Obviously, all this will not happen overnight. We have no agreement with a particular team at this time and it's impossible to predict when we will. But I believe it is vitally important for the sports authority, to be in a position to act quickly when the opportunity arises and that's why this particular bill-was so important. I am confident we will attract a major league team to New Jersey — all logic argues in its favor. New Jersey probably has more active and knowledgeable sports fans than anyplace else in the country. We are a state which has

CREATING CASTLE-OF SUGAR AND SPICE...The aromas of holiday baking permeated the kitchen whe diss Jennifer Palmer's home economics classes at the Carl H. Kumpf School in Clark made a gingerbread cas adorned with assorted sweets. Crea ative use of col orful icings, cookies and candies resulted in a miniature nasterplece of sugar and spice. Student participants in the holiday baking were: Jeff Jadro, Jinsuho Lee, Joh ee, Colette LoPrimo. Deana Liguori, Laura MacAvoy. John Poznanski, Ricky Russo, Kenny Sabo, Michae Strohmayer, Michael Wiese, Colin Wills, Colleen Wills, Angel Young, Anton Zambell and Walter Zawacki. In a contest conducted during the holiday concert. Antor Zambell, right, was the winner of the creative confection. His name was selected from among those of the student participants in the project. Miss Palmer is hown presenting him with the prize.

NEW RUNNELLS IN VIEW...Union County Freeholder Walter E. Boright, the chairman of the John E. Runnells Ad Hoc Committee, center, displays an artist's rendering and the scale model of the John E. Runnells merit-purpose health-care facility. Looking on are Evelyn Franks, left, the president of the Union County Council of Senior Citizens, and Freeholder Charlotte Defilippo. "The new facility proposes expanded programs in cancer care, nursing home beds geriatric rehabilitation, mental health services, alcoholism treatment and physical medicine and rehabilitation" reports
Freeholder Boright: It is anticipated the efficiencies offered by new construction and related economies will substantially reduce the operating deficit of the present 72-year-old hospital. In a five-year period, deficit of the present 72-year-old hospital. In a five-year period, therefore, the cost saving will equal the cost of constructing and equiping the new health complex. The sale of some of the present Runnells acreage and medicaid reimbursement funds will allow the new Runnells to pay for itself. "Most importantly" stated Freedholder Boright, "the new Runnells facility will allow future generations of the county's elderly and sick poor residents among others to afford high quality health care. The present Runnells will continue to function until the new facility is open
