

St. Elizabeth's offers Lifeline to elderly

Elderly persons with high medical risks and who live alone are able to simply push a button from home and instantly signal St. Elizabeth Hospital's emergency room for help under a new program which was recently initiated at the hospital.

This program, called Lifeline, is the result of a grant from Union County to the hospital to further develop the Lifeline program in the county, with the exception of Plainfield, which received a separate grant for another purpose.

Persons enrolled in Lifeline receive an electronic communications system, consisting of a device for a home telephone and a unit similar to a beeper. Carried in a pocket or attached to clothing, the beeper works in conjunction with the telephone. At the first sign of a medical emergency the client can push a button on the beeper, transmitting an electronic message by telephone to a response center in St. Elizabeth's emergency room.

In the emergency response center, which is staffed 24 hours a day, an alarm sounds, the client's code number flashes on a screen and a printed tape records the emergency signal. A hospital staff member immediately recognizes the situation and determines if medical assistance is necessary.

City Council taps Shield as head

A man who has been on Rahway's Governing Body for nearly eight years, Democratic Third Ward Councilman Max Shield, was elected on Jan. 3 at the City Council re-organization meeting to be the Council president for 1984.

Councilman Shield previously headed the Governing Body in 1979.

He was re-elected to the Council in 1980.

The councilman received a bachelor of laws degree from St. John's University School of New York and is a member of the New York State Bar Assn.

The Governing Body also adopted a $3,095,599 temporary municipal budget for 1984 and temporary budget of $728,768.25 for the division of water and sewer.

That budget will be in effect until the permanent budget is adopted for this year, probably sometime in March.

The councilman also authorized the municipal controller to issue petty cash orders for $100 or less.

Clark councilmen elect Eckel head

The members of the Clark Township Council on Jan. 1 elected Democratic Councilman-at-Large Fred Eckel to head the Governing Body for 1984.

The new Council president, elected to his Council post in 1980 as a Republican, changed parties late last year after a dispute with the National State Republican leadership over rotation of the Council presidency and other issues.

He is a former officer with the Newark Identification Bureau and Newark Police Department. He has a B.S. in Criminal Justice from the University of New Jersey at Trenton.

A 1972 recipient of the Newark Police Dept. Award, he was on the Council to Save the Emerald King House and is active with the Clark Circle Softball League.

An attempt was made by Republican Council member John Bodnar as the Council president, but was voted down 4-3 along party lines.

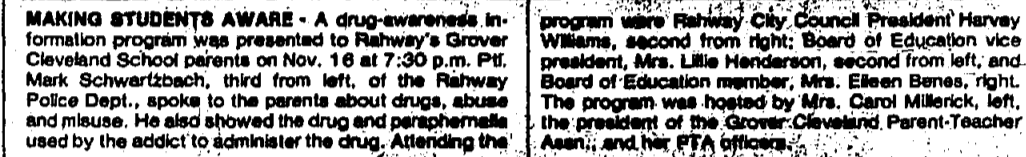

The nomination of Councilman Eckel was supported by Councilman Bodnar and Third Ward Republican Councilwoman Ruth DeLuca.

In a related matter at the pre-organization meeting, the councilman also introduced an ordinance to change the time of their executive and regular meetings from 8 to 8:30 p.m., at least until Thursday, May 31, of this year.

That measure is due to be taken up for public hearing and possible final adoption at the Council's next regular meeting on Monday, Jan. 16, at 8 p.m.

In other action, the Council:

- Adopted a temporary budget for the first three months of the year totaling $1,000,000 for payment of interest on bonds of $40,000 and a temporary swimming pool utility budget of $15,267.
- Introduced an ordinance which would create the position of vice president of the Governing Body. That person would head the Council in the absence of the Council president. That ordinance will be considered for final adoption on Jan. 16.
- Named The Clark Patriot and The Daily Journal of 82 Grand St., Clark, as an alternate member of the Board of Adjustment for a term of two years, effective on Jan. 1 of this year.
- Appointed Theresa Ward of 60 Wheatleaf Rd. and Edward Mushmore of 101 Dorset Dr. as members of the Clark Community Pool Advisory Committee for three-year terms effective on Jan. 1 of this year.
- Authorized the hiring of Thomas Paduano as the pool director for 1984 at a salary of $4,250 per year and Elliot Kaplan as the pool manager for 1984 at a salary of $3,550 per year.
- Named Lt. Beth Husak of 2800 N. 1st St., Rahway, as the Council's representative to the Board of Adjustment.

Thomas Brennan and Mrs. Michelle Lynn Stebner, third from left, at the Rahway Police Dept., spoke to the parents about drugs, abuse and misuse. He also showed the drug and paraphernalia used by the addict to administer the drug. Attending the program were Rahway City Council President Harvey Williams, second from right; Board of Education vice president, Mrs. Lillian Henderson, second from left; and Board of Education member, Mrs. Ellen Bernas, right. The program was hosted by Mrs. Carol Millerick, left. The president of the Governing Body, Councilman Max Shield, and his wife (P) are also present.

College launches Jubilee Fund

A Jubilee Fund campaign for $50,000 was launched by the Union College Foundation on Jan. 3, 1984, at the annual meeting of the board of trustees. Dr. Leonard T. Keenan, Jr., the president, announced today.

The Union College Foundation Jubilee Fund is being established as an "enduring recognition of the distinctive contributions made to Union County by Union College during its 50-year history. Dr. Meder said, "The income from the fund will be used to make the college's Mackay Library and research center it was originally intended to be."

The names of all contributors of $1,000 or more will be inscribed on a bronze tablet and all donors will be recorded in a book of remembrance.

The intention of having the Union County Room as an archive and research center is either to compete with or to replace local, historical or other organizations," Dr. Meder said, "but rather by co-operation to supplement and facilitate their work."

The fund campaign, which will run to June, 1984, is being conducted in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the college. The Union College Foundation is an independent, non-profit corporation whose purpose is to promote and enhance higher education in Union County. Contributions may be sent to the Union College Foundation Jubilee Fund, 1033 Springfield Ave., Cranford, N.J. 07016.

'Crafty' seniors bring Yule joy

The spirit of Christmas flowed through the halls of Rahway Hospital when the podiatry ward was visited by representatives of the Rahway Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts Program on Dec. 21, 1983.

The smiles of three-year-old Karen Schmidt's face was all the thanks needed for the hand-made toys donated to the children by the 20 crafty seniors. She selected a blue octopus toy and named it "Pandy."

The supplies for a new project each week can be expensive. To ease the cost, members of Rahway Junior High School's Honor Society collected household items that were made into original projects. The Rahway Junior Women's Club is also involved with donating supplies.

Anyone who wishes to donate craft supplies to the program or join the program may telephone Beverly Backmann at 574-0888 for more information.

'Jumper' cables worth investment

A good set of battery-boosting jumper cables is a valuable tool, but sets can vary widely in cost and quality," reports Matthew J. Derham, the president of the New Jersey Automobile Club.

Mr. Derham offered the following tips for purchasing a set of jumper cables:

- Copper wire will give better performance than aluminum wire. Identify aluminum wire by its lighter color.
- Shorter cables conduct electricity better than longer ones. Longer cables, however, are more convenient, allowing the car's batteries to be farther apart. Twelve-foot cables are a happy medium.
- The larger the diameter of the wire, the better it will conduct electricity. Beware of small, inadequate wire disguised by bulky insulation. Read the statement of gauge on the packaging.
- The smaller the number, the heavier and more effective the wire. Choose nothing lighter than a six-gauge cable set.
- The best clamps are made of plastic or plastic-covered metal, exposing only the jaws.

War on cancer making progress

A decade after Congress launched the nation's crusade against cancer, there are positive signs major changes are taking place in the treatment and prevention of cancer.

In virtually every area the public is benefiting from breakthroughs in cancer research and treatment. Early detection, surgery, radiation, chemotherapy, experimental immunology and vaccines offer promising methods of coping with cancer.

On two other fronts, knowledge about the environmental causes of cancer and the prevention of cancer through proper nutrition and health habits also give us cause for hope.

Congress recently authorized $1 billion in fiscal 1984 for the National Institute of Cancer, which funds major research projects around the nation. The increase of $70 million in the budget will enable a number of private research centers to continue their work on cancer viruses.

Dr. Saul B. Guberg of the Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York, the past president of the American Cancer Society, claims the 1980's will be particularly exciting in terms of new research breakthroughs and treatment for cancer. The survival rates for many types of cancer are steadily increasing as a result of early detection and treatment.

Using laser, new blood tests and analysis and radioisotopes cancer specialists are able to detect cancers that were hidden from normal examination. This has enabled doctors to treat cancer tumors before they reach the critical, advanced stages.

Surgery has become more aggressive against malignant cells that travel through the body. Modern chemotherapy is effective in reducing the size of tumors. Cancer specialists sound far more optimistic than ever before in recommending early treatment. Survival has improved for persons with seven of the 10 major forms of cancer, including cancer of the breast, colon, rectum and prostate.

At the Mayo Clinic researchers are developing a vaccine against the Epstein-Barr virus and it promises to provide the first vaccine to prevent cancer.

Scientists at the National Cancer Institute also have discovered special agents produced by tumors that are being tested in combination with interferon, developed by Schering-Plough, to inhibit cancer growth.

But it's on the environmental front and in nutrition the most radical changes are expected to take place. One of the major reasons for the passage of stringent environmental-protection laws and occupational health and safety legislation is to prevent the incidence of cancer through exposure to man-made carcinogens on the job or in the environment.

As early as 1964 the World Health Organization estimated 75% of the world's cancer causes were the result of environmental forces. Strong evidence of this viewpoint is supplied by the National Cancer Institute, which reported cancer rates increased as much as five to 10 times from one part of the country to another. The same pattern is repeated in other industrial states.

Armed with these environmental findings and research into nutrition and cancer, Dr. Marvin Schneiderman of the National Cancer Institute stated more than half of the cancer deaths in America are preventable. Some steps to prevent cancer can be initiated by individuals, such as proper diet, less exposure to sunlight, abstaining from tobacco and moderate consumption of alcohol.

On the other hand, government must regulate toxic substances that are linked to cancer, such as dioxin. Through the Clean Air and Clean Water Acts Congress can compel industry to substantially reduce the level of pollutants that are believed to cause cancer in humans.

In essence, we are making considerable progress towards preventing cancer, and we can expect bigger payoffs through the rest of the century.

RAHWAY FIRE DEPT. FIRE-WISE Teach children how to save lives

By Rahway Fire Chief James T. Hofer

"If something bad happens, come straight to mommy or daddy and we'll make it better." Children learn this advice very young but when the "something bad" is fire, it's like this can be a prescription for tragedy.

Sometimes children must act first and look for help afterward. Fortunately, it's easy to teach a young child how to save his own life from two common fire emergencies: Clothing fires and fire in the home.

When clothing catches fire, a child's instinct is to run for help. But running fans the flames. Since fire burns up, staying upright endangers the face and eyes. Don't bother teaching that to a child. But a child of three can enjoy learning a life-saving game: Stop, Drop and Roll. Teach the child if his clothing catches fire, he should stop where he is, drop to the ground and roll back and forth until the fire is out.

Start teaching Stop, Drop and Roll by performing the technique with the child. Emphasize if clothes catch fire the child must Stop, Drop and Roll before calling for help or doing anything else. Since young attention spans are short, teach with frequent sessions - perhaps once or twice a day - and keep each session under 10 minutes.

Once the behavior is learned reinforce it with frequent "pop quizzes" at various times and places.

Ask your child, "What would you do if your clothing caught fire?" and watch the little one go. Those acrobats could save a young life.

Another game can teach tots how to escape from house fires. It's called "Stay Low and Go." Since smoke and toxic gases rise, leaving the best air at the floor, this game teaches children to roll out of bed, crawl out of the house and wait at a specified point outside when the smoke detector sounds. (If you still don't own a smoke detector, put down this newspaper and go out and buy one now.)

Explain the rest of the family will hear the smoke detector and "stay low and go" themselves, so the child should concentrate on simply getting out.

This exercise, too, should be taught with frequent, short sessions and a schedule of drills. Make sure to set off the smoke detector at least once, using the test button, so the child will know what it sounds like.

By age five the child is ready to learn advanced escape techniques: Feeling the bedroom door and exiting through the window if the door feels hot. Now is the time to install escape ladders on second-story windows and hold regular home fire escape drills, if you aren't already.

No child should wait until school to learn fire safety techniques. It's easy and fun to teach kids to save their own lives, so start today!

SPORTS

RAY'S ROUND
 By Ray Hoagland

After the action on Dec. 12, 1983, the Rahway Women's Church Bowling League has a tie for first place between Zion Lutheran No. 1 and the Mixed Team, each with a season record of 28 and 14.

In the weekly action at the Clark Lanes the Mixed Team scored a sweep over St. Paul's, Zion Lutheran No. 1 won 2-1 over Trinity and Zion Lutheran No. 2 won 2-1 over the Leftovers. The Scatterpins took the old game from Oceola.

High scores were rolled by Jeanne Hodge of the Mixed Team with 187, Julie Crans of Zion Lutheran No. 2 with 200, Joan Leonard of Trinity with 181, Dot Cole of Zion Lutheran No. 1 with 182 and Nancy Ficke of Oceola with 201.

Three members of the girls track team of Rahway High School competed in an invitational meet at Jadwin Gymnasium of Princeton University recently.

Clare Connor won the long jump with an 18-foot, one-inch leap.

Carletta Smith was fourth in the 60-yard hurdles and the 800-yard relay team took fourth place. The team members were Elmina Troche, Carletta Smith, Andrea Ball and Clare Connor. The team was clocked at one minute and 51.1 seconds.

Junio, Sue Marshall, a five-foot, eight-inch former Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark star and a resident of Clark, picked up right where she left off a year ago in scoring 59 points in the four games and leads the team with a 14.8 per-game average.

The Lady Bullets won over Notre Dame 65 to 47, lost to Virginia Wesleyan 64 to 63 in the Measab Turnout and won over King's of Pennsylvania 92 to 35 and won over Juniata 60 to 44.

Robin Chapman of Rahway won the national judo championship in 1983.

Minutemen pin city to wrestling mats

By Ray Hoagland

Elisabeth's Minutemen wrestling team opened its season with a 54-to-11 decision over Brian Yanuzzi 10-5.

The only winners for the Indians were Russell Moresello, who scored a decision over Julio Benavides 20-8, and senior, Ken Washington, who pinned Lawrence McCray in four minutes and 30 seconds.

Washington, Rahway's 145-pound wrestler, won his second straight match of the season when he pinned Bob Jenkins in one minute and 50 seconds as the Indians dropped a 44-to-17 loss to the Woodbridge Barons.

The other Rahway winners were Fred Blanco by forfeit and Brian Gibbs, who defeated John Yanuzzi 10-5.

The Indians are now 0-2, while Woodbridge is 1-2.

The Roselle Catholic wrestling team defeated Clark's Arthur L. Johnson Regional team 36 to 32.

Johnson winners were Steve Rothbard by forfeit, Jim Giannettaso by forfeit, Ken Sarnecki, who was a 23-to-4 winner over Tom Murrain; Seth Weber, who pinned Ron Aquire in one minute and nine seconds, and Tom Haskell, who pinned Dave Pierre in two minutes and 34 seconds.

Roselle Catholic is 1-0 while Johnson is 0-3.

The Raiders of Scotch Plains handed the Johnson Crusaders their fourth straight defeat 53 to 12.

Three Crusaders were winners. They were: At 155 pounds, Sarnecki, who won a decision over Sean Nelson 7-1, at 167, Weber, who was a 12-7 winner over Joe Cicciatore and Haskell, who pinned Ed Herold in one minute and 41 seconds.

Hillside Comets burn Setters

The girls basketball team of Hillside High School defeated Clark Mother Seton Regional High School 59 to 32 on the Setters court.

Vanessa Mosley had 21 points to lead the Comets to their third win of the season. The junior point guard and Kelly Johnson each sank three baskets in the opening period to send the Comets on their way to a 17-6 lead.

Kelly Johnson had 16 points in the game. The Setters were led by Sherry Smith with 11 points. Cassandra Murphy had five points, Christa Munch, three, and Maxine Brown, nine.

Hillside had the edge from the floor 27 to 12. The Clark team had an 8-to-5 lead from the line.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO... If You Smell Gas
 YOU—AND EVERY MEMBER OF YOUR FAMILY SHOULD KNOW THIS: (Even if you don't have gas service in your home).

Natural gas has a better safety record than any other form of energy and you can help to keep it that way by using it properly and by knowing what to do if you smell gas, whether the odor is in your home, the building you are in—or even outdoors. The odor of gas—indoors or outdoors—indicates potential danger.

Natural gas itself has no odor. A harmless chemical is added which gives off the characteristic "gas smell" so you can easily detect a gas leak. If you ever smell faint whiffs of this odor do the following:

1. Check to see if a pilot light is out, or if a burner valve is partially turned on. If you cannot find the source of the odor, call us at once. Open windows and doors to dissipate gas.
2. Never light a gas appliance if a strong odor of gas is present—and never use matches to look for gas leaks. Avoid operating any electrical equipment—including light switches or thermostats.
3. IF THE ODOR IS EXTREMELY STRONG GET OUT OF THE BUILDING IMMEDIATELY AND CALL US FROM A NEIGHBOR'S PHONE.

A GAS ODOR CAN OCCUR IN A HOME OR BUILDING WHICH DOES NOT HAVE GAS SERVICE.

If this happens, open all doors and windows and call us at once. Do not operate any electrical equipment, including light switches or thermostats. If the odor is extremely strong, follow step 3 above.

A GAS ODOR MAY BE PRESENT OUTDOORS.

If you detect a gas odor outdoors do not try to locate the source but call us right away. Even though most outdoor "gas odors" are caused by other reasons, we will investigate them immediately.

County seeks data on reservation

The Union County Dept. of Parks and Recreation is trying to locate appropriate areas for a reservation for the Revolutionary War days and has been both a mill town and a resort area. The Trailside Nature and Science Center, at Chiles Ave. and New Providence Rd., Mountaintide, is located in the reservation and is the direct recipient of the grant. Trailside staff will be seeking historical accounts, old photographs, artifacts, and eyewitness accounts that relate to the area's history.

The grant, which is valued at $280,000, is the result of a grant of $280,000 from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Yarusavage gives Public Works high marks

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the complete, edited text of Mayor Bernard G. Yarusavage's address at the reorganization meeting of the Clark Township Council for 1984, which took place on Jan. 1.

The year 1983 was one of challenge, change and progress for Clark Township. It began with the appointment of L. Stanley Sires as the director of public works and chief engineer. Under his direction the department of public works completed the Post Rd./Post Circle project, re-constructed part of Lexington Blvd., began the paving and drainage improvements of State St., Hayes Ave. and Holland Dr., re-surfaced Ruddy Pl., Hutchinson St., Valley Rd. and a portion of Terminal Ave. and initiated a new type of surface treatment for other roads to extend their life, began the installation of a new type of curbside lighting at Valley Rd., installed a new type of lighting at Terminal Ave. and installed the traffic light at Broadway and Liberty St., purchased two new leaf vacuums, worked out a strong co-operative relationship with the county and received equipment loans and traffic-planning assistance and the department crews handled many emergencies in an efficient and professional manner.

In the beginning of the year I requested the state to provide the township with the services of John Fiorentino, who acted as the treasurer and tax collector until the end of May when we appointed Betty Jo Zecchi to that position.

Mr. Fiorentino not only provided a smooth transition to the new treasurer, but he was instrumental in converting the Office of Finance Director/Tax Collector to a full-time job and thereby increased the efficiency of that office.

The tax assessor has converted the old manual system of assessing property values to a computerized system. The Municipal Council has funded the same of the state mandate for the re-evaluation of the townships for 1984-1985.

The administration revamped the offices of the bureau of health and the registration to improve efficiency.

A federal grant was obtained for the construction of an elevator and restroom for the handicapped at no cost to the township.

Mrs. Theresa Enright is making every effort to keep all taxpayers informed on the re-evaluation on a step-by-step basis.

The police department's car fleet was standardized for the first time. In 1983

Chief Anthony T. Smar was successful in obtaining $16,000 from the state for the curbing of drivers who were driving under the influence of alcohol. Under this road safety program over 135 arrests were made and the department has re-applied for continuation of the grant in 1984.

The county has agreed to correct the left-turn delays for the traffic lights at Westfield Ave. and Raritan Rd. and Central Ave. and Raritan Rd.

In the department of public safety education and training was intensified for the policemen and volunteer firemen. Howard Payne was elected the chief of the fire department for 1984-1985.

Rahway girl cagers earn Seton final

By Ray Hoagland

The Rahway High School girls advanced to the finals of the Annual Mother Schen Christmas Basketball Tournament with a 37-45 win over the girls from Elizabeth High School on Mother's Day court on Dec. 27, 1983.

Coach Ken May's team was led by Karlene Osborne with 16 points and Cathy Piotrowski with 14 rebounds.

The game was tied twice in the early part of the first period, then Karlene Osborne hit on a set from the left side.

The Indians led 6 to 4, but the Elizabeth team scored the next 10 points and was leading 14-to-6 before Karlene Osborne scored on a layup. The Elizabeth High School team led 10 to 0 at the end of the first period.

Coach May took a time out with the Indians trailing 20 to 11 and set up a new offense. The Indians scored 12 points to cut the lead to 24 to 23 with two minutes and 10 seconds to go in the second period.

With one minute and 31 seconds to go the game was tied at 26. Angie Parker scored five points and Karlene Osborne hit the 44-second mark. The Indians were on top to stay at 32 to 26.

The Lady Indians led 44 to 32 at the end of the third period.

The Crusaders began their comeback in the third period. They outscored the home team 14 to 9 and 14 to 11 in the last two periods. Grygald had 15, Bothe 12, Gunn, two; Chris Dublin, two; and Mike Depeszner, eight.

Pete Grygald and Keith Dunn each scored two points from the line in the first period.

Other Rahway point makers were Jennie Bollinger, nine; Lynn Ruk, five; and Angie Parker, nine.

Rahway had the edge from the floor 24 to 19 and 8 to 7 from the line.

Rahway is now 3-1, while Elizabeth is 1-2.

Indians level Watchung Hills

By Ray Hoagland

The Rahway Boys Basketball Team advanced to the finals of the Annual Berkeley Heights Holiday Tournament on the Highlanders' court with a 58-to-52 win over the Warriors of Watchung Hills.

The Tom Lewis-coached team scored one last basket but won the game from a line with 16 of 20 to eight of 13 for the Warriors school.

The Indians moved into a 12 to 8 lead at the end of the first period and were leading 22 to 16 at the half-way mark.

The teams were tied in the third period 13-13.

Rahway point makers were: Stan Smith, six; Bakerville, eight; Rodney Perkins, 14; Rodney Robinson, six; Randy Peterson, four; Tom Burke, 13; Luther Johnson, five, and Fred Morton, two.

Centre to host Comis Ministry

The Evangelistic Centre Church at 2052 St. George Ave. Rahway, and The Rev. Paul McCarthy, pastor, will host the Ellen Comis Ministry tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday evenings, Jan. 6 and 7, at 7:30 o'clock.

Ellen Comis, of Staten Island, N.Y., was healed through the power of God's Word after six years of illness and all medical attempts for a cure became futile, reports The Rev. McCarthy.

Her healing marked the beginning of a Catholic ministry called by God to bring the message of victory to the hearts of people in all denominations, he added.

On Feb. 14, 1979, Ellen Comis united with her son, Gary Comis and his wife, Mrs. Doreen Comis in a covenant relationship.

A ministry was formed a few months later and soon grew to 11 members. The "Message of Love" reports the pastor.

Teaching and music work together in their ministry.

Robert Reinhold in 'Who's Who'

A Rahway student, Robert Reinhold, is included in the 1984 Edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Seniors, 1983-1984."

The student, selected by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or the company which publishes the volume based upon their performance in scholarship award contests or extra-curricular activities.

Robert Reinhold is a senior at Rahway High School. He is a member of the National Honor Society and the Beta Beta Beta Honor Society.

Miss Chen ready for state pageant

Clark's Daphne Chen will represent Union County in the 26th Annual New Jersey Junior Miss Finals on Saturday, Jan. 14, at Cherry Hill High School East in Cherry Hill.

She will be among the 21 high school senior girls competing for the title of New Jersey's Junior Miss for 1984, cash and college scholarship awards and a trip to Mobile, Ala., next June for the nationally-telvised America's Junior Miss Program.

Miss Chen was named Union County's Junior Miss last November in a screening program sponsored by the state Junior Miss committee. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chen of Clark.

A senior at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chen of Clark.

She is a member of the National Honor Society and a member of the Spanish Honor Society and "Quest."

Outside of school she is active with the Kiwanis Youth Club and the Musical Club at Westfield.

During her free time she enjoys playing the piano, classical and popular music, drawing and tennis. She plans to attend the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and pursue a career as a pharmacist.

The 21 Junior Misses will spend a week in Camden County beginning on Saturday, Jan. 7, to prepare for the finals the following Saturday at the University of Delaware in Delaware.

Rehearsals for the on-stage program the girls will go to luncheon and tour which will include a visit to Delaware State University in Delaware.

Four-year, part-time scholarships are offered by Roanoke College in Virginia, Uppala College in New Jersey, Columbia College in Missouri, Mississippi University for Women and the University of South Alabama.

In addition to cash scholarships for the winner and runner-up, four-year, full-tuition scholarships are offered by the College of St. Elizabeth and Caldwell College in New Jersey, Troy State University, Huntingdon College, Livingston College and Judson College in Alabama, Tarkio College in Missouri and Roosevelt University in Illinois.

Social Security adds more to checks

The Social Security checks delivered on Jan. 3 included a 3.5% automatic cost-of-living increase by the Social Security Administration, the Social Security Dept. announced.

The automatic increase, formerly made in July checks, was delayed for six months by 1983 legislation designed to strengthen the Social Security system.

Future increases will also be made in January checks.

Social Security and supplemental security income (SSI) payments are increased automatically when the cost of living increases by 3% or more from one year to the next, Mr. McCutcheon said.

More information about Social Security benefits rates may be obtained at the New Jersey Social Security Office, located at 342 Eastmainer Ave., Elizabeth. The telephone number is 800-273-7111.

Who is Your City of Rahway Patrolman?

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following composition was submitted to the Rahway News-Record by the Rev. Donald B. Jones, pastor of the Trinity United Methodist Church of Rahway, as a tribute to Rahway policemen.

He's the fellow who speaks a bit roughly the line that our patrolman, and over 72 Americans like him, have been willing to pin on a badge and use to make our troubles their careers.

He's the fellow who walks into a darkened warehouse the other night and dutifully let the man in the shadows fire the first shot.

He's the fellow in a uniform who waves you through a busy intersection.

But then suddenly he's the police officer whose face, filled with compassion, looks at you with a sad smile.

He's the beaver of sadness and he's the Solomon who sits quietly between neighbors.

He's the fellow who walks into a darkened warehouse the other night and dutifully let the man in the shadows fire the first shot.

He's the fellow in a uniform who waves you through a busy intersection.

But then suddenly he's the police officer whose face, filled with compassion, looks at you with a sad smile.

He's the beaver of sadness and he's the Solomon who sits quietly between neighbors.

Orthodox church sets Yule rites

The Holy Trinity Eastern Orthodox Church of Rahway-Clark will celebrate Christmas under the Julian Calendar commencing with the Christmas Eve Service of Grand Compline at 8 p.m. tomorrow at St. Matins tomorrow at 8 p.m. Christmas Day will be Saturday, Jan. 7, and the Divine Liturgy will commence at 10 a.m., to be served by The Very Rev. Dr. Theophanes K. Kretel, the rector.

While both the Gregorian and Julian calendars have astronomical and mathematical errors, there has been little progress in producing a calendar acceptable to the entire world, except the Revised Julian Calendar.

The day following Christmas is dedicated to the Holy Theotokos or Virgin Mary with the Divine Liturgy at 10 a.m. On Monday, Jan. 9, the Divine Liturgy will be dedicated to Protomartyr Stephen and served at 10 a.m.

The traditional Christmas Eve observance begins in Slavonic family homes with a "Holy Supper" consisting of 12 traditional courses.

The Holy Trinity Choir will render Christmas carols at all Christmas services. The church is located at 830 Jefferson Ave., Rahway.

Martin cites continued 'pride and progress'

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the complete, edited text of Mayor Daniel J. Martin's address at the 1984 re-organization meeting of the Rahway City Council on Jan. 5.

1983 was a special year for Rahway. It was a year of achievement, community involvement and continued growth in "Pride and Progress."

Another major project in a series of such projects was completed in 1983 and it will make an immeasurable contribution to the quality of life in our town.

The Rahway Geriatrics Center is a facility which represents the highest ideal of service to the public. When this complex opened its doors in 1983 a new day began in Rahway and a new standard for public service was established.

achieving great progress, but of resolving difficult controversies. I believe it is precisely our will power, our positive attitude and our belief in ourselves that makes Rahway a very special community.

Our city government made some remarkable achievements in 1983. We first time in over a decade faced with the challenge of negotiating labor contracts with all our labor unions. When we had finished we achieved something no other municipality could claim: our total salary increases for 1983 are being held under 5%.

The list could go on, but the message is clear: it is our government, always prepared to enter an arena, to fight a battle, to lend a hand, to give of itself, that has made the difference for our community and its people.

Although we have some concerns about the process of arbitration, we have the utmost confidence in our case and shall fight no effort in seeing that the interests of our city such as the labor negotiations I mentioned earlier and other cost management such as in insurance and other areas was fully responsible for this achievement, together with the good cooperation and dedication of our City Council. We are particularly proud we were the one and only municipality in Union County to achieve a tax decrease in 1983.

The positive achievements of our past year cannot be overestimated by anything. But I must mention the contributions of two individuals. Our community development director, Ray Handgerhan, retired in 1983. Often we get caught up in the achievements of our present times, but we should not forget past accomplishments. In over 20 years of re-development and community development activities, Ray Handgerhan laid much of the groundwork for a "new" Rahway. His service, shall not be forgotten.

Another one of our public servants died in 1983. The Rahway Geriatrics Center and the John F. Kennedy Golden Age Towers shall serve as lasting tributes to the accomplishments of Walter Schaffhauser. He shall not be forgotten.

1983 was a year of many achievements. But, most importantly, it was a foundation year for even more improvements and projects to be achieved. Let us continue to move Rahway ever upward and upward and continue our contributions to the cause of advancement of the human spirit.

There is a vast difference between the person of importance and the person who thinks himself important.

Future Homemakers induct officers

The officers of the Future Homemakers Club Chapter of Gov. Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights and Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark were inducted recently in a candlelight ceremony at Gov. Livingston.

From the host school Karen Sanders was installed as the president of the club's Home Economics Related Occupations (HERO) Child Care Chapter, the co-op chapter president is Kathy Tordik and the club's president is Elizabeth Carmichael.

Also, Susan Tritschler, Jeff Bader, Jeff Wakstein, Holly Smar, Karen Nasiatka and Laura Castellano.

The students pledged to cultivate and use their talents to "succeed as worthy home members and good citizens of the community." They are part of the Union County Regional High School District No. 1's vocational education program or students who elect vocational courses as part of their college preparatory (or other) program.

The vocational education teacher and club advisor at Gov. Livingston is Mary Ann Kjetsaa. Maureen Toth and Linda Voros are the teachers and advisors at Johnson.

Some of the club members will attend the annual state-wide convention this spring in Clark.

SEEING MORE THAN DOUBLE - Gathered around the holiday yule tree are seven sets of twins who attend Madison School in Rahway this year. Only the kindergarten and fourth grades are not represented. Posing up, left to right, kneeling and standing, are:

Kimberly and Kristin Antroscigo, Roy and Troy Evans, William and Philip Lagun, Nicholas and Daniel Schneider, Christopher and Christine Hardy, Scott and Stephen Marcantonio and Carrie and Heather Schutt.

Yule season keeps legion on toes

The Union County president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Arthur Simmons, and county officers on Dec. 3 attended the New Jersey Dept. executive board meeting in Union Beach.

The Union County Organization members on Dec. 10 were present at the State Dept.'s Annual Birth-day Luncheon held at the Ricksaw Inn in Cherry Hill. The keynote speaker was Barbara Walleit, the Eastern Division national president. She stressed the need for all Auxiliary members to work diligently on all American Legion programs, especially membership and junior programs, the source of future leaders.

Profits from the sale of the National Presidents Plate will be used to defray the expenses of the junior national convention in 1984, it was announced.

The Union County Auxiliary organization sponsored its Annual Ward Christmas Party at the Lyons Veterans Administration Hospital on Dec. 13. The first vice president and the veterans rehabilitation chairwoman, Shirley Stewart, was in charge of serving refreshments, distributing the gifts and assisting the Union County Comm. Joseph Rybak in running the bingo games for the veterans.

Mrs. Simmons stated her chairmanship for the Dept. of New Jersey is R. I. F. (Reading, Writing, Fundamentals). Her objective is to show young children, besides being educational, reading can also be fun and once a child is motivated this makes for a better student and a better school.

This Auxiliary program serves children regardless of race, creed, color, or economic background, at an academic level. Since a great number of children read below their grade and age expectancy level, R. I. F. does not target its services toward any one category of recipients.

From contributions received books are bought and distributed to schools, libraries, day care centers and community centers. Books in Braille and large print books are also available for the visually-impaired.

Mrs. Simmons is asking all Auxiliary units to send in their donations for a program that "performs valuable services for our children and the communities and one that is working towards a goal of enormous social and economic importance."

County commander Rybak and county president Mrs. Sigmund, will host a holiday get-together for department and Union County officers at 29 Autumn Ave., Clark, tomorrow at 7:30 p.m., reports Mrs. Joseph Rybak.

Week to honor extension service

One of the largest adult education programs in the world, the Co-operative Extension Service, will be highlighted during Union County Co-operative Extension Week to be held from Jan. 9 to 13, reports a spokeswoman.

A legislative breakfast Monday, Jan. 9, at the county administration building in Westfield will kick-off the week's activities, which will also include a demonstration of services at the county's main administration building in Elizabeth on Wednesday, Jan. 11, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and a similar demonstration at the John E. Rannels Hospital in Berkeley Heights on Friday, Jan. 13.

The Co-operative Extension Service, which began in 1914 by Congress, is an informal, out-of-school way for people to improve their knowledge, awareness, skills and competency.

Programs are conducted in four areas: Home economics, 4-H, youth development, agriculture and natural resource management. The service exists in all 50 states and United States territories.

Citizens may join in the many year-round programs conducted by the service at any time.

For additional information please telephone the office at 233-9366.
