RAHWAY FREE PUBLIC LIERARY 1175 ST. GEORGES AVE. RAHWAY, N.J. 07065

New Iersey's Oldest Weekly Newspaper-Established 1822

ユ VOL. 170 NO. 16

RAHWAY, NJ., THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1992

25 CENTS

MESS PUBLIC LIBRARY RAHWAY, NEW JERSEY

Firemen – 15, Police Rahway's Finest Working Without Contract clude a 0-percent increase by Pat DiMaggio So far, it's FMBA-15; PBA-zio.

On Monday night, Rahway's Municipal Council approved a three-year contract with the City's Fire Department and heard comments from police officers, members of the Honorary PBA and community leaders on stalled negotiations between the City and the Police Department. The council unanimously pproved the contract with FMBA Local 33 for a total increase of 15 percent. Terms of the contract in-

by Pat DiMaggio

delayed study of school management and administrative operations were released by Rahway's Board of Education at a press conference held last week. The management operations review, compiled by Ernst and Young, Iselin, was commissioned jointly by Rah-way's Municipal Council and the board in 1990, and contains some cost-savings recommendations that

"outdated."

Karavites.

present board members call former Mayor Daniel Martin, was to be completed by December 1990, but was delayed because of questions of data pertinency and validity which have since seen clarified, according to

Board President Peter

the report contains informa-

"Because of these delays,

The study, requested by

The results of a long-from January 1, 1992, to June 30, 1992; a 4.75-percent increase for July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1993; a 5-percent in crease for July 1, 1993, to

FMBA received a 6.5-per-officer's bargaining unit.

Rahway's PBA Local 31

tion that is unfortunately

According to PBA President Gene DeCarlo, negotiations have broker, down because to $$7,000 at $12.50 per hour Honorary PBA President June 30, 1994, and a 5.25percent increase for July 1. 1994, to June 30, 1995. The compared to 1991's overtime of the City's insistence on a total of $82,000 at $30 per one-year wage freeze. hour worked. In 1977, 632 "The morale is very low," cent increase in 1991 under sick days were used comnoted DeCarlo. "We've negotiations with former pared to 119 sick days used been working without a con-City Business Administrator tract for a vear.' in 1991. Harmett, Negotiations con-DeCarlo said Rahwav's tinue for the superior "We don't want to Police Department went on negotiate in the press, but 4-days-on/4-days-off work has been working without a contract since June 30, 1991. schedule in 1978 which has facts and figures have been actually saved the City misconstrued," said De-

Marty Spangle said the organization voted unanimously last week to support the efforts of the PBA in its negotiations for a new contract. "They do their job and do it well," said Spangle. 'Going this long without a contract breaks down morale. The Honorary PBA cooperated, we would be helps cops all year long, and we're here to help them again."

voluntarily waited, and we The discontent felt by the were met by a hired gan, which forced the PBA to department's rank and file membership was evident hire a negotiator. We came when LL Kevin White acto the bargaining table - not demanding and not begging but willing to bargain. The cused Mayor Jim Kennedy of breaking his promise to negotiate in good faith. membership now states that "Mayor Kennedy appealed we've filled our part of the to us for our cooperation bargain. Can you say the and support," said White. "He promised us that if we same? Ray Mikell, president of Rahway's Tavern Owners rewarded. The membership Association, called upon the fees on contract council to support the Palice Department. "Let's not fight against them," said Mikell. Kennedy said th

They put their lives on the line for us every day." Rahway's administration

USES 454-160

teact. He s currently in negotiation with clerical workers, public for a v works and water utility Certs employees and FMBA superior officers. Business Administrator Peter Pelissier Kei die Sietze said the City already has spent over $26,000 in legal Challengers En

Prominent Republican and longtime Rahway ONO businessman Anthony ment encouring the scignate Republican Organization of Union County, chained by Andrew Vocos, which is challenging the GOP Or-ganization led by James Ful-comer in the Republican Primary election, Jame 2..... 50. COL:

port for Andrew Vores for be alles in the Rahway City Council in the Republican primary and for Municipal Chairman of the that the Chill-Rahway Republican Party,"

The REC w citizeners at the city is a p forum, sp c gra

"As lo 16 18 18 18 er pr ho is b Voros for the 1

Lions To Hold I Cicatiello has issued a stat and see ment endorsing the Regular

80

President Gerald Ford's 1976 presidential campaign the Simh Ward. Veterans' Flaos dated," said Karavites at last week's press conference, atcompleted the board had moved to reduce expenses tended by former Board Presidents John Ludington and streamline operations. and Mario Kurylak, Super-He noted that the position of assistant superintendent was intendent of Schools Dr. Anthony Cavanna and council liaison Dennis Hemenway. Therefore, as a result of certain board actions and administrative personnel changes, parts of the report have either been addressed or are not pertinent." $150,000 per year. He also The study recommended noted that a committee has improvements in the coor-

Delayed Study Called 'Outdated' dination of inter-district been studying the possible communication, an immove of sixth grade students into the Intermediate School proved budget development after the 1993-94 school process, the implementation of a centralized curriculum year. Superintendent of library, the transfer of sixth grade students into the In-Schools Dr. Anthony Cavantermediate School, increased teaching periods for area supervisors, reductions of vice principal positions and a reduction in the superintendent's office.

Karavites explained that | tion of the central office is under way, and said plans are being discussed to move even before the study was computers into the High School for a curriculum library. He also expressed a desire to raise money from the state."

the superintendent's office. Free Public Library.

NAACP

The NAACP's Rahway Branch will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, May 18, at 8 p.m. at Second Baptist Church, 378 Milton Ave.

Featured speakers this month will be Sgt. Alonzo vans, the Newark Police Department Public Information Officer, and Ralph Dunham of the Rahway

Recreation Department. All are invited to come and be a

Str. Land

SILLIGATES

"Camp Superkids" is good medicine for children

The American Lung As-

The Christmas Seal People is now accepting applications for "Camp Superkids," its camping program for children with asthma, it was announced by Roscoe Conklin, Association President.

11th year, is open to youngsters ages seven to 15.

The Program, entering its sociation of New Jersey with asthma!

part of this discussion.

FIRST DONATION ... Mayor Jim Kennedy, center, is first to donate to Annual Poppy Drive of American Legion Post 5 and Audiliary Unit 5, which gets underway tomorrow. Proceeds held disabled and hospitalized veterans and their families. With Kennedy are Jean Durbin, Auxiliary Poppy Chairperson, and Tommy Durbin, Post Co-Chairperson.

eliminated two years ago at a savings of $80,000 per year, outside sources, and mentioned the possibility of hiring a grant writer. The board has already one vice principal was reduced from the district last year at a savings of $50,000 taken care of 80 to 90 perper year, and area supercent of these recommendations," said Karavites. "It visors were put back to shows the board has been teaching at a savings of doing its job. And under Dr. Cavanna, we will continue to make this district the best in Copies of the Ernst and Young report will be avail-able at school libraries, in at City Hall and at Rahway's na noted that the reorganiza-

Meeting

Warga Winds Down

As the 1991-92 school year comes to a close, Eugene M. Warga will conclude his distinguished 42-year career in education.

Warga, a lifelong resident of Rahway, will bid farewell to Roosevelt School and to the Rahway School District.

Warga's pursuit in educaegan in December 9. Woodbridge, Anyone wishing to join them can ob-1950, when he replaced an Eighth Grade teacher leavtain information about the ing Roosevelt School to event by calling 396-1057.

– Kennedy On Cable –

Join Mayor Jim Kennedy gives Mayor Kennedy an opon Suburban Cablevision's portunity to address issu TV3 program, "Downtown: A Talk With You Mayor," of concern affecting residents of Rahway. on Wednesday, May 27, at The call-in phone number 6:30 p.m. is 636-5333. Downtown," a live call-in show with host Rich This program will be Loonard, allows viewers to epeated on TV3 on Sur call in their questions and May 31. at 5 p.m.

f., eorgia Hartnett Hartnett Promoted Georgia Hartnett of Rahway has been promoted to Director of Government, serve in the army. In 1955, he became the school's Assistant Principal, and in 1956, Consumer and External Afbecame its Principal the fairs at Elizabethtown Gas position he has served in up

In her new position, Hartto the present time. nett continues to act as Eliz-Warga will be honored by abethtown's official lobbying his colleagues and friends on agent with the state and Friday, May 29, at the andmark Inn, Routes 1 & federal governments. She is responsible for representing the company in Trenton and Washington in matters of

Plan.

3

and is conducted in coopera legislative reform and relattion with Children's Hospi ed activities. She also retains tal of New Jersey and Frost overall responsibility for the Valley YMCA. development of the com-

Two-seek resident pany's Energy Conservation rograms are scheduled July -17 and Aug. 16-28 at Frost Hartnett joined Eliza-

Valley YMCA Camp, bethtown Gas in 1985 as Claryville, NY (in the Manager of Regulatory and Government Affairs. She Catskill Mountains), where children with asthma are added the energy conservamainstreamed into the tion area to her responsibilities in 1987. She carned a regular camp population. To obtain registration is To obtain regi Bachelor of Arts degree formation, call 388-4556 from Kean College, and she is a graduate of Rutgers Uni-Registration deadline is versity School of Law. Sunday, May 31.

RARWAY DAY CARE 'MUSIC MAKERS' ... Children in Rene Waites' Pre-Kindergarten class have formed Center Rhythm Band under direction of Winnie Alexander, volunteer music teacher Shown here with Band members are, from left, Teacher's Aide Jackie Wilson, Ms. Alexander and Miss Waltes.

CERAINICS WINNERS ... These Rahway Intermediate School students are sho artwork, which was entered in 18th Annual Ceramic Leagues Hobby Show and Exhibit فلخط recently in Cranford. In Hand Modeling Galagory, places were created in Mrs. Hypas' art cl ses. Ribbon winners were, from left, Angel Torres (First Place and $10 gR certificate), J. Carson (Second Place), Cortnie Le Bairt (Honorable Mention), Curtis Wills (Honorable tion), Nicole Williams (Third Place), and Mary Rose Ronquillo (Second Place and Mention).

B

A in solution

Will Be Placed

ent to express any sup-

"It is time for a change in party Leadership in the city, and I am confident that Andy Voros can provide the needed vitality for that Cicatielle, a close advisor to former Gov. Thomas H.

Kean, having managed his campaigns for Governor is 1977 and 1981, was head of assembling his Cabinet of-facers. Cicatiello also acreed as Executive Director for sition tents

Governor's train change."

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mulvey-Ditmass Post 681, Rahway, will be place flags on the graves of all veterans at the historic Rabway Connectory as a Memoria Day Tribute. These flags will remain for July 4, also. If you know of a dece veteran who has not been booored with a flag, call 381-3104 or 499-9163.

