Canals Halted

Circuit Court Judge Thomas Shands ruled that Jamestown-Beachview Developers on Sanibel cannot dig any more canals and may even have to have present ones dug by them filled in, if salt water intrusion on the island can be traced to them.

The suit was brought by the state against the developers, and Shands has issued an order that a survey team composed of a representative of the Geological Survey, U. S. Dept. of the Interior, and Dr. H. K. Brooks of the University of Florida monitor the canal system to decide if existing canals are causing permanent salt water intrusion. Shands further ordered that Jamestown-Beachview shall dig no further canals, ditches or other excavations upon its property on Sanibel unless the survey team determines from test borings that such canals, ditches or other excavations can be dug or maintained without breaking the fresh water seal or introducing significant salt water intrusion into the fresh water table.

A canal which is a source of continued salt water intrusion will have to be filled in, said Shands.

If after a year, the survey team decides the canals are not causing any salt water intrusion, then the system may be connected to the Sanibel River. Jamestown-Beachview has been ordered to pay $2,000 for the year's expense for the team, and each party will assume his own individual court costs. Conservationists have been working to prevent the salt water intrusion into the Sanibel River since June 1970.

New Firemen

Chief Allen Nave of the Sanibel Fire Department welcomes six young and vigorous men to the Fire Department. They are Jim Imholt, Oscar Gavin, Ronald Burns, Forrest Nichols, Ronald Wrenn and Dennis Wrenn. The Fire Department holds meetings on the second and fourth Thursdays at 8 p.m. at the new Palm Ridge Road Firehouse.

Phil MacDonald is on call daily for routine fire calls and may be reached at 472-1414, and he asks that the emergency number 472-1717 be used only in true emergencies, and at nights. "When the 1717 number is dialed, 14 phones are activated, and usually needlessly. For example, if a person is seeking information only about the Fire Department or the Sheriff's Department, it is not necessary that these 14 phones be rung, but of course in case of a real emergency this number will be used."

Chief Allen Nave also wishes to remind all that the Rescue Unit is not an ambulance service per se. "When the Unit is asked to act in this capacity to take a person to the hospital, both Sanibel and Captiva are left without rescue coverage, as there is only one rescue van," says Nave. Whenever possible he suggests ambulance service from Fort Myers be used in order that the rescue van can remain at the ready on the Island for a real emergency.

Agnes Was A Wet Blanket

Tropical storm Agnes, which caused the disastrous flood on Sanibel and high tides and flooding on Captiva, has been described as one of the greatest rainmakers in years, but there must be an easier way. Agnes left more than 100 people dead in her rampage through five seaboard states and dumped 28.1 trillion gallons of water on New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey and Virginia, according to the National Hurricane Center.

The biggest previous storm was Camille which caused flooding in Virginia in 1969, not to mention the damage to Louisiana and Mississippi, done by this fatal lady. Agnes flooded first Cuba, then Florida, spawning tornadoes, and then poured deluges of rain on Georgia and North and South Carolina, before causing all the flooding in the northern seaboard states.

Beginning as a tropical depression over Yucatan, it became a tropical storm while moving out to sea, and then it reached hurricane force as it crossed the Gulf of Mexico, with only the fringe winds hitting the Florida Gulf Coast, but the brunt being borne by the panhandle. It weakened to a tropical storm again as it crossed land areas, but dumped tons of rain on all. You can imagine what would happen to New York City, say, if 200 mile an hour winds were to strike it as they have here, and it is conceivable that it could happen, but let's hope not, and let's hope that's all for now.

BRENDA and GERALD JOHNSON of Captiva are proud parents of another baby boy, named IVAN GERALD JOHNSON, and there are some mighty proud grandparents who are beaming too, RUTH and WOODY ANDERSON and LILLIAN JOHNSON, too.

Regular visitors to the island, MARJORIE BLANK and MICHAEL EVERETT, of Tampa, Fla., staying at the Tradewinds have found some very delightful shells. Shortly after Hurricane Agnes, Marjorie Blank found two golden olives. Last Saturday, her son-in-law, Michael Everett was fishing and found a junonia. Mrs. Blank, a subscriber to the Islander shares her paper with the Tampa Shell Club, donating clippings of interest about shells and Sanibel.

BEACH BOY BAYOU

Perfect weather has helped make for happy hours adventuring, swimming and sealife dredging with Capt. Dick Frieman aboard the charter skiff Wet Pants. Among those exploring our waters last week were Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Sieres and daughter, Cathy, of Atlanta; Mr. & Mrs. Lippman and Linda from Jacksonville; Mrs. Lomeo, sons Ted and Nicholas, and Mrs. Aronsohn of New York and Miami; and Mrs. Amela Gauthier and daughter, Ann, from Somers, Conn.

THE COLONY GUESTS

The Colony guests are Mr. & Mrs. Richard Stephens and family from Pompano Beach, Fla.; Dr. & Mrs. Lee Hall and Dr. & Mrs. Bernard Holland and family from Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. & Mrs. Clifford L. Dew and family of Ft. Lauderdale; the Bruce Geddes from Maitland, Fla.; Mr. & Mrs. Karl R. Bopp from Wayne, Pa.; and the Roy Nelsons from Miami.

Here from Durham, N.C., are Dr. & Mrs. Norman Bowles; Miss Rita Henning and party from Castlebury, Fla.; the Martial R. Lemay family from Hollywood, Fla.; Dr. & Mrs. Victor Hinrichs and family from Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. & Mrs. A. E. Skidmore and family from Morgantown, W. Va.; the L. G. Gardners from Northbrook, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. David O. Sloan and family from Dayton, Ohio; the Arthur Cole party from Suitland, Md.; and Mr. & Mrs. Edward Berniger and daughters from Short Hills, N.J.

SEGUNDA GUESTS

At Segunda Apartments this week enjoying the sun, surf and shells of Sanibel are Floridians Mr. & Mrs. John Dillard of Melbourne; Mr. & Mrs. Jack Barney of Jacksonville; the James Bonadio family of Fort Lauderdale; and the Herbert McGinnis family from Altamonte Springs.

Back again from Miami are Mrs. Helen Abbate and son Mike, and down from Largo, Fla., is Mrs. Marian Davis, joined by her mother. Others with us from Miami are the Barry Cashman family and the family of Mr. & Mrs. Munos.

Welcome guests from out-of-state include Miss Cathy Erb and friend, Sarah Briggs, here from Lancaster, Pa.; and returning again from Bryan, Ohio, the family of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Schena. Also representing Ohio, are the families of Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Durst of Gallipolis, and Mr. & Mrs. Jeffery Thomas of Coshocton.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Visiting BERNICE and J. C. McCAUL on Captiva is son, Master Sgt. ROBERT McCAUL and wife CAROLINE and four children from Eglund Air Force Base. They have been here for a week, and the children have been in the water constantly. Daughter BERNICE LEWIS came over from West Palm Beach with her three children to join in the family reunion too. The two boy cousins EDDIE and BRYAN, age 11, have not seen each other for three years. They just fished all the time, day and night practically and had a wonderful time getting reacquainted and visiting all the known and unknown fishing spots but they will be ending their vacation here shortly and returning home. But life will not be dull for the McCauls, as they are expecting another son, Lt. Col. RONALD McCAUL, his wife JACKIE and two children to come down for a visit from Fort Rucker, Ala. Col. McCaul just retired on the first of July, and he will vacation with his family before resuming studies preparatory to his civilian life.

The MYTON IRELANDS have just returned from an exciting vacation back to their old home town, Amityville, N.Y. They visited friends and family all around on Long Island, and while there attended the grand opening of the Jones Beach Marine Theatre. The opening featured "The King and I" with the Guy Lombardo Repertoire, and the Irelands were right up there in the box seats with Guy, as they are old friends.

The four girls, DAPHNE, DEBBIE, JUNE and JANE ANN are still visiting with Aunt CLARA LEWIS in Amityville, putting off the day when the vacation is over. They say the water is just great, though a mite on the cold side, refreshingly so, though.

Summer school is almost over for Principal GEORGE DISSETTE, who has devoted the morning hours to the reading enrichment program at the Sanibel Elementary School. Wednesday will be the last day this summer, and the Dissettes will be on their way back home to Kansas. We caught the group playing phonetic rummy, a pretty good game, it looked like, and it looked like the kids were ahead.

The LeeROY FRIDAYS entertained their personnel at a gala last weekend for dinner, preceded by cocktails at the South Seas, and a gay time was had by all. It was a long planned party but had to wait for the exact right moment when everybody could attend. Those enjoying the soiree were: HELEN and Lee Roy FRIDAY, Mr. & Mrs. CLARK NEWCOMBE, Mr. & Mrs. HARLEY WOODS, Mr. & Mrs. HOWARD HOFFMAN and RUTH ANDERSON. Music was supplied by the South Seas, and reports are the food was delicious!

DOTTI and MIKE McQUADE are off to the North Carolina mountains. Dotti will have a check-up on a previous check-up at Durham and then they will go on up to Cowee Mountain, where FATHER MADDEN is tending his home and garden.

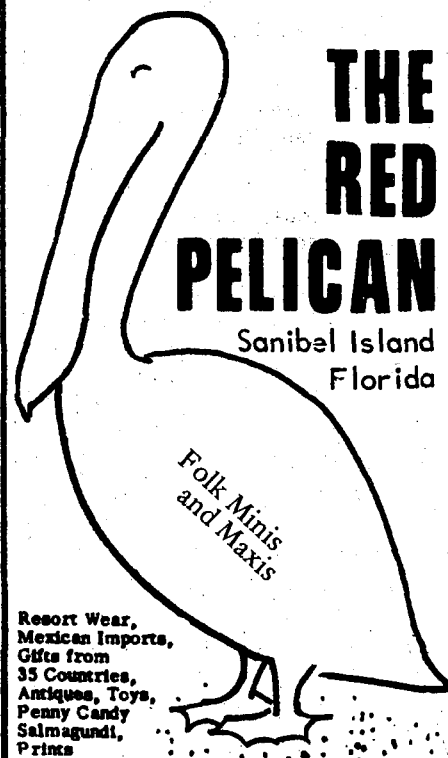

The BOB PARCELLS and the BILL SHANNONS are all up there too, and many more islanders have taken to the hills for the summer months. And they will surely escape the summer heat, because it has been a bit on the chilly side in them that hills. We know, for we just returned from a 10 days sojourn up there, and every night was a one or two blanket one, and days when overcast, you needed a coat.

LOU and MARGIE ANN LETIZIA have had a passel of family visiting them and they have been busy squiring them around to all the memorable sightseeing spots in the county. UNCLE AL and AUNT SUE, here from Maplewood, N.J., brought daughters, SUSAN and LORI ANN LETIZIA, and SUSAN DURDEN took off after their visit to visit her grandparents in Lake City.

BEACHVIEW COTTAGES

Snook, snook, snook! The fishing is great off our own beach. The Raymond Doubles of Hollywood, Fla., their family and the Gary Doubles of Miami Lakes, the Cranes of Hollywood, and the Deering Treppards of Pembroke Pines are having their annual vacation together.

The Gerald Noeskes of Greendale, Wis., are enthralled with the island and their collection of shells. The Larry Dunagans of Goulds, Fla., were back again, their second visit in a month. The George Butlers of Miami finally made it, were able to leave their nursery with no worry of hurricanes.

Mr. & Mrs. Leslie M. Hamill and son of Jupiter, Fla., extended their stay three days. Other Florida guests are the Russell Depews of St. Cloud; Major Daniel & Mrs. Foelker and four children of Orlando; Cloyd Farmer and family of Kissimmee; Antonia Molne and family of Miami; Jack L. Hammond of Umatilla; the Marshall Taylors of Gainesville; and the S. M. Greens from Coral Gables.

The Robert Rosses traveled all the way from Denver, Colorado. Brothers Ronald C. and Ralph S. Bender, with their families of five each, respectively, left Charlotte, N.C., and Atlanta, Ga., to vacation on our island. Henry M. Dowell and family are discovering the island all the way from Clarksville, Ind. Mrs. James R. Gregory and sons, Jim and Dane of Dalton, Ga., caught their first snook, 2½ pounds, off our beach. Mrs. Gregory is acting more like a professional than a novice fisherwoman.

NEW INDUSTRY: FRESH WATER SHRIMP

A new industry is being started in Florida. The raising of fresh water shrimp, which weigh up to one pound each, and they will live in any fresh water stream or canal which empties into salt water along Florida's coasts. The shrimp are territorial rather than gregarious by nature, and adults will guard their water territories with ferocity.

The adult shrimp inhabit only the fresh water part of the stream, but during the breeding and spawning time they move to the periphery where salt and fresh water meet. When the eggs hatch, the larvae move into the brackish water and stay there until they become juveniles of about an inch and a half long. Then they move into fresh water parts of the stream and begin the cycle all over again. That is, unless they become a delectable entree on someone's plate.

Many believe the fresh water shrimp tastes like crabmeat, and of course, they are larger and tender with low cholesterol and no iodine taste and less allergens. The shrimp can grow as large as 3 lbs. but are not as edible and tender. What makes them so amazing is that unlike salt water shrimp, they can and are grown in captivity. A Vero Beach project of the Jacksonville University is in full swing, and this first year's crop will run between 4 and 5 million shrimp.

Shrimp has been raised and marketed successfully for years in Hawaii, that is, the fresh water variety, which looks somewhat like a small lobster, with claws.

LICENSE TAGS ON SALE

Car license tags are on sale at the Courthouse in Fort Myers, and you have until Aug. 30 to purchase same. In an experimental move, some tags are being sold in outlying districts, but islanders will have to purchase theirs from the regular source. You must have proof of ownership or car title, and costs vary according to the weight of the car.

VISITORS POURING INTO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Visitors to the islands keep pouring into the Chamber of Commerce. Frances Roberts, personable representative and secretary of the Chamber, usually presents them with a detailed map, and explains where the best fishing spots and shelling areas are. If they are in need of accommodations, she assists them in finding a place to stay. "They ask all kinds of questions, and I usually know the answer, or if I don't, I know who to call and find out the information," says Frances. "About 50 families per working day are coming to the Chamber looking for information about the Ding Darling Sanctuary, beaches and wildlife areas," she states.

Some of those who signed the visitor register this week are Mr. & Mrs. Ron Bardelli of New Eagle, Pa., Mr. & Mrs. Wesley Miller and John Bauer of Sandusky, Ohio, Mr. & Mrs. K. Greene of Birmingham, Mich., Mr. & Mrs. Leonard Kentz of Afton, Mo., the William Zard family of Rochester, N.Y., Carol Babric of Omaha, Neb., Mr. G. Hauser of Akron, Ohio, and Mr. & Mrs. Emil Shover of the same city, Mr. & Mrs. John Sudderth of Marietta, Ga., Mr. & Mrs. J. S. Bartley, Albany, Ga., Mr. & Mrs. Robert Ballard, and Mr. & Mrs. William B. Fox, Jr. from St. Petersburg, Pat and Boyce Parks and Claude and Muriel Eaton from Summerland Key, Fla., W. D. Elbrich and family from Juno Isles, Roger F. Shipley of Westminster, Md., Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Freeland of Columbia, Pa., Mr. & Mrs. S. Chrobeck from Chicago, Ill., and Mr. & Mrs. Richard Goelzer and Diane and Paul from Bloomington, Ill.

ENVIRONMENTAL WORKSHOP

A resources and Environmental Planning Workshop will be held at Edison Community College July 24 to 28. It is sponsored by the Florida State University and costs $125 per person attending, and the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board is providing $500 to finance the attendance by county employees at the workshop. So far, Don Molloy of the county building and zoning department plans to attend and Asst. County Engineer, Ben Pratt, does also, and they will be assisted in doing so by the island's board.

BIG DOINGS

Big doings are planned for the end of the month at the Island Inn when the Fish and Wildlife Commission holds its North Atlantic Flyway Council meeting. People will be coming from all over to attend, and all sorts of recreational shindigs are in the plans to make the workshop not all work, but some play, but more of this later when plans are firmer. But we do know there is a luau planned in the Ding Darling Sanctuary complete with roast pig and all the trimmings in that delightful setting.

CLOTHES FOR THE POOR

If you would like to send some clothes to some of the poor people we see on TV, you can. Here's two addresses: Fr. A. Carelli, Pime, Catholic Church, Loikaw, Berma and Fr. J. Calderaro, St. Joseph's Orphanage, Gunadala P.O., Via Jayavada - 5, Krishna, Andhra, India.

Just mark it "Free Gift to Poor." Keep the value low. Our discarded things should be most helpful in climates like Berma and India.

HURRICANE AGNES IS GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Two federal relief agencies are working to alleviate the disaster caused by hurricane Agnes. Mrs. Luella Mullens, manager of the unemployment compensation division of the State Department of Commerce said that 14 Florida Counties will be receiving a total of $200,000 in unemployment benefits for people left jobless by the storm.

The Farmers Home Administration will give emergency credit to residents whose homes were damaged by the storm, according to Claude L. Greene, State director of the agency. Payments of both principal and interest on emergency housing may be deferred up to three years.

Applications for local emergency loans may be made at the Farmers Home Administration office, Room 201, Federal Bldg., Fort Myers, or you may call 334-8761.

Other results of the hurricane have induced the speeded up production of hurricane flood zone maps by the Florida Coastal Coordinating Council, and the Lee County Commissioners approved application for $172,000 in federal funds to help in beach erosion repairs caused by the hurricane.

HATS OFF AGAIN

And this time to our mailmen! On the Islands we've got the greatest and don't you forget it. They are cheerful, they are helpful, and, hold on to your hats, they enjoy their work.

Such smarties they are too; you can ask them "How much is a letter to Wales" or "What's the rate for a package to Burma" and presto-chango, they have the answers before you can lick the stamps on the other mail.

P.S. By mailmen, I mean Mail-Ladies too!

SANIBEL WITHOUT SHELLS? IT COULD HAPPEN

The fish kill of last summer was followed by a massive shell kill

NOW, A FEW SURVIVORS ARE CRAWLING AGAIN
WITHIN A FEW YEARS, THE LIVE POPULATION COULD BE BACK TO NORMAL —

IT ALL DEPENDS ON US

IF WE LEAVE THEM TO PROPAGATE —

IF NATURE IS PERMITTED TO TAKE ITS COURSE —

IF WE ARE WISE INSTEAD OF GREEDY —

THEN THERE WILL ALWAYS BE SHELLS TO ENJOY HERE

SO, PLEASE-

Collect all the dead shells you wish;
but LEAVE the live ones
