FIRST PLAY IN NEW THEATER OPENS

"The Reluctant Debutante" played to packed houses last weekend when the Pirate Playhouse opened its doors for the first time. Both performances had been sold out for weeks, but tickets are on sale for a performance April 10 and another during Easter week on Saturday, April 24.

The Hunters came to the Islands from their Towndock Theater in Port Washington, New York, where, during the last ten years, they produced ninety plays in a unique arena theater. Before their many years of broadcasting their own show, "Let's Go" on WOR Radio for the Port of New York Authority, they appeared in stock, vaudeville and on Broadway. Ruth Hunter is the original Ellie May of "Tobacco Road" and played the part 2,013 times in New York. She tells about her experience in a new book being published this May by Exposition press, N.Y., titled "Barefoot Girl on Broadway" with a foreword by Carl Sandburg. Scribners published some of her earlier books, "Come Back on Tuesday," and "It Fell Upon a Day."

The Hunters are very proud of their Reluctant Debutante cast, who are all Island residents---Jerry Muench, Roy Bazire, Priscilla Murphy, Bob Dormer, and Jane Hines. They're also delighted with the enthusiasm expressed for their Pirate Playhouse and look forward to many seasons of good theater here.

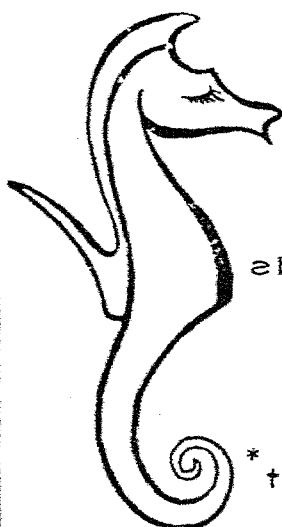

And, in turn, Island residents and visitors seem elated over the decor, lighting, stage setting, seating arrangement and acoustics---and are proud that the historic old school house is being used for such a fine cause and is in such good hands.

Who's Who on Sanibel

Dr. and Mrs. CARL F. CORI of St. Louis are visiting the Islands and staying at "Segunda," the former home of the WILLIAM POWELLS which was later purchased by the KIWITTS. Dr. Cori is a Nobel Prize winner and on the faculty of Washington University in St. Louis.

They will soon be joined by Mrs. Cori's brother and his wife, the CLARKE BATTLE FITZGERALDS of Castine, Maine. Mr. Fitzgerald is a sculptor.

Mr. & Mrs. GUYO OBATA, also of St. Louis, are guests at Tangelo Cottage at the Colony. Mr. Obata is one of the country's outstanding architects of the St. Louis firm, Helmuth, Obata and Kassabaum. Mrs. Obata is an accomplished weaver.

Mrs. EVA HAWES of Briarcliff Manor, New York, has arrived by air taxi for her annual winter vacation at Island Inn. Mrs. Hawes is an interior decorator of note in New York.

FRANK HOLLINRAKE, a Master at Ridley's College, St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada, arrived today to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. ALLEN HOLLINRAKE at Casa Ybel. This is his first trip to the Islands and he'll be here for twelve days to soak up the sun after a miserable winter up north. He is a swimming instructor at Ridley's so he'll probably be in the pool and Gulf all the time --- unless the shelling bug hits him, which it very well might, as he has never shelled before.

Mr. and Mrs. BRIAN B. KANE of Chestertown, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. RALPH N. SHAW of Beverly, New Jersey, and Major and Mrs. ROBERT T. SCOTT, who are stationed in Weisbaden, Germany, with the Air Force, were hosts at a cocktail party last Friday at Island Inn.

PRISCILLA MURPHY entertained at a birthday dinner party for CLARENCE RUTLAND and RUTH HUNTER. Other guests were PHILLIP HUNTER, PEGGY MALONEY, ANN JORDAN and SCOTTIE CLARK. The dinner was given at Priscilla's home.

ROSS M. PURDY

Ross Meier Purdy died last Thursday at the age of 59. A resident of Sanibel for the past two years and a Sanibel post office employee, he and Mrs. Purdy moved here when he retired as Credit Manager of Shelby Business Forms in Shelby, Ohio. He had been with the firm 35 years.

He was a member of the Royal Post 2444, V.F.W., Adjutant of the Sanibel-Captiva Post 123 American Legion, member of the Shelby Lodge 250 F & M in Ohio, and a trustee of the Sanibel Community Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary C. Purdy of Sanibel, his mother, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services and interment took place in Shelby.

THE ROCKS

by ethel snyder
Recently a newly arrived couple to the Island were spending an evening with me. They enthusiastically informed me that they had just bought a site at "The Rocks" where they were planning on building a home. Just lately some others had told me they were going to build at The Rocks. Then afterwards I wondered if these precious folks who love our Island really knew what The Rocks were and why that section got that name. It didn't just happen!

When I first arrived on the Island there were less than fifty registered voters, no motels, only Casa Ybel, Island Inn, a few cottages and Bailey's of course. But the gorgeous beach has changed not at all, and shelling was always our best outdoor sport. We shelled from the light house beach on the Gulf side to The Rocks. Not all the same day however! That's a long stretch. The latter was quite a way west of Island Inn. The only way you could get there was a trail along the beach winding and twisting through a tropical jungle, deep sand and it was narrow. There were two or three places where you could pass another car by pulling over and waiting until it had passed. More than a mile up the beach there was a wide road which made a left turn to the top of the beach. It was very high here, more than 20 feet above the water line and at low tide great slabs and mounds of coral rocks were exposed. No loose rocks only a solid mass. It was extensive, reddish brown in color and slippery with sea moss. It was full of indentations and a fasinating place to study live sea life. All sorts of tiny sea creatures alive and swimming were trapped in these pockets of sea water.

This was on top of The Rocks! Tiny crabs, tiny star fish, odd little lacey bits with fins, small pectens which opened and shut their valves with a delicate snap. It was amazing and fascinating and no doubt all that is still going on at The Rocks. I suspect it is. For some years now the trail and the turn have been closed to me, but I have vivid memories! So that is the reason why this section is called "The Rocks!"

FREDERICK W. DAUB

Word has been received from Vermillion, Ohio, that Frederick W. Daub, a frequent visitor to Hiers by the Sea Cottages, Sanibel, passed away in his home in March. He will be sorely missed and their friends hope that Mrs. Daub will return to the Island.

Who's Who on Captiva

Mrs. DAN C. MILLS and RICKY, 8, arrived Sunday the 21st from Milwaukee to spend some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. HERVEY ROBERTS.

Mrs. BELDEN JOHNSON, who has meant so much to the people of both Islands, has asked to have this letter published: I wish to thank each one on the two Islands for your concern, prayers, visits, flowers and cards during my visit to the hospital last week. The appreciation is too deep to be expressed, but is and always will be a living part of me.

"It means so much to me to be united with the Christian people of the Islands before God in prayer, and the love and concern that caused you to do so. To share this deep emotion with you as well as the benefit of the prayer is wonderful to me.

"Through the medium of this paper, I can thank those of you of whom I'm not aware, who prayed for me, and tell you that as a child of God, I have asked Him to bestow a special blessing upon each of you. I covet your prayers during these days and the operation which is coming up May 7 (the Lord willing) and the days following. I ask prayers not because of fear, but because of faith. God has been and is good to me.

"I am sure God received pleasure in seeing His children united and loving one another in a world where there is so much violence and disunity. After all, when we think of standing before Him, our greatest desire is to be pleasing in His sight, because He has loved us and we love Him.

"With the Shepherd, the visits, the cards, the flowers and the lovely people I met, brightened 'The valley of the shadows.'

"Again thank you and may you receive a blessing from our heavenly Father for each prayer you ask for me and each act of kindness you have shown me -- not that you ask for it or expect it, but I do ask for it.

"Lovingly, /s/ Miriam."

PARKER MILLS' sister, Mrs. L.S. REIS, her mother-in-law, Mrs. REIS, Sr., her daughter, Mrs. RICHARD JOHNSON, and her granddaughter, KARIN, visited the Island last Thursday and Friday. They spent the night at 'Tween Waters Inn. The Reises have a winter home on Siesta Key.

Mrs. NORMAN H. QUALE and her daughter, JENNIFER, have arrived from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for a two week holiday. They are staying at Mid-Island Cottages. Mr. QUALE flew in yesterday for a long weekend.

The young clan is beginning to gather as spring vacation approaches. Besides JENNIFER, Mr. & Mrs. DAVID CLARK with KENNY, JEFF and BOBBIE, plus KLAUS KAMISCHKE, an A.F.S. student from Germany, are at one of PAUL EVERETT'S cottages. At the Fish House are Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT NORTMAN with son and daughter, JIM and LIBBY. All hail from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. These young-uns are real fishermen and love the surf.

PAUL WALKER and son, GLEN, from Bayside, Long Island, New York, are vacationing at the Blanks' Cottage. Mr. Walker is in the bakery business and Glen, who for years played the part of Micheal Bower in the "Guiding Light," and also the part of grandson Kippie of Charles Ruggles, are enjoying Captiva beaches. Last summer, Glen played the part of the President's son in "Mr. President." The Walkers have come to Captiva for many years. Another son RONNIE is playing a part in Baker Street on Broadway now and couldn't join his family on this trip to the Island. POLLY TOWNSEND and her friends have also arrived on Palm Avenue.

"DIFFERENT" IS OUR PRINCIPLE DISTINCTION

If you have never tried a 19th century sit-in bathtub, stop at the Red Pelican and take a free bath. (At end of causeway, turn right. Travel 2.6 miles.)

Mr. and Mrs. RAY BOOTH, Sr., of Lancaster, N.Y., are enjoying several weeks with their son and son's wife, Mr. and Mrs. RAY BOOTH, Jr.

DAVID WILLIAMS, who stays at Andy's Cottages, is enjoying a visit from his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT M. HORNE of Stow, Ohio.

There cannot be enough said of the wonderful cooperation and team work displayed by our Captiva women. Mrs. C.O. HENRIKSEN as chairman did a bang-up job of heading the white elephant sale and Mrs. D. FORBUSH did as well in the bake sale department. Mrs. SAMUEL BENNETT and Mrs. MARY PEVEAR spent all day Friday pricing the articles, which were many and varied. To the sales ladies and all those who went out for the past two weeks scouting for donations we say "thank you" from the most inner recesses of our hearts. To the men who stood by helping to set up tables and etc., we say, it could not have been done without you.

TO THE ISLANDER:

In answer to Mr. Brumbach's note in the last issue, I would say, as an old settler of almost sixty years, shells should be exhibited from everywhere--but prizes given for Sanibel and Captiva collectors of shells from our shores.

/s/ Evelyn C. Grullemans
Captiva Island

TO THE ISLANDER:

The Sanibel Shell Fair (and it is a fair not just a shell show) is held every year for one very practical reason - which is belied by its humble beginning. The Community Association which runs the fair, needs money for the maintenance, up keep, repair, additions, etc. of the Community House and grounds.

The Community House is used by the Audubon Society, The Shell Club, the Water Association, the Chamber of Commerce, the library, all public functions, and most social activities.

In the beginning there was no competition to our Fair - People showed what shells they found here. There were complaints then too - for the same shells began to show up year after year (so we are told.)

Today, in Florida alone, there exist some 25-30 shell clubs, most of which put on the very best shell show possible for them. In a 2 week period Dr. Abbott judged 3 shows (Naples, San Padre Island, Texas, and Sanibel.) He deemed all shows excellent, but by our very history we should have been best!

This week the St. Petersburg Club is holding "The World's Largest Shell Show." They are using the new Bayfront Center and are featuring $250,000 worth of beautiful and rare shells. Against competition like this Sanibel must do one of two things - get "bigger and better" or find another way to raise money (Have all other organizations pay rent, raise membership dues, etc.)

Many people work hard for the better part of the year to make the 3-day fair a success both esthetically and financially.

Shellers and lovers of shells are immune to geographical boundaries. The Shell Club labors long and puts much thought into the categories which will draw the best possible exhibits. Infallibility, however, is not one of our virtues, and every year, AFTER the Shell Fair, we find ourselves swamped with suggestions. MOST are good and are incorporated into next year's Fair. Some are not.

ALWAYS special emphasis is placed on Sanibel-Captiva shells (7 categories this year) Beginners - Oldtimers - Childrens - Miniatures - All trophies were awarded to local exhibits, except one.

Good as these exhibits were, how much of a "Fair" would we have had with only the local shells showing?

Local shells - do not and NEVER HAVE competed against foreign shells for prize consideration. Exhibits compete with others in the same category only. In the "good old days" cash prizes (substantial ones at that) were awarded. It was through the efforts of the Shell Club that ribbons and trophies were substituted, for believe it or not, people still like incentives. Trophies and ribbons can do no harm and do effectively stimulate interest.

We should, all of us, take pride in having so many world travelers on the islands - people who take the time and have the willingness to show what they have brought in from other parts of the world. What utter nonsense to think this detracts from the show.

Does one cut down the oak tree because he liked the acorn better? The Shell Fair must and shall go on - "Bigger and Better."

Mr. Brumbach's letter of Islander last, however, had much merit. It could and should be a Shell Club project to have a yearly showing of shells found here - I shall propose at our March 29 meeting that a committee be formed to organize just such a showing in the future. (Island shells for Is-

RICK MENGE, 15, of Warren, Michigan, spent a two week vacation at the "Beachview." Also staying there was his cousin CAROL CARNEY of Michigan. They spent, of course, many hours on the beach soaking up the sun and everything else that goes along with the beach.

LAURENCE LE BUFF of Naples came over to the Island last Thursday to visit his brother, CHARLES LE BUFF and the family. Laurence is home on leave from the Army after finishing basic training.

P.S. Prepare Mr. Brumbach. I am proposing him for chairman!

He will now be stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he will be in medics training. "It's great - so far anyway" was Laurence's reply, when asked how he liked the Army.

A week ago Sunday CHRIS GAULT and JUDI McQUADE went to visit the Ringlings Museum in Sarasota. On their way home they stopped at K.M.I. in Venice where they visited an ex-Islander, LESTER STONECYPHER, who said to say "hi" to everyone on the island.

SUE GUESSER and yours truly went to town two weeks ago to see the movie "Hush-Hush Sweet Charlotte" which was indispensible (after many hours of trying to think of a good description!)

CHRIS GAULT and JUDI McQUADE served cokes for the Omega Club at the Senior Class Play last Friday night. The title of the play was "Pioneer Go Home."

On the 13th, LINDA WOOSTER, RICK MENGE, and CAROL CARNEY went to town to the show "The Outrage." Afterwards they stopped at The Dog and Suds for some root beer.

SUE GUESSER and yours truly went to Fort Myers to the weekly dance at the Exhibition Hall last Friday. There were two recording stars there, J. Frank Wilson and Gene Simmons. There were also three bands.

CHAD WAY and MARY RHOADE of Cincinnati will be visiting the Ways for two weeks during their spring vacation.

"Captiva and Sanibel are two small islands, off the coast of Florida, where rich people go to live in the 'lack' of luxury."
