THRIFT SHOP CLOSED

The Thrift Shop, run for the benefit of St. Michael's and All Angels, is closed for the summer and will reopen in October.

SUMMER LIBRARY HOURS

The Sanibel Public Library is open each Saturday during the summer from 10 a.m. till noon. They have more and more good new books coming in, and have a particularly good selection for children. Since the school children already have library cards, they need only come in and select what they wish to read.

FORT MYERS SHELL CLUB

The James Denny home on Sanibel Island was the scene of a gala meeting of the Fort Myers Shell club recently.

The all-day function was a pleasant mixture of business and hilarity. The business included a personally-conducted tour by Helen Denny of her fabulous home shell museum; then a question-and-answer period and general exchanging of ideas followed.

The box luncheon gave opportunities for playing one of the more exciting games of the day in which every member assumed the name of a flower and had to be addressed by that name. The forgetful were penalized while the winners were envied as they received from the hostess as prizes such sought after shells as: Voluta Hunteri, Collanaitis dispecta, voluta caroli, voluta pulchra, volute zebra and many others.

Since each member brought one gift-wrapped shell to the meeting there was much suspense as packages were exchanged and opened. Seeing each shell was an education in itself.

Mary Hartman won the guessing game of the day by guessing that one miniature shell collection belonging to Helen had in it 9550 shells. The actual count was 10,525.

Bernice Lescalleet, president of the Fort Myers Shell Club, received the hostess' honorary prize, a box of carefully collected and arranged miniatures.

After the indoor session Helen guided the group on a shelling field trip to some of the better shelling areas on Sanibel.

The President, Mrs. Lescalleet, and Vice-president Cliff Veith, headed the group who thanked Mrs. Denny for a pleasant and inspirational day.

WHO'S WHO ON SANIBEL

Captain PAUL and First Mate IRENE ADAMS sailed to the Southern Atlantic Gift Show at Atlanta, Georgia, for a four day search for more unusual hand craft and imported items for their Seven Seas 'ship store.' The open sign is on the shop again until they shove off for Mexico, the West Coast, Illinois and Canada, on an extended shopping trip this fall.

Mrs. JO SPIVEY, well known to Islanders who've been here awhile, as the former manager of Castaways Restaurant, returned to Sanibel for a brief visit at Island Inn. It stretched out to more than a week. Jo finds many changes but she and son LEROY still have their hearts and minds set on returning here from Denver, Colorado, their present home.

JERRY and STEVEMUENCH are due back on the Island this week. They've been working up north this summer and will visit their parents, AL and BETTY MUENCH, who own and operate Periwinkle Way Trailer Park, until Jerry takes off for a Navy hitch and Steve returns to college in New York State.

Mrs. ROBERT T. SCOTT reports she and her husband plan to take up residence on Sanibel sooner than expected due to a heart attack that her husband suffered in June. After a four to five months recovery period, they'll head for Sanibel, where the Scotts own the former Tower property at the intersection of Tarpon Bay Road and S-867. All good wishes to Mr. Scott for a speedy recovery and we know the Islands will be the answer for the future.

Friends of Mr. E.W. NICK will be pleased to know that he is at home in Erie, Penn., after a hospitalization in the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., earlier this month.

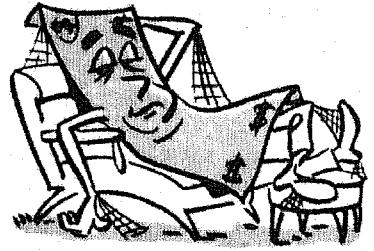

Mr. and Mrs. E. BOYD CRAWFORD of Dayton, Ohio, long time Island visitors and property owners, have been on the Islands for a few days staying with the KAUFFMANS at Tradewinds.

CHARLES LeBUFF is making progress on clearing the lot recently purchased through PRISCILLA MURPHY Realtor, by Carbro, Inc., Hopkinsville, Kentucky, in preparation for construction of a wildlife exhibit building. Charles says he hopes to have it ready by Thanksgiving or at the latest, Christmas. We look forward to this addition to the Islands' attractions.

Welcome, too, to Mr. and Mrs. NELSON HOUGH of Fort Myers, who are now occupying their new Michigan home in Anchors Away. Mr. Hough says they don't plan to move here at this time, but will use it regularly while continuing to maintain their home in Fort Myers.

DOG DAYS

If you like to (or have to) take your dog shopping --- and if he doesn't like to sit in the hot car, the B-Hive invites your canine to the shaded, breeze-cooled "Pooch Parlor" constructed especially for doggy comfort right outside, so that pooch can relax while you shop.

WHO'S WHO ON SANIBEL

Rear Admiral and Mrs. C.M. CARDEZA had as their house-guest recently, Mrs. BETTYE LaFORCE of St. Petersburg. Since this was Mrs. LaForce's first trip to the Island she enjoyed "doing" the shops as well as being introduced to fishing. She left with positive thoughts about coming back again better prepared to spend all of her time on the beach.

The week after Mrs. LaForce's departure, The Mooring, the Cardezas' home, was the scene of entertaining for Mrs. FRANCES MORRIS of Tampa. Mrs. Morris spent a week on Sanibel and was entertained during her stay by the LARRY BETHUNES at Cape Coral as well as on Sanibel.

AL and LILLIAN ZAMBUTO, running Hiers in the absence of NORM and ROSE CHAMBERS, say that Norm called the other day to ask if they could stay up north longer. They were told not to be in any hurry--Al and Lillian are enjoying their job and, in fact, don't want to go home.

PRISCILLA MURPHY announces a new subdivision offering of lots officially on the market. Known as "SOUTH WINDS," this is located between Casa Ybel and the riverboat and is owned by Mr. JOHN ED PEARCE of Louisville, Kentucky, and others. The subdivision offers private road entrance and beach access to all lot owners.

WHO'S WHO ON CAPTIVA

KAREN had to work at 'Tween Waters, Lillian's sprain of an intercostal muscle made it impossible for her to set at the table and the birthday boy was in such misery with his back, he lost his appetite---so who sat down to enjoy the delicious "birthday apple pie" with candles and all? POP HINDMAN! Better luck next year Ray, but many happy returns of the day, even tho' belated.

MIKE de-STEFANO and HOWARD STRANGE of Lakeland, who are regular guests at the Shannon Cottages, are back again for another bout with the fish.

We have just received cards from MARGARET UPSHAW from Copenhagen. Margaret is having a truly wonderful vacation in Europe. She just completed a tour of Italy and now plans to attend a week's schooling in Copenhagen, Denmark, before touring that beautiful little country.

BILL and MARGE PITCHFORD write of the varied scenery in the state of Washington and of its great beauty. They were staying less than a mile from the Canadian frontier on their way to Alaska.

It was RAY BOOTH's birthday this past week, but oh, what a day! In the first place, his DODIE wasn't home. This was bad enough, but a kink in the back really put a crimp on the day. LILLIAN HINDMAN planned a birthday dinner and wanted to really set a nice table for the occasion, but

Mr. & Mrs. REMMINGTON McCONNELL and their two sons, LAWRENCE and MARK, 14 and 12, are having their 10-day yearly holiday at JEAN HAFORD's cottages. They have been coming here for 18 years. Mrs. McConnell is very active in Atlanta, Georgia, (their home town) with Junior League and as head of the opera association.

There has been much music at Mid-Island Cottages this past week while Mr. and Mrs. W. McINTOCH and their daughter LYNN, 13, from Finleyville, Pa., stayed there. The talent of past generations up to the present has really rubbed off on Lynn.

Other week-long guests are Mr. & Mrs. ERNEST ROEDER of Orlando, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. ALFRED SANNING of Cincinnati, Ohio. This is the second visit for both and they agree that it is hard to have to pull away. Other guests, Mr. and Mrs. HENRY SAUSKER from Landford, North Dakota, stopped enroute to visit their son and his wife and grandchild stationed in Altus, Oklahoma, where he is doing duty as flyer in the Army for Uncle Sam. Mrs. SOFUS SAUSKER, who has enjoyed the beauty of Captiva Island for a month, motored back with them. SUSAN is staying on for a time to take advantage of the Spanish instruction she is receiving from her uncle, Dr. GREGORY FLORES.

EMMETT BUTTERFIELD has returned to his Island home. When a friend asked him to come over for a round of Chinese Checkers, he replied, "I'm not too keen about Chinese Checkers, but I sure would like to find someone with whom to play a game of good old fashioned checkers." So should you be a checker player maybe you will find in Mr. Butterfield just the competition you have been seeking.

THE MOST UNUSUAL GIFT SHOP IN FLORIDA.

VAVRA - FRIDAY

Miss Sandra Kay Vavra became the bride of the Rev. William Bert Friday Saturday, July 10, 1965 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

She is the daughter of Mrs. George Vavra of Cedar Rapids, and the late Mr. Vavra. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Friday of Sanibel.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod, the Fridays will live in Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Friday left the Island for a few weeks to attend the ceremony and visit some friends

(and get in a little buying, too.)

In Cedar Rapids, they were entertained with a dinner at the country club by Mrs. Frank Orr, a winter visitor to the Islands. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sanford (he recently celebrated his 90th birthday) and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, who are all also winter visitors here.

After the wedding, the Fridays went on a buying spree in Chicago and then stopped at Atlanta for the gift show and more buying before they came back to the Islands to put their new treasures in the House Of Treasures.
