ISLANDER

Vol. 15 No. 22 Thursday, May 29, 1975 Serving the Islands since 1961 10 cents

Annexation hearing continued 'til Friday

After a wordy but surprising calm city council session Tuesday morning at City Hall, council members decided to continue until 3 p.m. on Friday the controversial causeway annexation ordinance.

The Sanibel Property Taxpayers Association submitted a petition with 45 signatures protesting the annexation. Discussion of the ordinance, which the council claims will give the city emergency policing rights, got off to an unexpected start when Francis Bailey recommended that it be tabled. Since there was no second discussion continued.

Those against the ordinance are fearful that the annexation might cost the city a great deal of money in circumstances as yet unforeseen. Those for the ordinance insist that it will merely give the city the right to turn the causeway into a one-way road in case such should be needed for hurricane evacuation.

When assistant city Attorney Roger Berres said that the city could indeed be financially liable under certain circumstances, which might involve a lack of bond holders, or a head on crash in which the city could be named as a defendant, or a number of other circumstances, all of which he said were unlikely but possible, it was decided to continue the public hearing to 3 p.m. Friday, May 30, at City Hall.

The council also continued the hearing on the vegetation ordinance till 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 3, as the vegetation committee had gone as far as it could to work out an ordinance and now needed input from the city manager.

In other business, the council heard a report by Mrs. Robert Dormer on the work of the Historical Association which is attempting to clarify the city's position in acquiring access to the cemetery on Wulfort road, and the surveying of the Sanibel Cemetery, off Casa Ybel road, which was never deeded to the public. Mrs. Dormer pointed out that if the council would okay the cost of a survey of the Sanibel cemetery, that the rest of the work could be accomplished without further cost to the city, either through donations or funds from the Bicentennial Committee.

Council also continued until today, Thursday, a consideration of adopting an Accounting Procedures Manual. During an extremely detailed discussion of the manual, Francis Bailey was applauded by the public when he pointed out that a $5,000 limit before requiring sealed, official bids, seemed like a lot of money to him, even in these days of inflation.

"After all," he said, "we must remember that this is the public's money we're dealing with, not our own company's." Everyone agreed this was a good point, and everyone agreed to discuss it further at this afternoon's session.

During the city attorney's report, Roger Berres said that city attorney Frank Watson was working on an answer to the Sundial suit. He also said that it had not yet been placed upon a court docket, and possibly would not be for a period of two months or longer.

Council also approved a building permit for a four-bathroom, 3,500 square foot rectory for St. Isabel's Church.

Earlier, the Sanibel Property Taxpayers Association presented another petition asking that the council pass an anti-nudity ordinance similar to the Lee County Ordinance. The petition was submitted to City Manager Dave Bretzke. Mayor Porter Goss had previously informed the Association by letter that nudity was not a priority item on the city's agenda.

Fire ordinance has loophole

About a week or ten days ago, John Peurifoy went to the fire house to ask for a permit to burn some tree trimmings, leaves and newspapers. The attendant on duty said "No burning of any kind." He did not ask Peurifoy who, what, where, or when, but Peurifoy told him anyway.

He said that he had a concrete block incinerator covered with a metal grill in his backyard. The area is kept clear of leaves, always keeps a hose nearby and in 25 years of burning he has never had an out-of-control fire.

After Peurifoy got a second resounding "No" from the fire house, he called the ISLANDER to see if the matter of no burning couldn't be clarified since it was his understanding that permits were given for beach fires.

He explained that he has many trees in his yard that he has always kept trimmed high enough to walk under since his vision is not perfect and to his way of thinking the trees look better. He has always been given a burning permit to burn the trimmings in the past.

Now, however, with the new city ordinance not allowing for clean-up, he said that his financial situation does not allow him to pay for removal of the tree clippings to Buckingham nor does he approve of dumping on other people's property just to keep his yard clean.

At this point Peurifoy is asking for a clarification of his rights as well as offering a suggestion. "If Sanibel is trying to be a city and won't allow me to burn, why can't they act like Fort Myers, Bradentown, Sarasota or other cities in Florida that pick up tree trimmings from the side of the road? I suppose that service is paid for by taxes. I also suppose that part of my taxes to Sanibel could go to provide the hauling off service. Why not?"

Last Thursday, Don Burch from Arizona went to the fire house and received a permit to have a recreational fire on Sundial Beach. Just as the fire was about to be lit, a flash of lightning, a burst of thunder sent down a 25 bucket rain dampening the spirits of the partygoers and making a fire impossible, but this fire (using the same tree trimmings) was legal.

Around town by georgie mankin

The island is absolutely filled with people this Memorial Day weekend. People started arriving as early as last Thursday night—dragging boats, trailers, and hopes for a good time with them as they came over the causeway.

Shellings picking up due to the super low tides we've been having. Look on the bay side for welks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, of The Colony have just returned from a cruise on the Italian liner, Flavia. They enjoyed stopping off at Nassau and Freeport. They lounged around and had a fabulous time. We hear Poco (their pet dog) went absolutely wild with excitement when they returned.

Kay Casparis, of Blind Pass Cottages, tells us that Fred McConnell's trip to Ohio started off on a very sour note this past week. Fred had his car loaded with gifts for his kids in Ohio and had stopped at Howard Johnsons in Hollywood on the way. It seems as though someone decided they needed a car—so they ripped Fred's off. He came back to get Kays car and continue the journey—in one week later, Fred's car was found in Miami—yep, you guessed it—no gifts, in fact a totally stripped down car. We trust that the rest of Fred's vacation will be a much more pleasant affair. Michael McConnell and family, of Tipp City, will be returning with Fred for a vacation.

The Larry Fletcher's of Chicago, Illinois, have been enjoying Sanibel this past week. They are staying at Blind Pass Cottages as they do annually.

Steve and Martha Reynolds, owners of the Clove Hitch, have gone to Cashiers, North Carolina, for the summer.

Once again, we'd like to remind all of you who are graduating seniors to please send us your pictures.

Col. and Mrs. Ed Reed are back at Sunset South after a trip to see their son Rob. Rob was stroke on the Navy varsity shell. On May 11th they flew to Princeton to watch Rob in the Big Eastern Sprints. Four colleges were entered in the Championship Rowing.

On Friday, May 16th, the children at Sanibel School honored their teachers with a Teacher Appreciation Day. It's hard to believe, but these kids actually kept this affair a secret from the teachers for two weeks while they were making plans. The party was a great success, thanks to Laura Gavin, Pat Kair, Pat Krepin, and the kids, of course. Three cakes were decorated in white, yellow, and green icing, and were most beautifully done by the Island Bakery. Each teacher received an orchid, and Mr. Runnels a carnation. They all received a free meal for two at South Seas Plantation. Laura Gavin had a huge poster board card decorated with a rose (drawn by John Oswald at Baileys), signed by each child at the school. The teachers were very surprised and pleased with the event. All of us Sanibel parents truly appreciate the fine job done by these teachers—we think you're the greatest!

Saturday morning, Sue Dugan and Bessie Leverette caught 15 beautiful trout up near the fishing pier. Last Thursday morning, the girls caught several really nice trout. You should have seen the men in the area eyeing the catch these gals made! We are beginning to have quite a fishing contest around here.

"We have a very fine group at the Castaways this weekend, some old guests, some new", according to Betty Gardiner, co-owner. "Perhaps the most unusual thing," Betty said, "is that we are getting a wonderful second generation, who are now old enough to come on their own." Cheryl and Gayle Norlin, of Pompano Beach; Bruce Rowdin and Mitchell Honig, of Miami; and David Jos of Cold Springs Harbor, (who will scream at being considered a youngster.)

Jim, driving a 1954 Vincent motorcycle, and Peggy, riding behind him on a Honda, were traveling on the Sanibel-Captiva Road towards Captiva at about 45 m.p.h. over the Memorial Day Weekend.

Being from St. Petersburg and unfamiliar with the local roads, neither were aware of the lumps in the road which are located about 3/4 of a mile up the road towards Captiva. Jim lost control of his bike going over the lumps and landed in the bushes alongside of the road.

Several weeks ago, anyone driving over the lumps saw a small handpainted warning sign saying "Sanibel Heaves," which has since been removed. (The sign, not the lumps.) Too bad, since this accident proves that the lumps in the road are detrimental to unsuspecting motorcyclists.

Jim smashed up his hand, and, Peggy, not knowing where to take him, was unable to help. At that moment, a young driver stopped when he saw the accident and took the couple to the clinic. Outcome: lumps, 1, safety, 0

The Colony's out of state guests this week include: Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Calhoun of Lanham, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Underwood, Jr. and family of Killen, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Price also of Killen, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Winnetka, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Hellmuth Herrmann of Jamaica, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Walker of Decatur, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Priest of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. James D. Harding and family of Arlington, Texas.

The Colony's Florida guests this week include: Ms. Betty Bavier and party of Hollywood, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Strassner and family of Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davidson of Orange Park; Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Patterson of Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evans of Floral City; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck and family also of Floral City; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Federowic of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeSauza of Ft. Lauderdale; and Mr. and Mrs. John Maguire of Miami with their family.

New fence

Stan Baumann, who is building Blind Pass Condominiums on Bowman's Beach Road, and Carol Quillinan, who lives at the end of Bowman's Beach Road, have come to an agreement to replace the barbed wire fence along the walkway to the footbridge. It was felt by both parties that barbed wire is detrimental to the public and therefore it will be replaced.

Let's take some time to consider the sinkers you use. The right sinker will get your bait down to where the fish are. They come in a variety of shapes designed for a specific job.

All kinds of sinkers come in many different weights. I will start with the lightest style and work up to the heavier ones.

The split-shot is a very small piece of lead with a split opening which only needs a squeeze with a plier to secure it on your line.

The clinch-on is shaped like a small torpedo. It has a groove running the length with tabs on each end. To attach the clinch-on, put your line in the groove and pinch tabs over with pliers. Also pinch the groove to prevent the sinker from slipping.

Similar to the clinch-on is the rubbercore which has a rubber center. Twist the ends to hold the sinker on your line.

One of the most versatile sinkers is the Eggsinker. It is rounded at each end with a hole going through the center and comes in various weights.

It's usually a good idea to leave sinkers natural and unobtrusive. They can also be used as fish attractors. Bottom feeding fish, such as flounder are drawn by brightly painted sinkers. Red or yellow are the best colors.

Next week look for more information on sinkers.

Last week I thought I'd join all the fishermen at Blind Pass Bridge. I got there around 10:00 p.m. to find the fishermen elbow to elbow. There was a lot of snook being caught and, of course, a lot of happy people. I was shocked to see many of these fishermen all of a sudden turn greedy. Yes, they were catching more than the daily limit of 4 snook per person.

Besides the unsportsmen-like fishing, I saw an awful littered fishing area. Once beautiful and clean, now full of dirty beer and soda cans. Please don't spoil the enjoyment and relaxation of your fellow angler and obey the Florida Game-fishing laws. And by all means—No Littering! This will make for wonderful fishing year after year.

It's rainy season!

It rained five days out of seven during the past week, according to Mario Hutton, who is kind enough to keep a running (raining?) score for the ISLANDER.

On the 21st, his rain gauge measured .6 inches, on the 22nd, .3, 24th, 1.2, 25th, .2 and on the 26th .4. That brings the past week's total (as of Monday evening), to 2.7 inches with a total for May so far being 4.6.

If this keeps up, somebody's going to have to airlift the glades deer out again. Things never seem to level out around here—whatever it is, we either don't have enough of it, or we have too much.

And our water bed sprung a leak, too. So there!

No ordinance

The vegetation commi met last Wednesday in a last ditch effort to put together an ordinance regulating the protection of vegetation. However, there was no quorum and no action was taken.

by ginni

This has been, to put it mildly, quite a week—what with getting deadlines mixed up, and everybody in the world except us (boo hoo) on vacation AND having three teeth pulled, well, we just can't say that everything's coming up roses. As a matter of fact, most things haven't been coming up at all, like bright ideas on what to put in newspapers and such.

So—here are three recipes, and none of them need teeth.

First off, the very best breakfast recipe we know. First, take four tall glasses and fill them with ice and stick 'em in the freezer. Then, in a half gallon jug, pour 8 ounces of vodka, 2 medium sized cans of V-8 juice, juice from ½ key lime (or one whole regular lime) salt and pepper to taste, 1 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce and 1 Tbsp. plus 1 tsp. juice from hot cherry or banana peppers (or whatever kind of peppers you happen to have on hand). Put top on jug and shake vigorously. Pour over ice into chilled glasses, and, for the super extra touch, put in a peeled scallion for a stirrer. Serve, but be careful. People have been known to get quite silly on their second or third glass of this stuff, even when you forget (or run out of) the vodka.

If you will note, there are three tricks to this recipe! 1) put the ice in the glass, not the Bloody Mary mixture, 2) using V-8 juice instead of tomato and 3) using pepper juice rather than Tabasco.

And, of course, a word to the wise—enough of the foregoing and you won't care if you have any teeth, let alone a newspaper or two.

The second recipe is for instant vichyssoise, known in some circles as cold potato soup. First off, chill everything, especially the thick mugs you're going to serve this in. Then, take two cans of Campbell's Cream of Potato soup (they used to make it frozen, which was even better, but you know how progress is—the best things are always "improved" right off the shelf) and pour into blender. Then take ½ pint of medium cream and enough half and half to fill both cans and pour those into blender. Add 1 Tbsp. parsley, pepper and a LITTLE salt, since the canned mixture has a tendency to be salty, and a little garlic powder, if you like garlic. Blend till all lumps are gone and chill thoroughly. Serve in pre-chilled mugs and sprinkle either frozen cup-chives or real cut up chives on top.

And, now—the solidest of this week's three recipes. Note—be sure to pick over the crab meat, since those machines they're using these days to package crab meat miss a lot of shells.

HOT CRAB MEAT DIP

- 1 8 oz. pkg. Philadelphia cr. cheese
- 1 Tbsp. milk
- 1—6½ oz. can flaked all white crab meat
- 2 Tbsp. chopped onion
- 1 Tbsp. prepared horseradish
- ¼ tsp. salt
- dash pepper

Blend well, put in a flat casserole dish, spread sliced toasted almonds over the top. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 min.

Don't fence me in!

Well, there's more than one way to lose a public beach. A group of Captiva property owners have gotten together and fenced off what they consider to be their property—and which, we might add, could very well be their property.

As far as we can find out, this action was taken after the public abused the land as a sanitary dumping ground. We're investigating and hope to have more news on this soon. Until then, don't get barbed—you may not be in your rights!

Bowman's Beach condo gets go ahead

Stan Baumann, owner and general contractor of Blind Pass Condominium located at Bowman's Beach Road on Sanibel Island, announced this week that he has closed the mortgage for $1,450,000, which represents construction of the first phase of Blind Pass. The entire project when completed will have a value in excess of $5,000,000. The financing was arranged through Gulf Federal Savings & Loan of Fort Myers. The uniqueness of the financing package is that not only did Gulf Federal issue a construction loan but also a permanent financing commitment for purchasers. Financing arrangements were made through Merlin E. Houck, vice president of Gulf Federal.

Blind Pass will contain 2 and 3 bedroom apartments in the $40,000 to $50,000 price range. The exterior elevations will be Polynesian in design and similar to Caloosa Bayview, another development in Fort Myers owned and developed by Stan Baumann. The uniqueness of this design lends itself to the natural terrain of the densely wooded waterfront location of Blind Pass. Stan Baumann has stated that 74 per cent of the first phase has already been sold out. When completed Blind Pass will have a beach, marina, tennis courts, swimming pool and other recreation facilities.

The majority of sales are from Fort Myers residents, as well as other areas in the state of Florida. Construction is commencing immediately and the anticipated date of completion of the first phase of 42 units is November of this year. Blind Pass is being built as a joint venture between William Broeder of Nationwide Realty and Stan Baumann of Sanibel Condominium Corp.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Please take notice that the Department of Natural Resources, through the Division of Marine Resources, pursuant to Section 161-053, Florida Statutes, will conduct public hearings in Lee County on June 10th and 11th, 1975. The purpose of these public hearings is to take evidence for the establishment of a coastal construction setback line along the sandy beaches of Lee County on the open waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Two public hearings will be conducted for the convenience of the property owners who wish to attend. They are as follows: Boca Grande Community Center, located at 1st and Park Avenue in Boca Grande, beginning at 7:30 p.m., on June 10, 1975; and on June 11, 1975, in the Exhibition Hall-Patio, located on Edwards Drive in Fort Myers, at 7:30 a.m. The same general information will be covered at both meetings and records of both meetings will be made.

Commencing May 19, 1975, copies of aerial photo plans showing the proposed location of the line and beach profiles of the area under consideration, will be on public display and may be seen and reviewed during regular office hours until the time of the public hearing at the following locations: Fort Myers Beach Chamber of Commerce-Estero Boulevard-Fort Myers Beach; Boca Grande Fire Station-South Railroad Avenue-Boca Grande; Sanibel-Captiva Island Chamber of Commerce-Lindgren Boulevard-Sanibel; Lee County Courthouse-Main Floor Lobby-2115 Second-Fort Myers.

Any interested parties may attend and give testimony at these public hearings.

This new Rutenberg Home was created for women who collect designer originals

Everything about this new Rutenberg Home will appeal to today's design conscious woman.

The lines are beautifully classic. The floor plan, outstandingly functional.

And true to the Rutenberg concept, it has a number of features unique to today's luxury home. Take the dining room, for example. It's a room that's often joined with the living room in Florida homes. But not in the Catalina. It's a separate room. Because some women enjoy formal dining occasions.

And for a woman's inherent love of drama, the Catalina has a living room with both a unique design and a sweeping view of the screened lanai and of the optional eight-sided pool. The Catalina's master suite with more than 450 square feet of space has two large walk-in closets, luxurious bath and dressing area. And its own optional private lanai.

Letters to the editor

To The ISLANDER:

DOG ANIMAL INSTINCT STRONGER THAN TENDER LOVING CARE!

This is written as a plea to dog owners who let their dogs wander onto other peoples property.

I lost my little dog May 16th at 5:30 a.m. Apparently he followed the scent of some other animal in my back yard. His world was his own house and yard, therefore all he had on was a flea and tick collar. He's a very timid little dog, scared of air conditioning, fans, and will not eat dog food. He's on a special diet, heart worm pills, plus vitamins bought only at health food stores. He's also a poor rider in cars. This little dog (16 pounds) has been reported missing since Friday, May 16 over the radio stations WINK and WMYR. police have been notified, and posted in business places on the Island, The Chamber of Commerce, Humane Society of Fort Myers, etc.

A poster was placed in the Sanibel P.O., but some individual took it down (I replaced it today). The Chief of Police, Mr. Butler, has been notified of this vandalism! This has led me to believe that someone has picked him up, for he's a friendly and lovable little dog. Please return him to me at once, for he needs a lot of care and due for his yearly shots soon.

To those who walk their dogs on leashes please walk them on your own property or else clean up after them as you go along.

A dog ordinance should be passed in the City of Sanibel, to register all dogs immediately, whether visiting for a short while, or here permanently, and a stiff fine imposed for one failing to do so. Also to not take in or feed any stray animal dog or cat, but call the police department and have them picked up. They in turn bring them to CROW where they get proper care and easier for the owners to retrieve them.

All Vet Clinics have been alerted if my little dog should be brought in for medical attention, to show identification papers as to ownership!

Dated this May 22nd 1975

To the Islander:

If we ever have a beauty contest on Sanibel Island, I would like to nominate for first place, Helen Evans. When we first set foot on these shores a long, long time ago and were looking for a pretty actress, all hands on board said, "ask Helen Evans." And did you know she is owner of Fort Myers Health Store at Bamboo Plaza and there's loads and loads of healthful goodies (incidentally I've never seen quite so many in on spot.). Hats off to Helen Evans!

P.S. She looks like the girl Jume Muench drew to illustrate the poster for the Fashion show.

Around town

Peter Maltese and his delightful wife, Peanute, and their children, Michael and Yvette, all of Atlanta, Georgia, arrived at 4:30 a.m. Friday to spend the Memorial Day weekend on Sanibel.

They left around mid-day on Monday, after discovering that Sanibel does have mosquitoes, but, also, they're glad to say, marvelous shells.

Wanda and Dean Marshall, who are really "up in the air" these days, were quite proud of a letter they received, addressed to, and we quote, "Gauls' Gift Shop, Octavia Island, Florida (near Sanibel Island.)"

"It's a miracle the order got here," commented Wanda "and we think the Post Office deserves some praise." We agree.

In order to reach The Rocks beach, on the west end of Gulf Drive, people have to walk through some pretty wild private property, since there apparently is not a public access at that point.

Several days ago, a prominent Rocks resident came upon a man who had just been bitten by a rattlesnake. The resident went to the nearest phone to call City Hall for help.

When help arrived, the man was nowhere to be found.

The resident, who asked to remain anonymous, said "That's poetic justice; if you trespass you gets what's you deserves." He was referring to the snake bit, not the disappearing act.

Walter and Howe representatives

Fort Myers was host city for last Friday's meeting of the Southwest Florida League of Cities. There are ten cities in the league. Six were represented at the meeting; the others had sent regrets being unable to attend.

The League adopted a $5,000 plus budget and passed by-laws and a charter subject to subsequent ratification of some governing bodies.

Pending the complete formalization of the organization, Mayor Oscar Corbin, prime mover of the league, was requested to serve as interim head of the group. Upon a request to serve as interim executive director of Sanibel, Paul Howe volunteered his services until the adoption of the budget. At that time, a paid part timer person will be retained.

Claire Walter and Paul Howe were designated as Sanibel's representatives to the League at last Tuesday's council meeting.

The next League meeting will be held in July. Southwest Florida legislative delegation will be invited to the July meeting for a get-together.
