HUNDREDS VISIT NEW SHOPPING CENTER

Literally hundreds of people (Mary Aleck served punch and cookies to over 300 of them) visited the new Island Shopping Center at its grand opening last Saturday, and enjoyed the air-conditioned comfort and convenience of the new shops.

Prize winners at Bailey's were Violet Renshaw, who won a $25 gift certificate, Mary Anne Aleck, $15, Mozella Jordan, $10, and Charles Bryan, Mrs. Tom T. Feorie, Bill Taggart, Mrs. Bea Robinson and Edson Eldredge, who all won $5 gift certificates.

The Lady Schick hairdryer, given by Mary Aleck's beauty shop, was won by Mrs. Don Simonds, and winners of 10 gallons of gasoline each from the Texaco Service Station were Pam Holtzman, Frank Renfroe, Don Zimmerman, Mrs. W. Horace Williams, David Wooster, Lucille Charleston, John W. Buihammer, Lois Drewett, Mable Lee Cassey and Mrs. H.W. Cuthbert.

People enjoyed popping in and out---the kids enjoyed the free ice cream at Bailey's---and the employees (especially at Bailey's) had very tired but relieved smiles on their faces, especially Margo, who was bouncing merrily about wearing a fluffy chiffon apron over her dress, showing off the beautiful flowers and simply delighted that her department (the clothing for men, women and children) was now so much easier to find in the new building. Frances Bailey, himself, was smiling and receiving congratulations with the pleasant but bemused manner of a man who's been working too hard too long and can't quite believe that the major part of all the details of moving a large business from one home to another was practically completed.

Anyhow, congratulations, all!

CAPTIVA FILL IS SUCCESSFUL

The County Commission, informed last week that the groins and fill on the Captiva gulf front were apparently doing their job of preventing further erosion and that the county planned to rebuild the road soon, approved spending an additional $8,500 for an additional 25,000 cubic yards of fill.

The groins and fill so far installed have been paid for by the Captiva Erosion District with help from the County, which has contributed $13,365 so far. The erosion district is planning to build a third groin, but will wait until full evaluation of the success of the work already done has been made. Commissioner P.A. Geraci, who had earlier advocated that the Federally financed county-wide erosion study planned by the Corps of Engineers be directed first at Captiva because of the emergency situation there, said he believes the district is wise to await final evaluation of the program and that the commissioners ought to go along with them. He then made a motion, which was accepted, to extend the work contract with the A-C Dredging Co. (which is doing the present dredging) to fill the additional 25,000 cubic yards on the beach.

NOTES FROM THE COLONY

Mr. and Mrs. G. CHAPMAN CALDWELL, Peoria, Illinois, are enjoying a three-week vacation at The Colony. This is the Caldwell's sixth annual visit. Mr. and Mrs. A.C. SAILSTAD, Houston, Texas, are occupying their cottage, Bali-Hi, in The Colony. With them until May 1 are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES SAILSTAD of New York, and infant son, CHRISTOPHER. Mr. and Mrs. JOHN C.

STEINMETZ, Atlanta, Georgia, arrived last Thursday for a vacation at their cottage, Sea-Sita, in The Colony. Mr. and Mrs. BENNETT BURGOON, Jr., Ligonier, Penna., are due to arrive today. Other regular guests vacationing here again are Mr. and Mrs. JOSEPHORLIK, Marietta, Georgia, the CLARKE J. CHURCH family of Exeter, N.H., and the ERWIN T. HADORN family of Glenview, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. WHITNEY EASTMAN, will depart April 30 for "Tanager Hill," their home in Minneapolis, Minn. The Eastmans have been at The Colony since December and their many friends will look forward to their return to the island next year. After spending the summer at home they will leave in September on a 41-day trip to Japan by boat on a birding tour conducted by Alex Sprunt, Jr., of the National Audubon Society.

NEW SHELL CLUB OFFICERS

Maude Meyer, the outgoing president, presided over the Fifth Anniversary Banquet meeting of the Shell Club at the Coconut Grove on Monday evening, April 18. The event was celebrated with a large cake artistically decorated by Jack of The Island Bake Shop, with a beach motif. Mary Aleck, as a charter member, cut and served the cake. Officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Meyer passed the gavel to Edith Murgidge, the new president; the other new officers are Bernice McCaul, first vice-president; Mary Aleck, second vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Swanson, treasurer; Mrs. H.H. Jeremiasen, recording secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Stafford, corresponding secretary. This was the final meeting of the year.

DATES TO REMEMBER

April 28 (tonight) and May 5 . . . Weekly discussion group at 8 p.m. following Mass at St. Isabell's Catholic Mission. Saturday . . . Sanibel Public Library, open 10 a.m. to noon. Tuesday, Sanibel Public Library open, 10 a.m. to noon. Tuesday, P.T.A. meeting, election of officers. Tuesday, covered dish supper for Sanibel Community Association, 6:30 p.m., followed by general meeting.

A Message To All Voters

from
J. R.
(JACK)
SPRATT

Your candidate for the State Legislature, Group 2, Charlotte, Collier, Glades, Hendry and Lee Counties.

This is what Allen Morris, noted political writer and parliamentarian has to say about JACK SPRATT in the Speaker's Manual, House of Representatives, 1965:

"Representative J.R. SPRATT of Hendry County, with a background of many years of public service and success in the field of business, has earned the respect and admiration of his colleagues for his efforts on behalf of improved government in Florida.

"Measuring every proposed new law by the test of equity and fairness, he has played a major role in the development of much significant legislation for Florida. He gave particular emphasis to matters involving water resources, conservation and roads.

"In recognition of his wide range of interests and his understanding of the needs of the State balanced by the economics of business, during the 1965 Regular Session of the House of Representatives he was selected by the Speaker of the House to serve as a member of the Committee on Education-Public Schools, the Committee on Agriculture, and the Committee on Livestock."

BAILEY'S STORE

by ethel snyder

Everyone who comes over to Sanibel knows Bailey's store. Last week the store moved into its new home in the new shopping center. The new location is ultra modern. The last word in luxury, beauty, and convenience and located in exactly the right place. It is in the center of the island on the main road just before the turn to Captiva and with ample parking space.

But there will be some never-to-be-forgotten experiences in the old store which forever endear Bailey's store to the thoughts and hearts of the old timers!

There was Mrs. Whitney McGee, the cat. She lived on a top shelf inside where she sat on her neatly curled tail and looked down her nose at the customers beneath! She was haughty! Detached! But interested in what was going on in the store about her. You didn't pet Mrs. McGee. Although well fed, she was averse to rats and they were no problem at the store!

Another thing about the store was that we always voted there. For all county, state and national elections we always went to Bailey's store to vote. Two booths were fixed up in the rear back store room. There were only three Republicans on Sanibel in those days. Mrs. Verona Morey of St. Louis, myself from Ohio, and most amazing, the postmaster, Capt Read.

Capt Read was postmaster for some fifty years and he had inherited the title and the post office from his father who was a Captain in the Union Army. And he also inherited his politics, and was the only Republican before Verona and I arrived.

We all came in for a lot of ribbing but it was all in good nature and for fun and we took it that way and loved voting at the store. Anyone felt free to open the curtains when we were marking our ballots, look in and make remarks. We replied in kind. It was such a hilarious experience it is remarkable some of those Democrats didn't make a mistake and vote the wrong ballot.

Ernest Bailey, the elder brother, used to stick his head out of the store's front door when Mrs. Morey and I arrived and shout "Here come the red Republicans." "And that was before there were any REDS or Communists. We loved it!"

On the Saturday when the mail boat arrived it brought over from town large slabs of ice, in hundred pound pieces, and a good supply of meat and fresh vegetables. The two younger Bailey boys, John and Sam, delivered the ice to the cottagers in the store truck when they got around to it. The slabs sat in the sun after being unloaded and grew beautifully less as time went on. Mine was nugget sized often when finally delivered but it was a chance you took!

Mr. Frank Bailey presided at the meat counter on Saturdays. Mr. Bailey always kept on his Fedora hat and tied on a capacious apron over his suit, and took a firm grip on the large meat knife! It didn't seem funny at the time, but now it does. Mr. Bailey knew exactly how many there were in every family and you didn't buy the amount of meat you wanted, but how much Mr. Bailey thought you ought to get. I never got much as you couldn't buy meat for a cocker and I lived alone. I have heard heated arguments over pork chops!

And then there were the doughnuts! It seemed odd that the store only got one dozen doughnuts. We took turns buying that dozen, passed them around to the bunch and they only lasted a few minutes. We asked Mr. Bailey why he only got one dozen doughnuts. Why he didn't get more? He replied "We eat too many ourselves!"

The mail boat and supplies for the store arrived from across San Carlos Bay promptly each day (except Sunday) at ten. It landed at Bailey's dock. The passengers all rushed into the store to buy what they could while the freight was being unloaded by the Singleton Brothers and Joe Goddard from the store and anyone else around always gave a hand! This was quite an event each day. Capt Singleton made sure he had all his passengers aboard before the boat pulled out!

These are just some of the precious memories of Bailey's

But the new store fits right into the luxurious tropical setting of Sanibel Island. Francis Bailey has the sincere and heart felt best wishes of all the islanders. And no matter what or where it is it IS BAILEY'S STORE. And a Bailey's store ahead of the times. Congratulations!

AUDUBON SOCIETY

The Sanibel-Captiva Audubon Society held their last meeting of the season April 14. A new slate of officers was elected. Rbt. Sabatino, Captiva, president; Mario Hutton, Sanibel, vice-pres.; and Mrs. Paul (Irene) Adams, Sanibel, sec-treas.

Chas. LeBuff was in charge of the program showing the movie, "Wild Kingdom." Bob Sabatino had the Society's mascot, the owl Coot, at the meeting and answered questions about his habits, feeding, etc., since he was obtained by the Sabatinos.

The outgoing officers of the society were: Willis B. Combs, pres.; Rbt. Sabatino, vice-pres.; and Mrs. Hervey Roberts, sec-treas.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETS

The Sanibel-Captiva Democratic Club held its second annual meeting, a combination dinner-business session at the Golden Sands Restaurant, Tuesday, April 19, with thirty-three members and guests in attendance.

Guests included Commissioner Herman Hastings, Commissioner Kenneth Daniels and Mrs. Daniels, Sheriff Flanders Thompson, Mr. Robert Cody Brown, Chairman of the Lee County Democratic Executive Committee, and Mrs. Brown.

Following the dinner, several changes in the Club's by-laws were approved by the members present; a tribute was paid to Mrs. Peggy Maloney, Mrs. Mary Cunningham and Mrs. Dorothy Booker for their efforts in the fall membership campaign, which increased the Club's membership from 19 to 61.

Commissioner Hastings, Commissioner Daniels and Mr. Brown spoke briefly to the group, expressing their pleasure with the progress of the local organization.

The present slate of Directors was re-elected for another term and immediately following the business session, the Board met and re-elected its present officers. Directors and officers are: Roy E. Bazire, President; Griffing Bancroft, Vice President; Richard Wiebe, Secretary, Al Muench, Treasurer, Priscilla Murphy, Norman Chambers and Ed Legel. Members were urged to attend the April 25 meeting in the Community House at which Democratic candidates in the May primary were presented to the voters of Sanibel and Captiva.

HE MADE their DREAMS come TRUE

Never, in the history of Southwest Florida politics, has legislative experience and the powers of seniority been so important. Walker has ten years experience in the House of Representatives.

The bill creating Edison Junior College, which Walker prodded and effectively moved through the House, is just one of the countless examples of Senior Powers.

In his official position as the number two man in the House (Speaker Pro-tem), Walker will aid the Speaker in assigning legislators to life-giving committees which have the power of life and death, success or failure for all bills introduced in the House.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Dr. and Mrs. REASON A. GOODWIN of North Tarrytown, New York, are back on their favorite Island, making arrangements with DAVE HERZOG to build a home on their Gulf front lot in the former Ford tract. Dr. Goodwin is the judge of words on the TV panel show, "Password." He and Mrs. Goodwin are staying at Beachview Cottages, near their home site.

FRANCES LEGEL is back home after an operation at Lee Memorial Hospital and is recovering nicely.

The Sanibel Community Church, whose pastor, the Reverend Tad Allen, served as a Captain of Infantry in World War I, will hold a special Loyalty Service on Sunday, May 1, at 11 a.m. Members of the Sanibel-Captiva Legion Post and the Legion Auxiliary will be guests of honor.

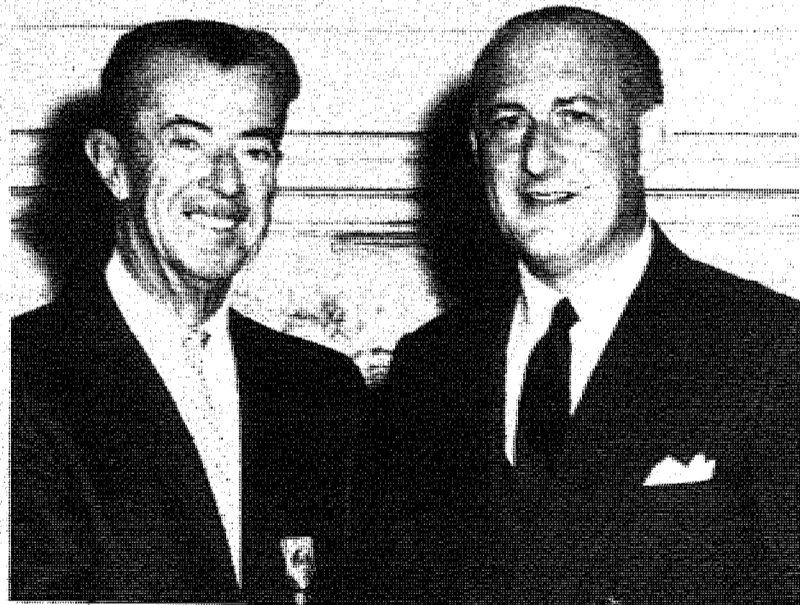

PEG and DICK CROMWELL of Lexington, Mass., who are good friends of GLADYS CRUMB (EDE MUGRIDGE's sister) were on the islands for a quick visit after spending some time in Naples, and are now on their way to Siesta Key, Sarasota, and home.

Mr. and Mrs. KAREL BEEKHUIS of Santa Barbara, California, spent two days on Sanibel visiting Admiral and Mrs. ED KONRAD, who have been friends since the Konrads lived in Holland in 1955-57. Mr. Beekhuis is president of Aramco. They're now on their way to Key West and Nassau.

All had dinner at South Seas with guests Mrs. MARTHA STEVENS, DASCOMB FORBUSH and her visiting granddaughter, KEITH JAMIESON, and Mrs. RUTH ROSS.

This was Mr. and Mrs. Beekhuis's first glimpse of the Islands and they loved them so much that they're threatening to come here and live!

ANNE and ED KONRAD went to Key West last Sunday to visit a friend, Mrs. HELEN THIELEN, for three days.

Mario F. Hutton (left) is congratulated by the Consul General of Italy, Minister Vittorio Cordero Di Montezemolo immediately after Hutton's promotion to the rank of Knight Officer of the Order of Merit of the Italian Republic in New York last week.

ISLANDER AWARDED HONOR BY ITALY

Mario Hutton left quietly for New York last week where he was the guest of honor at a banquet for 500 people and later awarded one of Italy's highest decorations for civilians---Knight Officer of the Order of Merit of the Italian Republic. The promotion was made by the President of the Republic of Italy, His Excellency Guiseppe Saragat, in recognition of Hutton's achievements in the field of U.S.-Italian commercial relations, and was presented to him April 20 by the Italian Consul General in New York.

Executive secretary of the Italy-America Chamber of Commerce for 19 years, Mario had been honored twice with decorations from the Italian government before his retirement a year ago.

He and his wife, GISELLA, had visited Sanibel some years ago and in less than three weeks after retirement, they were down here building a home and settling into a new life---which satisfies Mario's love of fishing, wildlife and tropical beauty, as well as his hobby of photography. He launched right into photographing Sanibel scenes and wildlife and has an excellent collection of black and white and color prints. (Another mission on his trip to New York was to arrange for the distribution of his photographs with two leading agencies which make photographs available for art and commercial use.)

His interest in wildlife has led to his recent election as vice-president of the Sanibel-Captiva Audubon Society.

JACK VANBELL of the Island Bake Shop answered a very long-distance call last Sunday from Mrs. GEORGE WAREHAM WITHINGTON of Manchester, England. Seems that 22 years ago, during the war, Jack was a houseguest of Mrs. Wareham-Withington from April until D-Day, and they've been friends ever since.

Sunday was the lady's 70th birthday, and as a birthday surprise, her niece arranged the call to Jack.

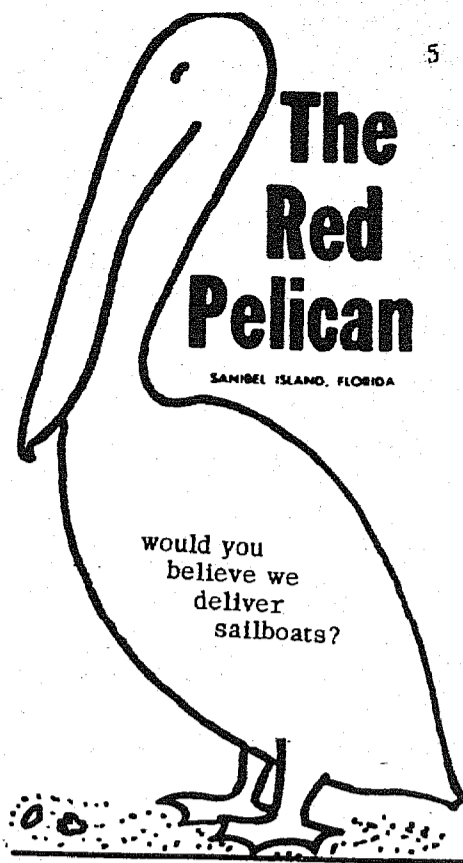

Jack, by the way, and his fellow-worker DORIS, are closing their shop Monday for a week for a well-earned vacation on the island beaches--- says its been a year since they have been able to enjoy their own Islands relaxation!

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT GAULT of the Sea Horse Cottages are making a general tour of the West for a month. They called granddaughter CHRIS GAULT from Las Vegas. Chris is in Philo, California, on her Antloch work quarter teaching art methods in a school for retarded children.

Roseate spoonbills are being seen in great number (over 100) on Ding Darling flats, left side, about one mile in.

PRISCILLA MURPHY, Realtor, reports the sale of a Gulf front parcel near Beachview Cottages from Mr. and Mrs. LEONARD J. DUDZIAK of Miami, Florida, to Mr. LLOYD WRIGHT of Rochester, New York.

Highlight of his trip to Iowa and Minnesota was an open house at the President's home in Iowa City for a group of old friends who hadn't been together in 25 years, ROY BAZIRE reports. Spending two days as the guest of President Bowen of the University of Iowa and his wife, Roy says was worth the whole trip. The picture of what can be done with vision and planning stimulated him to thinking along the same lines for our own islands. Town and gown are cooperating in Iowa City on an integrated plan for a vast expansion of the University campus tied in with an urban redevelopment project that will uplift virtually the entire downtown business section, all under the direction of the nation's leading urban planning firm. Incidentally, the Lewis car and dog (a superb passenger, says Roy) were delivered safely to HERBERT and EMMY LU, now back at home in Saint Paul. Also incidentally, the trip produced a job offer, good for the ego admits Roy, but Sanibel is home.

PREDICTION OF FASHION TRENDS

Marion and Herbert Bijur and their 16-year old daughter, Polly, are with us on Sanibel and being fashion conscious, we could not resist the question, "what's ahead in fashions?"

It was a great opportunity, for, as you may know, Herbert, when he is back home in New York City, is vice-president of McCall Corporation and general manager of McCall's Patterns.

Here is the word: permanent-press fabrics will become more available and more used. As we go into fall, flowered, printed suits will be popular, and short-sleeved suits will come back. Big sleeves will be popular. The shift, so easy for the home-sewer has become a basic fashion and will probably continue, along with the shirtwaist dress, as a classic.

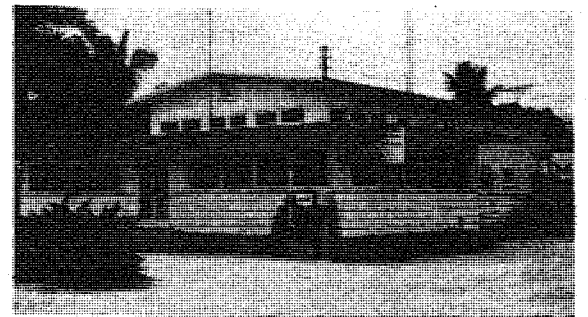

Skirts will continue to be shockingly short---the younger the girl, the shorter the skirt. For the mature woman (30 to 70), middle of the knee cap or below; for the very young woman, skirts above the knee. Well, that just about sews it up, ladies!

While here, Herbert, Marion and Polly have been taking in the sights off Sanibel as well as enjoying our incomparable island itself. They have already visited the new Edison Mall in Fort Myers and think it one of the most attractive and modern of shopping centers, with much potential for imaginative use. They are staying at Casa Ybel.

ISLANDS LIKE AUSTRALIA

"We feel at home here, it's so much like Australia," say Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Colby of Sydney. Mr. Colby is with Westinghouse in Australia and has been in Pittsburgh on business the last two years. Friends who had been to Sanibel raved so much that the Colbys decided to have a look.

How long are they staying? "We've been here a week," said Mrs. Colby, then paused, "and I guess we're staying longer." The Colbys will return to Australia in September, which Mrs. Colby says is the best month for shelling there. If you're planning a trip to the Barrier Reef, arrange to go at a full moon in September, when the most extreme tides occur.

They recommend Hayman and Lindeman Islands as best places to stay when going to the Reef, which requires a boat trip from one of these islands. Sanibel's vegetation fascinates the Colbys, who say it is much like that of their homeland.

Our Australian pines, known as "she-oaks" in Australia, cabbage palms, (called cabbage or date palms), and the lack of development---all of these make the Colbys feel they're at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby are staying at Casa Turquesa, "indefinitely" we hope. We welcome them to their "home" in the States and hope they will return.

JOE and MARY GAULT of the Sea Horse Shops have been busy hosts in this so-called slack season.

AL and DIXIE HARTNETT of Hingsington, Maryland, were houseguests for three days between speeches in Miami and Lakeland which Al is giving as a manager-labor consultant.

JANET and SIDNEY JENTZEN of Bloomfield, Michigan, and their three children visited the Gaults for a week. Janet, Mary and JIMMY JACK of Casa Turquesa were charter commissioners for Oak Park, Michigan, and wrote a new charter for the town when it was incorporated in 1951.

Mrs. ROBERT MacLEAN and her daughter, CONNIE, of Birmingham have been visiting Joe and Mary for a week, and Mr. and Mrs. ROY HARRIS, of Ferndale, Michigan, who are old friends of the Gaults, have been bringing them up to date on events in that part of Michigan.

BILL and MARY KISER, who used to live across the street from PAUL and FANETTA STAHLIN of South Seas Plantation, spent some time at the Captiva Island resort and had a joyous reunion with the Stahlins and the Gaults.

Children's party to be given by the Library postponed until tomorrow, Friday, at 10 a.m. Children coming by school bus for stories, library instruction, games.

BOWLING 'EM OVER

The I.B. Team sponsored by Dottl's Fashions and Gifts, ended the season with hi-jinks on Fun Night with a potful of prize money and trophies. Bowling only on league nights without practice, they became contenders for the lead. Doc Bryant won prize money and a gold trophy for high game and high single average. Gogo's better-than-average and several 200 games helped bring home team prizes, while Ed Legel added to the pot by winning the gold trophy for "most improved bowler." Ed, by following Doc's good advice, increased his average eleven points this season.
