AUDUBON LEADERS MEET

Back from Palm Beach, where he attended the Florida Audubon Society's Fall Leaders Conference, Mario Hutton reports that the event was among the most significant and constructive of its kind held to date. The near 200 participants exchanged views and reached agreement on strategy to follow in order to better achieve the goals held essential in the fields of conservation and wildlife protection. Diversified topics were discussed, such as endangered species, dangerous pesticides, status of the cross Florida Barge Canal, aquatic preserves, and the menace to the Everglades posed by the intended jetport. Several Florida senators and representatives participated in the work of some of the Committees, so that a better understanding on many problems was established with members of the State Legislature.

Mario Hutton was invited to show some of his latest "photo-verse" features at the coming annual Convention of the Florida Audubon, to be held at Cocoa from Jan. 29 to Feb. 1. This is the fifth time that he has presented a program at Florida Audubon gatherings.

ARMISTICE DAY ON ISLAND

The American Legion Post #123 of Sanibel-Captiva Island conducted a program at Sanibel School on Armistice Day. All of the children, teachers, and a number of American Legion members gathered around the flag pole for the ceremony.

The program opened with a prayer by Mr. Marshall Holtz. A pledge was given to the flag and then Mr. Paul Stahlin, commander of the Post, talked about the importance of the flag to us.

Mr. Richard Kearns asked for a moment of quiet to respect the soldiers who have died for our country.

The Legion purchased new flags for the school which were presented by Mr. Kearns. Each room received a new flag and a new United States Flag with stand and a Florida flag with stand was received for the general room.

After the presentation of the flags, Mrs. Winan's room sang "This Land is Our Land." Everyone joined in the singing.

The school wishes to thank the members of the Legion for the beautiful flags they donated and they promise to take good care of them. Some day they hope they can do something for the Legion, but for now they can be good boys and girls and respect our flag and our country.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

CHARLES (BILL) and HAZEL HUGHES, owners of Twin Palms Cottages on Captiva, have just returned from Craig, Colorado, where they were deer hunting. Bill got two beauties, but Hazel missed her elk. They're glad to be back in warm sunny Florida as in Colorado they ran into several inches of snow and very icy roads. Son, BILL, and Mr. & Mrs. SHAVER took over the management of the cottages during the hunting trip.

LONNIE JACKSON of Gary, Ind., staying at the Surf Rider Motel, playing golf with its owner, BILL SUCH, JR., had a hole in one on Nov. 9, playing at the South Seas Plantation Golf Course. Using a No. 6 iron on the par three sixth hole, Lonnie had his ace. This was his second hole in one. He finished strong with a birdie, birdie and par after his ace, completing the last four holes in ten shots. Lonnie says he certainly will return to Sanibel, that with the shelling, fishing, swimming and such fine golf, the Island is really a vacation paradise. Mr. Jackson played football at Alabama and also minor league baseball in the south. Mrs. LONNIE (HELEN) JACKSON and her mother, Mrs. HENRIETTA WITHERSPOON, are getting a lovely tan and gathering shells.

TED and FANNY ROOT from Garfield, Ohio are at the Zic-Zac Cottages again. They have been coming here for many years and are enthusiastic shellers and fishermen.

Mr. & Mrs. JOHN EASKINS are at home now on Buttonwood Lane, after a summer in Evanston, Ill. Mr. Eakins had a short stay in the hospital there, and is most happy to be back in Florida.

Friends of TOMMY WYNN, the brother of EULA RHODES, were pleased to hear that Tommy who is at Lee Memorial Hospital, with a ruptured appendix is reported on the mend.

The Reef is happy to welcome back for their annual stay, several more guests and friends. Mr. & Mrs. DON WICKS, Woodstock, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. CHARLES BURHENNE, Vienna, Va.; Mr. & Mrs. W. H. BARBER, Depew, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. EUGENE MARTZ, Evanston, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. HERMAN FOX, East Petersburg, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. FRED KNAUER, Clayton, Ind.

Mr. & Mrs. RALPH DeLONG, Dayton, Ohio. Mr. DeLong, has already found several very nice live Lady's Ears.

Mr. & Mrs. A. M. HARTLEY are here for a first visit to the Island and to the Reef. Mrs. Hartley is Mr. FRANK HERR'S sister, from Far Hills, N.J. Mrs. Frank Her, while on a fishing and shelling trip, caught several weird species, one of which is a "Sleep-er," who will find a home at the Sea Horse aquarium and will be named Marian, in honor of Mrs. Herr.

Guest at the Sanibel Cottages, Mrs. RUSSELL LICHTY of York, Pa., found a junonia on Nov. 10. Mr. Lichty found a Scotch bonnet. Mrs. ED GERHOLT of Columbus, Ohio found a 1/2 of a Lions Paw.

Miss MADILINE GANDON of Orleans, France, spent several days here on the Island visiting Dr. & Mrs. SIMMONS. Miss Gandon was associated with them as an interpreter and in public relations. She has visited many former associates in many states throughout our land but says definitely, that Florida and these Islands in particular, are indeed the most beautiful.

CHUCK & FAE MULLER had as their guests for 3 days, Fae's sister and brother-in-law, ALVINA and OWEN WILSON and Mrs. CLARICE MUILENBURG, all from Lansing, Mich. While on Sanibel they stayed at the Casa Laguna Motel.

Mr. & Mrs. A. D. SYFRETT of Destin Beach, Fla., paid our Island a first visit this weekend and were so impressed with it that there may soon be two new residents. Those looking for peace and tranquility usually find it here on Sanibel and Captiva.

Mr. and Mrs. HUMPHREY ODOR from Middletown, Ohio are visiting the Islands and admiring the lovely birds and shells, also the beaches. They're staying at the Surf and Sand. In Ohio they manage a Christian Camp for youngsters. They have had as many as 1,100 at one time. Some parents think they have problems with only four children!

Rev. & Mrs. JACK OTIS of the First Baptist Church returned to their home after attending the Baptist State Convention in Miami, Fla.

Mr. & Mrs. IRVIN PATTERSON of Lincoln, Neb. are staying at Casa Turquesa, while their new home is being built. They have been joined here by friends, Mr. & Mrs. JULIAS FISCHER from Oakley, Kans.

Mr. & Mrs. FRED MADILL and children, CAROL and BOBBY and their friend, TONI FUCH from Marathon, Fla., are visiting here, gathering shells and fishing.

Mr. HENRY RHODES of Sanibel and his son, IRVING of Captiva were in Jacksonville, Fla., to visit Henry's brother, EDWIN RHODES in a local hospital there. Shortly after the visit Edwin expired. We extend our sympathies to the Rhodes families.

Mrs. CLAIRE WALTER is recuperating at her home after surgery and several days in Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mr. HERB PURDAY is in Lee Memorial Hospital undergoing tests and consulting specialists.

Col. RUSSELL RUPERT was admitted to Lee Memorial Hospital on Nov. 13. He is resting better at this time.

Mrs. RUPERT was accompanied to Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami on Sunday, Nov. 16 by Mrs. DOROTHY JOHNSON of Fort Myers Beach. Mrs. Rupert is under the care of a Neurology specialist.

CONCHOLOGIST SOCIETY

What a lovely field shelling trip the Southwest Florida Conchologist Society had in Marathon Key, Florida over Nov. 7, 8, 9 and 10. Several members from Sanibel were in the group, Helen Denny, Jeanne Walther, Fae Muller, Ethel Reynolds, Dottie Stearns, Lillian Skinner, Holly Moore, Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Burt along with Charles and Marge Conniff, (Charles is president of the Shell Club), Ada and Joe Dayton, Lucie King, all of Ft. Myers, Jerry Bijur of Naples and Harold T. Johnson of Decatur, Ill.

newcomer's corner

Chateau D'Orleans, located in the Chateaux Sur-Mer area, is the name of the lovely home of Dr. & Mrs. I. H. (Sim) and (Patsy) Simmons. They are originally from Mass., though they have been in practically every state.

Dr. Simmons, as an officer in Military Service, was also in preventive medicine for 27 years. Alaska is the only state that wasn't their home at one time or another. They were also in France for 3 years and Japan and Okinawa for 2 years; other stations included Porta Rico, St. Lucia, etc. They have nine lovely Godchildren. They love collecting antiques and Dr. Simmons' specialty is antique maps and photography. Of course they like to collect shells. They also have 3 beautiful Burmese cats. Two are rare blue ones. At this point Midnight (That's our black Siamese, as if you didn't know) in utter disgust, got down off the table where your reporter was typing. You don't suppose she was mad or jealous because other cats were mentioned, do you?

Just putting the finishing touches to their new home on Din-Kim Bayou, in the Castaways S/D, are Misses Phyllis Marsman and Selma Heinke. They designed the home and it is truly exotic and outstanding. They share it with two cute Poodles, Joli and Peugeot.

Miss Edna Russell from Long Island, N.Y., a former school teacher, decided to come to Florida and live a little. She is having a new home built on Yachtsman Dr. In the meantime, she's very busy in a new business venture, the Sanibel Originals Shop on Periwinkle Way. She makes a lot of the items herself, but most of the others are made by local Islanders. Her hobbies are shell creations and ceramics.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

BOB and JEAN AYCOCK are not newcomers, but are two very interesting and busy people. He's retired Colonel. They have ventured into a new business, shells. They own the Shell Net in the Island Shopping Center. Jean has a hand in selecting and displaying many products made by the islanders. JOYCE IRWIN and LOIS VAN ARSDELL do the hard work. Bob is office manager of Priscilla Murphy's branch office; they are also the chairmen of the Shell Fair this year. Bob is an official of both the Lions Club and Community Association and a counselor at the Community Church. They have a son, ROBERT, JR. and one granddaughter.

Mr. BURTON ELMORE HAYES and ELLINER JOHANNE BRUNO, both of Sanibel Island, were recently married.

TOM and JO MUSSON, who have lived here on Sanibel for several years, are moving to a condominium in Fort Myers, due to Tom's health. Jo cared for the altar at the Catholic Church for many years, and each time there was something to be done you could always find a "Little George" by the name of Jo doing it. They will be sadly missed by their many friends and neighbors who wish them lots of health and happiness in their new home.

If any of you happened to drop by the Shell Harbor Inn the past week you would have detected an atmosphere of excitement. We were all thrilled when Mr. & Mrs. SCOBAY of Springfield, N.J. set out to find a Kings Crown and returned with a five inch sea horse. They really took home the treasures.

JANE COPENHAVER of Fort Lauderdale also generated more excitement when she added a golden olive to her collection.

The RAYMOND POLANDS of Rantoul, Ill., and the LEE MATTHEWS of Indianapolis, Ind. have really greeted the birds in the morning in order to hit the fishing hole before the crowd. Must pay off, they came in with a 15 lb. grouper plus many other fish. Their good friends, the HOWARD WYMANS of Maitland, Fla., have joined them for the fish fry.

The Ding Darling Sanctuary was the hideout for Mr. & Mrs. BEN FRIEDMAN of Metairie, La., during most of their visit to Sanibel. Mrs. Friedman was taken with shell collecting and came in with some real goodies.

Welcome back to Mr. & Mrs. DONALD LAWRENCE who have returned to our island for a week of relaxing, shell collecting (specializing in "Ladies Curls") and just have fun doing nothing.

Mr. & Mrs. DONALD CARPENTER of Detroit, Mich. and Mr. & Mrs. ALDRICH are drinking in the sunshine and sea air on our lovely beaches.

The W. H. CORBETTS are enjoying their visit so much they have decided to stay a few days longer.

THE COLONY GUESTS

Guests enjoying a vacation at The Colony are Mr. & Mrs. Harold Schink of Paterson, N.J.; Mr. & Mrs. John May of Worthington, Ohio; Mr. & Mrs. John Williams and Mr. & Mrs. Speckman of Columbus, Ga.; Mr. & Mrs. Wallace Dayton of Minneapolis, Minn.; Dr. Arnold H. Lowe of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mr. & Mrs. Francis Hay of Old Greenwich, Conn.; Mr. & Mrs. William Asborn of Darien, Conn.; Mrs. Thomas Ford and Mrs. Thomas of Franklin Square, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. Bennett Burgoon, Sr. of Park Forrest, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. A. H. McComb of Phoenix, Ariz.; and Mr. & Mrs. W. A. Harris of St. Petersburg, Fla.

THE ISLAND CHEF

CRAB-BURGERS

From the kitchen of Julia Miller

2 cups Crab Meat (Sanibel Blue Crabs, of course)
1 cup Bread Crumbs
1/2 cup milk
2 tbsp. chopped parsley
eggs, beater
1 tsp. salt

Mix well, form into burger-size patties, fry gently in butter. Serve on toasted hamburger buns with tarter sauce. This amount will make six large patties.

This recipe is an adaptation of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Crab Patties, from her cookbook and is a pleasant island change from the universal hamburger.

Mr. & Mrs. H. KIRKUS DUGDALE of Seaford, Del., have returned for the winter to their cottage, "Spindrift" on Captiva Island. With them will be their guest, Mrs. WM. S. McCONNELL also of Seaford. Mrs. Dugdale is bringing with her several of her recent Butterfly paintings.

Mr. & Mrs. E. WESTBROOK, from Port Arthur, Texas have been coming to the Beachcomber Motel for several years. This year they made some unusual finds on the beach. A beautiful golden olive, several baby ears and numerous other lovely shells.

Another guest at the Beachcomber, was Mrs. CARMEN SCHUPP from North Olmsted, Ohio. She also took home some lovely shells, from the shores of the Beachcomber. She also went on a boat trip to the mud flats. From there she brought back a beautiful angel wing. From a dredging trip she took home an 11" horse conch, plus other valuable small shells, simnia, semiele, and chiton.

LEE COUNTY FREIGHT AND TRAFFIC BUREAU IN ACTION

The Lee County Freight and Traffic Bureau has been very active during the past several weeks. In addition to investigating a number of local claims for loss or damage, your Bureau, along with others, has been successful in defeating an effort by truck lines to impose a "Delivery Charge" on shipments of under 1,000 pounds. A recent effort by one truck line to add an "Arbitrary Charge" of $1.50 on all shipments of under 1,000 pounds was protested by your Bureau and withdrawn before the Interstate Commerce Commission ruled on it.

Freight forwarders and railroads now limit their liability on concealed damage claims to 50% of the net loss. Mr. Dwight Green of the Bureau said, "To circumvent problems, I would strongly recommend that any shipments received be carefully inspected, and where cartons or containers appear to have received rough treatment that they be opened for inspection in the presence of the driver with any damage notated on the freight bill. Even though the regulations limit the liability, court procedure is still available where it is felt that a good case can be made."

Two announcements of local importance have been made by the Bureau. Pony Express has been granted temporary authority for movement of packages up to 125 lbs. and shipments up to 500 lbs. in Lee and several other Southwest Florida Counties, and interstate railroads will increase their rates by 6% effective Nov. 18, 1969.

If you need information concerning your traffic problems, such as freight rates, routings, export procedures, damage or overcharge, it is available free of charge from your Freight and Traffic Bureau at the Chamber of Commerce Office.

WORD WEAVERS

Word Weavers is a magazine published by the Association of Florida Poets, Inc. as an outlet for the creativity of the members to give them voice, and perhaps to furnish a mirror in which to see themselves. To those who only read or listen, and who enrich their association by lending an attentive, appreciative or critical ear, they have offered Word Weavers for their consideration.

The heart is in the poet's inkwell in which he dips his pen to write in living crimson of comic, tragic men. To capture dreams and longings, to measure faith and fears one pure and perfect poem to echo down the years.

The above delightful poem by Judson Davidson is an excellent portrayal of the contents of their Word Weavers. You will hear more of this in the issues to come.

CURB HOLIDAY DEATHS WITH TOTAL EFFORT

Only a total effort can keep this year's Thanksgiving holiday from following in the bloody footsteps of last year's near record the Florida Highway Patrol said today.

The Patrol made the call for an all out effort by the motoring public as they predicted 37 people would die in traffic accidents across the state during the 102-hour holiday period.

Colonel Reid Clifton, Director of the Patrol said, "A total effort is the only way we can stop the deaths. A total effort by law enforcement, judges, safety organizations and drivers can help prevent highway slaughter, but without driver support safety campaigns cannot be successful."

Clifton said the Patrol will have all troopers and auxiliary personnel patrolling during peak traffic hours. They will be using unmarked cars, radar, VASCAR, and aircraft to apprehend law breakers and will be receiving assistance from Conservation and Wildlife Officers.

The holiday period begins at 6 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 26 and ends midnight, Sunday, Nov. 30.

Last year 46 people were killed in a similar 102-hour Thanksgiving holiday. That death rate, one every 2.4 hours, is the second highest holiday toll on record.

Letter To The Editor

To The Islander:

It was with great interest that I read Mr. Christensen's letter in last week's Islander.

However, he was incorrect on one item --- namely, that dealing with a wendletrap, which he interpreted as "wentletrap." While wentletraps are not news, wendletraps are.

It is a wooden slatted structure stamped "wendletrap" and was designed in the last century by the R. J. Ward Company of Hoboken, New Jersey, to trap the sea creature wendel in. The reason they are so rare was that the last one was manufactured in 1902. Occasionally, however, one will wash ashore.

Incidentally, the reason one never finds a wendle in the sea is because the traps were so efficient, the wendle (a nasty creature which fed on junonias and lavender olives exclusively) is now extinct.

I hope this has cleared up what could have become a very serious misunderstanding.

/s/ Informatively yours,
Dr. Jonah Mitchell.

THRIFT SHOP TO OPEN

Noah's Ark Episcopal Woman's Thrift Shop will open for the season, Thursday, Nov. 20. The hours will be from one to four p.m. daily. The shop will be closed on Thanksgiving Day.

DON'T MISS THIS!

Final preparations are underway at the Community Church for the annual Xmas Bazaar and white elephant sale on Nov. 29 at the Community Building. The doors will open at 10 a.m. What will they have? Listen to this! Home grown plants from the gardens of Harry Romine, Tom Nix and Mrs. Opa Coombs will be featured at the plant booth, as well as a variety of hibiscus, bromeliads, surinam cherries, lime trees and beautiful crotons. Booths of baked goods, booths for Christmas items, booths of handmade items and the usual white elephants. Visitors can have a sandwich and coffee at the sandwich bar. All the fine work is under the competent chairman of the Bazaar, Mrs. Hal Irwin. Please remember the date, Saturday, Nov. 29 at 10 a.m.

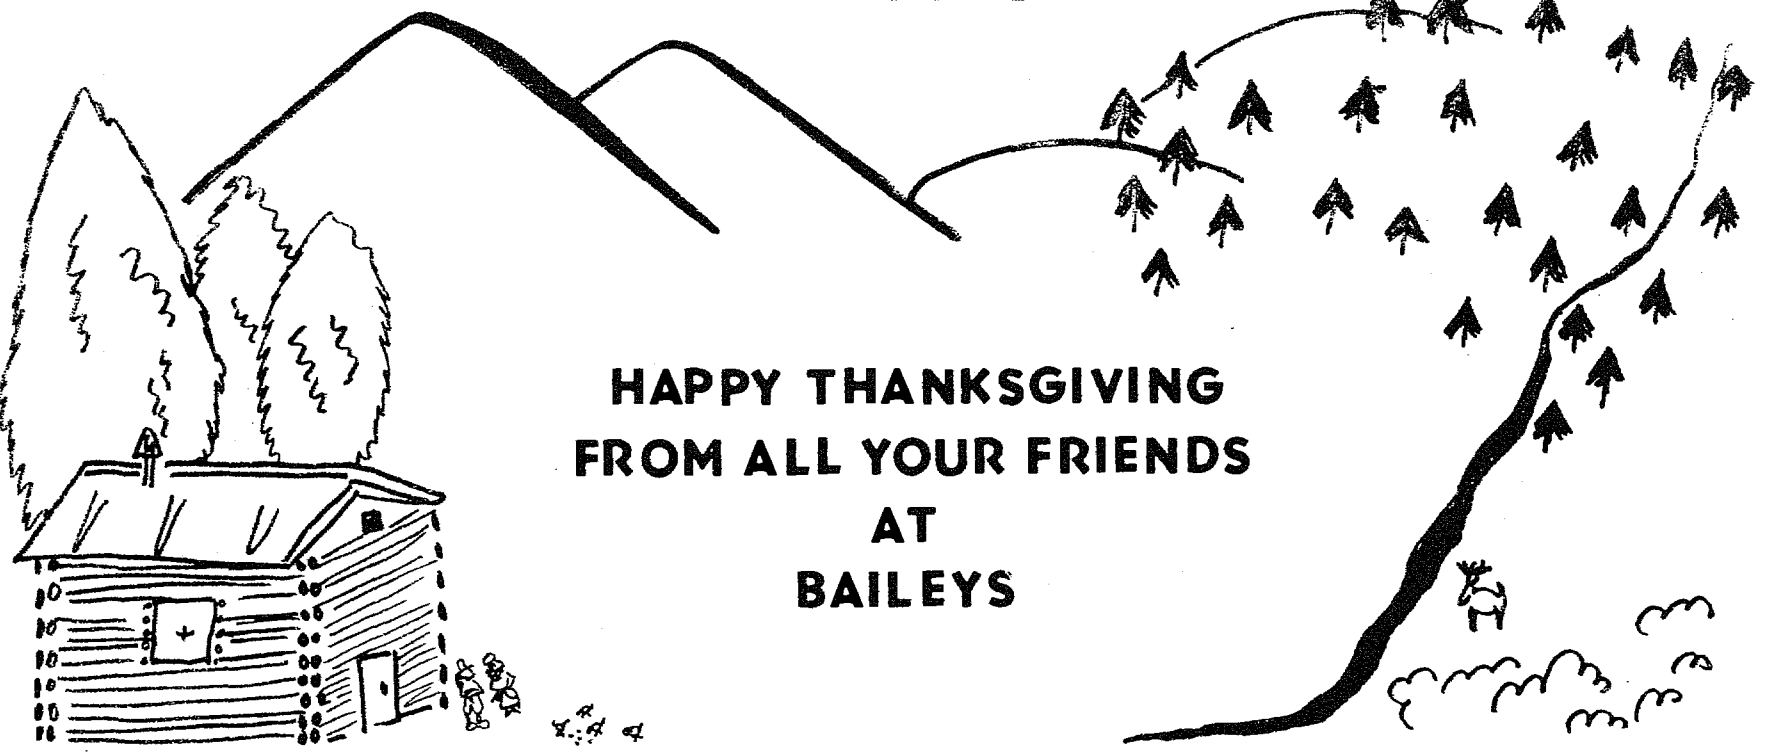

Pirate Playhouse announces the case of "The Great Sebastians" as follows: Jean Culpepper, Roy Bazire, Charlotte White, Robert Dormer, Priscilla Murphy, Duane White, Winnifred Yorka, Grace Whitehead, Stanley Brown, George Brinkworth, Ruth Hunter, Don Whitehead, Fred Bunnell and Phillip Hunter in the role of "The Great Sebastians". Phillip Hunter also directs this melodramatic comedy written by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse. Mr. Lindsay wrote "Life with Father," "Life with Mother," "State of the Union," "Remains to be Seen," "Tall Story" and with Damon Runyon, "A Slight Case of Murder."

The Great Sebastians was produced on Broadway on Jan. 4, 1956, the same year Ruth and Philip opened their famous Towndock Theater, at Port Washington, N.Y. on Manhasset Bay's waterfront. Jan. 4, 1970 has been chosen as the opening date for "Great Sebastians", 8:15 p.m. Box Office, GR 2-3943.

BAZAAR BIG SUCCESS

The Lee Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Bazaar was a terrific success; many Islanders aided in this success by donating gifts and items to be given as door prizes, some donators were: Seahorse Shop, bamboo chair; The Thetan, coffee table; Bailey's General Store, rod and reel. Mrs. Ruth Hunter donated a copy of her book, "Barefoot Girl on Broadway," to be sold. Mrs. Hunter said she could never repay the Pink Ladies for all their kindness during her stay at the hospital.
