Councilmen adopt $10.9 million budget; taxes expected to drop by eight points

The city's $10.9 million budget for 1983 was adopted April 25 at a special meeting of City Council.

Under the new tab, which is up about 2% of the 1982 figure, residents can expect about a 5% drop in taxes, or about eight tax points, according to business administrator Joseph M. Hartnett.

Republican councilmen April 11 had argued against increasing the "CAPS" limit, the state-approved amount spending from one year can increase over that of a previous year, from 5 to 7.5%.

Although the GOP councilmen had said they could cut about $200,000 out of the 1983 spending plan, recommendations they made at a special session on April 18 did not contain amounts near that figure.

There were no amendments to the budget introduced on April 25.

One motion, introduced by Second Ward Councilman John C. Marsh and seconded by First Ward Councilman Lawrence Bodine at the April 18 session, had sought to decrease the salary-and-wage account for the public works department from $723,284 to $719,284 and to increase the salary-and-wage account for the City Clerk's Office from $42,660 to $46,160.

That motion was defeated, with Councilmen Marsh and Bodine being joined by Fifth Ward Republican Councilman Walter Pitts voting for it, Sixth Ward Republican Councilman James J. Fulcomer abstaining, and the five Democratic councilmen voting against it.

The Democrats then introduced an amendment, sponsored by Councilman-at-Large Walter McLeod and Third Ward Councilman Max Sheld, to cut the City Council salary-and-wage account from $31,741 to $28,741 and to increase the salary-and-wage account for the City Clerk's Office by the same amount as the motion stated above.

That motion was passed, with the five Democrats being joined by Councilman Pitts in voting for it, and Councilmen Bodine, Fulcomer and Marsh voting against it.

Previous to that vote, Councilman Fulcomer had introduced a motion, seconded by Councilman Marsh, to decrease the Council's salary-and-wage account from $31,741 to $30,969 and the salary-and-wage account for the Mayor's Office from that of $11,158 to $9,951 and increase the salary-and-wage account for the City Clerk's Office from $42,660 to $45,157.

The substitute motion had the support of all four Republicans, but the five Democrats had voted against it.

While explaining the increase in the "CAPS" limit on April 11 Mr. Hartnett had said the "caps-exempt" portion of the budget was decreased this year, while those items contained with the "CAPS" were up.

Although the total revenues are expected to be up this year, the total amount of taxes to be collected by the city is expected to be down.

Several reasons had been cited by the administrator for "increased pressure" on the "CAPS" portion of the budget. Among them: Salaries within the limit will be up $259,132.45 or 5.5%, including a general pay raise of 5% plus retirement costs, and even with no new employees, the police department alone will increase the tab by $130,211.45; five police cars will have to be purchased this year, compared with two last year, for an increase of $24,726; despite reductions in fossil-fuel energy costs, any savings will be offset by an increase of $49,393.20 in street-lighting costs to restore a cut made in 1982; garbage collection will cost $43,373 this year, and library costs will rise by $17,167 this year. Also, pensions will cost the city $73,000 more this year.

In one objection to the increase in the spending ceiling, Councilman Fulcomer had said April 11 that last year the Governing Body had been faced with a $199,000 emergency appropriation, compared to a $10,000 figure this year causing what he had called about at least a $190,000 "windfall" this year.

Mr. Hartnett had replied at that time the combination of the increase in the "CAPS" section of the budget coupled with the decrease in the "exempt" section would result in a $199,000 drop in the "exempt" section.

He had also said the tax decrease was determined by the revenue section of the budget, not the "CAPS" section.

Two elections now on June 7

The Special Election to fill the vacated State Senate seat in the 20th District, which includes Rahway, which was originally scheduled for Tuesday, May 10, was postponed by a law signed last week by Gov. Thomas Kean.

The election will be held on the same day as this year's Primary Elections, Tuesday, June 7, reports Union County Clerk Walter Halpin.

Erratum

The statement in last week's Rahway News-Record attributed to Elizabeth police detective and Rahway resident, Frank Miterotonda, concerning the April 21 hearing on the proposed state methadone clinic in Rahway, which talked about the drug arrests in the city of Elizabeth was reported incorrectly.

According to the detective, he said there have been drug arrests in that city from the clinic on Rahway Ave. He did not say most of Elizabeth's recent drug arrests have been from the clinic.

Hospital breaks ground for expansion

Despite the inclement weather, more than 140 people joined hospital dignitaries and honored guests as Rahway Hospital broke ground on April 25 for its $50 million Expansion and Modernization '80s Program.

Gordon Harris, the chairman of the hospital's Board of Governors, served as master of ceremonies for the event. Dr. P. Roy Vagelos, general chairman of the fund campaign and president of Merck Sharp and Dohme Research Laboratory of Rahway, praised the hospital for "serving the community in a generous way and fulfilling an important community function."

"I am optimistic about meeting our current goal of $2,000,000 from the community campaign," he added.

The goal for the fund campaign is $2,000,000, and the total at the moment is nearly $1,700,000. This total includes a $750,000 bequest from the estate of the late Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Mark. Dr. Mark was one of the original 13 physicians who established the 12-bed hospital in Rahway that one year later (in 1917) was re-organized and incorporated as Rahway Hospital, a non-profit community hospital under the management of a Board of Governors. According to Dr. Ernest Geenberg, president of the medical staff, who gave a tribute to Dr. and

Mrs. Mark, the new surgical suite being planned for the hospital will be named in his memory.

The Auxiliary of Rahway Hospital has just pledged $500,000 for the expansion program. A pace-setting pledge for $150,000 has been received from the Merck Company Foundation. Other corporate pledges have been received from the Regina Corp. of Rahway, the Willard Dunham Construction Co. and the Puro-Lator Products Co. of Rahway. All of the corporate contributors were thanked by William E. Jones, chairman of the Leadership Gifts Committee, and presented with a memento of the groundbreaking.

John L. Yoder, the president of the hospital, thanked the various members of the Rahway Hospital family for their support in this endeavor: Employees, medical staff, board members, Auxiliaries and in-service volunteers.

Since the ceremony had to be held indoors, a large container of soil served as the symbolic ground-breaking site for Mr. Yoder and Dr. Vagelos, who donned hardhats and took shovels in hand to do the honors.

"This expansion and modernization program will allow Rahway Hospital to offer the best of modern medical technology in improved surroundings to the people we have been serving for the past 65 years," concluded Mr. Yoder.

Grand Chancellors William Hausler, Lawrence Tumarkin, Gus Goldner and Edward Silbert. The committee for this rank included Brothers David A. Slutsky, Arthur Freeman, Jules Wachter and Daniel Podell. Deputy Grand Chancellor Tumarkin delivered the 10 o'clock prayer.

Because of the severe flooding in Louisiana, a plea was made to members to donate clothing, money, medical supplies and other necessities. This project will be known as "Louisiana Flood Relief," and is being sponsored by the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

Secretary Harry Blitzer reported plans are being formulated for many activities for the spring and summer season.

The closing prayer was given by Prelate Milton Kornspan. The next meeting is scheduled for today.

Municipal clerks cited throughout this week

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was submitted to The Rahway News-Record by Rahway City Clerk Francis R. Senkowski in recognition of Municipal Clerks Week, May 8 to 14. Mr. Senkowski will be interviewed on Mayor Daniel L. Martin's cable television show on Tuesdays, May 17 and 24, at 5:30 p.m.

The municipal clerk, along with the tax collector, is the oldest of public servants. The office can be traced to Biblical times and even before.

St. Paul and his followers, during his missionary work in Persia (now western Turkey), owed their safety to the action of a town clerk. As related in the Bible, the artisans of Ephesus who made the idols of the time, feared the effect of Paul's missionary work on their trade. They incited a mob to seize two of Paul's followers.

The town clerk, however, spoke out against this action, and insisted charges laid against these men had to be settled in the proper manner and before the proper authorities. There was no justification for riotous conduct. With that, he dispersed the crowd.

Ancient Greece had a city secretary who read official documents publicly. At the opening of a meeting, one of his duties was to read a curse upon anyone who should seek to deceive the people.

The early keepers of the archives were often called remembrancers, and before writing came into use, their memory was the public record.

The title as we know it is derived from the Middle Ages. A "Clerk" was any member of a religious order, a "cleric" or "clergyman." Since, for all practical purposes, the scholarship of the Middle Ages was limited to the clergy, the name "clerk" came to be synonymous with "scholar."

The office of clerk can be traced back to the year

1272 A.D. in the History of the Corporation of Old London. In the 1500's in England there was not only the "town clerk" but also the "clerk controller of the king's very honorable household." In 1603 there was a "clerk general of the army." King Henry the Eighth had a "clerk of the spicery" and King Charles had his "clerk of the robes."

When the early colonists came to America, they set up forms of local government to which they had been accustomed, and the office of clerk was one of the first established. The colony at Plymouth appointed a person to act as a recorder.

Over the years municipal clerks have become the hub of government, the direct link between the inhabitants of their towns and their government. The clerk is the historian of his community, for the entire recorded history of the town and its people is in his care.

City Post Office to conduct tour

The Rahway postal facility, located at 123 E. Milton Ave., will have an open house on Wednesday, May 11, between 7:30 a.m. and noon, reports Rahway Postmaster Joseph J. Rein, 3rd.

All residents and business persons from Rahway, Clark and Colonia may participate. Some of the activities planned are tours of the facility, a short film on Express Mail, a question and-answer period, and refreshments.

Postmaster Rein stated since the days of the Pony Express, the Post Office has represented a dedicated service to the public. Operations, and modes of processing are changing faster than ever before.

"We value the good will of our patrons and hope our 'Open House' will help us to work together for an even better Postal Service," the postmaster added.

Munro, writing in one of the first textbooks on municipal administration, stated, "No other office in municipal service has so many contacts. It serves the mayor, the city council, the city manager (when there is one), and all administrative departments without exception. All of them call upon it, almost daily, for some service or information. Its work is not spectacular, but it demands versatility, alertness, accuracy, and no end of patience. The public does not realize how many loose ends of city administration this office pulls together."

Clark Lanes breaks into victory column

Clark Lanes won its first game behind Brian Power's first start of the year with a victory over V.F.W. 3-2 in Clark Babe Ruth baseball. Power gave up only one hit in five innings and recorded seven strikeouts.

Helping Power were the bats of Steve Navarro and Ed Hanneveld, who both batted on in on relief of Power in the sixth to hold V.F.W. scoreless and got the save. V.F.W.'s Brian Simms was pitching a beautiful game into the fourth inning, when he was forced out of the game due to an injury. Paul Hornsby pitched well in relief. Jeff Stives and Jack Gianastasio supplied the punch for V.F.W.

Sports Club also won its first game of the year with a 7-5 victory over Unsuben Country Squire. Rookie Jack Patten, went all the way for Sports Club, giving up only four hits while registering seven strikeouts. Andy Bracuto had two hits, while Jim Szabo had three hits.

Country Squire's Mike

Shorro had two hits. Country Squire threatened in the seventh inning, with the bases loaded, but the rally was put to rest by Sports Club's bats.

Fritz Salas remained undefeated by striking his third victim, Steve Simon over Prudential Bank 6-1. In a see-saw battle, Fritz broke on top in the sixth inning when the visiting Jim Biene, Jerome Grande, Eric Richter and John Zwa came alive and cracked Prudential's pitcher, Gene Mayco, for four runs.

Fritz pitcher Jim Biene, went all the way, striking out five batters and giving up five hits. Chris Tenney collected the win for Prudential, while Pat Grady drove in the only run. Ron Banatuk and Kevin Wilson collected the other hits.

SUPER VOLUNTEER - Angela Manes, right, a Rahway Hospital in-service volunteer since 1975 and a resident of Rahway, was honored during National Volunteer Week for achieving 2,000 hours of service to the hospital. Mrs. Manes has worked in the linen room, community relations and occupational and recreational therapy. She comes in on Wednesday and Friday mornings, and has volunteered at Rose Hall, the hospital's skilled nursing facility. George Argast, associate director of the hospital, attended the reception held in Mrs. Manes honor, and presented her with a certificate of achievement. He pointed out how hard it is to come up with new ways to say thank you and he hoped that the satisfaction of volunteering serves as a thank you. Mrs. Manes is shown with Phyllis Andelman, volunteer services administrator, admiring the spring flower centerpiece from her reception.

County accepts quarry bid

Union County has accepted a bid from the Riverdale Quarry Co. of Parlin for the demolition, clearing and grading of the 35-acre site of the Houdaille Quarry in Springfield.

The firm has agreed to pay the county $110,000 to remove some 20 small structures, utility poles, wires, electrical equipment, storage drums and other superfluous materials left there from the days when Houdaille was an active quarry, said Arthur L. Grisi, county manager.

The quarry property was given to the county last year by the state Department of Transportation in exchange for the tract of the Watchung Reservation needed to complete the 5.5-mile "missing link" of Interstate Rte. No. 78. Bid specifications were sent to some 50 firms, and 15 companies submitted bids for the projects, ranging from $110,000 to $250,000.

"The contract with Riverdale requires the work to be completed by Monday, Oct. 31. In the meantime, Union County is exploring plans for the use of the property for a future recreation site," Mr. Grisi said.
