WINTER INSTITUTE SYMPOSIUM UNDERWAY

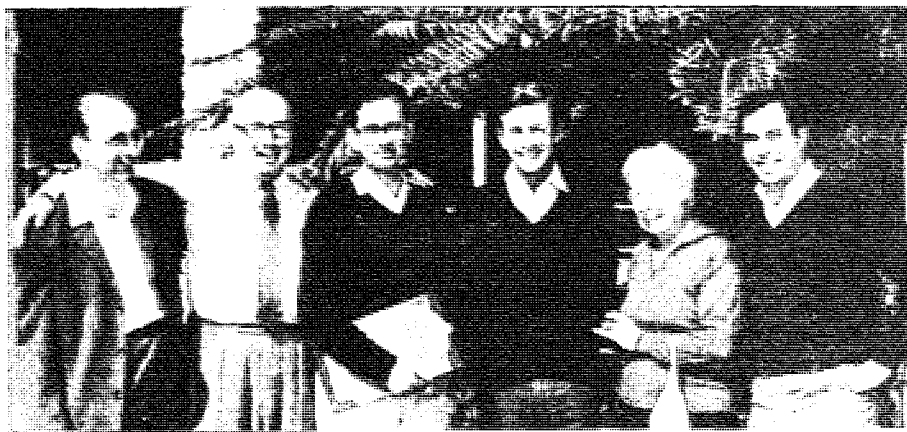

EVERYBODY (AND THEN SOME) AT THE WINTER INSTITUTE

Ninety Quantum Theory Scientists are in the process of attending a preparatory course of lectures at Casa Ybel, which has been bulging ever since their arrival on December 30. The actual Symposium will start Monday and will last until January 18.

Lecturers this week are Dr. Jean Louis Calais of University of Uppsala, Sweden, Dr. Ludwig Hofacker of the University of Florida, Dr. Laurens Jansen of Geneva and Dr. Per-Olov Löwdin, of the University of Florida and the University of Uppsala, Sweden.

Next week's Lecturers are Dr. Kimio Ohno of the University of Florida, Dr. Ruben Pauncz, Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa, Israel, Dr. Charles E. Reid, University of Florida, Dr. John C. Slater, M.I.T., and Dr. Darwin W. Smith, University of Florida.

Thirty more attendees will arrive Sunday, and meanwhile, scientists and staff are enjoying our Island and weather between classes.

LIBRARY
FOOT NOTES

The Sanibel Library, located in the Community House, is open every Tuesday afternoon from 1 til 4 p.m. and every Saturday morning from 10 til noon.

This is YOUR community library --- you can show your appreciation by patronizing it. Your Library will grow thru your use and gifts, and now has a fine selection of fiction and non-fiction volumes...PLUS paperback books which are on sale for a nickle.

ART LEAGUE MEETING

The Sanibel - Captiva Art League, the local group affiliated with the Southwest Florida Art Council, met at the Captiva Community Center Tuesday evening.

On the agenda for discussion were plans for the '64 Shell Fair Art Show, the possibility of a second show in which off-islanders would be invited to exhibit, the coming juried show at Lehigh Acres starting Jan. 26, and the possibility of forming instruction classes. Refreshments were served.

NEW YEAR'S DOINGS

The Floyd Pfloughs entertained their guests at Sanibel Cottages with a beach party New Year's Eve. They had a great big fire to toast hot dogs and buns, and everyone nibbled on such dainties as smoked turkey, all kinds of cheeses and dips, and of course, the cup that cheers. Several of our visiting scientists were among the guests.

The Marshall Tabiccis had a lovely New Year's party for a small group of friends.

We hear that the South Seas Plantation New Year's Eve party was something to remember. Ray Booth and Carl Wightman tried out the new pool about midnight, and in keeping with Plantation policy, they went formal---in shorts and ties.

Stanley P. Wronsky, Professor of Education at Michigan State University, gave a New Year's Eve party for a very select group of friends at the Shell Basket.

PERSONALS

Mr. & Mrs. CLIFFORD L. LUNDGREN of Grosse Point, Mich., left their Colony home, "Coral Sea Ranch," last Sunday for Montego Bay, Jamaica. The Doctors E. A. BURTT will be occupying the cottage until the middle of February. He is a Doctor of Philosophy at Yale and she is a medical Doctor.

The DELLMAR REYNOLDS of Sanibel Island had the best Christmas they've had in a long time --- their son, Chief DELLMAR, JR., his wife and children, GLADYS, PAUL and DEBRA, arrived on the Islands Christmas Eve and stayed until the following Sunday.

On New Year's Day, Mr. & Mrs. TRENT of Iowa stopped off to see the Reynolds on their way back home after visiting Mrs. Trent's sister in Miami. They loved the beaches and the shells they were able to gather during their short stay.

The EARL LILLIES of Captiva Island have had a very busy ten days with their daughter, JEANNE JENSENS, and their grandsons, JACK, JEFF and DOUG, all of Royal Oak, Mich. It was the boys's first visit to Captiva and they spent every minute shelling or fishing. Jack caught some good sized grouper and sheepshead. They're already planning a return visit next Christmas.

J. LESLIE KINCAID, Brigadier General, U.S. Army, Ret., left his New York City home and arrived on the Islands Dec. 28 to open his winter home, "Sea House" at South Seas Plantation for the season. Mrs. Kincaid is scheduled to join him by the end of the week.

Mr. & Mrs. LEON BARD of Newburgh, N.Y., arrived at the Captiva Beach Motel apts. on New Year's Day for the season.

Other Captiva Beach guests are Mr. & Mrs. THOMAS M. HUSELL of Leawood, Kansas, who arrived on the Islands last Tuesday for their fifth season here. They get here each year in time to celebrate their wedding anniversary, which is today, on Captiva.

The FRANK MARSH family of Fort Wayne, Indiana, are spending their third Island visit with the WOOSTERS at Beachview. They're old "Back Home" friends of MARGE & DAVID'S.

CONCERTS SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY

The Hughes String Quartet of the Ohio State University will give two concerts on the Islands Monday as part of the Fort Myers Symphony Orchestra Program.

The Quartet will first appear at the elementary school on Sanibel at 1 p.m. There is no charge for this afternoon appearance.

The evening concert will be given in the Captiva Community Center at 8 Monday evening. Tickets will be available at the door for $1, and the Committee handling the arrangements on the Islands is Mrs. Raymond A. Booth, Jr., Lee Roy Friday, Mrs. Paul Simonds and Miss Carol Lee.

Admiral E. G. Konrad will pick up the Quartet at the school and will show them the high spots of the Islands.

PERSONALS

MR. & MRS. FRED HEHL of Jackson, Mich., stayed at Beach View recently and looked around for some Island acreage so that they can continue their hobby in an ideal spot. They've been raising unusual birds for about 14 years, and have a 10 acre bird haven in Michigan which is populated with pheasants, black swans and other exotic bundles of feathers.

MR. & MRS. A. S. HAMILTON of Louisville, Ky., and their children, ALLEN, SUSIE, and twins LEE and WOODY, are enjoying themselves at the Beachcomber this year for the fourth season. Mr. Hamilton, who is a lawyer, said that he has about eight couples lined up to come back to Sanibel with him and Mrs. H. on January 20, to stay till around the end of the month. We didn't even ask the Hamiltons if they liked it here.

OSTER PEARLS

Mrs. Margaret Upshaw of Oster Cottages on Sanibel reports that they're a little crowded, but everyone is having fun. Oster guests are the John F. Batemans of Highland Park, N. J., the Irving L. Hellerds of Miami, the Collic Hennellys of Rockford, Illinois, the Seymour Justers of Valley Forge, Pa., Boris Kravitz and children of Fairhope, Alabama, the Larry Perris of S. Plainfield, N. J., the Robert Peschkes of Brookfields, Wisc., the John Roosenbergs of Gables, Mich., and the Fred Staleys of Paris, Illinois.

FISHING TRIP

Mr. & Mrs. HENRY PETERS, Mr. & Mrs. DONALD MENGE & Mr. & Mrs. ORVILLE BURG-ETTE, all Beachview guests, went fishing with Capt JAKE STOKES on the "Searene" last Friday. The ladies, we're told, prepared enough food for at least a dozen people --- but when they got back that evening, the lunch baskets were all empty, tho they had stacks and stacks of blues and trout. That sea air does give one an appetite --- and so does pulling in all those fish!

SAD STORY

CHARLES LEBUFF took his charming wife to Fort Myers to celebrate New Year's Eve AND their 6th wedding anniversary. They went to one of the better known spots and the man, sometimes known as a mixologist, demanded to see proof of Jean's age. Poor Jean didn't have a shread of proof with her, and the mixed-up mixologist wouldn't take Charles's word for it --- so Jean had to settle for Coke (horrible tho) until she got back to Sanibel, where everyone knows she is going to celebrate her 25th birthday (do you realize that is a quarter of a century?) on January 29. Moral --- stay on the Islands for your celebrations!

WALLET FOUND

If DAVID KRAVITZ is still on the Islands, he can get his wallet by going to the Sanibel Community House and identifying it. If he has already gone home, it will be mailed to him. It might be a good idea if all Islanders who find a lost article would take it to the Community House, or at least report its finding there --- and then advising anyone who is looking for a lost article to inquire there.

GUESS WHO

She came to the Islands about four years ago. The family went into business shortly after their arrival and have succeeded beautifully. She is a good worker and is generally admired as a beauty and as a charming person.

PERSONAL

ALLEN DRURY, his mother and father, MR. & MRS. ALDEN DRURY, and his sister and brother-in-law, MR. & MRS. D. A. KILIANEY, spent the holidays at Island Inn. He is in the process of working on his next book which will come out sometime in the spring, and, if he follows his usual pattern, will probably be back on Sanibel for more peace and serenity to work in before the book is published.

POPULAR GUY

BILL NEWMAN, who represents the Chamber of Commerce at the desk in the Community House on Sanibel has suddenly become one of the busiest men on the Islands. He was deluged with scads of mail, all addressed to him personally, and all from around New York City. He hails originally from New Jersey, but didn't think that this was enough to account for a sudden surge in popularity. Then all at once the mystery was cleared up when he got a letter from CHARLES E. DALEY of Danbury, Conn., who said, "having just read John Hughes's article in the N. Y. Sunday NEWS about Sanibel Island, I decided to write to you for further information..."

Then came the dawn! Bill realized that he, unknowingly, must have been "interviewed" by Mr. Hughes on some recent visit to our Island while thinking he was just helping a visitor find his way around. Well, maybe he did help Mr. Hughes find his way around --- he certainly helped him sell an article! We hope to get a copy of it --- and then we'll all know how Mr. Hughes made Bill so popular.

PERSONALS

Miss ALPHA STINE of Chicago, arrived on the Islands New Year's Day to spend the season in CHARLOTTE KINZIE'S home.

MR. & MRS. CLARENCE LOVELL of McLean, Virginia, and DR. & MRS. WILLIAM SEIR of Lansing, Mich., were holiday house guests of MRS. WILLIE MAE GLASS at her Sanibel home. MR. LAVELL is a retired Bell Telephone Executive, and DR. SEIR is with the Music Dept. of the State University of Mich.

Mrs. FRANCES SANDVIK, the lone resident of North Captiva and the proprietor of the Windjammer Marina and Restaurant, spent a few days on the Islands last week after coming over for the New Year's Day champagne breakfast at South Seas.

She was visited over Christmas by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. SIDNEY TALLMAN of Ithaca, New York, and their children, CHRISTINE & PETER. She said they surprised her by arriving early --- in a car-top sail boat which looks about as large as a surf board with one sail. Her son-in-law does electronic research at Cornell University.

Frances has no electricity --- hence no television --- but enjoys looking at the stars. Imagine her consternation one evening when she saw one bright star traveling the heavens in just the opposite direction as all the others. Fortunately, she's not easily frightened, but she said she was relieved to hear an announcement on her radio the next morning of a new aluminum satellite which had just been launched.

She has a companion, a huge German Shephard, who once bore the brave name of Duke, but who is now known as Luke because of his gentleness. Luke tries to make friends with all the racoons on the Island and leaves huge tracks in the sand which look more like lion tracks than those of a dog. One day some visiting shellers saw the tracks and came to the conclusion that there must be at least a wild black panther roaming the Island. They took off in a hurry and the next thing Frances heard was that they had spread the rumor about that big old black panther on upper Captiva. Poor dear gentle and loving Luke had at last lived up to his former brave name --- at least for a day or so.

MR. & MRS. N. H. BOGIE of Kentucky Damm Village, Sledd Creek, arrived on Captiva Island New Year's Eve to spend the season in their home on Coral Way. They brought their dog "Boy" (who, we're glad to report is a male) with them.

MR. BOGIE started fishing the minute he got here and now has the freezer packed full of good eating fish. "Now," said MRS. BOGIE, "I can get around and see friends and have fun. He took the car when he went fishing and I was left high and dry."

SARAH JEAN (KELLY) TOUGHILL, the daughter of MR. & MRS. JAMES TOUGHILL, was baptized on New Year's Eve by FATHER MADDEN at St. Michael's Episcopal Church on Sanibel. The God Parents were PAULINE & FRANCIS BAILEY and JOE GAULT.

ROY BAZIRE'S nieces were his guests last weekend, but on their own. SALLY, a sophomore at Century College, Hacketts-town, N. J., JANE, a senior at Ft. Myers High, & VIRGINIA, a ninth grader in Ft. Myers, had their own cottage, where they did their own cooking and just generally had a grand time. ROY very proudly told us that they left the cottage nice and clean, which is more than can be said of some grown-ups, isn't it?

MRS. PEARL (SCOTTY) CLARK is back on Sanibel and is staying with PRISCILLA MURPHY, but expects to be living soon on Tulipa Way. SCOTTY's friends will be glad to know that this is not just a short visit, but that she's here to stay and will again be associated with PRISCILLA MURPHY'S Real Estate Office.

Mr. & Mrs. ROY FOXWORTHY of Indianapolis, Indiana, landed on the Casa Ybel air strip a few days ago for a 10 day visit to our Islands --- their first. He is a Ford auto dealer back home and she is the editor of "Trap and Field."

She said that she was planning to write an article (which she'll submit to the flying association's magazines) about the Islands as a vacation spot for people with their own planes who are always looking for out of the way places with an air strip. She said the Islands offer material for many interesting articles.

COLONY NOTES

Mr. & Mrs. Arlan S. Kelley of Dindley, Ohio, have returned to the Colony for a nice long stay and expect to be here till the end of March.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles R. Praff of Chicago will stay here until Feb. 10. They had the pleasure of having their daughter and her family, Mr. & Mrs. Robert J. Britz and son Steve, of Cherry Hill, N. J. as guests this past week.

Mrs. Eleanor Hollisman and her son of Silver Springs, Md. are spending the month at the Colony.

And shellers, take note--- Mrs. John Cory, who has been here for the past three weeks with her family, found a Junonia on the very last day of her stay --and after that, just didn't want to leave at all!

The Jack Hight family returned to Pittsburg, Pa., after spending the holidays.

Other Colony guests were the Russell Sproulls of Kirkwood, Mo., who were pleasantly surprised when Mrs. Sproull's parents arrived to spend the Christmas season with them.

PERSONALS

MR. & MRS. HERBERT LEWIS of St. Paul, Minn., (she was the ISLANDER'S first reporter) arrived on Sanibel Sunday to spend a couple of weeks at their home "Moon Shell" on the Gulf.

MR. & MRS. ARTHUR McNAMARA, who are staying at Poinsetta Cottage for the season this year, had a delightful dinner party for a group of friends last Saturday night. The guests were MRS. EATHIEL PRESTON, PRISCILLA MURPHY, MR. & MRS. FLOYD R. BENNY and PEGGY MALONEY.

THANK YOU

Mrs. Margo Reddinger wants to thank her many friends who sent her cards during her recent visit to her very ill mother in Puerto Rico.
