The two speakers told of the way in which pilots are guided over their routes by radio beams, light beacons and radio communication between the planes and the operating company office and the airport radio tower. Pilots of transport planes are never out of reach of a radio beam or on airport, it was explained, and it is possible for the pilot to know his position at all times.

Mr. Huber and Mr. Conrad were introduced by Frank W. Henson, chairman of the program committee.

Co-operative Plan Is Explained To Fellowship Club

Head Of Consumers' League Tells How Buyers Share In Profits

The process of production and the method of controlling profit formed the basis of a talk given by A. H. Marbill, president of the Co-operative League of New Jersey at a meeting of the Fellowship Club at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

Marbill explained the workings of his organization which, he said, is similar to consumers' associations that have been operating successfully in Scandinavian countries for several years. "The purpose of the league," according to the speaker, "is to organize a large buying power composed of individual consumers for the purpose of operating in opposition to large corporations."

Such an organization would operate on a profit-sharing basis and the consumer would receive the profits now received by corporations. The fact that, in cases of necessity, the co-operatives would be able to exercise a form of boycott to combat unfair manipulation of the prices of foodstuffs and other commodities for profit, was mentioned by Marbill.

More than 30 members of the Fellowship Club and their wives attended the meeting at which Edward Ayers presided. Dr. Chester M. Davis introduced the speaker. The next meeting will be held next Thursday night and will be addressed by Dr. Davis who will give his views of the co-operative plan, and its possible advantages or disadvantages to a community.

Superintendent Perry Urges Selection Of Site To Avoid Delay When School Funds Are Available

Recommends Restoration Of Final 10 Percent Salary Cuts

(Editor's note: This is the seventh of a series of articles on the Rahway public schools. Today's article is taken from the annual report of Superintendent Perry and includes his recommendations for bettering school conditions.)

1. In order that the Board of Education may be prepared for immediate action in the building of a new high school when funds are available, a suitable building site should be selected and the preparation of plans and specifications should be started.
2. In view of greatly improved financial conditions and as a definite assistance in retaining the services of the personnel of the schools, the final ten percent of salary reductions should be restored for the school year 1937-38.
3. Following the full restoration of salary deductions to the employees of the Board of Education, a salary schedule should be developed defining salary limits for specified services within the school system.
4. Services eliminated from the curriculum several years ago should be restored in the 1937-38 budget including:
  - a. One school dentist.
  - b. One high school instructor of music.

The report was presented among a group of similar statements from the Rahway Memorial Hospital, Public Health Nursing Service, Building Department and Relief office.

Almost a quarter of a million dollars was spent for building in Rahway during 1936. Patsy Pellegrino, building inspector, revealed in his report. Erections and additions were divided as follows: Dwellings, $89,250; business, $24,533; garages, $8,550; alterations and additions, $24,094; and factories, $98,800, a total of $243,227.

Council Defers Meade Action To Later Date

Appoints Itself Committee Of The Whole To Consider Investigation At Special Public Meeting; No Date Set

Common Council voted Wednesday night to refer action on the Meade report of the police investigation to itself as a committee of the whole and discuss the matter in a body at some future date, undecided as yet.

This move followed vigorous remarks by Council President Jennings that the committee of himself, Councilman Markey and James H. Plunkett, originally selected to deal with the report, had no power to act on the matter, and was in answer to criticism by Markey that the Meade report had been delayed too long.

All But Three Committees Named

Jennings promised to call a special meeting of the council to discuss the report publicly, conforming to a motion by Councilman Feakes that the session be an open one to "avoid the possibility of any 'innuendoes.'"

Feakes Suggests Three City Tasks

Recommendations Are Referred To Committee For Study

Councilman Alfred C. Feakes, submitting his report as chairman of the engineering committee for 1936 to Common Council Wednesday night, recommended three major actions for the engineering department during this year.

An ordinance should be passed, according to Feakes, fixing the term and salary of the "Assistant City Engineer" so that office may be filled in the near future.

Steps should be taken to publish proper maps showing "accurate locations of all sewers, water mains, gas mains and all other forms of construction," he said, and he further urged that a tax atlas, to conform to state specifications, be prepared giving all tax data and records accurately and up to date.

The statement was referred to the engineering committee for recommendation in the budget.

ANTICS OF FLOWERS

BELIE WINTER SEASON

All signs point to "Spring is here!"—no, that's not a young reporter's fantasy, it's fact—or would be fact were it not the middle of winter. Mrs. J. Pitts of 876 Main street reports a robin gaily singing in her back yard early this week.

A tiny white snowdrop flower is budding by the front porch of Mrs. Daisy Mingst of New Brunswick avenue. A bulb, forgotten in the fall gathering, is showing vigorous signs of life in a New Church street garden. Innumerable reports have reached us of tulip life sprouting into action. Poor frothing tulips, 'tis but a false spring and winter's icy breath will soon descend upon them, ruining their chance of glory when the real thing comes along.

New Committee Named
Conducting his first regular business meeting as Council head, Jennings remarked particularly on the need of a new Special Committee on Bills to facilitate presentation of warrants for expenditure by department heads, and stressed the necessity of combined action by Poor and Alms, Sanitary and Health, and Relief Committees to reduce the number of families chronically on relief.

He appointed 15 committees, including the Bills group, but personnel of three committees, Building, City Property, and Miscellaneous have not yet been chosen.

The Special Committee on Bills consists of Councilmen Feakes and Reed, with the possibility that a private citizen will be added to it in the near future. It will be the duty of the committee, Jennings said, to receive from each department head every month a list of bills for all purchases. The purpose of this, according to Jennings, is to keep a constant check on all departments to avoid delays, frequent in the past, in receipt of bills from the various departments.

Calls For Relief Alleviation
Jennings, a former head of the Relief Committee, announced that there are 51 families in Rahway who are not able to support themselves because of physical or mental deficiencies, and called for action to relieve this situation. He recommended particularly a careful check for tuberculosis and social diseases.

No Councilman-at-large has been selected as yet for the post left vacant by Samuel R. Morton, who resigned to become city clerk. Numerous changes in the personnel of committees are expected when the Councilman-at-large is named.

On January 15, rates are reduced for long distance calls to many points out of the state, more than forty-two miles distant.

The savings range from 5c to $1.00 on day time calls for the first three minutes, depending on the distance called. Reductions also apply on many Night and Sunday calls.

This is the eighth in a series of reductions in the last ten years which has substantially cut the cost of your long distance service following a long standing policy to reduce such rates whenever possible.

From An idea In 1929 To New Jersey's Largest "Success Story" furniture floor

1929

Charles Koos and Edward Koos purchased an auto body-building plant on the Lincoln Highway and began selling quality furniture at prices that were definitely lower. It didn't take long for word to get around. One friend told another. Each month brought a huge sales increase.

1930

There was no "Depression" for Koos Bros. This first year had been such an overwhelming success that they opened another section, doubling their original floor space. In one short year Koos Bros. had gained the confidence and patronage of New Jersey's home-makers.

1931

Two years after Koos Bros. opened their doors, they were the talk of the furniture world. Trade papers referred to them as "One of America's fastest growing furniture stores." It was this same year that Koos Bros. announced the completion of a series of model rooms.

1932

Perhaps the most eventful step in Koos Bros.' rapid growth was the opening of their Pilgrim Shop. Today it is famous for its comprehensive collection of Early American maple, featuring authentic reproductions.

1933

In 1933 Koos Bros. opened a Card Room, 25 feet by 125 feet. Churches, clubs and various organizations were invited to hold their card parties here . . . without cost or obligation. Tables, chairs, cards, prizes and refreshments were furnished gratis. Needless to say, countless parties have been held in this Card Room. (For reservations or further details, telephone RAHway 7-2020.)

1934

There dawned a new furniture vogue . . . MODERN. And, Koos Bros. always stepping forward, was one of the first to open an exclusive Modern Section displaying suites and occasional pieces created by the country's foremost modern craftsmen.

1935

The building of Koos Bros.' Nursery Room in 1935 was the result of continued demand for fine nursery furniture at Koos Bros.' famous lower prices. Here you will find the answer to what is new in furniture for young America . . . everything from nursery chairs to complete suites.

1936

Last year brought the completion of Koos Bros.' Rug Gallery . . . an entire room devoted exclusively to fine American-Made rugs and broadloom carpets. And like everything else at Koos Bros., prices are dollars less than you'll find elsewhere.

THE past seven years, many times referred to as the "Depression," created a public of shrewd buyers who demanded "quality" at the lowest possible prices. Koos Bros. fulfilled this new public demand so completely that it grew, during those seven years, from infancy to New Jersey's largest and finest Furniture Floor.

BUT do you know why Koos Bros. can sell quality furniture at lower prices? First, we are in a "strategic" location. Easily accessible to the public, yet out of the high rent zone. But lower overhead is only one reason why our prices are always so low. We do a nice plump volume of business. And, as you know, the more a merchant sells, the less profit he must harvest from each table and chair. (In 1929, when we opened our doors, furniture experts said we could not exist on such a ridiculously low mark-up. We not only existed, but grew by leaps.) Then, there's our buying power. Greater volume sales means greater volume buying and volume buying means we buy for less. All this, plus our common sense merchandising, produces furniture values far beyond the scope of the average furniture organization. Perhaps these are a few of the reasons why Koos Bros. has been marching forward, increasing their sales figures year after year . . . right through the past seven. Certainly, this is an achievement few, if any other furniture store in all America, can truthfully boast of. And, we're headed for even greater expansion for 1937!

Local Y. M. C. A. Cagers Defeat Rutgers Jayvees In Initial Appearance Of Raritan Five

Rahway Quintet Rallies In Last Period To Win 23-15; 'Bud' Cornell High Scorer For 'Y' Tossers

Coming through with a spirited attack in the last quarter, the Rahway Y. M. C. A. basketball team trimmed an inexperienced Rutgers University Jayvee outfit, 23 to 15, at the college court, Wednesday night.

The contest was the inauguration of the junior-varsity basketball competition for Rutgers.

Going into the last quarter the "Y" team was pressed; leading by only two points, 14 to 12, but the relentless attack of the home squad finally broke the Rutgers defense and produced nine points to their opponents' three to put the game on ice.

George Brandt, substitute center for the "Y" twisted his ankle and had to be removed from the game.

Bud Cornell, John Francis, Bo Burns and Ed Payne were outstanding for the local team while Schwartz of Rutgers, with high score for the game, eight points, led the losers.

Rahway made five out of ten free tries while Rutgers made five out of eleven.

The victory keeps the "Y" on the winning side of the ledger for this season with six wins and four losses. The contest was a preliminary to the Rutgers varsity, Fordham game which the Scarlets won 35 to 33.

short sport shots

By Earl H. Walter

(Editor's note: This article is by Earl H. Walter, Physical Director of the High School, who at our invitation kindly consented to pinch-hit for the regular sports commentator, Woody, who is confined to his home with la-grippe.)

Back in 1925 Rahway played South Orange in the semi-finals of the state tournament. Playing center that night was a sixteen-year-old boy weighing 130 pounds. Through the entire season and that night he outplayed much older and heavier boys, and was superior to them in all departments of the game. That boy was Harry "Oats" Orr, who though only sixteen years old was a senior and graduated in June. Had he not been graduated so young there is no doubt he would have been remembered as the greatest center in the history of N. J. H. S. basketball.

From high school he transferred to the Y. M. C. A. team, and with more age, height and weight he became the outstanding Y. M. C. A. center in the east. His playing was one of the reasons that Rahway won the National Y. M. C. A. championship.

From the Y. M. C. A. team "Oats" graduated to the professional ranks. Here too he was recognized as an outstanding team player. He was popular with players, coaches and spectators, as he was interested in the team winning and not in making himself a hero.

"Oats" has no doubt played his last basketball game. He is on the road to recovery from a respiratory disease at Bonnie Burn Sanatorium. Fans in Rahway owe much to "Oats" for his contribution to the development of the game in Rahway.

On January 22 the Elizabeth Pros. will play the Fords Firemen at the Y. M. C. A. All receipts are to be given to "Oats." The High School is co-operating by moving the starting time of its game to 7:30 in order that the spectators may have time to get to the Y. M. C. A. by 9:30 to see this benefit game. The teams are donating their services and the Y. M. C. A. is donating the court. The fans of Rahway can do their part by buying tickets.

Bob Henderson, a team mate of Orr, on the National championship club is doing a splendid job with the Y. M. C. A. team. He has a group of young players whom he has rounded into shape. They are playing smart, scientific ball that is pleasing to watch. Their recent victory over Summit is proof of the above. Summit came to Rahway with an undefeated record in 11 games played. The game was one of the most interesting contests on the "Y" court in years. The many fans that used to watch the "Y" team in years past might well drop in on Saturday night and see what they are missing in the way of entertainment.

Won 2-10.

Coch Earl H. Walter's Rahway High School basketball five, fresh from four consecutive victories, will face the stiffest test of the season Monday night when the local cagers travel to Elizabeth to face Thomas Jefferson in a renewal of a seven-year series which has seen Rahway the winner only twice. Tonight at Roselle Park the Waltermen will meet the Parkers in another hard tilt in which the local courtsters are favored.

Last year Rahway turned in the first victory over the Jefferson quintet since 1931, by defeating the Elizabeth five 29-18. The best Monday night on their court and Walter expects charges to be handicapped by low ceiling.

This season Jefferson has feasted Cranford, also a Rahway victim, and handed a beating Passaic, once a court great of the state. Jefferson has lost Morristown, which is rated low this year than in recent years.

The Jefferson game will close a four-game campaign away from the local hardwoods.

Team records mean very little when Rahway meets Roselle Park and the game will be played until the final gun. Rivalries between the aggregations is strong and a win for either team is a "event."

Walter will start Henry C. Cios at the forward posts tonight with Brandt at center. In backcourt positions will be Webeck and Nymice. The same is scheduled to start against Jefferson Monday night.

A Great Opportunity For Used Car Buyers To Save

Nobody can foretell the effect the automobile strike will have on the used car market. It is certain that prices will not be lower and there is a possibility that they will be much higher in the very near future. Rahway dealers have been offering used cars at prices far below those quoted by dealers in many other localities, but for this event they have made special reductions to assure a quick cleaning up of all cars now on hand.

It is suggested that interested buyers do not wait because with the prices placed on the automobiles listed on this page, they will no doubt be snatched up quickly by buyers who know real automobile values.

Terms can be arranged and in most instances your present car will be taken in trade or as the down payment.

Attractions To Be Shown at Rahway and Nearby Moving Picture Theatres

"Adventure In Manhattan" At The Rahway

"Murder With Pictures"

Empire Attraction

Now Showing On The Regent Screen

Joel McCrea as the author of mystery novels and Jean Arthur, leading lady on Broadway, are co-starred in the feature attraction which starts at the Rahway Theatre Sunday.

Four of the youthful players in the mystery drama which starts at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow are pictured above. Gail Patrick, Paul Kelly and Lew Ayres play the leading roles.

Mae West and Warren William romancing in a scene from "Go West Young Man," feature attraction at the Empire today.

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford are again cast together in the leading roles of "Love on the Run" which opens tomorrow at the Regent Theatre.

Irene Dunne Stars As "Theodora" At The Rahway

Jean Arthur And Judy Barrett Head Sunday Attractions

"Theodora Goes Wild," starring Irene Dunne in her first major role as a comedienne, is the feature attraction at the Rahway Theatre today and tomorrow.

For the first time in a career studied with such dramatic gems as "Cimarron," "Back Street," "Magnificent Obsession" and "Showboat," Miss Dunne turns to the gay, light side of life, with gratifying results.

Playing opposite the titian-haired star in the role of a happy-go-lucky illustrator is Melvyn Douglas, one of Hollywood's most popular actors. Others in the large cast are Thomas Mitchell, Thurston Hall, Rosalind Keith, Spring Byington and Margaret McWade, one of the "painted" sisters in "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town."

Charles Phelps, Jr. (Robert Young) inherits Phelps Department Store but is about to sell it. Grover, head buyer (Paul Stanton) secretly rules a gang of warehouse thieves who dispose of their stolen goods through the store.

Romance Runs Wild In "Love On The Run"

Charlie Chan Mystery Second Feature Of Regent Bill

Romance runs rampant, adventure has its fling and love conquers all in the delightful new M-G-M comedy melodrama, "Love on the Run," which is now showing at the Regent Theatre.

Teaming those two exhilarating and colorful personalities, Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, in a dashing tale of modern doings by ultra-modern people the new picture provides excitement and laughter in an entertainment melange of an heirless, a fortune-hunting nobleman, two American correspondents and a brace of European crooks.

His back to the wall, a knife at his throat, the world's slyest sleuth, Charlie Chan, battles for his life in the most thrilling and exciting of the Twentieth Century-Fox adventures of the wily Chinese detective, "Charlie Chan at the Opera," now at the Regent Theatre.

Warnar Oland, of course, portrays the arch-enemy of crime, with Boris Karloff co-starred as the king of terror, in what is promised as the most chilling and thrilling mystery Chan has ever encountered.

With Keye Luke, Charlotte Henry, Thomas Beck and Margaret Irving featured, the film starts in a roar of high tension excitement that reaches a sine-tipling climax in a crescendo of thrilling events.

exclusively on the original manuscripts of Chopin, he has created what he terms "an edition for the music loving masses."

"Go West Young Man" Begins Today Featuring Race For Blonde Star

There are three men in the life of Mae West in her latest starring vehicle, "Go West Young Man," which begins today at the Empire Theatre.

Romance number one is with Lyle Talbot, cast as an old flame who has become a prominent politician, and finds it good publicity to "spark" with the glamorous star portrayed by Miss West. Talbot knew her when—the star knew him when they called him "Butch."

Romance number two is with "tall, blonde and handsome" Randolph Scott, cast as a farm-boy inventor, "with large and sinewy muscles." She wants him to "Go West" to Hollywood. She's helped so many men realize themselves, as she puts it, and Scott has an invention for motion pictures.

Romance number three is with Warren William, playing a press agent who accompanies the star on her personal appearance trip to the movie palaces, primarily to keep her from getting married. They fight and bicker about her romances and the marriage clause in her contract. William extricates her from all her entanglements, but somehow gets involved himself.

A fourth romance is also suggested with Etienne Girardot, a professor—this, however, is strictly comedy in hilarious vein.

Jane Withers, whose new Twentieth Century-Fox picture, "Can This Be Dixie?" opens today at the Empire Theatre, is probably the most air-minded young star in all Hollywood. This because of the honors which have been showered on her, literally "from the skies."

Recently, at the christening of the new giant aluminum air flagship, "California," "Ginger" Jane was made honorary chief air hostess, the only person to hold such a title in the whole world.

It was from no other person than President C. R. Smith of the American Air Lines that the youthful star received her title, accompanied by the customary insignia of silver wings and a hostess uniform. An engraved certificate, attesting to the diminutive star's new honors, was also handed her. President Smith announced that he was having her title copyrighted so that Jane would be the only person to enjoy it.

CORTEZ, CONQUEROR OF MEXICO

(By Lawrence Wilson)
How Hernando Cortez, with only a few hundred men, subjugated the Aztecs, a highly civilized and war-like nation of the New World, is one of the most thrilling conquests of the 16th century.
Cortez' march to Mexico, his capture of the Aztecs' King, Montezuma, his escapes from the Aztecs in Mexico City, his return with only a few soldiers, and his original and successful plan to capture the city are vividly described in the book.
It is a very thrilling biography.

Murder Drama Is Feature Attraction

"White Hunter" Also On Liberty Theatre Bill

The solution of a perplexing crime through a photograph, the basis of "Murder with Pictures," a new mystery drama starring Lew Ayres and Gail Patrick, which starts tomorrow at the Liberty Theatre, is far from the mere inspiration of a Hollywood screen play writer. Police records the world over contain many similar instances where accidental photographs revealed the identity of killers and led to the freedom of suspected persons.

The most dramatic of such occurrences happened recently in Death Valley, California, where a picturesque old desert character resented being photographed by a Los Angeles dentist. He whipped out a revolver, shot the man dead and fled. The dentist's death might have remained an unsolved mystery were it not for the fact that his camera was found and the film roll developed. One print showed the old man in the very act of firing his revolver, full at the dentist. This led to his arrest.

In the case of the recent attempted assassination of King Edward VIII it was an accidental shot by a newspaper cameraman in the crowd which definitely pinned the guilt on the would-be regicide.

Hollywood, with its factory-like film plants, its production charts and its movie-making formulae, hardly can be considered a land of romance and fantasy, and yet—

There is June Lang.
The same June Lang who is starting with Warner Baxter in the Twentieth Century-Fox dramatic sensation, "White Hunter," opening tomorrow at the Regent Theatre.

The phrase—"June Lang starting with Warner Baxter"—is simple enough, and yet to June, herself, it still is a little unbelievable and it is definite evidence that there is romance in Hollywood.

Five years ago, when she was only 14, June made her motion picture debut doing an exotic dance

Your Garden

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

At this time of the year the gardener can occupy himself with making plans for his 1937 garden, taking care of house plants, and making lists of seeds needed for early sowing.

The gardener who has no greenhouse should not start seeds too early. The first of February is ample time for the very earliest.

on the leaves of plants will clog the pores and prevent air from being taken into the leaves.
Blooming plants that are to flower this winter should be placed in a window where there is direct sunlight all day. Do not try to re-pot the plants. Generally, plants which are slightly pot-bound will bloom more profusely than those which have too much root room.

The garden that is brought indoors during the winter is a year-round joy to the owner. But the word of caution—no not over water houseplants. Give them water in the early part of the day. When plants are watered in late afternoon the foliage remains wet overnight and this may be the cause of disease and decay.
The leaves of foliage plants, such as palms, rubber-plants and aspidistras, should be washed regularly. Use a weak soap solution. Rinse the leaves with clear water within an hour after the washing. This will free them from dust and some of the more tender scale insects, and greatly improve their condition. Dust allowed to remain

Improved Uniform SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

LESSON TEXT—John 3:1-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.—John 3:3.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Answering a Man's Question. JUNIOR TOPIC—The Most Important Question. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How the Christian Life Begins. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—New Life in Christ.

The only entrance into the Christian life is by the door of the new birth. Regeneration is the act of God whereby the divine nature is imparted to the believing sinner and he becomes the child of God. He who has not entered by this way is still dead in trespasses and sins, without God and without hope (Eph. 2:1, 12).

Men are seeking to enter the household of God by almost any other means—culture, reform, character building—and are neglecting God's way. This lesson should therefore be studied and taught with earnest prayer that this foundation truth may lay hold upon the hearts of the hearers of the Word. Let no one who is not born again attempt to teach it to others, lest the blind attempt to lead the blind, and both fall into the ditch (Luke 6:39).

The coming of Nicodemus to our Lord took place at the time when he was in Jerusalem for the Passover. Jesus had chosen six of his disciples, had been at Cana of Galilee, where he performed his first miracle, and had made a brief visit to Capernaum, after which he came to Jerusalem for the feast. In high and holy indignation he had driven the money changers out of the temple. The Pharisees who looked for the coming of the Messiah as a secular conqueror wondered at this new spiritual leader. It was probably as much on their behalf as his own that Nicodemus came to inquire of Jesus. In answering his questions Jesus reveals the necessity, the nature, and the method of regeneration—in other words, the Why, What, and How of the New Birth.

I. Why? (vv. 1-7.) Jesus was not unduly impressed by the dignity and high station of his visitor, nor by the visitor's courteous acknowledgment of his own position as a great teacher. What decisive boldness Jesus declare that this man, a cultured and distinguished ruler of the Jews, must be born again, if he is to see the kingdom of God.

God is no respecter of persons. This "doctor of divinity" must be born again, just as was the illiterate fisherman, D. L. Moody once said that he was thankful it was to such a man as Nicodemus that Jesus presented the necessity of the new birth—or men would have said that only the down-and-outer needed to be saved.

Two reasons are given by our Lord for the "just" of verse 7: (1) The Kingdom of God is a spiritual kingdom, and cannot be entered by way of our human nature; and (2) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh" and is radically and essentially bad. To learn why the flesh is bad read Jeremiah 13:23, and Galatians 5:19-21. Scripture on this point is almost diametrically opposed to much of the teachings in our schools and colleges. But God's Word is right; let us follow it.

II. What? (vv. 8-13.) The new birth is a divine mystery, not fathomable by human reason. Those who insist that all spiritual truth be put through the little norm of their intelligence will never understand it or receive its blessing. The striking illustration of the life-giving and energizing wind used by our Lord is most illuminating. Wind is unseen, but the results of its movement are evident. Even so the spiritual rebirth of men is an enigma to the worldly man, but even he can see its results in godly living.

III. How? (vv. 14-17.) Just as there was healing and life in a look at the uplifted serpent (Num. 21:8), so there is life for a look at the Crucified One. Faith receives God's perfect provision for sin.

Verses 16 may well be regarded as the greatest sentence in the greatest Book in the world. It presents the whole plan of salvation—its source, its ground, its recipients, its condition, and its result.

This glorious salvation is for all men—"whosoever"—but some reject it. Notice that God does not condemn them. Their own evil works and desires condemn them (vv. 17-20). God in his grace is ready and willing to save, but men love "darkness rather than light"; for their works are evil.

BAPTIST BOARD MEETS The Board of Trustees of First Baptist Church met at the home of K. G. Schoeffler of Fulton street, Monday evening. In addition to accepting the reports of the regular committees, the board worked on plans for an active enlistment month from February 14 to March 14.

St. Mary's Parish Plans Bingo Party

Affair Will Replace Annual Benefit Card Party

Plans are being made for a bingo party to be held Tuesday, January 26, in St. Mary's School Hall by a committee composed of members of the parish. Mrs. James H. Kearney is general chairman of the party. She will be assisted by a committee which includes Miss Mary McCartney, Miss Anna J. Ryan, Mrs. Phillip Buhl, Mrs. John Mainzer, Mrs. C. Reed, Mrs. P. Manahan, Mr. L. McMahon, Miss Martha Donnelly, Miss Lucy Ennis, Miss Audrey O'Donnell, Miss Lillian O'Connor, the Misses Lillian and Margaret Cahill, Mrs. M. McGee, Mrs. J. Matthews, Mrs. M. Liston, Mrs. Gertrude Prietz, Eugene Kenna, Joseph Dunn, J. Moran and E. McMahon.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

"Life" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 17. The Golden Text is: "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup; thou maintainest my lot. . . Thou wilt show me the path of life." (Psalms 16:5, 11). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is 'God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.'"

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THERE has been little change in meat prices during the last week. Forequarter cuts of lamb and beef are better values than hindquarter. If you are planning to have a steak, I suggest a chuck steak of beef or individual lamb steaks from the shoulder for an inexpensive meal. Chickens, fowl and turkeys average about one-fourth less than they did this time last year. Egg production is high and consequently prices for fine fresh eggs are lower. If the weather permits, plenty of fresh fish will be available at moderate prices. Frozen fish, however, is reasonable.

There is great variety of fresh vegetables and fruits. Shipments of new potatoes and strawberries are increasing, and the prices are lower.

America Receives Another Challenge

The finding of the body of little Charles Mattson near his home at Everett, Wash., shocks America as at no time since the Lindbergh tragedy.

Like the Lindberghs case, here was wanton slaughter of an innocent, unexplainable by even the sordid motive of gain.

The Lindbergh case was a challenge. America met the challenge the only way it could. Congress forgot about state lines, and passed the Lindbergh law. The G-men set to work co-operating with local authorities to stamp out this most revolting of crimes. They all but succeeded. Since then there have been seventy-five kidnapings, and every case has been solved, except this Mattson case. A total of 173 kidnapers have been caught, of whom four have gone to their legal deaths, two were lynched and three ended their lives as suicides. The rest are serving a total of 2,224 years in prison.

For a time it seemed America had crushed kidnaping. In 1936, however, there were 14 cases, capped by the worst one since 1932.

This was not an interstate crime. Both the kidnaping and murder occurred inside the State of Washington. Notwithstanding, America will cheer the strong, quick arm of Uncle Sam no matter where it reaches to clutch the doers of this awful deed.

Sane Living Is Guard Against Influenza

In several sections of the country at large influenza has made its appearance, and is on the increase. In some sections it is making alarming inroads on the health of the people.

In a section of the West, prayers are being offered for abatement of the disease. One of the best means, however, to obtain answer to prayer is for all concerned to keep themselves as fit as possible to stand up against disease attack.

Experts in medical science have recently said that the best way to prevent colds is to avoid over-tiredness, lack of sleep, over-eating and eating too fast, smoking too much, worry. In brief, the individual, in the presence of an epidemic of colds, influenza or other attacks has his weapons in sane, careful living.

Importance Of Fingerprints Seen In Texas Killing

The case of the youth from Union County who was killed in a holdup in Texas shows the importance of the fingerprint system, not only in identification of criminals but in general identification.

The youth was traced to this county and to his family by comparison of fingerprints taken in Texas and those taken of the boy when he was put on probation following a local charge against him.

There has been much agitation of late for general fingerprinting, as a means of identification under any conditions. For instance, a victim of amnesia, often difficult to identify, might be identified by fingerprint comparison.

It is recognized, however, that general fingerprinting would invite much work, and the keeping and searching of fingerprint records in the future would involve much care and work.

The only thing he has to offer his fair neighbor is a future of undisturbed quiet and peaceful inactivity. Of course, he has a lot of antiques within his boundaries, but none of them is rare, and all have little or no value. This may sound like a breach of loyalty, but breach or no breach, it's about time that Rahway began to show some signs of life. The only advantage it would gain from increasing its area at this time would be to allow itself more room for stretching.

There appears to be no good reason why the city should not be one of the most progressive in the state. It showed signs of achieving this distinction some years ago, but after making a fair start, it went into a coma and has been there ever since. Personally, I like Rahway, even though it is miles from my birthplace. Perhaps we both have a lot in common. I'm inclined to be a bit lazy myself. And I'm not very careful about my appearance either.

Before Rahway starts to be bothered with growing pains, old Doctor Ding would prescribe a good tonic composed of equal parts of civic pride, up-to-date methods, constructive ideas, action and sound thinking. The ingredients are readily available and all that is required is for you and me and the rest of us to get together and mix them. When Rahway brightens up and shows that it really is alive, then will the time for expansion be ripe.

I have heard many reasons given for Rahway's failure to keep pace with other communities. All of them sounded possible, but most were improbable. One of the main reasons, I think, is that everyone has been waiting for a miracle to happen. Most of the citizens of the town apparently have never given thought to the fact that progress is not a one-man job. It's a task requiring combined effort. In Mayor Barger we have a good leader, but he working alone can do little but talk about what he would like to see happen.

Awake you Rahwayites! The Civil War has ended and we are living in a new age.

Rahway 65 Years Ago

From The Advocate and Times—January 12, 1872

The new clock on the Second Church is in running order but the arrangement for striking does not yet seem to be complete. It will be remedied in due time. The illuminated face on the front does not yet exhibit much light. The boards of which the face is made being rather thick for the gas to penetrate.

An alarm of fire was raised on Friday last while the Board of Representatives were in session. No apparent cause existed for raising the alarm and as is usually the case the apparatus uptown ran downtown and downtown engines and carriages ran up. When they met the alarm was proved false and they returned to their houses.

The annual election of Directors of the First National Bank was held on Tuesday with the following result: A. F. Shotwell, A. V. Shotwell, Joel B. Laing, A. B. Wood, A. P. Scudder, Hampton Cutter, President Abraham F. Shotwell, Cashier Walter Fuller, Jr.

Rahway 30 Years Ago

From The Union Democrat—January 17, 1907

Rev. W. T. Stuchell has announced to his membership and congregation, much to their gratification, that he has declined the unanimous call to the Middletown, New York, Presbyterian Church.

Chief of Police George Wright remained home from the station house yesterday owing to a cold. Roundsman Conger occupied the official chair.

Captain N. V. Compton is extremely busy these days assisting in explaining the new system of lexing taxes and traveling in different sections, as he is sent for.

It is stated that the Middlesex Water Company has bought 184 acres of land near Garwood in the valley through which flows the Robinson branch of the Rahway river. This stream is soon to be put in harness and the topography of Clark Township will be greatly altered. The purpose of this change and improvement is the construction of a reservoir.

Nearly two years ago the old Baptist Church was the scene of a conflagration which nearly destroyed that historic structure. As a result of that and also of an untold amount of hard work and indomitable hustling on the part of many members and of a few in particular, a beautiful new edifice is now about ready for the dedicatory services which will probably be held during the coming month.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Rahway Trust Company Thursday the following officers were elected: President, Jan van Herwerden; Vice President, Henry L. Lamphear; Secretary and Treasurer, Joseph C. Potter.

A large and appreciative audience greeted Miss Paula Laddey, Newark attorney, at the high school last night when she opened the series of lectures being given under the auspices of the Rahway League of Women Voters on "Your Home and The Law."

Rumors were current about Rahway that a detachment of internal revenue agents had swooped down on the city in search of illegal distributors of modern brands of "hooch."

Robert Watson and Donald Marsh of this city, both of whom are students at New York University witnessed the N. Y. U. and Washington Marshall basketball game in New York, Saturday evening.

Friday the Thirteenth might not have been exactly what one would call unlucky for the Rahway High School basketball team as it emerged on the long end of the score in its game with the Linden High School basketeers on the Y. M. C. A. court.

Trenton Facts

By SENATOR CHARLES E. LOIZEAUX

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of articles on New Jersey government by Senator Charles E. Loizeaux of Union County.)

State Commissioner of Education Dr. Charles H. Elliott, in his recent annual report for the 1935-36 fiscal year, stated:

"The schools of New Jersey have not yet emerged from the economic depression."

In view of this declaration, which is well supported by actual facts, it is interesting and important to note just how much further progress our schools must make before they will emerge from the economic depression.

Statistics disclose that although there was an increase of $3,125,690 in New Jersey school expenditures in the fiscal year ended June 30 last, as compared with the preceding fiscal year, education expenditures in counties and school districts have decreased $15,850,000 since 1930-31. This damaging decrease does not include a further reduction of approximately $11,500,000 in expenditures for school building—construction, improvement, new equipment and purchase of land. Considering all school purposes together, it may be seen that $27,350,000 less was expended in the last fiscal year than in 1930-31.

Pupil Costs Drop

School records further show that the average annual cost per pupil, based on average daily attendance, has dropped from $125.97 in 1931 to $106.90 in 1936. Although the number of high school pupils in the five-year period increased 66,598, or 52 percent, the number of high school teachers increased only 1,789, or 34 percent.

In 1931, New Jersey schools spent an average of $2.16 on textbooks for each pupil, whereas in 1936 only $1.61 was expended for this purpose. In 1931, there was expended for maintenance and repair of school buildings a total of $4,201,051.35, as compared with $2,864,611.91 in 1936, or a reduction of $1,336,439.44. Instead of in any sense representing an economy, this particular reduction can only mean higher depreciation of school buildings, with the eventual result of vastly increased unnecessary expenditures on replacements.

In 1931, there were 39,894 pupils registered in regular and vocational evening schools and special classes for foreign born, but in the 1936 fiscal year only 23,068 could take advantage of these forms of educational opportunities. Summer school registration in the five year period dropped from 51,313 to 6,609.

Five Years Ago

New Jersey school activities five years ago were supervised by 1,545 school heads, supervisors, principals, etc., but in 1936 there were only 1,394 engaged in this work.

Sally Saves KITCHEN CLUB

A brand New Year! A brand new leaf to write upon. And many of us are writing our annual budgets on it. Prosperity or no prosperity, thrifty women will always plan ahead more or less.

And if you are budget-minded during the first few days of 1937, you'll be thinking about the provender for the coming year. And if you're thinking about how you're going to squeeze it into your budget you'll be interested in a booklet that has come to my desk from Uncle Sam's department of home economics down in Washington.

The title of the booklet is "Diets to fit the family income." It gives food values, diets, typical menus for family incomes ranging from a comfortable level down to $600 a year or less.

There's a liberal diet, a moderate cost diet, a minimum cost diet and a restricted diet for emergency use. The interesting thing to me is that each plan draws from 12 different groups of food... all selected, first of all for their nutritive value. The groups are:

- (1) milk in its various forms; (2) potatoes and sweet potatoes; (3) tomatoes and citrus fruits; (4) leafy, green, and yellow vegetables; (5) dried beans, peas, and nuts; (6) dried fruits; (7) other vegetables and fruits not mentioned above; (8) eggs; (9) lean meat, poultry, and fish; (10) flour, baked goods, and assorted cereals; (11) fatty foods, such as butter, salt pork, and bacon; and (12) sugars, including jams, jellies, honey, sirups, and molasses.

From these groups the ingenious housewife can budget her food costs... and be sure of getting nourishment at the same time.

Increased Phone Service Show Business Pick-up

Increased traffic through the telephone exchanges of the state in 1936 showed the pulse of New Jersey business and social activity beating more strongly than in several years, the New Jersey Bell Telephone company announces.

More than half of the 98,000 telephones lost during the depression years were back in service by the end of the year, 32,000 of them regained in 1936. "If telephone usage, arising as it does from the private and business activities of the whole community may be regarded as some indication of general conditions," G. W. McRae, vice president and general manager of the company stated, "there is cause for satisfaction in the 1936 performance which, while not spectacular, showed a well sustained improvement."
