Planning commission discusses CLUP, setbacks, etc.

by Carol Quillinan

The Planning Commission heard no respite cases yesterday.

Ed Underhill of the Public Information taskforce explained to the Planning Commission that a 20-page, more or less, summary of the land use plan was being collated for free distribution to those who are interested but that the number of copies had not yet been decided.

Duane White said the copies of the whole plan would be available for $15 this week. He also announced that all of the reviewing agencies had received the plan.

Commissioner LeeRoy Friday reported he was obtaining information regarding swimming pools and the water supply thereto since he personally was interested in putting in a swimming pool at his home and would "feel very guilty" putting in a pool without knowing if there is in fact enough water.

Emily Underhill announced that Judy Carberry was resigning and thanked Judy for doing an outstanding job as planning commission secretary. White concurred and said that a luncheon would be given for Judy at a later date.

Discussion of the Anderson property failed to bring forth the difference between a variance and an amendment. However, the commission felt legal opinion was necessary before making a decision as to whether Anderson can build seaward of the DNR setback line.

Paul Howe, in the audience, suggested that technical expertise be obtained from the beaches and shores division of the State of Florida who stand ready to help with cases concerning the DNR line.

A 200-foot setback from any open body of water for any part of a septic system for all zones except the mangrove zone where septic tanks are not permitted at all has been incorporated into the engineering department. Friday said that it was difficult to accept that pollution was island-wide and that it was a last-minute arbitrary decision to put a 200-foot setback in the plan.

White quoted Tom Missimer, hydrologist, who said that there should be no septic tanks in residential areas. Don Marshall agreed with Friday and mentioned the holding tank principle. White later explained that sewage would be held in fiberglass tanks or concrete tanks for a week, picked up by truck and hauled to a sewage treatment plant. Marshall opted for general sewerage throughout the island. Friday said that the planning commission had given verbal commitments to petitioners that if they met certain criteria, they would be allowed to build, and thought it was unfair to place a 300 or 200-foot restriction at "the last draw." Arthur Hunter, in the audience, said that the thought of "a sewerage system all over the island makes my hair stand on end."

The meeting was adjourned to the wetlands.

Who says they have to be brown?

Public meetings of interest

April 1—8:30 a.m.—City Council Meeting Room; Post, Buckley, Schuh and Jernigan, Engineers, will speak to the council regarding the 201 Federal grant program of funding for publicly-owned sewerage systems.

April 8—8 p.m.—County Commission Meeting Room; Presentation of the Comprehensive Land Use Plan to the Lee County Planning Commission.

April 13—no time given, Tallahassee; Review of the Comprehensive Land Use Plan by William Nungester and Sam Shannon and others to the State Planning Commission.

Around town... by georgie mankin

The Island scene is still a busy one. The shopping center in the center of the island is growing by leaps and bounds. Tahitian Garden is rapidly becoming the largest one and also one of the most interesting. There are many quaint and varied shops along the Pynesian walkway. Take a day or two and "do" the Island shop bit. Many of the values here are better than those in Fort Myers.

The University of South Florida is registering students for the Quarter III session this week and next. Courses in Education, Nursing, Business, and the Social Sciences are being offered on both graduate and undergraduate levels.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Steelman are sunning and fishing for all they're worth. They have "had it" with North Dakota! John says the winter up there has been one of the worst he can remember.

Several students from St. Mary's of the Springs College in Cinn., Ohio, have been swimming, sunning, fishing, and learning how to macrame while on Spring Break from school.

Carl and Roberta Cason are visiting Captiva for a couple of weeks to get away from the miserable spring in Alpena, Mich. (Spring there is always cold—so says my former college room mate who left as soon as she could!)

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bilgeman of Silver Springs, Md., have been sailing and power boat enthusiasts for years—they are in the process of re-locating in Florida and have been checking out the real estate here on Sanibel.

Brenda, Joy, Esther, and Kaye Fields of New Haven, Conn., are enjoying an extended vacation here after touring Disney World and all the sights on the east coast.

Fred and Carla McNeilson of Jackson, Mich., plan to return to Sanibel again this summer and bring their four children. The kids are with Grandpa and Grandma this trip. Pop and Mom are on their second honeymoon.

Hank and Charisse Jones of New York, N.Y., can't wait to show all the shells they've collected to their friends back in N.Y. The interesting thing about their shell collection is that they have put it into art work and several of the most beautiful pieces of jewelry I've ever seen. They have picked up some of their ideas while touring the Philipines and Hawaii, but both of them are extremely talented people.

Have you heard the latest news on Miners Corners? It seems as though the city and county fathers have finally decided that the corner is a wee bit dangerous—just being a bit facitious.) It has to be tantamount to playing Russian roulette to cross that corner during the rush hours. It is also always interesting in fog—we've had much ground fog lately, too. Let's really get some letters of encouragement off to the powers that be to get a traffic light and stop some of the horrendous accidents which occur at that miserable corner!

The Murray family of Seneca, N.Y., has just left Sanibel to return home for an anniversary celebration—their 40th. Many happy returns to you both.

Jill and Carol Krepson of Camden, N. Jersey, are spending a week in the sun—they couldn't find accommodations where they usually stay so asked that I not tell where they are this year.

This week's guests at The Colony include: Dr. Savine R. Weizman of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. Randell Alberts and family of Cincinnati, Oh; Mr. W. R. Patterson and family of Lexington, Ky; Mr. F. L. Bopp and family of Kirkwood, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Ingham of Ligonier, Pa.; Mr. Bruce Rowe and family of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Friedrich J. Weinkopf and family of Kennilworth, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Munschauer of Snyder NY; Mr. Richard Turley and family of Glencoe, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Daniels and family of Antioch, Ill., and Mr. John McCleod of Hatfield, Mass.

Mr. R.E. Foster and party of Agincourt, Ontario; Mr.

Shailer Avery of Exeter, NH; Dr. George Shiflett of Knoxville Tn.; Mrs. Philip Knutzen and family of Newton Sqare, Pa.; Mrs. E.E. Burznski of Watertown, Wi.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ogden of Winnetka, Ill. 60093; and Dr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Warren and family of Appleton, Wi.

Mr. Eugene Mollica and family of Akron, Oh.; Mrs. Robert S. Rogers and family of Winnetka, Ill.; Mr. Manfred Suelflow and family of Beaconsfield, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Burger and family of Chagrin Falls, Oh.; Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey of Hillsdale, N.J.; Mrs. L.G. Gardner of Northbrook, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Dean A. Logan of Bradford, Pa.; Mrs. William W. Weldon of Circleville, Ohio.

The Colony's Florida guests this week: Mr. David Jones of Miami.; Mr. W.C. Ogden and party of St. Petersburg.

Young ladies harbinger the arrival of Spring at Castaways

Pictured are Nancy Netschke (seated), Jean Sherman (standing) Virginia Macali (seated) and Paula Macali and Tina Violhi (in pool) and it isn't even Easter yet! But these lovelies enjoying the pool at Castaways Resort—and are also harbingers of spring, as the generations change with the seasons.

The young ladies are all students at Wittenberg University, a liberal arts school, and decided to come here on the recommendation of one of their group who had visited the Islands before.

They find it "peaceful," "quiet," and "lovely" after a hard winter of studying. When asked why they didn't go to the east coast (made famous by "Where The Boys Are") they emphatically said "TOO crowded!" (Not shown, but also with the group, are Patti Smith and Jane Meese.)

Musical therapist charms PTA

The members of the Sanibel-Captiva Parent Teachers Association were charmed at their last meeting by Vera Moretti whose presentation of musical therapy provided an insightful description of its importance. For most of her adult life Mrs. Moretti has used music therapy at state institutions in the treatment of severely handicapped residents who had communication disorders.

Mrs. Moretti explained how music reaches past the silence of isolation and loneliness of the emotionally or neurologically disturbed, which enables them to express their emotions or teaches them how to make sounds leading to communication.

Mrs. Moretti is a winter visitor who resides in the Periwinkle Trailer Park.

The bake sale (which was held Saturday) was discussed and refreshments were served.

Birds of Bay Beach

The area of BAY BEACH is blessed with many varieties of resident and migratory birds ... Waters of the bays, trees of the keys provide foods and shelter, which attract wondrous tropical birds ... water birds, wading birds, shore birds, song birds ... Some nest on the site, most nearly. Some stay all year, others a few days or months - getting sustenance and protection on their way from as far as Canada and South America.

BIRDS WHICH WILL NEST ON THE SITE OR USE IT REGULARLY

Water Birds - Brown Pelican, Sea Gull, Sandpiper, Anhinga, Gallinule, Dunlin
Wading Birds - Roseate Spoonbill, White Ibis, Woodstork, Egrets, Herons
Song Birds - Mockingbird, Cardinal, Woodpecker, Blue-jay, Cuckoo, Blackbird
Birds-of-Prey - Osprey, Red-Shouldered Hawk

BIRDS WHICH WILL USE BAY BEACH SITE PERIODICALLY

Water Birds - Ducks, Scaup, Merganser, Didapper, Coot, Rails, Snipe, Marsh Hen
Shore Birds - Stilt, Killdeer, Spotted Sandpiper
Song Birds - Robin, Wild Canary, Painted Bunting, Catbird, Wren, Warblers, Redstart
Birds-of-Prey - Hawks, Kite, Vultures

Many are spellbinding in the glory of their appearance ... amazing characteristics, fascinating habits as to the food they seek and the way they seek it.

Studying them is an appealing experience and can become a most entertaining hobby. A pair of binoculars, a camera with telephoto lens and a little patience are all you need.

All year long BAY BEACH residents can enjoy viewing the bird life of the area - from the 'bird watch', the 'star watch', their condominium balcony, and on the beach.

Bay Beach Trees -- A Tropical Paradise

"BUT ONLY GOD CAN MAKE A TREE"

The truth of this poetic line can be found daily amid the trees of BAY BEACH ... Beauty beyond belief, characteristics and growth habits beyond imagination ... Four years study and effort have been directed to tropical plant life (trees, shrubs, vines, ground covers) - aiming that one day BAY BEACH become a 'paradise' of soul-stirring tree life.

Much research has sought to discover the adaptability of countless varieties of plant life to the soil, climate and water conditions of BAY BEACH. The results are clear ... BAY BEACH will be spectacularly beautiful and wonderfully interesting.

BAY BEACH'S 'tree gardens' ... now about 200 varieties - many fascinating specimens - exotic (foreign origin) and native - evergreen and deciduous flowering and shade - varied colors and changing colors ... varying fragrances ... fast and slow growing ... tall and short ... edible (bark, fruit, leaves) and not ... woods with varying uses ... varying salt tolerances.

Specimens of most of these 200 varieties can be found in the 'tree-watch' areas at BAY BEACH ... Name-stakes identify them by their quaint 'common names' ... BAY BEACH residents can see them readily ... If observed regularly (month to month and season by season), their growth habits can become an acutely interesting study or hobby.

house sold

The River House, built by contractor James O. Evans and designed by Mrs. Margaret Bushman, has been sold to Irving and Eleanor DeWoskin, of Barnard, Mo., who will be moving in shortly.

That the house was designed by a woman is particularly obvious when one steps into the kitchen... it is a woman's (or perhaps we should say, working) kitchen, but, no doubt about it, so is the whole house. It's warm, comfortable, roomy and says "welcome home" when you step in the front door.

And a "welcome home" to the DeWoskins—we hope they enjoy Island living.

The Robert L. duPonts—Caroline, wife Helen, Elizabeth and Bob—are shown at the Castaways singing "A-fishin' we will go..."

Dr. duPont, the nation's leading drug abuse expert, is a former colleague of Betty Gardiner, co-owner with June Henry of the Resort, having worked with her for several years in Washington, DC. He is presently the director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse in Chevy Chase, MD., and recently made national headlines with his authenticated description of the spread of heroin addiction from city areas into smaller communities.

In his opinion, "drug abuse is not a 'passing fad,' but a serious health problem with which we will have to cope for many years." The recent increase in drug use in the U.S. has been associated with a rise in the combined consumption of alcohol and tobacco among the nation's young people.

Mrs. duPont, a professional writer, is business manager of a national employment and education magazine, "Women's Work."

"We have been looking forward to coming to Sanibel for years," she said. "The Island is much lovelier than we had imagined."

Elizabeth, 10, is particularly entranced to find the ocean right at the front door of her Castaways cottage, and Caroline, 8, is convinced she has found the world's smallest, most perfect shell!

Captiva celebrates

National

Library Week

The Captiva Public Library is celebrating National Library Week (April 4 thru April 10) by declaring an amnesty on ALL overdue books. ANY and all overdue books you may have lurking guiltily in the corners of your home may be returned with pride and honor (and without charge) during this festive week. All is forgiven...they CAN come home again!

The Captiva Library has also just purchased 25 new interesting books from MacIntosh Book Shop for your enjoyment, and hours are Tuesday, 9:30 to Noon, Friday 1:30 to 4 p.m. and Saturday 9:30 to Noon. Stop by and say hello, even if you don't have a book to return.

Chamber "remodeling" opening party yesterday

The Sanibel-Captiva Chamber of Commerce held a Grand Remodeling Opening to celebrate their recent facelift on Monday, March 29 (yesterday) at 4 p.m. Since that's way too late for press time (we're supposed to be OFF the presses by then...ho, ho...we hope to have pictures for you next week.

Chance on a fish tank?

The Art Club of Cypress Middle School is still trying to raise $6,000 for a trip to Mexico...this month by raffling off $1 each chances on a completely equipped 30-gallon aquarium, and holding an art show and sale at the Gallery of the Different Drummer on Fort Myers Beach sometime in early April. Any and all help from you will be appreciated.

First annual Tahitian Garden Merchants' Association

Art Show glowing success

2nd place, by Helene Sparkes

3rd place, Marion Kranichfeld

Dorothy Robinson's 1st place painting

Lots and lots of people visited the first annual art show sponsored by the Tahitian Garden merchants' association last Saturday and Sunday at the new shopping center. Shops which stayed open for the event reported one of the brisker weekends ever, with lots of browsers and buyers, and the artists were quite happy with the results, as they also had a number of sales in the exhibit department, according to Helene Sparkes, show coordinator.

which, they said, was "generally a very competently painted show" "which in the words of a bystander translates as superior."

Fourteen local artists exhibited, and first, second and third place were won by Dorothy Robinson, Helene Sparkes and Marion Kranichfeld.

"It really was a fine show, especially considering it was the first one," commented Helen Sparkes. "For a new idea, a new shopping center, and a first annual, we really had a good turnout."

Gwen Buchanan, Ms. Ken Thomas and Fred Dodson, all of the Naples branch of the Southwest Florida Art Council, judged the show, Next year—bigger and better (of course)!

Navel height art show drew many admirers...

CPOOS hears about water

The Concerned Property Owners of Sanibel met Tuesday night at the Island Beach Club. Guest speaker of the evening was Ted Smallwood, professional engineer from the Naples firm of Black, Crow and Idness.

The firm is now designing the 5 mgd reverse osmosis (RO) plant for Cape Coral with "turn of the century" capabilities of 100 mgd, which may eventually serve 1 to 1½ million people.

Smallwood explained that the RO system was a "fallout" of the space program which necessitated the recycling and purification of water from and for the astronauts, and during the past 10 years or so reverse osmosis had come into its own as a process of purifying brackish water.

Central and South Florida are deficient in ground water supply, he said, much of the water being siphoned off via the river system to recharge the Biscayne Aquifer on the east coast. The formations underlying this coast, the Tampa-Tamiami and Suwannee, have no apparent lack of water, he said. His firm had studied the formations of 160 wells free-flowing at a rate of 500 gallons per minute since 1923, over 50 years.

The Suwannee formation is 900 to 1,000 feet deep on top of which are the Tampa-Tamiami formations at 400 to 780 feet, he continued. All formations are a part of the Hawthorne aquifer. The Florida department of Geology has available detailed analysis of the quality and quantity of water underlying Sanibel and surrounding areas, he said.

Water should be considered a necessity and conserved as one would a good liquor, he said. He mentioned that the total water problem be looked at in context with recycling waste water. St. Petersburg, for instance, recycles its waste water for irrigation purposes, he said.

Ruth Hunter asked what could be done about people who over-use water. Smallwood replied by giving an example of the affluent people of Naples using four times the amount of water per capita than the people of Cape Coral and that the utility should be under city control so that the city would be better able to regulate growth usage and abuses.

Sanibel's water system is an electrodialysis system which is producing water at $2.92 per 1,000. The new Cape Coral RO plant is expected to produce water for $1.00 per 1,000 gallons.

The meeting ended on a light note with the reading of "God and the HEPA."

Police report

Thayer's car left the road in the vicinity of the Legion on the Sanibel Captiva Road and knocked down a Lee County Electrical pole. Florida Highway Patrol took over investigation of the accident.

Seven verbal or written warnings were issued for speeding, one for faulty equipment (on a bicycle), three for noisy motorcycles, one for parking and five for other moving violations.

Twelve things were found and turned into the SPD, ranging from a parakeet to a purse to a pair of checks and two sets of key rings. Seven requests were made for ambulances and or EMT assistance, and 17 calls were made for assistance or special detail, such as calling people off island or escorting other people to or from the bank.

Fifteen sets of campers were located, one of whom was ok and had permission, and 14 groups who were not ok and were either arrested or asked to move on. One of the groups we can only refer to as "conspicuous consumers of camping" since nine people arrived in nine vehicles. (That's REALLY asking for it.)

Oh, and before we get down to the single reports, we're told that we owe an apology to a gentleman we referred to as "bad"—(this information, by the by, did not come us via the SPD)—we shouldn't have, since he had paid what he was accused to of not paying, and was not indeed a hard hearted person who would spend money on potables rather than due debts. Nuff said about that.

Officer was requested to put in appearance at a local watering hole, since proprietor was expecting trouble. Upon sight of officer, everything became 10-4.

Car reported abandoned in parking lot of condo for two days. When re-ort was finally called in, car was GOA (Gone On Arrival).

Report came in of stolen checkbook and cash from camper parked in parking lot.

Call came in that a four foot shark had been seen three feet off shore.

Spouse reported other half missing, possibly in the company of someone else. Both halves reported into SPD that they had found each other and no longer had need of police assistance.

Three bikes reported stolen or strayed, two children's and one adult's.

Young man accused of "hauling up and down" a street with a great deal of noise via anonymous phone call. Turned out young man was off island and in town all day, including time of reported incident.

Call came in that an attempt had been made to break and enter house by cutting screen. Named cutter of screen talked to and cleared of suspicion.

Call came in about an "unpermitted" bonfire on beach. Turned out to have permit; no one had notified dispatch desk of fact, however.

Business door reported open at unusual time. Everything checked ok.

Man reported that a riding mower had been stolen, valued at $475.00.

Abandoned vehicle reported—turned out to belong to uncle of resident, who will take care of it.

$140 camera stolen from locked auto. (PLEASE don't leave valuables in your car, locked or unlocked.

Report came in that a golf cart was immersed in water. Same pulled from water by officer on duty, and owner notified.

Caller requested additional patrol in area, as it was thought "someone" was getting kids to go around ringing other people's doorbells late (after 9 p.m.) at night.

Report that two gentlemen and child were catching butterflies. Nothing wrong with catching and collecting butterflies, but 1:55 a.m. pretty strange time to be doing so on private property of power plant. When investigated, SPD was told the collectors wished to continue collecting for the next three evenings. They were advised to notify the SPD of each collecting tour upon setting out for same.

Anonymous call came in that car had been seen with sea oats inside it. Car GOA.

Pickup truck reported trespassing and releasing "four or five" back packers in beach area. GOA.

Officer on duty helped pull disabled vehicle which had been stuck in sand.

Tides courtesy of Priscilla Murphy, Realtor, Inc.

Conversion table: The above tides are for the lighthouse point of Sanibel only. To convert for Redfish Pass (north tip of Captiva), add 55 minutes to the time shown for every hi tide, and subtract two (2) minutes for every low tide. (NO, we don't know why, but it works. Instructions following are even less sense-sical but, as we stated, they do work.)

For Captiva Island, Gulf side, subtract 30 minutes from each high tide, and subtract 1 hour and 16 minutes for each low tide.

For Captiva Island, Pine Island Sound (bay) side, add 1 hour and four (4) minutes for each high tide, and add 52 minutes for each low tide.

In between these points on gulf or bay --- guesstimate --- and have good fishing and - or shelling.

Shell club meeting

by Bill Von Eiff

The St. Patrick's Day meeting of the Sanibel-Captiva Shell Club was opened by the president, Fae Muller, who was presented with a plaque for her six years of services as President of the Shell Club. The Club received a plaque for the fine work it performed at the Fair. The plaque was presented by the President of the Civic Association and Cookie Dugger. Chairman of the 1976 Shell Fair.

The nominating committee presented the new slate of officers: Anne Joffe, President; Beryl Gough, 1st vice president; Jim Gough, 2nd vice president; Ginger Von Eiff, recording secretary; Fae Muller, corresponding secretary; Mary Radford, treasurer; Bill Von Eiff, publicity; Betty Johnson, hospitality chairman; Mildred Campbell, co-chairman; committee members, Pat Kair and Evelyn Piggott.

The directors of the club are Bill Von Eiff, Fae Muller and Harry Kair.

The speaker of the evening was Lt. Col. Corinne Edwards, who gave a very inspiring talk on her shelling trip to Australia and showed her collection of shells that she found there.

Nearly 100 members and guests enjoyed the talk and the refreshments which included Irish cookies with "the wearing of the green."

police reports

police reports start on page 14

First sting ray of the season reported stinging someone. Remember, when you're in the water, SHUFFLE, don't prance and stamp about. The only reason they sting you is because it meakes them uncomfortable when a foot comes down in the middle of their backs.

Motorcycle reported stolen. Story then gets confused.

Private car drove through private property (not same private) to park near beach. Owner and family located, asked to move out and were warned they'd get a ticket if caught again.

Fire reported at 5:02, under control at 5:10, out at 5:15.

Report came in of screaming on beach. Sounds of a man and woman fighting also reported.

Everything 10-4 on investigation.

A loudmouth report came in when two males (whose length of hair may have been connected to the mouth bone) were badmouthing motel owners. GOA, UTL.

Two people, obviously (according to caller) with too much to drink, gave store manager "a bad time." GOA, UTL.

Motel owner called; was worried about youngish guest who, allegedly under the influence of alcohol, left motel "in a bad mood" to go to Tampa.

Alcohol flowing in all directions—in this particular case, down the throat of driver who decided to park car so it would block traffic. Same arrested for disorderly intoxication and resisting without violence.

Two people reported missing as they hadn't been seen for two days and were supposed to have met with caller the day before. They returned.

Irish setter lost and then found, four days after St. Patrick's day.

Man claimed he was assaulted by another man. LCSO handled complaint.

Officer on patrol found baby locked in closed car in parking lot. Officer released same unharmed. (Leaving babies, young children and/or pets in locked closed cars is a very dangerous thing to do in this climate, and can be fatal in a matter of minutes. For instance, if you leave one small dog in a car with one window open about two inches, the heat in the car will rise within five minutes to a temperature high enough to dehydrate and kill the pet within 20 minutes, so PLEASE be careful with your pets and especially your family.)

Complaint came in that unoccupied apartment was being trespassed in and asked for occasional check of premises to make sure everything's ok.

Alligator reported on Periwinkle; original report stated that reptile wasn't particularly comforting, seeing as it was close to picnic tables, but that it "was no threat to traffic." Alligator GOA, UTL.

Suspicious auto got stuck in sand in place where it had not business being, according to caller. Auto removed by wrecker.

Girl came in with dog, allegedly shot by unknown person during the night.

Two reports came in of attempted B & E's on a boat, one of them apparently partly successful, as gas tank was reported missing.

Motorcycle stolen.

Two missing window panes reported in place of business.

Bearded individual reported driving large van and using siren to pass people. When talked to by officer, driver said a burglar alarm on his van goes off occasionally and that he was not aware the alarm had gone off again.

Coast Guard reported man reported boat awash near causeway. Boat secured and man's wallet recovered from water.

Complaint came in that car parked in front of business overnight was there because the ignition broke in the lock and car would be removed in the a.m.

Suspicious vehicles reported in wee hours of morning. Vehicle had a flat tire, no lug wrench and four young persons. Advised young persons of county curfew.

Unlocked car entered during night; radio knows and three tapes stolen; tape deck on seat.

Builders reported making noise at 6:30 a.m.

Parts of two way radio stolen from auto, plus controller and mike unit.

Concerned citizen called in that conversation had been overheard in bar about possible B & E. at one of two places of business that night. Two officers gave special attention to both locations during the night.

Anonymous caller reported that a "noisy boat was netting fish in a canal." Fish were mullet, and fishermen promised to be more quiet.

Suspicious noises reported around shopping center in wee hours.

Speaking of shopping, that alarm went off a total of 24 times since last we counted, triggered by air conditioner, phone, moving vehicles and so forth.

Car with U-Haul it trailer ran toll booth (didn't pay entry fee) and was GOA, UTL.

Complainant stated he had left South American shoulder bag containing beach stuff on beach.

Maryknoll Sisters visit Islands to say "Thanks!"

Two members of the Maryknoll Sisters, Sr. Rose of Lima and Sr. Agnus Christine journeyed to Sanibel this past weekend to thank the people on Sanibel and Captiva for their help and contributions following the earthquake disaster in Guatemala recently. They visited Ruth and Philip Hunter.

Sister Rose, a bright 72 years young, has been helping people for almost half a century as a member of the Maryknoll Order of Sisters. She had worked in China for 11 years, when World War II came along, and she became a prisoner of war, fortunately only for six months, which must have seemed an eternity. She was finally released as an exchange prisoner and was one of 1,500 passengers returning home on the "Gripsholm," which normally carried 800 passengers.

She recalls her fellow passengers as being from all walks of life—ambassadors to beachcombers—and said she will never forget the thrill of sailing into New York harbor, with all aboard singing a new song (new at that time, of course) 'God Bless America.'

The two Sisters are part of an order with 1,066 members, who work together here and in 21 foreign countries to give help where and when it is needed, be it an emergency such as the earthquake or a permanent medical mission, such as the new Maryknoll hospital with all the latest medical amenities in the Philippines.

Both Sisters really wanted Islanders to know how much their help was appreciated.

Letters to the ISLANDER

To The ISLANDER:

This is a letter from the concerned parents of children and animals who live and walk on Donax St. We think it is time something is done about the Donax St. traffic. You see, last week a raccoon and two very dear family cats were killed. Our reason for mentioning this is because that anyone of those animals could have been one of our children as they were not killed at night, but in broad daylight.

We would like to make a couple of suggestions to the city and other concerned people. First the matter of the afternoon bus stop which is now at the intersection of Periwinkle Way and Donax St. At approximately 3 p.m. every weekday there is a traffic jam between parents waiting to pick up their children and other passing traffic. There have been some pretty close calls of children being hit as we have seen cars go around the bus after it was stopped and had the red flashing lights on.

One of our suggestions is that the bus stop be changed to a quieter place on Donax St. such as behind the Sewage Treatment plants green shed where the morning bus stop now is.

Next, we would like to suggest a type of bumper across the road in two or three places, such as near the bus stop (after it's location is changed) and one at each end of Donax Village to slow the traffic down. We're talking about the type such as used in trailer parks and other residential areas. We realize our police force isn't large enough to control this situation and the traffic on Donax varies from 40 mph to 60 mph. At that speed a car couldn't stop in time. This stream of traffic goes on day and night. Also we have witnessed a car passing another car that was going the proper speed of 30 mph.

You see our children and animals are geared to a slower and more peaceful atmosphere (after all that's what this Island is known for) so they tend to be less cautious than if they were in a big city.

We would like to see this matter tended to with the utmost urgency as one day it may be too late and some child will be hurt or killed. Losing an animal can really hurt, but to lose one of our children would be like losing our life.

If the City of Sanibel feels that it would be too costly to finance bumper guards we the parents would like permission that if we collected the money for this project they would allow them to be put in the street. Traffic must be slowed down now!

There is one fact we would like mentioned and that is that there are signs on the Island protecting the birds, the bike path, etc. Other than the school area where are the signs that say "SCHOOL BUS STOP" or "SLOW CHILDREN CORSSING?"

Respectfully: Concerned Parents
Ms. Gay Elder, Ms. Janet Hall, Ms. Connie Rogers, Mrs. Thomas J. Kendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Atkins, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Weinberg, Elaine Zlobl, Raymond Stidham, Avery and Jill Daugherty

To the ISLANDER:

In reference to Mr. Campbell's letter in the March 12 Reporter concerning the Weaver King's Crown shell collection in the Sanibel Fair, I have this to say in rebuttal.

I have been gathering King's Crown shells, both for my collection and for sale, for over three years. There is no shortage of these shells because I know of bayous, sloughs and back bay areas where there are so many of them they don't have enough natural food to eat and they have turned cannibalistic, eating each other. Their natural food consists of other sea shells, oysters, clams, dead crabs and fish.

Now, if Mr. Campbell is so concerned about the welfare of these King's Crown shells and thinks the few I take are going to make them become extinct, I have this suggestion to make. How about helping me gather up about 100 bushels of coquinas, oysters, clams and dead blue claw crabs to help feed these underprivileged shells?

I have the feeling that Mr. Campbell is like a fellow I once knew, "He not only don't know nuthin' but he don't even suspect nuthin'." Let him drag his gators around by the tail and I'll collect my shells.

Peggy Weaver
Sanibel

A copy of the following letter was submitted to The ISLANDER for publication:

To: Patrolman Lew Phillips

Please accept this letter of commendation for your actions in saving the life of Mrs. Elizabeth Rushing, age 65, 183 East Main Street, Rochester, N.Y.

As you know, the woman had choked on a piece of meat while dining, and had stopped breathing. The closest medical help was ten minutes away, responding to another emergency.

Your quick response and professional manner in using the "Heimlick Maneuver" to dislodge the obstruction from the victim's throat reflects credit upon yourself and the department.

Review of Jordan Davidson's "Of Men and Dreams"

By Carol Quillinan

"Sometimes poignant and yearning, often ending optimistically, Jordan Davidson's poetry speaks of needs and desires common to all people." Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbuilt wrote of Davidson's new volume of poetry, "Of Men and Dreams."

The volume was made possible through the generosity of fourteen individuals as a benefit for WPBT, Channel 2, Community Television Foundation of South Florida, Inc.

Of man, Davidson writes of enigma, paradox, quest and dreaming. Animals, opera, war and "words born of compassion" fill the flower-bordered pages of the gold and blue volume.

"I am one with the rain, and the beasts of the plain;
The birds on the wing, and the songs that they sing;
The grass of the field, and the earth's autumn yield-
These are all part of me, from the hills to the sea.

"I am beggar and Lord, and I know the reward
Of a smile from a friend, and peace at day's end;
I am teacher and taught, and the wild creatures caught
In the flood of the streams; I am dreamer and dream.

"I am flower and seed, and every man's need
For a place in the sun-in me all things are one.
From the West to the East I am greatest and least;
I am sinner and sage, and life's unwritten page.

"I am fearless and bold, I am child-like and old,
And the bones that are mine have an ancient design;
But the beat of my heart is a day-by-day art,
And the words that I fashion are born of compassion."

Vivian Laramore Rader, Poet Laureate of Florida writes, "This is a brief profile of a man whom I treasure: it gives only a glimpse of the man, but his book will reveal his deep concern for mankind, the maturity of his perception and the twinkling humour of his lighter moments."

"And the poet," Davidson writes in the Forward, "as he gazes with his mind's eyes over the playgrounds and campfires of little people and big people, with their naive beliefs, brutal impulses, impetuous darings, fantastic successes and pathetic frustrations, is the memory and the conscience of the world."

"Look to the Weed"

"There's something in the lowly, wanton weed,
Germinating from its errant seed,
Which makes 'tenacity' the only name
That fits this mongrel nature cannot tame.

"Uncounted aeons, striving to efface
The impish one who heads Survival's Race,
Have failed to check the urgency of birth
That triumphs over scorched or frozen earth.

"This spry intruder roots in cracks and ruts
Displaying what is commonly termed 'guts',
Determination, stamina, and grit-
While spineless man would crawl away and quit.

"Each self-contented mortal prates of power
And wears the crown an undetermined hour,
But when his towers topple, with great speed
He emulates the wisdom of the weed."

Most Islanders will remember Jordan Davidson more for his recent plea to the city council to allow his gift of beachfront lands to the Florida International University not to be down-zoned than for his poetry. (The lands were given as an investment for the University so that proceeds from the sale thereof could be spent on student programs at home and abroad.)

However, after reading the volume of poems, it is readily apparent that Davidson's brief interlude as politician is not his forte, but that his words reign supreme in spinning a dream.

We the People

of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

AMENDMENT XVI

Income taxes authorized

(Proposed by Congress July 12, 1909; ratification completed Feb. 3, 1913.)

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever sources derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

AMENDMENT XVII

United States Senators to be elected by direct popular vote.

(Proposed by Congress May 13, 1912; ratification completed Apr. 8, 1913.)

1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislatures.

2. When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the Legislature of any State may empower the Executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the Legislature may direct.

3. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

AMENDMENT XVIII

Liquor prohibition amendment

(Proposed by Congress Dec. 18, 1917; ratification completed Jan. 16, 1919. Repealed by Amendment XXI, effective Dec. 5, 1933.)

1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the Legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

The total vote in the Senates of the various States was 1,310 for, 237 against—84.6 per cent dry. In the lower houses of the States the vote was 3,782 for, 1,035 against—78.5 per cent dry.

(The amendment ultimately was adopted by all the States except Connecticut and Rhode Island.)

AMENDMENT XIX

Giving nationwide suffrage to women

AMENDMENT XX

Terms of President and Vice President to begin on Jan. 20; those of senators, representatives, Jan. 3.

(Proposed by Congress Mar. 2, 1932; ratification completed Jan. 23, 1933.)

1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3rd day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3rd day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.
5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article (Oct., 1933.)

6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

AMENDMENT XXI

Repeal of Amendment XVIII

(Proposed by Congress Feb. 20, 1933; ratification completed Dec. 5, 1933.)

1. The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

2. The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or Possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

Bonita Glenn Awes Audience At Community House

Sparkling black-eyed, brown-skinned beauty Bonita Glenn charmed music lovers who attended the last in the Sanibel Music Series sponsored by the Song of the Sea. Saturday evening at the Sanibel Community House.

Miss Glenn was accompanied on the piano by Donal Nold, who has performed worldwide as both accompanist and soloist. Pages were turned by the helpful hands of Arlene Myers.

The world-renown operatic soprano sang of love, the forest, liberty, lullabies and poems from a selection of work by composers Scarlatti, Strauss and Joaquin Turina.

The audience was held spell-bound while she sang a spinechilling song written especially for her by Margaret Garwood about a psychotic who ended her days in the silence of asylum.

The concert was held at the Sanibel Community House. During the introduction, Mike Peceri said that the Berlin String quartet and other performers had spoken highly of the Community building as 'one of the finest halls in which they had performed.' He said that the building was acoustically alive and so it was that each pure tone of Miss Glenn's voice and each word of each song was clearly understood and enjoyed.

What In The World Is Interval Ownership? And What's It Doing On Sanibel Island?

Put very simply, interval ownership is owning a vacation home part-time. There's lots more to it, actually, and we get into that inside. But basically it's owning your vacation home for just the amount of time you can profitably and pleasurably use.

As for what it's doing on Sanibel Island, interval ownership is very probably going to be your vacation salvation in the coming years. This is because interval ownership costs are so low and the cost of vacations is so high. And going higher every year. Frankly speaking, the costs of owning a nice vacation home or apartment on the beach on Sanibel Island are astronomical. And the financial ability of 99.4% of the American public precludes ever owning a vacation home here. Add to the basic purchase costs of a second home, the price of travel, food, etc. and you're into the king's ransom category. Then, add the interest you'd have to pay on the vacation home. An example: you buy a two bedroom condo on the beach for $75,000 (about average today) you mortgage it at 8<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>%, and presto; you wind up paying around $150,000, including interest.

And for that kind of money you use the vacation home for a couple of weeks each year, and try and get some money back by putting it on the rental market while you're gone.

Avoiding that kind of nonsense is what interval ownership is all about. Beats rent, too, because rent is forever. Everytime you come to Sanibel Island as a renter the biggest bundle of your vacation cash goes into rent rather than fun. And the rents keep going up, too. In the last 20 years vacation home rentals have soared 300%. What you paid $150 a week for in 1955, you pay $450 today. And lord knows if inflation continues, a week's vacation on Sanibel will cost over $1,000 per week within a few years.

Avoiding that kind of nonsense is what interval ownership is all about, too. We Americans should learn to live within our means. We can adopt a philosophy that will continue to provide home ownership, mobility and leisure time activity. Economically that philosophy must contain smaller cars, smaller homes, and the sharing of costs—like vacation costs as the Europeans have been doing for years.

Interval ownership of your vacation home on Sanibel Island is a great place to start, if you haven't already. There are details inside.

Additional answers to the FRONT PAGE QUESTIONS

We've established the premise for you. You can, through interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club, take a vacation on Sanibel Island one week every year for the rest of your life for as little as $900. No fooling, $900. And you pay that amount just once in your lifetime. You can do this because you buy your Sanibel Beach Club apartment on the beach like you would any other condominium, but you buy only as much time as you can use. Let's say a week. Or two weeks. Or even a month or more. Let's face it, neither you nor we can afford to vacation 52 weeks a year. Why, then, should we buy and be responsible for a vacation house for 52 weeks every year. Doesn't it make more sense to own just the amount you can use? Darned right!

What's happening here is that you're sharing the cost of owning and maintaining a beachfront vacation home with some other nice families who are as practical as you are. And while you're sharing the cost of purchase and upkeep with some other folks, you're also nipping the inflation factor right in the bud. Once you own your share of that vacation home on Sanibel Beach Club, you never have to pay for it again. And you never have to pay rent again. Almost all your vacation budget can be used for food and fun and other pleasure pursuits, rather than for shelter.

How long has this been going on?

Quite some time, actually. You know how we Americans are... a great idea comes along and we think we invented it. But the canny Europeans have been vacationing in the "time sharing" and interval ownership mode for years and years. While Sanibel Beach Club is truly unique to the island, it is not the pioneer in interval ownership vacation homes.

Le Club Hotel in Europe was the first, and those practical Europeans discovered the way to insure quality vacations at assured prices in perpetuity. Interval Ownership. We in the States have simply improved on their concept with our own ingenuity and love for leisure time.

Various methods of Interval Ownership are being marketed all over the United States today. Here's a list of a few of the more prominent and successful resorts here and some overseas:

All Seasons Condominiums Lake Ozard, Missouri	Innsbrook Village Ruidoso, New Mexico	Manga Beach Costa Blanca, Spain
Caribbean Harbour Club St. Thomas, Virgin Islands	Stone Creek Anderson, S.C.	The Ranch at Roaring Fork Carbondale, Colorado

Sanibel Beach Club<sup>SM</sup>

An Interval Ownership Condominium Resort.

What Sanibel Beach Club is really like.

Sanibel Beach Club, in a nutshell, is Southwest Florida's most unique beachfront resort. It is comprised of some 6½ acres directly on the world-famous shelling beach on Sanibel Island. This miniature community will house families in a style of luxury that will establish new precedents in the State. The holiday apartments themselves consist of two-bedroom, two-bath apartments in excess of 1,200 square feet, completely and luxuriously furnished and equipped with everything from large and small appliances, color television, phones, right down to the china and linens. Even bestselling books, magazine subscriptions and daily papers are included in each apartment, along with popular games such as backgammon and parcheesi.

Outside, the vacation community will include a swimming pool, scenic lake, tennis courts and lush tropical landscaping. On the beach, you'll find sailboats for your use, and owners will have bicycles for personal transportation. Each owner will also enjoy membership in the Dunes Golf and Country Club on Sanibel Island while they are occupying their apartment.

What about maintenance?

Like any other condominium, Sanibel Beach Club requires a maintenance fee. But unlike any other condominium, it is very, very low. To be more specific, your maintenance at Sanibel Beach Club will be $60 each year for every week you own. If you buy two weeks, you'll get a bill for $120 every year—sixty bucks for each week. And that covers nearly everything. You'll find a complete maintenance breakdown in later pages.

There's also a $5 per diem for each day that you occupy your Sanibel Beach Club apartment. This fee covers the water and electricity you and your family will use plus cleaning services and cleaning supplies.

Now take a good, hard look at those maintenance fees and the per diem again. Compare them to any rent you'd have to pay for a luxury, beachfront vacation apartment. Nobody, but nobody can come close to Sanibel Beach Club's low price. And if it ever goes up, you'll be the one who decides to raise it because maintenance fees and the per diem will be controlled by the Sanibel Beach Club Association, and you'll be a member.

Remember, you're not only sharing the purchase price of a beachfront vacation apartment with other families...you're sharing the cost of the upkeep, as well.

How much does it cost?

That depends. It depends on which apartment you select. On which season you'll wish to vacation in and how long you'll wish to occupy your Sanibel Beach Club apartment each year.

A complete price and unit/week availability chart can be obtained by writing Sanibel Beach Club, 626 Nerita Street, Sanibel Island, Florida 33957; or by phoning us at (813) 472-1545; or better yet by dropping by. But the chart below will give you a good idea of the cost factors in your interval ownership apartment. Remember, these prices are your TOTAL COST. Aside from your annual maintenance fee of $60 per week purchased and the $5 per diem during occupancy... This is all you will ever pay!

Winter .....	$3,000-$4,300
Summer .....	$1,200-$2,300
Spring or Fall .....	$ 900-$1,500

These prices are per unit-week. You may, of course, purchase as many weeks as you wish, either sprinkled around the year, or subject to availability—consecutive weeks.

MORE QUESTIONS and answers!

What if I can't come to Sanibel during the week or weeks that I bought?

We thought of that. There will be quite a few owners here at Sanibel Beach Club who will share your situation. And for that reason Sanibel Beach Club will maintain a central system to help you swap weeks with other owners who for some reason cannot occupy their apartment during their specific time period. This is a common and very successful practice at other interval ownership resorts around the world. Although your Sanibel Beach Club is for a specific week or weeks, we know that your vacation dates may vary from year to year. Ours does, too. So, for that very reason we've made these exchange provisions to overcome the problem.

What if I can't take a vacation at all some year? What then?

Why not let a friend or perhaps some relative use your Sanibel Beach Club vacation that year? Or maybe you'd like to rent it to someone. In that case you can rent it yourself or list it for rent with any broker or rental agency. They'll take care of the whole thing for you. And remember, you'll never have to worry about getting your apartment ready for a renter or for your own family either. Your Sanibel Beach Club management takes care of all of that and the clean-up details, when they leave, as well.

Suppose I want to vacation somewhere else some year?

Here's another very important and exciting bit of vacation flexibility that comes with your ownership at Sanibel Beach Club. As an owner you automatically become a member of Interval International Incorporated, an international vacation home exchange association. Part of your purchase price at Sanibel Beach Club covers the first annual dues of $15 for you and your family in Interval International Incorporated. (Your membership in the succeeding years will be at your own option—still just $15 per year.)

Membership in Interval International Incorporated gives you literally the world as a vacation spot, for Interval International Incorporated has member resorts similar to Sanibel Beach Club in such diverse spots as Colorado, Mexico, Florida Keys, South Carolina...all over. And to you, your membership means simply this: some year you may choose not to vacation on Sanibel at all. In that case you simply put your Sanibel Beach Club apartment in Interval International Incorporated's time/space bank for your week or weeks for that year and select another vacation resort from their availabilities. Let's say in Arizona. Or the Smokies or perhaps New Hampshire. Your exchange fee will be $10 (either by check, Master Charge or BankAmericard) and they'll find the accommodations and time period you're looking for. Your own interval at Sanibel Beach Club will be placed in their "inventory" and exchanged to someone like you who's looking for a new spot to vacation that year. You see that your interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club literally opens up a whole new world of resort vacations for you for ridiculously low costs. And contrary to some people's initial reaction to ownership of a specific time period at Sanibel Beach Club, interval ownership does not "tie you down" to a vacation at the same time and the same place year after year. Truly, interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club offers more flexibility at inflation beating prices than any other plan we've ever heard of.

How do I pay for interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club?

To make purchasing and interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club as easy as possible and as flexible and responsive to individual requirements as possible, we have devised a number of different purchase plans.

You may pay cash for your week or weeks at Sanibel Beach Club and earn a substantial discount. An additional discount can be earned by purchasing more than one week regardless of whether or not the weeks are consecutive. Conceivably, the purchaser who buys more than one week at Sanibel Beach Club and elects to pay cash for them could earn enough discount to buy several additional weeks without paying a nickel for them.

If required, financing can be arranged, depending on the purchaser's financial qualifications.

What day and when does my week begin? When does it end?

Check in time is always at 3 PM on a Saturday afternoon. Check out time is 10 in the morning on Saturday. That will give your management plenty of time to make sure your apartment is sparkling clean, that the lightbulbs are all fresh and that everything's in perfect order for your vacation. So your vacation runs from Saturday to Saturday... one or more weeks in a row.

When do I pay my $5 per diem?

You pay your per diem as you check-in at the beginning of your vacation. If you're going to stay a week, you simply give the management $35. A lowly sawbuck for each day you plan to stay.

How many people can come with me to Sanibel Beach Club?

Your vacation apartment is designed, furnished and equipped to be a comfortable, even luxurious, vacation home for six vacationers. See the next pages for more details.

What do we do about meals?

Your apartment is complete in every respect, including a modern thoroughly equipped kitchen. Local markets are well stocked with familiar foods plus some island exotica so your shopping should be a one time affair. Also, there are plenty of excellent restaurants on the island for dining out.

What will I need to bring?

You're going to need your toothbrush, some casual vacation clothes and a readiness to relax. Actually, you could arrive with nothing. You can buy everything you need right here on Sanibel, and Sanibel Beach Club management will operate a Rent-it Shop where you can rent things like extra bikes, fishing gear and tennis racquets during your vacation. In other words, bring as much or as little as you like.

What about the recreation facilities?

Sanibel Beach Club was planned, built and furnished for Interval Ownership.

Sanibel Beach Club has been developed from the ground up as an interval ownership condominium resort.

Sanibel Beach Club is being developed by Casuarina Corporation whose president is a well-known Sanibel Island resident and Developer, Keith Trowbridge. In the past Trowbridge has developed three other residential communities on Sanibel, including Donax Village, where he resides with his wife Pat and two sons Mike and David. He also built Conquina Beach, located immediately adjacent to Sanibel Beach Club and Villa Sanibel, located just off Gulfshore Drive.

Prior to beginning the development of Sanibel Beach Club, Keith Trowbridge visited literally dozens of time sharing resorts in the U.S. and participated in the first annual Time Sharing conference in Washington D.C. this winter. Accompanied by Sanibel Beach Club's Director of Marketing and Advertising, John U. Hill, who has successfully marketed other time sharing resorts, Trowbridge studied every aspect of the other resorts.

"We learned from their mistakes and learned even more from their successes," said Trowbridge. "Sanibel Beach Club will embody the best of all of the other operations."

The white stuff just beyond the front door of the first building at Sanibel Beach Club is not snow.

Inside your holiday home

Your holiday home at Sanibel Beach Club is yours and your family to move into and enjoy.

Your kitchen will be completely equipped. In the kitchen you'll find a complete set of pots, pans and cooking utensils are stored in handsome kitchen cabinets you'll find a coffee maker, toasters, presses, cheeseboards, even a tropical coffee maker. In the laundry room you'll find a modern automatic washer and dryer for your groceries, so shopping for your holiday home is a breeze.

In your living room—which is carefully furnished and has a double-bed for extra guests. On the coffee table you'll find a copy of TIME MAGAZINE, FORBES AND WOMAN'S DAY. In the living room you'll find a bridge sets and scoring pads, a chess set and several popular games.

On your comfortable screened balcony or porch you'll enjoy an extra breeze on those rare days that the Gulf breeze is just what you need.

The color television set in your holiday home is yours. You'll find an AM/FM stereo, a phone to keep you in touch with the outside world.

One bedroom features a luxurious king-size bed with complementary furnishings, especially selected for your holiday home.

All in all, you'll find your holiday home at Sanibel Beach Club as well equipped as you would have done yourself.

Coyote seen on Sanibel.

"John Hill is a total maverick," says Keith Trowbridge of his marketing director. "He is the Wiley Coyote of the advertising and marketing business," says Trowbridge, referring to the antagonist in the popular Roadrunner cartoon, "only John nearly always catches the Roadrunner. He teeters on the brink of advertising disaster most of the time, then suddenly all the pieces fall together and, pow, you're in business."

Hill, a native of Lee County owns his own advertising and marketing communications agency in Miami. "A few years ago, before I moved to Sanibel, I was Assistant to the President of Florida International University, and we were building and filling a major university from the ground up. If I had known John Hill lived just a few miles from me then, and if I could have harnessed him into our work there, we could have been out of there six months earlier," says Trowbridge. "Instead I met John after I moved over and started Coquina Beach and Villa Sanibel. He did all the advertising and sales promotion for both of my first projects here on the Island."

Hill's family came to the area before roads were even cut to Fort Myers. The family first arrived by schooner and river boat to the town. And John Hill has camped on and enjoyed Sanibel and Captiva Islands since he was a child.

He was a graduate of the Choate School in Connecticut and attended the University of Virginia before stumbling into the advertising business, and since then has created Award winning advertising for such diverse accounts as National Airlines, Volkswagen, Black Ceasars, The Jim Walter Corporation and Dade Division of American Hospital Supplies. Sanibel residents and visitors get a small dose of John Hill each time they read the menu at Scotty's Pub, perennially one of the most popular eateries on Sanibel.

"What I'd like to do with this guy is put him in an upholstered room and just catch the ideas as they poured out of a slot in the door," says Trowbridge. "But first you have to stir him up, and when he's stirred up, he's too hard to catch. I'm just glad we've got him."

This is the basic layout of each vacation apartment at Sanibel Beach Club. All apartments have vaulted open beamed ceilings and clear skylighting.

The whole idea is relaxation and recreation—a vacation—not a responsibility.

Ownership—interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club differs from owning a vacation condominium or a vacation home in a number of ways. Perhaps the most important way is that you are freed from normal ownership responsibilities. Not to mention drudgeries. You spend no time “opening up” each vacation. You never worry about “closing up” when you leave, either. You don’t have to mend, paint, sweep, weed the garden, have the electricity or water turned on or off or worry about your ownership responsibilities when you are not there. Management does it all for you. Everything’s always ready—all the time. Everything’s taken care of. All you have to do is vacation. Relax. Spend your time and your money on vacation things. Not rent or housekeeping.

The Sanibel Beach Club.

completely furnished and equipped luxury beachfront home ready for you. You need only your toothbrush, a few holiday clothes and some groceries. Starting with a big frost-free fridge with automatic icemaker. In the kitchen, you’ll find fine china, silver and glassware serving for eight. A full complement of dishes and silverware in your kitchen, along with such things as corkscrews, garlic press, and a variety of island recipes. Tucked away by your kitchen is a convenient storage area for your vacation gear. You’ll also find plenty of storage for your vacation gear. It’ll only be a one-time affair.

usly furnished and decorated—you’ll find a lovely sofa that converts into a bed. You’ll also find current issues of TIME, THE AUDUBON SOCIETY magazine, and the daily newspaper. Check in a couple of drawers and you’ll find a checkers board, monopoly, parcheesi, backgammon and children’s games.

a wall switch will turn on an old-fashioned ceiling fan to stir up an air conditioner to provide you with a refreshing breeze.

connected to a coaxial cable, bringing in all the network and local television channels. You’ll fill your home and days with news and music and there’s also an antenna in the outside world.

ed, while the second bedroom has twin beds and comfortable furniture for your tropical holiday home.

Sanibel Beach Club as completely, thoughtfully furnished, decorated and equipped. It’ll be even a little more complete and thorough.

Note the ceiling fan on the screened porch or balcony. Upstairs there’s a private screened lanai off one bedroom.

Your Sanibel Beach Club sailboats are beached right beside the shell cleaning station and the freshwater shower. All of these amenities get a real workout on a typical Sanibel Island vacation.

Recreation at Sanibel Beach Club what it’s all about.

An Interval Ownership Condominium Resort—that’s Sanibel Beach Club completely, but with the accent on resort.

Recreation and resort amenities are the primary aspects of interval ownership at Sanibel Beach Club—inside and out. “Sanibel is a resort Island,” says Keith Trowbridge, “and Sanibel Beach Club will bring vacationers the finest, most pleasurable and relaxing vacation on the Island.”

Outside you begin with the sun and the Gulf of Mexico with its world-famous beach just outside the door of your apartment. You add the wildlife sanctuaries, the boating, the swimming, the fishing and the magnificent and totally unique scenery, and most people would say you have enough for anyone. Not at Sanibel Beach Club. In addition, you’ll have tennis courts, and a magnificent swimming pool, and bicycles, and your own sailboats, and membership in the Dunes Golf and Country Club. You’ll have Sanibel Beach Club’s spacious landscaped grounds, dotted with gas-fired barbecue grills, and shell and fish cleaning stations near the beach to prepare and preserve your treasures. And in the immediate future you’ll have a recreation park devoted to such games as handball, basketball, platform tennis and the like.

Inside your own apartment you’ll find diversions supplied by color television, AM/FM stereo, and a closetfull of games such as backgammon, bridge, parcheesi, and a variety of popular children’s games.

Yes, recreation is a way of life on Sanibel Island, and it’s being especially refined and developed at Sanibel Beach Club. Because here every effort has been made to remove the day-to-day cares and trivial workaday burdens from you and your family.

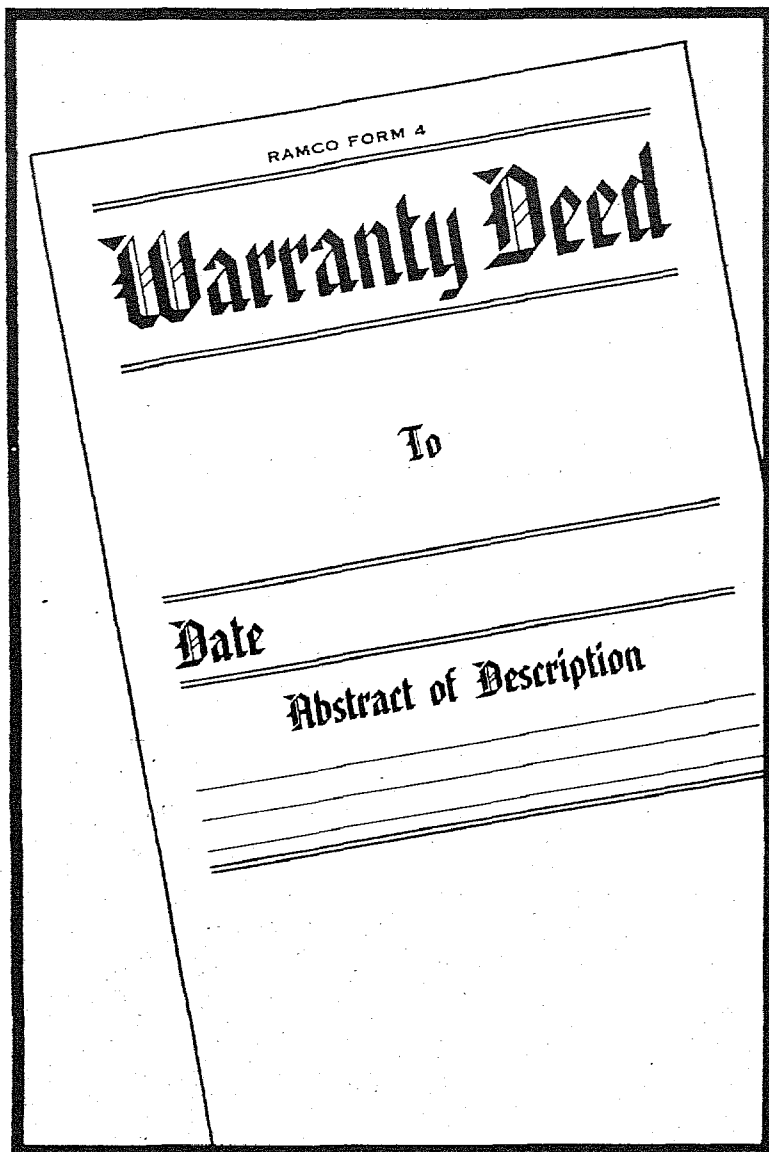

And truly, if you think about it for a moment, interval ownership is the way to achieve these resort facilities and amenities at such low prices. Comparable resort facilities are economically unfeasible at any common condominium or cottage colony, and they cost a king’s ransom at the really fine resorts in the world.

But they’re yours at Sanibel Beach Club for as little as $900.

Something for everyone from Sanibel Beach Club

One week in solitary with someone you love — every year for the rest of your life — $900.

This is a reproduction of a Warranty Deed. This is the legal evidence you'll have of your ownership at Sanibel Beach Club. Although you won't have the worry and responsibility of property ownership, you will be the owner of real property. And, incidentally you can sell it. Rent it Or leave it to your children some day in the future.

What's in a name?

Sanibel Beach Club, an Interval Ownership Condominium Resort. It truly says it all, doesn't it? This resort is on the world famous beach on Sanibel Island. The facilities and amenities will be as superb as any club you'll find on this coast. It is a condominium, but you own your apartment in time intervals. A condominium concept within a time frame. Do you have a better name?

Your maintenance costs at Sanibel Beach Club are minimal.

Like any condominium, Sanibel Beach Club does have maintenance costs which will be shared equally by all the individual owners, pro-rated on the amount of time each owns. There the similarity between Sanibel Beach Club and other condominiums ends! The Sanibel Beach Club maintenance fee is just $60 for each week owned. It will increase only if you, as an owner and part of the Association decide it's necessary. Below is a breakdown of the maintenance fee:

Annual maintenance fee per week purchased
Management .....	$ 7.50
Maintenance of Grounds, etc. ....	8.50
Electricity .....	8.50
Water/Sewer .....	2.50
Refuse Removal .....	1.00
Real Estate Taxes .....	16.00
Replacement and Repair .....	11.00
Insurance .....	5.00
TOTAL .....	$60.00 Per Year

Your $5 per diem paid only when you occupy your apartment covers the cost of the extra electricity and water consumed when the apartment is in use, and it covers the cost of cleaning the unit and the cleaning supplies.

The magic man from Michigan.

"Two or three of the brightest spots in my life happened in the early '60's," says Keith Trowbridge, developer of Sanibel Beach Club. "I was graduated from Bowling Green University as President of the Student Body and Male Student of the Year. And I met Chuck Leonard."

"Actually, in 1963 I had entered Graduate School at Bowling Green and was on the staff of the University's development and building program when I heard this brilliant presentation on Student Housing developed by independent business. It was Chuck Leonard's presentation. We met and we've been fast friends ever since."

This is Trowbridge's way of introducing Charles Leonard of Ann Arbor, Michigan, an independent businessman who has been in the design and development end of the construction business for nearly thirty years.

"Chuck is truly remarkable. A genius. In his own low-key way he produces the most incredible solutions to knotty design problems and then has the knowledge and experience to implement them," continues Trowbridge on one of his favorite subjects. "Since I met him, I've never embarked on a major project without consulting Chuck Leonard. And usually he's right here by my side at the outset of everything. There's no way I would have started Sanibel Beach Club without Chuck being here."

Chuck Leonard has designed, implemented and expedited practically all of Sanibel Beach Club's initial sales promotion and recreation facilities, on-site, ably assisted by his wife, Korby, a commercial artist and designer herself.

"Being around Keith, when he cranks one of these things up is my idea of a real vacation. I get really charged up, and go back to my own business in Michigan, ready to rip. When I come to Sanibel it's not to lie around in the sun. I come to get my batteries charged, and boy, being involved with a concept like the Sanibel Beach Club will sure do that," says Chuck Leonard. Then he shifts his cigar to the other side of his smile and walks away to supervise the erection of Sanibel Beach Club's colorful new site sign.

WHO BUILT THIS?

and who made it terrific and beautiful?

Architect, Barry Sugerman and Keith Trowbridge, Developer.

Landscape Architect, George Causey and Keith Trowbridge.

Construction President, Bill Ashwell and Keith.

Decorator, Mary Lou Maddox and you guessed it.

Landscape architect replaces the originals at Sanibel Beach Club.

George Causey ASLA and award winning landscape architect is one of a half dozen talented artists responsible for the beauty and function of Sanibel Beach Club.

Causey, a graduate of the University of Illinois and the only professional landscape architect in Lee County has practiced his artistic profession here for over 15 years. The results are gratifying to everyone who lives or visits in this area. And the Florida Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects have even bestowed the coveted Award of Excellence on George Causey for the work completed at Periwinkle Place Shopping Center, right here on Sanibel Island.

Keith Trowbridge, developer of Sanibel Beach Club said, "I've worked with George Causey several times in the past. He was the landscape architect for my own Coquina Beach, Villa Sanibel and Donax Village. Take a look at them, and you'll see why there could be no one else good enough to do Sanibel Beach Club. We insist on the best here, and George Causey's the best there is."

Causey's initial job was to develop the landscaping and the first of Sanibel Beach Club's buildings. "This is a particularly tricky area to landscape," said Causey. "First of all Keith insists on mature plants and trees, and they must be native to the area. Then, on top of that, everything I plant here must be salt resistant and must require a minimum of maintenance."

George Causey has met the developer's criteria and exceeded them beautifully at Sanibel Beach Club. Fully mature coconut palms gracefully shade the new apartment structure. The newly laid sod is of a variety that can resist the salt laden breezes that sweep in from the Gulf of Mexico as can the Seagrapes and other local flora dot the grounds. Practically overnight George Causey has transformed a sandspur patch by the beach into a lovely island setting, filled with indigenous trees and shrubs.

"This is just the first step," says Causey. "We've got quite a few more acres to go, and I'm looking forward to it. Sanibel Beach Club is an exciting concept. Bought here myself, so you can be sure the landscaping is going to be as good as I can make it." And that's very good, indeed.

Sanibel Beach Club architecture blends with the island—naturally.

"I love winners...crazy about 'em. I enjoy working with them and being around them, because I firmly believe that excellence and enthusiasm is contagious." This is how Sanibel Beach Club developer Keith Trowbridge explains the selection of Barry Sugerman AIA, a native Floridian, as architect for Sanibel Beach Club.

"Barry and I worked together on Coquina Beach and Villa Sanibel, and I like to think they're two of the nicest, most liveable island properties anywhere. Certainly the sales records indicate that they are. And when Barry can design island homes like those two projects, he's a natural for Sanibel Beach Club."

Barry Sugerman is, indeed, a natural with the sense of unobtrusive design that is particularly in harmony with the natural beauty of Sanibel Island. And Sugerman's mania for natural building materials like wood and stone is equalled only by his insistence on residential design that blends into the environment rather than contrasting with it.

And the North Miami, Florida, architect is indeed a winner, a winner of many coveted awards...two from the NATIONAL SWIMMING POOL INSTITUTE and a 1975 HONOR DESIGN AWARD FSC AIA. Sugerman's designs have also been honored in such publications as The Villagers Book of Outstanding Homes of Miami; Architectural Record and the prestigious Florida Architecture, among others.

"Working with Keith is always rewarding," said Barry Sugerman. "He has even more love and insight for Sanibel Island than I, and we work together very well, especially in the exterior design portions."

"As you can see, I lean heavily on natural finished woods for exteriors, especially here on Sanibel Island. Properly done, wood trim and fences tend to diminish the visual size of the building and they help to blend it into the landscape. Vast expanses of painted concrete or stucco are totally out of place and unacceptable on Sanibel, so I went to great lengths to eliminate them at Sanibel Beach Club."

"The interior work was particularly challenging," continued Sugerman. "They had to have a blend and balance between a vacation place and a permanent home and still contain a functional maintenance discipline, so that they could be utilized by a number of families. I believe we've achieved that."

"The proof of Barry Sugerman's capability in meeting all these design challenges has come in sales," said Trowbridge. "We've sold over half the first building to all sorts of families including Barry's. They range from couples to big families with three and four kids. Just give Barry the problem and a free hand, and he goes to work. And he's backed up by 13 top professionals in his own architectural firm in Miami, so things really happen in a hurry with Barry Sugerman. Turn him loose. Get him excited and enthusiastic and turn him loose. Barry Sugerman will deliver a winner every time, because he's a winner."

Quality is the trademark of Sanibel Beach Club's builder.

Bill Ashwell, President of Construction Managers, Inc. has been building beautiful buildings for a quarter of a century. His latest triumph was the completion of the first of Sanibel Beach Club's buildings.

Building projects completed by CMI are immediately recognizable even by the uninitiated, by one readily apparent trademark—quality. You can see it in Sanibel's Mariner Pointe Condominium complex and Periwinkle Place Shopping Plaza. On Captiva you need only look at South Seas Cluster Houses, Motel and Cabins and the new Ten-Unit Lodge to see quality in every detail of materials and, especially, craftsmanship.

Bill Ashwell tackled the construction of Sanibel Beach Club with typical enthusiasm. "Working on a job like this with Keith Trowbridge is a very gratifying experience," said Ashwell. "He insists on the best of everything...materials, fixtures, the works...and that's the way we like to work. Sure it costs a little more. A lot more. But the end result is something you can be really proud of and something the people you buy here can be proud to own. I bought here myself."

"I guess Keith would drive a shortcut construction outfit around the bend in twenty minutes," Ashwell continued. "He's everywhere on the jobsite every day. Peeking here. Peeking around there. But we get along. We're both looking for the same thing. The best. And together, we built it."

Furnishing and decorating for Interval Ownership—it's a whole new ball game.

"Imagine decorating and furnishing a two-bedroom, two-bath beachfront vacation apartment on Sanibel so it looks and feels like a beautiful home, knowing all the while that the apartment will be used every day year 'round. That's quite a challenge."

That statement came from pretty, blonde Mary Lou Maddox, co-owner and operator along with Jerry Klassen of THE INTERIOR, a local furnishing and decorating firm. Mary Lou, Jerry and THE INTERIOR were selected by developer Keith Trowbridge to complete the difficult assignment of furnishing and decorating the apartments at Sanibel Beach Club. "This was a tough job, but I've worked with Mary Lou and Jerry before, and they produce," said Trowbridge. "They can produce outstanding interiors under great stress and many disciplines, and Sanibel Beach Club really has the disciplines. After all," he continued, "they didn't just select furniture and wall accessories. They had to produce a ready-to-live-in home, complete with linens, china, glassware, even games. And they had to do it so that it would appeal to everyone. What's more, it had to be easy to clean and maintain; and replacement furnishings had to be instantly available."

As a result of these disciplines, Mary Lou Maddox and her partner Jerry Klassen have tuned to a subsidiary of THE INTERIOR—MK. II UNLIMITED and are custom-designing and manufacturing much of the furniture that will grace each apartment at Sanibel Beach Club.

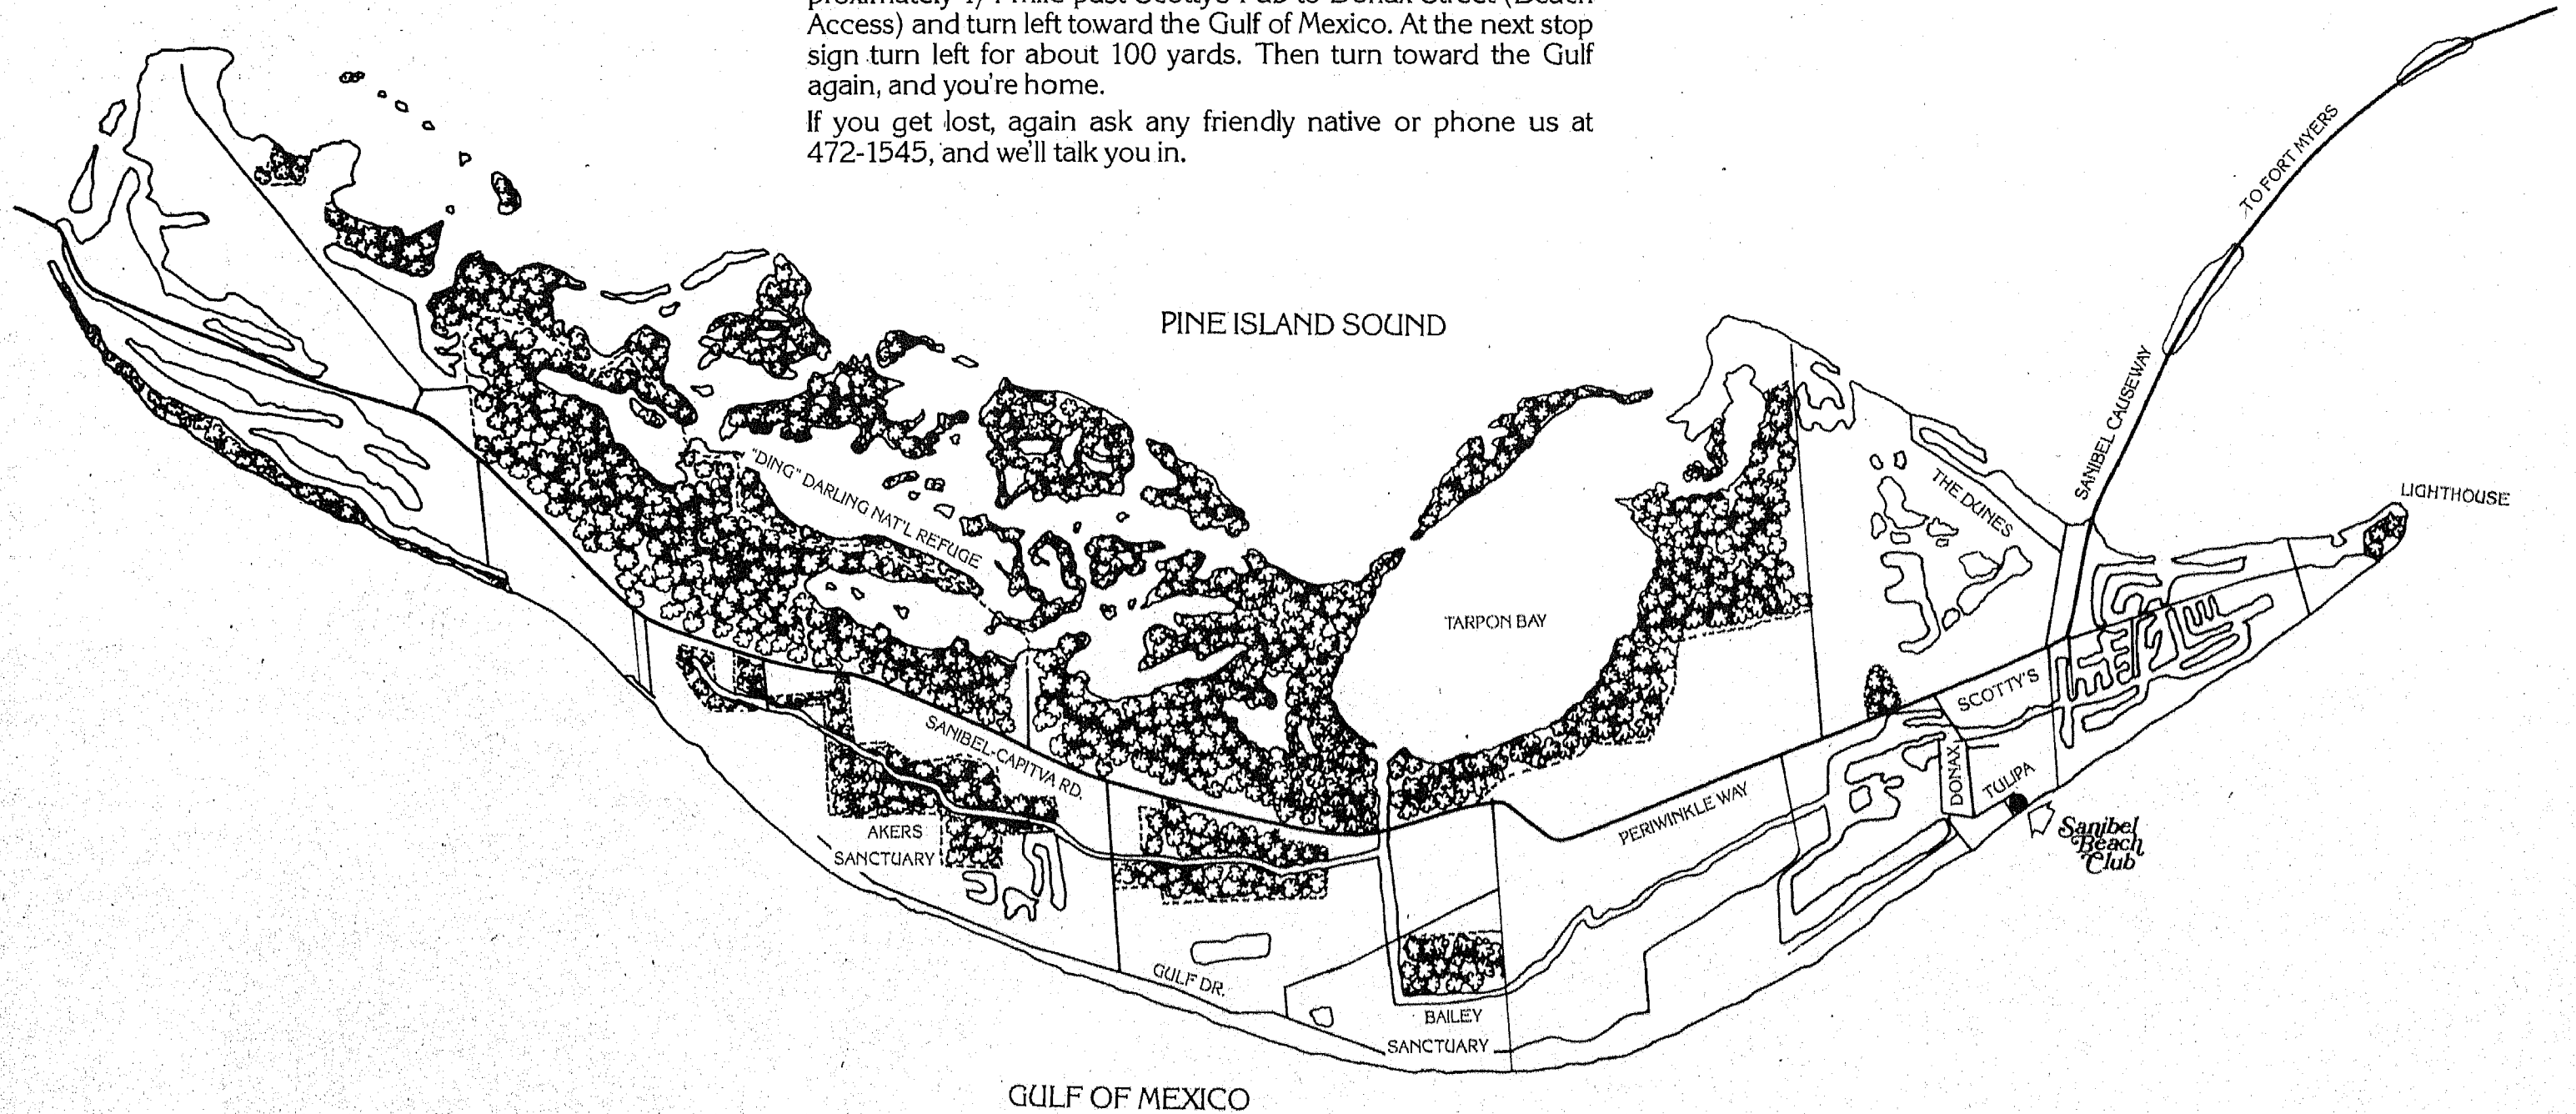

THE INTERIOR has furnished and decorated numerous apartments and homes on Sanibel Island, always with the aim of producing comfort and durability while maintaining an "island influence." Have they done it at the Sanibel Beach Club?

"You bet your sweet life they have," says developer Keith Trowbridge. "They've even charmed themselves. And Mary Lou owns several weeks in late spring!"

Sanibel Beach Club— Where it is and how to get here.

If you're on the island, ask any friendly native. If you're elsewhere, drive to Sanibel Island. After crossing the causeway turn right at the first stop sign. You will be on Periwinkle Way. Proceed approximately 1/4 mile past Scotty's Pub to Donax Street (Beach Access) and turn left toward the Gulf of Mexico. At the next stop sign turn left for about 100 yards. Then turn toward the Gulf again, and you're home.

If you get lost, again ask any friendly native or phone us at 472-1545, and we'll talk you in.
