"All Systems Go"

For The Arts And Crafts Show

Saturday, Feb. 3, is the day. The time is 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The place is the Sanibel Community House. The event is the 2nd annual Exhibition and Sale of Island Arts and Crafts. The purpose is to swell the Sanibel Library Building Fund.

Committee members have been working since early November to make the 1973 exhibition bigger and better than that of last year, and many friends of the library have agreed to help at the Show.

Janel Tenney's hostesses, who will help to expedite purchases, are Jean Bair, Ruth Clark, Mary Margaret Emmons, Virginia Haber, Greta Heckler, Edry Hagerstrom, Margaret Kreuger, Barbara Lawrence, Anne Newcombe, Mildred Scott, Mary Siegenthaler, Alice Strunk, Barbara Sur, Frances Swanson, Evelyn Umland, Dee Wadman, Marion Willard, Molly Wolfe, Eugenie Wright, Andree Yule and Betty Zajicek.

Presiding over the donation jar at different intervals during the day will be Edith Levy, Patsy Simmons, and Sylvia Strong, and behind the table on which donated items are for sale, you will find Esther Arbogast, Mildred Libby, Helen McNamara, and Betty Muench.

Working with John Cook as cashiers are Leigh Bair, Victor Heckler, Victor Hagerstrom, and Robert Haynie, and with the cashiers at different times during the day will be Elise Fuller, Helen Griffith, Phoebe Haynie, Kitty Holtz, Miriam Jones, and Kathie Lucas who will wrap your purchases.

Harry Borchers and Tom Dugan will assist John McNamara in setting up tables and other display equipment, and Harley Brown, Chick Chase, and Harry Iurka will help Marshall Tabacchi to park cars.

As a very special attraction, Toni Andrews' kick wheel will be in use for several periods during the day when Toni, Adelaide Bailey, and Shirley and Willie Compton will spell each other "throwing," in the parlance of the potter.

So come and spend an interesting day at the Arts and Crafts Show, and add to the Building Fund at the same time.

Latest On Gala Benefit

As previously announced, two benefits for the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board will be held at 8 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 9 and Saturday, Feb. 10 in the auditorium of the Island Beach Club on Sanibel. These gala events will feature "Crop of the Cream," the new 'photo-verse' show by Mario F. Hutton who, as in past years, will offer on this occasion the premiere of all his latest compositions completed in 1972.

In addition to the new features described in past issues of the Islander, the show will include "Raptorial Idyl," a story covering much more ground than the title implies. It presents 80 striking pictures selected from hundreds taken last spring of a pair of ospreys attending to their nesting chores. But it also assumes dramatic overtones, offers glimpses of other breeding species, and even closeups of a "villain" in the person of an alligator hankering for fresh eggs.

Another feature to be shown offers a delightful change of pace under the title "Happy -- Phase Two." 'Happy' is the nickname of the Huttons' immaculate and cute white poodle, and in the story she gives a first person account of her adult years, spiced with all kinds of amusing canine adventures. Last, but indeed not least, will be shown "Birth of a Day," a saga in color and verse of daybreak, the hour that early birds prefer over all others. In a stunning sequence of superb shots, viewers will share the thrilling beauty of this hour, from the first glimmer of light to the sun's triumphant return. It promises to be a fitting finale to a show that none of us will want to miss.

The sale of tickets for both nights of the benefit is proceeding actively, thanks to the efforts of committees formed to insure the success of the event. To those serving on the Sanibel committee, whose names have already been published, the following have been added: Mesdames Golder McWhorter, Daniel Moore, B. G. Runnells, and James Scholefield, and Mr. Ken Soper of the Craftmans Shop at Periwinkle Trailer Park. Tickets are also available at the Island Beach Club, the Sanibel Public Library, and Fur, Feathers and Scales Store.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Friends of BILL NEWMAN are anxiously awaiting news from KAY NEWMAN who is standing by at the Holiday Inn in Gainesville, while Bill is undergoing tests and treatment there in the hospital. We certainly hope for the best for Bill.

Dr. & Mrs. LARRY RAPPAPORT of Avon, Conn., are here at Blind Pass, having spent some time on the east coast, and they are delighted to find peace and love on Sanibel and Captiva. And Mr. & Mrs. PAUL FREDERICK of Springfield, Mo., are enjoying fishing and shelling. Mr. & Mrs. JOHN A. McCARTHY, Jr. are enjoying a two week's stay from some mighty wintry weather up in Milton, Mass., and the A. A. GARDNERS of Haines City, and the THOMAS CARROLS from Ft. Lauderdale are enjoying tranquility up at Blind Pass too, and some good fishing.

The DEAN MARSHALLS of Captiva are expecting a visit from Mrs. Marshall's mother and father, Mr. & Mrs. RAY SNYDER of Xenia, Ohio. The Marshalls are still entertaining a darling and affectionate male cat, the white one with the black tail, who is anxiously looking for a good home. This kitty has personality galore and falls all over who ever will give him an ounce of affection. Surely someone of our readers needs to love this cat and give it a good home. We would if we just didn't happen to have the most jealous dog in these parts.

Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT NELMS have charming guests, Mr. & Mrs. JOSEPH VAN LEUNAN of Salt Springs, and their lovely new home is just rocking with others too. Their daughter, Mrs. MARIO B. RIZZO and husband and three cute children will be joining the Van Leunans at the Nelsm, and then the parents of Mario will come down to visit too, and another niece, KAREN. The Rizzos are from St. Petersburg.

The Rev. THOMAS MADDEN has gone on an extended vacation. He flew to Yucatan and then will tour various parts of Mexico, visiting Guadalajara, stopping at Cuernavaca with a stay in Mexico City.

Dr. & Mrs. LOUIS KOTOX are back on Captiva for their 15th year, and are enjoying the sun and salt air at Mid Island, having left some cold and snow up north.

Mr. & Mrs. R. BLOSS are other Captiva return resorters staying at the Rand cottage for the season. They are sun lovers and can be seen on the beach relaxing when possible.

Other northern visitors who are enjoying the beach and sun are Mr. & Mrs. J. DOTHEIN, and they love walking on the beach, and are staying at their beach house on Captiva.

Mrs. ALVIN BLANK is recovering nicely but slowly from a bout with the London flu, and we hope not too many others have had this unpleasant bug.

ISLAND INN

Arrivals at Island Inn include Mrs. George N. Luxton of London, Ontario, Canada; Judge & Mrs. Alger Williams, Buffalo, N.Y.; Dr. & Mrs. Monroe Melver and Mrs. Melver's sister, Mrs. Owen Reese of Cooperstown, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. A. Altman, Casenovia, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. Carl T. Nelson, Litchfield, Conn.; and Prof. & Mrs. George Simmons of Whately, Mass.

Also Mr. & Mrs. C. Wyman of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. George Marvell, New Hope, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. Warren Coe and Mr. & Mrs. E. W. Iwick of Oshkosh, Wis.; Mrs. Charles Weichert, Cincinnati, Ohio; the Edward Forstalls of Haverford, Pa.; and Mr. & Mrs. H. U. Andreae of Columbus, Ohio.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE ISLANDER:

I read with disbelief the remarks of Realtor Priscilla Murphy in Tuesday's News-Press. She should know, as do the rest of us, that the present density restrictions of 22 and 18 units per acre for multiple housing would permit a city of more than 92,000 people on Sanibel and Captiva. Also, that the plans for Loggerhead Cay call for buildings 43' high with ground site levels too low to qualify for flood insurance.

With the help of representatives of the Lee County Building Dept., Federal and State agencies, and the Sanibel-Captiva Planning Board, we have the preliminary draft of a comprehensive, low density plan for the islands. If we are to preserve even a vestige of the charm that has been Sanibel and Captiva, we must be like the bundle of sticks, forgetting personal differences and perhaps even immediate gains for the magnificent rewards that could be in store for us. History will judge us on what happens this year.

There are those who love the islands --- and those who love what the islands can do for them. Who do you think should control Sanibel and Captiva? Write the Board of County Commissioners, Fort Myers, and urge public hearings on our plan, as well as an RU-3 density moratorium of 8 units per acre until those hearings can be held. They have told us that local government is the most responsive to local needs and desires. Make them prove it.

CASTAWAYS RESORT

Guests returning to The Castaways for another enjoyable visit are Mr. & Mrs. Am Davis of Rockville, Ind., Mr. & Mrs. Adolph Bauer of Cuba, Mo., Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Dyer of Chicago, Ill., Mr. & Mrs. Tom Dunn of Roanoke, Va., Mr. & Mrs. John Jasperse and sons of Weston, Mass., Mr. & Mrs. Robert Weaver, Tryon, N.C., Mr. & Mrs. Joe Becker, Mr. & Mrs. Loren Waltz and Mr. & Mrs. Robert Waltz of Rochester, Ind., and from Goldens Bridge, N.Y., Mr. & Mrs. Morris Marx.

COLONY GUESTS

Guests at The Colony are Mr. & Mrs. Robert E. Southworth and family from Camp Hill, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. Peter Mazur from Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Dr. & Mrs. Carl Huber from Indianapolis, Ind.; the George Sharps from Milford, Conn.; the William H. McCahn from Annandale, Va.; Mr. & Mrs. John Lund from Independence, Mo.; Mrs. Virginia Williamson and Mrs. Margaret Slusser from Tarpon Springs, Fla.

From Warrenton, Va., come Mr. & Mrs. W. P. Elson; the LaVerne Krahnstuhl party from Rochelle, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. Samuel Hinkle from Harrisburg, Pa.; Dr. & Mrs. Joseph P. Belsley from Peoria, Ill.; Dr. & Mrs. H. S. Stahlecker from Woodstock, Ill.; Mr. & Mrs. Dale Rennebohm from Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. George Ross and Mrs. James Ross from Deltona, Fla.

Mr. & Mrs. L. M. Argueso are here from White Plains, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. Carl Rose from West Seneca, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Summit, N.J., are in their cottage "Tangelo"; and Mr. & Mrs. Arthur M. Laubach from Wauwatosa, Wis.

SANIBELITES WIN AWARDS AT CONCHOLOGISTS SHOW

Sanibelites walked off with many prizes and honors in the Conchologists Society Show held at the Exhibition Hall last week. Emma Guthrie copped one of the top awards, the Conchologist Society Trophy, for her beautifully and skillfully designed artistic display in the artistic division.

Mrs. Elsie Malone won a first place award for her Florida and deep water shell of the show in the scientific division. Mrs. Malone displayed 13 large boxes of rare shells from all Florida and her almost 8 inch Cipri Cervus from the Florida Keys was the Blue Ribbon winner. Other shells in her collection are a colorful box of lion's paws, gorgeous Florida pectins, ranging from lemon yellows to reds with all colors of the rainbow in between; shells from the Pleutomaria family, mirabilis, Spondylus, Cymatiums, distorsios, Mitres, and three different species of Marginellas.

Helene Eker won with her all cones display and world-wide shells, and she also took a special judge's award.

Eugenia Wright placed first in the world-wide shell collection, and she, too, won a silver cup in the special awards from the judges.

Mrs. Edna Russell won a blue ribbon in the beautiful shells division, and Mary Nix won a red ribbon for her three boxes in a family collection of Cockles, though she has not completed her collection.

Bette Parke won a first place in paintings for the commercial artistic division.

All of these winners are a foretaste of what will happen at the Sanibel Shell Fair on March 1, 2 and 3. Shell Fair workshops are open to all visitors and residents and meet on Mondays from 10 to 3 at the Sanibel Community House and all are invited to participate.

SURFRIDER NEWS

Wells and Melanie Stearn sadly bid farewell to daughter Susan, who had to get back to college, but are welcoming another lovely lady, Mrs. Jack Heaney from Wilton, Conn. Also here from Connecticut, for another winter, is Mrs. Lilliam Morrill from Branford. She left very unpleasant weather up there and is looking forward to the Shell Fair. George and Dorothy Schutz and Dorothy's sister, Helen Atkinson of Fort Washington, Pa., are soaking up the sun and enjoying their annual winter stay here. Tom and Shell Gary of Greenwood, Miss., left the Greenwood Plantation for a change in pace and climate on Sanibel. Mr. & Mrs. John W. Moffat of Gulliner, Mich., are relaxing as are Dr. & Mrs. Taylor of Pickerington, Ohio. Mr. & Mrs. Sidney Fisher also from Ohio, are now among the beachcombers. Here from Atlanta, Ga., are Mr. & Mrs. Fred Dickson, and from Oak Lawn, Ill., Mr. & Mrs. R. W. Nicholson, here on business but squeezing in a little shelling and sightseeing.

Other guests include Mr. & Mrs. David Shurtleff of Wanconda, Ill., here for the first time; Dr. & Mrs. M. R. Dewey from N. Tonawanda, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. L. N. Havens, here for a long visit and to attend the Shell fair; Mr. & Mrs. J. B. Hickman from Williamsburg, Va., back for more shelling and relaxing, and the Robert Merediths of Middletown, N.J., here for awhile to explore the islands.

"DING'S THINGS"

Beginning in February, the J. N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge will provide daily tours of the refuge. In addition to the present tours, a beach walk and another canoe tour are planned. These daily tours will continue throughout the season. Monthly tour schedules will be printed in The Islander so that interested readers may clip and save the list. With increased numbers of people on the islands for the season, reservations are necessary and may be obtained by calling the refuge office (472-1100) prior to the tour. The following tours will be available in February:

- Feb. 1, Hike, Bailey tract, 8:30 a.m.
- Feb. 2, Canoe Trip, Tarpon Bary Marina, 1 p.m.
- Feb. 5, Drive, Lighthouse, 9 a.m.
- Feb. 6, Beach walk, Lighthouse, 9 a.m.

"ISLAND IN THE SUN"
 FEATURED AT NEXT SANIBEL COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION MEETING

The next meeting of the Sanibel Community Association to be held Tuesday, Feb. 6 will feature a special slide film presentation by Harrison Brailsford.

Harrison Brailsford, a photographer, musician, and inventor, combines all three talents in making this special slide film presentation of prize winning photographs of our special island. For Mr. Brailsford not only takes prize photographs, records all his background music taking all the parts himself, but has constructed a special slide film projector which puts the whole show --- pictures --- narration --- music --- together in one automatic operation. No where is this better demonstrated than in this special presentation "Island in the Sun." He also does his own color printing.

Mr. Brailsford is a member of the Photographic Society of America, the Color Camera Club of Westester, N.Y., the National Audubon Society and the Wildlife Federation.

Last year when this film essay was shown to the Audubon Society there was standing room only so come early if you want a seat.

In addition to "Island in the Sun" Harrison will exhibit prints of some of his prize winning pictures which have been exhibited in 12 foreign countries where he has won awards including a recent medal from behind the "Iron Curtain" in Bucharest, Romania.

This presentation will start at 8 p.m. following the Community Association's regular dinner and business meeting which begins at 6:30 for members only. The general public including all visitors to the Island are welcome at 8 o'clock.

This program was especially arranged by Harry Borchers a personal friend of Mr. Brailsford and a permanent member of the Community Association's Program Committee.

THIS WEEK AT THE SANIBEL LIBRARY by Hal H. Harrison

REPORT TO FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY:

Library workers are continually trying to add to the building fund so that the new library can get underway sometime this year. Among activities that have been helpful is the sale of "Sanibel Island" license plates. According to Library Treasurer Pat Siegenthaler, 167 plates were sold in 1972. They are still available at $5 each. Pick yours up at the library. Harriet Howe tells me that she collected $398 in December from library friends who contributed to the building fund instead of sending Christmas cards. Barbara and Bill Sur, who have been growing and selling named varieties of hibiscus, have added $152 to the building fund from this personal effort.

In her annual report, Librarian Mary Margaret Emmons announced that 10,105 books were circulated in 1972. This is a substantial increase over 6,221 in 1970 and 8,273 in 1971. In addition, Mrs. Emmons reported 196 new people registered to borrow books last year. Added to the previous total of 809, there are now 1,005 persons listed as welcome borrowers.

Another reason for hurrying on that new building is the curtailment of parking at the present building due to the erection of a fence on the west side. The fence was legally necessary to protect the owner's rights against public access. A big parking lot is planned for the new building on the Martin site. It can't come too soon.

Those who wonder why the library does not maintain a more complete file of magazines should stop in some day and try to suggest to the library workers where the magazines should be kept. You will find every inch of space already utilized. A much greater magazine file is planned for the new building.

People who have books to give to the library should check with the librarian before bringing contributions to the building. There are several reasons for this. One is lack of space to accommodate additional books. Another is that the library may already have one or more copies of what you are offering. And finally, not all books are suitable for a small library such as Sanibel's. The Latin text book that you used at Heidelberg College in 1918 may not be exactly what the Sanibel reading public has in mind for 1973. However, don't throw books away until you check with the library.

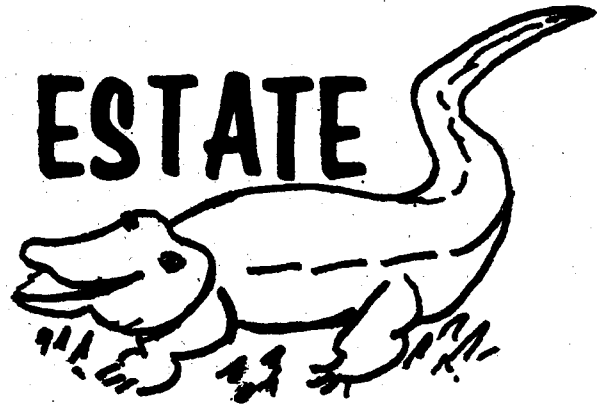

You have noticed, I hope, that the library has added to its "open-to-the-public" time. It is now open from 2 to 4 on Wednesday afternoons (as well as 10 to 12 on Wednesday mornings). Hours on other days remain the same.

According to John Cook, who is in charge of that department, the library has practically no trouble collecting 2 cents per day "fine" for books that are kept overtime. When I inquired, there was 24 cents outstanding. People who lose library books invariably are anxious to pay the cost of replacement. Books may be borrowed for two weeks. If no one is waiting to read the book you borrowed, you may renew your time for another two weeks.

On October 21, 1971, we broke ground for the first building at the Moorings. A lot of nice things have been happening ever since: over half of the units are now finished and occupied. Boat docks, both pools, the Party House, and a good deal of the common areas are complete as well. The way things are going, we'll be ship-shape and 100% complete by late Spring. You'll notice that we've saved every tree possible and added many new ones, along with professional landscaping. We still have some very nice apartments available at modest prices. If you haven't seen the Moorings yet (or haven't seen it since last year), stop by and take a close look. We think you'll like what you see.

Two bedroom, two bath condominium apartments from $31,900. Contact sales office on East Gulf Drive or local Island brokers.

ART LEAGUEThe Sanibel-Captiva Art League will present a demonstration and workshop featuring the art of mono-printing by Lois B. Tracy, former head of the art department at Edison Junior College.The workshop will be held at the Captiva-Civic Center and will run from 10 to 12 noon and must be limited to 20 participants. While there is available space, those wishing to take part in this interesting program should call Dorothy Robinson, 472-1055, for reservations.It is suggested that artists bring their lunches and stay for the early afternoon critique by Mrs. Tracy. Up to 40 paintings can be evaluated at this session, so artists are invited to bring any work on which professional help would be of value. The second session is open to the public. Donations for the entire day will be $5 and the critique only $1. The Feb. 8 "Islander" will give further information on the program and necessary materials.The Sanibel-Captiva Art League is an active and thriving organization for practicing artists and those interested in learning. New members are always welcome. Dues are $2 for the year and may be sent by check to Mrs. Richard

FAIR WINNERSSanibelites braved wintry blasts to enter artistic articles in the ceramics division at the Fair, which attracted over 18,000 visitors the first day on Monday, despite a cold front which swept down from the north to hide the sun behind gray clouds.Emma Guthrie, versatile artist who won honors in the Conchologist's show for her beautiful shell arrangements, this week won blue ribbons for her stain and glaze combinations in the ceramics division at the Fair, and for her metallics.The Duggers, both Cookie and husband Robert also ran off with high honors at the Fair. They displayed in the Professional Division and took blue ribbons in opaques, greenware, applied decoration, bisque and Wedgewood, which is an array of blue ribbons to win.
They will be on display at the Duggers Ceramic Shop on Sanibel after the Fair.TWO K'S OPENSThe Two K's studio gallery on Periwinkle Way, operated by Gertrud and Paul Kuhn, had over 300 visitors at its preview opening Saturday afternoon.
Guests not only enjoyed the art work, but sipped delicious punch (with and without) and enjoyed nibbles, which were served by co-hostesses Priscilla Murphy and Vivian Tongyay.The studio gallery features the works of the Kuhns and their daughter and son-in-law - - a strictly family affair
- - and what a talented family. Anna Kuhn Levy has some very interesting watercolors of fanciful subjects and her husband, Jacques Levy, had three very strong paintings on display. Paul Kuhn's work varies from string and wood collages, to interesting string designs and oils. Mrs. Kuhn's work is varied and her works of art range from creative stitchery to fascinating paintings in different media.There is also a collection of handmade jewelry - - mostly rings and pendants, but all very worthwhile.Do stop in and see them - - we think you'll be pleasantly surprised.

KIWANIS CLUB FOR SANIBEL-CAPTIVA?

A Kiwanis Club for Sanibel-Captiva? Why not? These are a couple of questions in the minds of members of the Kiwanis Club of Fort Myers-Edison. And they think the answer is, "Why not?"

To find out if there is interest enough among the businessmen of the islands, they are inviting any who are interested to join them for a "dutch treat" luncheon at the Coconut Grove Restaurant at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 7. At that time they will talk about the formation of a new Kiwanis Club.

Kiwanis International is a men's service organization whose stated purpose is service to youth, community and nation. This purpose aptly describes the work members do through their club. Most of the work is done through committees within the individual clubs. Each club meets once each week for breakfast, lunch or dinner, depending on the desires of the club members. The club meeting provides the fellowship that is part of the appeal of Kiwanis. The other part comes from community work done outside the club meeting.

Presently, there are seven Kiwanis Clubs in Lee County. It seems to be the time to organize one for Sanibel-Captiva.

PEBBLES

Thoughts and quotations from a poet's journal:

"The thought occurred to me today that much of a man's life may be spent in a restless search, prodded by the belief that a perfect niche exists for each of us if only it could be found. It takes some living to discover that the living itself is one's life, that life is not a goal to attain but a possession to relish."

CAPTIVA CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Captiva Civic Association was held Monday, Jan. 22, at the Captiva community Center. Re-elected to the Board of Governors were John Oster, president; and Burt Ellis. Newly elected to the Board were Dodie Booth and Mary Stolz, replacing Sarah Dennis and Frances Shaver.

Guest speakers for the evening were Walter Shirey, County Commissioner and Walter Emmons, president of the Island Water Association. Mr. Shirey briefed the association members on the various island county projects now underway. Mr. Emmons gave a report on the current status of the island water supply and future plans.

At the close of the meeting, the Board of Governors met and elected the following officers for 1973: John Oster, president; Jean Hayford, vice president; Mary Stolz, secretary; Byron Kirby, treasurer.

CAPTIVA CIVIC ASSN.

Captiva Civic Association will hold its annual potluck supper on Valentine's Day, Wednesday, Feb. 14 at 6:00 in the Captiva Community Hall.

Members and guests are invited and requested to bring a casserole, salad or dessert. Coffee and tea will be served.

Please sign up for the number in your party and contributions at the Captiva Post Office.

MORE PEBBLES FROM PERIWINKLE by Anne Henderson

New winter residents of Periwinkle Park are Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, who have been wintering on Sanibel for seven years, and finally decided to make it permanent. Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Dean, former residents of Tulipa Way are wintering here from the rigors of a Maine winter, and they are finding time to enjoy their membership in the South Seas Golf club. Their recent house guest, Mrs. Allen Schanel, from Rhode Island, was enroute to meetings of the American Legion Auxiliary of which she is National Chairman of Youth and Child Welfare. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley, who hale from New York state have vacationed for many years at Periwinkle and now have a winter home to enjoy for a longer stay on the island. Mr. and Mrs. D. McCain and daughter Susan divide their time between here and Gatlinburg, Tenn. Susan's interests are in art. Mrs. Opal Melton from West Virginia hopes to make Periwinkle Park her home. You might meet her at Marylou's dress shop, as Marylou is her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Melton Muth from New York have decided to spend more time here in their new home on Sanibel enjoying the beach and the leisurely life.

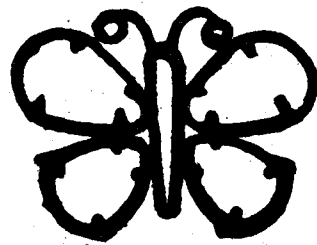

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feirich from Illinois have been active many years in Sanibel community affairs. Mildred Feirich is one of our favorite artists capturing scenes of local beauty. Charles Feirich is much involved in local community activities too. Their holidays were busy days while entertaining several visiting families of relatives.

Mrs. Robert Williams from Cape Cod arrived in time for the holidays. She was happy to have her two sons visit her in her new home, even though they could be here only a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Huber from Michigan have been here since Thanksgiving and plan to enjoy their home here in the winter and their summer home on one of Michigan's many lakes in the warm months. Their daughter and family were here from Michigan to enjoy a warm Christmas in the Foster's new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stang from Ohio just got settled in time for the holidays and visiting guests. The Stangs considered other locations in Lee County, but decided they felt more at home in Periwinkle Park, finding this a very friendly place to live.

Mrs. Jean Oakley has decided she wants to live here and welcomed her

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER DIES

A former interim minister of Sanibel Community Church on Sanibel, the Rev. Albert Leslie Evans of 5541 Loma Linda Drive, Fort Myers, died Monday at Lee Memorial Hospital.

Evans, 94, died after a long illness.

A retired Army colonel, Evans joined the Army in World War I with the rank of first lieutenant and was a chaplain. He was senior chaplain at the central army supply base at Gievres, France.

After the war he served as chaplain from the Atlantic coast to Hawaii over the next quarter century. He was still in the Army when World War II broke out and served for a short time until he reached the statutory retirement age and was forced to retire.

For a couple of years he served as interim pastor at the Sanibel Community Church during the season.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Muriel Tribe of Ontario, Canada; three sons and one daughter.

Funeral service will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Robert C. Asmuth officiating.

18 YEAR OLD YOUTH MUST REGISTER WITH LOCAL DRAFT BOARD

Mrs. Laura D. Hooker, Executive Secretary of Local Board No. 41 in Fort Myers, advised that there is growing concern locally that many young men have the mistaken idea that they no longer have to register at a Selective Service Local Board. She sates, "The law provides that young men must register within 30 days before or 30 days after their 18th birthday."

"Young men should be aware," Mrs. Hooker states, "that when the President is no longer authorized to induct men into the armed forces they must, under existing law, continue to register at age 18."

Those required to register can do so at any local board or with anyone designated as a registrar of the Selective Service System.

Persons requiring additional information should call Local Board No. 41, phone 334-6545, or visit the local office in Room 313, Federal Building on First St., Fort Myers.

SERVICE NEWS

Airman Jefferson D. Woodring, son of Mr. & Mrs. Preston R. Woodring of Sanibel, has graduated at Sheppard AFB, Texas, from the U. S. Air Force inventory management specialist course conducted by the Air Training Command.

Airman Woodring, now trained to inventory supplies by use of electronic data processing machines, is being assigned to Homestead AFB, for duty with a unit of the Tactical Air Command.

The airman is a 1970 graduate of Cypress Lake Senior High School.

 SEGUNDA APARTMENTS

Guests who comprise the current congenial Segunda family have now mostly settled down to pursuing the varied interests and activities that bring most back to Sanibel for extended stays each winter.

Bill and Marge Hollis, back from Fort Wayne, Ind., where they own and operate Hollis' Unusual Gifts, are gathering shells and all kinds of interesting oddments for handcrafted creations that they feature. Marge is also highly skilled in the making of amazing decorative egg creations, including such things as bejeweled ostrich eggs, with hinged doors, that have elaborate miniature rooms and landscapes inside. Bill's special interest is philately, and his annual Sanibel sojourn allows time for some relaxed attention to his growing collection.

With us again from Harrison, N.Y., are Mr. & Mrs. Harrison D. Brailsford. Mr. Brailsford is well and widely known for his exciting photography of Sanibel bird life, which we hope he will again present in public showings during his current visit. Mr. Ernest Tillson, here again with Mrs. Tillson from Wellesley, Mass., is polishing up his golf game, in frequent rounds at the South Seas Plantation course, with other Segunda guests.

Mr. & Mrs. W. H. Tusler, here from Mound, Minn., have had keen interest in local flora and fauna for many years, and while here are graciously undertaking identification and classification of the considerable range of trees and plants located on the Segunda property. Mr. Tusler's special interest, however, is photography and preservation (in plastic) of exotic local insects, and many of his specimens are really things of beauty.

Here from Champaign, Ill., are Mr. & Mrs. H. S. Dawson, who are long time friends of Sanibel. Joining them, also from Champaign, are Mr. & Mrs. George Sandwell. Welcome guests from Hillsdale, N.Y., are Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Willoughby, who are having a fine reunion with Sanibel friends and former Segunda guests, the William Fosters, now of Tahiti Shores. Back from Atlanta again are Mr. & Mrs. William D. Ellis; Mr. Ellis for a respite from the world of textile manufacturing, Mrs. Ellis for new adventures in gourmet cooking, which she has too little time for back home.

Completing the Segunda circle this week are good friends, Mr. & Mrs. F. L. Bollinger, returning from Marietta, Ohio, to again enjoy the sun, sea and tranquility that Sanibel so abundantly affords.

NEW TRAM TOUR IN EVERGLADES PARK

A new tourist attraction in the not too far off area is the free tram tour of the Everglades National Park. Located just beyond Ochopee on the Tamiami Trail is the Shark River Valley, with the entrance opposite the Miccosukee Restaurant, located about 40 miles south of Naples. A small entrance fee is charged to the Park area, and then a tram takes the visitor on a fairly good road into the sawgrass and the River of Grass for a 90 minute guided tour of the 'Glades. Hammocks were pointed out, and we saw hundreds of alligators, wood storks, ibis, Egrets, Heron and all the other animals and birds that are supposed to live in the Everglades but which are almost never seen. The birds and animals seem to know they are in a protected area, and we saw three wild whitetail deer, besides all the other flora and fauna in their native habitat. It is worth a trip down the Trail to visit this new attraction, and until Lee County has its own nature trail in Six Mile Swamp, the County wellfield, this trip offers the nearest nature trail through the Everglades.

SATURDAY AT THE PLAYHOUSE

A fine cast of ten actors performs Saturday, Feb. 3 in "The Bishop Misbehaves" at the Island's unique arena theater; Ted Fonda, Don Whitehead, Porter Goss, Ruth Hunter, Philip Hunter, Grace Whitehead, George Tenney, Nancy Thompson, Glenn Carowan and Robert Dormer. The Bissell boys, Brian and Stephen are assistants to Porter Goss who handles the stage.

This fine mystery comedy is by Frederick Jackson and is directed by Philip Hunter whom audiences are saying is a remarkably good Bishop. Philip's clerical garb has been loaned by Sanibel Island's beloved Father Thomas Madden.

February 3, curtain 8:15, box office, 472-1692.

COUNTY BOARD NEWS

Caretta Research of Sanibel received approval to operate motor vehicles on Lee County beaches in connection with its investigation of the ecology of loggerhead sea turtles along the Southwest Florida coast. The firm agreed to coordinate their activities with the Sheriff's Dept., publicize their plans and contact businesses and property owners on the beachfront, information them of research plans.

REFINANCING PROGRAMS

Lee County Commissioner Walter Shirey said he has asked a consulting firm to prepare separate refinancing programs for the Sanibel-Captiva bridge and Cape Coral bridge to aid the commission in its study.

Shirey said he also asked Arch Roberts, the fiscal agent for the county on bridge refinancing, for information on what the bonding would be for each bridge.

Shirey and Commissioners Kenneth Daniels, James Sweeney and Dick Sayers attended a joint meeting with the Cape Coral Council on problems of mutual concern at the Bavarian Restaurant in Cape Coral.

BRINE DISCHARGE PERMIT SOUGHT

A permit to install a pipe to discharge brine water from the Sanibel-Captiva water treatment plant into the Gulf of Mexico has been requested by the Island Water Association from the Corps of Engineers.

The 10-inch pipe will be buried below the sand for a distance of 300 or more feet from shore, then continue out to a total distance of 600 feet with the end about six feet below the surface at low water and three feet off the bottom.

The brine will come from a desalting plant to be built to provide water to the island. The Corps of Engineers office in Jacksonville will take comment in writing concerning the application until Feb. 21.

SANIBEL SIGN ORDINANCE

The Sign Ordinance which regulates advertising on Sanibel and Captiva Islands is the continuation of efforts made by Islanders over the years to prevent visual pollution, and to preserve the unique, natural beauty of their islands. Implementation and enforcement of the Ordinance is the duty of the Lee County authorities.

The Sign Ordinance Coordinating Committee (currently composed of seven members with one more to be appointed) is charged with assisting everyone on the Islands and the Lee County authorities in administration of the Ordinance. The committee plans to be especially active in 1973 to prepare for the deadline of Jan. 31, 1974, by which date all non-conforming signs must be removed and/or conform with the Ordinance.

Some aspect of the Sign Ordinance will be discussed in the Islander every week or two until everyone is informed of the full scope of the Ordinance. A summary of the contents of the Ordinance will be widely distributed in the near future. Meantime, for information call Ms. Frances Roberts at the Chamber of Commerce office, 472-1080, daily except Sunday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Ms. Roberts will relay all inquiries to Mr. Benton Blair, chairman of the Sign Ordinance Coordinating Committee. Other members are John L. Rushworth, John Reynolds, Paul McCulloch, Edward Konrad, Winifred Iurka, and Ruth Happel.

AUDUBON PROGRAM TONIGHT

Tonight, Thursday, Feb. 1, the Sanibel-Captiva Audubon will hold a very interesting program at 8 p.m. at the Sanibel Community House. Featured speaker will be Robert L. Barber, resident manager of the J. N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge on Sanibel. He holds a B.S. in Wildlife Management, and has served since 1960 in the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Subject of the program will be the famed J. N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge, and Mr. Barber will illustrate its history, unique features and contemplated improvements. As a visual counterpart to Mr. Barber's talk, Mario Hutton will present a six-part "photo-verse" composition vividly portraying the highlights of the Sanctuary's wildlife and scenery. The program will also appropriately include a U. S. Wildlife color film titled "So Little Time," that underscores the urgency of protecting the birds and the habitat of many waterfowl species. As usual, the program is open to the public, and all are cordially invited.

QUANTUM PHYSICISTS AGAIN GATHER ON SANIBEL

Some 200 Quantum Physicists again came from around the world to meet on Sanibel and exchange ideas for their 13th annual session. Atomic, molecular and Solid State Theory and Quantum Biology were the subjects of the sessions, according to one of the hosts, Mr. Sam Trickey of the University of Florida in Gainesville, and they met at the Island Beach Club. Fifteen foreign countries were represented besides the United States, and the symposium was sponsored by the Quantum Theory Project of the University of Florida, and the Quantum Chemistry group from Uppsala, Sweden.

Prof. Edward U. Condon was honored by the group for his lifetime contributions to the project. He is from the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colo., and a reception in his honor was given on Wednesday evening. A beautiful painting of island water fowl done by Adelaide Bailey was presented to him in the only planned social event of the sessions. "In the odd numbered years, distinguished contributors to the sessions chose from the many contributors, all of whom are distinguished, and honor this man. This year it is Dr. Condon," said Mr. Trickey, and then we had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Condon, who was charming in his quiet way. Dr. Condon has had a varied and colorful career, starting as a newspaper editor and as a Unidentified Flying Objects sighter and researcher for the Air Force. Dr. Condon is 71 years young.

At the meetings, the outstanding problems and best methods for computing and solving some of the problems are discussed. A blackboard for theory and proof demonstrations is used, and also slides and movies showing equations. Mornings met in session with a series of short papers by contributing scientists with various aspects of study. Prof. Per-Olov Lowdin of Uppsala, Sweden was the director of the lecture series, which started out with long lectures by distinguished scientists who are authorities in special fields and subjects. Prof. Lowdin, too, was utterly charming. Many of the scientists were accompanied by their families and some were too young to be married, and all were vitally active. After the morning sessions, the afternoons were free for beachcombing and general recreation and most of the foreign scientists joined in a sport which is quite popular abroad called football but which is what we know as soccer. They played on the airstrip.

Then at 4:15 groups convened again for another session of contributor's papers until 6 p.m. Then there was a break for supper and the groups reconvened from 8:30 until midnight.

Tuesday afternoon, wives attending were treated to a fashion show by the Seahorse Shop. Some dozen women scientists attended the sessions with the men. There was some language barrier, but all spoke English more or less fluently.

Some of the countries represented at the symposium were Sweden, Mexico, New Zealand, Australia, Germany, France, Norway, India, England and some South American countries such as Chile, and we observed some oriental scientists. Some family groups stayed at the Island Beach Club where the sessions met, but many also stayed at other island motels, and children and families particularly enjoyed the beach.

Many great men in Quantum Biology attended. Dr. Robert Mulligan, Nobel Prize winner of 1966, Per Stanske of Norway, Prof. Bernard Pullman of France, Prof. C. G. Fletcher of Melbourne, Australia, and Prof. Ludwig Hoffacker of Munich, Germany, are but a few of the list of notables beside Prof. Lowdin and Condon.

DECORATOR'S DIARY:

Why Do You Decorate?

Atmosphere is why. Your physical comfort can be managed with certain supports and softening, surfaces and arrangements, but your spiritual needs demand conscious mood making, for there is no true comfort when the atmosphere is wrong. Island Interiors By Bonnie will help you create a personal sanctuary that brings you the atmosphere and amenities that everyone longs for.
