DRIVER, SPARE THAT BIRD!

Please drive carefully and slowly over the Causeway --- particularly in the sections marked "Bird Crossing." The two Causeway Islands are now inhabited by a number of skimmers who recently hatched, and it is heartbreaking to see the little crushed bodies of birds who have been killed by careless or speeding drivers. Take a little longer to go over the bridge --- the scenery is always enjoyable --- and the life you save may belong to a friend of yours.

Summer, a pail and Island sand by the shore --- what more could a little girl want? (Or a big girl, too, for that matter!)

GEORGE E. GREEN

George E. Green, 74, of North Fort Myers, died Wednesday. Originally from Cleveland, he and Mrs. Green spent many winters at Casa Ybel on Sanibel until he retired from his position as Chief Executive of the Boy Scouts of America in Cleveland. After the Greens bought their home in North Fort Myers, they were frequent visitors to the islands, where they have many friends.

Mr. Green is survived by his wife, Mary, and a son Robert E. Green of Cleveland, and a daughter, Mrs. Bettie Marsh of Newburg, New York. Funeral services were held last Thursday and interment was in Cleveland.

Mr. Green was an ardent naturalist and sheller. Many Islanders were treated to color slide shows of beautiful flowers and birds which he had photographed. He will be missed by all those who knew him.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Sanibel-Captiva Unit 123 of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold its August meeting jointly with Post 123 at the Legion Hall Saturday 15, beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a covered dish supper to be followed by a joint business meeting. Plans for the Post's Labor Day fish fry will be discussed as well as the Umbrella Booth the ladies have scheduled.

Who's Who on Sanibel

Rear Admiral and Mrs. C. M. CARDEZA have had as their guests this week Mrs. J. PAUL DENNEEN of Sebring and her sister, Mrs. MARGARET LEAVITT of Yorktown, Virginia. Mrs. Denneen had spent time with the Cardezas on Sanibel in previous years but Mrs. Leavitt was making her first visit to the Island.

The house the Cardezas are building in Sanibel Isles is nearing completion in record time and they are hoping for a late August occupancy.

ELIZABETH T. ADLER'S nephew and family of Kokomo, Indiana, have been visiting for the past week. Mr. & Mrs. SHERMAN THOMPSON and son MIKE & daughter SHARILYNN. The highlight of their stay was a trip to the mud flats where they found a number of specimen shells.

Mrs. W. HORACE WILLIAMS will have as her guests for the next ten days, her daughter, Mrs. ARTHUR SEAVEY; her granddaughter, Miss TODT WILLIAMS and another granddaughter and husband, Mr. & Mrs. GRISELL-ROSSI of New Orleans.

Whether you pronounce the oo in snook as "uh" or "ewe" everyone agrees that they're real good eating, as two very happy Casa Ybel guests found out last Saturday. ALLEN MARTIN of Cincinnati pulled in a 13 pounder, and shortly after, STEVE PIJACEK of Elmhurst, Illinois, hooked into a 10 pound snook.

Where did they catch them? "Right from the lawn," said Mr. Pijacek. "Well, practically right from the lawn. We were surf fishing right in front of the hotel."

Mr. Pijacek, his wife, HELEN, and their two daughters, CHRISTINE & NANCY, are spending their second summer vacation here. They flew down last year after reading about Sanibel in the Chicago Tribune to do some shelling. They liked it so much that they drove down this time, and the girls are now at work on a miniature and regular shell collection. Mr. Pijacek said that, as far as he was concerned, the girls could come back for some more shelling --- but he's going to come back for some more fishing!

BILL & ALBERTA WELLS, former assistant managers at Island Inn, who have spent the past two years in the Bahamas, were back on the Islands over the weekend visiting DICK & VIVIAN KEARNS and their other old friends.

JACK RUSHWORTH, manager of Casa Ybel, told us quite happily the other day that business seems to be on a decided upswing. This, of course, is good news. We've been hearing people blame the World's Fair, the election year, the Civil Rights bill, the weather (which is warm as a weather should be) and practically everything else (with the possible exception of hummingbirds) for the lack of summer visitors, so we're glad to hear that things are looking up.

Anyhow, getting back to our most important product (happy vacationers) the guests at Casa Ybel include RODNEY and BARBARA SMITH (she's hotel-owner HOWARD DAYTON'S daughter) & their two children, who came over from Coco Beach to spend some time visiting friends at the old homestead.

Mr. & Mrs. BOB GILBERT and their family of Fort Lauderdale are here for two weeks, and Mr. & Mrs. CARMEN D. AUSTEGUI came all the way from Venezuela for their fifth visit to the Islands.

Mr. & Mrs. W. C. SPAINE of Tampa are here for the first time, as are Mr. & Mrs. PAGE TALLEY of Hialeah, Fla. Mr. Talley has a Saturday morning TV show for teenagers in Miami.

Dr. & Mrs. ERNEST A. KUBLER of Daytona Beach, who are friends of the DAYTONS, are back for another visit, as are the JACK A. WILLIAMSONS of Hamilton, Ohio. Dr. & Mrs. O. B. BONNER of Daytona Beach and Mr. & Mrs. DAVID RUGGLES, Jr., also of Daytona, flew in last weekend to Casa Ybel's "International Airport."

The Keys are a popular spot with Sanibel folks. ELSIE MALONE, whose home is at Marathon, is away from her Sanibel shop for a few days shelling with PRISCILLA MURPHY. TOM, MARY & CAROL NIX will be there for a few days and expect to get together with Elsie and Priscilla and all try their luck together.

We've met a passel of Kentucky Colonels, but this week had the pleasure of meeting a real Kentucky Governor, BERT COMBS, Governor of the Blue Grass State which is famous for its mint juleps and long legged fillies. Governor Combs and some of his friends flew into Casa Ybel International Airport Saturday afternoon for a day's view of the Islands. Governor Combs, who owns property on Sanibel near Golden Sands, was looking over the area with an eye for future development of his land. He, by the way (we're not trying to be punny) handed CHAD WAY his diploma when Chad graduated from Kentucky Military Institute last year.

One of the gentlemen in the Governor's party was J. E. PEARCE, an editorial writer for the Louisville Courier Journal, who decided to keep his finger on the local pulse by taking a subscription to the Islander. ("Hear, hear!" says our editorial writer.)

JERRY WAY, who forsook our Islands last year with his lovely wife LINDA to live in Fort Myers, celebrated his 26th birthday here last Friday. Happy, happy --- and many more, Sir!

Miss ELIZABETH CLANTON & Miss ELIZABETH BRYANT, guests at the Colony, found a golden olive each last week. Miss Clanton's was live, but Miss Bryant's was not. 'Twas still pretty, tho.

Other Colony guests are the ROBERT C. RODY family of Johnstown, Pa., Mr. & Mrs. J. D. RAULERSON & Mrs. H. J. ELLIN of Lake Wales, Florida, Mr. & Mrs. JAMES L. JEWELL and their son and daughter of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, ROBERT L. DWIGHT, his daughter LINDA & son JIMMY of Gibson Island, Maryland, Mr. & Mrs. PAUL R. QUIGG and their four children of Atlanta, Georgia and Mr. & Mrs. G. C. BOEVE and their son and daughter of Opa Locka, Florida.

AL KAUFFMAN, his wife, BETH ANN and their two children, LORI & SCOTT of Cincinnati, arrived on the Islands two weeks ago to spend some time with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. SMITH KAUFFMAN of Tradewinds Motel Apartments. They have been fishing (Al especially) and, of course, the children are enjoying the Beach with all its associated pleasures a great deal.

Beth Ann's parents, Mr. & Mrs. LEO EGGLESTON of Dayton, Ohio, are also vacationing here now, enjoying both Sanibel life and their grandchildren.

Tradewinds is the meeting place for quite a few happy vacationers, who frequently return again & again. Mrs. JAMES FORD of Orlando, who visited two weeks ago with her husband, is back this week with her two daughters, KATHY & SUSY, and her mother, Mrs. MARIAN SCHRAM of Washington, D. C. Other guests include PETE HIPPLE of Rosell, New Jersey, Mr. & Mrs. CARL G. ROBERTS of Birmingham, Alabama, their sons, JOHNNY, KING & MIKE, and Mr. & Mrs. WILLIAM PARSONS of Dayton, Ohio, and their two children.

A recent rare find was made on Sanibel by GORDON TRACY who brought home a glistening live white olive.

INTER-COUNTY NOW USING IBM BILLING

The Inter-County Telephone System started using IBM Long Distance Statements this Tuesday, according to J. N. Johnson, president. This means, in essence, that your telephone bill will contain all your long distance calls, with charges, on one easy-to-read card. Inter-County started the system to help handle their ever expanding business volume, which consisted of almost six million long distance calls in the past year.

The new system, in which the calls are billed mechanically instead of manually, will also help the telephone company to obtain information easily for engineering projects, service requirements and research and marketing operations. The increased efficiency, by the way, did not put people out of work. Those who formerly did the billing by hand have been retrained to use the IBM machines.

Anyone for Sand Dollars? ROSEANN and JOE GRAZIANO have collected over a thousand of them while vacationing at Hier's. When asked what they were going to do with them all, they replied, "we tried to sell them, but we had no buyers." Good luck with all your dollars.

PEGGY LECHLEITNER, vacationing from Golden, Colorado, is staying at her grandmother's for about two weeks. When she is not swimming in the Gulf, Peggy is working for a short time as a waitress at the Coconut Grove Restaurant.

SALLY & JANE MATHEWS, two working teens, are still busy as ever. Sally works at Hiers and her sister, Jane, works at the Gallery.

SUSAN GESSER is a new resident of the Island. Sue moved to Sanibel from West Hollywood.

(ED. NOTE:) Jerry Muench will be guest columnist for a few weeks while Viki Way is on vacation.

TO THE ISLANDER:

We have just spent our third vacation on Sanibel and as always loved every second of it! This was our second summer at Casa Turquesa and hope for many more there. I'm writing mainly though, to tell you that we found among our many shells, a "zic-zac" near the lighthouse and a "Sunray Venus" near Blind Pass.

Thanks again to all who made our too brief vacation so enjoyable.

Sincerely,
 Mr. & Mrs. Robert Woodall

TO THE ISLANDER:

We enjoyed the issue of your paper that we received while vacationing on Sanibel and would like for you to enter our subscription for the Islander for one year. My check for $3 is enclosed.

WHO'S WHO ON CAPTIVA

Friends of Mr. & Mrs. GEO-RGE BECKER will be interested in the news received in a letter addressed to Dr. and Mrs. HOMER HINDMAN. The Beckers, long-time winter residents of Captiva, have their summer home in Medina, New York, but by the sounds of things Mrs. Becker has not spent too much time there. It seems that Henry, a globe-trotting brother of hers, decided to pay a visit to another brother in Oak Park, Illinois. Betty Becker, not to be left out on catching up on all the news after a 12 year separation, hopped a plane to Chicago where the three had several hilarious days together. Then came the news that the Becker's son BILL had received notice from the Pentagon to go to Korea for 13 months. In making his transfer, one of his stops was O'Hara Field in Chicago which made it most convenient for Betty to meet him at the airport from whence they journeyed together to "home sweet home" in Medina. They were met there by another son, George and papa George, where another grand reunion took place prior to the parting of their ways. We are so happy for you, Betty and George.

It may not be known to all that Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Becker will not be coming to Captiva this winter as residents as they have purchased a home near McGregor Blvd. and Cape Coral Road. However, we hope to see them often nevertheless.

There are many interesting guests at Mid-Island Cottages this week. Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES M. PIA of Reddington Beach, Florida, who were both born in Tampa, Florida, but never came this far South until they purchased a very nice boat which in turn brought on the roaming fever. They docked at "Andy's Marina" and Andy having no room in his Inn sent them to Mid-Island. Mr. & Mrs. LINDY THOMAS, who accompanied them, are old time friends from Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Thomas works for Remington Rand.

Mr. & Mrs. PAUL C. KRESGE of Leighton, Penn., whose daughter ANN and husband, C. B. EDWARDS, spent their honeymoon at Mid-Island last May, were intrigued by their daughter's love for the Islands and decided to choose it for their vacation period. Mrs. Kresge says, "They didn't half praise it enough." Mr. Kresge after teaching school for 8 years was elected to the Liquor Control Board in 1934 where he served until his retirement in 1962. On Jan 1st of this year he was sworn in as Justice of Peace. There is no keeping a good man down. His lovely wife Marian is in her 19th year of teaching.

Other guests Mr. & Mrs. TOM SAWYER, is not related to the Tom Sawyer of the Hannibal, Missouri fame, but is a fruit grower near Vero Beach, "The Tom Sawyer Grove." Their son Tom Sawyer, 16, would far rather shell than fish. The Sawyers are good friends of Mrs. CORAL BARTH a frequent visitor to the Islands.

Guests at the Shannon Cottage this week are Mr. & Mrs. DARWIN HARROLD from Huntington, West Virginia. BILL SHANNON & Darwin Harrold were school mates away back when and they have continued their friendship these many years. Each year the Harrolds visit the Islands.

Mrs. E. L. MONTGOMERY is on her way back to Captiva from Circleville, Ohio. She and her Doctor husband purchased a home on Palm Avenue this spring and are anxious to come back for that second look. Dr. Montgomery will join his wife on September 1.

Mrs. KENNETH HANNAN, a niece of Mrs. C. F. REPROGLOGLE, better known to the Islanders as "Mary Jin" has just become a trophy winner in the annual rose show which is one of the finest exhibitions in Southern Ohio. Mary Jin's was named "King of Arrangements" by rose show judges. Congratulations.

A-SKIMMIN' WE SHALL GO . . .

A new sport is in full swing in the area -- it's called skimming. It takes a skimmer board (made inexpensively, usually at home, of plywood,) shallow, fairly calm water, a fast running start, a sense of balance -- and a heck of a lot of guts. The first board we saw popped out around Easter. We don't know if it was the result of spontaneous combustion (strange things happen sometimes when one combines youthful spirits with nothing to do and a large expanse of water) or if some college student brought the idea here with him during Easter vacation. However it started, it's here -- and looks like a lot of fun. We'll watch for a while, though, thank you!

YES, WE'LL BE GETTING NEW IBM LONG DISTANCE STATEMENTS STARTING NEXT WEEK!

With the new IBM STATEMENTS you will be able to see at a glance when you last called home and even how long you talked. Businessmen will be well pleased with the new IBM STATEMENTS, too, because they will provide a compact record of all their long distance charges.

This new IBM LONG DISTANCE STATEMENT is part of an extensive service improvement program now under way to provide you with modern, efficient telecommunications at the lowest possible cost.

OBITUARY OF A WELL-
LOVED DOG

PRISSY, short for Priscilla, the German police dog of Mr. & Mrs. G. T. MARTIN, Sanibel, died July 15, 1964. She would have been 14 years old next January. She was born on an Arkansas farm where the Martins raised puppies for sale. She was the mother of 60 puppies.

After moving to Florida, she had a tumor operation (performed by Dr. Niver of Fort Myers) and would lie down to show off her scar. She was the only bitch kept after the puppy raising project in Arkansas, because she would never make friends or let anyone touch her except for the Martins. Moving to Sanibel, though, made her more friendly to the frequent visitors who came to call. The Martins never needed a door bell, since Prissy lived in and would let Mrs. Martin know when someone drove up. She was named after PRISCILLA MURPHY, who would always add a post script to her business letters asking about her namesake, and how many children she had had that year.

She was a sweet, beautiful, lovable, intelligent dog and is sorely missed. She is buried in the family cemetery at Gray Gable.
