ISLAND WATER SYSTEM BEING STUDIED

The Sanibel-Captiva Chamber of Commerce, the Community Association and the Captiva Civic Association have appointed a committee to study the proposed water system for Sanibel and Captiva Islands. The Farmers Home Administration will loan up to a million dollars to a rural community for a project such as this. The 40 year loan has a low interest rate, and must be able to be paid back by the community's present population.

The proposed plan calls for buying water in bulk from Pine Island and piping it across the bay to storage tanks and pumps on the Islands. The plan would take about 3/4 of a million dollars. The project is not allowed to be a profit making organization, which means the rates would get lower as more people joined the plan. Joining will be optional. There will be an agreement signed with Pine Island to insure a continuing water supply without an increase in rates.

The ISLANDER has been told that public reaction to the plan so far has been favorable, and that a continuing supply of good water would be a great asset to the community.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT SCHOOL

The Sanibel Elementary School PTA is going to provide the refreshments for a Halloween party in the school tomorrow afternoon at 1 p.m. The refreshment committee is headed by Bela Kontinos, Irene Preston and Mary Aleck. The children have planned their own entertainment and playlets for the enjoyment of all.

Next Thursday, November 5, Dr. Robert L. Underberg of Fort Myers will address the PTA meeting. His subject will be "Children's Visual Problems," and all parents are urged to attend.

ADM. KONRAD NEW C.D. HEAD

Lee County Civil Defense last week announced "with pleasure" that Rear Admiral E.G. KONRAD (U.S.N. Ret.) of Sanibel has been appointed as Civil Defense Co-ordinator for the Sanibel Captiva area.

Admiral Konrad will, by virtue of the appointment, assume overall local direction of Civil Defense activities on the Islands, including communications, radiological defense, shelters, rescue and warning.

DAVE WOOSTER will continue to head the communications activities as a member of the Admiral's staff, and other volunteers are asked to contact either him or Admiral Konrad. Workers are needed from both Islands to work in communications, rescue, damage assessment and warning.

This new staff will work under the county-wide operations directed from the Lee County Civil Defense Headquarters in the County Court House, under Director MICHEL HITZING of Fort Myers.

CHAIR DRIVE DOING WELL

The American Legion Auxiliary's drive for new chairs is going very well, they report.
The chairs, which can be paid for by individuals or businesses, will be permanently inscribed with the doner's name. The cost is $5.75 per chair.

Checks should be made out to the "American Legion Auxiliary Unit #123" and mailed to Mary
E. Nix, Goldie Nave, Mary Purdy or Blanche Pflough, all of Sanibel Island.

UNITED FUND DRIVE

Last Thursday, Goldie Nave, Helga Heirs, Mary Gault and Fanetta Stahlin attended a dutch treat report luncheon in Fort Myers to report that the Sanibel-Captiva United Fund Drive Campaign is well underway, with $700 collected by last week. The goal this year is $2,100; the amount collected last year was $1,796.

The United Fund supports a number of worthy organizations in Lee County, and you are urged to support the drive and your community. If you are not called upon, you may send your check to any of the above campaign workers.

THRIFT SHOP TO OPEN SOON

The Thrift Shop, sponsored by St. Michael's and All Angels, will open for the season next Thursday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in Town Square on Sanibel. There are lots of goodies --- new and slightly used clothes for men, women and children,
bathing suits, coats, sweaters, shoes, curtains, bedspreads and jewelry. Do stop by and buy!

Who's Who on Sanibel

Mr. & Mrs. H.A. ROMINE, who have a home near the "Rocks" are having a wonderful visit with their guests, Mr. & Mrs. RAYMOND HATTOM, of Miami.

DOC PICKENS informs us that he has received his commission as a notary public, and that his services are now available to the public at the office of Sanibel-Captiva Real Estate in Town Square.

Mr. & Mrs. BEN DEAN of Cohasset, Mass., have arrived to take up winter residence in the cottage they bought last winter at Shell Basket.

Mrs. MIKE McQUADE will be spending a week in Miami as a guest of DOTTI BOOKER.

Mr. & Mrs. DONALD SIMONS are due to arrive tomorrow from their summer place in Michigan.

Mr. & Mrs. C.V. PATTERSON are scheduled to arrive on the Islands the same day--also from Michigan.

Mr. & Mrs. ERNEST JORDON of Murfreesboro, Tenn., are back at Sea Horse Cottages for a short stay after an absence of several years.

Miss MARGARET DUNNAN of Canada is also spending a few weeks at the Sea Horse Cottages. This is her third visit to the Islands.

Mr. & Mrs. FLOYD PFOUGH of Sanibel Cottages are back on the Islands after a northern visit. They spent five days touring the World's Fair, and found that if they got up very early, they could get in line early enough to see most of the exhibits. Blanche said it was wonderful, and Floyd asked us if we'd heard of the World's Fair Doll---you wind it up and it stands in line.

About thirty members of the Broward County Shell Club arrived at Betty's Hawaiian Village last weekend for two days and a night of shelling on the mud flats---and did very well, we hear, bringing in a 15 inch live bumpless wonder, angel wings, huge star fish, live fighting conchs and live welkes up to about 12 inches, two telladora christada and lots of live miniatures. One of the members, Mr. ENGLS, took pictures of angel wings in shallow water, and members of the club shelling to show at their next club meeting.

The club members' visit was sparked by a desire to see Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES SAXER of Fort Lauderdale, who are also members of the club and spend the month of October every year at Betty's. Mrs. Saxer, by the way, is the happy possessor of an albino apple murex which she found live during her stay.

Other guests of Betty's are Mr. & Mrs. FRANK FLANDREAUZ of Miami who took great delight in fishing. He caught three snook in one day--the very first he's ever caught. He's 75, and Mrs. F. is 72--and they're still honeymooning, we're told.

COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION CANCELS MEETING

The Sanibel Community Association will not hold its regular meeting November 3rd because of the general election. A meeting and covered dish supper will be held instead on November 10 at 6:30 P.M.

(ED: NOTE: and while we're thinking about elections, we hope every citizen will get out and vote. If you don't vote, you have no right to complain about your government!)

WOLCOTT - BRAUNER

The Rev. TAD ALLEN married BEVERLY WOLCOTT and ERIK BRAUNER, both of Bradenton, in the Community Church Sunday, Oct. 18, at 6 P.M. The honeymooners, who arrived on the Islands late Sunday morning, stayed at South Seas Plantation until Tuesday. Mr. Brauner is manager of the Bradenton Country Club.

The wedding couple was accompanied by two couples, DOROTHY and KEN RICH of Long Boat Key, and AUDREY and GEORGE DOLAN of St. Armand's Key, where Mr. Dolan owns the Colony Lounge and Restaurant.

WINNERS (WHEE)

Miss EDITH MUGRIDGE of Glory of the Sea won the patio set at last Saturday night's drawing at the Sanibel Service Station, and Mrs. JOHN ENGLE of Engle's Cottages on Captiva won the bicycle. No purchase was necessary, just registration at the station. (And where were you?) Congratulations!

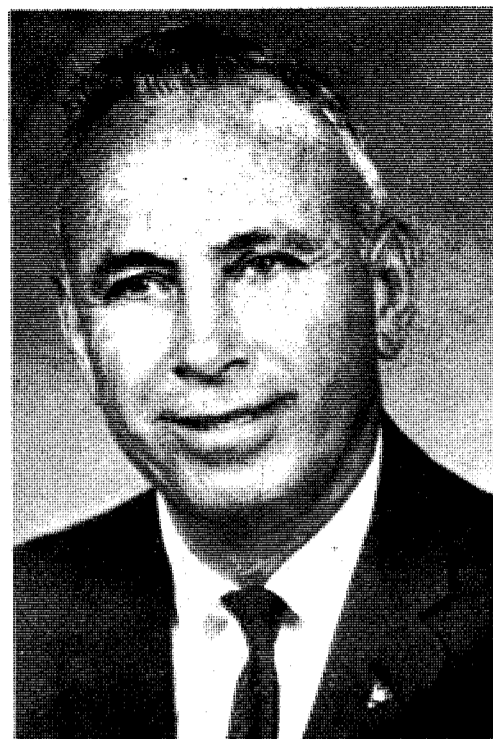

PARTY FOR VIVIAN

Close friends of Mrs. DICK KEARNS gathered last weekend at ELISE FULLER'S home for a Bon Voyage Tea for VIVIAN, who left the Islands with her daughter, LAURE, to take care of her mother in Georgia. The hostesses of the party were Mrs. FULLER and Mrs. JOE GAULT. Those attending were FANETTA STAHLIN, BELA KONTINOS, MARY ALECK, GOLDIE NAVE, DAISEY MAYER, ETHYL SNYDER, ELLIE DORMER, JEAN JACK, PHOEBE HAYNIE, JO PICKENS, BETTY SEARS, EVELYN PEARSON, BARBARA BILLHEIMER, EDIE LEVY, ADDIE HOLMES, HELEN FRIDAY, SYLVIA STRONG, and MILBREY RUSHWORTH.

NOW - after being out of print and unavailable except in private libraries - 12 outstanding books on Florida history have been facsimile-reproduced and are again available to everyone.

The set of 12 classics in this series on Florida history was produced under the direction of the eminent historian Rembert W. Patrick, general editor, and a staff of prominent scholars and public figures.

The twelve volumes have been faithfully reproduced in all particulars, including the original illustrations. To each volume has been added an introduction by a noted historian, and each volume is beautifully bound and cased in a prestige binding.

The Quadricentennial Edition unfolds the brilliant panorama of Florida's past -- from the founding of St. Augustine in 1565, through the War of 1812, the purchase of Florida, the Seminole Wars, the War Between the States, Reconstruction, Florida of the 1880's, the spectacular land boom of the 1920's - definitely a treasure for any library - public or private.

DO YOU KNOW -- the whole county votes for all County Commissioners regardless of district, and you can vote a straight or split ballot no matter how you are registered?

I am seeking the office of County Commissioner solely in the interest of better government. My qualifications are -- born in Oxford Miss. in 1915, raised in Memphis, Tenn., educated in advertising in Chicago, Ill., own business for 25 years. Now semi-retired, home at Fort Myers Beach. I know Lee County well, 5 years in business here. I am not in the employ of a land developer and will not sanction the appointment of a land developer to the County Zoning Board because I believe this would cause a conflict of interest. The County must be administered for the benefit of all the people and not for special interest groups.

REMEMBER, you, the taxpayer, foot the bill with your tax dollars, you pay the Commissioner's salaries and are entitled to fair and impartial administration and treatment. It is my belief that you in District #2 have a good Commissioner in Mr. P.A. Geraci as the last two years have proved, but there are many in District #3 who do not feel that our Commissioner, Herman Hastings, should be returned to office.

Being semi-retired, I can and will devote as much time as it takes to do the job well. I will give of my time, talent and personal interest for the full elected term. Your Vote Is Important!

Who's Who on Captiva

More of our Captivites returned from the "outside" this past week.

Mr. & Mrs. AUDENRIED WHITTEMORE were not only welcomed by their many friends, but by the animal kingdom as well. Peaches, Dodie Booth's dog, was sleeping quietly when all of a sudden she began wailing and carrying on and wanted to get out of the house. When the door was opened, she made a bee-line to the Post Office, where Mr. Whittemore (who has been gone for over five months) was picking up his mail for the first time!

Mrs. MARY PEAVER had the good fortune of having her daughter, Mrs. FREDRICK TODD, of Cornwell, N.Y., drive her to the Islands. Mrs. Todd will stay with her mother for a few weeks before returning North.

Mr. & Mrs. ALLEN WEEKS spent seven weeks in North Carolina on Lake Lure. They told us that in spite of the five weeks of rain, they enjoyed every minute of the vacation, but, like ALL Islanders, were glad to be back home.

Mr. & Mrs. HARVEY MEYER (nee Mrs. MAUD NICKERSON), after traveling half way around the United States, settled in their Nashville, Tenn. home for seven weeks before returning to their Captiva Home. While in Nashville, many parties were given for the newlyweds, but there was one very big one that stood out. Given by Mr. & Mrs. HAROLD REED (Vice-President of the University of Tenn.) and Mr. & Mrs. WILEY THOMAS (with the University's Engineering Program), the party was attended by members of the University with the exception of Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT CHAPMAN and Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE CALDWELL, winter Captiva residents.

Another highlight the couple enjoyed was a meal at the Apple Tree Inn in Pigeon Forge, Tenn. This restaurant is owned and operated by the BUNTINGS, who give Tween Waters Inn guests such good dining pleasure during the winter months.

Mr. & Mrs. J.S. ROBERT of Center Moriches, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE SABIEL of Mt. Gretna, Penn.; and Dr. & Mrs. HERBERT MALONE of Nilford, Mich., are all back in their Captiva hideaways.

Col. & Mrs. A.C. LEHMAN of Ridge Manor, Florida, are back for another week of shelling and fishing. This is their fourth visit to Mid-Island Cottages. They, like many others, say, "Being on Captiva is like being in a nicer and different country."

Other guests at Mid-Island are Mr. & Mrs. TOM KAMPMANN of Miami. Mr. Kampmann's work takes him to many islands in the Caribbean and he has just returned from Honduras, Central America -- BUT it was to Captiva that he rushed with his wife, MAE, when he returned to the United States.

Mr. & Mrs. DUDLEY HARTMAN are enjoying a few days on Captiva as guests of their long time friends, Mr. & Mrs. H.K. JEREMIASSEN.

Mr. & Mrs. RICHARD VIESSELMAN of Grafton, Wisc. just arrived on Palm Avenue to spend the remainder of their honeymoon holiday in one of the Blank Cottages. Mrs. Blank is the aunt of the groom. They have found the Islands so beautiful they regret not having come immediately to "this enchanting locality."

Mr. & Mrs. THATCHER ADAMS are enjoying the company of their son's mother-in-law, Mrs. ARNOLD LOVE and her friend, Mrs. LEONA LOVE, who are from Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Another friend and summer time golfing partner, Mrs. GENE PRIDE of Tampa and Gilford, Maine, accompanied them.

A new neighbor on Palm Avenue is Mrs. CLARENCE WAKEFIELD, mother of JOHN WAKEFIELD of Tween Waters. She is occupying the house that the BECKERS lived in last season. Welcome.

Mrs. DOROTHY WAKEFIELD has brought daughter MICKY back from Twin Hills Farm in Bristol, Tenn., to begin school and then returned to Bristol to bring her mother, Mrs. BOWMAN PRICE, back to Captiva.

It will please all of Mr. J.C. McCALL's friends to hear that he is now back in his Captiva home. His wife, BERNICE, says that his rapid recovery from the operation is "nothing short of a miracle."

Welcome home, Mac, but PLEASE take it easy for awhile.

OLD HOME WEEK

Mr. & Mrs. E. BUTTERFIELD had an interesting story to tell us upon their return from the cool weather area.

Their is a rather famous and quaint church in Canaan, New Hampshire, that holds a service just once a year. To the residents of that area who make their winter homes on Captiva, it was like being back here.

Dr. MORGAN NOYES preached the sermon. TONY CONZELMAN sang the solos while in the congregation sat Mr. & Mrs. TOM FRAZIER, Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE THYER, Mrs. KAY WOOD, Mrs. J. KIRKPATRICK, Mrs. SAMUEL BENNETT, Mrs. DASCOMB FORBUSH and the Butterfields -- all Captiva residents. After the service, Mrs. Forbush entertained them all at a most delicious buffet dinner.

Who's Who on Sanibel

Mr. & Mrs. ROLY FRENETTE of the Beachcomber returned to the Islands late Saturday night after attending a four day convention of the Motel Industry of Florida held last week in Tampa. Mr Frenette was elected a director of the Motel Industry of Florida and a vice president of the Beach and Resort Motel Section. Congratulations!

Mrs. FRENETTE, by the way, reports that daughter PAT, who took off last winter determined to work her way around the world, has finally left Australia, and is now recuperating from a broken leg in Queenstown, New Zealand. It's winter there, and Pat, who said the snow is simply perfect, took a header while skiing. She plans to stay in New Zealand for a few months.

Mr. & Mrs. FORD PARK of Hamburg, New York, who bought the KNEBLE home in Tradewinds, returned to Sanibel last weekend for the season.

TOMMY WOOD and his wife recently stayed at the Reef after one of his pro golf tournaments and are enjoying the relaxation of Sanibel before going on to Orlando and more golf.

BETTY MUENCH of Syracuse, New York, has joined her husband, AL, at the Periwinkle Way Trailer Park, and brought their two youngest children, MARK and MISSIE, with her. Both are enrolled in the Sanibel Elementary School.

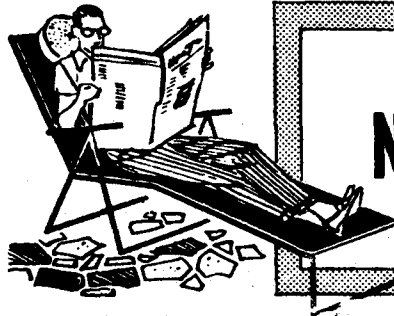

PETER HIONES, the English boy sponsored by the GAULTS, who is now working with R.C.A. as an Electrical Draftsman, in West Palm Beach arrived on the Islands yesterday with his mother and two brothers for a visit with MARY and JOE GAULT.

Three of the men from the Sanibel Catholic Church, KEN WALTERS, MARSHALL TABACCHI and BOB DORMER, recently attended a retreat at the Our Lady of Florida Monastery in Lake Park, Florida.

MARY and ROSS PURDY have been "motel-sitting" with the Reef while the CUSCADENS have been visiting family and friends in Illinois and Ohio. The Cuscadens were due back on the Islands yesterday.

Mr. & Mrs. OTTO JONES of Tradewinds are back in their island home after spending the summer in Connecticut.
