AREA REZONED FOR RESIDENCES COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

Despite some protests by interested parties, an agricultural area was rezoned Tuesday to allow for a 50 acre residential development. The tract is owned by Robert M. Taylor and fronts on the Gulf with access from a right-of-way extending several hundred feet beyond a cul de sac at the end of Gulf Drive. The right-of-way would pass through the property of Mr. & Mrs. Willis Combs, who have long kept their land as a conservation area for invited visitors, with trees and plants labeled to maintain a typical island natural environment.

The plan approved by the zoning board will permit the moving of the right-of-way 300 feet to the west and on the land of Mrs. A. Cochran of Covington, Ky. Walter Shirey was delegated to work out the realignment program between the Combs and Mrs. Cochran, but Mr. Taylor said he would not give up his easement rights until another adjustment plan is worked out.

The residential development planned by Mr. Taylor calls for 96 lots spaced around a circular drive with four lanes for about 96 houses. There will be walks, bike paths and a recreation area for residents of the development, and a sewage treatment plant is on the planning board. Each home will have a minimum of 1,200 sq. ft. of living space.

Dr. Vernon MacKenzie, spoke for the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board, of which he is president, voicing the approval by the Planning Board of the rezoning if the access road can be realigned so that it will not destroy the natural features of the Combs' property, which has been maintained as a semi-public garden.

Several important business items were reported on at the general monthly meeting of the Sanibel Community Association on October 5 at the Community House.

Willis Combs was presented to the membership and expressed his thanks and appreciation to the Association for its consistent help and interest in the successful culmination of his Woodmere Preserve petition to the Board of County Commissioners. The Commissioners reacted favorably to the some four hundred signatures to the petition to maintain the unique nature of the Woodmere Preserve and indicated their desire to see it continued.

President Holtz reported on the Teen Club and that after their first business meeting at the Community House plans are underway for regular social activities in the weeks ahead. The Chair asked for adult volunteers from the Association membership to act as counselors to the Teen Club and so assist them in realizing their programs. Nine members agreed to assist Youth Committee members Bob Vartdal and Bob Dörmer.

Duane White reported on his Shell Fair committee and stated that if present plans are realized the 1972 Shell Fair should be one of the finest and hopefully most successful. However, Duane indicated there is still a need for member participation in the important beforehand "ground work" to the Shell Fair and asked the membership to assist.

Harley Brown reported on the very successful first meeting of the San Carlos Bay Power Squadron's Piloting Course on October 4 with some 69 persons enrolled and in attendance for the 12 week course. Squadron officials conducting the course were impressed by the excellent turnout and the fine physical facilities at the Community House.

Paul Mamet reported on his House Committee and the installation of a new coke machine at the Community House and that on October 6 a new public address system with ample speakers and added "jacks" for various audio activities would be installed. Paul also stated his feeling that the Teen Club was off to a good start and expressed confidence in the island young people in meeting their needs through use of the Community House.

The secretary reported on the status of the Flood Insurance Program and urged all members, islanders and interested persons to write our Lee County Commissioners to proceed with implementation of the permanent Flood Insurance Program before expiration of the temporary program on December 31, 1971. The commissioners have indicated in correspondence with the Association board of directors that only through the interest and efforts of the people in affected areas can a permanent flood insurance program ultimately evolve and be implemented. However, the position of the Sanibel Community Association and its board of directors is that the need for such a permanent program is real and urgent, not only for the Sanibel-Captiva areas, but throughout all coastal and flood plain areas of Lee County. In the event of a hurricane or major tropical storm all such areas would benefit by this needed protection. The burden and responsibility of implementing the permanent flood insurance program rests in the hands of the local county government and all problems or technical difficulties of re-vamping the county building codes are incidental and should not deter the county government from meeting this great need of its people. In this regard the Board of Directors of the Association is asking The Islander to publish all pertinent correspondence from the County Commissioners on the matter.

After the regular business meeting, John Shepherd's entertainment committee, assisted by Harry Borchers, presented one of its finest programs. In a symphony of color, sound and words, Anne Hatcher and the Photographic Society of America presented a program entitled "Around the World With P.S.A." The color slides graphically depicted the usual and the unusual, the bright and the subdued, and age and time as they conducted the spellbound viewer on a colorful journey to the far corners of the world in picture and sound. All members came away from this unique program with a new sense of respect and admiration for all photographers and photography.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Mr. & Mrs. L. B. LINQUIST were swimming in the Gulf early Thursday morning, and the whole family was enjoying the early morning dip until, much to their surprise they found they had a new member of the group --- a two foot alligator in the surf! Mr. CHARLES LeBUFF of the Conservation Dept. rescued the 'gator, as he would die in the salt water soon, and released him in fresh waters. The Lindquists are guests at The Colony.

CASTAWAYS

Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Meyer from Long Island have spent many winters on the islands, but they have purchased a mobile home in the Venice area. We bet they will be back to enjoy the fishing and shelling again as in the past, and look up their old friends who will be missing them.

THE COLONY GUESTS

The Colony has the following guests enjoying a vacation: Mr. & Mrs. Robert E. Wenzel of Stamford, Conn.; Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Wynn of Miami; Mr. & Mrs. John C. Butler of Glencoe, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. L. Gifford Gardner of Northbrook, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. Richard Wilkinson of Springfield, Mo.; and Mr. & Mrs. G. N. Sprague of Long Island, N.Y. Also here are Mr. & Mrs. Fred E. Smith of Belleville, Pa., and Mr. & Mrs. T. R. Wiseman of Milwaukee, Wis.

BEACHVIEW COTTAGES

Mr. & Mrs. John Knipmeyer of New Orleans are enjoying their first visit to the islands as are Dr. & Mrs. M. E. Davenport of LaGrange, Ill. Mr. & Mrs. R. Miller of Miami are here for a return visit to enjoy some fishing and boating. From the east coast are the George English family from Boynton Beach and Ludwig and Lena Grendel of Ormand Beach. Dick and Ruth Jones celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary at the Golden Sands entertained by son-in-law and daughter, Gerald and Brenda Johnson on Wednesday evening, and a fine time was had by all.

SURFRIDER GUESTS

Mr. & Mrs. Thomas R. Hamburg of Point Pleasant, N.J., are here to enjoy the vast difference in climate and shelling on the beach. The Joseph Carolans of Big Town, N.J., are enjoying swimming, the beach, and just plain resting, and Mr. & Mrs. C. A. Orcelli of Tampa are resting up from the hustle and bustle of big city life, and others finding serenity on the beach and a renewal of energies are Dr. & Mrs. Ben Einhorn of Tarzana, Calif. Mr. & Mrs. Bill and Helen Such are back from their home in Manasquan, N.J., and Mrs. Such is busy shelling on the beach from dawn to dark, and Bill is being the sidewalk engineer of the new addition to the Surfrider, which is indeed a fascinating pastime.

SHELL HARBOR INN

Guests at the Shell Harbor Inn have been coming in to enjoy a late summer vacation in numbers. Those arriving this week are the Howard Ruedgers of Forest Park, Ill., Mr. & Mrs. Robert Thompson from Jekyll Island, Ga., the P. S. Mullins of Verona, Pa., and the Frank Lackey family of Berkeley, Ill. Dr. & Mrs. W. Wharton of Smithfield, N.C., have been enjoying a keftful visit on the islands too.

GUESTS AT ISLAND INN

The Misses D. Anderson and Koffman of Miami are here to lend a bit of feminine beauty to the Island beaches and Mr. & Mrs. Ray E. Netchmann of Niles, Ill., are enjoying an early fall sojourn. Many Florida guests have come down to Sanibel to the sub-tropics to enjoy a last fling at summer and these include the Phillip J. Mallons of Boca Raton; Mr. & Mrs. W. H. Parens, Mr. & Mrs. A. A. Figel of Bal Harbor; the F. Reynolds of Gainesville; Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth M. Halprin of Miami; and the Roger B. Millers of Miami too, who are enjoying a change in pace.

Gracing the beach scene is Miss M. Esposito of Larchmont, N.Y., and the misses Nellie E. Gibson of Norfolk, Va., and her friend, Louise Bethea, Dr. & Mrs. John E. Hollahan of Media, Pa., are here for some R&R and the F. T. Sampsons of Western Springs, Ill., are soaking up some sun before their return. Mr. & Mrs. James E. Moore of Norfolk, Va., are enjoying a lingering bit of summer before their return home as are the William Wetherills of Cape May, N.J. Return guests to the islands are the W. H. Barrens and lovely Miss Jean Mahoney of Rego Park, N.Y.

TEMPLE BENEFIT

The kick-off fund for Temple Judea will start with a dessert coffee at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 1, at the San Carlos Inn on the South Trail.

Cards and mah-jongg (bring your own) will be played. Donation is $1.75; prizes will be awarded and men are welcome.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE ISLANDER:

A copy of the following letter was sent to the Islander for publication:
Mr. Walter Shirey
Board of Lee County Commissioners
Fort Myers, Fla.

Dear Mr. Shirey:

It has been brought to my attention that a piece of property known as Woodmere Preserve on Sanibel Island, owned by Mr. & Mrs. Willis Combs, is being considered for designation as a permanent arboretum by Lee County.

I am writing you to urge such action as may be necessary to bring about such designation in order to preserve this choice sanctuary.

Mr. & Mrs. Combs are friends of mine but such friendship developed as a result of my interest in the Woodmere Preserve. As a botanist from South Florida, I wished to study the flora of Sanibel Island. The kind offer from Willis Combs and his wife to pursue such study at the Woodmere Preserve saved me much time and effort because one finds there such a complete representation of the Island flora.

The collection of plants assembled in that rather limited area is very exciting. At the same time, the atmosphere of the place is one of serenity and relaxation. A perfect combination!

This is one person's experience but I know it has been repeated countless times by others. Therefore I urge you to make Woodmere Preserve an official Lee County Arboretum.

/s/ Frances C. Young, Chairman
Native Plant Workshop
Homestead, Fla.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

The next meeting of the Fort Myers Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota will be on Oct. 30 at 1:30 at the home of Margaret Fisher Jerz, 1861 Monte Vista in Fort Myers.

This organization is a national professional music fraternity for women and the Fort Myers chapter welcomes any alumnae interested. Please contact Mrs. Catherine Havenhill, 463-6449 or Mrs. Florence Shores, 463-6583.

LEE BROCHURES TO BE PLACED AT DISNEY WORLD

Brochures promoting Lee County will be placed at Disney World and at welcome stations in the northern approaches to the state by the Lee County Motel Association.

According to Hank Shuford, president of the Association, "We plan to send out the greatest number of brochures ever printed in the county by one small independent group. Some 25,000 of them will be placed at Disney World and the northern approaches..." "We are going to do some advertising on a local level which will promote all areas of the county including Sanibel, Bonita Springs and Fort Myers Beach."

SANIBEL PTA

The Sanibel PTA held its first meeting of the 1971-72 school year, Tuesday, Oct. 5.

Mr. Karl Wightman, the new president, was chairman. Other officers are: vice president, Charles Holland; treasurer, June Muench.

Mr. James Harrison, Ass't Supt. of Business of the Lee County Schools, presented the Millage Proposal. The main thought of the evening was that this millage will not increase taxes. It is merely an extension of the same 4 mills over a period of two more years. Air conditioning for all schools, presently not having it, is included in this Millage Proposal. Vote FOR the millage Nov. 2.

Also, the Island is to have a Teen Club but adults are needed for supervision. Anyone interested in this may contact Mr. Robert Vartdal at 472-1267.

Mr. Dissette introduced the new members of the staff after which all enjoyed coffee and cookies. Thirty-two were present.

All parents and guardians are invited to attend your PTA meetings. Come and help in the interest of your children.

BUSY BODY

Everyone knows how many and varied nice things the Whites of Casa Blanca do on Sanibel Island, but Ruth and Philip Hunter were especially honored on their recent trip to Britain. Charlotte and Duane invited them to lunch at the White's London Hote, the Windsor at Lancaster Gate.

With all the English accents around, together with British hospitality, the four agreed it was like acting in "Busybody" at the Pirate Playhouse. In response to many requests for a repeat performance, this play will be presented at the Playhouse this coming season.

Busybody will have the same fine cast; Roy Bazire, Charlotte and Duane White, Judy Burner, Grace and Don Whitehead, the Hunters and Paul and Harriette Howe handling the stage and box office. Busybody will have three performances, Dec. 22, 27 and 29.

NORTHEAST HIGH SCHOOL
"GONDOLIERS"
TO VISIT ISLAND

On the weekend of October 30 and 31, there will be a first for the Island. The 22 members of "The Gondoliers," a teenage senior high group of St. Petersburg youth will be on the Island and at St. Michael and All Angels' Church Sunday, Oct. 31 at 11 a.m.

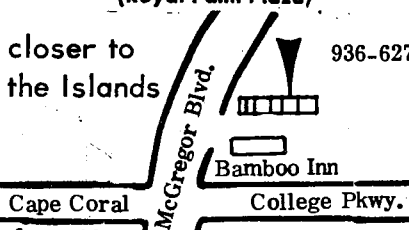

They will arrive Saturday afternoon and that evening they will present an informal program at Scotty's Restaurant beginning about 6:30 p.m. Following the Folk Mass, Sunday morning at 11 a.m., the parish will entertain the Gondoliers and all Island young people at a picnic on Sanibel Siesta Motel beach at 12:30. Once each month they have a Folk Mass at St. Vincent's Church in St. Petersburg, and it was thought that this might be something that the island people, young as well as older, might enjoy -- thus the visit.

Other programs and entertainment are planned for these young people and all the young people on the Island will be invited to come to all of them.

That weekend will be "Gondolier Weekend" at St. Michael's, and we hope the Island will extend its best welcome.

DON'T FEED THE ALLIGATORS!

You're not only writing out a possible death sentence for the alligator, but creating a very dangerous situation for children, who, seeing adults feeding them, may be tempted to feed the pet (???) gator too, only to become it's meal.

Nearly every month someone in our state gets badly bitten by these prehistoric reptiles; a direct result of being fed since a hatchling.

An alligator is normally a shy animal and would avoid civilization, but when fed, they become bold, and suddenly the motel owner gets worried when his "cute" little 6 foot gator runs up the bank after a $200 dog, or someone's priceless child.

Then there's a choice of either capturing and transporting the "beast" to a different area, or shooting it. Since the gator has a rather strong homing instinct, and in a few days will be found back in the same pond if transported, they often end up shot.

So rather than feed them and invite death to the gator, your pet dog, or a child, take a mature look at the American alligator's position in nature, as a wildlife surplus controller, and let him do his thing, eating gars, turtles, snakes, sick fish and birds, etc., and feed those marshmallows to the kids.

REPORT ON DAMAGE TO MOLLUSKS

Some weeks ago request was made for anyone on the islands to report any damage they had noticed to the mollusks as a result of the red tide. The information which follows was obtained from one motel owner, four shelling guides, one marine biologist and a number of just plain interested shellers who were observant.

South side of Sanibel between the Blue Dolphin and Tradewinds: Polinices duplicatus (shark eye) in piles, by the thousands with mouth parts diseased, some shells eroded as was even the operculum in some cases. Oliva sayana (olive) again thousands washed up dead with the mouth parts diseased. Sinum perspectivum (lady's ear) about one hundred in similar condition. Donax Variabilis (coquina) beach littered with closed shells containing dead bodies which neither the birds nor ants would touch.

South side Sanibel area of steamboat (also lower part Bonita Beach): Anomia simplex (jingle shells) beaches littered with doubles again with dead animals. As any sheller knows any doubles except the very smallest are hard to find at any time and noone contacted remembers them coming in such quantities, atleast during the last 20 years.

Bay side of Sanibel from the causeway to Woodring Point was very badly hit though the Pine Island side seemed to escape with little damage. Eel Grass and Turtle Grass all brown and covered with slime and no sign of any snails. Later report is that both the eel and turtle grasses were showing signs of green at their roots and those at York Island were free of slime and beginning to produce. Shrimp (bait size) coming back also a few small blue crab. Ostrea frons (coon oyster) gone from the mangroves. Crassostrea virginica gone. Mercenaria (hard shelled clam) seemed to be O.K, although it was the one that caused the first ban on taking shellfish.

Blind Pass area: At the beginning of the tide the flats were a mass of dead mollusks. Later there were masses of dead shells of the lightning whelk, angel wings, horse conchs and shark eyes piled under the mangroves. Melongena corona (King's Crown) not killed off so much. Two large ones found on piling at Tarpon Bay and the smaller ones seemed to have a lower death rate.

Upper Captiva: In areas on the east side where many species and fiddler crabs were abundant, there was not a sign of anything living. Captiva and Roosevelt Channel did not seem to suffer as much as more exposed areas.

This report is just the result of natural curiosity brought on by realizing it was the bottom feeding fish that were killed in such quantities and wondering how the mollusks, which are also bottom feeders, had fared.

FISHING TRIPLE CROWN

It is perhaps an understatement to define remarkable the latest deep sea fishing exploits of three Sanibel anglers aboard the party boat, La Be Da. On three successive days every one of them managed to win the jackpot for the biggest fish caught; in each instance a hefty red grouper in the fifteen pound range. Mario Hutton started the ball rolling on Saturday, Oct. 2. On Sunday, Mark Kylo, age 9, made his sensational fishing debut by copping the prize. And the following day Uncle Clarence Rutland claimed Sanibel's unusual triple crown by taking top honors. All told, something to be proud about!

BROWSING AROUND by fran

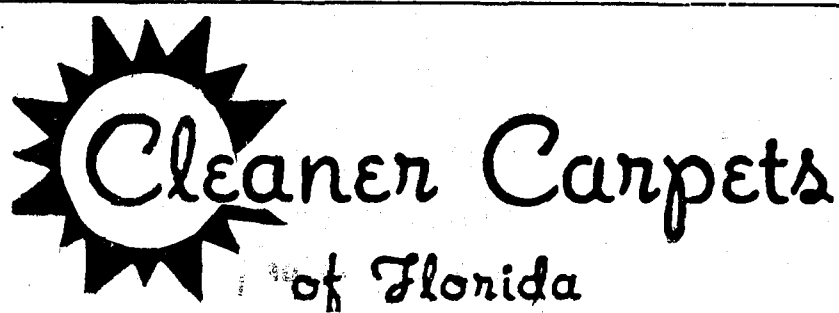

Harbor House is busy serving up delicious shrimp and fish dinners, and everyone is talking about them. A few weeks ago, when the seagrapes were at their best, Mr. White of Whitecaps helped us pick some nice bunches from his trees. We fully intended to rush home and make some jelly, but all sorts of things came up to prevent this, and so we ended up with a pot full of mashed up fruit which we had to turn over to our better half. Being of a scientific turn of mind, he purchased a sure jelling pectin product and proceeded to make the most delicious pale pink jelly this side of sunset, and many thanks to the Whites for their fruit. Mrs. Blank of Captiva is another artist with the jelly kettle. She has made some delightful jellies and marmalades from guavas and citrus fruits. The Island Inn has been undergoing some transformations. The lobby has new carpeting and pretty decor with a return to the fireplace where guests can enjoy the cheery blaze on chilly evenings. There is a removable wall in the lobby that will be opened to the cozy fireplace area when nights are cool, and a whole new dining area has been added that is very spacious and gracious. South Seas Plantation entertained the executives from the Portland Cement Co. over the weekend, and they were much impressed with the honest relaxation provided by the islands, and all seemed to enjoy the water and beaches. South Seas has some beautiful flower arrangements made of Island coquinas in vases of handblown decorative glass, and they also are showing some delightful sandpictures made of real Sanibel sands and miniature shells. If you are one of those people who have always planned to work in ceramics, but never seemed to find the time, Edna Russell of S. Yachtsman Dr. may have the answer for you. There will be classes in her home 7 to 10 p.m. Fridays and by appointment, and she has all kinds of supplies to help you in learning the ancient art. Even if you feel you have no artistic talents, it often turns out that ceramics are fun. Edna will assist and teach you all the intricacies of ceramic making, firing and painting. Edna, as you may know, has the Sanibel Originals Shop located in the old building across from Bailey's that used to be a church, seventy years ago. "The part of the building containing the shop is at least 70 years old, and later it was used as a school," explained Mrs. Russell.

She has one of the widest selections of various kinds of coral, one-of-a-kind ceramic pieces and pine needle art ware. Everything in her shop is handmade on the islands, and much of it right in the shop. Seven Seas is back in business after a vacation spent mostly in buying for the fall trade, and they are offering a large selection of men's and ladies' blazer jackets and golf wear. New fall styles for the ladies, God Bless Them, are arriving daily, and Seven Seas is taking a great interest in the half size lady. Clothes will be in high fashion colors for fall with cover-ups and long skirts and dresses. Men's clothing, on the other hand, will feature new colors and more knits and short shorts, a trend that is new for the usually more conservative male. Seven Seas has the unusual in mix or match swim suit separates, some with little boy legs. The Island Store on Captiva retains its country store look outside, but inside all is up to date. Though much of the stock is still in the process of being restored to the new clean shelves, the store has remained open as much as possible for the convenience of customers, and Dick Hahn is back at the counter looking very well after his seige in the hospital. Incidentally, the store is offering beer and wine sales due to customer demand, and much of the shopping area will be self service. Dotti's Shop is open again and featuring some pretty styles, both subdued and flamboyant styles so dear to a girl's heart. And along with cash, she will take Bank Americard and Master Charge Also.

We hear that Father Madden is much improved after recent surgery and will soon be back on the islands. Many summer vacationists have returned to the islands, Frances and Ted Roberts are back, and Frances is at her post at the Chamber of Commerce. The Roberts had planned a trip to Ireland, but Frances' friend's husband suffered a heart attack and so the trip was postponed indefinitely, but the Roberts visited in Ohio, New York and Virginia. Jeanne Jack of the Casa Turquesa is back from an exciting trip overseas which we are waiting to hear about. The Kontinos have returned from a wonderful tour of the Mediterranean and Greek Islands. The Mac Intosh tour group has also returned and we wait with baited breath to hear of their ventures. Do you know anyone who needs a loving silver poodle who needs a good home? She is spayed, has brown velvet eyes and AKC papers and is 3-1/2 years old.
