SHELL FAIR CHAIRMAN NAMED

The Sanibel Community Association announced at its first meeting last week the appointment of Mrs. John Van Arsdell as the 1968-69 Shell Fair Exhibit Chairman.

The Van Arsdells are not new to the Islands nor is Lois a novice sheller. They came to Captiva as vacationers ten years ago and six years later built their permanent home in the Rocks subdivision on Sanibel. In 1962 a friend suggested that Lois exhibit some of her Sanibel-Captiva shells in that year's Shell Fair. She borrowed a small 6x8 inch tray tiny Chaetopleura apiculata, or lowly chiton, and won her first blue ribbon. Since then she has entered many Sanibel shows and taken many ribbons among them the Sanibel-Captiva Adult Trophy and Sanibel-Captiva Shell of the Show both in 1967. She has been active behind the scenes in varying capacities in other Shell Shows. Although she will not be able to enter the competition this year, (Shell Fair rules prohibit the Exhibit Chairman entering competition,) you will frequently find Lois on the mud flats in the Bay or on the beach at low tide adding to her extensive collection. The Van Arsdells really like "islands." When they leave Sanibel in the summer they go to northern Minnesota to an island of their own called Two Bucket Island where Lois collects land and fresh water snails.

The Community Association is pleased to have Mrs. Van Arsdell serve as Chairman of the Exhibit Committee and all members offer her their loyal support.

After twelve years, Mr. and Mrs. DAVID R. HINTON from Milwaukee, Wisconsin found a beautiful junonia while shelling on Sanibel this week. They were shelling at the Casa Ybel beach when Mrs. Hinton found the Junonia.

Guests staying at Beachview Cottages this week are Mrs. MARGARET WEST of Middleburg, N.Y., who has returned for a six month visit. Mrs. West says no place in the world is as beautiful and relaxing as our Island.

Mr. & Mrs. ROYCE YOUNG of Chicago, Ill. have returned for a two week visit and say that the Sanibel bug has bitten them for sure.

Newcomers to the Island are Mr. & Mrs. CHRISTIAN BONTV and their two sons of Rye, N.Y. It's their first trip to the Tropics and they are enjoying it thoroughly. The Bontv family have just come to the states from Germany and they plan to return for a six week visit next year.

Mr. & Mrs. ERIC HENSEL of Hillsdale, N.J. are back for another relaxing two week visit.

WORKSHOP MEETING

There will be a workshop meeting held Thursday evening at 7:30 at the home of Maud Snook on Gulf Drive. All ladies of the Guild and Church are invited. Willing hands, as well as helpful ideas, are needed in making Christmas items for the annual bazaar.

INTERESTED IN FLYING?

A dinner meeting will be held at the Golden Sands Restaurant at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 14, for the purpose of discussing with interested people the actigation of a Civil Air Patrol Squadron on Sanibel and Captiva. Prior military service or flying experience is not mandatory for membership, since flight training will be instituted as part of the project. The eighth group Commander and some of his staff will be present at the meeting to answer any questions. Anyone interested in aviation is invited to contact Gene Broadbent for reservations.

ANNUAL BAZAAR

The Annual Bazaar and White Elephant Sale of the Sanibel Community Church will be held on November 30 at the Community House. Featured this year will be the White Elephant Table under the chairmanship of Sylvia Strong, Jo Romine and Helen Ploesser. All summer the ladies have been collecting articles for the sale. Many items are new and would make fine Christmas gifts.

While browsing, plan to stop at the lunch counter for a delicious homemade sandwich. Carol Nix and Linda Legel will also be happy to serve you coffee and a doughnut.

Bring your friends and make a day of it at the Bazaar.
