CARIBBEAN ROUND TABLE AT SHELL CLUB MEETING

The Sanibel-Captiva Shell Club will hold its regular meeting Monday, July 20, at the Sanibel Community House. It will be "Caribbean Round Table Night" and many of the members will show their Caribbean treasures and relate some of the highlights of their visits to those romantic islands which are so close to our coast.

Mrs. J. P. Glass will get the adventures off to a start, and you are invited to come and show your prize shells --- or just listen, if you prefer.

Our Islands have many delightful visitors during these hot days who pick Sanibel and Captiva for vacations because of the cool sea breezes, scenic beauty --- and good fishing.

COUNTY UPS PARK MONEY

At the meeting of the Lee County Commissioners early this week, the Commissioners added $2,000 to Park Commissioner Pigott's original request of $5,000 to be spent on Turner Park. This $7,000 will go for rest-rooms, new tables and a drinking water supply. All three will be very welcome additions to Turner Park.

Who's Who on Sanibel

Mrs. DELLMAR REYNOLDS is home after depositing her grandchildren at their home in Jacksonville. They had been visiting here since school let out. Just before leaving, DEBRA, who had been out shelling with her grandmother, was starting to leave the beach when she stopped over and picked up a very beautiful Golden Olive, which she presented to her grandfather for (Father's) Grandfather's Day. Mrs. Reynolds stayed on in Jacksonville to keep house so that her daughter-in-law could take a troop of Girl Scouts to camp for a week. The stay-at-homers and the campers both reported having a good time, Grandmother enjoying the stay and the Girl Scouts and daughter the camping out.

Mrs. ETHEL and SARAH RAMAGE of Sweetbriar, Virginia, are here for their third visit to Sanibel and The Whitecaps, and are enjoying island life with their houseguest, Miss HADDAWAY of Texas.

Mr. & Mrs. J. C. HENLEY of Miami spent a week of their honeymoon at the motel, and exceptionally happy guests this week are Mr. & Mrs. M. M. BOLGER of Deland. He's mostly happy because he caught a 19 1/2 pound snook in the Gulf right in front of his cottage.

Mr. & Mrs. AL FORSYTHE of Hialeah are spending their ninth visit at Whitecaps, and have been successful in all categories. They've been fishing with ESPERANZA WOODRING and brought home scads of trout. They've also been bringing home scads of shells, all found the first week they were here, and including a Golden Olive (found by Mr. Forsythe,) a four spotted Coffee Bean (found by Mrs. Forsythe) and two Junonias, one of which is perfect.

Mr. & Mrs. EMIL ESCHER, who are natives of Germany, are spending some time here. Mr. Escher is a civilian who is attached as the Paymaster to the 300 or so German soldiers at the Missile Base at Huntsville, Alabama.

BRUCE VOGEL of Austin, Minnesota, is spending the summer with his aunt and uncle, Mr. & Mrs. ROY WEBB. Bruce is running the dock at Castaways.

LINDA TROJAN, the Webbs' niece-daughter, of Pearl River, New York, has also arrived on the Islands to stay with them permanently. She has presently been appointed to a very important post --- head silver polisher at Golden Sands.

AUTOS ROBBED

We regret to have to tell you about an unfortunate by-product of civilization which occurred on our Islands recently. Two cars, belonging to Island visitors, were broken into on Tarpon Bay Road and articles valued at approximately $300 were stolen. We find this shocking, especially since this is an area in which we haven't had to lock our doors for years. According to the Sheriff's Department, the criminals were from out of town.

Please, if you are visiting, do not leave valuables in the front or back seats of your car --- either lock them in the trunk or take them with you.

THE NEW BILL

We found the following article in Sunday's Miami Herald. It contained information we had not realized, and we thought that perhaps there were other people as confused as we over the civil rights law.

RIGHTS LAW: WHO, WHAT IS COVERED?

by jack claiborne
of the Washington Bureau of the Miami Herald

The Justice Department is preparing a simple pamphlet to clear up confusion over the new civil rights law.

Department spokesmen said last week that the guide should be completed within a week or so. They do not yet know when it will be distributed or how.

It will attempt to answer most of the questions which have arisen since the bill was enacted.

Most of the questions involve who is covered by the new law and who is not. Despite a year of public debate on the proposal, this still puzzles many people.

The new law is indeed a long, complex document that contains some points on which even judges will disagree. Most of the confusion centers around the public accommodations section.

Basically, this section prohibits racial discrimination in three particularly troublesome areas -- eating places, lodging places and places of entertainment.

Under this section, it is unlawful to discriminate by race or religion in the following:

RESTAURANTS, cafeterias, lunch counters, soda fountains, or other facilities "principally engaged in serving food."

HOTELS, motels, inns or other places of lodging that serve transient guests. (A rooming house occupied by its owner and offering five rooms or less for rent is exempt.)

THEATERS, movie houses, concert halls, sports arenas, stadiums or other places of exhibition offering entertainment which has moved in interstate commerce.

Further, it is unlawful to discriminate in any place of business which:

CONTAINS one of the above types of establishments, or

IS CONTAINED by one of the above types of establishments.

For instance, a department store is covered only if it operates a cafeteria or lunch counter.

Or a beauty or barber shop

THE NEW IBM LONG DISTANCE STATEMENTS YOU'LL SOON BE RECEIVING WITH YOUR REGULAR TELEPHONE BILL OFFERS MANY ADVANTAGES TO YOU

1. Eliminates individual long distance tickets that have been sent to you in the past which were difficult to read and understand.

2. Sumarizes your calls on an easier to read IBM Long Distance Statement.

3. Simplifies the problem of keeping a record of your telephone expenses.

4. Will help us to keep the cost of your telephone service down through increased operation efficiency.

is covered only if it is in a hotel or motel or other establishment mentioned above.

All businesses outside this basic area -- eating places, lodging places or places of entertainment -- are not covered and may continue to discriminate.

FOR INSTANCE, a bar or tavern is not covered unless it serves food or is in a hotel or motel, airport, but or train station.

Also, the law does not cover privately-owned places of recreation, such as pool halls, bowling alleys, swimming pools, golf courses and gymnasiums.

HOWEVER, PUBLICLY-OWNED OR OPERATED SWIMMING POOLS, GOLF COURSES, GYMNASIUM OR RECREATION AREAS ARE COVERED.

Further, the law does not cover retail stores unless they offer eating facilities. This exempts most lingerie shops, hat shops, dress shops and shoe stores.

Nothing in the law relates to housing. Nothing in the law relates to employment until July 2, 1965, when that part of the law takes effect.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Mrs. MARGARET UPSHAW will appear on the program of the Natural Food Associates at their two-day convention in Lakeland, Florida, on August 8 and 9. Margaret is an horticulturist as well as a nutritionist and her part on the program will be a paper entitled "What is the Value of a Home Garden?" She will also do a food demonstration on the making of whole wheat bread, rye bread, whole wheat pound cake, whole wheat banana bread, and a garden-fresh vegetable salad done up with her special spiced vinegar which she says is fit for the Gods or for we ordinary folks.

Everyone attending this convention, which will be held at the new and beautiful Ramonda Inn, will receive a copy of Margaret's recipes.

Golden Olives seem to be the thing on the beaches of Sanibel these days. Mrs. EATHYL PRESTON, PAT MURPHY'S mother, found her first Golden Olive a while ago on the beach at the foot of Tulipa Way.

Mrs. PEARL (SCOTTY) CLARK found her first Golden Olive Friday in front of the Conrads' Chateau Surmer. She had been looking for one for a long time, and when she found it, promptly placed it in a blue velvet satin lined box to give to a friend who has also wanted one very badly, which is a lovely thoughtful way to share the wealth.

LOIS VAN ARSDALE was a-shelling Tuesday of last week and found a fine Golden Olive (after four years of searching) on Bowman's Beach. She just about decided to put up her shell basket since her ultimate goal has been reached, but evidently thought better of it --- and went shelling again Wednesday evening at the rocks -- and (have you guessed?) Found her second Golden Olive!

PRISCILLA MURPHY has been back on the Islands for a few weeks after spending a month vacationing with her sister, Mrs. TERESA M. McCLOY of Detroit. She said, regretfully, that she didn't come back with any shells of note, although they spent hours looking. It would be sort of "oh . . . Oh . . . now what is . . . Oh, a conch."

She met her sister in Miami and they promptly took off for Jamaica, where they hired a car and drove all over the Island. "Absolutely nerve wracking, with the mountains, and hairpin turns and narrow twisty roads." From Jamaica, they went to Grand Caymen and then decided to come home. After their arrival back in Miami, they thought perhaps it was too soon to come home, and departed for Nassau and then to the Pink Sands on Harbor Island, which, by the way, Priscilla says is frequented by many people who visit Sanibel. Finally they got back to Miami and from there, (at last) home.

Admiral and Mrs. ED CONRAD, who are happily cruising around far-off places, have written to some of their island friends to say that they are having a wonderful time in Hawaii and Tokyo and other interesting places. They'll be back on the Islands in the fall.

WHO'S WHO ON CAPTIVA

Mr. & Mrs. C. F. REPOGLE saw their friends Dr. and Mrs. EDWARD L. MONTGOMERY off with a flair when they entertained them by having twelve guests for a cocktail party in their home Friday afternoon. The Montgomerys will return again in September for another brief stay in their newly acquired home on Palm Avenue.

Miss DIANE BALLINGER's weekend guest was Miss KATHY MARCELLUS of Fort Myers. Both girls will begin their sophomore year in the fall.

Very interesting guests at Mid Island this week are Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT MUSCILLO and their son, RICHARD, of New York City. Mrs. Muscillo was a model in London before coming to the U. S. ten years ago and continued in that work in New York until she met her husband, who is a designer. Together they started their own business called "Robert Briard's Cellar Shop." All the finishing work is hand done and Mrs. Muscillo does hand painting on many of their exquisite linen and non-wrinkle materials. They all love Captiva, even their huge French sheep dog, who is one of the family.

Mr. & Mrs. THOMAS N. FENNEY and their five year old son, TOMMY, of Miami are most enthused over their week at Mid-Island. Mr. Fenney is employed at the First National Bank of Miami.

Miss JUDY RHODES and TOMMIE SUE SABATINO invited Miss RUTH MOORE of Fort Myers to demonstrate at their Tupper Ware party. Those who attended were Mrs. JAKE STOKES, Mrs. DEWEY MILLER, Mrs. RALPH WOODRING, Mrs. IRVING RHODES, Mrs. KARL WIGHTMAN, Mrs. SOUTHWARD and Mrs. DALE BALLINGER.

Mrs. CLARA STRAN has just had her shop and home all prettied up. TERRY JOHNSON, who has been KARL WIGHTMAN'S right hand man, has done a very fine paint job.

Dr. and Mrs. HOMER HINDMAN just returned from a quickie trip to Lake Placid. They are glad to get back to the Island of Captiva.

On June the 30th PARKER MILLS accompanied his wife PIN to the airport where she boarded a plane for Richmond, Virginia, for a get-together with her two sisters, Mrs. WILLIAM WALKER JONES of Gloucester and Mrs. C. S. MINER, Jr., of Winnetka, Illinois. They will visit Williamsburg before departing for Durham, North Carolina, where they will give the college there the once over. Mrs. Mills' niece, WENDY MINER, plans to make this her college after she graduates from New Trier High School next year. On the 10th, the Miners and Pin start for Illinois, where, after a week of sight-seeing, we hope to have Mrs. Mills back by the 19th.

Mrs. RAY BOOTH had two friends from Fort Myers over for the weekend who were interested in seeing night life on Captiva. Dodie was a bit concerned as night life here just 'sorta isn't'; however her concern was short lived as after a day on the beach with her friends they got all dressed up for a night out at South Sea Plantation. After an excellent dinner, they all became embarrassed trying to stifle their yawns and the friends, like the native of the Island, were more than ready to turn in for the night. There is a saying here on the Islands that the non-night-clubbers retire at 9:00 p.m. but the night clubbers do not retire before 9:30 p.m. And so 'tis!

COOK'S CORNER

Mrs. JIM DENNY is known to Islanders and off Islanders not only for her marvelous knowledge of shells and sea creations, but for her cooking, too. Joe Green, staff writer of the Cincinnati Ohio Enquirer, is one of her most recent appreciators, and devoted a whole column in his paper to praise not only Sanibel ("Nature's yet unspoiled domain in the Gulf of Mexico . . .") but also (and mainly) Helen's delightful cockle cookery . . . in this case, scalloped scallops baked in cockle shells.

The recipe is:

- 1 pint (1 pound) scallops
- 2 cups coarse soda cracker crumbs
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 3/4 cup melted butter or margarine.

Wash scallops in cold running water, drain. Cut in half crosswise. Combine crumbs, butter, salt and pepper. Alternate layers of scallops and crumb mixture in greased dish, ending with crumbs. Pour into heart cockle (or other) baking dishes. Bake in moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Mr. Green assured all his readers that the results were absolutely delicious --- and we're inclined to agree with him.

While we're on the subject of food, we discovered a marvelous recipe for charcoal broiled spareribs t'other day. Here it is:

- 1/2 cup olive (or cooking) oil
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- salt and pepper
- garlic to taste (powder or mashed thoroughly)
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- 1 1/2 teaspoons sweet basil
- 1/4 cup wine vinegar
- 1/3 jar (approximately) of commercial hickory smoked barbecue sauce.

Combine ingredients in order named and let stand 20 minutes, while you clean one to one and a half racks of spareribs, which should be cut in half by the butcher. Place racks in shallow baking or cake pan and brush thoroughly with sauce. Pour remainder of sauce over racks and marinate at room temperature for one to one and a half hours, or cover in refrigerator & marinate for three to three and a half hours. Start charcoal fire in grill. (we find a handy and inexpensive grill can be made from three cement blocks and the rack from an old refrigerator. It is not only handy, but puts the meat just about the right height above the coals --- 10 inches or so.) Just before you start to cook, put two handfulls of water soaked hickory chips on top of charcoal. Broil meat thoroughly until brown, turning frequently and brushing with sauce. Beat off the neighbors (who will be attracted by the delicious aroma) and cut meat into individual ribs. Serve with lots of napkins, corn (roasted in the husk or wrapped in tinfoil) and a tossed green salad with an oil-vinegar and herb dressing.

This recipe is enough for three to five people.

COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION DINNER

About 50 members of the Community Association attended a covered dish supper and brief business meeting Tuesday a week ago. The highlight of the evening was the food, of course. To quote one extremely satisfied attendee, "It's always so wonderful that I can't eat for a week afterwards --- perhaps we should have weekly meetings!" (which we think is a sneaky way to diet!)

SALLY and JANE MATTHEWS will be spending the summer at the Hare Cottage with their grandfather DAN BAZIRE. Sally has found a summer job working at Hiers. Their brother JOEL, and a friend of theirs, JIM ANDERSON, have come over frequently from Fort Myers to visit the girls.

For the weekend of July 4th, CHIPPER FINK, 18, and STEVE RUBY, 19, decided to take a short vacation from Palm Beach. So they drove over to Sanibel. While they were here the boys attended the fish-fry and scouted around for things to do. Steve and Chipper said that more than likely they will return for Christmas vacation.

JUDI McQUADE, STEVE and JERRY MUENCH and I all went to town Friday, July 10th, to see the movie, "The Moon-Spinners." We all enjoyed it tremendously once we finally got in after standing in a long line and luckily finding several seats together.

I would appreciate it if y'all would call or write in any news of visiting teen-agers, as my transportation is limited.
