Water Hike Not For Homes

A proposed surcharge increase on water from the Greater Pine Island Water Association would not apply to private homes, Henry E. Nowak, president, said Thursday.

The surcharge increase from 50 cents to $1 per unit would apply to rental or leased units such as motels and trailer parks, Nowak said.

The Association office was plagued Thursday with telephone calls from confused water users, Nowak said. The surcharge increase is to go into effect only if a federal loan for building a desalination plant is approved.

The surcharge increase would affect a motel owner, for instance, by $1 a month per room or a trailer park owner at $1 a month per space, instead of the present 50 cents charge.

A $500,000 loan is being sought by the Association to finance the construction of a desalination plant for Pine Island to supplement a dwindling fresh water supply.

The Association voted to decrease the per-gallon rate base for all users from 7,000 to 5,000 minimum gallons per month while increasing the rate from $6 to $10. This rate change, like the surcharge increase, will occur only if the Association gets its loan.

SCPB Completes 1st Year

At the 2nd annual membership meeting of the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Boards, Inc., held March 20, Mr. Vernon MacKenzie reviewed the activities of the past year, noting that memberships reached 420, including 13 organizations. Up for renewal April 1, so far 167 have been received for 1972-73. The Board is totally dependent on dues for its financial support.

Emphasizing that without the cooperation of the membership, the Board could not work effectively, Mr. MacKenzie reported interceding in 12 cases before the Lee County Commissioners, influencing 10 and losing 2. Other public hearings, on an average of one a week, have been attended by him to monitor county actions affecting the islands. Continued vigilance is needed, he said, to protect our height limitation ordinance and density moratorium, constantly under attack. The water situation continues to be critical and the Board is cooperating with the Water Association as well as state and county departments to prevent further deterioration of quality and supplies. After much hard work on the part of the Board of Directors, the Planning Board's part of the Comprehensive Plan has been completed and will be reviewed by the Lee County Commissioners April 10. Copies of this may be obtained through the corresponding secretary. Revealing that 5400 acres are still available for building on the islands, the question of incorporation was discussed and a committee appointed to investigate the ins and outs of such an action.

Newly elected to the Board of Directors were Mr. MacKenzie, president; Mr. Benton Blair, 1st vice president; Mr. Don Seymour, 2nd vice president; Mr. Don Marshall, treasurer; Mrs. Lillian Paschall, recording secretary; Mrs. Elinore Dormer, corresponding secretary. Also directors: Messrs Robert Haynie, Andrew Melloody, Parker Mills and B. K. Tremaine. Representing organizations and directors: Malcolm Beattie, Island Inn Assn. and Palm Lake Assn.; Mario Hutton, S-C Audubon Society; Roy Bazire, S-C Conservation Foundation; Bernard LeRoux, S-C Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Ingalls Simmons, Sanibel Community Assn.; Benton Blair, Chateau Dur Mer Assn.; Don Seymour, Captiva Civic Assn. As advisors, Mr. Joseph McMurtry, environmental and city planner, now Sanibel resident, and for the Lions Club, Mr. James Scholefield, and for the Rocks Civic Assn., Mr. Ken Walter.

Emeritus Board Created

Creation of an Emeritus Board of Directors has been announced by Mrs. George Winterbotham, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation. Its purpose is to honor those who have served on the regular Board and to provide a group of experienced professionals whose knowledge and understanding of the Foundation's purposes and operations may be called upon from time to time.

Charter members of the Emeritus Board include Mrs. Willis Combs, Mrs. Joseph A. Gault, Mr. James Jack, Mr. Hervey Roberts, Mr. Tom Wood, all of whom served as incorporating directors when the Foundation was formed in the fall of 1967, but have since left the Board, and Mrs. Leon Levy and Mr. Thomas E. Mitchell, who retired from the Board in December 1971.

Hereafter, when a member of the regular Board leaves, he or she automatically will become a Director Emeritus on the Emeritus Board.

Mary Aleck - Owner

Major LOUIS BOST and wife, MABLE, paid a visit to RALPH WOODRING and family over the weekend. Bost is a retired U.S.A.F. major. He was Ralph's Captain when Ralph was stationed in Syracuse, N.Y., for a year, 13 years ago. Bost is presently working for the U.S. Army Signal Corp. in Virginia.

After being shown real estate by Elaine Patton of Murphy Real Estate, they were taken for a tour by boat of the rough parts of the wildlife Sanctuary. They proclaimed, "It is beautiful, and we will be back to stay."

JULIE WOODRING spent 4 days in Lee Memorial Hospital but is home and well on the way to recovery.

CRISIS AT THEATER!

Sanibel's Jerry Lewis Theater, which opened last week, was "saved by the boy" last Saturday.

Seems that the contractor Don Hiers, inadvertently locked the keys to the projection room INSIDE the projection room.

"Find me a little boy," he said. "There must be one in front of Bailey's!"

Well there was.

Mike Kelly, Jr., 10 years old, volunteered his services -- namely being small enough to fit through an approximate 14 inch square hole and brave enough to do it.

He got the keys, unlocked the door -- and the show was able to go on.

Mike is from Edina, Mass., and he and his family are visiting Sanibel for the first time. We hope they all return.

COLONY GUESTS

Guests at The Colony for Easter vacations are Mr. & Mrs. Lee B. Durham, Sr. and Mr. & Mrs. Lee B. Durham, Jr. and family from Birmingham, Mich.; Mr. & Mrs. Unto Savolainen from Attleboro, Mass.; Dr. & Mrs. H. W. Diefendorf from Summit, N.J.; the Franklin Raus from Amityville, N.Y.; the Tom Reinhardt family of West Lawn, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. Bernard S. Kubale and family from Milwaukee, Wis.; the R. Mason family from Princeton, N.J.; Mr. & Mrs. Carl B. Johanson and family from New City, N.Y.

From Illinois come Mrs. Caroline Hartmann and party of Glencoe; Dr. & Mrs. David L. Doud and family of Normal; the Walter Punke family of Bloomington; Mr. & Mrs. L. G. Gardner and Mr. & Mrs. Neil Ashley and family from Northbrook; and Mr. & Mrs. Norman F. Ast and family of Springfield.

From Ohio, Dr. & Mrs. Robert Muenzer and family of Toledo; Dr. & Mrs. L. C. Thompson and family of Mansfield; the C. Wyler family from Tallmadge; Mr. & Mrs. John R. Varley and family and Mr. & Mrs. Richard Turney and family from Cleveland; Mr. & Mrs. James Bucher and sons of Dayton; the H. Richard Kelly family and Mr. & Mrs. A. J. Brogan and family of Maumee; and from Lorain, Mr. & Mrs. James N. Evans.

Also Mr. & Mrs. Bowles and Mr. & Mrs. Figureski from Howell, Mich.; Mr. & Mrs. J. Keith Alford and family from Buffalo, N.Y.; the John Riggs family from Rochester, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. Edward J. McArdle and family from Saginaw, Mich.; and Mr. & Mrs. O. E. Brown from Burlington, Wis.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

We are very sorry to learn that REV. H. E. SHEELEY suffered a heart attack Saturday evening and is at present in the Intensive Care Unit at Lee Memorial Hospital. Our prayers and best wishes for a speedy recovery go with him.

The TERRENCE G. O'BRIENS of Gulfview Dr. found an armadillo up near Chateau Sur Mer. "The animal moves rather quickly, but we were able to catch it, and it seemed not to mind too much being handled. Then we released it and it ran away into the undergrowth, but before letting it go, we even took a picture of it, as we have heard of only two others ever being seen on the islands. One of those was spotted up near the Chapel by the Sea, and that was some years ago. When we got home we looked the armadillo up in our wildlife book, and learned they are mammals and not reptiles, and are insect eaters," said Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. & Mrs. FRANKLIN GOODALE of Bethel, Vermont, will be soon saying goodbye to the islands and heading back north after a wonderful season of good fishing, good boating and good friends. This is their fourth season on Sanibel, and he has boated many a snook, and she many a red. Here's looking forward to their return next year.

Another guest of the islands is WILLIA HARDY and charming wife. They too have spent five months on Sanibel (at the White Heron) but will be returning shortly to Franconia, N.Y., where Mr. Hardy is bartender for the summer season up there. Many will remember him as the genial host and bartender from old Casa Ybel.

Mr. & Mrs. ERNEST WITSKE of Lake Geneva, Wis., will be heading north too. They have been great fishermen and boating enthusiasts and have enjoyed many a fine day out on the water. Mr. Witske runs a bowling alley up north. Wishe he could see his way clear to running one down here on the islands.

Mr. & Mrs. CABOT MANHIRE of Milltown, N.J., are being welcomed back warmly by friends at the Palm View, and others who are receiving welcomes are Mr. & Mrs. ERWIN BIEMANN of Darien, Ill., and the OLIVER GANGS of Falmouth, Mass.

The son of Mr. & Mrs. HARRY N. CARR of Nerita St. on Sanibel has been visiting them, and he is Spec. 4 JAMES CARR. James just returned from a tour in Germany with the Army. He will be a civilian and will be home on the Islands for awhile now, we hope.

D. E. HAHN leaves April 6 for a prolonged tour of London, Nice, Italy and Switzerland and points European. She will meet a friend in London; they will travel to France for the wedding of another mutual friend, and then on for a month's sightseeing tour around Europe. D.E. will leave DICK in charge of the Island Store while she is gone.

BLANCHE FORD has had as her guests for the past six weeks dear friends, Miss EMMA BAHNER and Miss DOROTHY PETERSON. Emma is from Philadelphia, and Dorothy from Lakehurst, N.J., and they were reluctant to return to the winter weather back home.

CAROL WATTERSON and three children arrived on the Island from Medina, Ohio. Dad GEORGE WATTERSON, who has the interesting new shop, Sea to Sky, drove up to get them, and he finally talked Carol into taking the children out of school and packing up and moving down to Sanibel. We believe it didn't take too much persuasion, after a long, cold winter up Ohio way.

DRIFTWOOD APTS. GUESTS

The Driftwood Apts. is happy to greet their guests, Mr. & Mrs. George Sanders and Mr. & Mrs. Charles Ritter from Waterloo and Romulus, N.Y. With them is their mother, Mrs. Ritter, a spry young lady at 85. After spending some time in the Keys, the Sanders and Ritters are rounding out their vacations here on Sanibel, where they are no strangers. Mrs. Sanders, as well as Mrs. Ritter, are ardent and experienced shellers and are having a ball picking up some goodies.

The Driftwood is also proud to have among their guests, Mr. & Mrs. Robert W. Geissinger and their daughter, Elizabeth (Betsey) from Newton, Pa. This being their first time on this island, it is obvious, they already have fallen in love with Sanibel and are spending a leisure time with their friends, Mr. & Mrs. Righter at the Sanibel Arms and Mr. & Mrs. John Steiner from Huntingdon, Pa., who are visiting the Geissingers at the Driftwood Apts. for a short time. Mrs. Steiner is the sister of Mrs. Geissinger.

Also here and visiting Miss Ruth Zoellner is her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. George and Martha Wells from Indianapolis, Ind. They will be here for the opening of the new Cinema on Sanibel which will be managed by Misses Miriam Stone and Ruth Zoellner, now residing at the Driftwood.

SEGUNDA APARTMENTS

Guests currently vacationing at Segunda Apartments or expected over Easter Week include Capt. & Mrs. J. E. Graham of Amityville, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. John Dunlap of Armonk, N.Y., joined by his brother, Mr. Robert Dunlap of Melbourne Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Dunlap; Mr. & Mrs. W. E. O'Connor of Holly Springs, Miss.; Miss Martha DeBaun and her companion, Mrs. Stiff, both of Indian Rocks Beach, Fla.; the Ernest F. SANIBEL SCHOOL NEWS by francis bailey

For three years, the Sanibel PTA has held bake sales, raffles and other money making affairs to air condition the elementary school. By the time the PTA thought they had enough money to do the job, the County would change the specifications for the air conditioning, and the estimated cost soared to $20,000. Then the special millage for the schools was voted down. Had that millage passed, the County would have had the wherewithal to air condition Sanibel School, which was on a priority list.

The PTA then began seeking an alternate plan. Someone suggested ceiling fans. They decided to try one room to see if the results would be favorable. The PTA then purchased four 52" fans, and the County installed them. The fans cost approximately $100.00 each, and the results have proved satisfactory; not a total answer, but far superior to floor fans, as they are much quieter, safer and with no use of valuable floor space, and more even distribution of moving air, thus creating an environment more conducive to learning.

The PTA has ordered an additional number of 21 fans for the other four rooms, including the Teacher's Aid room. Through their various efforts to raise the money, they are close but still a little short of this commitment. Any help any of our island friends can render at this time will be appreciated. The PTA treasurer is Mrs. Charles Holland, Sanibel Isles, Sanibel, Fla. 33957.

SANIBEL-CAPTIVA CONSERVATION FOUNDATION

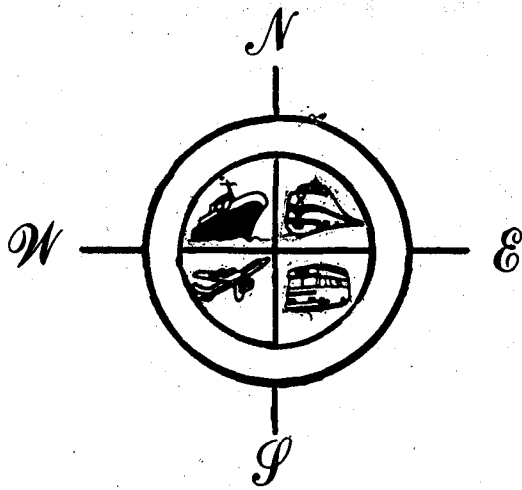

Islanders and visitors are invited to attend a free public meeting at which Marjory Stoneman Douglas, the "Maharane of the Marshes," will speak about "The Everglades, South Florida's Future."

Mrs. Douglas, famed author of "The Everglades: River of Grass," has full command over the subject she loves, the history of Miami, Florida, and in particular the entire Everglades. "We have to get the best minds of the land to do this job and we all have to help see that it is done. The Everglades have to be saved," Mrs. Douglas declares.

To organize concern for saving the Everglades, Mrs. Douglas formed the "Friends of the Everglades," of which she is president. Roy Bazire, executive director of the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation is Lee County chairman for Friends of the Everglades.

At the recent South Florida Environmental Planning Conference, sponsored by ECOSWF (Environmental Confederation of South West Florida), Mrs. Douglas spoke and received a standing ovation. At that time she was given the title "Maharane of the Marshes" by Joel Kuperberg, executive director of the State of Florida T.I.F.F. who introduced her.

The free public lecture is sponsored by the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation as a public service.

BROWSING AROUND by fran o.callaghan

Life has been so hectic of late, what with all the visitors, we have hardly had time to do much browsing. Coming home from the Causeway the other evening, we saw a dredge lifting the $40,000 yacht from near the Sanibel shore where she sunk recently. The boat is the Ann Reese owned by William Keiser of Fort Myers Beach. The boat was carried to Cook's Marina on Fort Myers Beach for repair. The lovely little yacht will soon be in the water again, we hope.

At the Bait Box, where we purchased some delicious fresh mackerel fillets, a demonstration of a metal detector was in progress with many interested bystanders. We did not linger long enough to learn what was being detected, but guess it was an old paint can top from what was being unearthed.

There is something about the Sanibel and Captiva air that just makes a visitor hungry! With all the good places to eat, it is not a place to think of dieting. Harbor House has daily fish specialties, and a ham sandwich that just won't quit, and it is a little known secret that they have the most delicious Key lime pie ever. It is made from scratch from limes growing beside the door of the restaurant.

Letitia's has entered the popular price food area by presenting a manicotti dish fit for a king. Betty's Castaways is coming along with some popular priced foods too, all home cooked and good with a nice marine view thrown in, too.

Timmy's Nook is under new management and they too are offering delicious snack foods, and the other day as we visited, an interesting array of deep Gulf shells and corals were being offered there at very good prices.

Bailey's is many things to many people. Since there is no local bank, they are the official check cashiers, and they can be called your one-stop shopping spree, for they can take care of your needs from shoes on up to the top of your little pointed head, and all areas in between, with food for the inner man or lady too. The only thing really missing is a prescription department. As it is, all must shop off the islands for prescriptions.

People must take out endless pizzas from the Snack Shack for parties and beach picnics, for they are delicious.

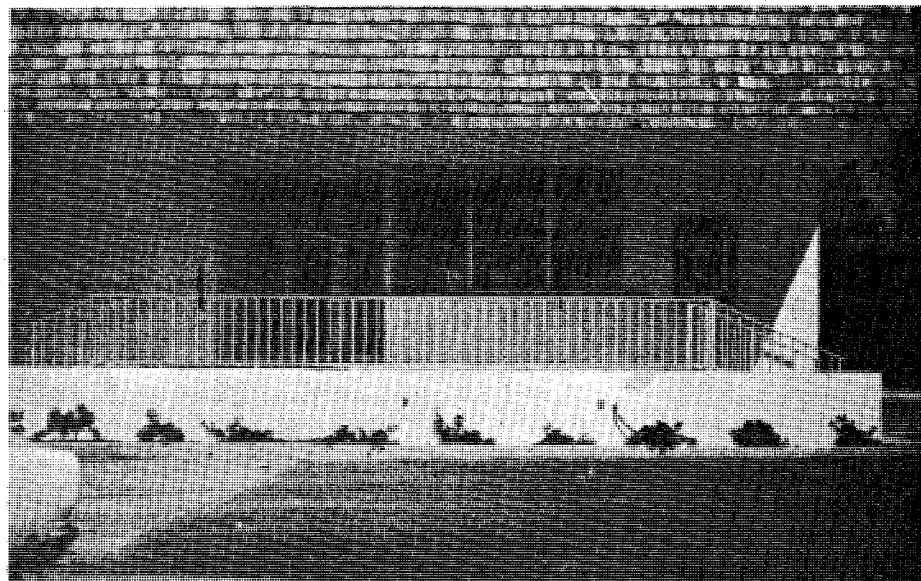

Edna tells us the old building where her Sanibel Originals is located has been sold and that the new owners have special plans for the historic old landmark. The building is made of cypress, a wood almost unobtainable now, and one which will weather and last almost indefinitely, withstanding termites and rot. She says there is one other wood as impermeable, but it must be shipped in from India, making the cost prohibitive. Of course, there is cypress growing everywhere, but the big trees have already been cut out, and it takes 100 years to grow a tree large enough to harvest.

Dotti has a sale rack of hostess gowns for 1/3 off, and other dresses. Very interesting when thinking of Easter coming along.

The Shop has some lovely monkey-pod bowls and leaf dishes they are able to sell at sensational prices, and even less than you would pay on the islands (Hawaiian, that is) and so they bear some looking into for gift giving and treasuring yourself.

Oh, there are so many interesting places on the islands to visit and shop and eat. Don't miss the Red Pelican for clothing and the daring and unusual plus some old and some new things, and Thetan has some way out arty things that are a must on the list of youth, and so of course, while in the area, you must look into the B-Hive for all their special goodies both local and imported. Right now, they have a snow shovel with a sign on it "Pray for Snow" on sale! You will find things from foreign lands that you can't find anywhere else outside of Greece or wherever. But more again when we don't run out of space.

JERRY LEWIS CINEMA OPENS

Jerry Lewis Cinema opened with a bang at the Island Shopping Center on Friday evening with the showing of "Diamonds are Forever." An enthusiastic audience viewed the first movie on Sanibel with a full house in the 210 seating capacity. The curtains of rich and red velvet accent the red carpeting throughout. Purple bougainvilleas accent the outdoor landscaping.

There is plenty of parking in the Center. The full wide-view screen with superb acoustics lends itself to other uses too. Little theatre could be produced on the stage area.

Several representatives of the Network Cinema Corp. attended the premier from Sarasota, Miami and New York. Latest hits and films will be shown regularly, but no X rated films will be featured. Owners are two energetic and personable ladies, Miriam L. Stone and Ruth K. Zoellner of Driftwood Apartments on Sanibel.

MILWAUKEE GROUP BUYS $550,000 SANIBEL SITE

A tract of Sanibel Island property fronting on the Gulf of Mexico, recently rezoned from mobile home park use to apartment use, has been sold for $550,000 to a limited partnership of Milwaukee businessmen who plan development of the complex in a few weeks.
 The ownership transfer from John M. Hallward to Sanibel Associates Ltd. of the 10-acre tract was the leading realty transaction of the week in Lee County.

The tract was rezoned early this month by the Lee County Commission at Hallward's request because he doesn't feel mobile home parks should be developed on beachfront property.
 When the rezoning was being discussed during a public hearing by the commissioners, Hallward's attorney said the property would be much more profitable if developed into a trailer park but an apartment complex would be more suitable for the island.

Hallward started buying the parcel about 3½ years ago and has spent several months getting title problems cleared away. The trailer park zoning was placed on the parcel several years before he began his purchase.

The attorney said the new owners are planning to build garden type apartment buildings in clusters near the beach and a recreational area. A tentative plans calls for 160 apartments in 12 buildings.

The sale of the property was handled for Hallward by Realtor James D. Newton & Associates of Fort Myers Beach.

ECOSWF

More than 40 persons representing the 35 environmental groups which make up the Environmental Confederation of South West Florida (ECOSWF) met in Port Charlotte at the Ramada Inn March 20 and adopted a program of action for the coming year. Four committees were set up to implement a seven-point program that calls for monitoring current environmental legislation, and reviewing it to provide regional input in statewide land and water use plans and their administration. Objective is to contribute to such legislation as it will be introduced in the 1973 legislature.

Recommendations for formal organization of ECOSWF, and financing its operations, are to be prepared by another committee. A third will investigate possibilities for a continuing program of publicity.

Perhaps the major committee will pursue the Environmental Inventory for the 5 Southwest counties included in ECOSWF that was introduced at the Environmental Planning Conference for South Florida, held at Edison Junior College in January. The first inventory is to be completed by June 1, with an annual follow up. A federal grant to finance the Environmental Inventory project is pending.

Local delegates who attended the meeting included Mr. William Hammond and Mr. Roy Bazire of the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation and Mr. Mario Hutton, president of the Sanibel-Captiva Audubon Society.

AUDUBON ACTIVITIES AND ELECTIONS

The Sanibel-Captiva Audubon holds its annual meeting tonight Thursday, March 30, at 8 p.m., in the Sanibel Community House. Following the president's and treasurer's reports, members will vote on the slate of candidates submitted by the nominating committee, that includes: Marion F. Hutton, for president; Griffing Bancroft, for vice president; and Shirley Walter, for secretary-treasurer. Also elected will be four directors to replace members of the Board whose term expires this year. The following nominations will be voted upon: Karen Eastman, Parker Mills, Dorothy Mendinhall, Charles Newell.

After completion of the official business on the agenda, a very interesting program will be presented by Harlan B. Herbert of Lakeland, vice president of the Florida Conservation Foundation, and a director of the Florida Audubon Society. Mr. Herbert is a noted photographer, and under a title, "A Day Afield in Florida" he will offer a fascinating color slide show illustrating some of our State's wild areas, primarily along its many rivers. Interspersed among the woodland and swamp scenes are pictures of native plants, birds and animals. As usual, the show is open to the public, and all are cordially invited.

The last event of the current Audubon season will be held on Thursday, April 6, and will consist of the organization's first annual outing on the Blue Heron II. It will be a fun-filled, day-long deep sea fishing expedition in the Gulf of Mexico, and participants will gather at 7:30 a.m. at the Beach Marina, Fort Myers Beach. It is possible that a few reservations, at $10.40 per person, may still be available as this announcement is printed.

LOVE STORY

You can tell Spring has arrived as a beautiful green parakeet is in love with a sparrow and they are cavorting around the main office of Priscilla Murphy's. The little parakeet is no more than two inches from the sparrow, and recently the parakeet was seen collecting nesting material with the sparrow; we don't know which is the boy or girl, but as soon as the sparrowkeets arrive we will let you all know!

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE

Easter sunrise could find you attending the most meaningful experience of your life, if you go to the beach-side service of the First Baptist Church, Sanibel, says Rev. Jack E. Otis, Pastor.

The Youth of McGregor Baptist, Fort Myers, and Sanibel, will present an unusual program.

Those participating are: Mr. Marshall Wells, Larry Keel on the drums. Misses Sharon Harper, Ruth and Nancy DeLoach, Julie King, and Kathy McClain --- Kevin Stevens, Tom Walker, David Coleman, Bryon and Mike Blackwell, in the pantamine.

There will be Congregational singing and personal testimonies as the sun appears over the water, behind the cross.

Treat yourself to a "Once in a life time" blessing. Bring your friends and neighbors.

The public is cordially invited. Sunday, April 2, 5:30 a.m. at the end of the Causeway on Sanibel. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE ISLANDER:

With the typical bulldozing tactics of the true bureaucracy, the Board of County Commissioners in the person of Walter Shirey rapid-fired the sewer proposition at the people of the islands, with notable lack of facts and basic reasons why sewers are needed at all.

The pattern of politically motivated ideas such as this one is strangely similar whether for Sanibel or New Jersey, or Alaska. First, you wave the enticing odor of Federal Funding before the noses of the people. This is meant to lull the sense of smell and dull the intellect so that the people will believe that the cost of the project will not be extracted from their pockets.

Don't you believe it. You will pay, and pay, and pay --- for the initial costs, and for all the maintenance and repair taxes that will be levied year after year. Once you realize this fact of life, the enticing smell turns painfully fishy --- and, oddly enough, the fishy smell emanates from a large pork barrel.

Fact: The need for sewers is directly tied to the intent on the part of the Board to allow high density building wherever they can get away with it. If this is not so, then why the need?

Fact: The need becomes really questionable when you can point at community after community all over the country that have had no need for sewers even though they are more concentrated in population than we hope the islands will ever be. Case in point: For 25 years we have lived in a suburban community of over 300 large single-family homes built on quarter and half acre plots. This community started with individual septic facilities, turned down sewers when it was brought up, and is still doing perfectly well on the original facilities. Further, although we have lived here for 25 years the community itself is well over 50 years old.

Case histories like this can be repeated from coast to coast.

Fact: Concentrated areas like Miami have a sewerage system. Do you know what they do with raw human sewage and other filth? They tunnel it through a pipe that extends a bare 7000 feet out in the Atlantic, with the result that the ocean out there has a thousand foot brown blot sardonically known as "The Rosebowl." When the tide and winds are right you can actually bath amid fecal slop, if you have a mind to. Is that what is planned for the Gulf?

Fact: Bureaus are generally parasitic by their very nature. They have to live off doing something for the public. But very often the doing is not so much for you and me, but for themselves so they can continue their existence. A flagrant example is the Army Corps of Engineers. Can you imagine that one of their pet projects was the flooding of the Grand Canyon?

So beware. As a long time visitor and Sanibel property owner, we urge all to join the voices and action called for by The Sanibel Rocks Civic Association in their notice printed in The Islander

March 16. Above all do not let the cancerous tendrils of a sewer system set the scene for the high density destruction of Sanibel-Captiva.

/s/ Carl Hubbard
Plainfield, N.J.

TO THE ISLANDER:

As we island residents know, this past year has indeed been a most active one for our Island Water Association. Its board of directors has probed deeply and systematically into the many alternatives for providing a more adequate and dependable water source for our future. It faced up squarely to the unpleasant fact that the well fields of our present Pine Island supplier are rapidly being preempted and depleted by Pine Island's own growth, as well as the similar demands of Cape Coral and North Fort Myers. I am sure that most Islanders share my admiration and appreciation for the job our Association's Board is doing.

There is, however, one facet of its duties that seems to have been overlooked in the Board's proper preoccupation with the prime technical problem of seeking a new water source. The best interests of the Association's members need the protection of a total and immediate moratorium on the acceptance of new memberships. Especially intolerable would be the attempt to supply such large concentrations of new water users as the diversified and large Wulfert Road project and the 400 family Sundial Condominiums. The ban should last until the new and adequate water source is ready. The Association's Charter wisely foresaw this moratorium when it provided for it with the clause, "...if the capacity of its water system is exhausted by the needs of its existing members and such other persons to whom it has been supplying water."

Our very low water pressure and other rationing devices caused by the restricted supply from Pine Island during the current tourist season appears to be more than sufficient justification for invoking the mandated moratorium. Certainly we can expect an intensification of the shortage until a new and adequate water source is put into use. It also seems unconscionable for the Association to remain silent while fully aware that expectant water consumers are investing their money in buildings that cannot be supplied when completed and must lie idle subject to the deteriorating effects of weather, and the ransacking of vandals.

I urge immediate and unequivocal action by the Association's Board to correct this serious oversight. At the same time, wish them the best of luck in the search for the water so desperately needed by us.

/s/ Paul A. Howe
Sanibel Island, Fla.

TO THE ISLANDER:

With so many reports of the delinquency of the younger generation I wish to report an action by a young student here on our Island.

For some years we have had a problem of illegal parking at the curve near the Post Office. Despite signs, temporary barriers and verbal warnings our snow bird visitors and others insist on crowding the narrow road.

Last week, Christopher Hardy asked permission of the Postmistress and took it on himself to "landscape" the area with Spanish Bayonet. This entailed hauling the cactus close to a mile by bicycle making a number of trips from his home.

As well as being most attractive it is to be hope it will be a permanently effective bar.

GRACIE STICKNEY

Mrs. Gracie Lee Stickney, 50, a visitor to Sanibel from Ramsey, N.Y., died Monday.

Survivors include her husband, George H. Stickney Jr.; a son, David E. Stickney of Ramsey, and two brothers. She was secretary of Passaic County Historical Society of Patterson, N.J., and member of the Baptist Church.

The body was sent to Roebuck East Chapel at Birmingham, Ala. for services and burial. Leo W. Engelhardt Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

WILB SNYDER
ONE MAN SHOW

Tomorrow, Friday, March 31, Wilb Snyder will exhibit paintings in watercolor and mixed media on the art board at the Captiva Post Office. The subjects will be a series of seascapes, beach scenes and abstract designs. Mr. Snyder's work is registered with the Society of North American Artists, and will be represented in the forthcoming edition of Artists/USA.

For the happiest shadow you'll ever cast.

Take the splendor of Sanibel. White beaches with some of the world's finest shelling. Virgin stands of graceful pines, soaring seabirds, seclusion and tranquil beauty. And the sun, surf and sea.

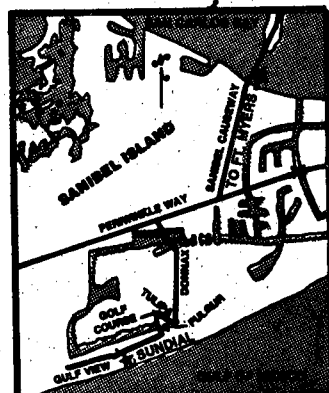

Now, rising on Sanibel's south shore, Sundial Beach and Tennis Condominiums, casting the dancing shadows of other joys to come. Tennis, next door golf, swimming in pool or from private beach, fishing and sailing. The clubhouse with the Kings Crown Cocktail Lounge, the Sundial Room and the Angel Wing Coffee Shop. Supper club entertainment. All a tide or two of coming true.

Choose your Sundial condominium apartment now. From efficiency to a two-bedroom and den unit. Your perfect second home for vacations and holidays. And, when you're not there, your apartment can be rented for you by a professional resort hotel management team. Sundial, for the happiest shadow you'll ever cast.

MODELS OPEN DAILY, 9 TO 6. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF PRE-OPENING PRICES, STARTING AT $29,900, AND IF YOU DON'T USE IT — RENT IT!

CHANGE OF WATCH

The San Carlos Bay Power Squadron had its 4th annual "Change of Watch" dinner and dance at the American Legion Post building on Fort Myers Beach March 23.

With William S. Allen as Master of Ceremony, the program consisted of dismissal of the outgoing bridge by Commander James O. Cain and installation of the new bridge by District Commander Wilbur C. Stone. In addition past president, Alice Allen, installed the new officers of the First Mates.

The members of the new bridge of San Carlos Bay Power Squadron are: Commander, Robert F. Ball; Executive Officer, Edwin H. Richards; Squadron Educational Officer, Robert L. McMahan; Administrative Officer, Paul Marinangeli; Secretary, Arnold D. Barr; Treasurer, Ashley L. Wright.

New officers of the First Mates are: President, Mary Mirtz; Vice President, Bea Cobb; Secretary, Ida Mulloy; Treasurer, Margaret McMahan.

The 150 in attendance were delightfully entertained by Hoosier Artist, W. Harold Hancock who painted three pictures after dinner with a full running explanation of the techniques involved.

ISLAND WATER ASSOCIATION

To better acquaint the membership of the Island Water Association with the gentlemen who have been nominated for election to the Board of Directors at the annual election of officers, this election being held April 10 at 10 a.m., the Association caused to be printed and distributed a resume and background information of both nominees, Mrs. G. Byron Kirby and Mr. Warren R. Tucker.

Unfortunately, Mr. Tucker was noted to reside on Sea Grape Lane, Sanibel. This is in error, Mr. Tucker resides at 4453 Gulf Drive, Sanibel. The Association wishes to apologize to Mr. Tucker for this error and for any embarrassment it may have caused him.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES ON CAPTIVA

Holy Communion with hymns will be held at 7 a.m. at the Captiva Civic Center. Father Madden celebrant.

SANIBEL COMMUNITY CHURCH

Easter Sunday services will be at 9 and 11 a.m. There will be no Sunday School.

HUNTERS THING

As a special added attraction for the week after Easter, an extra performance of The Hunters Thing will be given for a benefit. All proceeds will go equally to Meals for Millions and to Americans United for Life. The cast is Pat Slater, Ruth and Philip Hunter with Bob Dormer handling the stage and Helma and John Reynolds the box office.

BEACHVIEW COTTAGES

Prof. & Mrs. J. H. Wilson, winter residents at Beachview, have garnered many treasures from the sea. In addition to other beauties, Jim is proud of his three golden olives, and Louise recently found a Scotch bonnet and two perfect lion's paws. The Wilsons are enjoying a visit with their son, Dr. Robin Scott Wilson and his wife Patricia and their four children. Dr. Robin Wilson, besides being a well known science fiction writer, is Associate Director of the Big Ten Universities committee on Institutional Co operation.

Other guests at Beachview this week are Mr. & Mrs. Richard McLaren, New Castle, Ind.; Mr. & Mrs. L. L. McNutt, Newark, Ohio; Mrs. Ethel Simpkins and party from Toronto, Canada; Mr. & Mrs. Robert Herson, Granville, Ohio; and return visitors, Bill and Ann Thomas and family of Gainesville, Ohio, who are again enjoying the water and sands of Sanibel.

WILDLIFE NOTES by griffing bancroft

It happens so, sometimes, but not often, that birds like people may have eyes too big for their stomachs.

Watchers on a bird tour recently spent an absorbing half hour looking at an American bittern either trying to eat or to get untangled from a 20 inch snake.

The bittern is a bird of the heron family, but unlike most of the other members it keeps to itself and is extremely shy, spending most of its time hidden in cattail marshes.

It is about the size of the smaller herons but is much stockier, with speckled brown plumage. On the islands it is an uncommon and, due also to its secretive habits, a seldom seen winter resident. Unlike its smaller and even more secretive relative the least bittern, this larger bird does not nest here.

The American bittern feeds by standing, frozen, in the cattails, waiting with infinite patience for something edible to come within striking distance.

It does eat snakes. In fact, it eats about any kind of animal matter that comes within reach. The latest publications about this bittern lists its food as fishes, eels, frogs, salamanders, snakes, crayfish, mollusks, land and aquatic insects, spiders and small mammals.

Before we came along our bittern must have caught sight of the snake and struck with swift accuracy. For he was holding the reptile firmly just behind the head.

The snake has responded to the attack by wrapping himself around the back part of the bird's bill and around a leg which he held pinned against a wing.

Neither of the grim contestants seemed able to break this impasse. The bittern could shake the snake, which he kept doing, and the snake could tighten his grip and flick out his forked tongue, which he kept doing.

A full hour later, we subsequently learned, the bird had finally killed the snake. Then, with great effort, he managed to untangle himself and, head first, swallow the now unresisting reptile.

After which, if we may be permitted a slight anthropomorphism, he sat looking like the man in the commercial who says, "I can't believe I ate the whole thing."

For information about bird tours call MacIntosh Book Store, 472-1447.

THE ISLE OF UMBRELLAS

"I wish you could have heard the cast," said Ruth Hunter, "when we asked them to do an extra performance last Sunday for the benefit of Americans United for Life (headed by Loretta Young) and Meals for Millions. It was a beautiful unanimous 'Yes' by Helma and John Reynolds, Janet and George Tenney, Mariel and Porter Goss, Elaine Patton and Don Modrall, Edith Craig and, said Philip Hunter, who directs as well as plays an important role, "I wish you could have heard the audience enjoying Isle of Umbrellas, it was colossal! And we sure appreciate these fine actors who have given their time and talents to enhance the cultural life of Sanibel and Captiva Islands."

Isle of Umbrellas will give the final performance at the Pirate Playhouse on Easter Monday, April 3. Curtain, 8:15, box office, 472-1692.

HOME TOUR SUCCESS

The home tour was declared a huge success by all viewers and the recipients of over $2,200; the women of St. Michael and All Angels Church. The money will be used to carry on the many charitable projects of the church and the ladies. But we know of at least one mother who is glad it is over. Just imagine keeping one's home in apple pie viewing order all the time! What a colossal chore!

EXTRA PERFORMANCE OF HUNTERS THING

On April 3, there will be an extra performance of Hunters Thing for the benefit of Americans United for Life and Meals for Millions. Box office, 471-1962.
