Police Chief Appointed for Sanibel City

by richard arthurs and v.n. brown

John Butler, 49, who has had 26 years of law enforcement experience as a patrolman, Lieutenant, Captain and Chief of the Mansfield, OH, police force, was appointed as the first Chief of Police of the City of Sanibel at Tuesday morning's City Council Meeting. The appointment was made by acting city manager Dave Bretzke, who selected Butler from 24 applicants. Butler, presently a resident of Fort Myers Beach, assumed active duty yesterday (Wednesday).

Also during the morning session, Dave Bretzke reported that the City now had some actually earned income.

Mayor Goss addressing County Commissioners.

amounting to $817.50, which was collected for 10 building permits issued by the City thus far—seven for single family dwellings, two for swimming pools, and a set of six tennis courts for Sundial Condominium.

County Commissioner Bob Whan attended the Tuesday session, said he planned to work closely with the City Council in the future, and that he planned to attend at least every other Council meeting. "By golly," said Whan, "we'll do everything we can to work with you."

He also reported that Sanibel Enterprises, the Hilton Hotel developers, has filed a countersuit against Lee County for an as yet unspecified sum in excess of $100,000. He said that, to his knowledge, the City of Sanibel was not yet named as a defendant in the suite, but City Attorney Roger Barres commented that it was likely the City would soon be included since he (Barres) had received a notice of appeal from a Sanibel Enterprise attorney.

The Hilton Hotel matter was scheduled to be reopened as item #11 at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon (too late for the ISLANDER deadline) at which time Dave Scarborough was to present new information on the Hilton appeal. More on that next week.

Other business accomplished at the Council's Tuesday morning session included the Council's approval of an additional secretary for Sanibel City Hall, requested by Dave Bretzke, the authorization to begin to expand the present City Hall offices into the upper floor of the adjoining building at Periwinkle Place, and an authorization for furniture for the new wing.

The Council also discussed a tentative proposal for bringing cable TV to the Islands with Gulf Coast Television of Lee County, a division of Palmer Broadcasting. Bill Ryan and Quane Fletcher of Palmer Broadcasting told the Council they presently have a request pending before the FCC for a 100 foot tower on Sanibel, which would receive microwave signals from the existing 500 foot tower on Pine Island. During the discussion, the question of the legality of such a tall tower was brought up, but no final decision was made since a formal application has not as yet been made to the Council. If the Council did grant such a franchise, the city would receive 3 percent of the gross revenues collected. The Council requested that the press announce that the Council would be grateful for any public input on the situation (that means, please write them a letter and tell them how you feel about it) and that public hearings would be held on it in the future.

Bill Damroth, chairman of the City Seal committee, reported that the committee had decided to make a conglomerate of ideas submitted to the committee, and the symbols of a porpoise, a palm tree, a pelican, a conch, and possibly the lighthouse, be worked into a large shell design with the words "Sanibel, Florida, Incorporated 1974" emblazoned upon it. This will be the Ceremonial Seal, not the official seal of the City, which will read "The City of Sanibel, Florida, Incorporated November 5, 1974. Official Seal."

The Wanderin' Wonderer by Richard Arthurs

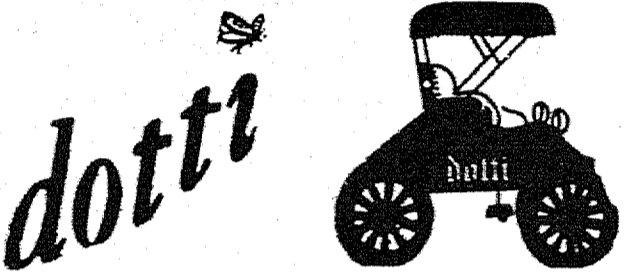

Are you annoyed by dogs on the beaches?

Al Scarpati - LaBelle, Fla.
"Only when I step in the leftovers. I can see people walking their dogs on the beach if they don't make a nuisance of them. I have a dog myself and I don't let it run on the beach. You have to be considerate of others."

Capt. & Mrs. Harry S. Trener - Sanibel
"Sort of. They don't curb their dogs. When you walk in it, it's unpleasant. I don't know how you'll print that. We like dogs, but we don't think they should run loose. And when they do make dirt, it should be buried."

Around Town

CECIL and HAZEL STEIN are from Wausau, WI. Cecil had an accident that forced him to use crutches. His doctor told him that going to Sanibel would be the best thing for him. The doctor was right.

JAMES and LYDIA SMITH from Huntington Beach, CA, said, "Periwinkle Park is friendly, beautifully kept, clean and pretty to look at."

From Picton, Ontario, Canada come DOUG and HAZEL PARKS. This is their first time on Sanibel. They like it a lot and shell all day. They enjoy the alligators and plan to visit the sanctuaries.

MICHEL and AILEEN DURAND and their daughter, STEPHANIE are from Montreal and say it is far from home, but worth it.

DON and MARIE SAMSON from Toledo, Ohio are back, joyously so. It's good to see them. Last year they rented a camper to stay in. They liked it so much that they bought one. They say, "It's good to be away from the cold. We'll be here for ten days."

TINA AUGENSUN and FERN and MILLARD WILSON are from Rockford, IL. Millard is a train engineer; Fern is in real estate and Tina makes wedding cakes.

"We drove in the rain and it's a pleasure to see the sun. We're going to soak up as much as possible. We do love the State of Florida," said MATT and BETTY LUKSIC from Joliet, IL.

MARGUERITE and HAROLD CARLSON live on Serpent Lake in Deerwood, MN. They like the out-of-doors so they enjoy Sanibel.

Dr. GILBERT ZATKIN is a psychologist in Scream Therapy which encourages individuals in small groups to express their feelings in a direct way rather than to talk about them. If they feel pain they scream. Gilbert is here with his wife MARILYN and children, JAMIE and LAURA BETH. They are from Lanhan, MD.

DWAIN GOSSARD from Indian River, MI, is visiting his brother, DERWIN GOSSARD and his wife, ELEANOR. Dwain loves the island, loves the beaches and loves to fish.

"We've enjoyed every minute of our three weeks. We always find new things to enjoy in Florida. We spent one week in Bible Town in Boca Raton. We had dinner there and they have concerts of different kinds of music. Preachers from all over the states and Canada come to preach," said CURT and MARY ALICE CROSS from Mendota, IL.

DON and MARGARETA BUCKLE from Vienna, VA, and DORIS and JOHN SONDERS from Great Falls, VA, are camping here and say it's all great. They love the weather -- love that warm weather!

"We like it so well in the Park that we'd like to stay longer. When we leave we'll go to the Everglades," said LEWIS and MARGARET FLORMAN from Grand Rapids, MI.

"I enjoyed the Arts & Crafts Show on Sanibel. I especially liked GEORGE WEYMOUTH'S art. Outstanding," said VIRGINIA WILSON from Waynesburg, PA who is visiting BASIL and MARY JONES from Holbrook, PA.

DOROTHY AND CLIFFORD MCGILL are here from Grafton, Ohio. Dorothy said, "We like it (Sanibel) because it is not crowded. At the rate they're building it won't be like this for long. I told my husband we'd better come now while it is still not too crowded."

FRED and TOMMIE EVE are from Atlanta, GA, and they said they found this island (Sanibel) before it was developed as it is now. They love it even with all the development and realize that for many people to enjoy Sanibel there has to be new buildings, but it must be controlled.

"Shell Point Village is really outstanding. It has a good restaurant, is very clean, has a good motel and has many activities and two pools," says CATHERINE MILLER from Stroudsburg, PA, in the Pocono Mountains region. She spends most of her time exploring the west coast of Florida. She also visited her sister, JURIEL and her husband, HAROLD in Periwinkle Park. Catherine may decide to live on Sanibel.

BO and STEPHANIE and two year old JESSE PATRICK are camping here. They are looking to buy a small house on Sanibel. They think Sanibel is the prettiest place in Florida, but the only drawback is that there is no pasture land on the island, not even a place to board a horse. They own a farm in Wilton, CN, and they miss their goats, horses and chickens.

FRANK and ELEANOR RICHARDS are staying in the Gulf Breezes. They are from Pittsburgh, PA, and have been here only a short time.

REECE and LOIS BAIRD are from Erie, MI. They are retired and are spending the winter camping in Periwinkle Park on Sanibel. They are pleased that they meet lots of people from all over the country.

Campers ALAN B. and ELIZABETH M. KONAMT live in Crossville, TN, on Lake Tansi. They are retired and do painting, gardening, building and enjoy birds. They are here for a month and visited the CHATFIELDS from Maine who are staying at The Colony which is a beautiful place, they report.

"It's a real joy to have the sun rather than be overcast like Buffalo. We came to Sanibel for the sun. Holly knew about Sanibel; she had been here. I didn't, but I'm glad I do now," said STEVEN FEINBERG. He is here with a friend, HOLLY BEYER. They are both from Buffalo, NY.

RITA and HELMUT and PETER KOECK are from Ottawa. Rita said, "Sanibel is just perfect for everybody. It's not too windy and has lovely beaches. We'll come back. Our son is with us and his wife, too. They are CHRISTIAN and ARDYTH KOECK. We have another son, NORBERT, and he is in the Keys. All our sons work in the family business, Cascade Home Improvement. We build new homes and make alterations."

CORNELL and HARRIE MAY ECKERT are from Freeburg, IL. "Real nice," they said.

THE CASTAWAYS

Neophyte sheller, Charles Presser, found his first junonia this week in front of the Castaways. Mr. Presser and his wife fell in love with Sanibel their first trip here last year, and vowed to come again from their home in Bristol, Ind.

The H. M. Snyders of Akron, Ohio celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary at the Castaways Restaurant Monday, Feb. 17. The Snyders, who have traveled in an industrial consulting capacity, said last year they never go to the same place a second time, but they're back on Sanibel! They are very conspicuous on the beach cause they're always holding hands when they take walks!

The Castaways has become a gathering place for people from the field of public health and the U.S. Air Force, the past professions of co-owners, Betty and Jane. The most recent visitor is Dr. Sarah Louise Smith, formerly head of the Health Education Dept. of Florida State University. Dr. Smith, now retired, and a resident of Bowden, GA, does consulting work throughout the nation.

One-Man Show at Island Arts

Wilb Snyder, famed for his watercolors and Island seascapes, will be presenting a one-man show at the Island Arts Gallery on Periwinkle Way from Saturday, Feb. 22 through Saturday, March 1.

Mr. Snyder has exhibited his work in one-man and group shows in Philadelphia, Cape Cod, New Jersey, Southwest Florida, and in the Bertrand Russell Centenary Exhibition in England, and has two paintings in the Gallerie Mouffe in Paris.

Mr. Snyder has been awarded various blue ribbons and honorable mentions in shows all over the country. His work appears in Artists/U.S.A. and in private collections throughout the United States. His paintings are registered with the Society of North American Artists, and Mr. Snyder is listed in Who's Who in American Art, Directory of American Artists, and The International Directory of the Arts. Furthermore, he will be listed in the forthcoming Who's Who in International Art (London) and in the Dictionary of MODern Painting (Tokyo).

A native of Pennsylvania -- now a winter resident of Sanibel -- Mr. Snyder resides in Long Beach Island, New Jersey during the summer months. He is a board member of the Sanibel-Captiva Art League and a member of the Art Council

Only Punch in Play is Intermission by Sheri Smock

The Barn Theatre on Iona Road is presenting WAIT UNTIL DARK by Frederick Knott this month through March 1. The night I saw it, Patricia Phares turned in an exceptional performance, as did Terry Schab, who was given a big assist by the makeup department.

Sari Jensen was listed as director and Jan Whitley as assistant director, but since the program did not specify which one of them did how much (or all) (if any) of the direction, we are withholding the rest of the cast's names to protect the innocent.

The punch served by gracious hosts, during intermission, was most enjoyable.

The set, we were pleased to note, was graphic, conveying the atmosphere required at first glance.

The entire company certainly deserves an "A" for effort, and most definitely an "A plus" for courage.

of Southwest Florida.

Mr. Snyder holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.A. and PHDs from N.Y.U. He has also taught Social Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, N.Y.U., and at Athens College in Greece.

The gallery at Island Arts is open from ten to five Monday through Saturday. The public is encouraged not to miss this excellent opportunity to meet a world renown artist and view his work.

ECC FINE ARTS SERIES

The fourth in the Edison Community College Fine Arts Series opens Friday, Feb. 21, as stage and television star Robert Minford presents "Journey to Eldorado" at the ECC Fine Arts Auditorium at 8 p.m.

A repeat performance will be Saturday, Feb. 22, 8 p.m., at the Punta Gorda High School Auditorium, according to Fine Arts Series chairman J. Edward Smith.

"Journey to Eldorado" is a one-man show, billed as a dramatic "tour de force" which originally played in Hollywood and on college campuses throughout the western United States. It was recently featured as a 90-minute special on the Public Broadcasting System. Minford spent three years researching and writing the script for this presentation, which delineates the life, reminiscences and work of Edgar Allen Poe.

Minford, perhaps best known for his regular performances on television's Rawhide, Perry Mason and Playhouse 90, began his career at Pasadena Playhouse. In the original New York company of "Boy Friend" for 1000 performances, he won the coveted "Obie" award for his role.

Advance tickets may be purchased for $2 at the college, or are available at the door for $3.50 each. The public is invited.

JUAN MERCADAL TO APPEAR IN 3RD ANNUAL SANIBEL MUSIC SERIES

The Song of the Sea announces the appearance of Juan Mercadal, master of the classical guitar, in the second concert of the Third Annual Sanibel Music Series. Juan Mercadal, who has appeared with the Fort Myers Symphony Orchestra has brought cheering audiences to their feet after extraordinary concerto performances with the Brazilian Symphony Orchestra, Miami Philharmonic, Jacksonville Philharmonic and many other well known orchestras.

The performance will be held on Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. at Periwinkle Place on Sanibel. Admission is $2.00 and tickets may be purchased at the Song of the Sea or at the door. In the event of poor weather the concert will be held in the Sanibel Community Center.

LEE COUNTY CONSERVATION ASSN. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Lee County Conservation Assn., Inc., will be held at 8 p.m., Tuesday, February 25, in the library of the Ft. Myers Beach Elementary School. The speaker will be Mr. Jack E. Guth, Coastal Mapping Coordinator for the Department of Natural Resources Office of Coastal Boundry Survey & Mapping.

The main concern during the past year has again been Estero Bay. The Conservation Assn., joined by Commissioner Doyle Conner, filed suit against the Governor, Trustees, various other officials, and individuals seeking correct the situation in that area. Since then they have been joined by Tom O'Malley, Fred Dickenson, and Walter Shirey. The case is proceeding slowly but their attorneys are optimistic. Response to the plea for funds for attorneys' fees was encouraging; however, costs continue to mount.

Donations are still being solicited as the Conservation Association is far short of the amount needed.

Reel Eel Tips

by Skip Purdy

It's nice to see the sun shining brightly once again with the short cold spell last week, the sheephead were plentiful. Small live frozen "educated" shrimp were used as bait.

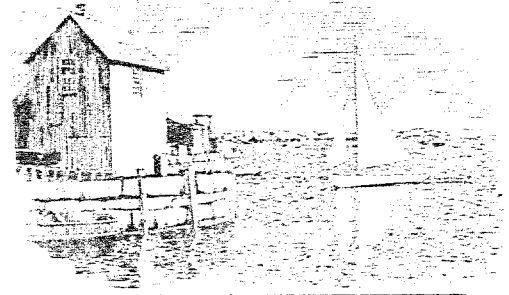

Speaking of fish, Mr. Leslie Merrell caught a 14 lb. snook off the Sanibel Causeway last week. One by one, those wonderful Florida game fish are being caught. Doc Ledbetter was there to watch him fight the fish for 15 minutes on light tackle and 10 lb. test. He was using a No. 3 hook with live "educated" shrimp. Both men are visiting the islands from Murfreesboro, Tenn.

I've been having reports of black drum being caught under the Sanibel Causeway. This fish is of chunky size with a dark brassy metallic sheen. Dark bands mark the body vertically from dorsal to the off-white belly. The fins are black and numerous little beards extend from the lower jaw. These fish are usually found around the shoreline such as inlets, river mouths and beaches. Still-fishing on bottom is the method used for catching a black drum. They feed mostly over hard shell-bottoms. Their favorite foods are oysters, clams, mussels, crab and shrimp. The drum will strike slowly but gives a good fight once he is hooked.

Seems that many of our visitors mistake our ladyfish for a bonefish when caught. Their characteristics are actually very different. The ladyfish has small scales and is silvery in color with a light green back. It is a slender fish with a pointed head and large jaws. The bonefish has a more silvery body with heavy scales and a smaller mouth. Around the islands the ladyfish is being caught casting into the surf off the Gulf beaches using light tackle. This fish will jump as soon as it's hooked where as the bonefish never leaves the water.

Are you ready for the tip of the week? If you're fishing off your boat and there doesn't seem to be any fish around try chumming. It's like smelling fresh coffee in the morning and bacon in the frying pan. The fish get hungry and follow the stream of chum as it seeps through the water. Soon you'll have a lively fishing spot. Use your unwanted fish, put them through a meat grinder and toss it over. Even easier, use a can of sardines or fishy cat food. Simply punch holes in it and hang the can over the side with a piece of line. Good luck and may the fish always be hungry!

by richard arthurs

Last Friday's fashion show held poolside at the Island Beach Club turned out to be a resounding success, with ticket sales numbering more than 420. Indeed, an overflow gathering of ladies (with a gentleman here and there) endured the scorching rays of the sun to watch twelve Island shops show their fashions and accessories.

The twelve contributing shops in the show were Bailey's General Store, Dotti's Boutique, La Place, La Tienda,

The Nimble Thimble, the Sea Horse Shop, the Beach House, Her Sports Closer, the Last Straw, Marylou's House of Fashions, the Red Pelican, and the Tiffany Parlor. A warm vote of thanks is also due to the Island businesses, too numerous to list here, that donated more than 70 door prizes to the show.

Master of Ceremonies, Betty Squires, closed the show with a tender of gratitude to the ladies of the Children's Center who had made the show possible: Program Coordinator June Meunch;

Model Coordinator Joan Leonis; Setup Coordinator Judy Workman; and Host Ann Henderson, among others.

All proceeds from the show went to the Children's Center of the Islands, a non-profit organization providing instruction for children between two and four years old. The Children's Center is housed in what was once Bailey's Store, located on Old Bailey Road. The success of Friday's show should provide an ample contribution to this most worthy endeavor.

Clockwise, starting at top left, Adelaide Bailey modeling for the Clothes Corner. June Holland for Dotti's. Mary Pipino and Julie Santamaria for La Tienda. Welcome McNamara in an antique dress from Seahorse Antiques. Christine Choate from Pirate Playhouse showing a 1880 style. Mary Jo Morse from Sea Horse Shop. Betty Squires, fashion commentator for the show, in a gown from The Beach House. Jenni Muench and

by Richard Arthurs

On Wednesday, January 12, Sanibel Mayor Porter Goss appeared before the County Commissioners for the second time within a week to discuss the proposed Causeway Bridge refinancing, involving the sale of eighteen million dollars worth of bonds. After a short prologue concerning the yearly increase in revenue from causeway tolls, Goss outlined a four point recommendation for the Commission's consideration.

Mayor Porter Goss in conversation before addressing County Commissioners re: causeway bridge refinancing proposal on February 12.

Goss reported that roughly seventy percent of people who have crossed the bridge in the past year are either Island residents or businessmen, leaving only slightly over thirty percent of causeway commerce to tourists. Goss cited the fact that Periwinkle Way, from the causeway to Bailey's Store, was the 14th most congested area in terms of traffic in Lee County last year as another reason why Sanibel is entitled to its fair share of causeway revenues.

Goss requested that section 3B-4 of the amendment passed by the Commission last week be redrafted to give Sanibel 27 percent of the funds derived from bond sales, leaving 3 percent for the county to administer for Captiva and the other 70 percent for the county itself. He also requested that 27 percent of the net surplus after costs be given to Sanibel, and that the agreement be finalized by a court order, so that a future commission cannot change it by amendment or resolution. Goss also asked that the language of the resolution be tightened so that causeway revenues cannot be used for maintenance elsewhere in Lee County.

Lee County Attorney James Humphrey concurred with Mayor Goss's recommendations with only one reservation, this being that Sanibel's share of the net proceeds from the sale of the bonds be deposited in a trustee account under the control of the commission, rather than going directly to the city. This specification was due to concern for the salability of the bonds, said Mr. Humphrey.

Commission Sayers expressed a desire to establish a practice of friendly cooperation with Sanibel city officials and asked Goss if the litigants would drop their suit if the commission accepted Mayor Goss's proposal. Goss answered affirmatively for all of the litigants except one, a non-Island resident.

Commissioner Whan made a motion to accept Goss's proposal to amend last week's resolution, subject to the agreement of the bond attorneys, which was passed unanimously by the commission.

Another matter of interest to Island residents which transpired at last Wednesday's commission meeting was the inquiry into the status of the Quillinan suit, which apparently has been in limbo since being filed in early 1973. Ex-Lee County Attorney Frank A. Pavese reported to the commission that he has been preparing diligently for the trial which is slated for March 25. Pavese showed the commissioners a number of aerial photographs and diagrams indicating that the disputed area of Turner's Beach was formed by accretion, and therefore should be county property rather than a sandbar belonging to the Quillinan estate, as Carol Quillinan avers.

BLUE CIRCLE MEETS

Think of all the magazine houses you have admired and you will have a picture of the delightful home of Dot Seymour who hosted the Blue Circle on Monday last.

Because a record number of bandages were rolled, a special treat for the workers was a swim in the new Seymour pool from which one has a delightful view of the gardens and bay at Captiva. The "Busy Beavers" (they like to call themselves 'holy rollers') were Margaret Dunham, Hazel Roberts on a visit from her North Carolina mountains, Gene Peck, Kay Schultz, Phyllis Mount, Dorothy Robinson, Peg Hofschneider, Barbara Jones, Alice Sparkes, Louise Chamberlain, Alice Rice, Miriam Johnson, Dorothy Dickey, Mary Kelsey, Pintard Millis, Priscilla Fenton, Margaret English, and Ruth Hunter.

The bandages are sent to the Catholic Medical Mission Board at 17 W. 10th St., New York City, and then given to the sick poor in missions all over the world. There is a great need for soap, too. Anyone wishing to donate some contact the Pirate Playhouse.

What makes Jade Green?

Iron imparts a green color to Nephrite, the original Chinese jade. The more iron there is in the compound, the darker the green. Without iron, Nephrite is white (Mutton Fat Jade).

Chromium gives a green color to Jadeite, the Burmese Jade used by the Chinese since 1784. In this case, chromium is an impurity, present in small amounts. With enough chromium, a deep emerald green results, the color of Imperial Jade. Other impurities may give other colors to Jadeite including lavender, yellow, red, and brown in varying shades. Without impurities, Jadeite is pure white.

How to Survive in Real Estate Lending Today

The Real Estate Lending Committee of the Florida Bankers Association will conduct its annual Real Estate Lending Seminar today, at the Carlton House Resort Inn, in Orlando. This year's Seminar will revolve around problem real estate loans and what to do about them.

Opening remarks will be given by FBA President, J. Bernard Shumate, president, Southeast First National Bank of Miami.

Jess S. Lawhorn, Chairman Florida Bankers Association Real Estate Lending Committee, and senior vice president, Southeast Mortgage Company, Miami, will preside at the Seminar. Jess Lawhorn said, "The importance of real estate lending by commercial banks in an ever-growing Florida requires an ever-increasing knowledge of the complexities of real estate finance. The Real Estate Lending Committee is attempting, in these perilous times, to make as many Florida commercial bankers as possible aware of the proper methods of and the pitfalls in financing real estate in Florida during the balance of the 70's."

The Seminar will be divided into four sections with each featuring a panel of knowledgeable bankers and experts outside of the banking industry. The subject of the first panel will be "The Proper Start in a Real Estate Loan." The topic of the second panel discussion will be "How to Spot Trouble and Forestall Foreclosure." The members of the third panel will discuss "Foreclosure" with the fourth and final panel presenting the subject "Workout and Disposal of Property."

The highlight of the luncheon will be an address by Paul B. Steinberg, Florida State Representative, District 101, and vice chairman of the House Commerce Committee.
