DON'T GIVE UP HOPE

We hate to bring this up, but if you have cussed out the Island telephone service as often as we have, this may bring you some hope. Our Chamber of Commerce President, Norman Chambers, had the well-known experience recently of several days without phone service and he made repeated pleas to the company for repair. There was the usual ensuing period of no action and helpless frustration which too many of us have known.

It occurred to Norm that in this issue the Chamber could be of general service to the community. By working as a liaison between islanders---that is, all residents of Sanibel and Captiva, whether members or not---and the phone company, the Chamber will give strong backing to our individual complaints and give us a far better chance of getting prompt attention when phones are out of order. The following is an excerpt from a letter to the Chamber from D.T. Shearer, General Manager of the Inter-County Telephone & Telegraph Company:

"I also wish to confirm what I informed you by telephone concerning our plans for a continual improvement of telephone service on Sanibel and Captiva Islands. Our representatives are making surveys at present on our Central Office, exchange and outside plant facilities, and any needed corrections are being made. Further, we will make studies soon on the inward and outward Long Distance calls of our Greenwood exchange to determine what we need to do to effect further improvements. We intend to keep this spotlight on Sanibel-Captiva until we have gained your complete confidence in regard to the grade of telephone service we are providing."

The Chamber is prepared to follow up these assurances, and if they are not acted on, to send a statement of dissatisfaction with service to the Public Utilities Commission. Within the next month, improvement should be noticeable in fewer instances of inadequate service and speedier response to service calls. The Chamber intends to keep Island residents posted on what is being done by making public all pertinent correspondence in the Islander or in bulletins.

Norman says, "Let's keep this ball going---If you have trouble with your phone, complain, COMPLAIN, to Mr. Shearer. If you get no results, please call your Chamber and report it."

SHELL FAIR NOTES

Visitors to the Sanibel Shell Fair will not only receive a warm welcome, a copy of the 1966 brochure, and a list of categories under which the exhibits are entered, but will also be given a Sanibel shell to take home as a memento from Mrs. Gerald Martin, Registration chairman, and her committee, which includes Mrs. William Newman, Mrs. Elsie Henderson, Mrs. Roy Gochenour, Mrs. Goldie Lundberg, Mrs. Harry Romine, Rev. and Mrs. Thaddeus Allen, Mrs. Arthur Swanson, Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. Jesse Lindsay and Mrs. Florence Horan.

They will also have guest books to be signed; last year every state in the union including Alaska and Hawaii were represented among our guests as well as several other countries.

Mrs. Arthur Swanson, chairman for the shell table that will be awarded at the Sanibel Shell Fair, has set up a schedule of places for the table to be on display. Today you can see it at Mary Cunningham's, 11th and 12th at Bailey's store, 13th at the B-Hive, 14th at Island Bakery, 15th at Seahorse Shop, 16th at Friday's, 17th Seven Seas, 18th B-Hive, 19th at the Sanibel Library in the morning and at Bailey's in the afternoon, 20th at B-Hive, 21st Bernice McCaul's, 22nd Captiva Library a.m., Captiva Post Office p.m., 23rd Mary Cunningham's, 24th Island Store a.m., Clara Stran's p.m., 25th and 26th Bailey's, 27th B-Hive, 28th Friday's, March 1 Bakery, 2nd Bailey's, 3rd, 4th

WELL ENGINEERED SURPRISE

The Bill Newmans who are friends of the G.T. Martins, invited them to dinner at Casa Ybel Saturday a week ago. The Martins accepted the invitation; when they arrived at the hotel, Kay said to Florence, "Let's go on over to the gift shop; I want to show you something."

The "something" consisted of twenty-four friends who had gathered to wish Florence a Happy Birthday. She was presented with an orchid corsage made by Mrs. Uhe, who is an orchid fancier and grower.

After dinner, toasts were given, presents from each guest were opened and a beautiful cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Newman, was cut and served.

Mrs. Newman's toast was, "For Florence's birthday, I know I am late --- but none-the-less, I've baked a cake. With it goes wishes most sincere to a good friend, whom I hold dear. The Martins came first to wish us well when Bill and I moved to Sanibel. We are surely glad they came --- and we hope Flo and Jerry feel the same. Happy Birthday!"

After the cake, the whole party progressed to the home of Hal and Joyce Irwin to play cards until midnight.

The guests were; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kenkel, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Horvell, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Nix, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pflough, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Strong, Mrs. Gracie Horn, Mrs. Louise Marzoni, Mrs. Mary Manly Williamson, Mrs. Willie Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Snook, and Miss Pauline Wilson.

LIBRARY BAKE SALE

Plans are being made for a bake sale for the benefit of the Sanibel Public Library. The sale will be held in front of the library in Town Square on Saturday morning, February 19, starting at 10 o'clock. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Leon Levy, Mrs. Art Swanson and Mrs. Cecil Hudson. Do plan to come and buy some of the goodies, and while you're on the spot, browse through the books---you might find something you'd like to read!

FLOTSAM, JETSAM AND LAGAN

Capt. Ernie Hall of Fort Myers, Fla., is the author of a book called, "Flotsam Jetsam and Lagan," published the week before Christmas, 1965, by the Cornell Maritime Press, Cambridge, Maryland. It took him nearly five years to write it. To quote a paragraph on the jacket cover—"Here is the evolution of sailing craft types, articles on famous ships, and work chanteys arranged for five-string banjo accompaniment—all packed tight into this 416-page, handsomely illustrated sea volume. Here are sailors' superstitions, marine geography and maritime history all told in a style smacking full of the true flavor of the sea and waterfront."

Capt. Hall is most adept in his writing at using the right word and fresh phrase. His wife was a great inspiration and help in the preparation and compiling of this sizable work.

It will be of much interest to the people of Sanibel and Captiva who know Eleanor Douglas Clapp (Mrs. Clapp has spent many seasons on Sanibel) that she is the artist who drew many of the pen and ink illustrations in this fine book. Most of them appear in the Evolution of Sail section.

Capt. Hall is now hard at work writing another book for the Cornell Maritime Press called "SPUN YARN, SCUT-TLEBUTT and VERACITY." Eleanor Clapp will also be the illustrator for this book.

"Flotsam, Jetsam and Lagan" was read from cover to cover by your editors and we recommend it highly to those interested in enjoying themselves while picking up fascinating bits of information.

MAKE MINE MINK

"MAKE MINE MINK," a sprightly comedy from England will open at The Pirate Playhouse on February 12 and 13, Sat. and Sun. The goings on of five ladies in a London flat with an inspector and a brigadier thrown in is sure to tickle every funnybone in the audience at Sanibel Island's new arena theater.

The Londonites are Adelaide Holmes, Helene Sparkes, Elaine Patton, Priscilla Murphy, Ruth Hunter, Arthur Orloff, Bob Dormer and Philip Hunter who has directed the play.

Those theatergoers who found the movie entertaining will doubly enjoy this original witty play by Peter Coke -- first produced at the Cambridge Theater, London. For tickets phone the Box Office GR 2-3943.

BOWLING 'EM OVER

The B-Hive team buzzed into first place in the Rusty Lee 3-Star Classic on Thursday night. The team averaged 203 and a 610 scratch for the third game, with a total pinfall of 1857 and a handicap for three games. This offers a good chance for high series and game of the league. High games of 234 for Dugger and 222 for S. Walter boosted the total pinfall.

Although in good form, the Islander team bowling for Doti's shop, dropped one game. Doc Bryant bowled at average. Go Go had one game under and three games' way over his average. Ed Legel had two poor games, one a little over average and then came up with a 213.

WHO'S WHO ON SANIBEL

Staying at Gray Gables are three sisters in reunion; Mrs. C.L. MARRRIOTT of Honolulu, Mrs. F.L. GROFF of Continental, Ohio, and Mrs. P.H. MILES of Melbourne, Fla.

Monday morning the fire engine, the rescue squad and the sheriff converged on the Nutmeg House Restaurant. There was a fire that had been smoldering for at least 24 hours, increasing smoke from the fire place appeared to be due to a faulty chimney and owners, Evelyn Pearson and Betty Sears, were almost persuaded out of their anxiety. Evelyn's persistence, however, finally tracked down the source of the smoke, and by that time there was flame, creeping and small but hungrily eating away at the floor joists.

So ended the mystery---and fortunately the flames were caught in time to be extinguished with great alacrity by a hose held by Evelyn and follow-up work by the trusty fire department.

WANTED; AN OWNER

Who is the owner of the attractive white female cat that has adopted the Blue Dolphin Motel on Gulf Drive? Evidently she belongs to someone (probably in the vicinity of The Rocks) for when she first arrived about two months ago she had medication on her neck. Her visits have become more frequent; in fact for the past two weeks she seems to have moved in. Call Elva Cooper at The Blue Dolphin, FR 2-3661.

Visiting PAULINE WILSON on Periwinkle Way are her niece, Miss SALOME BETTS, and her friend, RUTH ANNE QUINN, of Atlanta, Georgia.

The second developmental workshop sponsored by the National Institute of Human Development and Child Health (subject is Developmental Immunology) was held early in the week at Sasa Ybel. About 35 scientists in the field of Immunology were invited to attend from the U.S. and abroad.

The Rt. Rev. GEORGE W. LUXTON, Lord Bishop of Huron, Ontario, Canada, and Mrs. Luxton, are spending two weeks at Island Inn and have been frequent visitors to the Islands in the past.

FRED REUTER found three Junonias in two days at Blue Dolphin. He is from Lake Carmel, N.Y.

SHELL FAIR ART EXHIBIT

The Sanibel-Captiva Art League has accepted the invitation of the Sanibel Community Association to stage the art exhibit at the Shell Fair. Miss Jo Reddy will serve as chairman; full details will be announced later.

ROCKS OWNERS GET FORMAL

Formal organization of The Rocks Property Owners Association will be under way shortly, under the direction of an executive committee, which includes William Bancroft, Betty Sears, Robert Haynie, John M. Arsdell and Roy Bazire, with Emmett B. Anderson acting as attorney to represent the Association.

Sole purpose of this group is to maintain the presently zoned single family dwelling area of Sanibel on the Gulf—most of which is generally known as The Rocks.

Although the minimum number of property owners deemed necessary to proceed has been obtained, all property owners in the area who share in the desire to maintain this as a quality residential area are urged to join. Just send check for $10. made out to Emmett B. Anderson, Trustee, to Mr. Anderson, 2132 McGregor Blvd., Fort Myers, and mark the check, "For The Rocks Property Owners Assn."

STYLE SHOW TODAY

A new feature of the annual St. Michael's and All Angels style show, being held this afternoon at 2 p.m. at South Seas Plantation on Captiva Island, will be mobile gift-carts displaying the unique and fascinating items to be found in the gift shops on the Islands. Friday's House of Treasures has promised a most exciting collection as well as the Sea Horse Shop's gift department and the Red Pelican.

The participating shops and their models are: BAILEY's, Jean LeBuff, Anna Southward, Martha Woodring, Chuckie LeBuff, and Pat, Ann, Susan and Janie Bailey, DOTTI OF SANIBEL, Helen Friday, Claire Walter, Elise Fuller, Elizabeth Adler, Anna and Tommy Kontinos, and Alice, Mary Ann and Denna Aleck, RED PELICAN, Emmy Lou Lewis, Becky Glover, Susan Thelsen, Lee Ann Thelsen, Elizabeth Brown and others not definite, and the SEA HORSE SHOP, Kay Webb, Marian Chaplin, Isabell McWhorter, Mary Jo Morse and Betty Muench.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR PARKING

Marshall Tabacohi, who has handled the job of planning the parking area and helping the thousands of visitors to the Shell Fair find a spot to leave their cars, will again be doing the job this year in his usual able fashion but—he WILL need some help.

Any of our men who can give some time to this, especially Thursday and Friday, will be appreciated. Our young men are out of school and are always glad to help man the walkie-talkies on Saturdays.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES

If you didn't order enough cookies it's not too late. They will be on sale on February 12 from 11-1 and from 3 to closing at Bailey's and the B-Hive. Troop leader Mary Aleck and Cookie Chairman Zelda Seigler will be assisting the girls on Sanibel; Cadet Scouts Betty Clements and Donna Wiles will manage the booth at the Post Office on Captiva, beginning at 10 a.m.

WHO'S WHO ON CAPTIVA

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN SPARKES have had as guests this past week Mrs. Sparkes' mother, Mrs. CHRISTIAN GABRIELSEN, of Mountain Lakes, New Jersey, and her friend, Mrs. MARIAN ROHER, of Boonton, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD RICHARDS, Mrs. Sparkes' uncle and aunt, also came to visit in their camper from Boonton, New Jersey.

Last week their guest was Mrs. VALERIE CALLAHAN, of Boonton Township, an enthusiastic naturalist and sheller.

Interesting guests at Mid-Island Cottages for the month of February are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. deVicq, from Gloucester, Mass. Mr. deVicq is retired from the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Boston, and his wife is an artist of note.

Mrs. deVicq's finely detailed pen and ink and water-color studies now underway are happy, amusing fantasies, picturing driftwood and roots. Though small, they invite a viewer's continued interest in discovering many unexpected little 'critters' in the gnarled and weathered wood found on Captiva.

A series of mushroom studies made in the New England woods is hailed by mycologists for the true colors caught so accurately in their fragile detail.

Prize awards have been received by Mrs. deVicq in juried shows at the Copley Society of Boston; the North Shore Arts Association; the Marblehead Arts Association; the Whistler Museum in Lowell, Massachusetts, and from the Weina Gallery in Chicago. She has exhibited also at the Gallery on East Los Olas Boulevard in Fort Lauderdale, and her work is owned by collectors from Hong Kong to the Bahamas.

Mrs. deVicq is a member of the American Artists Professional League, and the Springfield Academic Artists Association.

On the evening of February 11, the film to be shown will be the old favorite, "Showboat," in the Community House, Captiva.

On February 19, Saturday, the Audubon Society will have a field trip to Fakahatchee Slough, led by CHARLES LeBUFF. Meet at Sanibel Lighthouse at 7.00 a.m. The trip will take about three-quarters of the day.

We believe it was the first Post Office exhibit in the state of Florida.

There will be a Fashion Show at the South Seas Plantation on Thursday, February tenth, featuring adult and children's styles shown by our local shops. The time is 2:30, and the tickets, $1.50. Proceeds go to St. Michael's and All Angels Church on Sanibel.

JOINT CRAFT SHOW

On Thursday, Feb. 17, the Community House on Captiva will have an exhibit and sale of the crafts of two of our talented residents. The joint show will consist of driftwood mobiles, made by Mrs. Parker Mills, and of pieces of indigenous weaving (that is, woven pieces, the materials of which are native to the Islands) made by Mrs. Hervey Roberts.

The hours of the exhibit are from 9:30 to 5 o'clock, and the receipts are for the benefit of the Captiva Library.

WHO'S WHO ON SANIBEL

Visiting Sanibel over the weekend were Captiva property owners PAUL and ROSE LYON of Orlando, Florida. Mrs. Lyon, who has a rare and interesting job of doing monogram work for fine stores and shops throughout Florida, has been so busy over the holidays and during the early January store sale periods that she and her husband felt the need for a spell of island magic, however brief. Within a few more years they look forward to retiring on Captiva where they purchased property from Priscilla Murphy. The Lyons stayed at Sanibel Sesta.

JAMES and GAIL MAGUIRE, who are also planning to settle permanently on Sanibel, visited here over the weekend staying at The Reef.

With them were friends, Mr. and Mrs. PAUL D. ROCHE of North Carolina, also considering Sanibel for a home. One purpose of the visit was to attend Sanibel's famed Pirate Playhouse, and of course to look at the site where Jim and Gail plan a motel on Gulf Drive.

Mrs. C.J. WICKER of New Boston, Michigan, paid a surprise visit to her sister PRISCILLA MURPHY. Mrs. Wicker will stay on Sanibel as her house guest, while her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. HENRY WICKER, of Bloomfield, Mich., spend some time fishing (for a big sail fish, they hope) on Marathon.

Mrs. Wicker will be leaving for Michigan this weekend, or as soon as her son catches that elusive sailfish.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN HEYSER have returned to Butler, Pa., after having spent two weeks with his mother and sister, Mrs. E. HEYSER and Mrs. FRANCES HEYSER at their home in Sanibel Estates.

KENNETH ORLOFF, a student at the University of Connecticut, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR ORLOFF, for a week before returning to Stamford for the new term.

Dr. and Mrs. RICHARD WEXLER and their two sons, DAVID and DANNY, of Westport, Conn., will arrive next Wednesday to spend ten days with the LEON LEVYS. Mrs. Wexler is Mr. Levy's daughter.

Mr. HUGO LINDGREN has been visiting on the islands recently. He and Mrs. Lindgren are staying on Fort Myers Beach at present and hope to return here for a good part of the season. Mr. Lindgren having recently disposed of his business interest, Jamestown Metal Products, in Jamestown, N.Y..

Mr. and Mrs. CLARENCE CONKLIN are back on Sanibel in their home on Buttonwood Street. Visiting with them are their son STEVE and his wife. The Conklins are from Illinois.

Rumor has it that a golf club may soon be established on the island, complete with golf course.

Miss MIGNONNE SNYDER of New York City is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. CECIL HUDSON, on Gulf Drive.

Wintering at Sanibel Sands are Mr. and Mrs. MORRISANFORD of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and their daughter, Mrs. JAMES H. ALLEN from New Orleans. The Sanfords have been regular visitors for the past 20 years. Mr. Sanford is a spry nonagenarian who has lost none of his zest for long beachcombing walks.

At Island Inn: Mr. and Mrs. F.L. GILBERT are here for a month from Swarthmore, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE PUTNAM from Evanston, Ill., Mrs. ROYE KRIGBAUM from Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. H.H. WOOD from Winnetka, Ill., are new arrivals at the Inn.

Mrs. CHARLES S.B. WARD of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. LEON STOLZ from Chicago, Ill., members of the Island Inn Corp., will be here for a month.

Regular visitors at The Beachcomber, Mr. and Mrs. CLAYTON BRIGGS, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, have returned for a month's stay. With them are their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. W. WEBER.

LT. EVERETT RICHARD WALTER, USN, the son of Mr. and Mrs. KENNETH WALTER, will be leaving View Nam some time this month to resume his studies at the University of Southern California where a professorship awaits him on completion of his doctorate.

"Berets" is a current best-selling novel about the special forces in Viet Nam. Moore is the only civilian to go through Army paratrooper training and special forces training and actually participated in the war effort in Viet Nam.

Barry Sadler collaborated with Moore in writing "The Ballad of the Green Berets" which Sadler sang on Ed Sullivan's two weeks ago, and Mr. and Mrs. Moore enjoyed hearing it on the Island Inn's TV.

RCA Victor has just released a record of this ballad and a number of other sides written by Barry Sadler and Robin Moore, including "Salute to the Nurses" and "Letter from Viet Nam."

Mr. Moore, Sr., is a co-founder of Sheraton Hotels Corporation and is currently chairman of its executive committee.

Miss SUSAN AMON of Sanibel Island, stepped overnight into the "Loud Red Patrick" at the Pirate Playhouse and acted the part of Mary to an enthusiastic audience last Saturday amid cheers of her fellow actors.

"Susan did a great job" said director PHILIP HUNTER, "she will appear in the next performance of Loud Red Patrick on March 19 at the Pirate Playhouse."

Mrs. E.K. REINACH of Woodmead, L.I., New York, is spending ten days on the Islands visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LEON LEVY.

Father Thomas A. Madden of St. Michael's and All Angels Church on Sanibel was the host Saturday evening to The Rt. Rev. William L. Hargrave, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of South Florida, who confirmed a class of seven candidates Sunday morning and celebrated the Holy Eucharist.

Laura May Preston, Thelma Preston, Calvin Preston, Matthew Preston, Diane Ballinger, James Carl Jordan and Helen Macdonald Avery received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Timothy Charles Jordan, the infant son of Carl and Mozella Jordan, received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

PICTURE PRESENTED

MARY K. CUNNINGHAM of Captiva presents the new Shell Picture to MARY NIX, a member of the Committee in charge of such things. This picture will be given away to a lucky ticket holder sometime during the Shell Fair.

Along with being attractive and pretty, the picture is also quite valuable, as we saw some expensive shells in it. It will be a lucky person indeed, who will hang the picture on their wall.

Both Marys have tickets for the drawing, as well as many Island merchants. Just ask around and someone will be sure to pop up and offer you one or more. Remember, it only takes one ticket to win, but you MUST have that ticket before you can win.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

A 1956 Ford belonging to Walter Scott Glahn was stolen from in front of Isabel's Tavern about 10 p.m. on Sunday night. Mr. Glahn had left his key in the ignition. Sheriff Ralph Smith apprehended the fleeing driver, Jerome Ryan, traveling on the Punta Rassa Road within half an hour after the theft was reported. Mr. Ryan had been employed on the island for a brief time.

By Permission of Ding Darling

As of three o'clock Monday afternoon, 112 species of shells had been turned in to the official counters, despite the small (nay, almost infinitesimal) turn-out of gatherers. No real rarities were reported, with the exception of a junonia, but three new species, never before reported on a shell count were turned in --- a tun, a haminoea and a siphonari alternata.

GUEST PREACHER

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Edsall, who, with his wife, is spending some time on the Islands, will give the sermon this coming Sunday at St. Michael's and All Angel's Church at 9:30 a.m.

LADIES' GUILD MEETS

The Ladies' Guild of the Sanibel Community Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Thaddeus Allen February 18, at 8 p.m.
