Change orders again heat up Council debate

By Joan Gorzenik

Heated arguments and abusive exchanges between councilmen as well as public criticism marked this monday's City Council meeting, after the tabling of a resolution requesting the administration to forward copies of all change orders since April 1, 1977, to the city clerk to be made available to the public.

A hotly-debated election issue, the resolution, introduced by a Rahway mayoral candidate and the Sixth Ward Councilman James J.
Fulcomer, evolved from the councilman's recent charges the mayor violated state regulations by failing to submit change orders in the construction of the new City Hall to the Council before having the orders carried out.

The Council president Vincent P. Addona defined the change orders as encompassing construction work carried on by the city on "specific projects utilizing taxpayers' money" when he was questioned by Thomas Cusmano, the treasurer of the Rahway Chamber of Commerce, during the public portion of the meeting.

Councilman John Marsh
attempted to answer Mr.
Cusmano by pointing to the administration's alleged violation of the state law by failing to submit the City Hall change orders to the Council and the public.

After repeatedly telling Councilman Marsh he was out of order, the Council president called a 10-minute recess.

Upon the introduction of the resolution concerning the change orders, Councilman Max Shield then quickly called for its tabling, which caused Councilman Fulcomer to change it was an effort to "muzzle" the Council.

The three councilmen who voted not to table the motion were the First Ward Councilman Larry Bodine and Councilmen Fulcomer and Marsh.

The introduction of the resolution and its tabling incited much public comment.

For example, Mrs. Sharon L. Surber, a City Council candidate and the secretary of the Rahway Chamber of Commerce, cosidered the resolution
"after the fact and a waste of time."

The president of the Rahway Taxpayers' Assn., Alonzo Lawrence said, "A resolution passed on July 13, 1981, has not been complied with. It is a shame the taxpayers have not been provided with the information (the description of the change orders)."

Adam Maszkow, the president of the Rahway Republican Club, believed if some activities of the administration violated state laws, the Council would be an "accessory to the violation."

A former Democratic City Councilman, Tor Cedervall, described the refusal of the administration to submit the change orders of the City Hall for public perusal as "intentionally innocent" as well as stemming from "an arrogance of power."

He said, "I can't see why the Council objects or why the resolution was tabled.
Earlier, I saw no reason for suspicion."

He believed there was some "move afoot" which brought the issue of the change orders before the public, especially before the election and the postponement of the resolution to a meeting date, on Monday, Nov. 8, after the election.

The former councilman said the incumbents would have benefitted had they approved of the resolution rather than tabling it. He maintained this was a cause for suspicion.

In a prior press release,
Councilman Fulcomer charged "largely due to the alleged illegal change orders of the Martin Administration, the city is being sued for $750,000."

Councilman Fulcomer
did claim, "The change orders pertaining to the municipal building were made without authorization by the City Council, so therefore violating state regulations adopted in April, 1977, requiring the mayor of a city to file with the City Council a request for the change order before executing it."

It was also reported, Joseph Hartnett, the city's business administrator, discovered a "procedural error" that prompted the proposed resolution.

He explained the state adopted a new regulation in 1977 requiring all change orders to go through the Council, but the Council members were at the time unaware of the error.

Mr. Hartnett said the administration was not trying to hide anything, and the Council had voted in December to authorize the $140,000 for the change orders. He maintained the Council's position is that it was a procedural error and not a political issue.

Fulcomer: Martin violates people's rights

The Rahway Republican mayoral candidate, James J. Fulcomer, announced today a "fundamental issue" in the Rahway city elections is "Mayor Daniel L. Martin's violations of the rights of the people."

Sixth Ward Councilman Fulcomer said Mayor Martin has "ruthlessly and repeatedly" violated the right of the people to petition for a referendum, has failed deliberately to provide important information requested over a year ago by the City Council on the new City Hall, which the people have a right to know, has refused to submit information to the City Council on change orders prior to execution which the people have a right to know, and has attempted to deny the people of Truster Pl. their say on new non-residential uses in their neighborhood.

The mayoral candidate noted the mayor's incumbent runningmates and Council allies muzzled the people at the first public hearing that was advertised for the 1982 budget, despite the fact the people came through a snowstorm to speak at the meeting. He added the Martin Administration misused city money to misinform the people about issues relating to Rahway's high city taxes and about issues relating to the new City Hall, thereby "subverting the people's right to know."

"During the past 12 years every time the people submitted a petition for a referendum on a city issue, Mayor Martin repeatedly used every trick he could to deny the people their referendum. The only referendum the Martin Democrats were willing to give the people was one to raise their taxes above the state 'CAPS' limit, something for which the people never petitioned, and which they overwhelmingly rejected, but a referendum which the Martin team under state law had to have in their attempt to raise our high tax increases above the state limits. In contrast, my Council runningmates and I consistently have supported the right of the people to petition for a referendum," he added.

"On the City Hall controversy, for example, I was the only elected official to sponsor resolutions to give the people a vote on the controversial amendment-resolutions strongly opposed by Mayor Martin and his Council puppets. If a referendum had been held on the new municipal complex in Nov. 1978, as I had urged, at least $200,000, not counting sky-high interest costs, would have been saved for the taxpayers in addition to the construction costs and legal costs resulting from Mayor Martin's fight against the petitioners," said Mr. Fulcomer, a two-term councilman.

"Mayor Martin's refusal to submit change orders for prior authorization by the City Council as required by law, and his deliberate failure to date to comply with the July 1981 request of the City Council for information on the new City Hall have violated the public's and the City Council's right to know. Not only mismanagement, but also this secretive approach of the Martin Administration has been an important factor in the outstanding claim of $750,000 against the city treasury for change orders.

Another claim of $34,000 has surfaced for change orders from a different corner of Rahway Mayor Daniel L. Martin, a local tavern owner, for the following reasons, according to Mr. Rooney:

"Not only have the arrogant policies of this mayor violated the rights of the people, but if you add up all the interest costs, all the outstanding claims relating to legal change orders, and the increased costs resulting from the mayor's fight against petitioners, you are confronted with a potential cost over the years of over a million dollars to the taxpayers. I believe it is time for a change to return the power to the people and to respect the rights of the people. These proposals are not a 'hands-off' attitude on the part of the mayor, but a 'hands-on' policy of my administration and of my Council runningmates on line 'B'."

"Mr. Stokpa was appointed to replace Clerk Francis Senkowsky of Rahway, the choice of Rahway Mayor Daniel L. Martin, a local tavern owner, for the following reasons, according to Mr. Rooney:

"Firstly, said Mr. Rooney, 'the majority of the Board considers the continuation of the mayor's hand-picked choice in this position as having a definite appearance of a serious conflict of interest due to the recent revelations Mayor Martin is a tavern owner in Rahway, and Mr. Senkowsky originally was appointed on the recommendation of Mayor Martin. Because the clerk of the ABC Board controls the flow of information on the Board for the ABC Board to knowingly rubber-stamp a tavern owner's choice could be a serious conflict of interest. We do not need a Gregory-type fiasco which presently is afflicting Linden.'"

Chairman Rooney also reported Mrs. Stokpa was appointed at a meeting held at the Office of the City Clerk on Thursday evening, Oct. 14.

A year ago Union College and the Union County Technical Institute combined enrolled 8,931 full-time and part-time students.

Dr. Orkin reported this semester's enrollment is a new all-time record overall as well as for both the Cranford and the Scotch Plains campuses.

He added Union County College has enrolled 4,296 full-time students or 455 more than a year ago, and 5,399 part-time students or 129 more than a year ago.

In 1981, Union College and UCTI combined enrolled 3,751 full-time students and 5,180 part-time students.

"These data indicate our college is popular with Union County residents, and is offering programs and courses wanted and needed by Union County residents," Dr. Orkin said.

"We are greatly encouraged and appreciative of this display of confidence and acceptance by more than 9,000 students."

ABC Board reports asking Senkowsky to step down

"To guarantee the integrity of the Municipal Board of Alcohol Beverage Control in Rahway," Mrs. Stephanie Stokpa of Rahway has complained at the City Council meetings his office of the city clerk has a heavy workload. By relieving Mr. Senkowsky of his ABC Board duties, he should have much more time for his duties as the city clerk," reported Mr. Rooney.

"Thirdly, to avoid the slightest hint of impropriety and to ensure the ability of the ABC Board to serve the citizens and the license holders in a fair and equitable manner, we felt this step was necessary."

For someone who is terminally ill help at home may be available from the Home Care Program of the Muhlenberg Hospital in Plainfield and the Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Information offered on health care

More and more people today are choosing to be treated at home in familiar, comfortable surroundings.

When ill or disabled people participate in their own treatment, with help from families and qualified health agency staff, their rehabilitation is often speedier and more complete, reports a spokesman for the Home Health Agency Assembly of New Jersey, Inc.

Surrogate gives quarterly report

The Union County Surrogate Rose Marie Sinnott of Summit issued her quarterly report for services rendered by her office during July, August and September of this year, showing "expanded services" on her office "without any increase in expenditures."

During July, August and September, 570 wills were probated, and there were 83 intestacies.

She also released figures from 1976, 1980 and 1981. In 1981, 2,440 wills were probated, compared with 2,692 in 1980 and 1,844 in 1979. Intestacies in 1981 were 360 compared with 340 in 1980 and 445 in 1979. Guardianships processed in 1981 amounted to 270 compared with 230 in 1980 and 661 in 1979.

The greatest increase in surrogate activities during the summer months were "changes brought to the office under the new administration of Surrogate Sinnott."

The office is now open for evening hours every month. A 24-hour answering service has been established. Surrogate literature is being revised, and educational services have been expanded.

Project Comfort, a service to help widowed people following the death of their spouse, is being formulated. Surrogate Sinnott urged all Union County residents over 18 years of age to write out a will with the assistance of an attorney of their choice to make certain their estate goes where they wish.

She also reminded the public her office provides speakers to civic groups.

Groups desiring a presentation should telephone her through the Union County Surrogate's Office at 527-4788.

A speed business man can get unusually when its time to probate.

NAZIS? PROPAGANDISTS? LIARS? COMMUNISTS?

These are but a few of the names that Republican mayoral candidate James Fulcomer and his faction have hurled at the Martin administration in this year's election campaign. Now they have even gone so far as to try to imply our Mayor is some kind of criminal because he is a private businessman.

It makes you stop and think-If this is how these people run their campaign, how would they run the City if, God forbid, they ever did get elected?

It also makes you think-Are these the kind of people you would want representing you and your family as leaders of the community?

Like all good citizens, we abhor this type of rhetoric and the lack of dignity it brings to our community. We think it emphasizes how important it is to vote for Mayor Daniel L. Martin. And just as important to vote for Vincent Adona, Walter McLeod, and James Cadigan for Council.

Fortunately, the right to vote is what makes this country great. We urge you to exercise that right.

Thank you.

Vogel: Both parties cheat taxpayers

Our local press is filled with political articles by candidates of both parties with name-calling, abuses and charges of lying. Both fail to discuss the vital issues that affect every body, taxpayers and ratepayers.

We have a city administration elected as Democrats, which does not practice democracy.

The taxpayers asked the Governing Body for a referendum on the City Hall project to cost $3 million, and were refused; the taxpayers submitted a petition with 4,500 signatures requesting a referendum. They again refused, claiming an insufficient number of signatures, and when challenged in court, they spent over $30,000 of the taxpayers' money trying to prove their claim, but when they failed they withdrew the funding ordinance and nullified the taxpayers' request. A week later, they submitted the change orders to the Rahway City Council according to law? Of course not. They told us a property assessed at $40,000 will pay $24 per year for 40 years, but now they are holding back the true cost which will be more like three and a half times that and most taxpayers will be paying about $3,000 toward this project.

A fact: The city of Rahway is the only one in the country to have a solar heating system installed in its City Hall at an undisclosed cost, and I understand it is a failure. Has the installation been approved by the design engineer?

Another first-the city of Rahway is the first in the country to support and perhaps own a geriatric center. Thanks to both political parties, the organizer succeeded in selling them the idea by suggesting, "We may need it ourselves."

Did they realize the interest and amortization alone will cost over $1 million dollars per year, and the cost of the management, doctors, nurses, cooks, food, helpers, electricity, oil and janitors will be paid for, as originally stated, by 400 patients. But the latest release by the mayor says only 220 patients. The cost of patient care in a neighboring nursing home is about $10,000 per year plus medical costs or an expected income of $2,000,000—there looms a terrific loss to the Rahway matter. We read in a local daily newspaper on July 14, 1982, an "Ex-Artillery Platoon Guilty To Offering One Million In N. J. Bribes" to officials for public financing of a project costing $17.75 million.

This is the same financing firm that had agreed to finance the geriatric job in Rahway costing $7.4 million, but withdrew because of its legal troubles in Hudson County.

Are the people of Rahway to think the organizers of the Rahway project are naive, innocents or stupid not to expect or demand, call it a commission or campaign contribution, or as they call it crudely a kickback? Is this project an offspring from the Redevelopment Agency plan on Essex St.? Although that one was not as bad, the Rahway taxpayers were not involved.

Kidding the public-the business administrator issued a tax table comparing the taxes of the cities in Union County showing Rahway to be in about the middle, but the Rahway figures did not include the cost of the City Hall. So, he thinks the people don't know any better. They voted for us three times, they will vote for us again.

Hoyte Baucom fears city GOP's demise

I have been a registered Republican in Rahway for 25 years, and through most of those years have been proud of our organization and the principles for which it stood.

I shall remain a Republican, but in the interest of my family, my friends, and the city of Rahway, I do not feel I can entrust the leadership of this city to a candidate who has managed, in his years in Rahway, to virtually destroy our Republican party by pumping potential party leaders on Essex St. Although that one was not as bad, the Rahway taxpayers were not involved.

Much energy has been expended by many dedicated Republicans to repair this damage and, until the party, but each time only are made, one recent municipal chairman finds a way to totally destroy them.

Can we afford to take the risk of his doing to Rahway what he has done to our party? Personally I feel the risk is too great.

Mrs. Weber: Pitts disgraces GOP

As a Fifth Ward resident and a Republican, I resent Fifth Ward Councilman Walter L. Pitts on two counts: First, as a resident, I resent it when I repeatedly call my ward councilman on matters concerning the ward, and he never returns my calls.

Secondly, as a Republican, I am infuriated to think I not only voted for Mr. Pitts when he ran for Council in 1980, but I spoke on his behalf to my neighbors, and now Mr. Pitts is praising Democrats, and maligning Republicans.

In fact, Mr. Pitts even voted for a Democratic City Council president in 1982. But the worse thing is I and the other Fifth Ward residents voted for Mr. Pitts in the first place because we thought he would keep his promises. We thought he would join the other Republicans on Council in trying to at least hold the line on our taxes, if not reduce them. Instead, Mr. Pitts voted with the Democrats, and here we are again this year with a whopping tax increase!

To me, when a person has no word of honor, when he can't be trusted to do what he says he will-even if it's in a political brochure-then that person isn't worth two pennies. Mr. Pitts' endorsement of Councilwoman Irene F. Rinaldi actually does a disservice to that councilwoman since he even lied about her when he said she was the "chief financial officer" of Ultra Group, Mrs. Rinaldi's employer.

Did Mr. Pitts think no one would check? It happens an acquaintance of mine knows the real "chief financial officer" for Ultra Group-a man named Roger Igel. Mr. Pitts, people who lie also aren't worth two pennies.

I really have only one thing to say to Mr. Pitts: You used Republican money and votes to get yourself elected, but you have embarrassed your constituents by your atrocious behavior. So I respectfully request you openly declare yourself a Democrat so the rest of us can stop apologizing for you!

Mrs. Rinaldi rapped on Solidarity views

It's bad enough we have to listen to the jibberish of Councilwoman Irene F. Rinaldi, and witness her indecent attacks at City Council meetings. But to read her attack on a Council resolution dealing with Polish Solidarity is an outrage to me and every other person who feel Communist oppression to come to this country of America.

When the Communist regime in Poland began to oppress Solidarity, Slavic immigrants throughout our country asked representative bodies on all levels of the local, state and national government to protect these outcasts. The members of both political parties, including the mayor, James J. Fulcomer, responded to our pleas in the affirmative, and we appreciate their concern.

The failure of democratic representatives to speak out in their governmental bodies was one reason why Adolf Hitler was able so easily to liquidate so many Jews, and why the Turks in World War I were able to get away with exterminating Armenians. When people are oppressed, free men everywhere must speak up. To do otherwise is to foster that oppression.

Councilwoman Rinaldi may think the plight of Solidarity should be ignored by the City Council that represents me and other refugees from Communist tyranny. I know if the councilwoman were subjected to the Communist oppression which I experienced, even she would overcome her stupidity, and condemn the callous attitude of her press release last week.

While I am definitely voting for Fulcomer for mayor and for both Anthony P. Lordi and Sharon L. Surber for Council members, as a refugee from Communist tyranny, I must publicly disassociate myself from the Rinaldi candidacy.

I consider Councilwoman Rinaldi's remarks a personal affront to all American citizens of Slavic descent, and demand her apology to all of us.

First Aid unit sponsors Chinese Auction

The Rahway First Aid Squad Ladies Auxiliary will sponsor a Chinese Auction on Tuesday, Oct. 27, at Temple Beth Torah, located at 1389 Bryant St., Rahway.

The doors will open at 6:30 p.m. There will be door prizes and refreshments. The cost of the tickets for the evening will be $3, payable at the door, or by telephone. Tickets are available at 25¢ advance deposit.

HOT TOPIC - The Rahway Fire Prevention Bureau presented a safety assembly to the children at the city's Grover Cleveland School to commemorate the Week of Fire Prevention Week, showed a film on home safety entitled "See a Pin," and played a Sesame Street record featuring the songs "Stop, Drop and Roll" which told the children how to do it, and "Cool Water," which explained how to treat a minor burn. With the firemen, left to right, are: Ronald Roundtree, Simone Gilliam, Cindy Matukas and Angela Feliciano.

Papers set deadline

The deadline for submission of stories and pictures for events taking place during the week to The Rahway News-Record and The Clark Patriot is 5 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Thursday you wish to see the item appear in the newspapers.

The newspaper offices are located at 219 Central Ave., Rahway.

Only events which occur over the weekend will be accepted on Mondays, and only to 10 a.m.

Any items not submitted in time for the deadlines will automatically be transferred to the following week's newspapers.

FOR JOB WELL DONE - Don Banghart, the co-ordinator of the Mobile Intensive Care Unit and Patricia Reilly, the clinical co-ordinator of the unit, admire the plaque that was presented by the Clark Policemen's Benevolent Assn. to Medic 10, the Rahway Hospital's Mobile Intensive Care Unit, and the paramedics who staff it.

Mr. Cusmano asks: What's Martin hiding?

What has Mayor Daniel L. Martin got to hide? What are his political cronies on Council trying to help him cover up? At the City Council meeting on Oct. 12 Councilman James J. Fulcomer tried to get a motion passed which would have forced the Martin Administration to release information regarding the new City Hall.

According to a 1977 state law, the administration was supposed to present all construction change orders for the new City Hall to the City Council for approval. This is required so Council can be sure the changes, which always cost more money, are really necessary. But the Martin Administration refused to do this.

Mayor Martin has tried to say no one knew about the law-the law is another outright lie! Second Ward Councilman John Marsh publicly informed the Council and the mayor of this state law as far back as 1978, but the mayor lied at that time too, saying he had checked, and there was no such law.

Of course, now Mayor Martin admits he was blowing smoke, but he tries to pass it off as a "procedural error." Some error! It's an outright crime to do what the Martin Administration did, and now he's trying to cover it up until after the election. The Democrats running with him are trying to aid and abet this criminal activity!

Meantime, after all this arguing and rhetoric, I, as a citizen, still do not have access to this vital information which directly affects me as a taxpayer-information which should have been public in the first place! I'm betting there is a lot more to this whole cover-up than meets the eye. In fact, we may never find out just how much of this skulduggery has gone on in the Martin Administration.

Voters, please, don't let this disgrace go any further. Stop it now by voting against Mayor Martin's arrogant disdain for us. I've met James J. Fulcomer, and watched him in action on the City Council. He's a real taxpayer's advocate. I personally know both Anthony P. Lordi and Sharon L. Surber. If you've met them, you know what

Bradley Endorses Levin

Dear Friend:

As the Senator from New Jersey I have long been aware of the exceptional political and social commitment of Adam K. Levin. Adam is currently running for the United States House of Representatives in New Jersey's new Seventh District.

Adam is well known for his achievements as former New Jersey Director of Consumer Affairs. During his tenure his division set a national record by providing $26 million in cost savings to consumers. He personally participated in many of the landmark investigations and programs resulting in lower medical and motorist costs for New Jerseyans. He was directly responsible for the enactment of twenty new laws and regulations, including tough, cost-saving advertising, home improvement, and auto repair regulations. Adam Levin has a statewide record of which we all can be proud.

Looking to November, I wholeheartedly endorse Adam Levin's candidacy for the United States House of Representatives. I believe he has the ability and the experience to become an outstanding member of the citizens of the Seventh District and for New Jersey. I urge your support and vote on November 2nd so that the 99th Congress may count Representative Levin among its members.

Sincerely,
Bill Bradley

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

by Congressman Matt Rinaldo
12th District, New Jersey

Bill would improve registration of tires

President Ronald Reagan is expected to sign into law legislation I introduced to give tire buyers better protection in the event of a manufacturer's recall, and at the same time save the nation's tire dealers and consumers millions of dollars in regulatory costs.

The measure, which changes the procedure for registering new-tire sales, was approved in the House and Senate as part of the Motor Vehicle Safety and Cost Savings Authorization Act of 1982. The bill went to the President last week, and was to be signed by Saturday, according to administration officials.

The bill would permit consumers to register new tire purchases with the manufacturer rather than leaving the reporting up to the dealers who more often than not fail to file the necessary forms because of the paperwork costs.

Under the present dealer-registration system, it is estimated only 46% of all new tire sales are recorded, potentially leaving thousands of motorists unprotected in the event of a manufacturer's recall of a defective tire. It is estimated the change from dealer to consumer reporting will increase registrations by as much as 40%, and save tire dealers and consumers about $30 million annually.

Under the new law, dealers will be required to provide consumers with the necessary forms and data for reporting tire purchases to the manufacturer, who maintains a list of purchasers' names for notification in the event of a recall.

The legislation also directs the secretary of transportation to require tire manufacturers to give public notice as well as notice by mail of a recall of defective tires when it would be in the best interest of the public.

Additionally, the secretary will be required to evaluate the voluntary consumer-registration system after two years to determine whether the desired goal of increasing tire registrations is being achieved.

In the event changes are needed, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration would be permitted to impose new requirements or revert to the dealer-registration system if it is demonstrated that voluntary registration is not working as expected.

Survey results indicate a voluntary program, much like that used by appliance manufacturers for warranty registrations, will be more successful than the current dealer-registration system.

The outcome of an independent poll revealed approximately 86% of those responding would register their new tires under a voluntary program. Even allowing for an adjustment of this figure, the pollster still projects a significant increase in the percentage of registrations.

Both voluntary registration and public-recall changes are badly needed. They will further the interests of highway safety and benefit the consumer without imposing additional regulatory costs on the taxpayers.

Irving St. set for facelift

A spokesman for the Mayor's Office in Rahway announced federal funds have been made available to continue the city's downtown-improvement program.

According to Mayor Daniel L. Martin, the city will now begin work on Irving St., after successfully completing Cherry, Lewis and Main Sts. in the downtown area.

The mayor said the city will have about $100,000 for the work, $65,000 from new federal funds and the balance from funds left after the Main/Lewis St. project was completed under budget.

The new project will start at the intersection of Irving St. and West Milton Ave., and will proceed north on Irving St. to Cherry St. and west on Milton Ave. to the railroad overpass.

The work will include new curbs, brick sidewalks and Victorian streetlights, just as in the other portions of the downtown, the mayor pointed out.

He added, "We're heading up town and eventually will have an all-new shopping area."

The city's chief executive noted bid specifications for the work will be ready in December, and construction will start in March.

In a related development, the mayor noted work will commence immediately on the $254,000 E. Headwood Ave. federally-funded sewer separation project, for which bids were awarded on Oct. 12.

"This is the start of our sewer separation pro-

Marsh move seeks change-order probe

The Second Ward Councilman John C. Marsh of Rahway today announced he is going to sponsor a resolution at the next regular City Council meeting to ask the prosecutor for an investigation of the hundreds of thousands of dollars of illegal change orders executed by the administration of Mayor Daniel L. Martin.

"Since 1978, I have repeatedly demanded Mayor Martin comply with a 1977 state law requiring the mayor to submit change orders to the City Council for legislative approval prior to their execution. Again and again, they have rejected my requests they comply with state law," said Councilman Marsh.

The Councilman pointed out at the regular City Council meeting of July 1981, in a resolution sponsored by the Sixth Ward Councilman James J. Full, that the City Council formally requested information from the illegal change orders relating to the new City Hall.

In this case, the mayor even defied the entire City Council by failing to satisfy the formal request of the governing body," noted Councilman Marsh.

"This year, the city auditor pointed a finger at this outrageous violation of state law by the mayor, and still the mayor kept the information away from the Council and the people," he added.

"The final straw was the tabling of a resolution sponsored by Councilman Full corner requesting copies be handed over to the City Clerk's Office for public inspection. By tabling that resolution, the Martin Democrats and their allies are barring councilmen, and the public from information which they are entitled to have, and they raise the question whether even more involved in this scandal than the violation of the state law or change

Business tips to be given at college

A one-day seminar for men and women planning to go into a business of their own will be offered for the ninth year at Union County College on Saturday, Nov. 13.

"How To Start and Manage Your Own Business" will again be cosponsored by the college's Office of Continuing Education, the Small Business Administration, ACE (Active Corps of Executives), and SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives).

Credentialed individuals representing ACE and SCORE who have participated in the seminar in the past will provide information on legal and financial problems, accounting and tax needs, pitfalls to avoid and advertising and promotion skills involved in launching a new business venture.

The seminar will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. with an hour lunch break at 12:00 p.m. The tuition is $20.

Martin apologizes for 'low' campaign

Rahway Mayor Daniel L. Martin issued a public apology today for "the low level of this year's election campaign."

"For the first time in my career," Mayor Martin said, "I really understand why good people don't want to be involved in local government, and why the average citizen becomes fed up with politics."

The mayor stated he has never faced a campaign as "dirty" as this year's, "which has made it very difficult for us to project the dignity and honor we believe in."

"When your name or that of your family or friends or that of your private business is being dragged through the mud," the official said, "you become faced with the difficult task of trying to answer such charges with as much dignity as you can."

"If the people of Rahway stop and think a minute," the mayor pointed out, "they will recall the 1981 campaign began with me and my associates being called 'Nazis,' 'big liars,' 'propagandists' and 'communists.'"

"In the same vein, now our opponents are trying to link my name with the indictment of Linden's Mayor John T. Gregorio, as well as otherwise imply I am dishonest," the city's chief executive noted. "This certainly merits disapproval, if not condemnation, from every good citizen in Rahway."

The mayor noted he did not ask to be a witness in the Gregorio trial.

"I was subpoenaed, and as a law-abiding citizen I complied with the subpoena," Mr. Martin commented, adding, "It is surely a disgrace because I was a subpoenaed witness, Mr. Fulcomer, Mr. Lord and Mrs. Surber would try to make it sound like I have done something wrong."

The mayor explained, "With due regard to the Rahway business I have an investment in, it is a respectable, family-type business with a kitchen and a liquor license, and permission for me to invest in this small business was granted by the State Board of Alcohol Beverage Control after consultation with the New Jersey Attorney General's Office. I am proud to be a respectable businessman in Rahway, and for Mr. Fulcomer, Mrs. Surber and Mr. Lord to try to associate my situation with illegality or conflicts or anything else is untruthful and more revealing of their character than mine."

The mayor emphasized this business role has always been public knowledge, and he "has never hidden anything from anyone."

"Isn't it interesting," Mayor Martin asserted, "my investment in this business was published in the local newspapers over five years ago, each year since 1977 my name has been publicly listed in the city directory as an owner, and every year my investment is publicly listed on the license itself, yet only now, three weeks before the election, does someone raise it as an issue?"

The official went on to say, "I am very proud to have been born and raised in Rahway, to live here and have my family here and to invest in a business here. Having a small business and being a taxpayer and a law-abiding citizen, I understand the city better and thus serve the public better."

"Both my public and my private life are centered on Rahway, and I care too much for my hometown to do anything to hurt it. As I have done in the past, I will continue to represent the people of Rahway in fighting anyone or anything that would exploit Rahway," the mayor added.

He concluded his remarks by saying, "The people of Rahway are intelligent enough to separate real issues from phony issues. In a lifetime of service to the community, I have proven my commitment to the highest standards of honesty and integrity, and no one can ever take that away from me."

GOP charged with delaying road work

Lack of foresighting by Clark's Republican administration has "unnecessarily delayed" needed road improvement in the community, Democratic Councilman Joseph Comarata asserted today.

"There's an apparent lack of foresight by Clark officials in taking bids late in the year for road-construction projects," declared Raymond Krov and Joseph Comarata, the First and Third Ward aspirants, respectively.

"Failure to take into consideration the approaching freezing winter weather which inevitably forestalls completion of road work until the following spring forces projects to be unnecessarily delayed, and causes public anger," said the Democratic hopefuls.

Mr. Krov, a former member of the Clark Board of Education, cited three projects this year in which bids were advertised late—the improvement of Post Rd. and the traffic light project.

Mr. Krov, a local businessman, also pointed out funding to correct various storm-drainage improvements throughout the town ship have been available since early this year, "but it has not been utilized. This lack of administrative ability has delayed the relief requested and paid for by our residents."

Charges set for articles on nuptials

The charge for the placement of wedding and engagement announcements in The Rahway News-Record and The Clark Patriot is $5 without a picture and $8 with a picture.

The forms are available at the offices of the newspapers at 219 Central Ave., Rahway, or by writing to Box No. 1061, Rahway, N. J. 07065 or by telephoning the offices at 574-1200.

In order to run in the following week's editions, the information must be submitted, either typed or clearly printed by 5 p.m. on the preceding Thursday.

Banasiak team: We solved Dem crises

Union County Freeholder Blanche Banasiak of Elizabeth, Robert Miller of Berkeley Heights and Bernard Yarusavage of Clark, and Freeholder candidate, John Kulish of Hillside, pledged to continue planning ahead to avoid government crises and pointed out "with pride" to the policies of the new Republican freholder majority.

"I am proud to report with our reforms, the freholder board is organized on a sound basis. The welfare crisis is ended. We now are working to correct the terrible working conditions faced by our social services workers, which have become profitable in a waste-to-energy plant. Parks are improving. Good attendance at freholder meetings is the rule. We have adopted the Rutgers University model for a new county college system resolving the educational crisis. Partisan politics has been taken out of the county jail by professional management taking the place of the old political patronage system, and we have acted to correct the overcrowding of the county jail caused by years of Democratic neglect."

The people should remember the outgoing Democratic majority, two of whom are our opponents in this election, left us with a $700,000 deficit in the social services treasury, and before any of us got on the Board of Chosen Freeholders had spent many thousands of dollars for un-

Transportation union endorses Rinaldo

The 6,750-member United Transportation Union of New Jersey endorsed Rep. Matthew J. Rinaldo, running in the district including Clark, for reelection to a sixth term in Congress.

Irvin McFarland, the state legislative director, said Rep. Rinaldo's efforts in Congress over the last 10 years have been instrumental in bringing more than a billion dollars in federal funds for New Jersey's ailing mass transit system.

The union president added the transportation union's executive board members voted unanimously to endorse the representative because of his productive working relations with the transportation union and his far-sighted views on New Jersey's mass transit needs.

The United Transportation Union executive board praised Rep. Rinaldo's stand against cuts in Amtrak and the northeast corridor modernization, which kept the rail line operating, safeguarded jobs and has led to an increase in ridership on Amtrak.

The Republican is a co-sponsor of a bill to develop high-speed, inter-city passenger rail systems for Amtrak.

One of Rep. Rinaldo's achievements on the House Energy and Commerce Committee, Mr. McFarland pointed out, was in working out a compromise bill allowing Conrail to continue freight operations, which have become profitable in recent months. The bill also contained provisions for the smooth transition of Conrail commuter operations to the state of New Jersey.

The union also pointed to the representative's efforts in safeguarding railroad retirement benefits.

"Before the energy crisis led to the long gasoline lines in New Jersey, Rep. Rinaldo was calling for amend-

The Rinaldo plan called for linking the schedules and operations of the state's bus and rail lines in order to sharply increase ridership, and to lower operating deficits.

The transportation union represents 5,300 railroad operating personnel and 1,450 bus line employees.

The United Transportation Union board pointed out Rep. Rinaldo has been among the staunchest supporters in Congress in resisting cutbacks by the present and previous administration in rail service because of the adverse economic impact on New Jersey industry, business and jobs.

A few years ago Rep. Rinaldo had worked with the United Transportation Union and the state Dept. of Transportation officials in obtaining an emergency loan to keep 14 financially ailing bus lines in New Jersey operating when they were threatened with bankruptcy.

The transportation union has endorsed the representative in five previous elections, and this year cited his earlier record as a member of the New Jersey State Senate in supporting the proposal for the PATH takeover of the bankrupt Hudson tubes.

Gas firm promotes for facelift

A spokesman for the Mayor's Office in Rahway announced federal funds have been made available to continue the city's downtown-improvement program.

According to Mayor Daniel L. Martin, the city will now begin work on Irving St., after successfully completing Cherry, Lewis and Main Sts. in the downtown area.

The mayor said the city will have about $100,000 for the work, $65,000 from new federal funds and the balance from funds left after the Main/Lewis St. project was completed under budget.

The new project will start at the intersection of Irving St. and West Milton Ave., and will proceed north on Irving St. to Cherry St. and west on Milton Ave. to the railroad overpass.

The work will include new curbs, brick sidewalks and Victorian streetlights, just as in the other portions of the downtown, the mayor pointed out.

He added, "We're heading up town and eventually will have an all-new shopping area."

The city's chief executive noted bid specifications for the work will be ready in December, and construction will start in March.

In a related development, the mayor noted work will commence immediately on the $254,000 E. Headwood Ave. federally-funded sewer separation project, for which bids were awarded on Oct. 12.

"This is the start of our sewer separation pro-

Can we believe anything Adam Levin says?

It is shocking that a major American manufacturer could build and distribute a tire that was universally judged to be unsafe. It is equally shocking that someone who had so little to do with its recall should now be trying to get so much political mileage out of it.

Firestone 500's have been judged by the courts, the Congress and the public—and they are now off the road—without any help from Adam Levin.

If you're tired of hot air, vote for Congressman Rinaldo on November 2nd. His record is one of solid accomplishment for his district. His works are on the record—not full of holes. You can believe what he says, because you can see what he's done: for senior citizens, for taxpayers, for the environment, for the district.

Keep him working for you

Paid for by Rinaldo for Congress Committee, 1081 Morris Avenue, Union, N.J. 07083

THE CLAIM

In his own paid advertising Adam Levin, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 7th District, claims that when he was the Byrne-appointed Consumer Affairs Director in New Jersey he personally led the fight to force 15 million unsafe Firestone 500 tires off the road.

UNFORTUNATELY, THAT CLAIM IS JUST A LOT OF HOT AIR.

FACT: Official government records show that the actual tire recall began years before Levin was appointed by Gov. Byrne.

FACT: Levin's actual efforts consisted of less than five minutes of testimony before a House Subcommittee. And the establishment of a so-called consumer hotline for tire complaints.

FACT: The final recall agreement with Firestone was signed in November, 1978. The so-called consumer hotline, which Levin claims helped lead to the recall, wasn't established until October, 1979. Almost a year later.

FACT: Firestone and the National Highway and Traffic Safety Administration were in court over the issue a full three years before Levin was even appointed by Byrne.

FACT: Court records show that the company had lost a Federal court appeal on an NHSTA ordered recall in 1977. Again, before Levin's appointment.

FACT: By the time Levin spoke up the issue had been widely covered on television and in the national and local press. In fact, there had already been one million recalls before Levin spoke up.

Crusaders topple St. Thomas 16-7

By Jim Hoagland
The Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School Crusaders Football Team of Clark County defeated St. Thomas Aquinas High School of Edison 16-7 on Oct. 16. Clark raised its record to 1-3, after giving the Crusaders their first possession of the game. Darren Winston added the extra point, and St. Thomas was finished for the afternoon.

The Crusaders opened the second quarter by marching 41 yards in 10 plays. When the drive stalled on the St. Thomas 27-yard line, Tom Amen kicked a long 45-yard field goal. The middle of the game was very weak all during the second half. Clark took full advantage of this weakness, and ran countless plays up the middle.

Amen played another strong game for Clark, accounting for 10 of the Crusaders' 16 points.

St. Thomas would not die, however. Two Bob Roarty passed were intercepted by Clark to close the scoring at 16-7.

Thunderbolts burn Indians' hopes

By Ray Hoagland
The Rahway High School Indians Football Team dropped their third football game of the season to Millville 36-14.

The senior halfback of Rahway, Fred Singleton, scored on a 77-yard touchdown in the second period. Then Dorsey Wilkins passed to Derrick Thorpe, and sent the Indians into an 8-7 lead on the first play the Indians had the ball in the second period. But it was not enough as the Indians lost to the Millville Thunderbolts at the Veterans Memorial Field in Rahway before about 1,000 spectators on Oct. 16.

The Thunderbolts took the opening kickoff, and marched 74 yards in 15 plays when Tim Smith, a junior quarterback, passed to Cortez Melendez in the end zone for the score. John Ayres kicked the extra point.

The Indians only had the ball for four plays in the first period, as the visitors scored six first downs.

After the Millville team was forced to punt, the Indians took over on their four-yard line, then Singleton cut to his left, and moved into the center of the field at the 42-yard line, and was away for the longest run of the season.

A pass to Thorpe had given Rahway its only lead at 7-0.

The Millville team then took the next kickoff, and marched 71 yards in seven plays, sending John Ayres over from the one-yard line, and when Melendez took a pass in the end zone for the extra point, the visitors were leading 15-7.

The Indians, led by the running of Singleton and Derrick Bowden, took the next kickoff, and marched from their 25-yard line to Millville's 15, where Ayres intercepted a Wilkins pass in the end zone.

During the drive of 15 plays Rahway had five first downs, and a pass from Dorsey to Lance Thomas gave the Indians a first down on the Millville's 27-yard line with one minute and 22 seconds left in the first period.

Then a pass for another first down from Wilkins to Tyrone McQueen placed the ball on the 15-yard line with one minute and seven seconds to go in the period.

In the third period the Indians scored, following an interception by Tom Duffy on Millville's 42-yard line, and carried to the visitor's five-yard marker.

Bowden carried to the three-yard line, then took a pitchout to the left from the quarterback, and bulldied into the end zone at three minutes and 46 seconds into the period, and it was 15-14.

The try for the two points failed.

Singleton, who had 114 yards in eight carries including the 96-yard run, did not play in the second until the final minutes.

The winners took control of the game, had touchdowns by Jim Parent from the one-yard line, Ayres on a 19-yard run and Bob Styles on a 24-yard run.

Rahway is now 1-3, while Millville is 2-2.

Rinaldo to debate Levin
Rep. Matthew J. Rinaldo today announced he has accepted two more invitations to debate Adam Levin, his opponent in the new Seventh District, which includes Clark.

They began their series of six debates last week in face-to-face confrontations before the editorial boards of The Home News in New Brunswick and The Asbury Park Press.

Earlier, they had made a joint appearance at the Union County Central Labor Council in Linden, where the delegates over-whelmingly voted to endorse Rep. Rinaldo.

The debates will cover the five counties in the new Seventh District. A spokesman for the Rinaldo Campaign Committee pointed out the six debates and one joint appearance is more than the number of debates in the state-wide Senate race.

A second radio debate will be hosted by WCCT in New Brunswick on Monday, Oct. 25. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m., and will be moderated by the station news director, Walt Sodi.

St. Ann's unit slates cake sale

The St. Ann's Society of St. Mark's R. C. Church of Rahway held its monthly meeting on Oct. 6. The president, Mrs. Robert (Janes) Smith, presided.

The society will hold a cake sale the weekend of Nov. 13 and 14. Mrs. Gen (William) Gorski and Mrs. Frieda (Norbert) Jacquemin are in charge.

Plans are underway to hold the Christmas Party on Wednesday, Jan. 5, of next year. Mrs. Mia (Domini) Borrelli and Mrs. Anni (Heinrich) Alfert are the chairwomen.

The final debate will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 28, at a Candidates Forum sponsored by the North Plainfield League of Women Voters at the Stony Brook School in North Plainfield.

Paul Schlegel, the campaign director, said the committee had kept the schedule open to Sept. 24 to give all organizations in the five-county area an opportunity to submit invitations. Any invitations after that date were automatically turned down.

Historians to teach dancing

The Clark Historical Society will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m. at the Clark Public Library at 303 Westfield Ave., Clark.

The Heritage Dancers of Cranford, a traditional dance group, will present a program of period dances. Performing in 18th century costumes, they re-enact dances the Colonists enjoyed as part of their social activities. The audience will have the opportunity to participate.

The dancemaster, Dick Meyers, has a quarter of a century of experience in the country dance field. He is a member of the Country Dance and Song Society and the Lloyd Shaw Foundation.

The society members will also celebrate Halloween at this meeting. Participants may come in costume. Refreshments will be served. There will be no admission charge.

READY FOR OPENING - Sister Marcela smiles while Janet Walker sips coffee, and waits for Rahway's St. Mary's Fair to open. Sister Marcela has become famous for her fair will be held this weekend.

St. Mary's ready for annual fair

St. Mary's Parish in Rahway will hold its annual fair on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 22, 23 and 24, in the parish hall on Central Ave.

Tomorrow night the fair will run from 7 to 11 o'clock, and there will be a special "Hobo Steer" Dinner from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Saturday's schedule will run from 1 to 11 p.m. with a Polish dinner served from 7 to 9 o'clock.

On Sunday a traditional turkey dinner will be served from 2 to 4 o'clock, but the fair itself will run from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

In addition to the special dinners, which require no reservations, the fair will offer games of skill and chance, home-made articles and baked goods, Grandma's Attic, foods and beverages, a nickel pitch and a haunted house.

The theme of the fair this year is "Depression Is Just a State of Mind." Prices have been kept low in keeping with the theme.

Dinner reservations may be made by telephoning 574-3533 after 6 p.m.

Indians to meet stronger Cougars

By Ray Hoagland

The Rahway Indians will travel to Cranford's Memorial Field on Saturday, Oct. 23, to meet the Cougars for the 46th time, with the kickoff at 1 p.m.

This will be the Indians' first game of the season. The National Division game of this season, Rahway is the defending champion.

Rahway leads between the schools with a 25-19-1 edge. Last year the Indians won 29-0. The Cougars have not beaten the Indians since 1976.

The Cougars have lost to Linden, Hillside and North Brunswick. They are stronger than they have been in the last few years.

The Cranford team is led by six returning veterans. Chris Boffa, who has kicked a field goal, is the team's fullback as well as a line backer and placekicker.

The offensive line is strong, with Kevin Rogan at center and Meredith Conley, a 200-pounder, and John Christiano at the guards. Mike Scotti is a quick and strong defensive end, who Coach Edward Truchina said "makes our defense happen."

The following story was written by Mike Cudem of The Bridgeton Evening News regarding our Indians before their game with the fine Millville team.

Looking at the Rahway High School Football Team brings to mind the age-old adage about judging a book by its cover.

While the Rahway 11 brings a 1-2 record into Saturday's non-league game with Millville, the Indians are by no means a charity bunch.

The Group No. 3 school is a member of the Watchung Conference's National Division and a familiar sight at the top of those standings. Last fall the Indians were 7-0-2 in the regular season to win the league title, and wound up 13-2, losing to Caldwell 27-7 in the Group No. 3 Section No. 2 final.

The Indians, who will host the Thunderbolts in a 1:30 p.m. start in Rahway, are under the direction of fifth-year head coach, Mike Punko, who compiled a 36-8-2 average.

At this stage Rahway's gridiron problems are similar to Millville's offense, or a lack of it.

It was not until the season's third week, last Saturday, the Indians found the end zone in a 12-0 upset win over the highly-touted Linden.

Weeks 1 and 2 saw the red and the black fall to Scotch Plains, who kicked a field goal, and a school that turned out Renato Nehemiah of track, and now football fame, by 12-0, and Toms River East 21-0.

"We've got a lot of younger ball players in a kind of rebuilding year," said Punko. "We're not as big as we've been in the past, and there's no question depth is one of our weaknesses."

While Punko spoke of a lack of size, Millville Coach Tony Surace spoke of Rahway as a "giant."

The offensive line averages 202 pounds, while the average on the defensive front is 193.
