AARP SUPPORT - From the beginning of the effort to save and restore the Old Rahway Theatre to its former glory, a spirited group of men and women have been behind that effort all the way. 65 members of the Rahway branch of the American Branch of the American Assn. of Retired Persons have given of their time and their money to make the project a success. In praising the efforts of the group, Eric Rickes, the funding coordinator, told Bernadette Acierno, the president, and Mary London, the liaison officer to Rahway Landmarks, this group consists of really public-spirited citizens, interested in improving their community and willing to work to do so. Shown at a recent meeting with the association are: Betty Martin, Charles Voss, Mary London, Dorothy Ruddy. association president, Bernadette Acierno; Agnes Cox and Mr Rickes.
