Help make Easter special

Yes, Bonnie, there is an Easter Bunny, and with the help of the people who read this letter I will prove it! know it was only four months ago I was asking for things for Christmas, now I'm asking for Easter "things". There aren't too many people who do things at Eastertime and a lot of our poor and neglected children are forgotten. I do this to help them and show them they are not forgotten. I'm asking for all kinds of Easter candy, stuffed animals and games. I need the stuffed animals and games for the kids in the hospitals where they won't ac-I wish I could also get more school clubs, PTA's and

Key Clubs involved, also some of our service clubs, who I really don't want something for nothing. I am willing to appear with my animals at any event you have if you donate. Please help me make this a Happy Easter for a lot of children and senior citizens. If you would like to donate some things please call me at 486-1945. I will gladly pick them up. Thanks.
