Message from
The Rake and Hoe Garden Club's President, Kris Luka:

"The intention of The Rake and Hoe Garden Club's flower show, Surfing the Garden, is not only to educate the public and ourselves on horticulture but also to offer a small peek into the vastness of the Internet. The titles chosen in our schedule are some of the most visited and helpful Internet websites used by our members.

In this schedule, each website title is easily identifiable in bold italics and underlining, followed by a descriptive phrase about the site. Take a few moments next time you are checking your email to visit some of these helpful sites. You will be amazed at how quickly you, too, can become a computer expert."

WEBSITE NOMENCLATURE SHORT COURSE

A guide to Internet nomenclature: a web site name has no spaces, each part is separated by periods (dots), example:

<http://www.username.com> is explained as follows:

- http:// -means "hypertext transfer protocol" - protocol to transfer hypertext requests and information between servers and browsers (usually omitted)
- www. -means "world wide web" (can be omitted)
- username. -name of web site chosen by web site creator, there can be no spaces in name
- end with one of the following:
 - com for commercial sites
 - edu for educational sites
 - org for organizational sites
 - net for network sites
 - gov for governmental sites

All clip art used in this schedule have been legally obtained free on the Internet or licensed from the Clip Art Gallery on DiscoverySchool.com.

RULES

www.everyrule.com Site to find out rules for almost everything in the universe including etiquette, sports, games, TV shows, etc. However, rules governing Flower Shows can be found pp. 4-6 in this Schedule. These rules have been extrapolated from The Handbook for Flower Shows, 2003 Edition, written and published by the NGC (hereafter known as The Handbook).

General Rules:

1. All classes open to public except where so noted in the schedule.
2. Judging based on National Garden Clubs, Inc. (NGC) Standard System found in The Handbook. Classes are judged by NCG Accredited Flower Show Judges, to begin at 10:30 am on May 18, 2005. Decision of Judges is final. See Schedule for Scales of Points on pp. 7 and Awards on pp. 8-9. Awards may be withheld if not merited.
3. All entries received as follows:
 - a. Presbyterian Church: Tuesday, May 17 -
All Horticulture Division entries 10 am- 3 pm.
All other entries 9 am – 7 pm.
 - b. Houses: Tuesday, May 17, 1-6 pm & Wednesday, May 18, 8-9:30 am (must schedule time with Class Consultant).
 - c. Judges' horticulture: Wednesday, May 18, 8-9 am (must pre-register with Clare Minick, cjminick@earthlink.net).
4. Pre-registration is required for some classes and is so noted in the schedule.
5. Emphasis must be on fresh plant material. No artificial flowers, foliage, fruits or vegetables may be used anywhere in the show.
6. All properties must be removed at show closing on May 18th at 8:15 pm. Any horticulture specimens remaining will be donated to Community Projects.
7. Each entry to be judged must be the work of one exhibitor, except where noted.
8. Exhibitors may enter more than one class or subclass, but only one exhibit per class or subclass.
9. All classes may be subdivided at the discretion of The Committee.
10. The Classification committee and/or designated Consultants must pass all entries before the exhibitor leaves the floor.
11. Homes, Church and Gardens are open to the public from 1-8:00 pm.
12. Entry cards to be hand written clearly in waterproof black ink or pencil. Pre-printed address labels may be used for exhibitor's name and address. Horticulture Division plant names should be written in pencil. Entry cards available from Classification committee and/or Consultants.
13. All endangered plant material must have been grown by the exhibitor or obtained in a legal manner, according to state conservation laws.
14. Only personnel allowed in show areas during judging are Judges, Clerks, Flower Show Chair, Flower Show Advisor and Horticulture Co-Chairs.

RULES, cont'd

Design Rules:

1. Some plant material must be used in every exhibit.
2. Fresh plant material may not be dyed or otherwise treated by application of any substance. It may be clipped, stripped, bent, or otherwise manipulated.
3. American flag and other national flags are not to be used in any design whatsoever.
4. All plant material used in the design should be listed on a 3"x5" card supplied by Consultant. A clarification of class interpretation is also permitted and recommended.
5. Landscapes or scenes are not permitted in Design Division.
6. Religious symbols used must be displayed in a respectful manner and in accordance with policies of local religious organizations.
7. Cut fruit and/or vegetables are not permitted.
8. If the designer is unable to fulfill assignment, it is the designer's responsibility to find a replacement.

Horticulture Rules:

1. Specimens must be fresh plant material grown by the exhibitor.
2. Entries must be NAMED Genus and species, variety/'Cultivar' where available. Common name may be added.
3. Only one entry per exhibitor per class or subclass unless of a different genus, species, variety/cultivar, type, size or color.
4. Container grown plants must be in exhibitor's possession at least 90 days; double potting is permitted.
5. Containers for cut specimens to be provided by The Committee.
6. Wedging material of clear plastic bubble wrap will be used and provided by Committee. Raffia is permitted for staking vines.
7. Cut specimens should not have any foliage below the water line.
8. Horticulture tables to be covered with pale green cloths.
9. Plants grown primarily for bloom must be in flower to be exhibited.
10. Plants grown for "foliage effects" need not be in bloom. See Herbaceous Plants for Special Purposes, pg. 776-777 in Manual of Herbaceous Ornamental Plants by Steven M. Still, PhD., 1994.
11. No oil, spray or artificial coloring is permitted on horticulture specimens.
12. If an Advanced entrant in Horticulture is unable to fulfill assignment, it is the responsibility of the entrant to find a replacement.
13. The Flower Show Committee reserves the right to limit entries to space available and to disqualify any entry of inferior quality or because of leaf dressing or insect damage.
14. Horticulture authorities: Manual of Herbaceous Ornamental Plants, Steven Still; Herbaceous Perennial Plants, Allan M. Armitage; Manual of Woody Landscape Plants, Michael A. Dirr; and Simon & Schuster's Complete Guide to Plants and Flowers, Frances Perry, Ed.

RULES, cont'd

Special Exhibits Rules:

Educational Exhibits:

1. Each exhibit must use a minimum of eighteen square feet: horizontal, vertical, or a combination.
2. Purpose of exhibit:
 - a. To instruct and inform public on goals and NGC objectives, which are: To aid in protection and conservation of natural resources, promote civic beauty, encourage improvement of roadsides and parks.
 - b. To encourage and assist in establishing and maintaining botanical gardens and other horticultural centers for advancement of science, enjoyment and education of the public.
 - c. To study and advance arts of gardening, horticulture, floral design, landscape design, and environmental sciences.
 - d. To cooperate with other organizations in furtherance of foregoing objectives, by activities as may be determined by the Board of Directors of NGC.
 - e. To further horticultural education, conservation, and landscape design through gift scholarships.
3. Educational value is most important category in Scale of Points used for judging:
 - a. Educational exhibit must convey educational facts forcefully and quickly, and in an interesting manner.
 - b. Organization of components must be carefully planned to lead viewer's eye logically through exhibit.
 - c. Exhibits should be unique, dramatic, colorful, and easy to read. It is suggested that they include the following:
 - i. Features which attract the eye and hold attention, such as: a catchy title, motion, pleasing sound, special lighting.
 - ii. Unexpected color combinations and/or innovative staging.
 - iii. A touch of humor or whimsy, where appropriate.
 - d. Each exhibit should include a minimal amount of text, relying more on pictures or diagrams to convey the message to the viewer, using signage and printing compatible with that used elsewhere in the show.

Sponsored Group:

1. All rules above for Horticulture apply.
2. Must be Adult members (age 18 and over) of organizations, residents of nursing homes or other treatment facilities or similar groups.
3. Must receive leadership assistance on NGC activities.

Youth: All rules above for Horticulture and Design apply with the following exceptions:

1. Container grown plants must be in exhibitor's possession at least 60 days. Terrariums for at least 21 days.
2. Youth will be subdivided by age.
3. Each exhibitor in the Youth Design Classes must create his/her design independently, but under the supervision of the Consultant.

Artistic Crafts:

1. Add interest and beauty to the flower show.
2. Portray techniques and skills of craftsmen.
3. All exhibits must contain some plant material.

Location 1

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Winter
295 New Providence Road, Mountainside, NJ

This unique home dates back to 1840. Originally known as the Woodacres Farm, when the Chattin Family moved in by the early 1900s it was converted to a dairy farm. Current owners wanted to save the integrity of the old farmhouse but built on an addition. "As we dug the foundation, it became like an archeological dig. The builder uncovered milk bottles, parts to a horse carriage and a vase. ...The bunker which is a storage facility partially built underground was used to keep vegetables and other items cool, still stands today." Take note of the old well located outside of the kitchen window.

-excerpt from "Mountainside Ghosts" by James Winter (son of owner), winner of the Arthur J. Brahm Historic Preservation scholarship.

Location 3

Home of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Luka
525 Elm St., Westfield, NJ
kluka@comcast.net.

The Luka home was built in 1999. The intent was for the home to fit in the neighborhood, hence the generally Victorian flavor of the outside, including a welcoming small front porch. The inside, however, was designed to fit the Luka family's modern lifestyle with a small living room in front and a large family room and kitchen in the back. There is also a conservatory and deck off the back of the house which allows for easy entertaining year round.

Classes 10-12 are Eligible for the TABLE ARTISTRY AWARD. Fresh and/or dried plant material is permitted. For additional information, see The Handbook, pages 33-34. CONSULTANT: Jill Sitcer, jrsitcer@aol.com.

Presbyterian Church

East Broad St. and Mountain Ave., Westfield, NJ 07090

www.westfieldpc.org Site of the Presbyterian Church or Westfield, NJ.

(Note: entrance and parking lot are on Mountain Ave., see map on back cover)

The church was established in "the fields west of Elizabeth Town" now known as Westfield, in 1728. During the American Revolution, June 26, 1777, the bell was rung to notify the town that the British were coming. The next time it was rung 3 years later to warn that the British were coming, the British climbed up and removed the bell. The story says it was found in Staten Island and returned to the church because a prisoner from Westfield heard it ring and recognized the sound!
