LOW-COST HOUSING INFORMATION

In the fall of 1965, a group of island residents met with Mr. Bates, of the Fort Myers Housing Authority, to discuss with him the possibility of obtaining funds for the development of low-cost and low-rental housing, to provide decent and livable quarters for workers already on the island, who were forced to exist under sub-standard conditions, and for those additional persons and their families who might be attracted to Sanibel and Captiva by the islands' inevitable population growth, which would produce both job opportunities and a necessity for

COUNTRY CLUB FINANCES EXPLAINED AT MEETING

About seventy persons turned out to attend a meeting held on Tuesday, January 10, at the Sanibel Community House, to hear John Kontinos, chairman of the committee planning the proposed Sanibel-Captiva Golf and Country Club, explain the architectural, financial and membership aspects of the venture.

Mr. Kontinos explained that the committee has obtained an option valid for six months from November 18, 1966, to buy 150 acres of land in the Tulipa Way area of Sanibel for $60,000 from Hugo Lindgren.

The only other tract offered the committee was a 140 acre piece for $85,000 which required acquisition of additional land for access and was more expensive than the Lindgren parcel to develop into a golf course because of physical factors. The Lindgren parcel is about 750 feet from the Gulf beach and in the opinion of the architect very suitable for a golf course.

The tentative total costs involved are $60,000 for the land, $222,000 for a completed and ready-to-play 18 hole golf course which includes a $10,000 contingency fund, $25,000 for a water system, $45,000 for a club house and furnishings, $24,000 for a swimming pool, tennis courts and bowling greens for a total of $376,000. A 40 year F.H.A. loan with interest at 5% payable at the rate of $23,000 per year can be arranged, Mr. Kontinos said. Additionally $30,000 to $40,000 which cannot be borrowed will be needed to purchase equipment for the course. This cost will be met by a one-time initiation fee of $100 to be charged to each of the 376 members needed to begin the project.

Thus, said Mr. Kontinos, the 376 members will pay an initiation fee of $100, payable $50 on signing up and the balance before the club opens. The annual membership fee will be $250 payable in monthly installments. A family membership entitles the head of the family and members of his immediate family to use all club facilities. Non-members of the club will be allowed golf privileges for a greens fee of $7.50. Motels may buy multiple memberships at the rate of one membership for each five units and this will entitle their guests to golf for a greens fee of $3. The motels will each have only one vote in club elections even though they hold multiple memberships. Non-members will not be allowed pool or tennis privileges according to present plans. No restaurant or liquor sales are contemplated. A luncheonette will serve light refreshments and soft drinks. Golf carts will be available for rental.

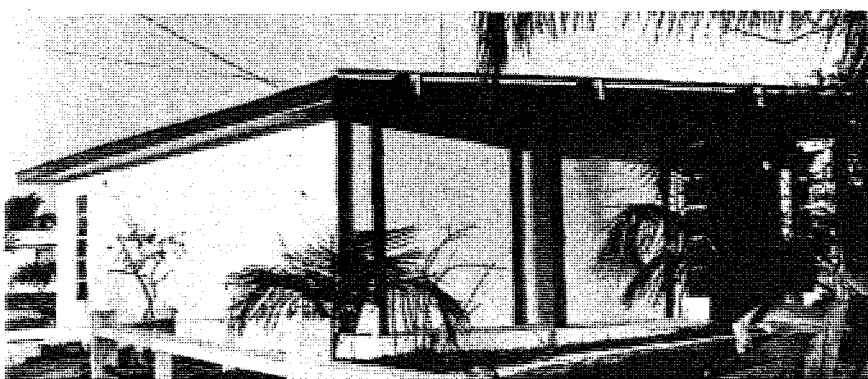

Several persons inquired as to membership costs for only one person and Mr. Kontinos stated the committee would probably approve these at one-half the regular membership charge. Others asked why as members their guests would pay a $7.50 greens fee while motel member guests would pay only $3. After discussion it was concluded that the committee would study this aspect of fees and probably reduce the fee for guests of members to $3 when they actually played golf with the individual member.

many more workers to fill them.

It was not until the middle of the summer of 1966, however, that the nominees were notified of their appointment as members of the Lee County Housing Authority. They were: Adm. E.G. Konrad, chairman; Donald Simonds, Joseph Green, Elizabeth Adler and Leon R. Levy. Subsequently, Elizabeth Adler resigned, as a result of moving to another community, and Robert C. Haynie's name was suggested as her replacement. His appointment is now in the process of being confirmed.

We have now been assured by the County Attorney, Mr. Pavese, that all matters pertaining to the preliminary moves have been settled by his office, and that we can shortly proceed with the necessary initial applications to the proper agencies. This does not mean, necessarily, that favorable action is assured, since many criteria and standards for obtaining funds must still be met, but we will at least have the opportunity to present our case and to determine whether or not further procedure will be possible.

We had hoped, at the time of the first meeting, that, in the intervening elapsed period up to this date, we might have seen concrete evidence of accomplishment. Instead, we are at the same point as when we started the discussions. We continue to be hopeful that the situation may change for the better.

This report is directed to those island residents who have wondered why, after the great show of interest in the project, no progress has been made, and it is the sincere wish of the members of the Authority that its next report may be more encouraging.

THE STORE WITH THE ISLAND FLAVOR

STRICTLY PERSONAL

Mrs. J.J. GRULLEMANS has returned to Captiva Island for the winter season.

Mrs. EXTRA KENDALL GILLETTE of Norfolk, Conn., arrived on Captiva Island late last week for the season.

To The Islander:

Having been an almost annual visitor to Sanibel for about 25 years (1942 the first, I believe) and having owned property there for over 10 years (directly west of the Brown Ferry Boat) I wouldn't think of missing the Sanibel-Captiva Islander. Frankly, I look forward to receiving it each week and enjoy each line.

Most of the years we have been vacationing at Sanibel we have stayed at Casa Ybel. We have also stayed at the Colony and this year probably at Hier's. We have friends from one end of the country to the other we first came to know at Sanibel.
/s/ S.G. Jacobs.

JOSEPH LUSTIG, who has been visiting the Sea Horse Cottages and Sanibel Island for years, was the guest of honor at a dinner in Janesville, Wisc., for which over 400 persons braved a 17-inch blizzard to pay homage to the retiring city manager on Dec. 28.

He served the city for 51 consecutive years (not including time out for service to his country during World War II) starting as a $44 a month worker in 1911.

He said at the dinner that he wasn't leaving Janesville, nor was he retiring. "Retirement has such a finality about it; I don't look at it as retirement, I see it as a continuation of my efforts to make Janesville the wonderful city it is."

He did say, however, that his vacations "may get a bit longer when the snow flies"---so come on down, sir---the fish and the sun are waiting for you.

Bishop and Mrs. LUXTON of Ontario, Canada, are spending two weeks at Island Inn, along with their son and daughter-in-law, The Reverend and Mrs. LUXTON.

Mr. and Mrs. HAMMOND C. AVERY and their grandson, JOHN, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are staying at Island Inn until the beginning of April. They are old time members of the Island Inn.

Mrs. JULIE PECK and her daughter, Mrs. GENE SARAZEN, of Germantown, N.Y., are staying at Island Inn. Mrs. Sarazen's husband is a professional golfer. Mrs. Peck will be here until April; her daughter is spending a week.

Mr. and Mrs. BRUCE KEENER, JR., of Louisville, Tenn., are staying at Island Inn until the beginning of February.

Mr. and Mrs. WOLFGANG KOHLER of Lebanon, New Hamp., are staying until the middle of February.

Mr. and Mrs. T.G. MURRELL of Virginia are spending a week at the Island Inn.

ANNUAL MEETING ELECTS SIMONDS LIBRARY HEAD

Don Simonds, one of the founders and long an ardent worker for the Sanibel Public Library, was elected president of the library at the annual meeting January 11. Other officers named at the meeting were Robert Haynie, vice-president; Mrs. R.F. Fuller, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Musson, treasurer.

The meeting also voted a memorial to the late Arthur E. Swanson who was president of the library at the time of his death. Mr. Swanson, with Mr. Simonds and the Rev. Tad Allen, got the library started some years ago in the Sanibel Community House.

ALO-Cosmetics

Viki Way, the daughter of Bill and Muriel Way of Sanibel Island, recently won an essay contest which made her one of the five Florida representatives on the Bobbie Brooks National Fashion Board.

Viki, who is on the Teen Fashion Board at Maas Bros. in Fort Myers, will be doing monthly assignments throughout the winter and spring months and will be graded on her work, along with the 80 or so other members of the National Fashion Board.

The grades of all will be tabulated, probably sometime in early June, and the top ten will be awarded with a $5,000 scholarship.

In her first assignment, she flew to Tampa last week to interview and then write up a number of fashion experts.

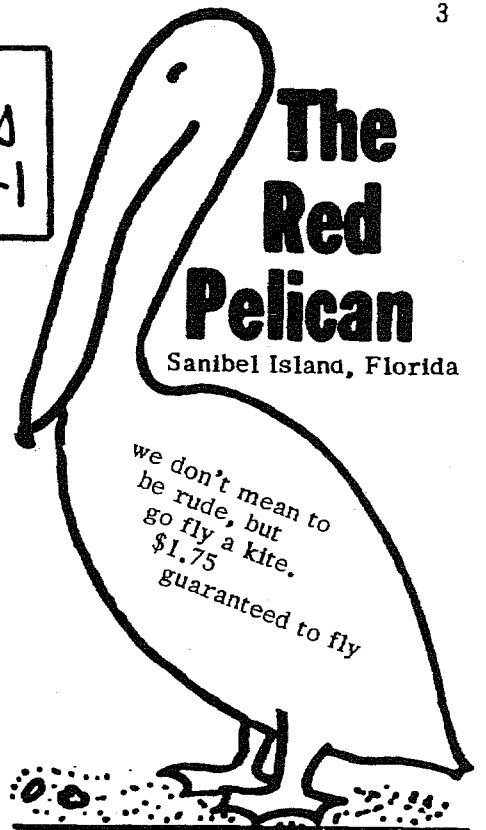

CIVIC ASSOCIATION MEETS

The meeting of the Captiva Civic Asso. will be held Thursday (today) January 19 at 8 p.m. at the community center for the election of a new board of governors. There will be a social hour following the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

IF YOU HAVE ANY NEWS...

This is where to leave it. We are on Captiva Island only on Thursday, while making delivery. To get something to us, you 1) flag us down as we pass 2) catch us when we stop. We stop at Tween Waters Inn, Mid-Island Cottages, the Island Store and South Seas Plantation.

While making delivery, we are also on Sanibel Thursdays, (at a variety of delightful places) but pick up news, ads and copy on Saturday. News, etc., may be left with Roy Bazier at Priscilla Murphy's office or with Dotti or Zee at Dotti's of Sanibel, which we will pick up Saturday afternoon.

NEW SANCTUARY COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Griffing Bancroft of Captiva, and Tom Mitchell of Wulfert Point, Sanibel, were elected members of the J.N. (Ding) Darling Sanctuary Committee, and Mrs. Opal Combs, who has been on the committee since its organization, resigned as an active member at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Emmy Lou Lewis, chairman, on Gulf Drive, Sanibel, last week. Mrs. Combs, also of Gulf Drive, will remain a committee member in an ex-officio capacity.

The committee gave a vote of thanks to Mrs. Combs for her contributions to the Sanctuary, both on the committee and before the latter was formed. When Ding Darling, famous cartoonist, conservationist, and resident of Captiva, died in 1962, Mrs. Combs played a major part in arousing public interest in setting aside the present sanctuary as a memorial to him. Elected a member when the committee was organized, she has served as secretary during most of its life.

Secretarial duties hereafter will be divided. Griffing Bancroft was elected corresponding secretary, and Hervey Roberts, recording secretary.

THANK YOU

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our friends for their kind sympathy during the illness and death of our mother, Rosa Bryant.

Two weeks ago we made life difficult for Molly and Arthur Orloff of the B-Hive by printing their old hours in their advertisement. Please ignore those times completely and remember that the B-Hive is open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily, and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sundays.

Mr. Leon Levy, Sanibel artist, will discuss various art forms and lead a discussion on the subject at the regular meeting of the group on Monday, January 23, 7:30 p.m. at the Sanibel Elementary School.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Island Girl Scouts of Troop # 104 finished off a fine 1966 with a busy pre-Christmas week. On Monday, at the regular meeting, the Scouts finished the eight weeks work to earn their Art Badges. Mrs. Ruth Ross taught the girls and among their fine pictures were a beach scene in water colors, a charcoal still life (a Queen Conch and driftwood) and a hibiscus done in pastels.

Tuesday saw the Girl Scouts and their Leader, Mrs. Mary Aleck, shopping for Christmas gifts for needy children. The girls voted to spend $15 of troop funds for the gifts.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Aleck entertained the girls in her home. After they had made ornaments for the Lee County Girl Scout Christmas Tree, they enjoyed refreshments of tiny hamburgers and hot chocolate.

Mrs. Aleck and her Troop attended the Lee County Girl Scout "Christmas Tree" in Fort Myers Thursday evening. Scouts from all over the county brought ornaments they had made and decorated the tree on the Court House lawn. After presenting the gifts for the needy children, all the Scouts sang Christmas carols.

The Girl Scouts, Mrs. Aleck and the many others who helped the girls with the different projects are to be commended. In 1966, the girls earned FIFTEEN BADGES---and this reporter thinks that must be some sort of record!

BIRD COUNT INFORMATION

Charles Le Buff reported that the 18 observers in the December 30 annual bird count spotted 113 species (made up of 11,294 individual birds) this year. The count last year came to 103 species.

Unusual birds spotted included the Roseate Spoonbill, which is usually rare but is more common in December, the Orange-crowned Warbler, which is new for the Sanibel-Captiva count, the Northern Waterthrush, also new for the count, and the Solitary Vireo, which was not only new for the

It is impossible to list all of the birds spotted, but in case you store statistics to amaze your friends, more Lesser Scaups (3,130) were sighted than any other species. The Red-breasted Merganser (984), the Royal Tern (480), the Snowy Egret (316), the White Ibis (393), the Laughing Gull (304) and the Red Ringed Blackbird (302), were the only other birds seen in numbers above 300.

BOWLING 'EM OVER

The Sanibel-Captiva Real Estate team, "The Sand Dollars," again took three points in league standing this week (they also picked up three points last week, when Jo Pickens almost made a record with a game of 199 and did make a record for herself when she bowled her first 513 series).

Well, this week Jo did herself proud by bowling her very first ever 200 game---she came through with a 204, and is simply delighted by it! Congratulations!

The Islander team, bowling for the Sea Horse Shop and Priscilla Murphy, Realtor, had an above-average night last week when Gogo got a 209 and Ed Legel racked up a 194. They didn't gain any games, however.

Mr. and Mrs. ROYAL SPOFFORD of Gray, Maine, are spending some time at the Gallery. Mrs. Spofford is quite a sheller. She found a lemon pectin in front of the Gallery a few days ago.

the other end of the scale, singletons spotted were one each of the Least Bittern, Ring-necked, Red-tailed, Pigeon and Marsh Hawks, common Snipe, Morning Dove, Screech Owl, common Grache, Carolina Wren and the Northern Waterthrush.

And, in the interests of conversation-stopping facts, the Islands' population includes 92 Mockingbirds, five Loggerhead Shrikes, four Ruby-crowned Kinglets, five Great Crested Flycatchers, 129 Sanderlings, 175 American Widgeons, and 49 White Pelicans.
