AIN'T IT A MESS!

ST. MICHAEL'S EXPANDS

The third planned unit at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, The Cloister, is nearing completion. This addition, which will be air conditioned, is planned to be used mainly for educational purposes and Sunday School, but will also be available for meetings, dinners and get-togethers. The contractors, in their first departure from residential building, are American Heritage Homes. The tile floors are being laid by JOE REDINGER and MIKE McQUADE, Mrs. ELISE FULLER and her little helpers are taking care of cleaning the grounds as construction advances.

We seem to be running into a problem that, right now, looks as if it can only get worse. With the coming of the bridge, the Islands have had many more visitors who have been camping at Turner's Park on Captiva and picnicking on Bowman's Beach and Kinzie Park on Sanibel, as well as on most beach front with an access road. This is nice and all that -- but.....

There are a few trash cans provided, which rapidly become filled to overflowing -- and not so rapidly emptied. Our visitors then have no choice but to leave their litter on the ground where it blows merrily up and down our beaches. Merrily for it, at any rate. (Ed. Note: In a conversation with BILL KUNKLE of the Disposal Service, he told us that his men check the cans at the two roadside parks, near the fire station and at Blind Pass, and at the beach end of Tarpon Bay Road, but that Turner Park is under the control of the County and they have not, as far as he knows, made any arrangements for trash disposal. Kunkle told us that Kinzie Park is still privately owned and that he does not know what is done with the trash left there. There is the same situation at Bowman's Beach.)

And there's a more pressing problem (and if you've ever been a tourist anywhere, you'll agree). There are no sanitary facilities for the public at any of the parks. Somebody, preferably the County, should do something -- and fast.

If somebody doesn't, an already serious nuisance will become a serious problem -- not in our children's time, but now.

LEGION INSTALLS OFFICERS

One of the largest crowds to ever attend the Legion Hall watched last Saturday night as the new officers of the Sanibel-Captiva American Legion Post #123 and Auxilliary were installed by 8th District officers. RAY OBRECHT of Fort Myers, District Commander, installed HAP PAYNE, new Post Commander, and his new officers, while Mrs. ELSA FISHER of Punta Gorda, District Auxilliary President, presented the gavel to CHARLOTTE CARPER, new Auxilliary President here. H.B. VAN DUZER of Fort Myers Beach, who originally chartered the local Post, was toastmaster at the installation and dinner. Other Posts attending were #38 of Fort Myers, #274 of Fort Myers Beach, #103 of Punta Gorda, #159 of Venice, #320 of Siesta Key, and #110 of Port Charlotte.

The Legion has made their final plans and the Annual Fish Fry WILL be held on the grounds of the Lighthouse on Saturday, July 6 starting at 12:30 and lasting until everyone is fed. TOM ADDISON and his son, CLIFF, are contributing the mullet, which will be fried to perfection and served, along with hush puppies, beans and cole slaw, by the ladies of the Auxilliary. Cold drinks will be on hand -- and the Legion invites ALL OF YOU to attend and have a good time.

TO PLAY'S THE THING

The first contests were played on Reisinger's newly installed game machines on June 18 even tho the game room was not quite completed. JERRY WAY and a friend were first on the pool table (Jerry winning) and RENA STONECYPHER and PEG MALONEY christened the Bowl Master shortly thereafter. Peggy won, and Rena, properly cowed, was skunked two straight on the Jumbo Bowling Alley by a relative by the name of ADEN. The Reisingers say that the new construction will be finished this week.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH

In the May 30 Islander, we mentioned the pot holes on the State highway, using a humorous statement. Unfortunately, the situation isn't amusing anymore.

Your Island Reporter hit one of the chuck holes the other day and came up with a flat tire and a bent wheel. Our gas station attendant said that he fixes ten or eleven such flats daily. That adds up to about 20 a day between the two stations.

That's not funny, in any sense of the word -- not to our guests or to our residents. It would be interesting to see what would happen if someone brought suit against the State or the County for damages caused by their lack of maintenance of our roads.

We do think it rather stupid to have a lovely bridge to bring people over here -- and then give them flat tires on our non-lovely road. It's not that we want a new road, we'd just like to have a driveable old one!

Contractor CURTIS SKATES is adding a workshop and garage to EDIE MUGRIDGE'S Glory of the Sea - Helen's Jewel Box Shop. She said the next addition will have to be larger living quarters. A friend, ARDIS KRIST of Wyandote, Mich., arrived on a visit and Edie's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. & Mrs. H.J. CRUMB and their children, showed up. Everyone's staying at Sanibel Cottages, as the shop's living quarters just won't fit 'em all.

TEEN CLUB by Chris Gault

Even with the arrival of the lazy, hazy days of summer, the Islands have been hopping for the teenagers. A few visitors from the North, plus a few native youngsters, all add up to a small (but enjoyable) number of parties given by newcomers and natives alike.

On Friday, June 14, VIKI and CHAD WAY gave a party for many of the Islanders and visitors. The affair started quite early and gave many of the kids a chance to get to know each other. At this party, three of the more talented teenagers in the group brought out guitars and tried their hand at folk singing.

ANETTE RHODES, visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES RHODES, gave a party the following Sunday. Anette, who is from Jacksonville, served hot dogs, cold drinks and potato chips. The Island girls chipped in for the food.

Some of the visitors to the Islands during the last few weeks have been GEORGE SANERMANN of Montreal, Canada, who stayed a week at the Colony, and a group of college grads who also stayed at the Colony, GARY FITTS of Glen Ellyn, DON SINCLAIR and JOE JOHNSON from Elmhurst and DALE OLAFSON of Roselle (Ed. Note: All in New York State, we think). They all joined in the parties and gatherings on the Islands during their visit.

BILLY & SUSAN FISCUS were also at the Colony during a 10 day visit to the Islands. The WATCHKO family, with their teenage son, TOM, stayed with them. Both families are from Indiana, Penn.

Two other teenagers at the Colony were CAROLE ANN and GORDON KIME, both from Columbus, Ohio.

A couple of other visitors to our Islands were NORM RETHEFORD and his friend, ED. Both boys, who are from Detroit, were the guests of the JOE GAULTS. Norm is a cousin of MARY JO and yours truly, and both are students at the University of Detroit.

The Islands have had some visitors from Fort Myers -- ALAN VAUGHN and DAN RADCLIFF, who spent a day and part of the night. Alan came back a few days later with MIKE TICE, and stayed as long as he did the first time. DEAN TOMLINSON and KEN PARKS also visited from the mainland, but only stayed the day.

GUESS WHO?

This young lady visited the Islands a few years after this picture was taken--when she was 18, to be exact. Little did she dream then that she'd live here and have lots of friends and be active socially, too. 'Bout three years after her first visit, her heart was won by an Islander who is associated with one of our leading business concerns. She's been with him ever since, except for frequent visits to the place where they first met (romantic soul) and they're both raising a lovely little family.

SHAGGY DOG STORY

ROY WEBB of Castaways Restaurant is now a dog sitter for a friend. His shaggy charge is named ADAM. Adam behaved beautifully all day and all night, but with the coming of the dawn, he started woof - woof - woofing.

Roy sleepily dragged out of bed, led Adam out side and around palm trees and palm trees and bushes and more palm trees and finally was ble to get back in the house and to bed.

Seemed like a split second later that the 6 A.M. alarm went off and Roy had to get up and go to work. When he wearily started on his way, he caught sight of Adam who didn't even blink an eye, but smugly settled down for another cozy 40 winks.

"Something just snapped," Roy said. "I just couldn't stand it. So I roused Adam out of his nice cozy bed and out into the yard. If he wouldn't let me sleep, I wouldn't let him!"

Anyone want to bet that Adam wins?

PERSONAL

Mr. & Mrs. CONDARY GODWIN of Durham, N.C., arrived on Sanibel June 10 for an indefinite stay. She's the former Olive Page, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. HOWARD PAGE, and was born on Sanibel October 18, 1919 (not only are our Islanders lovely, talented, lovable, kind, good, etc., but they even tell their ages). At that time, her father was associated with the Sanibel Packing Company.

Olive left Sanibel when she was five, headed for Georgia. The family then went to North Carolina, where she later met her husband, who works for the Otis Elevator Company. Olive, who had already started dancing when she left the Islands, has had four dance schools in North Carolina, and goes to New York each July to study what is new in the field.

The Godwins have three boys, JIM, KENT and DAN, as well as two grandchildren, KENT, Jr., and LAURIE (both Kent's children.)

All in all, a pretty good record for an Island girl. Her brother, KING PAGE, who was also born on Sanibel and who is also artistically inclined, is now director of the Norton Gallery Playhouse in Palm Beach.

CORRECTION

As we reported two weeks ago the Sanibel Community House Building Fund lot donation was incorrect. There will be only one extra lot held back for sale instead of the two that we reported.

PERSONAL

Mrs. BERNICE McCAUL is being visited by her sister, Mrs. MILDRED McCAUL. (The sisters married brothers.) STANLEY and MILDRED came to visit MAC and BERNICE about three years ago and were captured by Captiva. They have had ARVID JOHNSON build them a house and will be moving into it soon.

PERSONALS

Mr. & Mrs. R.R. HORNE of Marietta, Georgia, were guests of the Reef this past week with their lovely daughter, BARBARA. This is the Horne's seventh annual visit.

JAMES EILAND of Pottstown, Pa., is visiting his mother, Mrs. ROSA EILAND, at her home near Tradewinds. He first came to the Islands about 18 years ago.

Mrs. CHARLES E. PATTERSON, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va., arrived at her home on Captiva June 13 with her two sons and a friend. Mr. Patterson joined them on the 20th for a two week stay.

JIMMY JACK has just about completed his new kidney shaped swimming pool at Casa Turquoisa on Gulf Drive. He said it should be swimmable by the fourth of July, and invited us down for a test hop. We wouldn't miss it for anything, especially if this weather keeps up.

JOHN WAKEFIELD, a Captiva realtor who recently opened a Sanibel office, was elected to the Board of Directors of the Committee of One Hundred of the Lee County Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. & Mrs. PIERCE HAMMOND, their son, PHILLIPP, and nephew, ROBERT MIZELL, all of Miami, have been visiting Pierce's sister and brother-in-law, the FLOYD SNOOKS of Sanibel. Phillip and Robert are avid fishermen, so, a few nights ago, they rounded up the proper equipment and went out for big game. They hooked into a 78 pound jewfish which took both of them to land. It also took both of them to get the family up at 11 P.M. to get a good picture of their catch. (As you can see, they were successful on all counts.)

The very same day, Mrs. Hammond found TWO Golden Olives on the Snook's beach. We venture to say that the entire family will remember its visit with Uncle Floyd and Aunt Maude.

GERITH - FUSSELL

Mrs. MERCEDES GERITH became the bride of ARCHIE FUSSELL on June 16 in Immokolee. The ceremony was performed by Archie's brother, the Rev. JENKS B. FUSSELL, pastor of the Church of God there.
 The couple will live on Sanibel, where Archie is associated with Casa Ybel. Mercedes will be in charge of "Grannie's Gift Shop" (now being redecorated) located at the Casa Ybel Marina at the end of Tarpon Bay Road.

PERSONALS

Mr. & Mrs. DELMAR REYNOLDS, Jr., are guest of his father and mother at their home on Sanibel. They arrived June 12 for two weeks, along with their children, GLADYS, DEBRASUE and DELMAR PAUL, Miss PAT SCHOENITH, Mrs. Reynolds, Jr's sister, who just graduated from high school in Two Rivers, Wisc., came with them.

The couple was here last year en route from Hawaii to Two Rivers. (ED Note: You figure YOUR route, I'll figure MINE!)

Mr. & Mrs. KENNETH PENCE and their 8 year old son, of Leesburg, Florida, have been Sand Castle guests for the past few weeks and recently went fishing with Capt. JAKE STOKES. The parent Pences caught quite a few grouper, but Master Pence really won the fishing laurels of the family when he hooked into (and boated) TWO tarpon! The first weighed 40 pounds and took 45 minutes to land. He landed the second, a 45 pounder, in an hour, and was mighty proud. 'Course his father was even prouder of his son's double score -- as well he might be!

Mr. & Mrs. DANIEL BERKTOLD of Sau Paulo, Brazil, were overnight Beachcomber guests. The Berkolds, who are Island property owners; have visited us many times, and hope to become permanent residents someday. He is advertising director of Gessy Lever, S.A., in Sau Paulo.

Mr. & Mrs. E.B. PHETTEPLACE of DeLeon Springs, Florida, are guests at Sanibel Cottages. They are also property owners on the Islands, as well as frequent visitors, and hope to become residents in four or five years.
