Aluminum Cans

A study was made of the empty cans picked up at the high tide line on Sanibel's Gulf beach at The Rocks following a weekend holiday.

They were all aluminum and bore the words, "Please do not litter" stamped on each can. About one-third of the cans were Budweiser, one-fourth, Old Milwaukee and the remainder about evenly divided between Busch, Pabst and root beer.

These metal cans are a source of danger for months to barefoot shellers and bathers who visit the island.

How nice it would be if something could be done to encourage our visitors, and all who fish and picnic, to take the empties away with them when they leave. No one would willingly cause a serious cut from a half-buried can in the sand. Few people will agree with one visitor responsible for throwing a can away who said, when spoken to, "I pay taxes, let them pick it up."

New Hours For Fire Dept.

Chief Allen Nave of the Sanibel Fire Dept. announced new hours for application for burning permits which will only be granted if the calls to 472-1414 are made between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Reports for fires or rescue calls also between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. will be made to the same number. No permits for burning will be given except between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Fire to be reported before 8 a.m. or after 4 p.m. can use the regular number, 472-1717, to be used only for fire or rescue calls after hours.

There will also be regular meetings of the Sanibel Fire and Rescue Squads on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month at the little Sanibel Fire House on Palm Ave. Fire and Rescue officers are Allen Nave, Chief; Preston Woodring, Assistant Chief; Marty Holtz, Chief of Rescue Squad; Permanent Fire Captain, Phil Verdung.

Chamber Of Commerce Welcomes Visitors

Last Thursday and Friday were typical examples of the many guests who can't resist the lure of Sanibel and Captiva Islands. In the Chamber guest book there were sixteen families from Florida, Barbara and Brad Drewry of Daytona; the Donald Hielkzs of Union; two families from Jupiter, the Richard Souseas and James Hamill; the Bradys of Haines City; the A. E. Mazars from Dunedin, the Norman Woods of Orlando; Mrs. Sandra Epstein from Winter Park; John Cunningham from Okeechobee; the J. A. Crawfords from North Palm Beach; Diana Wilson and Marianna Gifford, both from Naples; the J. Mathieus of Deerfield Beach; Mrs. Ernestine Park from Vero Beach; Mr. & Mrs. H. Bates of Fort Lauderdale; and Mrs. Ralph O'Neil of White Park.

Three families came from Illinois, the Daniel Zapletals of Glendale Hts.; the W. J. Fuerys from Elgin, Ill.; and the Edward Withers of Chicago. Texas was represented by two families, the Robert Berrys from San Antonio and Mrs. B. J. Jones of Calvert. Two families from Missouri were the Anthony Van Der Haars from St. Louis, and the Morris Akisons of Fulton. From Columbia, S.C., were Harold, Frieda and Chris Turner; other arrivals were the Brennans, Bill, Nana and Holly, from Newton Iowa; Mart Green of Royal Oak, Mich.; Betty Pebholz of Whittier, Cal.; the J. M. Cooneys from Mt. Ranier, Md.; Dr. & Mrs. H. Toubman of W. Hartford, Conn.; the Guy Barhams from Cleveland, Ohio; the Goldicks from Milwaukee; Joe Fronikowiat of Seecasumma, N.J.; the A. Mayers of Long Beach, N.Y.; and Carroll Downey of Arlington, Va. And that's only for two days, folks! People must like our islands!

Big Bash At Post 123

Around 450 people enjoyed the fish fry staged a week ago Sunday at the Sanibel-Captiva American Legion Post 123, according to the newly installed commander, Jim Dowling.

"Everybody helped," said Dowling. "We are particularly thankful to Lorraine Holland who cooked our baked beans and to Gene Welker, both of Golden Sands Restaurant. Gene lent us the use of his kitchen. Allen Nave put together the huge batter for the hush puppies and Marty Holtz fried them. Many Legion members and Jake Stokes handled the fish fry which was delicious Florida mullet."

Dowling said they expected to hold another fish fry around Labor Day.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Spending the summer with their grandmother, Mrs. WILL GLASS on Gulf Drive are Miss CHRISTINE GLASS of Chattanooga and Miss FRANCES STEWART of Memphis, Tenn; they have been coming down for years and love it. This summer both gals volunteered as swimming instructors with the Lions swimming classes.

MIKE DORMER, son of Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT DORMER of Bird Lane, is on his second tour of Europe this summer. From Switzerland he went to Germany and from there plans to meet friends in Sweden and go on from there, returning early in September to resume his studies at the University of Florida in Gainesville, where he is a junior. His brother, BOB Jr., who was graduated from the University of N.C., is now planning on going to law school at Memphis State this coming year.

Mr. & Mrs. PETER D. CLAPP and ten month old daughter, KIMBERLY LEE CLAPP from Tampa, Fla., spent three days at the Reef on Sanibel last week. Peter Clapp's mother, Mrs. ELEANOR D. CLAPP, joined them for part of their stay. One of the highlights was stopping at MacIntosh's Book Shop to purchase a number of Johnny Gruelle's famous Raggedy Ann/Andy books for young Kim. Pete and Janie will eventually get the entire series at MacIntosh's, the focal point of Sanibel-Captiva's intellectual browsing. They all report a grand and glorious time.

Peter Clapp is Loan Manager for Ford Motor Co. in Tampa, Fla., headquarters. A transfer has been in the offering for a year, and eventually will become a reality. Eleanor (or Lee Clapp, as she is known by many in recent years) was hostess at the Island Inn, off and on, from 1936-1957. Her aunt, Miss CHARLOTTA MATTHEWS, was owner and operator of Island Inn during this period, and her mother, Mrs. ROGER E. CLAPP, assisted in many capacities, and supervised the care and beautification of the Inn property. Her brother, MATTHEW CLAPP, became assistant manager, and then manager of the Inn until it was sold, 1958, to a club made up of Island Inn guests of long standing, and retains the name, Island Inn.

Mr. & Mrs. PAT MCGROTTY of Miami are now staying at their Captiva cottage. Pat, an attorney in Miami, was here for the long Fourth of July holiday, but will commute weekends for the rest of the summer.

His wife and their five youngsters will stay on the island for the duration. She's an accomplished artist and hopes to have some of her work in the Shell Fair art show next year.

SENIOR VOLUNTEER WORKSHOP CONTINUES

On Tuesday mornings at the Senior Citizens' Service Center, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., the Volunteer Opportunity Workshop meets. All Senior Citizens are invited to participate in a variety of sewing, mending, and cancer bandage rolling activities. Mending is done for the County Clothing Center, the Children's Home, and the Lee County Mission.

During the summer those women interested in making children's clothing are especially welcome. The County Clothing Center provides the material and patterns and needs a great deal of clothing for the coming year. Women are requested to bring their portable sewing machines and enter into this worthy project. The Workshop also provides an opportunity to meet other people. The Center is at 1800 Colonial Blvd.

According to Mrs. Small, director of the County Clothing Center, located at North Fourth St., Page Park, they can use volunteers on Wednesday mornings to help sort the large amount of clothing on hand.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

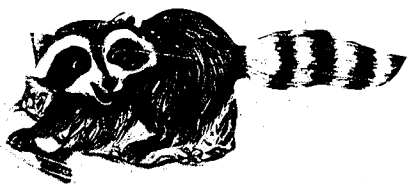

TO THE ISLANDER:

This is a plea and a request to all tourists and residents, who drive on Sanibel and Captiva Islands. Please SLOW down! Last Friday night two of my friends were killed needlessly by fast moving automobiles. We feed at night and move about the islands for food. Most of us don't realize there are things out there we have to be afraid of, or watch out for. We've been shifted about, through the years, due to your constant building and so-called "progress." So far we've tried to adjust. But we cannot fight or adjust to getting killed by cars at night while we search for food.

We animals mean no one any harm, and we would hope people would feel the same about us. It would help a lot if you would just slow down a little and watch the sides of the roads -- especially at night. This, to us, seems like a small request, but it has the potential of saving a lot of us from dying unnaturally.

Your concern is needed and appreciated. Won't you please help?

/s/ R. Raccoon,
many friends & relatives

TO THE ISLANDER:

A copy of the following letter was sent to the Islander for publication:
Dear Mr. Shirey:

Congratulations to you and the other commissioners on voting for a park and recreation grounds at Bonita Springs-Fort Myers Beach Causeway. No one speaks for us in these matters, (as a matter of fact I don't think I have the right to say what Bonita Springs or Fort Myers Beach need or do not need). From what I gather there are many on Sanibel and Captiva who feel the same way.

We want to go on record as saying that we too like alligators and turtles and birds. We speak now and then to a white heron. like "get off the road, you are supposed to be afraid," and though it has been twenty-five years since I saw my first cardinal, my heart still goes thump when that beautiful flash of red flies by. BUT, we LOVE our fellow men more than we do God's birds. Our Heavenly Father will take care of them as he has done from the beginning of time. We think He expects us to love our neighbor, and that means planning things like a park which you have done.

So again thank you, best wishes, and God Bless You!

/s/ Ruth Hunter

HARRISONS RETURN

Mr. & Mrs. Hal H. Harrison of Sanibel have returned from an exciting two months trip which extended from Florida to Wisconsin. Hal is writing a book on birds which nest east of the Mississippi and their eggs. Harrison's first stop was at the Tall Timbers Research Station north of Tallahassee, the station is now studying the effects of controlled burning.

They were there a week and got some fascinating pictures of the local birds; their next stop was Lake Charles, La., where they attended a meeting of the Alligator Council; from there they journeyed to south Texas and spent a week at the Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge. From Texas they went on to Wisconsin where they did a lot of photography while Hal was busy with field work on the book.

Mrs. Harrison is president of the Sanibel-Captiva Art League which is pretty quiet these days, she says, as most of the island artists will not start things moving before November; most of them are vacationing in the north.

SWIM CLASSES BIG SUCCESS

The swimming classes sponsored by the Sanibel-Captiva Lions Club Boys and Girls Committee, chaired by Howard Hoffman, has been going strong since its beginning June 20.

Over 36 children from Sanibel Elementary School between the ages of 6 and 16 have been attending regularly. The Red Cross instructor is Mrs. A. F. Hughes of Cape Coral. The classes are held from 10 to 12 each Tuesday morning at the Cecil Rhodes pool on Tahiti Shores. The last class will be held July 25. A bevy of local mothers have been helping out, including Mrs. Donal Bissell, Mrs. Arthur Perry and Mrs. Karl Wightman.

SANIBEL-CAPTIVA CONSERVATION FOUNDATION NEWS

A donation of $10,000 to land acquisition for the Sanibel Fresh Water Wetlands project was made to the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation recently by the Alice M. O'Brien Foundation of St. Paul, Minn., of which Captiva winter resident, Mr. Terence G. O'Brien, is president.

This brings land donations from the O'Brien Foundation over the last three years to $25,000. In addition, the O'Brien Foundation made gifts to the former J. N. Ding Darling Memorial Committee, predecessor of the local Foundation, of more than $15,000. A number of improvements in the Refuge including the Alice M. O'Brien Bird Tower were constructed and paid for by the Memorial Committee from these funds.

A grant of $5,000 from the O'Brien Foundation in 1967 made possible the organization of the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation, its first Annual Conservation Conference in January of 1968, and a feasibility survey and comprehensive plan for a Nature Center, made by National Audubon Society in 1967-68.

In recognition of the invaluable assistance given since 1962 by the O'Brien Foundation, the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation will designate a tract of the Sanibel Fresh Water Wetlands Refuge as the "Alice M. O'Brien Tract."

* * * * *

A contribution of $3,000 to the Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation has been made by The Scherman Foundation of New York, N.Y. The gift is unrestricted for general usage.

This is the third year The Scherman Foundation has assisted the island organization, with annual donations increasing each year.

Mr. Axel G. Rosin is president of the New York organization and he and Mrs. Rosin are regular winter visitors to Sanibel. Mrs. Rosin (Katherine Scherman) is the author of the book, "Two Islands," published last year which describes Sanibel as one of her two favorite islands.

ARCHEOLOGIST VISITING SANIBEL

Mrs. Marjorie Wheatley of Wey Bridge, Surrey, England, is presently visiting with Genevieve McCain and Marion Watson of Yachtsman Drive. Mrs. Wheatley is the aunt of Dennis Wheatley, a well known English author. She is truly a world traveler. Five years ago, she was a member of the first party of English tourists to visit China, going as far north as the great wall. On the return journey, the party visited Cambodia to see Angor Wat, then on to Bangkok and finally to Delhi and Accra to see the Taj Mahal.

A keen archeologist, she has spent three winters in Luxor visiting Jerusalem and the Holy Land before and after each Egyptian visit. She has also spent a month camping in the Algerian Sahara where she climbed the Tasselli and Hogar Mountains to see prehistorical cave paintings.

Twice before, she has spent two months touring the states and Canada, being especially interested in geographical features, such as caves, mountains, etc.

This winter she makes her third trip to see her daughter and grandchildren in Australia. The first visit was around the world through Barbados, Los Angeles, and Honolulu on the way out and finally to Johannesburg, Capetown, Durban and Nairobi.

She spent a week touring Ethiopia before ending her trip with another trip to Egypt.

After seeing all these countries of the world, however, she feels that Sanibel is the place where she could enjoy settling down and spending the remainder of her life.

HEAR MacKENZIE

The Sanibel Community Association meeting Tuesday covered a variety of subjects with Dr. Vernon MacKenzie, president of the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board, updating members on what's going on zoning-wise and such on the islands; and there was also a film prepared and narrated by Dr. "Sim" Simmons, an Island resident, on how to avoid "summer hazards" such as sunburn and drowning and to alleviate insect bites and rashes caused by shrubs and vines.

SANIBEL SALES

The week's largest realty transfer in Lee County was the Sanibel Arms Condominium property on Sanibel for $712,000. Ralph O. Clark, general contractor of the complex as well as one of the developers, said the transfer was the creation of a limited partnership called Island Enterprises Ltd. with him as the general partner, to buy out the interests held by Earl A. Thompson and George L. Arehart.

The Sanibel Arms project is well underway and several apartments have already been sold and occupied. The complex is being built on two parcels fronting on Gulf Drive and on the Gulf of Mexico.

Other sales included the Mariner Group to Marvin C. Amos, two apartments, Sanibel Moorings Condominium, $63,800.

The Mariner Group to Howard F. Andrews, apartment, Sanibel Moorings Condominium, $31,900.

Arehart, Patterson and Clark Holding Co. to John B. Taussig, apartment, Captain's Walk Condominium, $25,000.

L. L. Anderson to Thomas A. Schnabel, parcel on Sanibel Island, $22,500.

MAGIC ONE HUNDRED

"Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick," which Life Magazine says has been produced over 50,000 times throughout the country, played to enthusiastic houses at The Pirate Playhouse on July 2 and July 3. The cast, Barbara Nave, Duane White, Helma Reynolds, Robert Dormer, Ruth Hunter, John Reynolds, Susan Holtz and Philip Hunter gave bang up performances, and the nice part of these shows was the large attendance of Islanders who made up a good part of the audience.

In view of this, it occurred to the Hunters that The Islander might like to list the performers who have appeared at the Islands' unique arena theater during its eight seasons. There are a hundred who have acted, stage managed or played musical instruments and with the exception of ten from Cape Coral, Fort Myers Beach and Fort Myers, all are Islanders:

Alice Aleck, Mary Ann Aleck, Larry Amon, Susie Amon, Janet Anderson, Roy Bazire, Jean Bair, Karen Booth, Virginia Bissell, Stephen Bissell, Don Bissell, Judy Burner, George Brinkworth, June Brinkworth, Kathy Bunnell, Fred Bunnell, Adelaide Bailey, Bill Bates, Edith Craig, Betty Clements, Norman Chambers, Jean Culpepper, Robert Dormer, Lucia Fishburne, Kenan Fishburne, Ted Fonda, Timothy Gault, Mary Gault, Joe Gault, Daryl Guthrie, Scotti Gale, Irene Gale, Reason Goodwin, Porter Goss, Muriel Goss, Wally Henderson, Susan Holtz, Holly Hollingsworth, Jane Hines, Ruth Hunter, Philip Hunter, Winnifred Iurka, Paul Howe, Harriet Howe, Arthur Johnson, Gerald Johnson, Karen Kemle, Thomas Kane, Gene Karr, Robin Hunter Karr, Admiral Ed Konrad, Dale Legel,

YOUTH COUNCIL

In an effort to provide more activities for Lee County's youth and to encourage their participation in the various city and county programs, Charles M. Roberts, president of the Fort Myers-Lee County Chamber of Commerce, Inc., has authorized the organization of a Youth Council. The purpose of this council will be to plan concerts and entertainment in the Exhibition Hall, coordinate participation in various community affairs, and to offer plans for providing worthwhile leisure time activities for the young adults in the area.

One of the first projects to be put on the council's agenda will be to handle final arrangements for the new rock opera, "Godspell" scheduled for a performance at the Exhibition Hall in the fall.

Any Lee County resident between the ages of 14 and 25 will be considered for membership on the committee. The Youth Council will be selected from those persons filling out application forms available at the Fort Myers-Lee County Chamber of Commerce and its affiliates in Bonita Springs, Lehigh Acres and Fort Myers Beach or at Wolf Brothers in the Edison Mall.

Information on the committee can also be obtained by contacting Herb Holbrook at the Chamber of Commerce. The phone number is 334-1133.

AT THE SURFRIDER

Mrs. Amelia Gauthier and daughter, Ann, from Somers, Conn., are here for the first time shelling, bird watching and enjoying our island.

Mr. & Mrs. James E. Lee, Sr. and Son Jeff of Memphis, Tenn., are also here. Mr. & Mrs. James M. Craft and daughter, Alyce, also of Memphis, are on a return visit to Sanibel and the Surfrider. They "just declare" there is no place on earth quite as peaceful and tranquil as Sanibel. The Ed Martins and their daughter from Conway, Ark., missed Sanibel last year but are enjoying it now. Mr. & Mrs. Jack Richardson and children, Gail and Hudson, and Michael and Linda Smith and children, Shane and Jamie, from College Park, Ga., are having a ball swimming, shelling and fishing.

Other guests include Mr. & Mrs. Joe Rotanda and children from New Providence, R.I.; Mr. & Mrs. Bob Tomlin of Largo, Fla.; Mrs. Paul Bizk and daughters, Katheryn and Beverly Gaines from Ashville, N.C.; Mr. & Mrs. David Schwab and children from Tucker, Ga.; and the H. Craig Lyerlas and children of Decatur, Ga.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Dixon and four children from Mann, W. Va., are enjoying shelling and sightseeing while Dr. & Mrs. Z. R. Filmore and family from Middletown, Ky., are having fun by relaxing, shelling and swimming.

REUNIONS AT GULF BREEZE COTTAGES

It was old acquaintance time for Jack and Sue Hautz from Cente, Ohio, with John and Joan Heibacher from Batesville, Ind., plus their four children each and Joan's mother. The Sojka family from Simsbury, Conn., also joined the Mazur's from Duniden, Fla.

Florida folks also included the Elwell family of Ft. Lauderdale; the Judy Wallace group of Miami; the Graham Fountains of Deerfield Beach; Vera Anderson of Fort Lauderdale; Richard and Renee Carpenter from Titusville; and George Jackson and wife with their two mothers from Fort Lauderdale.

Jack and Sally Phillips and their five daughters from New Orleans were shining bright over the junonia they found. From Georgia, come Edgar Shock and family and the James Griffiths.

There was another family reunion on Mary Radford's side, mother, Mrs. Kvacky of Miami carried in by bus a suitcase full of dough to make pizza, bread and doughnuts. Brother Eddy Kvacky and wife Betty were chauffeured here by two sons from Bethlehem, Pa. Betty's brother, Russell Ramberger, Joan, and two sons from St. Louis made July 4th a spirited holiday with all the fireworks.

BEACHVIEW COTTAGES

Dr. & Mrs. Conrad Hazen and their children have reaped full honors in the snook division for two weeks. From Daytona Beach, where Dr. Hazen practices dentistry, 19 and 20 pound snook are average catch for this dedicated fisherman.

Pammy Goodman and Cheryl Pappy, visiting Sanibel with Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Goodman of Jacksonville, exhibited in the Beachview's office, their collection of shell animals and people. These teenagers displayed amazing professional results from their creativity during their lazy days here.

Pete Bertram, owner of Beachview, is convalescing at Lee Memorial Hospital in Fort Myers after undergoing surgery for a ruptured disk. The staff, and guests alike, miss Pete's cheerful countenance about the compound.

The David Billishes and E. Michels of Bolingbrook, Ill., have made their annual pilgrimage to the Beachview. Mr. & Mrs. Curtis E. Hughes of Columbus, Ohio, celebrated their 10th year with us by arriving the day of the hurricane and finding three giant horse conchs.

Dale and Mrs. Robson of Huntington, W. Va., with their young daughter are classic sportsmen; returning each catch to its home in the deep. The Kenneth Jones of Tampa, fish anywhere and everywhere on the island and always return with a catch. Pinky Jones keeps the office bulletin board colorful with photos of her luck with the rod and reel.
