense of integrity. I want to be able to look my neighbors and my family straight in the eye, and tell them I followed the dictates of my conscience. I simply can't do that running with Mr. Fulcomer," she added.

"I'm going to be a Republican councilwoman running a decent, positive campaign for re-election," Mrs. Rinaldi concluded. "I'm going to be my own woman, and that's that."

Cicatiello named to hospital board

A Rayway resident, president of Holy Ciciatiello, Newark and Ros. Inc. and chairman of CN Communications International, Inc., Anthony S. Ciciatiello, was appointed to the Board of Governors of Rayway Hospital, reports Thomas Dunham, chairman of the Board.

Mr. Ciciatiello received his bachelor's degree from Ohio State University in 1970 and a master's degree in public administration from that institution in 1973. He specializes in market development, management consulting and government affairs.

The appointee served on the Rayway Hospital Board of Governors of Gov. Thomas Kean administration, and was vice chairman of the Personnel Committee of the Finance Committee.

He was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of the Future of State Colleges, and also serves on the Board of Directors of the Future of State Colleges.

County to form 'Project Comfort'

Union County Surrogate Rose Marie Sinnott today announced her appointment of a special task force to help establish Project Comfort in Union County to provide help for people following the death of a spouse.

"Grief and uneasiness about the future afflict many people following the death of a husband or wife. People so afflicted frequently need someone to whom they can turn for help, advice and comfort. The purpose of Project Comfort would be to help people cope with such grief, and to assist people with the day-to-day problems that the death of a spouse may cause. The establishment of such a support group for widowed persons is the goal of this very important task force," said Surrogate Sinnott.

The Rev. Nancy Fendberg, the pastor of the First Congregational Church of Union Township, Mrs. Ann Two-way of Plainfield, Rev. Theodore Goyins, pastor of the Heald African Methodist Episcopal Church of Roselle, Rabbi Jacob Rubenstein of Temple Beth Torah of Rahway, Sister Ellen Patricia Mead of Summit, a former administrator of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, The Rev. Thomas Armistead of St. Theresa's R.C. Church of Summit and Harry Maslow of Berkeley Heights, a member of the Board of Directors of the Occuational Center of Union County, were appointed to the Project Comfort Task Force by the surrogate.

Mrs. Sinnott said all of the members of the task force are familiar with the problems of widowed persons, and are uniquely qualified to formulate recommendations to implement the project in the county.

"Everything that has happened to me since the death of my husband has been a series of ups and downs. I have been very fortunate to have people who have helped me through this difficult time. I hope that Project Comfort will be able to help other people who are going through this difficult time."

The surrogate added people interested in volunteering their services for helping widowed persons through Project Comfort should telephone her at 527-2488.

The 12-week basic program includes the study of such topics as administration of justice, patrol practices, group behavior, physical skills, investigations, highway safety, fingerprinting, interviewing techniques, crime scene investigation and traffic control.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Mary McLeod; first vice president, Mrs. Luvonia Hill; second vice president, Mrs. Ruth Simmons; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Bost; financial secretary, Mrs. Euna DeLeaver; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Marion Curry; treasurer, Mrs. Maggie Fair; historian, Mrs. Vivian Hurling; parliamentarian, Mrs. Helena Moore; chaplain, Mrs. Lucille Merricks; and the sunshine chairwoman, Mrs. Caprina Collins.

These officers and all the council's officers in New Jersey were installed at the conclusion of the "Third Leadership Training Workshop," which was held on Saturday, Sept. 25, at the Cathedral House in Newark, by Mrs. Mary Singletary, the national president of the National Assn. of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

The October executive meeting of the Rahway section was held on Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. McLeod at 856 Thorn St., Rahway.

Reports were received from the members on the members of the Annual Fashion Show and Luncheon, to be held on Sunday, Oct. 24, at 1 p.m. at the Polish National Home at 300 Roselle St., Linden.

The regular monthly meeting of the Rahway section will be held on Monday, Oct. 25, at the Ebenezer African Methodist Episcopal Church at 253 Central Ave., Rahway, at 7:30 p.m.

WILL THE PEOPLE OF RAHWAY FORGET?

Around election time, politicians always start screaming about "high" taxes and promising "I'll cut your taxes and give you more services too!" Sure they will.

But when they try to talk you out of voting for Mayor Dan Martin, they've got a lot of talking to do.

They want you to forget everything Mayor Martin's done to help our senior and disabled citizens, like the Senior Citizen Center, the J.F.K. Towers, the Geriatric Center, health, nutrition, and transportation programs, and much more.

They want you to forget everything he's done to bring pride and progress to Rahway, like the new Fire Headquarters, Police Headquarters, City Hall, streets, sewers, parks and playgrounds, tennis courts, soccer and ball fields, and much more.

They want you to forget how he's kept our water rates the lowest in the State and taxes under the cost of living.

They want you to forget how he's successfully fought unwanted clinics, pornographic movie houses, and other detriments to the community.

They want you to forget how he's improved Rahway property values more than the State and County.

In short, they want you to forget why you elected Mayor Martin in the first place. And re-elected him twice.

Both the future bride and the future groom reside with their parents.

A 1977 graduate of Cranford High School, the future bride is a 1979 advanced certified secretarial graduate from the Katherine Gibbs School in Montclair. She is employed as a secretary to the lawyer of the Lincoln Federal Savings Bank in Westfield.

Her fiancé was graduated from Rayway High School in 1975. He is employed as the head of the Shipping and Receiving Dept. at the Hynes Electric Heating Co. in Kenilworth.

The couple plan to wed on Saturday, July 15, of next year, at St. Michael's R.C. Church in Cranford.

Warren Lang technician on computers

A Rahwayman, Warren A. Mrs. Mackow: Miller helping Democrats

It is obvious Irene Rinaldi's deceptive and envious campaign manager, Bernie Miller, is attempting to destroy all the Republican candidates except, perhaps, Irene Rinaldi. I'm not surprised.

Even when he ran for Council, Mr. Miller did not seek nor want the help of the Republican Party. He left the election was to his win or lose, and he lost it three times in a row.

Mr. Miller's record of public and party service can not hold a candle to the public service of the Rahway Republican mayor, James J. Fulcomer, and everyone knows it.

Matched year for year, comparing service to the people, support to worthy candidates, organizational service and participation in state, county, and local events, Mr. Miller's record is insignificant.

Whereas Jim's exceptional, showing dedication, hard work and integrity, Mr. Miller has dreamed of attaining Councilman Fulcomer's prominence, but has fallen far on his face every time.

Speaking of party loyalty, Bernie is breaking a cardinal rule of all party politics—he is working for the opposition by following his own bitter course instead of supporting the overwhelming choice of the people in the Republican Primary—namely Jim Fulcomer.

Good Republicans and good Democrats too, follow the choice of their party. Even the most politically naive know that.

If Bernie Miller wants to be an independent, that is his business, but he should not dare make a claim to Republicanism after falsely attacking his party's choice in the press.

The account of the misuse of city equipment and wrongdoing is well known to all those who attended city committee meetings and Republican Club meetings. Councilman Fulcomer investigated information the Rahway Democratic city clerk's office in the summer of 1980 was using a city compressor to do work for a private business. Following Councilman Fulcomer's verbal and written report to the Union County Prosecutor's office, the appropriate legal action was subsequently taken against the wrongdoers involved.

As Mr. Miller knows, it is the same former Democratic chairman who Mr. Miller claimed was supporting him in his last losing run for councilman. Again, Bernie's lack of Republicanism is showing.

Is Mr. Miller claiming he wasn't at any of the Republican meetings when this matter was reported, or does he claim he did not read anything about it in the press? Probably Bernie does know the truth, and he is just trying to pretend ignorance. He is some Republican!

Bernie may not have been a successful candidate or an organization Republican, but he certainly has been trying his best to elect Mayor Daniel L. Martin. It is part of the usual Martin Democratic plan to divert attacks from themselves by using turnouts like Bernie Miller to attack Republican candidates. Ever since he made his deal with Mayor Martin earlier this year, Mr. Miller has been serving the mayor as best he can.

There isn't a person in the city that does not know mayoral candidate, James J. Fulcomer, is a good people-oriented Republican. But, by the time this campaign is over, there won't be a person in the city that will believe Bernie Miller is one.

Alan Pitts replies to Carol Hensch

In last week's issue of The Rahway News-Record a letter was printed attacking Councilman L. Pitts. It is because of this letter I can no longer remain silent. I have seen, first hand, the workings of Rahway's Republican Party, a fragmented group at best.

In your letter, Carol Hensch, you made a statement referring to political appointments. If that statement were the case, and by accident, Councilman James J. Fulcomer is elected, what would you call the people he would appoint, possibly yourself?

A remark was also made about the style of writing made under Councilman Pitts' name. I'm flattered you would think I earn $43,000 a year, since I am the one who assists Mr. Pitts with his press releases.

I expect to see an answer to this letter in next week's edition, so don't let me down, Mr. Fulcomer. Attack ME, because I have nothing to lose by telling all I know about your Republican Party.

CARE about others on World Food Day

From the vineyards and orchards of upstate New York to the cranberry bogs of New Jersey, Oct. 16 is a month in our region when the sights, smells and tastes of food fill the roadside stands and grocery bins.

In the midst of all this plenty, it's hard to imagine millions of others around the world who are still struggling in daily hunger for bread.

Saturday, Oct. 16, will be World Food Day, a day when 150 nations will look at the problems and solutions of food supply in their own countries and elsewhere.

CARE, the international aid and development organization, has a special interest in World Food Day. CARE feeds over 25 million people on a daily basis in over 35 countries. Our support comes from people in your community.

This World Food Day, CARE will call upon readers who are a part of CARE—the members of the Lions Clubs, the Garden Clubs, the Federated Women's Clubs, the AFL-CIO locals, the Girl Scouts and hundreds of individuals who live in this area to participate in World Food Day activities.

When we become aware of how the food we grow in our country affects people we'll never see or meet on the streets of our city, they become less strange. Indeed they become our neighbors in the global village.

Doris R. Forman, assistant director, CARE Tri-State Office, 660 First Ave., New York, N.Y.

Fulcomer only way to cut taxes: Sedlak

The people are right in opposing Mayor Daniel L. Martin's greedy attempt to get them to go along with a property tax increase above the state "CAPS" limit. The people have to live within limits, and so should our spend-thrift city government.

The city purposes property tax increase this year was far too high. A higher increase would have been outrageous. With windfall funds from federal revenue sharing, the state income tax and the gross receipts tax flowing into our city treasury during the past 12 years to offset spending increases in our Rahway city budget, the Rahway tax increases should have been far less under the Martin Administration.

With no significant increases in federal revenue sharing funds, state income tax monies and gross receipts taxes next year, it is very important we vote for the only mayoral candidate who is fighting for economy.

That means we must follow up on "NO" vote in the high-tax-increase referendum with a "NO" vote against the two Democrats in the race, the former Rahway Fire Chief George Link and Mayor Martin. Both these Democrats have co-operated in the past to needlessly raise our taxes.

Two-term Councilman James J. Fulcomer, in contrast, has been fighting to eliminate waste in our city budget. If we want to avoid a giant tax increase next year, we should vote for the only mayoral candidate with a consistent record for economy, mayoral candidate, Fulcomer.

Truly, it's time for a change.

Don Andersens rap Fulcomer 'dictatorship'

Republicans BEWARE! As Rahway Republicans, we can no longer sit and be quiet. We have a wolf in sheep's clothing ready to pounce on us all!

Han't anyone noticed the libelous remarks coming from one of James J. Fulcomer's council candidates? Very convenient isn't it? He has two newcomers to spew forth his insults! Mr. Fulcomer is not man enough to state his true thoughts on anything or make a stand on an issue he is not until he sees which side screams the loudest!

People wake up! Union did not want Mr. Fulcomer's brand of politics—that is why he picked Rahway to move into. We personally would have preferred our hometown to be chosen because he liked the area and the people, not because we are fertile ground for his dictatorship.

Mr. Fulcomer even moved from the Second Ward when he realized John Marsh was not about to give up his Council seat to anyone!

As people who have been part of Mr. Fulcomer's "inner circle," but chose not to agree with him all the time, we are in a position to say this backstabbing candidate is not a person capable of overseeing our city!

DATELINE: TRENTON

A Legislative Report from Senator Don DiFrancesco

Roads, sewers need help to 'bank on'

New Jersey's infrastructure—its roads, water system and sewers—is crumbling.

Although you can see the potholes and other signs of deterioration on our highways and bridges, the decay of our underground network of water and sewer lines is not so apparent.

This summer Jersey City residents had to do without tap water for days during a heat wave because a water main broke.

What happened in Jersey City could happen in any of our older communities with century-old water and sewerage systems.

We must keep these systems in good working order to protect the public health and safety, and keep our economy flourishing.

That is why I enthusiastically endorse a program unveiled last week by Gov. Thomas Kean that would provide a permanent funding source to upgrade and repair our infrastructure.

The governor has called for the creation of a state run bank in which all available state and federal funds for water, sewer and highway projects would be deposited.

The bank would then make low-interest or no-interest loans to local and county governments for improvements to existing facilities or the construction of new ones.

As local governments repaid the loans, the funds would be invested along with other revenues, thereby increasing the amount of money available for additional loans.

This innovative program would allow us to better coordinate projects, and prepare for the future so we don't leap from crisis to crisis as we have done in the past. It would enable the state to use our limited financial resources more effectively.

For instance, under the present system of providing grants for sewerage construction, only a dozen projects in the state would receive full funding. But once the bank is in full operation, it is estimated more than 200 proposed sewerage projects would receive financial assistance in the form of loans from the bank.

Without these loans, municipalities would either have to scrap these projects or charge residents exorbitant fees to pay off bonds.

I will push to get the necessary legislation through the Legislature as quickly as possible.

The bank majority will not solve all our infrastructure problems overnight. To do that, the state would need more than $10 billion. But the New Jersey Infrastructure Bank would give us at least a growing financial base to address needs ignored for too long.

Recent revelations of massive welfare fraud in Massachusetts should alert New Jersey officials to the potential for "similar or even greater problems" in our state, reports Assemblyman Bob Franks, who represents Clark.

He said if the Massachusetts statistics were to be extended nationwide, "a whopping $7 billion in aid would annually be paid out to welfare cheats."

"Obviously, New Jersey is not immune to the same sort of welfare fraud," Assemblyman Franks added.

The assemblyman cited statistics released last week by William T. Hogan, a Massachusetts welfare official, stating a computer check of Social Security numbers at the state's 1,013 banks disclosed nearly 30,000 of the state's welfare recipients were actually ineligible for the food-stamp benefits they were collecting.

Mr. Hogan said one of the reasons for the fraud was that the state's welfare system was "outdated and inefficient."

GIFT FOR THE GOVERNOR—Mrs. Emily M. Yeckel, left, the administrative coordinator of the Clark Teen Art Program and Mayor Bernard G. Yarusavage, representative to the Union County Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board, presents the gift of a new painting to the governor of New Jersey, Thomas H. Kean, right, a point of her painting entitled "Liberty Bell." Looking on is Sam John, living of Bernardsville. The "Liberty Bell" was a Bicentennial Award when the painting was exhibited at the Washington Square Outdoor Art Exhibition and the painting hung in the Palace of the Congress in Paris. The Liberty Bell was exhibited in the State House, Trenton, in 1976.

Martin reports property values up

Independent sources on firm Rahway property values are increasing more than in other communities, according to a report issued today by Mayor Daniel J. Martin.

"This is just another in a series of reports," Mayor Martin said, "that my opponents the Fulcomer/Marsh team consistently fail to recognize Rahway is now a great, solid community and we are an 'second-class' city."

The mayor pointed out a mortgage banking firm, which does business statewide, monitors property values in 12 communities throughout the state, including Union, Plainfield, Westfield and Rahway.

The firm's report on property values for the first decade shows Rahway has had the highest percentage increase in property values.

"This is not just a case of being in the upper half or something," the mayor said, "but the fact that Rahway is first in the state in property value increases."

"This information follows the 1981 local property value report of the New Jersey Division of Taxation," he explained.

"The state report," the mayor noted, "showed property values in Rahway increased 45% more than the county average and 23% more than the state average."

According to the official, local information confirms Rahway property value increases.

"A recent survey of local real estate professionals, conducted by the Health and Building Dept., shows Realtors feel very positively about property values in Rahway. Of course interest rates have hurt everyone everywhere, but in Rahway property values are stronger than elsewhere."

The mayor added the city also experienced a dramatic increase in the number of building and home-improvement permits issued.

"Just through July of this year, over 500 permits were issued, never before in the history of the city," he pointed out. "Since 1979, when our new City Hall got started, the number of building and home improvements has increased."

The Democrats concluded by saying, "Under Mayor Martin's Administration, Rahway has good, honest, well-managed government that has improved the community's economy, and delivered much progress for the citizens."

regardless of the political party of the person holding office," said the co-chairman, Platitz and Cooper, in a joint statement.

Mr. Keefe, who was the deputy surrogate under both former Union County Surrogates Mary C. Kanane of Union Township and Walter Ulrich of Rahway, said Mrs. Sinnott is "on the job, all the time, for all the people in the fine traditions of former Surrogates Kanane and Ulrich."

The Roselle attorney commented Mrs. Sinnott for establishing an evening schedule, and a 24-hour answering service, updating office literature and taking the steps to help establish "Project Comfort" in Union County, a new service to help widowed persons adjust to new circumstances following the death of a spouse.

About 50 attorneys practicing law in Union County have joined the Lawyers for Surrogate Sinnott Committee, according to treasurer Keefe. New members may join by telephoning Mr. Keefe at 276-1100.

Mrs. Sinnott was appointed the Union County surrogate by Gov. Thomas H. Kean earlier this year. She received her bachelor of arts degree from Marymount College, and attended the graduate schools of the University of London and Columbia University.

The surrogate is a former Union County Freeholder chairman and a former full-time freeholder. She is also a former English teacher.

City budget cheaper than others: Dems

The Rahway Democratic Councilman-at-Large candidates stated today, the Fulcomer/Marsh team continues to deliberately and dishonestly distort fraudulent statistical comparisons between Rahway and other communities, particularly Westfield and Cranford.

The City Council President Vincent P. Addona, Councilman-at-Large Walter McLeod and Councilman-at-Large candidate James Cadigan, said, "There is no mathematical basis for the Fulcomer/Marsh team method of direct comparison of total numbers or figures between these municipalities unless detailed breakdowns are analyzed."

"The most common deception put out by the Fulcomer/Marsh team is the fact that Rahway's total budget is higher than Westfield and Cranford's to imply that there is something wrong in Rahway," the Democrats said. "The simple fact is if you equalize just three factors: garbage collection and police and fire personnel Rahway's budget becomes far lower than Westfield or Cranford, or put another way, excluding garbage collection and police and fire, the Rahway city government is operated at a lower cost than Westfield and Cranford."

The hopefuls explained the current 1982 budget for Rahway is $10,671,373.82, in Westfield the budget is $9,707,350.50, and in Cranford it is $9,041,244.74. But in Rahway, garbage collection is included in taxes, while in the other communities residents must pay private scavengers to remove their refuse, and Rahway has more police officers and fire fighters.

By adding garbage collection to the Westfield and Cranford budgets, the Democrats pointed out, and by subtracting police and fire from Rahway's budget to equal Westfield and Cranford, the three budgets become: Westfield with $10,704,440.50, Cranford with $9,504,038.74, and Rahway with $9,504,038.74.

"Misrepresentations like these are easy to expose," the Democrats said, "because the Fulcomer/Marsh team uses the truth speaks for itself, and doesn't yield to phony interpretations."

"Because the Fulcomer/Marsh team offers nothing for Rahway's future, they must attempt to manufacture issues by manipulating statistics," they added.

"In fact," Councilman McLeod pointed out, "Nothing has changed as far as the Fulcomer/Marsh team's campaign goes because I remember from 10 years ago when they would come to Council budget meetings with big charts showing the total budgets for Rahway, Westfield and Cranford."

"Today their manipulation of statistics is just as phony as it has been for the past 10 years," Councilman Addona commented, "it's the same old phony method of operation of the Fulcomer/Marsh team."

The Democrats concluded by saying, "Under Mayor Martin's Administration, Rahway has good, honest, well-managed government that has improved the community's economy, and delivered much progress for the citizens."

Janis Tortorello saves Indian day

By Ray Hoagland
The Rahway High School Indian Girls Soccer Team won its first game of the season, a 3-2 victory over the Hillside Comets, on a direct kick by Janis Tortorello with five seconds left in the second overtime. Rahway's other goals were scored by Patty Wiebush and Lisa Tennen. Sonya Wimbush had both goals for the Comets, who are now 1-4. Rahway has four veterans, who returned from last season with two juniors, and the rest of the team is a mixture of freshmen and sophomores. The captains are: Goalie, Kristy Pilot, a senior; fullback, Stacy Stotick, a senior; and halfback, Nancy Vill, a junior. Kristy Pilot, playing her second season in goal, is an exceptional goalie and a first all-star. Stacy Stotick, a fullback, is a third-year leader. Eva Tistinas, a fullback, is a three-year starter. Pat Wiebush, a three-year starter, is the "heart of the defense." Michele Mehan is a sophomore. Nancy Vill is the best player on the team and one of the best in Union County. Kim Lodzinski, a three-year starter, is an outstanding athlete. Tracy Sitski, a sophomore, has a good foot. The front line for the team is led by Rose Wene, who started as a freshman last season, and has the potential to be outstanding. Liesel Orpillo, a freshman, has an excellent foot, and it will only get better. Lisa Rasmussen plays 100% at all times, but needs experience. Sheryl Reck, a freshman, will see some action this fall. Janis Tortorello, Kelly Moffitt, Eileen Nickel, Jamie Rodger, Lisa Tennen, Lisa Manhardt, Lynn Rule and Olga Pacheco round out the team. The managers are Dorothy Young and Dianne Collins.

AH, SWEET VICTORY!!

NOT THIS TIME, MY FRIEND... Trying to stop a Linden player from getting the ball during the Oct. 9 game via Rahway's Terry Bell, No. 54, and Eddie "The Bull" Bell, No. 55. The Indians won the first contest of the year over the Tigers 12-0.

THE ECSTASY... City blanks Tigers for first victory

By Ray Hoagland
Defense and Singleton were the name of the game at the Veterans Memorial Field in Rahway on Oct. 9 as Coach Mike Punko's Rahway Indians won their first game of the season 12-0 over the undefeated Linden Tigers football team.

The win was Coach Mike Punko's fourth win and first tie over the former Rahway coach, Joe Martino.

The first half of the game was scoreless, but the Indians hit the scoreboard after Valiant Carter, a sophomore, gained one yard at the middle of the line.

On the first play, Fred Singleton drove over left tackle to the Tigers' seven-yard line, and on the next play he scored to give the Indians a 12-0 lead. The try for the extra point was no good.

The defense came into the action in the second period when the Tigers advanced to the two-yard line, following the Tigers' recovery of an Indian punt on Rahway's 15-yard line, and the Indians took over following a six-play drive. The line of Tim Coyle, Tom Duffy, Sheridan Baker, Edward Mack, Donnell Powell and Allen Baily was outstanding on defense.

Late in the second period the Indians reached the eight-yard line. The drive started when Derrick Thorpe, a senior, who had played an outstanding game on defense, recovered a Linden fumble and carried it to the Tigers' 30-yard line. On the first play Dorsey Wilkens, a senior quarterback, passed to Rodney Robins for a first down on the 15. After two passes failed, Wilkens passed to Powell, who made a great catch near the sidelines on the eight-yard line.

After the Tigers fumbled on the first running play that was recovered by Powell, with one minute and 27 seconds to go in the half, the Indians went into a shotgun formation. A pass from Wilkens to Horace Baker placed the ball on the eight yard marker, but three straight passes failed, and the game was scoreless at the half.

After the Indians had scored their first touchdown Craig Taylor broke through the Indians' line, and on his way to a touchdown but Baily caught him from behind on the Indians' 15-yard line.

The Tigers moved to the two-yard line, where, on a second down, Powell broke up a throw, and three plays later, a pass failed, then Bowden dropped Taylor on the five-yard line.

WEEKEND WOES - Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark cheerleader, Sandy Costabile, shows what must have been the feeling of many township football fans, as the Crusaders lost their third straight football game on Oct. 9.

THE AGONY.. Crusaders defeated in near-buzzer play

By Ray Hoagland
Coach Steve Cicciotelli's Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark Crusaders Football Team lost their third game of the season when the Madison Central High School Spartans Football Team of Old Bridge came from behind in the last period to take a 23-0 decision.

The Clark Crusaders moved in front in the first period when from Aaron, a senior split end, returned an interception 70 yards, and then kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Then the Spartans came back when John Lotti scored from the six-yard line, followed by a two-point conversion on a pass from Brad Fischer to Felix Lopresti, and the home side was leading 8-7.

In the first period the Crusaders went on top when Edward Pedicone, a junior fullback, raced 64 yards, but the extra point failed. It was now 13-8.

In the second period Clark scored when Bob Back went in on a pass from Gene Castagna, and when Aaron's kick was good, the Clark team went into the dressing room leading 20-8.

There was no scoring in the third period, but in the final period, the Spartans scored 15 points, and Lotti ran for two touchdowns, and intercepted a pass late in the game in the end zone. Lotti, a junior halfback, who ran for 96 yards on 19 carries, capped an 85 yard, 20-play drive with a two yard run. Early in the fourth period Scott Siem's point after touchdown cut the Clark lead to 20-15.

With seven minutes left in the game, Lotti hit on a 14-yard run to score. It was a three-play drive and a 17-yard advance that began when Dave Totter tackled the Crusaders' punter, and Fischer tossed to Lopresti for the winning points. Pedicone carried 18 times for 100 yards. Clark is now 0-3, while Madison is 2-0-1.

Parish 'team' ready for fair

In these days of scrambling for funds, a tight knit team is the non-profit organization's greatest asset. St. Mary's Parish in Rahway is lucky enough to have such a team, now busy preparing its 11th Annual Fair for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 22, 23 and 24, reports a parish spokesman.

Much of the team's success over the years has been due to the leadership of chairman, Joan Brunt. She is a third-generation Rahway resident and proud of it, the spokesman noted.

In addition, committee leaders handle areas like food preparation and serving, collecting and making home-made articles, and putting together the mini-fair market.

This year's fair will sport the theme, "Depression is only a State of Mind," and will run Oct. 22 from 7 to 11 p.m., Oct. 23 from 1 to 11 p.m., Oct. 24 from 1 to 6 p.m.

Other attractions will include a Haunted House and various games of skill and chance. Proceeds help support St. Mary's Grammar School.

His wife, Mrs. Florence Vliet, died in 1973.
