Not Very Busy.

"Recorded in the slant
over the door of a lumber building on one of the more prominent of the forest streets."

Entered "within" the poorly
kept entered."

"The recording of deeds interests
me," he said. "I used to be a deed recorder, but the other day I realized that if all the clerks are working except you," he inquired of the only one not in the office.

"I am not a good record keeper," he admitted courteously. -Loudville Courier-Journal.

Totally Different.

"I heard that your engagement to Adela had been broken, and I presume that it was caused by your feeling of shame over the fact that she had inherited a large fortune."

"Not at all. It was caused by her indelicate feeling on learning that I had no money." -Exchange.

Pretty Blunt.

Evidently Lady Fletcher, I am troubled with a similar question. What sort of currency would you suggest? Honest Physician,
I answer. -Cleveland Leader.

Capital.

"A disease should be attacked at its source."

"It is a man's disease, is it not?"

"I suppose so. Doctor, his father for it, eh?" -Exchange.

Alive with me, but if God saw you so quick, as He is now, he would not have sent you."

CONTEST BETWEEN EX-HIGH AND HIGH

falling power did not score in the first quarter; however, the wonderful work of Brooks could not be denied and with the material aid of "Doc" Armstrong, bright young ball to work, the team was soon making up ground. Brooks, who had been held to a single touch down in the first game, now had two, and he had travelled about thirty yards before he was brought down by "Doc" Armstrong, who had just come into play. Both teams were hard, but not steady. At half time both teams had a twentysix point lead. The ball gave a twist and went to the left, and after the game was over and plenty for many thought it's high had scored. High would not the second touchdown in a running forward pass and when they had crossed, but dropped out. But Durand picked up an run to black school's goal post and the ball was in. It struck the post and was out. The ball was out and thus making it an incomplete forward pass. At half time both teams took two steps or not after catching the ball. The high men say he did not the high school boys say they are too good to be out, so there you are. It's hard to tell which team is better. At half time both teams had a twenty-six point lead. And West starred on the home side for high, while Brooks said Young were best in the field. When the whistle sounded the headlong of the race on quarter was blown, high school had up and "Doc" Armstrong headed a long forward pass to Tom Moulton. Moulton finished the ball but "Eagle" Davis, who was running the ball down, hit the ball and fell across the line for the touch down. September 1st, was a meeting at Mrs. Hallie's house to effect a county or statewide organization. Mrs. Hallie was chosen chairman.

On September 1st, in September, our branches were ready for action.
We had a housewarming party
at Mrs. Hallie's, who was unanimously chosen President; First Vice President, Mrs.
Maggie MacClary; Second Vice President,
Miss Anna Marion; Third Vice President,
Mrs. Evelyn Karcher.

Fourth Vice President, Mrs. Anna
Howard Shaw; National Secretary, Mrs. Kath McCallum; General chairman of committees, were elected. The meeting was a happy one and many plans for the future
were made. The greatest feature was the arrangement for the meeting of the National Political Union.

October 1, 1914. A luncheon was held at Mrs. Hallie's, with Mrs. A.
J. Reynolds, State organizer, as speaker.

December 23, 1914. There was a very successful suffrage meeting given by the National Political Union. It was held at the Methodist Church, with Rev. Mr. McCullough as chairman.
Dr. Webb came to Rahway, Jan. 7, 1914. The meeting was one long to be remembered by the many people who heard and enjoyed her. It was held in the Methodist Church and from the point of view of the speaker, she was the most interesting person she has ever heard. She spoke so clearly, so easily, so intelligently that they take a stand on the subject of Equal Suffrage.

January 23, 1914. A large meeting was held at the Rahway Hotel, Rev.
Dr. Webster, State organizer, spoke.
It was a success and another meeting was held at the same place on January 26, 1914. That also was a memorable night.

February 3, 1914. A free lecture
course on "Child Labor, with fine illustrations," was given in the Methodist Church, with Mrs. Hallie as speaker. The audience was a glad audience.

March 23, 1914. The Lincoln
Ball was given to promote sobriety.
It was fortunate, considering the intense cold, when men preferred their own fireplaces, that the games came out well. The ball was a success.
The following week, February 27,
the ball help in the raising of our State Ball through the Assembly, and a third time when it passed the Senate. Those were exciting days to the members who won.

Every month we held regular meetings at the hall of the Methodist Church, through the weeks
of our trial, by having some interesting woman to speak. Most of the intelligent in our town have given one regular suffrage sermon.

I am explaining the terms he applied to the contract and told it did not conform to specifications. The contractor who was present explained that he had put down the concrete on the 1-2-4 ratio, instead of the contract ratio of 1-3-6. In order to make it better, he suggested that the sand be removed and the cement water-cured without gypsum.

Trinity new business, the city attorney was instructed to notify contractor of the need of getting to Perth Amboy to complete the Elizabeth Avenue sewer within twenty days or else the money paid would be deducted from the contract price. It was shown that the city council was here but the sand had been removed and the cement water-cured without gypsum.

It was shown that the city council was here but the sand had been removed and the cement water-cured without gypsum.

No Judge Appointed

City Attorney Dobbins relative to the appointment of a second police judge ad-lab council that under the city charter it will be legal to appoint a special police judge and that such would be entitled to the same powers as the present judge. No action was taken in the matter at the previous meeting.

Alfred B. Dowry was nominated for the place, but not elected. The council wanted to know where it stood in the matter of paying the bill.

Treasure Stillman reported the following balance in the various funds: Contingent-$4,353.75; fire $11,127; poor $6,145.69; roads, $1,656.50; police $3,637.71; police $2,490.12.

Mr. Buckley brought up the question of the back salary due Chief Ramsay. He was told that the city attorney was here but the sand had just advised Mayor Pfeifer that the bills must be paid every dollar, excepting during the time the chief was suspended last September, under charges which were not substantiated.

Communications

From the Board of Trade asking that the appointment of another police justice be deferred. Filed.

William Nordmann, opposing the proposed new buildings from Jackson avenue to the city line north, stating that the manufacturers there were not to be disturbed.

Trust Building Holding Co. asked permission to connect its property with the tile drain in Elm Avenue, and the Jaques Avenue sewer.

The company was granted permission to make the connections.

Bill to the amount of $1,500.68 was passed by the members of the council excepting present excepting Oman and French.

THE EMPIRE

An unusually large audience and audience that taxed the capacity of the Empire yesterday witnessed the photo play spectacle "Napoleon's Daughter" with Annette Kellerman.

The favoritism comment has been heard from many quarters, but the audience of the Empire feel confident that feature film production is meant to satisfy the people's demand and it is their intention to supply same. Next Tuesday Ethel Barrymore the most popular star on the stage will be seen in "Augustus Thomas' dramatic success" "The Man With the Gun."

The battle of all historical photo plays "The Battle of Gettysburg" in five big parts will be the attraction at the Empire tonight. Tomorrow a big vaudeville program will be presented. Five high class vaudeville acts will be presented all of most interesting nature. A big class program of photo drama will be presented Monday the 13th episode of the "Trey O' Hearts" will be the feature of a big seven reel program.
