County System Discussed at PTA

After a short business meeting of the Sanibel-Captiva P.T.A. at the Sanibel Elementary School last Thursday evening, with F.T.A. President Allen Nave presiding, the Lee County School System was discussed.

Mrs. Gertrude Burgan, Elementary Consultant and Textbook Manager for Lee County Schools was guest speaker, and Mrs. Juanita Ellis, Lee County Elementary Supervisor, was a guest.

Mrs. Burgan outlined the County set-up---the personnel and services offered to children by various departments---supervisory, instructional materials, transportation, attendance, lunchroom, health, music, speech therapy, homebound, teachers of the gifted, and school psychologists.

A question and answer period followed, during which Mrs. Burgan and Mrs. Ellis discussed some of the modern educational trends which have been adopted by the County, such as modern math and TV teaching, as well as some which are not being used, such as teaching a foreign language in the elementary grades. Textbooks and teacher qualifications were examined in relation to the requirements of a good up to date educational program.

Coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Thomas Hines and Mrs. Robert Stevens.

PEGGY RETIRES

It is with a great deal of regret that the ISLANDER announces that Peggy T. Maloney is no longer the Islander reporter. We are sure that Island residents and visitors enjoyed Peggy's sprightly reporting---and we intend to make sure that future issues are just as enjoyable.

COMMUNITY SUPPER

Last week's Community Association's covered dish supper was not as well attended as usual --- maybe everyone had too much good food over the holidays. However, those that did attend had a jolly time and, as always, delicious food.

After supper, a film of Sanibel and Captiva was shown, and Mr. Frenette presented the Association with a copy of the film.

MRS. LILLIAN GRENSHAW AKERS

Word was received Christmas night by Admiral & Mrs. ED KONRAD that Ann's mother, Mrs. LILLIAN GRENSHAW AKERS, had just died on Bainbridge Island in Washington State. Mrs. Konrad flew home for the funeral.

W.S. DENNIS, JR.

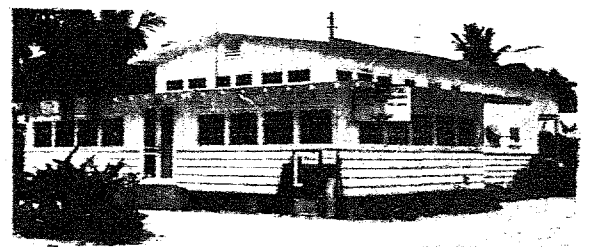

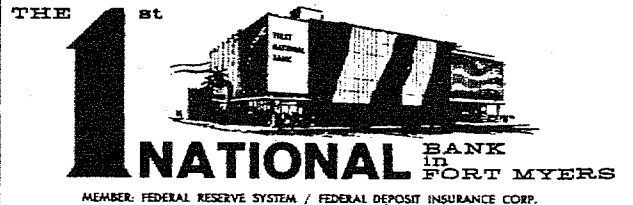

W.S. DENNIS, JR., died of a heart attack at Atlanta, Ga., last Thursday. Mr. & Mrs. Dennis had spent many seasons on the Islands.

SWEET STORY

Dropped in at the Island Bakery to pick up some sweets for the larder and found Jack up to here in work --- at that particular moment, preparing little frosted cakes for last Thursday's P.T.A. meeting. Jack is in his true element when baking and enjoys it immensely, but even baking doesn't stop him from chatting, which he also does very well. He told us of some friends of his who visited the Islands for a day and happened to hear that Jack was baking again. Remembering the taste of things from his original shop on Captiva about ten years ago, they rushed over to the bakery and took a load of goodies back to Anna Maria Island with them.

STONECYPHER SAFARI

Mr. & Mrs. Aden Stonecypher and son Lester are back on Sanibel after spending the holidays with their daughters and families in San Jose, California. They had a grand and glorious time---once they got there.

Seems that Rena's new Corvair convertible has a leak somewhere, and, going west, they drove through snowy, sleety and icy weather. By the time they hit Dallas, the floor of the car had the nicest inch thick skating rink anyone could ask for (if anyone would!)

On the return trip, it rained ---so they wound up in Fort Myers with a built-in swimming pool. Rena drove into the Chevy place and asked for the manager. When he came up, she said, "You forgot to give me the bilge pump which goes with this car. I want to clean my pool."

We have no report of the manager saying anything.

Later, Aden was heard to remark, "What more do you want? A swimming pool, a skating rink and a convertible---all in one!"

ELNA'S BACK

ELNA ANDERSEN is back for the season at MARY ALECK'S Beauty Salon. Elna has a beauty shop of her own in Nantucket, Mass., and every year about this time she closes it up and flies down to Sanibel to spend the season with Mary. Come Spring, she'll be off again to Nantucket. Nantucket is so beautiful in the Spring and Sanibel is so beautiful in the winter --- we just can't help coming to the conclusion that Elna is very clever to arrange her life

SANIBEL ISLAND, FLORIDA

WHO AM I?

The gentleman astride this rather unusual seat was, most likely, in Florida when this picture was taken. He is now a resident of Sanibel, has a nice business and is loved and respected by all. He occasionally leaves the islands on business or pleasure trips, usually accompanied by two or three of his friends.

WHOM I WUZ

That little lady in last week's edition was LINDA WOOSTER. She was just a cute little girl when her family moved here, and now she's one of the prettiest and nicest young ladies on the Islands. We know she's a good worker, because we saw her in operation a few weeks ago when we were visiting her mother, MARGE. Linda, with the help of a girl friend, cleaned two cottages in no time at all --- and did it well, too. Of course, the fact that her mother had promised her a beautiful new sweater might have had something to do with it.

CLEMENTS - POWELL

Elizabeth S. (Betty) Clements and H. Ellis (Micky) Powell were married at 9 p.m. January 11. The Rev. Robert T. Limer of the McGregor Baptist Church officiated at his home in Town & River Estates.

George & Mae May, who attended the couple, entertained the bride and groom at their home after the ceremony, before they left for parts unknown for a 24 hour honeymoon.

Dr. & Mrs. Jack Stein of Cincinnati, Ohio entertained the Powells and their young daughter Betty, Jr., at Coconut Grove Sunday night.

GOOD NEWS

Everyone is glad to learn that Captain Palmer Ladd has been released from Lee Memorial Hospital and is back home feeling much better. All his Island friends are looking forward to the day when he will be able to come over for a visit.

PERSONALS

Mary K. Cunningham reports that Otto Jones of Tradewinds Development found a splendid Junonia right on the beach at Tradewinds. Mary said that she wished she could find one that was as fine as Otto's.

Mr. & Mrs. CARL ZOLKER and Dr. & Mrs. ALTON RICHARDSON of Waterville, Maine, are the guests of Mrs. R. E. WOOLYHAM of Captiva.

In two weeks, Mrs. Woolyham will leave the Islands to spend a few days in her summer home at Waterville, and then will go to Mexico City for two weeks. She will then return to Captiva for the rest of the season. The Zolkers will stay in her home through February while she is away.

Dr. & Mrs. FRITZ GENZEL and their son, PETER, are spending some time at Oster Cottages on Sanibel Island. The Genzel's original home is in Hameln/Weser, West Germany, but Dr. Genzel is on a three year teaching assignment in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. They say they like Sanibel so well that they want to come back before returning to Germany.

Mr. & Mrs. C. ALLARD HARDY of Brea, Ohio, and their sons, CHRIS and TOM, are spending the month of January at their home on Captiva Island.

If It's worth the money... We Have It For Sale!

SHELL CLUB MEETING

The Sanibel-Captiva Shell Club will have its regular meeting Monday, Jan. 20, at the Captiva Civic Center at 8 p.m. Professor Harvey Meyer will be the guest speaker and the program promises to be delightful.

Mrs. J. P. Glass has mailed the rules and categories of the Shell Fair to all members, but if anyone would like an extra one, or if a visitor to the Islands would like to have one, there will be copies at the meeting to which everyone is invited. Rules and category sheets are also available at all the shell shops as well as many other spots around the Islands.

Mary Nix is serving as Chairman of Division A, and Helen Denny is serving as Chairman of Division B.

ANYONE FOR ART?

Everyone interested in art ---be they year 'round resident or short term visitor---is invited to join the new Sanibel-Captiva Art Group which held its first organizational meeting early this month.

One doesn't have to be a full---or even a part-time artist to join---the only requirement is that one must be interested.

The group is a part of the Southwest Florida Art Council. At the first meeting, a committee was appointed to work out details of the group and what its relationship to the parent Council will be. The committee members are: Jane Bancroft, Onelta McCulloch, Dodie Booth, Elise Fuller, Florence Simonds, Joe Gault and Leon Levy. The committee will give a report at the February meeting.

The Art Council, which is also a new organization, will sponsor a juried art show in Lehigh Acres from Jan. 26 - Feb. 1. Three judges will select the works to be hung. Eleven Island artists have already submitted their work for consideration.

PERSONALS

JOE & ENID DONAHUE, who arrived on the Islands barely in time for the holidays, still found time to invite CATHY and MARY LUCUS to be their guests for New Year's dinner. Cathy and Mary, with their two Scotties, took off for snowy New England the following day. Cathy said that she just couldn't abide another winter without being able to scrunch through some snow. Good scrunching, girls!

Mr. and Mrs. FRANK M. HARTMAN of Rochester, New York, are guests at Tradewinds. The Hartmans bought a lot on Periwinkle Way through Priscilla Murphy's office during their visit here last year.

PERSONAL

Mrs. MARGARET WALTERS of the Sea Horse Shop was confined to her home for several days last week after having a wisdom tooth extracted.

ANTHONY THOMAS COMELLA and JOHN W. MOLINARO of Lynos, N.Y., were the guests of Mrs. LYNN BEALS at her Sanibel home last week.

Anthony is a staff member of Pon's Beauty Salon in Lyons, and John is with the personnel division of the New York State Department of Public Works.

On their way down, they stopped in Washington to visit the late President's grave, and toured the East coast before arriving on the Islands. Anthony, who has not been here for eight years, said that it was like coming home again.

Mr. & Mrs. DAVID NOLAN of New Hope, Pa., are spending a few weeks at Beachview. He's with the Educational Testing Service of Princeton University. The Nolans were shelling one day last week when they ran into JOE RUDAN and JACQUE SIMSON (see below)--quite a coincidence, as Joe's home in New Hope is only a couple of blocks from the Nolans'.

Three most interesting young men are guests at Shallmar--JACQUES SIMSON, JOE RUDAN, and BRIAN REALE.

Jacques, born in Paris, is a high fashion photographer and "discovered" Sanibel thirteen years ago.

Joe, a native of New Hope, Pa., is an actor who hit the "Pot of Gold,"--T.V. commercials. He spent three years in the South Pacific when he was in the service and said that he had never found any place that is comparable to those South Pacific isles except for Sanibel and Captiva. To him, these are the Islands of sheer delight.

Brain is a New York interior designer who came to Florida to put the finishing touches on two homes that he has been decorating for the past three years. He came to the Islands as the guest of Jacques and Joe for a much needed rest.

All three gentlemen are much entranced with our Islands and Joe and Jacques hope to have a home here in the near future.

Mr. & Mrs. JAMES K. TOWER of York, Pa., arrived last week at their Sanibel home for the season.

YOUNG SHELLERS VISIT

A modicum of quiet prevails at the Harvey Meyer home on Captiva Island since the departure of 18 students from Highland School in Jamaica, New York. The boys stayed at South Seas Plantation while on the Islands and were accompanied on their trip here by Mr. & Mrs. Roger Raimist and Marvin Bomar of the Science Department of the school.

Professor Meyer planned their program during their visit and he, along with Wm. E. McCaul of the Zoology Department of Eastern Illinois University and the Islands' Priscilla Murphy, provided information about shelling and shells that was both interesting and informative.

Ina Watson prepared beautiful boxes of exceptionally fine specimen shells for their study. Although they weren't lucky enough to have an extremely low tide for an expedition to the mud flats, they all did find some excellent specimens for their collections. Prof. Meyer showed Mary Nix the specimens that he himself had collected and she said they were very beautiful ---even a golden whelk!
