DINNER TO HONOR MISS BRYANT

Remember, make your reservations for the testimonial dinner in honor of Miss Scotia Bryant today. Cost for the dinner, at Coconut Grove Restaurant, is $3.50 per person. Phone Peggy Maloney at GR 2-4661, or Ann Winterbotham at GR 2-2182, or see Elsie Henderson at Bailey's Store, Island Shopping Center. Reservations must be in TODAY, so do it now.

The dinner is a community-wide opportunity to honor Scotia Bryant, who retired as Postmaster of Sanibel, June 2, 1967, after serving since March 19, 1943, in that office. Although plans for the dinner were initiated by the Sanibel-Captiva Democratic Club, this is in no sense a political or party affair. It is a personal tribute to Scotia, from all islanders.

CONSERVATION BILL PASSES

The Florida legislature has completed action on legislation which is designed to protect fish, marine and wildlife, and the state's beaches and shorelines. This bill was passed unanimously and is effective immediately.

The bill passed the Senate under the handling of Senator Jerry Thomas, D-Lake Park, after being guided through the House by Representative Ted Randell, D-Fort Myers. The legislation withstood a battle of amendments in the Senate during two days of debate.

Randell said that the final passage of the bill was due to the "great display of teamwork between Senator Thomas and his colleagues who joined him in supporting this important legislation. It was done under tremendous pressure."

Thomas concurred with Randell that the legislation, which now goes to the Governor, is most vital in protecting Florida's natural resources.

"Every effort must be made to protect our fish, marine and wildlife, shorelines and beaches," Thomas said. "The protection of the marine life and our beaches is the responsibility of the state government."

The legislation is strengthening the state cabinet, placing as members of the Internal Improvement Board, which controls the sale of state owned lands, has wanted.

"They and the people, who are sincerely interested in conservation, realize the need for this legislation," he said.

Randell said that there are 120 applications pending before the IIB, many as a result of the introduction of this legislation in an effort to obtain approval before the legislature acted. These applications also come under the provisions of the bill, Randell added.

The bill tightens up the sale or fill of state-owned lands by the trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund by requiring extensive conservation studies, a formal finding as to conservation damage resulting from the proposed action and a withdrawal from sale or fill if damage is found by the trustees to be "contrary to the public interest."

IMPROVEMENTS ADDED TO CAUSEWAY

At long last the sanitary facilities on the Sanibel Causeway are now open. The electricity has been put in and a water line has been installed from the island to the building. This will be a great boon to both picnickers and fishermen alike and is something that has been needed since the causeway has been open.

TO THE ISLANDER

A group of residents and property owners has employed a well known Fort Myers firm of attorneys -- a firm that has won several trailer camp cases recently to fight the proposed 51-acre trailer park on Sanibel.

This group feels that they need a maximum number of supporters to make their stand meaningful to the public officials of the area. They urge dozens of short and emphatic letters from you to these officials. Your letter may just be the one which would be the deciding factor. Further, they need financial support and your contribution, large or small, is solicited. Checks should be made payable to Stewart and Stewart, Attorneys at Law, c/o Mary Elbert Schlayer, "The Mooring," Sanibel Island.

Please voice your opinion with letters and a contribution.

E A S, ON ISLANDS?

The Florida Public Service Commission has issued a "show cause" order as a result of delay by Inter County Telephone and Telegraph Co., in response to the petition by the Mchawk subscribers for extended area service.

If the Greenleaf exchange (Sanibel and Captiva) are to profit by such extended area service, it is necessary that more subscribers sign the petitions.

Copies of the petition are available for your signatures at Sanibel-Captiva Real Estate and Bailey's Store on Sanibel, and Tween Waters Inn and the Post Office on Captiva.

If you are interested in signing, please go to one of the above places and do so soon. This petition will not be brought to you.

Mr. Le Buff will be ready for that hike on July 12. Meet him at the library on Wednesday morning. Mr. Le Buff will be there to greet you older ones -- the little ones will stay with Mrs. Romine for a story hour. Mothers note -- pre schoolers will be ready to go home by 10:30.

PRICE - LYNN

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Price of THE COLONY announce the marriage of their daughter, Lenore Lorraine to Raymond Francis Lynch. The ceremony was held in the Hope Lutheran Church, Pompano Beach, Florida, June 23, 1967. The couple will reside in Pompano Beach after a honeymoon in the Bahamas.

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT P. WHITE of New Hyde Park, New York, visited the islands recently. Owners of property on both Sanibel and La Costa, the Whites stop off anytime Bob's Flights permit -- he is with Pan American Airways. They spent their few days on Sanibel at Sanibel Cottages.

KELLY & D'ANNY McKENNA from Oak Park, Michigan, are visiting their aunt and uncle, MARY and JOE GAULT, and cousins, TIM and JODIE. They are expecting another cousin, MICHAEL RETHEFORD, from Ferndale, Michigan, to join them and the Gault's house will be full of boys for a month.
