MIGRANT WORKERS BENEFIT

A special matinee of "The Pot Boiler" will be presented at the Pirate Playhouse at 4:30, Sunday, March 21 for the benefit of poor and needy children of the migrant workers employed on the farms in Southwest Florida, Tickets are on sale at Box Office prices and also any donations will be gratefully received for this cause.

All monies realized from this very funny show will be turned over to a member of the cast of "Pot Boiler," George Brinkworth, who will present it to Captain Reece. This gentleman is in charge of the church sponsored organization in the area devoted to bringing much needed help to the migrant workers.

George Brinkworth is a Pirate Playhouse favorite having appeared at this charming arena theater in several plays.

The players in the cast of "Pot Boller" at this special benefit matinee will be Jean Bair, Donald Foscue Modrall, Kathy Bunnell, Charles and Melinda Otterson, Duane White, Susan Wille, George and June Brinkworth and Ruth and Philip Hunter and Priscille Mysters

Special Matinee, Sunday, March 21 at 4:30 p.m., Pirate Playhouse, 472-1692.

SANIBEL GETS $281,000

Approval by the Division of Recreation and Parks, Florida Department of Natural Resources, of federal assistance in the amount of $281,000 from the Land and Water Conservation Fund Fiscal Year 1971 for acquisition of property on Sanibel Island was reported to the County and the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation last week.

In a letter to Mr. Park Pigott, Director, Lee County Department of Recreation and Parks, Mr. Richard W. Froemke, Administrator of Grants under the Land and Water Conservation Fund program stated, "This preliminary commitment is based on our previous discussions of project scope and on-site inspection of January 22, 1971. We are particularly appreciative of Mr. Bazire's efforts in conducting exhaustive research relating to the many complications surrounding this project.

Mr. Landrum (Director, Division of Recreation and Parks, Florida Dept. of Natural Resources) concurs in our recommendation and commends the County on its efforts to preserve the Sanibel Wetlands for use by the general public.

The application will now be processed to the State Clear.

The application will now be processed to the State Clearinghouse and cabinet prior to submitting it to the federal level.

This is the B.O.R. (Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, U. S. Dept. of the Interior) project on which the Foundation has been working for more than a year with officials of The Nature Conservancy, National Audubon Society, two federal agencies, the State of Florida and the Lee County Commissioners, It involves private funds from donor foundations to the two national conservation organizations to be matched by federal funds for acquisition of interior wetland areas on Sanibel.

PTA BAKE SALE AND RAFFLE

The PTA is having a raffle and bake sale with rummage too, on Saturday, March 27. Due to a tightening of educational funds, no money has been forthcoming for air conditioning for any of the school rooms. The rooms should be air conditioned, not just for sheer comfort, but for health reasons. Now that the warm weather is on the way again, windows will be open and gnats, black flies and "no see-ums" come in and bite the children, who are a captive audience for them, Then the bites become infected. So, the PTA has an all-out campaign on for funds to buy the much needed air conditioners, at least for some rooms. We love the climate, but how did we ever live without air conditioning?

Anyhow, the bake sale, raffle and rummage sale will be held in the parking lot of the Bailey's General Store shopping center. A portable Hoover washer and spin dryer in like-new condition will be raffled off, and tickets can be purchased from any PTA member or at the school. The washer can be pushed into a closet, plugged into any socket and will attach to any faucet with no installation, and has a "suds saver."

any socket and will attach to any faucet with no installation, and has a "suds saver."

If you cannot bake or donate baked goods, perhaps you can help in selling the goodies. Baked goods can be baked ahead of time and frozen for the great day.

Or you can donate rummage -- no clothing, please, for obvious reasons. Jellies, jams and all kinds of rummage acceptable, and if you can't donate, don't let that discourage you. Come and be a buyer! Call the school to volunteer, 472-1617, or Mrs.

WHO'S WHO

JUNE HOLLAND, new owner of the Last Straw and a girl with brains and beauty, reports she has gained five pounds since the Dairy Queen opened, but on her it is not noticeable as she looked very chic in her Leopard pants suit. She reports that the home being built by her and her better half will be built of straw - all the furnishings will be of straw, rattan or bamboo. "Contary to the usual conception, and in spite of what the big, bad wolf did to the straw house of fable, straw products at the beach are practically indestructible. They neither rust nor deteriorate and are flexible," said June. Even the bed in the master bedroom will have a straw headboard, she said. We are looking forward to seeing their new home in the near future.

"Ana! Supper," says Muningn, the cat, (bottom left hand) as he looks over the 30 pound snook caught by Mr. William M. Blazier last Wednesday at the causeway with a small piece of shrimp. Mr. & Mrs. Blazier are at the Surfrider for plenty of fishing. They are from Lenoir City, Tenn.

THE SURFRIDER by Susan Wille

Mr. & Mrs. Robert Greene of New York are really soaking up the sun and enjoying the beautiful weather and shell-

Mr. & Mrs. Frank Furst of Freeport, Ill., and children just think Sanibel is the most beautiful place they have ever seen. They are enjoying the Gulf and pool.

Mr. & Mrs. W. P. Bamford think our weather is just great compared to that of heir home town.

Other folks getting lots of sun and surf are Mr. & Mrs. Hudson Mann of Jamestown, N.C., Mr. & Mrs. J. B. Nixon of Deeswood, Minn., and Mr. & Mrs. G. W. McKnight of Hamilton, Ohio.

Mr. & Mrs. E. Lassen are here on a return visit. They thought the Surfrider and Sanibel were so wonderful that they decided to come back. It's wonderful to have them back.

Other guest relishing the slow and easy life on Sanibel for a while are Mr. & Mrs. James Wilson of Miami; Mr. & Mrs. Bennett and child also from Miami; Mr. & Mrs. Stader and children of Red Bank, N.J.; Mr. & Mrs. Bill Pugh and children from Palm Beach, Fla.; Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Tomson of Suffern, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Bjorkman of Pompano, Fla.; Mr. & Mrs. George Nostrand of Hampton Bays, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. William Paterson of Farmington, Mich., Mr. & Mrs.

T. W. Williams and children of Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Mr. & Mrs. R. J. Stockham, Jr. and children of Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. & Mrs. Case and Mr. & Mrs. Norm Johnson and children of Havertown, Pa.

Mr. & Mrs. R. B. Dixon of Ottawa, Canada are here with us for a rest and plenty of sun and shelling, Other visitors from the chilly north are the Misses Virginia Reid and Elvera Glad from St. Paul, Minn.; the Stanley Knights of Sturbridge, Mass.; Dr. & Mrs. John Valberg and children of Ottawa, Canada; and Dr. & Mrs. Chester Swett and children from Massachusetts. Dr. & Mrs. Jerry Reese of Tampa are enjoying the shelling and sunning.

John and Jean Boehm are here with us to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The moon and Gulf really lent a very nice atmosphere to the occasion. Accompanying them on their trip are Ray & Mary Otlewski, also of Michigan City. John and Ray took advantage of our beautiful weather to do some fishing the other day. They came home with about nine sheepshead ranging from 5 to 9 pounds. They all had a nice fish dinner that night. The Boehms haven't been here in 19 years, so we're sure they will remember this vacation for some time to come. Visiting the Wells Steans this week Visiting the Wells Steans this week are their daughter Betsey Briddell and her friend, Miss Linda Cumber, from Hood College in Frederick, Md. They are looking forward to getting a good tan to take back to Maryland with them.

Mr. & Mrs. J. A. Cato of Ontario, Canada, gave up on coming back to Sanibel because of back surgery but, due to her speedy recovery, is able to be with us and join their friends, Attorney and Mrs. R. Gillespie from Mississauga, Canada.

The Surfrider was well represented at the Southwest Florida Conchologist Shell Show held at the country club annex in Cape Coral.

Mr. & Mrs. William Such, Jr., the motel's owners, with their lovely collection took third place in the class 4 division. Susan, Wille, desk clerk, got Honorable Mention with her 5 inch junonia and a golden olive. Mrs. Kathy Bunnell, wife of the manager, got second place in Class 3 beginners.

SHELL HARBOR INN

Return visitors to the Harbor are the Merl Holloways of Cedar Rapids, Ia., the Lee Hinkles of Kenosha, Wisc., and the Arthur Balsams of Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Voletsky of New York City are enjoying the pool and poolside entertainment. Mr. H. Dilts came from London, Ontario, to escape the cold weather of a Canadian winter. Mrs. Dilts joined him later, accompanied by her friend Mrs. J. Behr, and they will be seeing the local sights together.

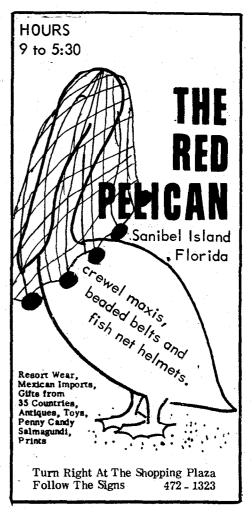

Dr. and Mrs. George Logan from Rochester, Minn. are here seeing that the doctor gets a nice rest from his busy practice.

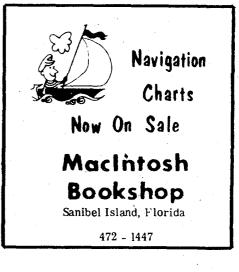

The E.W. Stallings of Evansville, Ind. report the weather has been particularly trying this winter, and are enjoying ours, though it has been on the chilly side. Other northern visitors reporting cold weather and seen on the beach are the Ralph Goulds of Hobart, N.Y., the Phillip Simonds, Little Compton, R.I., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penker, LaCross, Wisc.

Dr. and Mrs. Keith Bennett of Kalamazoo, Mich., followed his own prescription for rest and sun on the beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Secunde of Gates Mills, Ohio and the Carl J. Meisers of Brookfield, Wisc., are basking in the sun too. Dr. and Mrs. Murray Fadial and family of Charlotte, N.C. are finding the beach fun and refreshing.

Return visitors to Shell Harbor are the Cy Parkers of Oak Ridge, Mich., and we are happy to welcome them back for another seasonal stay. Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Ferndale, Mich. and the J.W. Davies of Toledo, Ohio, are enjoying a welcome relief from chilly northern winds, and the Dan Verrhelsts of Milwaukee, Wisc., the A. W. Lundstrums of Columbus, Ohio, and the Carlyle Ott family of Carbondale, Ill. are all finding it fun to shell and sun on the beach. From the not-so-farnorth scene, but still far enough for some snow and cold winds are the David Brunns of Chapel Hill, N.C., and the John D. Milleners of Knoxville Tenn., who are enjoyimy our early spring-like weather, and hoping that it will have come back home by the time they return.

Letter To The Editor

To The Islander:

A copy of the following letter was sent to the Islander for publication: Mr. Bruce Scott, Chairman Board of County Commissioners Lee County Building Fort Myers, Fla.

Dear Mr. Scott:

A great trust has been placed in your hands -- whether the islands of Sanibel and Captiva live or die.

This is no exaggeration. In this day of proof positive that high density has already placed great areas of the country in the throes of slow death by pollution, it is inconceivable that you would allow the same tragedy to happen to Sanibel-

That you have the fate of these beautiful islands in your hands should give you great pause. For the lines are clearly drawn: either you listen to the mandate of the people at large, or you submit to the selfish interests of the moneyed few.

Please consider what has happened in your own state; Fort Myers Beach and Miami to name only two. Do you realize that only 7000 feet in the Atlantic off Miami Beach a pipeline disgorges tons of polluting filth which eventually floats back to shore. Do we want this to happen here? (You can easily check this fact by contacting the office of Senator Gaylord Nelson in Washington.)

Since you were effective in passing the enlightened restriction against highrisers, why defeat this ordinance by allowing another permitting high-density? /s/ Cyrus Biscardi

To The Islander:

A copy of the following letter was sent to us for publication:

Dear Mr. Scott:

As a frequent visitor to Sanibel-Captiva, and a future home owner, I want to congratulate you and the board on the passage of the low-rise ordinance and the more recent "no signs" ordinance.

However, I must join with many, many other concerned citizens in questioning, and vigorously objecting to, your con-senting to anything approaching the highdensity proposals currently set forth.

It makes absolutely no sense to act in one direction to preserve the unique beauty and ecology of the islands, and then destroying what you have done by allowing enormous population influx.

That a high-density approval will destroy Sanibel-Captiva is an absolute certainty. If you have any lingering doubts about this statement, let me give you a vivid example as reported in the March 1, 1971 issue of Newsweek.

For more than a hundred years Honoluluans considered their island the "paradise of the Pacific." Nothing could happen to destroy the clarity of the ocean or of the trade winds.

Oh, no? Nothing but the unchecked high-density collection of people.

Here are some facts about Hawaii that should dispel from your mind that it can't happen to Sanibel, 1. Poisonous pollution from 400,000 autos has reached the foothills of mountains eleven miles away. Twenty billion gallons sewage a year is relentlessly pumped into the once blue ocean where it bubbles up as an ugly blot 1000 feet wide. 3. On the island itself, "developers" have laid waste to large areas for tract housing, while stuffing once-beautiful Waikiki Beach with so much garish "progress" that ecologists have despaired of saving its natural beauty.

Why has all this pollution come about? Because the state government, afflicted with boom-town fever, allowed the island's population to double since 1950 and has let "growth" proceed unchecked by official restraint. Right now private environmental groups are filling the courts with lawsuits in attempts to stop the unfettered pollution of what once was called "Paradise."

You, Mr. Scott, and the Board, want none of this to happen to Sanibel, I'm sure. And NOW is the time for you to act with great foresight to prevent once and for all time the destruction of Sanibel-Captiva Islands that are unmatched anywhere in the world; islands that should not be condemned to the noxious results of high-density get-rich-quick schemes.

LETTER OF THANKS

The beautiful shell table fashioned by Charles LeBuff and given as a prize at the Sanibel Shell Fair was a great success this year for the Sanibel Community Association. Many persons and business organizations participated generously in this activity by collecting donations, by contributing many beautiful shells and by making facilities available for publicizing and exhibiting the shell table during the several months preceding the Shell

Special thanks are extended for their participation to the many volunteer workers who assisted in exhibiting the table; to the motels and business establishments for their assistance in receiving donations; to the Elsie Malone Shop for exceptional help; to Priscilla Murphy's office and Bailey's General Store for the generous use of their facilities; the significant help received from all those organizations and people will make possible a greater civic contribution to the Islands' welfare by the Sanibel Commun-Association in the coming year.

/s/ Alice McKenzie, Chairman of the Shell Table Sylvia Strong, Ass't. Chairman

MRS. FRANK M. CULPEPPER HEADS CANCER CRUSADE

Mrs. Frank M. Culpepper, overall chairman for the 1971 Cancer Crusade on Sanibel Island, asks that anyone wishing to help in this important cause get in touch with her, or with the area captain listed

Mrs. Culpepper announces the following area captains for these areas: Lighthouse end of Sanibel and Shell Harbor: Mrs. Harry Iurka, Shell Mound and Tulipa Way area; Mrs. Donald Hiers, Water Shadows and Sanibel Isles; Mrs. George Tenney, Tahiti Shores; Mrs. John Shepherd, Chateau-Sur-Mer; Mrs. Ruth E. Ross, Trade Winds; Mrs. John Sallemi, north end of Sanibel Island; Mrs. Louise C. Daniels and Mrs. Jerry Schnelle. As you can see there are a few gaps, and volunteers will be greatly appreciated.

CAPTIVA CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Captiva Civic Association will meet Thursday, March 25 at 7:30 p.m., in the Captiva Community Center. Any Captiva artist who would like to display one or two paintings in the meeting room that evening may contact Gen. Clyde Dougherty, 472-2269.

Any resident, property owner or visitor on Captiva may become an association member upon payment of 1971 dues of $3.00 to Joseph Green, Treasurer, Box 116, Captiva.

MITCHELLS'S CASTAWAYS

Mrs. Bronie Vingres of Greenfield, Ind., and a guest at the Mitchell's Castaways exhibited her decorative Christmas tree of shells and received a red ribbon for it at the Shell Fair, which pleased her no end. Her artistic bent does not end here, as she makes beautiful things with driftwood too, and other shell pretties.

Mr. & Mrs. Marshall Hulse and son, his wife, all of Buffalo, N.Y., are at the Castaways and again shelling on the beach and the Fred Herrs of Waverly, Ill., have been enjoying lazy days resting on the beach.

Last week on our regular Thursday visit to the Islands, we got stuck in the sand! Imagine old beachites like us having this happen to us. Well, a really nice young fellow turned up to dig us out, thank heavens. We had visions of sitting out in the car until a packing down rain came, sometime in the rainy season, and freeing us. Anyhow, the savior of the day was none other than Gary Patterson, hard working caretaker at Castaways, and many thanks to him for freeing us, not only from the sand but from a very red face.

THE COLONY

The Colony guest list includes Mr. & Mrs. Frederick West of Sea Beach, Calif.; Mr. & Mrs. J. Hearitt Raub of Woodbury, Conn.; Mr. & Mrs. W. A. Meeter of Tuscon, Ariz.; Mr. & Mrs. Earl Snyder of Upper Marlboro, Md.: Mr. & Mrs. A. C. Woodroff of Greens-boro, S.C.; Mr. & Mrs. Albert F. Ford and family from Marion, Mass.; Dr. Mrs. Thomas Edblom and family of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mr. & Mrs. John P. Smith of Babylon, N.Y.; Dr. & Mrs. R. B. Cole and family of Winnetka, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. George McBride of Washington, D.C.; and Mr. John S. Hathaway and family of Bronxville, N.Y.

MAKING TRACKS with Sandy

For a spectacular "view" of Sanibel and Captiva, stop in Laughrey (pronounced Lockrey) and Holtz Real Estate office in the new shopping center. They have an aerial view of the islands forming a counter top that seemed to me at least 12 feet in length and about 3 feet wide that is fascinating to see. (We were so absorbed in our airplaneeye view I was late for my appointment at the Tender Touch Beauty Shop in the same building.) This is a true to life map of our winter paradise and I urge you to stop there the next time you're in the vicinity.

After I came out of the Beauty Salon looking most elegant, if I do say so myself, I hurried over to Fridays' House of Treasures to say hello to Helen, LeeRoy and their charming son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Sandy. I was especially delighted to meet another "Sandy" and she's a real cutie. The four Fridays have a beautiful shop with treasures from all over the world including stunning jewelry. I have often heard people say that they never expected to find such a shop on a small island, so the Friday clan has reason to be proud.

Jerry Vallez ONE MAN SHOWING

Residents of the Islands will have an opportunity to view the work done by beginning artists when an exhibition is held at the Captiva Post Office exhibition board next Monday and Tuesday, March 22 and 23, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., each day.

The exhibit will present drawings done this winter by adult students in the Sanibel-Captiva Art League's annual drawing classes conducted by Mrs. George Winterbotham. The group, which varies from 15 to 30 persons, meets throughout the winter months at the Captiva Civic Center every Thursday morning at 10 a.m. A small fee is charged and the money is used for the benefit of the Art League.

Classes are especially adapted to those interested in learning fundamentals of drawing, using pencil, charcoal or pen and ink, Those with no past experience in art are welcome to attend as well as those who vajoy participating in group work. Persons interested in joining the group are asked to become members of the Art League. Dues are $2.00 per year.

A one-man show at the Captiva Post Office exhibition board is being conducted today and tomorrow, March 18 and 19, by Leon Levy, well known Island artist. Mr. Levy's newest creations will be displayed.

As always everyone is welcome to view the exhibition.

CAPTIVA ART SHOW

Jerry Vallez, noted artist for his works in watercolors, oils and acrylics, will have his second one-man showing at the Artisan Shop on Sanibel, March 23 from 2 to 5 p.m. Mr. Vallez is now living in Naples with his wife, Rona, Lisa, his daughter, Barney, a large black cat, and two turtles, which (or who?) are un-named, as far as we know.

Mr. Vallez has won many awards, the most recent from the Naples Art Association, and his works hang in many private collections, including the extensive Johnson Wax Company's collection.

He is a strong believer in travel (starting with a trip to France when he was four) and in the past year, for instance, has been to Maine, Cheasapeake Bay and the North

BEACH VIEW COTTAGES

Mrs. Bea Colquette and friend, Mrs. Frendly, from Caledon East, Canada, have been enjoying hiking on the beach, and we trust they do not have the Sanibel bends from shelling long and ernnestly. Also enjoying a restful vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith of Boston, Mass. Mr. Smith is enjoying a much needed respite from the Lowell Institute Cooperative Broadcasting Council.

Back for a return are the William Embers of New York City, where they come down to unwind from the pressures of city living and coping with the cold weather and ice.

Also from Canada are Dr. and Mrs. R. C. McLaughlin and their friends the h. harolds of Davis, Ontario, who are enjoying swimming in the pool and also shelling and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery of Toledo, Ohio, are back again for a return visit and reveiwing old friend-

The Walter Anyans, Jr. of Guilford, Conn. are paying their first visit to the islands and finding it to their liking, too.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Gilligan of Great Barrington, Mass. are enjoying birdwatching and the beach and shelling.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Davisson, Verona, N.J., are here for a return visit to renew their love affair with the islands, and we are happy to have them back.

Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Manieure of Milwaukee, Wisc., are here for their first visit and enjoying being introduced to the quiet life on the islands, and are particularly glad to miss some of the snow and ice from back home.

SNOOK APARTMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Del Hughes of Amityville, N.Y., and friends of the Myton Irelands are here for a winter visit and rest. Mr. Hughes is T.V. Director of the serial on ABC "All My Children" and his latest Broadway show under his direction was "The Price" authored by Arthur Miller and sent to London, too. Another hit under his direction was "Death of a Salesman" also by Miller. Mrs. Hughes is talented and well-known as an actress her stage name being Julia Johnston. She played the character part of Mrs. Snowdon in "Look Homeward Angel"

Mrs. H.I. Hodassy of McHenry, Ill. and another guest at Snook has everyone green with envy in finding some lovely shells and a golden olive. She too makes pretty and decorative driftwood arrangements with shells.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Holmes from Waterloo, N.Y., are here with Mrs. Holmes'sister Mrs. R. Ahrens and husband from Seneca Falls, N.Y., and all are happy to be here where a snow shovel is a picture in a magazine, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Reitz from Olean. N.Y., have returned for a nice winter vacation, too. So many visitors are taking winter vacations rather than the usual summer one, as it is so much needed now, and many a cold and flu bug is foiled this way. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Goodell of Keene, N.H., are having a small family reunion here and enjoying the bech together.

ZONING BOARD NOTES

The Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board, Inc., held its first annual meeting March 8 at the Sanibel Community House. This organization is the outgrowth of the Planning Committee which led the fight against high rises and is dedicated to the wise and orderly development of our islands within the framework of good conservation practices. It continues to represent member organizations as well as its nearly 350 individual members at hearings and conferences with county and state officials. Considered by many as "the voice and watchdog of the islands," its boards of directors and advisors includes residents who have had planning or related experience as well as the following island organizations: Captiva Civic Association; Chateaux-Sur-Mer Improvement Association; Lions Club; Chamber of Commerce; Sanibel Community Association; Audubon Society; Conservation Foundation; Island Inn Association; Palm Lake Association; and the Rocks Civic Association.

At Monday's meeting, the board urged islanders to oppose further zoning for multiple housing as well as a recently proposed density ordinance as such actions would result in an urban population which could not be supported by present or future facilities. Mr. MacKenzie discussed plans for a county-wide sewage system and Dr. Simmons warned of the dangers of pollution and the overtaxing of our water system which already is inadequate.

The newly elected Board of Directors and Officers are: Vernon MacKenzie, President; Dr. Ingalls Simmons, 1st Vice President; Malcolm Beattie, 2nd Vice President; Don Marshall, Treasurer; Mrs. Lillian Paschall, Secretary and Mrs. Elinore Dormer, Corresponding Secretary; Robert Haynie, Paul McCulloch, Joseph McMurtry, Andrew Mellody, Kenneth Tremaine, Roy Bazire, Mario Hutton, Bernard LaRoux and Gen. Clyde Dougherty. Advisors are: Harvey Gigstad, James Scholefield and Benton

HABITAT IMPROVEMENTS ON J.N. "DING" DARLING REFUGE'S BAILEY TRACT

The Bailey Tract of J. N. "Ding" Darling National Wildlife Refuge is currently undergoing a facelifting in order that its former value to alligators, wintering and nesting waterfowl, nesting wading birds, and other wildlife species can be restored. During the past few years, wildlife use of the area has diminished primarily because of clogging stands of cattail and cordgrass. Open water and attractive vegetation have virtually disappeared, and attempts to chemically control the noxious vegetation have been unsuccessful.

Regional Director C. Edward Carlson has said that the Bailey Tract improvements will be restricted solely to that required to return the area to its former value to wild-life. Plans include stripping several small impoundments of a portion of the cattail and cordgrass so that more attractive natural foodplants will be produced. Excavation will be held to a minimum so that the fresh water of the area will be protected. Several dikes within the beautiful 100 acre unit will be elevated so that the small water supply can be protected. Water control structures will be installed, and it will then be posible to control noxious vegetation through water manipulation rather than through chemical means.

The immense importance of the Bailey Tract as a part of J. N. "Ding" Darling lefuge and the environment of Sanibel Island is recognized by the Bureau of Sport disheries and Wildlife. The work that is being done is the minimum amount required to meet wildlife needs while leaving the area in as near a natural state as possible.

The Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the Lee County Board of County Commissioners are cooperating under a joint agreement in order to make possible many of the Bailey Tract improvements. The spoil that is removed by the County will be used to meet County needs, but the method and extent of spoil removal will be in line with wildlife and habitat requirements.

LAUGHREY & HOLTZ CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Albert Laughrey and Marshall Holtz, Jr., celebrated their first anniversary in business together in March, and announced their firm had written contracts on the sale of 33 separate parcels of real estate plus some seven leases.

They opened their real estate business as a partnership, and incorporated last July and now have their main office in the new Sanibel Center Building at the corner of Periwinkle Way and Casa Ybel Road, with a branch office located in one of the Islander Homes models in the Sanibel Harbours subdivision on Bay Drive. The firm is exclusive listing brokers for Sanibel Harbours. Their Isle-O-Rama Aerial Photo-Map table is a tremendous attraction in the main office and is believed to be the only one of its type in Southwest Florida.

WATER USE CURTAILED

The Pine Island Water Association has requested Sanibel and Captiva residents to curtail the watering of plants and lawns due to the serious water shortage reported in their well fields. Water is one-seventh the level that it was at this time last year, and unless rain comes in the near future to replenish the water in the well fields, even more drastic curtailment of water usage could be foreseen. Vice President Frank Clay said water pumping had been at its peak in the past several days. Mr. Clay is representing the company since the death of Association President Newton Herrington.

LADIES GUILD

The Ladies Guild of the Sanibel Community Church will meet Thursday, March 18 at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Clair Wilt, Coconut Road on Sanibel. To reach Mrs. Wilt's home, take a sharp right infront of the Blind Pass Cottages in the Castaways area. Drive just beyond Susan's Ceramic Studio. Mrs. Walter Strong will be co-hostess for the evening and will also conduct the program. Devotions will be led by Mrs. William Newman. All ladies of the Churchare invited to join the group for an evening of fellowship.

MAN ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Bernard Meehan, 20, of Stanford, Conn., newly employed at Casa Ybel Resort as a busboy, was arrested about 2 a.m., on Sunday for breaking and entering. Capt. Al Senftleber of the Sheriff's investigating department said that Meehand used a large rock to break the front plate glass window of the Casa Ybel package store, and removed several bottles of champagne. Two dozen bottles were broken by the rock when it struck and toppled a display shelf. Meehan cut himself on some of the broken glass, then went to his own quarters where employees restrained him until sheriff's deputies took over, apprehending him and placing him under arrest.

PICTURE DONATION

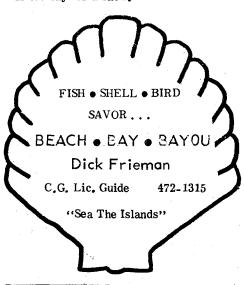

Lorraine J. Bergstrand from Wayzata, Minn., while visiting Sanibel, collected beautiful wild flowers, and created a beautiful pressed flower picture which she donated to the Sanibel Community Association through Elsie Malone. The picture was valued at $15. Ed Konrad purchased the picture; and the Association's thanks goes to Lorraine for this nice donation.

THE REEF

There are many happy shellers at the Reef this week, Mrs, Clarence Westendorf and Mr. Paul Blye each found a golden olive, and most everyone found some treasures.

Enjoying the swimming and fishing, are Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Fletcher, Delmar, N.Y.; Dr. & Mrs. Willard Wolfe and their two sons, Bermont, Mich.; Mr. & Mrs. P. W. Blye, Chatham, N.J.; Mr. & Mrs. Earl Bougher, Col., Ohio; Mr. & Mrs. Leo Strauss, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. V. H. Swanson from Milwaukee, Wisc.; Mr. & Mrs. W. B. Rafferty, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Wm. Sheppard and Mrs. Borzillo of Plymouth Meeting, Pa.; Dr. & Mrs. Wayne Marshall, Ardmore, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. L. L. Burns of Charleston, W. Va.; Mr. & Mrs. H. W. McMillan, Trenton, N.J.; and Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Young of Staten Island, N.Y.

Mr. Charlie Fleischner has had his paintings on exhibit at The Legel showing and at the Captiva Show. Mrs. Fleischner is also painting, but so far is too shy for a show.

"STRAWBERRY SUNDAYS"

You smile without knowing why -your toes tap and you want to wave your arms and let the sun shine in. You are hearing the "Strawberry Sundays," a regligious folk-rock group, belt out "Tell It Like It Is," the Carmichael-Kaiser musical about God.

The public is invited to hear electric guitar chords throb against rhythmic drums and fifty young voices sing, "We're tired of pretty words designed for youth, Let's tell it like it is... Get down to where the 'Searcher' meets the truth."

The "Strawberry Sundays," sponsored by Covenant Presbyterian Church and under the direction of Stanley V. Maurer, will "Tell It Like It Is" on Saturday, March 27 and Sunday, March 28 at 8 p.m., at Covenant Presbyterian Church, 2439 McGregor Blvd.

SIFTINGS FROM SURF'N SAND

Mr. & Mrs. Howard Gandelot, Jr., and two children, as well as Mrs. Gandelot, Sr., have arrived for another visit to their favorite island.

Dr. & Mrs. Jack Henderson of Spring Lake, Mich., are relunctantly saying goodbye after two fun-filled weeks of shelling and boating. Grandma and Grandpa Crider of Chicago were also here for five days.

Mr. & Mrs. George Zajicek, Sr. have left for their home in Clinton, Conn., as did Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Whitcomb of M ddleboro, Mass., who enjoyed two weeks of sun and nice weather.

New arrivals this week are Mr. & Mrs. John Little of Peterborough, Ontario, Canada. Mr. & Mrs. Edwin Erickson of Waterville, Ohio, are here for their second visit to Surf 'n Sand.

Mr. & Mrs. Donald Hayes of Mount Kisco, N.Y., have arrived for a nice long stay, happy to be away from the ice and snow in their home state.

The William Phelan family of Ocala are coming back to their "secondhome" on Sanibel. They tell us that each time they come it is harder to say goodbye at the end of their stay.

The long-term guests at Surf'n Sand, the William McNamaras and Lillian Lownes of New York State, Bea and Irene Spillane from So. Berwick, Me., and Velma Glass of Duxbury, Mass., are enjoying meeting the new arrivals as much as do Betty and George.

THE KINSALE UNDER WEIGH

William Compton of Thetan Craft Shop, Sanibel Island, raced on the yacht, Kinsale, in the SORC series, that started Feb. 26. The Kinsale is a 41' Morgan sloop.

The first race, for the Lipton Cup, out of Miami, proved to be a fiasco as only Class A out of six classes was able to find the mid turn buoy.

Two o'clock Monday was the start of the Miami-Nassau Race with over 100 yachts. After a windless start, most boats ran into heavy seas and gusts up to forty knots that night. It was a long race, in any man's book, as the whole course was to windward. It took the Kinsale some forty hours. The course was marred by the late night arrival of most of the yachts and the Governor's Light was mistaken for the lighthouse at the end of Paradise Island. About one half of the fleet had to wait for dawn to enter the harbor and cross the finish line. Had this not happened before arrival time, the Kinsale would have placed in the top five in her class.

On Friday, the fifth of March, the Governor's Cup Race was held just outside Nassau Harbour on a 15.5 mile course -- one way and the same distance back, one being a beat and the other a spinnaker run. Over a hundred yachts crowded through the small starting line at the mouth of the harbour. Quite a sight to be sure. After being four minutes late at the start the Kinsale finished, corrected time, about the middle of her class. This was a very good showing for a newly acquired yacht and the non-professional crew in a professional circuit.

Included in the races were such yachts as American Eagle, Circe II, Running Tide, Equation and Yankee Girl.

Halperin and family of Riverdale, N.Y.; and Mr. & Mrs. Louis Fagin of University Heights, Ohio.

BLUE HERON GUESTS

Mr. & Mrs. ED WELKER from Westport, Conn., guests at the Blue Heron, were very excited about finding three junonias on Friday, March 5, and a very large golden olive on March 6. They shelled on Bowman's Beach and really found a wealth of lovely shells including two Scotch Bonnets.

BUSY BODY

Remember that this Saturday, March 20 is your next to the last chance to see that hilarious whodunnit at the Pirate Playhouse.

The splendid cast includes, Roy Bazire, Judy Burner, Charlotte and Duane White, Grace and Don Whitehead, and Ruth and Philip Hunter with Harriette and Paul Howe handling the technical side.

BIRD BANDING DEMONSTRATION

Today, Thursday, starting at 9 a.m., at the Sanibel Lighthouse, the local Audubon Society is offering an unusual and fascinating outdoor event. It is presented by Dorothy A. Mendinhall, licensed cooperator of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, who is conducting a hind bandle dopperator. ducting a bird banding demonstration on the grounds of the headquarters of the J. N. 'Ding' Darling National Wildlife Refuge. Mrs. Mendinhall is indeed well qualified to demonstrate the highlights of birdbanding, one of the most essential activities connected with better knowledge of bird identification and their habits, particularly in the field of their migratory wanderings.

She has gained invaluable experience over a period of many years, making this an avocation she has practiced especially during summer and fall on the "Damsite" sanctuary in Maryland, where on some days she has banded more than 500 birds, and also in other states of the Union and several Central American countries. Both expert and novice birders attending today's program will beyond doubt acquire new valuable insight on the purpose and practical aspects of banding birds. As usual, all interested persons are cordially invited.

LOGGERHEAD RESEARCH PROGRAM

Bill Hammond, instructor at Cypress Lake High School in Marine Biology, introduced Charles Le Buff, executive director of the sea turtle program, Caretta Research, who spoke on the program's rejuvenation on Wednesday evening at Cypress Lake High School.

Revisions and changes in the loggerhead research program were outlined, in view of the coming summer egg-laying season, when the turtles will probably be laying eggs in the sand to hatch out on the beaches. The loggerheads have been threatened with near extinction, due to the killing of the valuable animals for culinary extravagances. Mr. Le Buff spoke to an adult Marine Biology Group with adult visitors and answered questions from an enthusiastic audience about the Program.

The program has been at a standstill for several months, but will again become active with the approaching egg laying season.

AMERICAN LEGION

The Sanibel-Captiva American Legion Post 123 reports its entry into the second year of existence of the assistance in scholarships fund program under the Glen Allen Rhodes Memorial Charitable and Educational Foundation.

The two initial recipients of substantial assistance in college scholarships, Kenneth Gavin and Raymond Rhodes, both of Sanibel, are now into their second year of college. The Foundation established in January 1970 and named the American Legion Post 123 Glen Allen Rhodes Memorial, Charitable and Educational Foundation is in memory of Glen Rhodes in recognition of his unstinting work and effort in Post 123, the Fire Department and the Rescue Squad of Sanibel and Captiva Islands.

The Foundation is supported and maintained by funds contributed to a trust fund established by Post 123. Funds are controlled and disbursed by a Board of Trustees composed of the Post Commander, First Vice-Commander, Adjutant, Finance Officer and Service Officer. The Chaplain serves ex-officio as an advisor to the Board of Trustees with respect to the nominees for financial assistance, those institutions appropriate for attendance by the nominees and the amounts to be disbursed. A nominee for assistance by the Foundation must be a resident of Sanibel or Captiva Island for at least one year and, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees need or exceptionally merit financial aid or an award. Priority of assistance thereafter is given to well qualified young men and women desirous of pursuing a college education. Secondary preference is given to others, in particular families of American Legion members, who are in need of emergency financial aid. Funds are, if practicable, disbursed on a loan basis without interest, with the moral understanding that the loan will be repaid at such time as the recipient is financially able to do so. Loans are evidenced by appropriately worded non-interest, no time limitation notes retained in the files of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation. In exceptional cases the Board of Trustees may make outright awards or grants to well-qualified individuals.

The Board of Trustees of the Foundation make periodic reports to the Post regarding its activities and accomplishments. Prospective sources of funds to maintain and support the Foundation are appropriately solicited by the Board of Trustees of the Foundation, or through the Post at the request of the Board.

It is hoped by the Board and the Foundation that the scope of future activities may be increased in this much needed and worthy endeavor by the Sanibel-Captiva American Legion Post 123.

HOUSE TOUR

The Episcopal Church Women of St. Michael's and All Angels welcome you to a tour of six lovely homes on Sanibel and Captiva Islands on March 26, 1971 from 11 a.m. to Itinerary of the tour is by the kind courtesy of Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Gigstad, Mr. & Mrs. George C. Tenney, Mrs. Richard F. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Breckinridge K. Tremaine, Mr. & Mrs. Colin S. Gordon, Mr. & Mrs. Thomas J. Pearsall and Audubon Sanctuary for Native Plants.

You are invited to tea on the patio of St. Michael's and All Angels Mission at the end of the tour. Please park along roadway adjacent to houses as all driveways must be kept

Homes on the tour are as follows:

1. Home of Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Gigstad. The residence of Mr. & Mrs. Gigstad on Sanibel is a two-story house. The downstairs houses the garage, a complete workshop, and a recreation room. Upstairs one enters a spacious living room opening onto a long glassed-in porch. This overlooks San Carlos Bay and offers a fine view of the causeway and the Sanibel lighthouse. Because the Gigstads are music lovers, a unique feature of the living room is the acoustical ceiling of white carpeting. Shell enthusiasts will be interested in the unusual picture frame on the living room wall, made by Mr. Gigstad. The frame contains a shell landscape made by Mrs. Gigstad. The attractive fireplace in the corner of the living room, and the cherry wood walls throughout, all contribute to the creation of an interesting island home.

2. Home of Mr. & Mrs. George C. Tenney. Completed in November, 1970, the residence of Mr. & Mrs. George C. Tenney is one of the newer island homes. Upon entering, it is immediately evident that in this house, birds hold an equal interest with shells. In the foyer hangs a carved white snow owl, the work of the well-known artist, the late Courtney Allen. A great horned owl carved by the same artist is mounted over the living room sofa, and the shore bird tiles in the coffee table were designed and fired by Mrs. Allen. The house is furnished with a combination of antiques and modern pieces. From the colorful living room one steps out to a long porch overlooking a canal, and across the canal can be seen an osprey's nest with a family of young. The house and surroundings convey an atmosphere of relaxed and contented living.

3. Home of Mrs. Richard Fuller. The Polynesian-style residence of Mrs. Richard F. Fuller was designed by William R. Frizzell. The outside is of redwood left in its natural coloring of soft red. On the inside the redwood is used in narrow panels which have been stained a foliage green, giving a pleasant appearance to the living room. In this room one is immediately attracted by the large rug which was especially woven for Mrs. Fuller by natives of the Dominican Republic, An interesting collection of books, shells gathered on Sanibel and Bimini, and some fine pieces of New England antique furniture make this room attractive and very livable. Beyond the living room is a porch which overlooks a luxuriant garden designed by George F. Causey, well known landscape architect.

4. Home of Mr. & Mrs. Breckinridge K. Tremaine. The home of Mr. & Mrs. Breckinridge K. Tremaine is the newest house on the tour. It is located on the edge of a lake in the East Rocks area and was designed to provide a view of the lake from every room in the house and from the pool. An interesting feature for an island home is the cathedral ceiling in the living room, which has been painted a soft green and is lighted with indirect lighting. The house is charming because of the subtle blending of colors, and its warm simplicity.

5. Home of Mr. & Mrs. Colin S. Gordon. The home of Mr. & Mrs. Colin S. Gordon on Captiva Island was built last year on the site of a partially cleared mangrove area.

The inside wood The outside of the house is rafian cedar with the rough side exposed. The inside wood is pecky cypress washed in a lovely driftwood gray. The interior is a fine example of how varying brilliant colors can be exquisitely blended. Bright pinks, yellows, oranges, and greens cover the simple and comfortable furnishings throughout. Especially worth noting is the painting on the east wall of the dining room by the noted Japanese artist, Asoma, Another picture over the mantle was painted by Mrs. Paul McCulloch, an island painter. There is a charming two bedroom guest house complete with kitchen adjacent to the main house. Mrs. Gordon, an interior decorator, has a studio in the back of the guest house.

6. Home of Mr. & Mrs. Thomas J. Pearsall. The Captiva Island winter home of Mr. & Mcs. Thomas J. Pearsall of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, is twenty-two years old and stands on a shell ridge halfway between the Gulf of Mexico and Buck Key Bay, affording a vista in both directions. The house is one of five in a compound, all of which are built of Florida cypress in a style suggestive of Bermuda. Each home has its own water tower of corresponding design. The Pearsall home is often referred to as a typical "island house," simple in design and of tropical construction. In a prominent position over the fireplace hangs a Margaret Dugdale painting of two shells of the Great Barrier Reef. Also included on the tour is the Pearsall guest house, on the bay side of their property.

For guests interested in different species of native plants, Mr. & Mrs. Willis Coombs will be happy to have them stop and go through their Registered Audubon Sanctuary for local plants. All plants are labelled with the common name as well as its Latin counterpart and should be of great interest to gardeners. The Coombs property is located at the west end of Gulf Drive at the turn-around and is easily reached after visiting house #3, A printed check list of plants will be given each visit-
