"PHOTO-VERSE"

On October 10, Mario Hutton opened what promises to be a very active season of "photo-verse" showings. He appeared before the Fort Myers Chapter of the D.A.R., presenting several of the 10 new features he had completed during the summer months. His next programs will be held in Vero Beach before the Pelican Island Audubon Society, and in Sarasota, where he will give a benefit performance for the new Crowley Museum and Nature Center. It is expected that this event will have an attendance of over 700 people.

However, last summer was not only picture taking time for Mario. On three occasions he spent about one week each time on the commercial fishing boat "Harbor Queen," cruising the Gulf of Mexico for red snapper and grouper with excellent results -- and he has pictures to prove it! Recently, he also resumed his weekly trips aboard the "Blue Heron" winning the jackpot on his two last outings.

SANIBEL COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

Although the regular meetings of the Sanibel Community Association have been popular all summer, we believe an all time attendance was achieved on Tuesday, Oct. 7 meeting with Marty Holtz presiding in the absence of the president, Floyd Snook. Bob Adcock took over for the treasurer, John Cook. We had more than seventy members and guests attending the buffet dinner. The business meeting followed. Among the many improvements announced was the acquisition of 20 trash barrels for cleanliness on the Islands.

Hosts and hostesses for the buffet were Mr. & Mrs. Harry Iurka and Mr. & Mrs. Ed Legel. Croton leaves, together with other Island foliage, decorated the tables. A new look is evident throughout the inside of the building. Thanks to the following: Mesdames Charles Muller, Hal Irwin, Walter Strong, Earl Skinner, Dan Moore and Del Reynolds, along with a big assist from Al Walther. Nice going, Folks! A house committee can do wonders, and this one did.

New members who were welcomed included Mr. & Mrs. Charles Burr, Mr. & Mrs. Walter Emmons, Bill Mains, Mr. & Mrs. Bill Garret and Mrs. Delia Kyle.

The Shell Table, for which donations for tickets are now available, was on display and will be much in evidence until the Shell Fair.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

ROLEY FRENNETTE of the Blue Heron has just returned from a short visit to Clearwater and New Port Ritchie. Even though it rained, he gave the golf courses a good workout. Staying with them this week from Channel Islands are Dr. & Mrs. P. L. KROHN. The good doctor received his doctorate at Birmingham, England, Mrs. Frennette's home. They have visited Las Vegas and Death Valley but so far they like Sanibel and Captiva the best.

The Surfrider has Mr. & Mrs. W. L. JACOBSON of Winter Haven, Fla., here to look over the shelling; Mr. & Mrs. M. A. KINNA of Silver Springs, Md. are delighted with the quaintness of the Islands. Mr. & Mrs. R. C. STEWART of Coral Gables are having a ball shuffling and shelling. Mr. and Mrs. ROGER T. SMITH of Satellite Beach are here for R&R (rest and relaxation) as are Mr. & Mrs. AL FLAKE and two daughters from Pontiac, Mich.

Honeymooning at Zic Zac recently were Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE WESLEY GUNN, JR. (nee Sandra Martin) following their wedding in Grace Lutheran Church in Winter Haven. Mr. Gunn is the nephew of TOM and MARY NIX and has been a frequent visitor to Sanibel the last 15 years. He is in the Air Force and is based in Okinawa.

The petite and effervescent PRISCILLA MURPHY has returned from a well earned vacation and had a marvelous time.

Mr. and Mrs. FRANCIS BAILEY came back to Sanibel Sunday after an interesting trip combining business and pleasure. They went to Miami to attend a meeting of Grocers and Clothiers, and shopped for Christmas toys for Bailey's Store and then flew over to Nassau. Now they're home again.

Rev. & Mrs. JACK OTIS from Malone, Fla., returned to Sanibel and a visit to Captiva after an absence of several years; they were quite taken with the many changes on the Islands. They spent several days at The Surfrider and Rev. Otis preached the a.m. service at the Sanibel Baptist Church Oct. 4. Due to the rough waters and winds, he did not get a chance to fish after hauling his boat all that distance.

RAY and MARGE CARNER of Periwinkle Way have just returned from their vacation; they visited 18 states and Mexico. One of the highlights of the trip was camping in Big Bend National Park and riding the burros across the Rio Grande into Boquillas, Mexico, an experience never to be forgotten. They also visited their daughter, Capt. ANTOINETTE (TONI) CARNER in Great Falls, Mont. Capt. Carner has just returned from a tour of duty in Okinawa. (She's a nurse.)

SANIBEL REALTY SALES

Aura E. Coburn to Doris Sellers Affolter, lot, Shell Harbor, Sanibel Island, $8,000; the Nature Conservancy to the United States of America, 25 acres in Sanibel Refuge, Sanibel Island, $7,500; Monroe Jeffcott and Warren J. Jeffcott to William B. Friday, lot, Sanibel Island, $7,500. Richard O. Coffeen to Garland L. Mow, lot, Sanibel Island, $10,000; Monroe Jeffcott and Warren J. Jeffcott to Shannon Industrial Corp., lot, Sanibel, $9,000.

Major among the past week's sales was a parcel of Captiva Island that Anthony L. Michel of Cook County, Ill., sold to Hudson Holland of Belchertown, Mass., for $130,000.

The parcel extends from Roosevelt Channel opposite Buck Key on the east to the Gulf of Mexico on the west. The Island Highway, the Sanibel-Captiva road, divides the parcel into almost equal halves of approximately 40 acres each. The parcel is subdivided but there has been no activity toward development.

BILL and KATHRINE NEWMAN took a month away from the Chamber of Commerce here on Sanibel, spending their vacation, first visiting son, BILL, JR. and family in Ft. Ritchie, Ind. Bill, Jr. is in Meteorology service in Washington, D.C. Then on to Penn State to see son, JAMES, wife and three grandchildren. James got his masters degree there and is not assistant professor. They also visited son, DAYTON and wife and four grandchildren in Hanover, N.J., Mr. & Mrs. ARTHUR MEAD in Bloomfield, N.J., Dr. & Mrs. BEN HOWELL in Princeton, N.J., Mr. & Mrs. JAMES MEAD in Ardmore, Pa. Their next trip was to a rural Amish country in Pa.; they also stopped in West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. Then to Orlando to visit daughter and husband, Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT ROBINSON, after which they came home to rest. Bill says he is getting good reports of fishing around the Islands and the Pier.

COMES THE AUTUMN

Quietly, and with an aristocratic splendor, the summer has slipped almost unnoticed into a tranquil Fall. Most people think we have only two seasons, summer and winter. If they only knew how delightful the last of September and the entire month of October really was on our Islands they would be here in droves.

To witness the coming of the birds for the winter stay, the changes in the Gulf, the fish, the beautiful sunrises and sunsets, the delightful breezes during the day and the whispering quietude of Fall, makes these luscious Islands of Sanibel and Captiva a joy worth experiencing.

Small gulf front parcel which can be subdivided at little expense. Reasonably priced. Residential zoning.

Attractive, modern, small resort hotel which is in perfect condition. Ideal way of life since it provides income plus tax shelter, plus very comfortable owners quarters with only a few hours a week required for operation.

Gulf front resort with lovely gulf beach front property. Assured income plus inevitable rise in value.

A very lovely residence on the Gulf beach will be available for rental this winter. For those interested in gracious accommodations by the month or longer, this is a highly unusual offering. Will accommodate 2 couples with ease.

Exceptional small business opportunity just waiting to be snapped up by an energetic husband and wife team. Will pay for itself in less than a year and will make a good living every year thereafter.

We are building a new office and our present little 12' x 16' building is for sale. To be moved.

HURRAH FOR THE SOCIAL WHIRL!

Handicapped men and women at Goodwill are looking forward eagerly to the Fall and Winter Social Season and not necessarily because they are avid party goers.

They hope Florida's energetic and enthusiastic hostesses will schedule many parties, balls and formal and informal get-togethers.

They also hope everyone who attends these functions will appear in new fashionable attire to please the eye of the beholder.

Why are handicapped persons so interested in community social events?

They know from experience that whenever new dresses or suits are purchased, thoughtful residents ease the crowding of garments in their closets, by dropping the older ones in a Goodwill deposit box at a nearby shopping center.

These repairable clothes are literally the life blood for handicapped persons at Goodwill. They rejuvenate and resell the clothing in Goodwill bargain stores in order to pay wages while learning skills which eventually lead to employment in private business.

They'd like to remind husbands who may become irritated at the phrase, "I haven't a thing to wear," that indirectly the husbands are also helping the handicapped when they buy new garments for their wives and daughters.

They also help when they drive their ladies to the nearest Goodwill box with a load of dresses which were pushed back and jammed into an overloaded closet.

"Party, anyone?" asks Goodwill.

LEE COUNTY CHAMBER TO MEET

SUNSET SOUTH BOX 131 SANIBEL, FLORIDA 33957

NEWCOMERS CORNER

Just a few of the many newcomers are Byrne and Roxane Badenoch on Yachtsmans Drive. They are from Wayzata, Minn. Byrne retired after 25 years with General Mills, home of Betty Crocker. He was Industrial Director. They have a son, Mike, a senior in Blake School in Minnesota. He'll be coming down for Christmas vacation and working on his hobby, Herpetology (snake collecting to you.)

Another couple, James and Frances Scholefield, are from Edina, Minn. and they love Sanibel too. Right now they have gone to Boston, Mass. to see their son, Reed. They have just had a visit from their other son, John, who is with the Peace Corp in El Salvador, Central America. The Scholefields will return shortly to enjoy Thanksgiving and other holidays with new friends.

Then there are Donald (Don) and Grace Whitehead on Lindgren Blvd. from Washington, D.C. Grace is a registered nurse and Don is retired from the Foreign Service, having been in Africa and South America for some time but most of all, 11 years stationed in France. If you want to know anything about catching fish and crabs just call Don and Grace. (If you are interested in Manaray and its preparation call Don.)

Say hi to Jack and Dovie Cooper who are from Oklahoma City and are staying in Periwinkle Trailer Park awaiting the completion of their new home on Lindgren Blvd. Jack is retired from the Air Force. Ask him who catches the fish around his house!

John and June Ledbetter on Captiva, with their two children, Shinger and Markus are newcomers from Sarasota. John is associated with South Seas Plantation and even though this is a rather slow time, he is still busy with all the activities out there.

Last, but not least, an addition to the newcomers corner: Tom and Pearl McIntosh on Periwinkle Way. They are from that cold country of Clairton, Pa. Tom is a retiree from U.S. Steel Corp. as well as his father-in-law, William Charles Foreman. They have a daughter, Lynn, a senior at Cypress Lake High School. The McIntosh family is quite talented; Tom is a wood carver, piano tuner, and also plays. Lynn is a wood carver, artist and piano and organ player. Pearl's hobby is fishing and she can really catch them.

THE L&M GRAND PRIX

The Automobile Racing Club of Florida take pleasure in announcing that the Liggett and Myers Company of Durham, N.C. will sponsor the final round of the Sports Car Club of America's 1969 Professional Drivers Championship Race Series at Sebring, Florida, on Dec. 28, 1969. The event will be entitled The L&M Grand Prix.

A record $40,000 guaranteed purse exclusive of some $10,000 in additional manufacturers cash awards, make it the richest race of the 1969 series. The Federation Internationale DeL'Automobile (FIA) of Paris, France, have added their sanction to the event, thus admitting drivers of world status.

A pair of talented young Americans are poised to run for the Drivers Championship title. Tony Adamowicz and Sam Posey, both from Connecticut, are the current leaders in the series with 47 points and 41 points respectively, and one of the two is destined to become the champion of the 1969 series. Many other American and European drivers will be battling for the extremely attractive prize purse and runner up placings.

Almost unanimously, competitors have chosen American power plants prepared by such masters of automotive engineering as Traco and Bartz of California. Horsepower outputs as high as 450 to 500 are common with resultant speeds of up to 200 miles per hour.

The L&M Grand Prix will represent the sole unique opportunity for Floridians and visitors to the state to see true racing cars in action in the Southeastern area of the United States.
