Kiwanis Club of Rahway presents a cortificate of appreciation to William Miskowitz. At the last weekly meeting of the club, Miskowitz, who is known as the "Human Calendar" explained the evolution of the calendar from the Julian to the Gregorian that is in use today. He also demonstrated the formula that he has worked out that allows him to pinpoint the day of the week for just about any date, past or future. Miskowitz is the Director of the Regional Adult School in Clark. He noted that he attended an Adult School memory course and got interested in dates and the calendar. The Kiwanis to start? LENDING A HELPING HAND . . . Peter Leonardis, president of BFI Waste Systems of Elizabeth, hands over the key to a "mini" garage built by the company to Lorranine McDonald, a physically handicapped woman from Elizabeth. Looking on is Diane Lamont of Linden, a Support Counselor for the Association for Advancement of the Mentally Handicapped. McDonald, who has cerebral palsy, lives in an apartment building and uses a walker and battery-operated wheelchair to get around. The garage is located in McDonald's parking spot and will be used to store the wheelchair so McDonald will no longer need to have someone help her carry it up to her apartment everyday. Leonardis was contacted by Sidney Blanchard, AAMH executive director, at an Elizabeth Rotary meeting. After hearing the problem, BFI volunteered to design. build and deliver the vandal-resistant garage free of charge. The metal frame garage is bolted to the ground with a safety railing to assist McDonald in gotting in and out of the chair. "It will be a big help to me in my quest for independence," said McDonald, "it's wonderful," For over five years, McDonald has been sharing an apartment with AAMH client-members, training them in daily living skills so they can move on to a more independent living setting. She has not only learned to live with her handloap, but helped others to live with theirs.

Kowal stresses public awareness needed in Rahway School System

candidates seeking three seats on the Rahway Board of Education would like to see the public become more aware of what is actually going on in the school system. Mr. Kowal stated, "The lack of public awareness and involvement has reached its lowest point in years. This is the year to take the administration to task and, if elected. I will urge for the creation of parent and taxpayer advisory committees that would allow the community to become better educated on the development and implementation of the school budget and other important and relevant programs within our school system. If these pro-

The school board election will be held on Tuesday. April 15 between the hours of 2 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Mr. Kowal has stressed that the first step to help him achieve these goals is through a strong yoter turnout, "We cannot afford another apathetic election. Seven candidates with a variety of interests and ideas are challenging each other this year and excellence in education and better accountability can only be achieved by participating in this year's school board election and voting for Peter D. Kowal," the candidated concluded.
