MARTIN AND SADIE HIERS."

CASTAWAY'S EXPANDS

Castaway's Restaurant is closed this month during expansion and remodeling.

Seating capacity will be doubled, and the dining area will be expanded to 630 square feet. Screens & jalousies will be replaced with plate glass, so that customers may enjoy a better view of Blind Pass, and a new airconditioning system will be installed.

As you all know, the Webb's FOOD doesn't need improvement, as they serve some of the best food and sandwiches we've ever had the pleasure to taste. We know of people from 'way out in the hinterlands (like Fort Myers) who will drive all the way to Castaway's for one of Roy's delicious steaks.

They'll be open again on November 1--be sure to drop in and say hello!

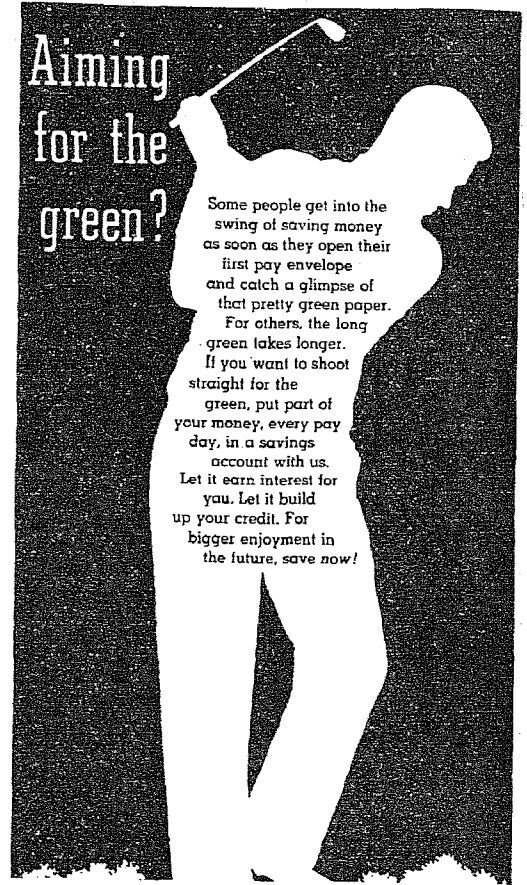

PERSONAL

BILL WAY of Sanibel Marina was recently appointed the authorized Evinrude dealer for Sanibel and Captiva. He and his wife, MURIEL, went to Fort Lauderdale a couple of weeks ago to attend a two day Evinrude dealer meeting at "Pier 66" Marina there. They said they had a wonderful time.

Bill said that he hoped to have the '64 stock of motors in soon.

Aiming for the green?

Some people get into the swing of saving money as soon as they open their first pay envelope and catch a glimpse of that pretty green paper. For others, the long green takes longer. If you want to shoot straight for the green, put part of your money, every pay day, in a savings account with us. Let it earn interest for you. Let it build up your credit. For bigger enjoyment in the future, save now!

WHO AM I?

Believe it or not, this is NOT the photograph of a doll, but the photo of a real live baby girl. The real live baby girl grew up, is now a business woman on one of our Islands, and has a doll or two of her own. She came here about 11 years ago with her family and has been most active in civic matters, as well as the business world, ever since.

Monday morning, the new Sanibel and Captiva telephone exchange, "Greenleaf 2 -," was put into operation by a ceremonial switchpulling by Judge THOMAS W. SHANDS.

FLOYD SNOOK christened the new system by making the first long distance call (to Yardly, Pa.) from the GR2 - exchange.

To off-Islanders (and on-Islanders, for that matter) a note of warning -- don't call your friends until you've checked the number first -- ALL Sanibel and Captiva numbers have been CHANGED!

PERSONALS

LUNETTE & LOU FUNK of Gulf Breeze Cottages left Sanibel (finally) last week after three fruitless days of trying to start earlier. They confidently expected to reach Indianapolis, Indiana, and points north, but if the rest of their trip is like the first part, they'll never make it.

First thing --- they ran out of gas before even getting to Fort Myers, which was a fine start. Then they stopped in Fort Myers to say good bye to son JERRY, but as they hadn't told him that they were running behind schedule, he had gone to the movies and they had to wait for hours 'til he returned. Then, we hear, they developed car trouble somewhere between here and points north. (How far north and what kind of trouble, we don't know.) We're glad to report that somebody heard that they really did reach Indianapolis.

If things improve (that means, actually, if nothing else goes wrong) they're planning to fly to Colorado with their son PAUL for a hunting trip. We can only hope that Lou doesn't leave the shells behind, and that Lunette doesn't forget her "snuggies" or any other valuable equipment, and that they really have a good time.

Mr. & Mrs. JACK FLEISHER & their daughter of Washington, D.C., arrived at Beachview Cottages on Sanibel last week and haven't yet made up their minds when they'll go home. They just returned from Prague where Mr. Fleisher served as U. S. Consul. They are now awaiting his next appointment, and in the meantime, are enjoying our normal Island pursuits, such as a fishing trip guided by Esparanza.

Most people know that ANN JORDON of Priscilla Murphy Real Estate is a good salesman, but what a lot of people don't know is that she's a pretty good fisherman, too.

Ann went out on an all day fishing trip with some friends and collected a pretty good sun tan, but no fish. Undaunted, she came home that evening, picked up her rod & reel with its 10 pound test line, a "little teensey hook" and a small nylon white jig. She took her gear to the bay side near her home, and after just three or four casts, caught herself the 11 pound snook she's holding so proudly. Just to prove it, she stopped at DOC PICKEN'S on the way back home to brag a little, and got herself and the snook photographed.

HAPPY, HAPPY, HAPPY

SNOOKIE WILLIAMS of Sanibel had a birthday Friday, September 27. Fortunately SADIE & MARTIN HIERS arrived back home in time to let Snookie have the day off to celebrate properly.

WHOM I WUZ

The beautiful young lady of last issue's "Who Am I?" (No, No, the one on the LEFT, WITHOUT the whiskers) was Miss CHRISTINE GAULT. Cris has been reporting on the doings of the teenage world for the Islander, and has been helping her mother and father, MARY & JOE GAULT, in their Sea Horse Shop.

The Gaults came to Sanibel a little over ten years ago, and with a lot of work from all of the family, have developed into one of our leading families and merchants.

A NEW HOME

We happend to stop by MARY CUNNINGHAM'S on Captiva last week when she released 14 more parakeets to Island freedom. The birds weren't quite so sure about this freedom bit, as they refused to leave her yard and sat around complaining for quite a few hours. This batch contained all colors --- bright turquoise, ice blue and silver, lemon and lime and all sorts of greens. She released a pair of albinos a couple of months ago, and figures that they should be raising a family by this time. If you see them, drop Mary a note.

PERSONALS

Dr. & Mrs. JOSEPH STEIN of Cincinnati, Ohio, are spending the month of October at Betty's Hawaiian Village. This is their 16th straight year in a row, and, as they have often made two trips to the Islands a year, they have many Island friends who are always glad to see them.

The Steins arrived Tuesday with Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES A. SAXER of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The foursome has been spending a month's vacation together at Betty's for the past four years --- the gentlemen go fishing, the ladies go shelling and then they all get together in the evening for a jolly good time.

Mr. & Mrs. FLOYD PFLOUGH of Sanibel Cottages left Monday (Sept. 30) to spend a few weeks "back east" with friends and relatives. They will visit in Boston, Mass., Pittsburgh, Pa., and New York, and plan to be back on the Islands around the middle of October. Sanibel Cottages will be open for business as usual during their absence.

CHAD WAY left Sanibel September 28 and headed for Ohio, where he will enter his freshman year at the University of Cincinnati. Chad found out, much to his amazement and pleasure, that he will be rooming with Bob Wilkinson of Venezuela, who was his room mate at K.M.I. last year.

R. C. GRADUATES

September 19 was graduation night for the advanced Red Cross refresher course, given especially for the Sanibel Fire Department and Rescue Team. CHARLES RHODES, GLEN RHODES, ED LEGEL & ALAN NAVE were all awarded certificates.

CHARLES J. KNAPP

CHARLES JUNIA KNAPP died Saturday, September 21, in Lee Memorial Hospital, just three days before the first anniversary of his wife BESS'S death in 1962.

Knapp, a New Yorker by birth, an Ohioan by adoption and a Floridian by choice, bought Casa Ybel hotel and 360 acres of land, (including a mile and a half of choice beachfront) for $11,000 in 1918. He owned and operated the hotel until 1945 when he retired to a 25 acre farm in Olga.

He "un-retired" himself shortly after, and went into partnership with George D'Alessandro in the Gondola Inn (now the River House) in Fort Myers, and also managed South Seas Plantation during the summer time for a few years.

Knapp was Past President of the Florida State Hotel Association, and was the first President of that Association ever to be re-elected. He took a large part in Sanibel civic affairs, and at one time was clerk of the Sanibel Election Board. That was when there were only seven voters -- and five of them were on the Board.

He had many friends -- Islanders as well as nationally known "names" who started out being Casa Ybel guests and ended up being Charlie's friends.

The funeral was held at the Harvey Funeral Home on Monday, September 23, with the Rev. A.P. MENSHEW, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Fort Myers, officiating.

Fort Myers Lodge 1288, B.P.O.E., conducted graveside services at Fort Myers Cemetery.

Pallbearers were J. WES RUMSEY, JOE W. MAHONEY, TOM G. MATHESON, ERNEST HOLLIS, BILL SANDERS and BENNIE HENDRIX. Honorary pallbearers were SAM BOLTON, BROWN AUSTIN, PAT LeMOYNE, Sr., SNAG THOMPSON, DAVE SHAPARD, Dr. H. QUILLIAN JONES, Sr., BILL SHANNON, CLARENCE RUTLAND, ANDY ROSSE, JACK COLE, and Capt. LEON CRUMPLER.

PERSONALS

Mrs. SADIE LINSLEY AMON of Cortland, Ohio, arrived on Sanibel September 23 to spend a few weeks with her son, DON AMON, and his family. Her daughter and son-in-law, JOE & NITA WARD, also of Cortland, joined the family group today and will stay, as Don says, "Just as long as Joe can keep Nita here."

The Islands have been one of Joe's favorite spots since his first visit here four years ago, and Nita has a hard time each year dragging him away and back to work. We're glad to report that she usually succeeds before their finances are completely shot.

This is Don's mother's third visit to Sanibel, and both she and Don had hoped that she could spend the entire winter here, but because of illness in the family she is unable to stay as long as she would like to.

Miss EDITH MUDGRIDGE left Sanibel last week for Michigan on a combined business and pleasure trip. She hopes to finish up the business part quickly so that she'll have lots of time to visit friends and former colleagues. Edie will be back and ready to receive her friends at "Glory Of The Sea" on October 15.

Mr. & Mrs. CLAYTON COVERT of St. Petersburg Beach on Holiday Island spent a few days on our Islands late in September. Mr. Covert and PAT MURPHY had a good get-together to talk over old times, as they've been friends for years and worked together in the Detroit (Michigan) Post Office for several years.

This was Mrs. Covert's first visit, altho Mr. Covert first visited the Islands in 1953 and has been here several times since. Mrs. Covert's departing words were: "No more visits without me. I like it here!"

MAE & BILL SHANNON unfortunately had to cut their vacation short and return to Captiva on September 23 after Mae got sick during their trip. Her doctors have advised her to rest in complete quiet for about three weeks.

Mr. & Mrs. ELLIS CHANDLER of Miami have been guests at the Blue Dolphin on Sanibel for the past two weeks. This is their third visit to the Islands and they think we're the ideal spot for Mr. C. to indulge in his favorite pastime, fishing, while Mrs. C. adds to her shell collection.

DOTTIE & PHIL BOOKER of Miami arrived on the Islands Saturday, September 21 to visit DOROTHY & MIKE MCQUADE of Sanibel Siesta. Phil only stayed a couple of days, but Dottie was able to stretch her visit 'til last Friday, when she left for home with JUDY MCQUADE & CHRIS GAULT. As all of Dottie's and Phil's friends rallied round, Dottie left the Island in an exhausted but happy condition.

Mr. & Mrs. ROY WEBB of Castaway's on Sanibel have started an extended off-Island vacation. They'll leave Miami (their first stop) on October 7 for Minneapolis, Minn., where they'll visit Roy's Father and sister whom Roy has not seen for 35 years. The Webbs will then tour the west so that Roy can show mother how cowboys really live. They'll try their luck at Las Vegas's gaming tables and then, either broke but happy or rich but ditto, they'll board a plane for Miami and home. They said that by that time they'll probably be very pleased to return to dear old Sanibel.

Mr. & Mrs. FREDRICK C. WOOD of Cos Cob, Conn., spent last week at their Sanibel home recuperating from the wedding of their daughter, MEREDITH ELIZABETH, who was married to MARCO T. EINAUDI of Ithaca, New York, on September 8. Mr. Einaudi is the grandson of the late President of Italy, and after a short wedding trip, the young couple will live in Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Einaudi will continue his graduate studies at Harvard.

MARTIN'S HOME

Martin Hiers, in case you haven't heard, is back home from the hospital. We visited Martin and Sadie the day of their return and are pleased to be able to tell you that Martin is looking just fine.

Martin told us of his and Sadie's plans for a hunting trip in Alaska next winter. He is going after a Kodiak bear and hopes to bring back a great big specimen which he will have mounted in Alaska and shipped back so that all of us can enjoy it. Good shootin', friend.

Mrs. LYNN BEALS returned to her home at Blind Pass, Captiva, early last week after spending the summer in Lyons, New York, and the New England states.

Adm. ED KONRAD of Sanibel was given instructions by a ranking officer (his wife, ANN) last week to buy a fish on his way home from work. Ed, man-like, forgot, and Ann was disconcerted, if not down right put out.

So Ed said, "So what, I'll go out and catch one." He headed for Bowman's Beach, which was far enough away so that Ann would have plenty of time to cool off (while defrosting something for supper) before he got back.

No one was more surprised than Ed (except possibly the fish) when, on the sixth cast, he landed a nine pound red fish. He arrived back home with his trophy before Ann even thought about starting to defrost something.

We're glad to report that peace and tranquility reigned in the Konrad home, greatly helped along by a delicious red fish dinner.

STORM HITS from Front Page

The late Dr. LUIS BISH's cottage, which had been hard hit by Donna (that storm left just one room which was used for storage) was completely demolished and the house and contents were spread on the Beach.

A new cut, about two hundred feet wide, but reportedly shallow, was cut thru Blind Pass opposite Castaway's, making the tip end of the quarter-million dollar park into an Island (as many residents predicted when the County bought the land). Many trees were lost and as you can see by the photo, it will cost a lot more money to repair and replace the benches and other facilities.

RALPH CIMATO, working on the new addition at Island Inn, was marooned on the Dixie Beach Road when the water swept the road from under his wheels. He said he didn't have any trouble getting out of the car--he opened one door and the force of the water rushing in swept him out the other side.

CLIFF GRIMARD of the Standard Station was also marooned when he was delivering a load of shell up the same road. He got about halfway up the road and felt his wheels hit "something soft." He turned back and was confronted with a 25 foot wide "river" of rushing water. He stayed put on his own little Island until rescued by RALPH WOODRING in a boat.

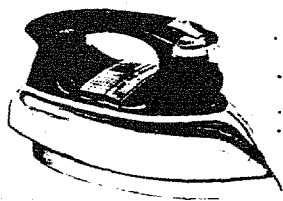

All we can say is--if this was just a small "storm"--hurricane, keep away from our doors.
