Louisville woman who is somewhat of a crank on hygiene and who brings up her small daughter according to the latest methods took the child on a day train to a nearby little town. The mother sighed as she glanced at the dusty velyet seat and cloudy windows. The youngster, however, felded her manicured fingers in her white plone lan and apparently tried to absorb as little dirt as possible. Looking up from her magazine, the immaculate parent was borrified to find the small daughter's jaws working violently. "Gum," said the child.
