Who's Who on Sanibel

The smiling gentleman is LAWRENCE H. WILLIAMS of District Heights, Maryland, who landed this sizable tarpon while vacationing at the Blue Dolphin.

The happiest 14-year-old we know is JIMMY JACK who landed this 40 lb. tarpon while surf fishing in front of his home, Casa Turquesa. He brought in his catch at a pound per minute on light spinning tackle with a 12 lb. test line. Jimmy said the 40 minute fight was worth it --- he'd hooked into 'em before, but this is the first tarpon he has landed. Congratulations, sir!

Another happy young man is GARY HAMLETT, who was fishing with Jimmy, and pulled in a sizable snook. He was really after tarpon, but, after all, you can eat snook. Actually, he caught it at a very good time, as he had broken several rods and lines playing with some 33 tarpon earlier.

DINNER FOR UNCLE JAKE

There will be a covered dish dinner party at the American Legion Home this Saturday for JAKE STOKES. All proceeds of the evening will go to help with Jake's recent hospital bill Y'all come and have some fun.

By the way, all of Jake's friends were happy to find out that his hospital stay was successful and brief, and that he's home again, as happy as ever.

Who's Who on Sanibel

Rear Admiral and Mrs. CARLOS CARDEZA moved into their new home in Sanibel Isles on Thursday of last week and on Friday their first houseguests arrived.

Mrs. GEORGE P. KELLEY and her mother, Mrs. METTIE MANLEY, flew over from Houston, Texas, to help their good friends get settled, and to see the Island for the first time. Imagine Mrs. Manley's thrill when her first trip to the beach netted her an alphabet cone which made her the envy of her shelling mates.

The four will drive back to Houston together this week. The Cardezas have business interests which will keep them in Houston in the winter so they will be at their Sanibel home during the summer months.

Mrs. DELLMAR REYNOLDS of the Reynold's Craft Shop and Mrs. JAMES DENNY have returned to the Islands after a shelling trip to the Florida Keys. Ethel and Helen also planned to look up a mutual friend in the Keys who had a gift shop there --- only to find out that the friend had sold out and moved to Virginia. Seems that her husband is a Navy career man, so, being a dutiful wife, she didn't have much choice but to go where he went.

While on the Keys, Ethel and Helen stayed at the Harbor Light Motel, which is owned by another friend, PEGGY MAKOWSKI. They report that the trip was fruitful as well as pleasant.

After the Keys trip, Ethel and Dellmar took off for Jacksonville to visit the Dellmar Reynolds, Jr.s., and to return a slamese cat the senior Reynolds has been "cat-sitting" with while the younger ones traveled north. The senior Reynolds arrived in Jacksonville shortly before Cleo was due to hit the East coast and decided to stay to see it through. They reported there was a lot of rain, but not much wind. Hearing that Dora was forming down in the area that Cleo came from, they thought they'd better head for home -- as you can't miss them all the time.

Mr. & Mrs. BILL NEWMAN are going on a long vacation to California and other points West. During their absence, the Chamber of Commerce desk in the Sanibel Community House will be closed. The Newmans are taking along their pet cat, who loves to travel.

CHARLES LUNDBERG, his wife, MARILYN, & their children, FRED & SUSAN, have been visiting his mother, GOLDIE LUNDBERG. Goldie's been doing a bit of entertaining for them --- Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE CRAIG of Bradenton and Mrs. EATHEL PRESTON of Sanibel came for Sunday dinner and Tuesday, Mrs. JESSIE SHIPLEY and BETSY BRUST came over to swim and picnic, while Mrs. MAGGIE & MARY FITZHUGH spent the day.

Saturday, the Lundbergs were the guests of CLARA STRAN of Stran's Novelty Shop on Captiva.

JEANNE HAYES found an albino 6 1/2 inch left-handed lightning Welk by the Bay in front of her shop, Things From The Sea. Jeanne supplies her shop by the do-it-yourself method --- she goes dredging, scubering and all that for lovely treasures to display on her

Motels, hotels --- most everything on the Islands filled up for the Labor Day weekend. BETTY POWELL of Betty's Hawaiian Village had, among her many guests, a personal friend and frequent visitor, WILLIAM BASSETT, who is an educational Therapist, his wife, PEARL, and their two children, DEBBIE & CHARLES --- and, of course, their pets, a mynah bird and a dog. They're getting away from the luxury of their push button world of North Miami Beach by returning again to nature -- and relaxing in the Haleakala Cottage at Betty's

RUTH & JIM DOWLING of Mitchell's Castaways are leaving tomorrow (via their '64 MG) for Naperville, Ill., and Stone Lake, Wisconsin, to spend four weeks with their family. While they'll see many old friends and relatives, the highlight of the trip will probably be a visit with their grandchildren, DEBRA JEAN, 3, and JAMES EUGENE DOWLING, Jr., who is one. DEAN MITCHELL will stand in for them at Castaways.

The ROY WEBBS are closing Castaway's Restaurant on or about September 18 for a month or so, so that they can concentrate on refurbishing and slicking up the Golden Sands, their newest venture.

SMITTY & GLADYS KAUFFMANN of Tradewinds left yesterday for Cincinnati, and Dayton, Ohio, where they'll visit scads of family.

The Kauffmanns just barely recovered from a visit from their grandchildren, LORI, 4, and SCOTT, who will be two next Tuesday, only to find that they missed the little darlings -- so off they took to see them again. They'll also see their brother, sister, son and daughter-in-law, AL & BETH ANNE KAUFFMAN, their mother, IVY DARDING & their aunt, HAZEL GREEN.

BOB HINELY of Orlando landed a 100 lb. tarpon with the help of BEN COOK, who gaffed it for him, right off the Beach in front of Tradewinds. Says he's going to have it mounted for his office at his laundry.

Other Tradewinds guests, Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE NOLL & Mr. & Mrs. GENE CORBETT of Palm Harbor, Florida, are out casting for their trophies.

Mrs. RENASTONECYPHER and sons LESTER AND DENNIS have moved from Island Inn and are now living in the Elwood home.

LANORA MORGAN, a Dade County teacher and the daughter of Mrs. HARRY A. ROMINE, visited the Islands over the Labor Day week end. She is a Sanibel property owner who hopes to build and live here someday.

Mr. & Mrs. CONSTENTINE KONTINOS have returned to the Islands after a sojourn in New Hampshire.

PAT KONRAD (above) left Sunday, accompanied by his parents, Admiral & Mrs. ED KONRAD, for Lynchburg, Va. Pat will start his Senior year there at Virginia Episcopal School. He had a very successful Junior year and hopes that this one will be as good as he plans to graduate in June of 1965 and go on to College.

Anne and Ed plan to be back this week end and "hope the skeeters are gone by the time we get back."

Mrs. MABEL J. DUNCKER and ROY J. POLLARD of Hialeah, Mrs. MARION P. GRIMES and the Misses HELEN & HAZEL POLLARD of Valdosta, Ga., just finished their fourth vacation on Sanibel (which they like very much) at Casa Turquesa. Interested shellers, they were able to take home such prize shells as an Alphabet Cone, a Hinged Spiny Jewel Box, and from the flats near Dewey's Marina, Lightning Conchs and Kings Crowns. They said that they loved every second of their visit, including the fishing.

The LEE ROY FRIDAYS of the House of Treasures have boarded up their shop for a few months and are in Mexico on a combined business and "fun" trip.

THE JOHN HUGH FAMILY . . .

Movie producer JOHN HUGH of Orlando, along with his wife, ANITA, and their three children, ALLYSON, 3, MARK, 7, and R. JOHN, almost 12, spent a very enjoyable week at Casa Ybel, just relaxing and looking the Islands over.

Mr. Hugh was the producer of such films as "Yellow Neck," "Naked in the Sun," "The Tender Vice," and "Lesette." His pictures won an honorable mention at the Venice Film Festival. Mr. Hugh will start another picture October 19, "A Cry of Laughing Owls" starring Robert Taylor, Sal Mineo and Barbara

JACK RUSHWORTH is leaving the Casa Ybel where he has been summer manager and will take over the management of Island Inn.

VACATION TIME

The staff of the Islander will take a few weeks vacation starting today. This will be the last Islander for four weeks, the next one being published on October 15, so don't worry if you don't get the Islander for the next few weeks -- there won't be any!

BIGGEST AND BEST EVER

Over 300 plates were filled, sold and eaten Monday at the Legion Fish Fry. The lazy, hazy days of summer ended in a wonderful meeting of Sanibel, Captiva and mainlanders filling them selves full of the wonderful Legion fried mullet and shrimp boiled in beer.

The 40 & 8 group from Fort Myers came over in their train for the occasion -- making the Island youngsters quite happy with their free train rides.

Time and space does not allow us to list all the help but it would encompass a large section of the Island. The thanks of all who attended the feed go to the willing workers.

NOW IT CAN BE TOLD

Many, many moons ago, a very nice couple named Mr. & Mrs. OTTO JONES decided that the Sanibel Community Assn. needed some help with their building fund -- so they donated a lot near their home in the Tradewinds Subdivision to the Assn. to be raffled off. Mrs. RICHARD FULLER, along with others, organized all shop and motel owners and almost all Islanders into ticket sale men. For a while it was a case of "You buy one from me and I'll buy one from you." Buy they did, Islanders and visitors alike.

Finally came 5 P.M., Labor Day, 1964 -- the time and the day of the drawing. The box was brought out, shook, shaken and rattled. A hand went in, came out and a name was read.

BIRGIT DICKEY!

Everglades, as Mr. Hugh uses Florida locations for all of his films.

The family's visit to the Islands was really planned by his wife and children and he "just came along for the ride," but became quite enthused over our area after he arrived. He told us that it "is like the tropical West Indies right here in the United States."

The Hughs say that they were misquoted about the mosquitoes, that they weren't really too bad and that the loveliness of the Islands overcame what

Who's Who on Captiva

CATHY BOOTH, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. RAY BOOTH, now is a full fledged Laboratory Technician, is back from Manhasset, Long Island, for a visit with her family and friends. With her is LESLIE HINDMAN, a granddaughter of our Dr. HOMER HINDMAN. JULIE WEIGHN also a friend of Cathy's from that city came along to see our beautiful Island. They will remain about a week before returning to school and work.

EDITH & JOE GREEN of Captiva returned home from Brooklyn, New York, to cure up their newly acquired sore throats. Glad to have you back, anyway.

Mrs. KATHLEEN DAVIES, our Librarian is also back after attending a daughter and a brand new grandchild. All is well and now there are four.

Kathleen was concerned about how her two cats would be cared for while she was gone. This concern could have been avoided as it didn't take the cats long to find someone who gladly took them in. The interesting part of the story is, that with all the love and good care they were given in their foster home, they were sitting on Kathleen's doorstep to welcome her when she returned home with nary a return trip to the 'helping hand' -- but so 'tis even in human life.

Among the guests at 'Tween Waters this week are Mr. & Mrs. REEVES BOWEN of Tallahassee. He is Assistant Attorney General of the State of Florida.

MAE SHANNON is sporting a very nice looking car this week. It was adopted from CAROL ALLEN, who has been employed at 'Tween Waters the past year. Mae is very happy about the car, but very sad for the little dog that use to occupy it with Carol. The dog has been adopted by HAP PAYNE and loves his new home, but each time Mae stops by the poor doggie goes into ecstasy expecting Carol to step from the car --- the lady is as sweet, but the pooch shows his disappointment.

JERALD JOHNSON, who has been busy as a bee all summer to accumulate more doe-ray-me to go back to college, took off Saturday in his car for the University of Florida in Gainesville where he will enter the second half of his third year. We all wish for this real nice chap another wonderful year towards his Building & Construction degree.

Dr. & Mrs. E. L. MONTGOMERY of Circleville, Ohio, have returned to their new home on Captiva. This trip they brought their two toy spaniels, Tinker, and Toy. The two dogs were happy to meet their old time friend, Peaches who has been lucky enough to be on this lovely Island all summer long with his Lords and Masters, the REPLOGLES.

Mrs. LLOYD JONNES, a friend of the Montgomerys' from Circleville, accompanied them to their new island home. DOROTHY immediately fell in love with the setting as it reminded her of the home she and her late husband build 27 miles out of Circleville, which they called "Buzzard's Glory." Mrs. Jonnes says it is her first trip here and her last as she never wants to leave. This makes us all very happy as Dorothy is just the kind of real person who belongs on this beautiful Island.

Many good friends of Dr. and Mrs. LEO HOFSCHEIDER of 357 Chili Ave., Rochester, New York, will be happy to know that after 16 years of visiting the Islands, they have now purchased property and are about to have a home constructed on the Bay side.

As this "Islander" is being read, Mrs. MAE SHANNON will be hosting a luncheon in honor of Mrs. DOROTHY JONNES. It is a birthday party and the guests are Palm Avenueites: Mrs. VIRGINIA REPLOGLE; Mrs. TOMMY (don't let the name deceive you, Tommy is a very lovely lady) MONTGOMERY; Mrs. INA WATSON; Mrs. PAULINE BONE; Mrs. MARY BALLINGER & Mrs. MARGUERITE FLORES.

Mrs. GLADYS M. PLUME just stopped in to say so-long for now and to leave her check for a subscription to the "Islander." Gladys desires to keep abreast with the news from her Island paradise until she returns to us again in June --- for keeps. In the meantime her address: Mrs. Gladys Plume, Skunk's Misery Road, Locust Valley, New York. When Gladys returns in June we will get a run down on why such an unsavory address for so fine a person.

On September 17, a lady who will stay at Mid-Island Cottages is bringing a few "mosquito swishers" that come in so handy on after-dinner walks to the Beach. Your reporter has just purchased three of these and can vouch for the fact that they are generously long and heavy. If interested, you are welcome to come take a look.

Now that we have been extended a little holiday by our bosses VIRGINIA and DUFF BROWN I bid you "au revoir" for a few weeks. May God bless you all abundantly and keep you safe from harm.

HAP SAYS "WHEW!"

HAP PAYNE said last week, "The Papa at Hap's House of Joy is too pooped to pop after my first week's run with Hart's Dairy. Thanks to all."

NICHOLS - HARRIS

Wedding bells are ringing in Fort Ord, Calif., for SP 5 JAMES E. HARRIS, Jr., and PATRICIA ANN NICHOLS.

Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES K. REEGER (KENNY & ELSIE), parents of the groom, left on the 5th to attend the ceremony and plan to return to the Colony September 20.

The young couple will live in San Miguel, Calif., until the Army changes their address

If you don't see many teenagers roaming the Islands during the weekdays there's a simple explanation. We're all back in school. Tho having lost a few seniors, we have gained several new seventh graders. They are TOM HINES, JAMES EVANS, MIKE DORMER, KAREN BOOTH & DENISE STEVENS.

JAY NICHOLS, after his leave in the Air Force, will be stationed at Cape Kennedy. He says it will be quite a switch from being stationed in Alaska for 28 months.

CHRIS & MARY JO GAULT returned Aug. 27, from a trip to New York, Michigan and Kentucky. Mary Jo has been working at Middlebury, Vermont, at the Dogteam Inn for the past month, so her family picked her up there, and went on to NYC. While in New York, they saw the World's Fair and the play, "Mary, Mary." Next stop was to Ferndale, Michigan, to visit relatives. After that, they went to Kentucky where Chris saw some old friends.

A frequent visitor to the Islands, JIM STEYAART, has been here a couple of weeks, staying at his grandmother's house, Mrs. ELIZABETH BEAL. Jim will leave tomorrow and return to Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, where he will be a senior.

CHAD WAY returned home for a week with a friend, DAVE

STEVEN. From here, they went on a camping trip out west before the fall term at the University of Cincinnati.

CATHY BOOTH & two friends from New York are on the Islands visiting her parents.

SARA STAHLIN, JAY NICHOLS, JIM STEYAART & your Reporter went to town last Friday to see the Movie, "A Shot In The Dark." Afterwards, we went to the new coffee shop called the Psi-Cottage, where they have folk singing and entertainment, which we all enjoyed.

Others representing the Island teenagers in town were CHRIS GAULT, JUDIMCQUADE, JERRY MUENCH & DENNIS STONECYPHER, who also saw the same movie and afterwards went to a record hop.

LORI LEE BALLINGER sent us a note the other day and seems to be enjoying her student work in a hospital in Norwalk, Ohio, where she is studying to be a nurse.

DENNIS STONECYPHER will be starting at Edison Junior College, where he has a basketball scholarship. He will begin September 14, and will be staying in Fort Myers.

LESTER STONECYPHER also is deserting the Islands and left on Tuesday for K.M.I. We wish him lots of luck.

DOUG COMINGS, JESSEE MARTIN, JAMES WATT & AL STEWART of Fort Lauderdale, stayed on the Islands over the Labor Day weekend at Villa Victoria. Two of the boys have been here before and liked it so much that they returned with two friends.

I would like to Thank JERRY MUENCH for doing such a great job in writing the Teen Column while I was in Tennessee visiting the Hudsons.
