$25,000 IN YOUR COOKIE JAR?

Now if you have been wondering what to do with that spare pin money in the cookie jar, or if you are tired of dusting the stuff, or even if you need the space for something valuable, why not let the money work for you?

Of course the way the old man plays poker, and junior's appetite for bubble gum may have depleted this fund somewhat. But did you know that $25,000 invested at 6% for only six months would return you a profit of $75,000?

There is of course a much more simple way of saving $75,000. How? Why sign your Membership application to the Island Water Association, today! You can become a paid up member for only $108. After March you will need to pay $183. You have saved yourself a quick $75 and you still have all that money in the cookie jar.

DEAR FRIENDS:

We would like to invite you to stop by and meet the new owner of the B-Hive.

Mr. Arthur E. Orloff of Stanford, Conn. has advised us that the operation of the B-Hive will remain as it has in the past.

We have appreciated your business but more than that we have thoroughly enjoyed your acceptance and friendliness.

We sincerely hope you will extend the same courtesies and kindnesses to Mr. Orloff.

Who's Who on Sanibel

This happy group is composed of people attending the 5th Annual Winter Institute in Quantum Chemistry, Solid-State Physics and Quantum Biology, held each year at Casa Ybel on Sanibel Island. Dr. Darwin Smith, who is assisting the institute's director, Dr. Per-Olov Lowdin, with the arrangements, said that Sanibel had originally been picked for the institute's meeting "because its semi-isolation makes an ideal location for an intensive institute without the distractions of a big city."

Well it DID happen! Bailey's store ran out of bananas. So the Bake Shop could not make banana bread. Yes, we have no bananas was only too true. But a cargo of bananas was received from Central America. Bailey's got a bunch, the shop got a dozen and we got our loaf --- of banana bread! UHM!

(Editors note: we would like to point out for those who perhaps have never been in the Island Bake Shop that JACK VAN BELL & DORIS PLOESSER also turn out delicious oatmeal, white, wholewheat, pecan, etc. breads, as well as gingerbread, pies, cookies and cakes of all discriptions.)

There was a dinner party at Nutmeg House last Wednesday night attended by Mr. and Mrs. NORMAN CHAMBERS, Mrs. PRISCILLA MURPHY, Mr. and Mrs. AL MUENCH, BILL SHANNON, SCOTTIE CLARKE, Admiral and Mrs. E.G. CONRAD and ROY BAZAIRE.

GUEST PREACHER AT COMMUNITY CHURCH

The Rev. H.E. Sheely, Pastor of the Trinity United Church of Christ of Hanover, Pa., will be the guest preacher at the Sanibel Community Church this Sunday, Jan. 17. His sermon's title is "Stir What You've Got."

Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT F. EGGER, and their two sons, NICHOLAS and CASPER, are spending a holiday on Sanibel at Island Inn. Mr. Egger, who has a law degree, is originally from Switzerland, but now lives in Philadelphia, where he is attending the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Egger has worked at the Aqua Chem Company in Wisconsin, where the process for converting salt water into fresh has been developed. The company, in addition to making large water converters, has also developed a small one which would be suitable for household use.

The Navy has installed four of the units on the "U.S.S. Enterprise," one of our new carriers. The United States has already used the water converters profitably in two dramatic instances. The first was when Castro cut off the water supply to our base at Guantanamo and all water had to be shipped in by boat. The units were quickly installed and now Guantanamo has all the fresh water it needs --- converted from the sea.

The second instance took place during the tragic earthquake in Alaska, which, besides destroying lives, homes, and property broke the water supply pipes to Point Barrow, our military base nearest Russia. During the winter it would have been impossible to ship in the water needed, so the water converter units were installed and are now producing 300,000 gallons a day.

Mrs. H.R. STEVENSON of Bay Colony, Palmetto, Florida, was the house guest of the CECIL HUDSONS at their Gulf-side cottage over the Christmas holidays.

So crowded with merchandize, a visit is a lesson in bundling. At end of causeway turn right. Go 2.6 miles.

Some very exciting news. It really is fantastic but fortunately true.

RUTH and PHILIP HUNTER of Port Washington have bought the old school house and grounds on the main road and are transforming it into a real LITTLE THEATRE. So if you see unusual activities going on at that spot you will know what is cooking. Stop and ask questions if you want to know more. This is quite exciting and we will keep you informed of what is happening and about to happen. Both Islands are solidly behind this project.

Priscilla Murphy and Betty Muench have charge of the Driftwood Shop at the coming Sanibel Shell Fair. They welcome all and any contributions, both articles and in person help. Get in touch with either or bring your contribution early.

MARY ALECK is pleased to announce that her assistant, ELNA ANDERSEN, arrived last weekend and started to work on Monday at the beauty shop. Welcome back!

ISLANDERS URGED TO JOIN WATER ASSOCIATION

Now that the greater Pine Island Water Association has reached (and, in fact, passed) its required 800 membership quota assuring the Pine Island residents of the construction of their water project, the commissioners of the Island Water Association, Inc., of Sanibel and Captiva Islands are confident that the Islands too can secure the necessary 600 subscribers enabling the Islands to also have a fresh water supply.

Since the holidays are now over and everyone has relaxed a little, residents, homeowners and developers will be contacted by teams of unpaid solicitors, who will explain the advantages to be gained by participation in the proposed water system.

Good water is becoming a major problem in the fast-expanding community of Sanibel and Captiva, and all residents are urged to give this problem careful consideration. The community's present water supply cannot improve, and a new supply must be found somewhere.

The association, believing that the proposed water system is the best answer, has opened a temporary office in the Sanibel Community House. The office is manned by Pat Murphy from 8:30 to 4:30 five days a week, who will be delighted to give you any information you wish and will also process your application for membership. If you are not contacted by the solicitors and, for one reason or another, can't come into the Community House, or if you do not at this time wish to apply for membership, you are urged to call GR 2-4981. Act quickly---March 1 is the deadline.

TEEN CLUB CORNER

by viki way

The teenagers on the Island have received several letters from the kids that were here over the Christmas holiday. They are all complaining about the cold weather up there and wishing they were still here frolicing on our sunny beaches.

There is a group of teenagers who enjoy going to town once a week, skating at Elm's Skateland. This week the group making the outing, consisted of DEBBIE & MARK McQUADE, SUSIE AMON, TIM GAULT, MIKE & BOB DORMER, and PAM HOLTZMAN, accompanied by Mrs. Dormer. After the skating party, everyone went to McDonalds Drive-In.

Who knows, one of these days we may have a band, made up of Island teenagers. CHUCK NAVE took guitar lessons all last summer, but had to give them up during the school season because of his football and basketball practice. TIM GAULT has been taking drum lessons for about six months at Hup's House of Music. As an early Christmas present, Tim Received a set of drums, and he is doing very well on them. LARRY AMON used to take organ lessons from Father Madden, and also does very well on the piano.

If any one has any teenage news I would appreciate it if you would call GR 24875 or write to Viki Way, Sanibel Island, Florida.

HENRY NEILSEN of Irvington, New Jersey, is back at Andy's Cottages for his seventh straight year.

Mr. and Mrs. NELSON H. BOGIE arrived the 2nd to spend the fourth winter in their home on Coral Way, Mr. Bogie, after having owned and operated a quarry in Kentucky and Tenn., sold out five years ago and retired. Their home is near Gilbertsville on Kentucky Lake. Mr. Bogie crushed much of the rock used by T.V.A. which is building one of the largest recreation areas in the U.S. The land lies between Lake Barkley, named for ex-vice president Barkley, and Kentucky Lake.

Visitors following the trail of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson H. Bogie for a Captiva repose were Mr. and Mrs. DOUGLAS HAYES of Parson, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN G. SPARKES of Boonton township, New Jersey, who have recently purchased one of PAUL EVERETT'S houses on the Bay, stumbled onto this beautiful Island a year ago when they arrived in Fort Myers and quite by chance saw the Sanibel-Captiva sign. Mrs. Sparkes recalled having read something of these famous Islands and insisted they follow the Royal-Palm-studded McGregor Blvd. which brought them eventually to Castaways. Here they stayed for two weeks, until one day John Sparkes came in from his daily walk seemingly very excited, saying he had found his bit of Hawaii. Mr. Sparkes has a nursery and is a landscape contractor in their old home town. With the Sparkes are their three children.

Mrs. J. GORDEN SPARKES of Mountain Lakes, New Jersey, the mother of John Sparkes, accompanied them and is staying in the upstairs apartment of Mrs. GLADYS PLUMES' home on Munson.

Mrs. HARVEY MEYER has just sent word that the Captiva Civic Association will have its annual meeting at the Captiva Community Center at 8:00p.m. January 21. All members are expected to attend and to be prepared to pay their yearly dues of $3.00.

Mrs. ANDY ROSSE has just received a letter from EARL J. EDDY, who was a contractor on the Islands for many years. He is now in Bay Pines Veteran Hospital. For friends who would like to send him words of encouragement his address is: Ward 136 No., V.A. Center, Bay Pines, Florida.

While speaking of Mrs. ANDY ROSSE, (DESSA to all) this week, while feeling very courageous, she asked Dr. H. HINDMAN if he would pull a tooth for her. Dr. Hindman returned home for his equipment, but forgot the novocain. Dessa, fearful that she would lose courage should Dr. leave the second time, asked that he pull it right then, which he did, and before Dr. Hindman had a chance to lose his grip on the pinchers Dessa had ordered another pulled. It is natural that after pulling the second, the Dr. thought now that is over and all is well, but not according to Dessa. She still had another tooth that was doing her no good, or so she thought, and in spite of Dr. Hindman's persuasion it would be hard to pull, Dessa persisted, so out came the other tooth. Now, thought Dessa "with just one left to go, what have I got to lose" so out came number four. Our hats off to both the Dr. and patient.

January days on Captiva Island. The Walters are staying in Dr. and Mrs. E.L. MONTGOMERY'S home on Palm Avenue. The Rev. Walters for the past three years has been pastor or the Presbyterian Church of Circleville where the Montgomerys are also members.

Mr. and Mrs. CHETWOOD ELLIOTT of Chestertown, Maryland, who have been visitors to the Islands for the past six years, are now spending their seventh year in the Adams' "El Cojan" cottage on Palm Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. DALE H. CHAMBERLAIN of Forest Hills, New York, who have just returned from Okinawa, where he was a civilian technician, are also with the Jeremiassens who own and operate the Captiva Beach Motel Apartments.

Mr. H.A. VROOMAN had an interesting story to tell this week about his daughter, Mrs. CHERRY ROMERO and her guests, TOM OSCHWALD, and his mother, who were visiting from Tampa. While on the Gulf they not only saw but conquered a six foot octopus. There was quite a wrestling match before they finally got it into a bucket as Mr. Octopus attached himself to their arms and legs. He is now on the way to Tampa to be placed in the hands of a scientific group.

The Rev. and Mrs. HENRY WALTERS of Circleville, Ohio, are enjoying these beautiful

Mr. and Mrs. TED FONDA of Novelty, Ohio, who for nine years made their winter home in one of Jeremiassens' cottages, have now purchased their own home on Coral Way and have just returned to spend their first season in it. Mr. Fonda is in the water softener business and although he has not officially retired, is enjoying the winter months on this beautiful Island paradise. They spent Christmas with son ALBERT and his wife JEAN in Alexandria, Virginia, where they relived the trip through the viewing of slides that Albert and Jean had just viewed, for real, on their trip through Europe.

The news is out, but the opportunity to say congratulations to KARL and MARY LEE WIGHTMAN cannot be passed up. ERIC KARL came "bouncing in" Jan. 4th at eight pounds six ounces. SANDRA, the Wightmans' first born, now two years, three months, was a sweet attraction at the Christmas Party in her red dress.

Mrs. KINCAID, who has been spending a couple of weeks at Sea Horse, South Seas Plantation, with General LESLIE KINCAID, is returning to New York City today.

Mrs. C.O. HENRIKSON of Lake Zurich, Illinois, has returned to her Captiva home. Her son, EDWARD, who attends K.M.I. in Venice, Florida, was here for the Christmas holidays. Accompanying Mrs. Henrikson from Illinois was her father, JOHN MATTSON of Downers Grove, Illinois. Mr. Mattson will remain with his daughter for the winter.

Mr. & Mrs. EMRICH GALE of Arlington, Virginia, who are staying at Mid-Island Cottages for three weeks, have been talking of the days when Mrs. ALVIN BLAND and Mrs. CARL EARLER owned and operated the Gulfview restaurant. "What meals," they exclaimed. Mr. Gale is with the Department of Army in Washington, D.C. in the Comptroller's Office of the U.S. Army.

Mr. & Mrs. LEON BARD of Newburgh, New York, have returned for their 13th year to Captiva Beach Motel Apartments. Mr. Bard is a General Motors man and has a Chevrolet agency.

CAPTIVA LIBRARY NOTES

Mrs. Parker Mills, chairman of Captiva Library Association says, "Do you know that ---???"

Library hours are Tuesdays and Fridays - 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

The library at the Captiva Community Center, which is only three years old, started with two sections of shelves, designed, donated and built by Mr. Audenreid Whittemore assisted by Mr. Darnard Miller. (We now have ten sections and need more.)

An Islander came by with an armful of books "to help fill up those empty shelves."

Many more kind Islanders and visitors have donated books and we have been told that our nearly 1300 titles present a "remarkable selection for such a small library."

The library services are free, but if you wish to become a FRIEND OF THE LIBRARY you may do so by donating a dollar (or more) a year which will be used for incidental expenses.

While we are now an "area" member of the Lee County Public Library system WHERE we can purchase a few books, we still depend upon YOU to continue to donate books which you think will be of interest to others.

Mrs. Roger Amory, whose BOOK BOAT will NOT visit Captiva this year, has given us over 100 volumes -- duplicates from her BOOK BOAT and the Johann Fust Community Library in Boca Grande.

MORE FACTS NEXT WEEK.

SANIBEL LIBRARY NOTES

Who's Who on Sanibel

Col JAMES WILB SNYDER (retired) formerly of Chevy Chase, Maryland, has arrived on Sanibel to make it his home. Years ago when staying at Beach House, he had bought a lot across from Hurricane House on Gulf Drive and is now going to build the cottage of his dreams. He has sold his home in Maryland so there is no going back. Not that he wants to.

This is good news to his many friends, who welcome him with open arms into our family of Islanders.

Col. Snyder has had years of service abroad, and has lived and traveled in many countries—Africa, Australia, New Zealand, South America, Greece, India, the Middle East, Europe and the Caribbean.

His professional background is extensive—from Cambridge University, England, American University of Beirut, Lebanon, Registrar at Athens College, Athens, Greece. His military service is also extensive, from Colonel USAF (retired) to Chief, Periodic Intelligence, HQ 10th US Air Force, India. His decorations include the Bronze Star; Commendation with Oak Leaf Cluster; Theatre medals for American, European-African, and Far East-Pacific with battle star.

Col. Snyder at present is serving as U.S Government Consultant Director, Program on Intelligence Research and Analysis, American University, Washington.

Col. Snyder has a son, JAMIE, who was graduated from Peddie School last June and is working with ABC in New York before resuming his studies at the University of Pittsburgh next fall.

His daughter, SALLIE, a minor celebrity in her own right, is a graduate of Mt. Vernon Seminary in Washington and Bucknell University. She also holds a degree from Columbia University and an R.N. from the College of Physicians and Surgeons. She is married to DANIEL RUSINKO, an economist for the Port of New York Authority. Although they own land on one of the Caribbean Islands they are just waiting for Mr. Snyder to build his house on Sanibel, which will include a Rusinko Apartment. They have two children and are about to make Col. Snyder a grandpa for the third time. Sallie will be featured in an article in the March issue of HAIR DO magazine.

HELEN PLOESSER'S birthday was celebrated with a dinner party at the Nutmeg House last Friday. HAL and JOYCE IRWIN were host and hostess. The guests were the Rev. and Mrs. TAD ALLEN, Mr. and Mrs. FRED KENKL, Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM NEWMAN, LEROY and HELEN FRIDAY, Mrs. LINDA DIERBERG of St. Louis, JACK VAN BELL, and DORIS PLOESSER.

Everyone brought a gift and all wrote poems to accompany their gift. It is a birthday Helen will never forget!

Miss LAURIE KEARNS talked to her grandparents, the PAUL KEARNS at Hurricane House, over long distance from Atlanta, Georgia recently. It took her 15 minutes for her to give them all the details of the big step in her life—she entered kindergarten on the first Monday in January. Edna and Paul were, of course, properly impressed.

Laurie and her mother, VIVIAN KEARNS, are staying in Atlanta with Vivian's mother, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. BENJAMIN BRUSH of New Rochelle, New York, arrived Tuesday for a two month stay on Sanibel. They will be at Oster's Cottages as always. Mr. Brush is secretary to the 1912 Princeton Class, and very active in that capacity, remembering birthdays, etc. of the class.

NOTE TO MUSIC LOVERS

The Ohio State University Woodwind Quintet, sponsored by the Fort Myers Symphony Orchestra, will present three concerts on Monday, Jan. 18, before Sanibel-Captiva audiences.

At 1 p.m. they will give a free children's concert at Sanibel Elementary School, and at 2 p.m. they will appear before scientists attending the 5th winter institute at Casa Ybel. A public concert at 8 p.m. in the Captiva Community Center, for which an admission charge of $1.00 will be made, will be their final appearance on the Islands.

Composed of Ohio State faculty members, the Quintet includes: William Baker, oboe; William K. Kearns, French horn; Donald E. McGinnis, flute; Robert Titus, clarinet; and George H. Wilson, bassoon.

Each a recognized soloist on his instrument, the five artists perform as a chamber music group three times a year on the Columbus campus and frequently in high school and community concerts in Ohio. Dr. McGinnis, who was principal flutist with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra for ten years, is a nationally known clinician for the clarinet. Dr. Titus is a foremost expert in woodwind literature in the U.S.

The Quintet will be the guests of honor at a cocktail party given by Mrs. Robert Haynie of Gulf Drive on Sanibel after their Casa Ybel appearance, and will later be dinner guests of John Wakefield at Tween Waters Inn on Captiva.

SHELLS NEEDED FOR TABLE

Eddie Mugridge of Glory of the Sea is donating the shell table this year which some lucky person will win during the Shell Fair.

Eddie is asking for private collectors and all shops who wish to participate in filling the table to bring perfect specimen shells to her as soon as possible. The maple table is 4 inches deep and measures 18 by 30 inches, so the shells may range in size from miniatures to just under four inches high. She said that there will be a list of shell donors in the table this year, and asks that all contributors please have proper identification and where and when the shell was found written out. Any Florida shell is eligible to be in the shell table.

The shells should be brought into Glory of the Sea just as soon as possible, so that the table may go on display.
