At long last, prison misnomer 'bites dust'

by Pat DiMaggio
The place is the same but the name has changed. Even though area residents might insist on calling it Rahway Prison, the new sign erected correctly proclaims it to be East Jersey State Prison.

On November 30, 1987, Governor Thomas Keane signed into law legislation introduced by Assemblyman Thomas Devorin, D-Union, changing the names of correctional institutions in New Jersey. Rahway Prison, in the Avenel section of Woodbridge, has been renamed East Jersey State Prison, and letterheads and stationery at the prison have been corrected to denote the change. Rahway Councilman Max supporting the name change legislation, said property values had been adversely affected by facilities named for municipalities.

Sheld, who introduced a resolution to the City Council

East Jersey State Prison opened on August 5, 1901, as the New Jersey State Reformatory for Men at Rahway. The name changes through-out the state must be in effect by November 30, 1988.

Schools meet objectives

by Pat DiMaggio
The Rahway school district met or exceeded most of its 1987-88 objectives as reported in an analysis released last month.

District objectives are required by the State Department of Education, according to Superintendent of Schools Frank Brunette, and are used for the purpose of improvement.

The first objective, which stated that by June of 1989, 90 percent of 9th grade students would pass the reading portion of the High School Proficiency Test (HSPT), was exceeded when results indicated that 90.5 percent of students taking the test in 1988 passed.

The district plans to continue its emphasis on increased communications between different departments within the school and community at large in addition to its "at risk" program.

Objective two, which stated that by June of 1988, 75 percent of 9th grade students would pass the mathematics HSPT, was also exceeded. Results showed that 80.2 percent of students taking the test in 1988 passed. Three activities which engendered success were a calendar of topics and two sample test questions per topic, per day, used to "warm up" for each math class; periodic review sheets with model problems; and problem analysis and guided practice and test taking skill reviews scheduled two weeks prior to the administration of the HSPT.

The third objective stated that 85 percent of students in the 3rd grade would meet or exceed the Minimum Level of Proficiency (MLP) for reading on the California Achievement Test. In 1987, twelve 3rd graders scored below the state MLP. In 1988, as 4th graders, none of the students fell below the MLP and none of the 3rd graders in 1988 fell below the MLP. The district will continue its effort in improving reading scores in grades K-4.

Objective four stated that 83 percent of students in grade three would meet or exceed the MLP for mathematics on the California Achievement Test and the district met the objective.

The percentage of students falling below the state MLP in math in May 1987 was 31 percent. The same students, improved in 4th grade to a point that not one child fell below the standard. Third graders tested in May 1988 had no students falling below the state MLP.

The district plans to continue improvement in math scores for 3rd and 4th grade students.

Rahway Board of Ed calls meeting

A Special meeting of the Rahway Board of Education will be held on Wednesday, October 12, at 7 p.m. in the Louis R. Rizzo Board Meeting Room in the Intermediate School.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the School Boards Effectiveness Project with the New Jersey School Boards Association Representative.

The meeting will be held in private, in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act.

Johnson completes training

Pvt. Amos Johnson Jr., son of Amos Parkins and stepson of Thelma Parkins of Lafayette St., Rahway, has completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

He is a 1988 graduate of Francis M. Wood High School, Baltimore.

St. Mary's-Rahway slates 'Grand Slam'

On October 22, St. Mary's Church, Rahway, is having its "Grand Slam" drawing — a new and unique Church Raffle Drawing. A $25 donation to the church makes the donor eligible for the Raffle Prize of the $50/50.

Church spokesperson Sue Dzurak says "there are really no losers because you are donating to St. Mary's and that makes you a winner at St. Mary's."

The Drawing Party will be held at 8 p.m. with door prizes and refreshments. The Grand Slam 50/50 Drawing will be at 10 p.m.

The winner need not be present to win. To purchase tickets, or if further information is requested, please call Sue at 382-6029.

Seton Hall Prep student commended

Edward T. Miller, son of Ed and Dolores Miller of Lawrence Street, Rahway, has been designated a Commended Student by the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students.

Miller scored in the upper six percent of over 80,000 black students who requested consideration in the 1988 Achievement Program when they took the PSAT examination.

Rahway firefighters 'in good hands'

Hamilton Laundry owner donates equipment

by Pat DiMaggio
Rahway's firefighters will be better protected thanks to the generosity of an area businessman who has donated life-saving devices to the department.

Edward Stein, owner of the Hamilton Laundry, Hamilton Street, has donated 30 Life Guard Personal Distress Systems to the Rahway Fire Department in appreciation of their efforts during a fire at his establishment in July.

The Hamilton Laundry, a historic building dating to 1812, once housed a carriage building manufacturer.

During the Independence Day weekend, a fire broke out in the laundry. Firefighters responded, and through their quick actions, confined the fire to only one building, with no loss of life.

Simon Kabillo, owner of the construction company hired to renovate the building, was instrumental in bringing Stein and the men of Rahway's Fire Department together.

The Life Guard Personal Distress System packs a minimum of 95 decibels of sound into a compact unit that will not be affected by climate conditions, heat or cold, and will sound automatically if a firefighter is motionless for 25 seconds.

It can also be activated manually should a firefighter become trapped or disabled and can also be used for summoning help if a firefighter finds a victim and requires assistance.

Firefighters using a mask at the scene of a fire will be equipped with a personal alarm distress signaling device so that if trapped or overcome in a burning building, a life saving signal will be transmitted and rescuers will be able to locate them.

"We are very appreciative of the gift," said Fire Chief James Heller. "We have been trying to buy them, but due to budget constraints and high taxes we have not been in a position to purchase them. This is a timely and gratefully received gift that may save the lives of our members."

Auxiliary installs officers

The American Legion Auxiliary, Unit #5 of Rahway recently held its installation of officers for 1988-89. County President Jannette Palari and her officers performed the installation.

Officers installed were: President, Joan Brown; 1st Vice President, Anna Marie Gilman; 2nd Vice President, Deborah Brown; Secretary, Catherine Lukach; Treasurer, Rosemary Frecknall; Chaplain, Mary Disney; Historian, Mary Howland; and Sergeant-At-Arms, Karen Humel.

The Unit meets the first Wednesday of the month.

LEST WE FORGET... Sixth grade students at Grover Cleveland School participated in the observation of national POW/MIA Day on September 18. Mrs. Lydia Lehner, at left, a 6th grade teacher, brought a black and silver POW/MIA flag to class to show to the students and to emphasize the fact that over 2,400 men and women are unaccounted for in the Vietnam conflict.

Drug abuse coordinator prepares to work with ALJ students

Lorraine Olszewski, the recently-appointed Substance Abuse Coordinator in Union County Regional High School District No. 1, will bring a considerable amount of counseling experience with her when she assumes her new responsibilities of working with students at the David Brainerd and Arthur L. Johnson Regional High Schools.

"For the past several years, I have involved myself quite extensively with drug and alcohol abuse prevention through my current position," said Mrs. Olszewski, who is completing her 14-year tenure as a Guidance Counselor at ALJ. She has been involved in drug and alcohol education efforts and has conducted programs in substance abuse prevention, suicide prevention, resiliency, peer pressure, and stress management for the students here at Johnson and Arthur L. Johnson Regional High Schools.

Mrs. Olszewski will join Clifford Lauterbach as one of the two Substance Abuse Coordinators in the Regional District. Mr. Lauterbach served in the role of Student Assistance Coordinator, a similar position, for all four regional high schools — ALJ, Brainerd, Jonathan Dayton and Governor Livingston — during the 1987-88 school year. He will now counsel students in the Brainerd and Johnson Regional High Schools.

Both Coordinators will also reach down to the schools that send students to the regional high schools — namely the middle schools in Berkeley Heights, Clark, Fairview, Kenton, Mountainside and Springfield, to coordinate drug and alcohol education efforts and counsel at-risk students.

With Olszewski performing her newly-assigned duties, regional students who are in need of assistance will have increased access to a substance abuse counseling professional, both during the school year and outside of regular school hours.

Olszewski, who will serve in her current position in the Johnson Regional Guidance Department until a replacement is hired, earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Jersey City State College in 1955 and an M.A. in Counseling from Seton Hall University in 1959. Since then, she has earned Supervisor and Director certifications as well as her State Certification as a Substance Abuse Counselor. During the past three years, she has visited several alcohol and drug treatment centers for adolescents and participated in numerous substance abuse prevention workshops and seminars.

We must get to these youngsters as soon as possible," warns Olszewski. "We just can't wait until they are 16 or 17 years old before we tell them about the damage that can be done by drugs and alcohol."

James Cunningham, Guest speaker will be Hazel N. Dukes, president of the N.Y. State Conference of NAACP branches, and vice president, NAACP National Board of Directors.

Hall of Fame inductees are Mrs. Ruth Bell Simmons (posthumously), and Mrs. Lillian Wilder. The Community Service Award will be presented to Thomas F. Grubbs and the Armed Services Award will be given to

Rahway NAACP plans annual Freedom Fund Awards Banquet

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Rahway branch, will hold its Annual Fund and Awards Banquet on Saturday, Nov. 19 at the Landmark Hotel, Room 1409, Woodbridge.

General chairperson is Raymond Farrow, a selection committee chairman.

For a well-balanced airing of current issues, I frequently tune to Larry King on Ted Turner's Cable News Network (CNN). I enjoy his over-the-top, fair game objectivity and his unmatchable knack for getting people from every part of the political spectrum to turn themselves inside-out.

I happened to catch "Larry King Live" the night columnist Jack Anderson sat in for King during the Franco-Contrast hearings and had N.J. Congressman Jim Courter, a conservative Republican, as one of his guests. In response to a phoned-in question, Anderson revealed that he and his staff had had the inside track on the Reagan administration's secret dealings with Iran, but, at the request of high administration officials, sat on the story for some time before finally going public with it.

Surprisingly (to me), the conservative Courter expressed his admiration for what had to have been a tough decision for a cross-examining journalist, and, in a televised post-hearing interview, he admitted that he had shown Jim Courter's journalistic integrity in this instance.

I salute Jim Courter for his respect for fairness and integrity, and only wish there were more people both left and right of political center who would take off the blinders now and then (though as that may be for some who have worn them most of their lives) and stop feeling obliged to echo a party line in every opinion they express.

I especially wish that those who denounce the free press at every opportunity would consider the fact that, in spite of many flaws, it is our primary defense against the erosion — from within — of all other freedoms.

Inherent in the concept of free expression is the right to learn the truth as it is revealed by someone who may be imperfect but who does not have to follow a dictator's rule book in reporting what has been observed.

Pravda Never Makes Mistakes

In the doctrinaire view of today's so-called "conservative," my self-assigned "moderate" label reads "liberal." I'm not sure, but I think that means I have an open mind.

I had dinner the other evening with a conservative type who, knowing that I work for a newspaper, couldn't resist flouting me with one of the all-time favorite party-line topics: the inaccuracies perpetrated by a free press.

I had to agree with my host in general. We of the self-willed, hit-and-run 4th estate do make mistakes. (You read it here!)

On the other hand, anyone who has been a news editor knows that you can publish a release exactly as written and be accused, by the very people who submitted it, of having gotten it all wrong.

But, getting back to the dinner table, I couldn't help thinking that, if the press did not wear a liberal name tag on its lapel, the subject of press accuracy would not have come up. I dared not reveal to my host that I subscribe to the conservative view in many respects, including a growing tendency to agree with the opinions of crusty old Barry Brainerd. This would only have disconcerted him, and I did not want to spoil his meal as he did mine. (Down deep, he's really a nice guy.)

Together with accuracy, the two other yardsticks against which the press is most often measured — and of bias and integrity. Relying as we do on the monolithic media to comply with all three criteria, we tend to harbor doubts as to whom we can trust. It becomes a matter of personal judgment, which, regrettably, is often based on political bias.

In her new capacity as coordinator of the hospital's Healthy Heart Center, which is scheduled to open in late September.

Ciolekaj-Murphy will be responsible for coordinating activities, conducting inspections, performing some clinical work, hiring staff and orientating hospital physicians to the program.

Prior to joining the Rahway Hospital staff, Ciolekaj-Murphy worked as a research nurse for the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. There she performed research related to cardiology which was funded by both the National Institute of Health and major pharmaceutical companies. She also worked in the clinical care area of Robert Wood Johnson Hospital.

Ciolekaj-Murphy and her husband Richard reside in Old Bridge.

The first Presidential news conference to be televised was held on Jan. 19, 1955.

Jane Fonda on trial?

At the recently concluded National Convention of the Military Order of the Purple Heart (August 15-21) in Honolulu, a resolution concerning Jane Fonda was unanimously passed by the delegates assembled.

The Military Order of the Purple Heart, for the benefit of your readers, is an organization of combat wounded veterans who received the Purple Heart Medal while serving their country in a time of war. We include veterans of WW I, WW II, Korea and Vietnam.

The resolution, in the strongest terms, condemns Jane Fonda for activities in support of the enemy during a time when that enemy was engaged in the process of killing American servicemen. Miss Fonda's role was not that of a peace-maker as she would have us believe. Her mission and prayer was for a Communist victory in the war in Vietnam.

She did everything in her power to help bring that about. North Vietnamese leaders have since boasted that the war in Vietnam was won because of the actions of South Vietnam but in the streets of Washington, D.C., San Francisco and New York, Jane Fonda marching under the banner of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) was a major attraction to those "demonstrations". She worked hard, not for peace, but for a Communist victory.

Speaking for the Department of New Jersey, Military Order of the Purple Heart, we are wholeheartedly in support of the call of other veterans organizations for Congress to put Jane Fonda on trial for treason.

Just as Jane Fonda cannot find it in her heart to condemn the brutal aggression and enslavement visited on the suffering people of South Vietnam by North Vietnam, we the Military Order of the Purple Heart can not forgive her for helping to bring that about.

Joseph Hems, Commander
Dep. N.J.

Clark man enters N.E. college

Joshua B. Fisher of Clark has enrolled as a freshman at New England College, Haverhill, New Hampshire. A graduate of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark, he is the son of Rodney Slack of Clark and Sally Fisher of Hamilton Valley, Pennsylvania.

New England College has campuses in New Hampshire and Ontario, Canada, and offers baccalaureate degree programs in the arts, humanities, natural and social sciences, as well as in business, education, and engineering.

Ogden to discuss ocean pollution

Summer temperatures may have soared to record highs but many area residents stayed away from the Jersey shore as a result of reports of medical waste washing up on the beaches. The dilemma of waste in ocean waters off New Jersey is the topic for the season premiere of "N.J. & You," with Assemblywoman Maureen Ogden, Sunday, October 9 at 7 p.m., on Suburban Cablevision's Channel 3. (This is a repeat of the show already telecast on Oct. 2.)

Research finds young, single parents least likely to vote

Young, single parents are the least likely of all eligible United States citizens to vote, according to a Bucknell University study of political participation.

"Some theories would suggest parents with school children have a vested interest in the political process, because of school boards, bond issues and zoning. But that interest doesn't outweigh the fact that young parents are not as likely to vote as other groups do to do so. In fact, living in communities with large populations over the age of 62 catalyzes their political activity."

"Men are still more likely than women to vote or participate in the political process. But the obligations of a full-time job may keep them from the polls."

"Meanwhile, for women, working part-time increases the likelihood they will become politically active. Unlike men, their social environment, including clubs and neighborhood organizations, has a strong influence on the level of their political activity."

"Women who own homes tend to be more politically active than those who don't. Owning a home does not have a similar influence on men."

"Political participation is at its nadir during the startup period of the life cycle, that is, when people are first establishing homes and families, moving around and building careers. Above all, the likelihood they won't vote is a high percentage of people younger than 35. The likelihood they won't vote is a high percentage of people younger than 35. The likelihood they won't vote is a high percentage of people younger than 35."

Supportive Living Program offers freedom to woman

The right to vote, to pursue happiness, to work, to learn, to choose what to wear and eat...

It took Claire Plizute over 40 years to secure these basic human and civil rights. After years of doing what others told her to do and living how others thought was "best," Claire is finally making her own choices of where, how, and with whom to live.

It wasn't easy, and it required persistence, patience, and a sincere desire to learn and drive.

Claire was born in New York City in 1919. Her mother died when she was young and she was raised by an aunt and uncle in New Jersey, who requested that she be admitted to North Jersey Training School. Claire was 46 years old at the time.

For fifteen years, Claire lived in the institution. She shared a cottage with about twenty other residents and spent her days working in a local nursery. Claire felt very restricted: "You couldn't do what you wanted, the supervisors watched you all the time, swallowing pills, taking a bath... other residents stole your clothes... people tried to run away all the time, and I wanted to leave all the time."

In 1980, at the age of 61, Claire got her wish. She was placed in a group home in Wayne Township. From that point, Claire knew what she wanted and worked hard to get it. She learned many basic daily living skills and how to improve and refine those skills. Due to her ability and perseverance, Claire moved to an even less restrictive environment in 1984, a supervised apartment in Plainfield, run by the Association for Advancement of the Mentally Handicapped (AAMH).

She was a high point in her life. "I felt more responsible, more in control of my life."

Claire "graduated" to the far more independent AAMH Supportive Living Program in 1987. She finally achieved the independence she had been seeking all her life.

In the Supportive Living Program, members live in their own apartments, and are responsible for paying all their bills. They receive help from support counselors when needed. Members in this program live throughout Union County.

Today, residing in Plainfield with two roommates, Claire sees her AAMH counselor several times a week for help in budgeting, money management, and problem solving. She enjoys a full life: working part-time at a local McDonald's, shopping, working on hobbies, and traveling.

"Like the freedom... I'm happy doing what I want to do. Finally."

community. In addition to the program in Plainfield, others are located in Roselle, Elizabeth, Linden, and Hillside. In the supervised apartment program, 8-12 members (clients) live in 4 to 6 apartments with staff living and working on the premises. Members are trained in daily living skills with the goal being a move to a more independent setting.

In 1985, Claire became her own guardian. It was a high point in her life. "I felt more responsible, more in control of my life."

Workshop offered on home-based businesses

Career Options Center, sponsored by the Tribute to Women and Leadership (TWIN) program of Central New Jersey, is offering a workshop for individuals interested in developing a home-based business.

The program will be held in the Center, located in Plainfield at the YWCA, 332 East Front Street, on Tuesday, October 11, from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Dr. Carol McCabe, Career Options Center, will lead the workshop.

Participants will explore the many kinds of businesses which can be run from the home, part-time or full-time. Discussion will center on ways to begin, analyzing marketable skills, and the fundamentals of home-based business management.

A project of the YWCAs of Plainfield/North Plainfield and Summit, the newly instituted Career Options Center offers both individual and group career planning, professional counseling, vocational interest testing, job search services, educational and vocational guidance and access to the Center's library of resource materials on specific occupational and educational institutions.

The Center is staffed by professionals and service men, women and teens throughout the Central New Jersey area including Union, Somerset, Morris, Essex, Middlesex, Hunterdon, Monmouth and Ocean counties.

Advanced reservations for all workshops are required. Call Janet Korbs, TWIN Program Director, 756-3836 for additional information or to make reservations. A free brochure is available upon request.

Lillian Gish joins motion picture centennial committee

Miss Lillian Gish, the First Lady of Cinema, has agreed to serve as an honorary member of the Edison Motion Picture Centennial Committee, according to committee chairman Wade Knowles, vice president of the Manor Restaurant (West Orange).

"Because of film," stated Miss Gish, "we are the first century to leave behind a living record of our history. I am very happy to be a part of these efforts to commemorate the birth of film and the place where it happened."

It is especially appropriate that Miss Gish, who was born in 1893, should be in this celebration, Knowles said. "In 1929, she and the entire Motion Picture Academy membership signed an elegant scroll insuring that the Edison Motion Picture Studio would become their first honorary member. You can see that invitation today at the Edison site here in West Orange," he added.

Miss Gish's movie career began with D.W. Griffith's "An Unseen Enemy" in 1912. Her 10th film, "The Whales of August," is in current release.

On Friday, October 7, Program members live in their own apartments, and are responsible for paying all their bills. They receive help from support counselors when needed. Members in this program live throughout Union County.

Today, residing in Plainfield with two roommates, Claire sees her AAMH counselor several times a week for help in budgeting, money management, and problem solving. She enjoys a full life: working part-time at a local McDonald's, shopping, working on hobbies, and traveling.

THE ULTIMATE HEATING Machine

The Plus 90 from Bryant is a deluxe gas-fired condensing furnace. As a condensing furnace, the Plus 90 traps hot flue gases in the two exchangers and "wrings out" extra usable heat through the condensation of water vapor. This simple, natural process produces enough additional heat to boost furnace efficiency to more than 90% A/E.

Whether you use natural gas or propane, Plus 90 saves on your fuel bills. Whether you have vertical or horizontal vent requirements, Plus 90 meets them. Whether you have a 35,000 or 230,000 BTU/Hr heating requirement, Plus 90 fits the bill. And Plus 90 coding allows capacities to meet the most demanding applications.

COACH'S CORNER

By Mike Theodoratos

Cardinals edge Indians, 13-6

There is an old saying. If we didn't have had luck, we wouldn't have any luck at all. This saying was for SURE on Friday night at the Plainfield Cardinals. Two major mistakes and we lose a ballgame. That's all it takes, unfortunately. But, that's the way it is in sports. Sometimes you win a game on luck, sometimes you lose. This time we came up on the short end of the stick.

After coaching for 35 years, I can tell you without hesitation that LUCK is a very important factor in football. Every week look on TV and see the college games, the pros, and you will see LUCK put in between teams. With better coaching on my part, maybe luck would have not been a factor.

Thus, as head coach, the luck stops here and I have to take the blame for the loss of the territory because when we win, I will get the pat on the back (great job, coach). On the positive side, we did not down on many mistakes and we are getting better (believe it or not). We have two weeks to get ready for the Farmers of Union and I feel very confident that we will have a great chance at victory. It will not be easy because Union seems to be back on the right track after their opening game loss to Irvington.

Back to the Plainfield game. After they scored on an interception of our lateral we went on to block their extra point attempt. During the week we worked on stripping the ball from their receivers on their short passes. During the game we did exactly that.

Mike Mills made a tackle and Randy Hudford came in for the strip and we got the ball. A great play. After their score we came right down and marched in a 54-yard drive with Carlos Garay throwing a scoring strike to Mike Mills in the end zone. A great catch by Mills.

The game was also highlighted by a great run by Barry Madden on a reverse and Barry also had a couple of great kickoff returns (at most broke for TD's). Rudy Rivera came back after a week of being out and showed great intensity at inside linebacker.

For the second week our game film are almost black due to poor lighting during game time. Plainfield used lights on leaders and they seemed to be a bit better than the lights we used, but our cameraman still did the best he could and we got black film. Thus, at this writing, I may not be able to include all award winners due to poor films.

Clark Kiwanis slates 'Run For Life' benefit race

The Kiwanis Club of Clark will hold its 6th annual "Run For Life" on Sunday, October 16, at Union County Park, Rahway. The race will begin at 9 a.m.

Three races will be held - 5 mile, 2-1/2 mile, and 1-1/4 mile for all ages - male and female. The pre-entry fee is $7 (sorry, the pre-entry close-out was Wed. Oct. 5), and the entry fee is $9 (up to 8:30 a.m. before race time). The first 400 registrants will receive T-shirts.

Three awards will be given in each male and female group for each race. No duplicate awards will be given. The park will be closed during the race. The course is flat and fast. Lockers are available for runners with their own locks.

This year the race is co-sponsored by Clark Lanes, United Jersey Bank-Franklin State, and First DeWitt Savings - all in conjunction with the Clark Sports Center.

All proceeds from the race will be donated to Rahway Hospital and Kiwanis service activities. For registration or further information call 382-1321.

Ref recruits sought
The Central Jersey Basketball Officials are seeking recruits. They will be holding their annual clinic for the training of high school basketball officials. Anyone interested should contact Ray Kelton, 12 Stearns Rd., East Brunswick, NJ 08816.

City Hall Bowling
In the Rahway City Hall Bowling League games of September 27 at Roselle Lanes, the Ballbusters were a 2 to 1 winner over the invaders: The Alley Cats. A 2 to 1 winner over the Strikers: The Recalls were a 2 to 1 winner over the Stars and the All Stars took all 3 games due to forfeit.

High Games:
Al Parker - 207
Dianne Kurutza and Dan Scarpito each rolled a 179.

Rookie of the Week - Randy Hudford
Big Lick of the Week - Terry Williamson

Back to the Plainfield game. After they scored on an interception of our lateral we went on to block their extra point attempt. During the week we worked on stripping the ball from their receivers on their short passes. During the game we did exactly that.

Mike Mills made a tackle and Randy Hudford came in for the strip and we got the ball. A great play. After their score we came right down and marched in a 54-yard drive with Carlos Garay throwing a scoring strike to Mike Mills in the end zone. A great catch by Mills.

The game was also highlighted by a great run by Barry Madden on a reverse and Barry also had a couple of great kickoff returns (at most broke for TD's). Rudy Rivera came back after a week of being out and showed great intensity at inside linebacker.

For the second week our game film are almost black due to poor lighting during game time. Plainfield used lights on leaders and they seemed to be a bit better than the lights we used, but our cameraman still did the best he could and we got black film. Thus, at this writing, I may not be able to include all award winners due to poor films.

GRIDIRON NEWS ... Last week our B squad beat the Summit team 17-9. In that game Summit scored the first 9 points before Steve Marcantonio intercepted a pass and scored a 30-yard

Springfield downs ALJ in UNICO Bowl, 14-0

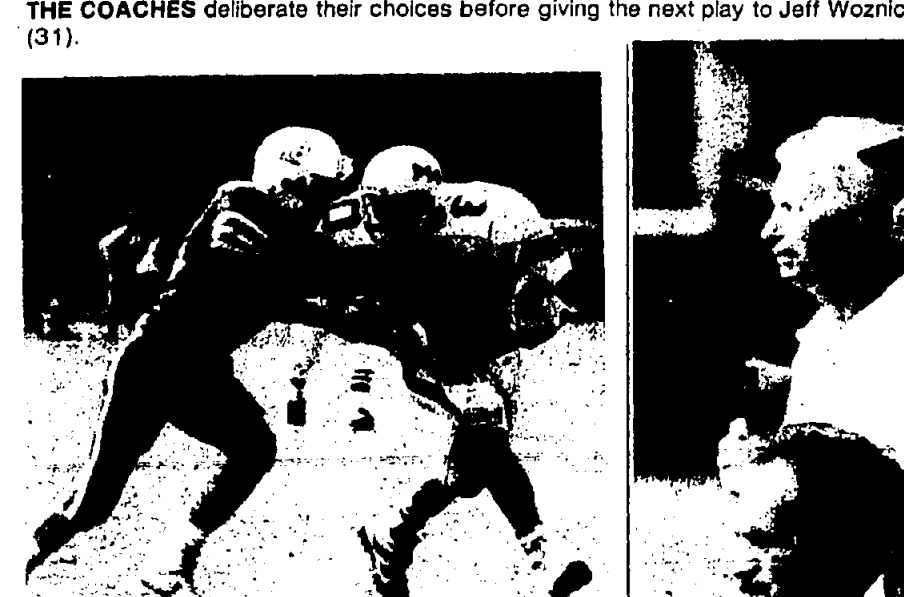

STRATEGY is the topic as Coach Carovillano talks with his defense.

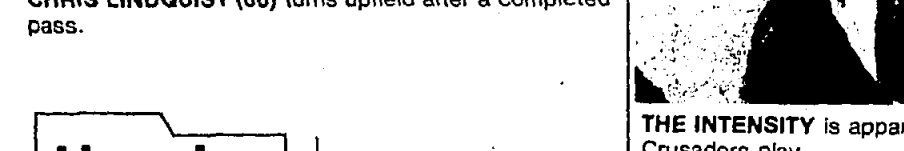

QB JOHN POZNANSKI (15) fires a completion to teammate Mike Grossman (85).

THE COACHES deliberate their choices before giving the next play to Jeff Woznicki (31).

CHRIS LINQUIST (80) turns upfield after a completed pass.

THE INTENSITY is apparent as the coaches watch the Crusaders play.

ALJ CHEERLEADERS go through their paces in support of the Crusaders.

THE CRUSADER BAND marches on field to entertain the fans during halftime.

Regional school to host annual band pageant

Over a dozen of the best high school marching bands from New Jersey and neighboring states will be on display on Sunday, October 9, at Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights when the 17th Annual Highlander Band "Pageant of Champions" gets underway at 1 p.m.

The band tournament, held annually at Governor Livingston's Frey Field, will see marching bands from 14 high schools competing for prizes. In addition, the renowned Highlander Band of Governor Livingston, fresh off its triumphant two-week musical tour of Scotland and England, will present an exhibition performance.

Each band will be judged on the basis of music execution, music analysis, marching execution and analysis, and general effect, both in a visual and musical sense.

Tips for Safe Bus Riding

For a safe and enjoyable ride to and from school, follow these rules:

1. Leave home early enough to arrive at your bus stop on time.
2. Wait for your bus in a safe place—well off the road.
3. Enter your bus in an orderly manner, and take your seat.
4. Follow the instructions of your school bus driver or bus patrol.
5. Remain in your seat while your bus is in motion.
6. Keep your head and arms inside the bus at all times.
7. Keep aisles clear at all times.
8. Remain quiet and orderly.
9. Be courteous to your school bus driver and fellow passengers.
10. Be alert to traffic when leaving the bus.
11. Walk to your bus stop—avoid asking your parents to drive you home.

Lake road closed for clean-up

SIGN OF THE TIMES... Garbage and debris lines Beechwood Road in Clark. People caught dumping will be subjected to fines.

by Pat DiMaggio

Beechwood Road will be closed to traffic when Clark receives state approval, enabling the Township to clean up debris which litters the roadway adjacent to Hazelwood Cemetery.

An ordinance was approved for first reading at last week's council meeting that will close the road which runs between Madison Hill Road in Clark to the Rahway city line on Lake Avenue. The roadway is covered with garbage and items such as discarded sofas and rusting refrigerators.

"We've received so many complaints about people dumping their trash," said Councilman William Caruso. "This is the only proper way to police that area. When we get state approval to close the road, we will go in and clean it up. If anyone is caught dumping garbage, they will be seriously fined."

The road is secluded from homes because it is bordered on one side by the cemetery and by Milton Lake Park on the other side enabling people to dump without being noticed.

Fire safety: a shared responsibility

If you are one of the growing number of Americans who live in an apartment, condominium or town home, it is vital that you practice fire safety as an individual and as a community. Because you live in attached residences, your neighbor's lifestyles affect your safety too.

The N.J. Fire Prevention and Protection Association and the N.J. Bureau of Fire Safety suggest you make a point to look for and ask about fire safety features when looking to rent or buy.

What to look for

Be especially on the lookout for: accessible and clearly marked exits; enclosed exit stairways; smoke detectors and fire alarm systems; automatic sprinkler systems; clean, well-maintained buildings; and halls and stairs kept clear of trash and boxes.

Many areas require buildings to have fire detection and alarm systems, emergency lighting and portable fire extinguishers. Make sure yours work. Notify your building maintenance or fire department if they are out of order.

Be prepared!

Be prepared in advance to handle a fire emergency: Preplan escape routes. Know them in the dark and practice them.

— Know to stay low and crawl in smoke to avoid the poisonous gases.

— Locate fire extinguishers and fire alarms. Know how to use them. Know if the alarm sounds in the building as well as at the fire department.

— Never assume someone else has called the fire department. Do it yourself once you are out.

— Never prop open exit stairway doors. Once smoke enters, the exit is not safe.

Take precautions

Get the facts. Smoking is one of the leading causes of apartment fires, with most starting in the living room, den or lounge from cigarettes dropped in furniture. Check furniture before going to bed and never smoke in bed. It could be deadly.

Keeping combustibles too close to heating equipment is another cause of apartment fires. Keep paper and clothing away from heaters and stoves.

Don't use barbecues on balconies. Use in a confined area near other apartments can be dangerous.

Share responsibility for fire safety with your neighbors. Remember, you are not alone.

For more information concerning this or other fire safety topics, contact the N.J. Fire Prevention and Protection Association at 572-1996.

Girl Scout cookie sales start today

Local Girl Scouts will start selling cookies starting today (October 6). They will be taking orders until October 23.

New this year are "Echo cookies." Echoes are chocolate sandwich cookies with creamy vanilla filling. Each box sells for $2.50.

Funds raised through cookie sales help support many Girl Scout activities, including the Brownie Fall Festival, trips and educational workshops. Sale profits also help with the upkeep and maintenance of the Girl Scout Council's two outdoor program sites — Camp Sacajawea and Oak Spring, leadership training for adult leaders, insurance, publications and various equipment.

According to Patricia Compton, President, "Selling cookies encourages girls to set personal goals, caring adult leadership helps girls to become more competent and responsible as they grow through new experience and challenges. That is why Girl Scout cookies are the cookies that make dreams come true."

For more information on who is selling in your area, call The Delaware-Raritan Girl Scout Council at 821-9090.

For heating homes and water... Natural Gas serves you better for less money.

Natural Gas... The Modern Alternative

Times change. Lifestyles change. Products and services change. Something better always comes along. That's life.

Just as oil came along years ago to replace coal as a home-heating fuel, natural gas—with its lower cost and higher efficiency—is now replacing oil. In one year alone, 30,000 PSE&G customers converted from oil to gas heat.

No doubt about it. Oil heat is going the way of the dinosaur. And for basically the same reason: a changing environment. Natural gas is the modern fuel that fits into our modern way of life. That's why it's the nation's No. 1 home heating fuel. It's clean. It's convenient. And it's dependable. Did you ever hear of any homeowner running out of gas?

If your oil heating system is old, convert to gas heat before it starts to break down. You may be surprised at how little it may cost. And the money you save with economical gas heat will eventually pay for the conversion.

Send for our free literature that tells you how to convert quickly and easily. Or, if you don't want to chance being the last one on your block to convert to gas heat, skip the coupon. Call 1-800-223-0509, Ext. 990.
