Sports Contests Spark Final Days of Summer Play Program

Various sports contests and tournaments were the major center of action last week as some 500 children wound up their next to last week of summer play activities at the city's five playgrounds.

In keeping with sports week, the ninth week at Lincoln playground included a variety of games and tournaments, particularly croquet and horseshoe pitching.

Winner of the croquet tournament was Mark Wedman in the nine-years and under class. Second and third place went to Bernard Fitzgerald and Mike Fitzerald, respectively.

Girl winners were Kathy Traynor, Margurite Guadagno and Joan Schlissel. Paul Ryan was first among boys ten years and older with Ruddy Frantzen and Allan White next in line. The prizes for this contest and for several other contests conducted throughout the summer were ice cream cones donated by the Strand Snack Shop.

In the horseshoe doubles the team of Greg Odjakjian and John Carbone bested all challengers while the winner in the singles match for ages eight to ten was Mike Fitzgerald with Barbara Schlissel runner-up. The singles tournament for older boys is still in progress.

Girls' Softball Gaining

Softball continued to be among the most popular activities at Lincoln for both boys and girls. In the regular league for boys 12 years and under, the team closed out the current season with a narrow 7-5 win over Edison. Paul Ryan went all the way for the win.

Although the younger boys wound up the season with three wins against five losses, the older boys, 13 and up, compiled a record of four wins and two losses. The team was comprised of B. Pohkoff, Wynn Allen, Tucker Minnella, Pete Tombros, John Carbone, Greg Odjakjian, Bill Ruggerio, Lee Clark, Skip Caine, and Mike and Fred Martin. The team beat every playground once with the exception of Memorial.

With the aid of Coach Margaret Ennis, the Lincoln girls engaged in several softball games, usually combining with other playgrounds in order to field a full team. Kathy Traynor, Judy Minnella, Joan Schlissel and the three Walker sisters, Olga, Edna and Gwenn were among the most active participants.

Arts and crafts at Lincoln last week centered around the popular lanyards, necklaces and bracelets made by both boys and girls from such odds and ends as macaroni, paint and shellac. Other work revolved about painting stones for paperweights. For their contribution to the arts and crafts program, Paul Ryan, Kathy Graffi and Dave Richardson have been selected as first, second and third prize winners respectively. Paul was also cited for aiding Mrs. Helen Chesler with her arts and crafts display which has been exhibited both at Summit Hardware and the library.

Plans this week call for a playground carnival and barbecue, a visiting day at Memorial Field which will feature a quiz show, a girls' softball game and dodgeball for boys five to nine.

Baby Show at Edison

Heading the list of activities at Edison during the ninth week of activities was the annual baby show.

Ralph Bosley, 23½ months old, won a blue ribbon for being the oldest baby entered. Sandy Lepore entered Ralph, while Sandy's sister Pris brought Gina Mia Marshie who won a ribbon for having the least amount of hair. Johanna Mereski had the brightest baby, Celeste Dietrich, while Judy Ginocchio brought Johanna's sister Cindy, selected as the most dressy infant.

Allana Barbato had her brother Michael who was chosen as the baby with the biggest and brownest eyes. Named "lady" of the show was Brenda Dietrich, entered by Noreen Anthony, while Ricky Lynch, brought by Debbie Anthony and Judy Shedlak, was chosen as "gentleman" of the proceedings. Laureen Taylor, entered by Peggy Jones had the most unusual eyes and the tiniest baby was Janet MacDonnell, brought by Phyllis MacDonnell. Ricky Chesler had two entries with Lorraine Down winning the title of having the curliest hair and her brother Matthew copping the most athletic title. Dennis and Sharon O'Brien had their brother, Keven, who was the youngest baby, six weeks old.

In the basketball foul shooting contest, John Riola and Anthony Marcantonio took first place while Frank Anthony came in third. Special mention goes to Sal Scuitier who topped all records.

Borough Resident To Head County Heart Fund Drive

Bertrand Abbazia of 64 Oakwood avenue, New Providence has been named as Union County chairman for the 1958 Heart Fund drive, it was announced this week. He has served as New Providence Borough chairman in the drives in 1955, 1956 and 1957.

Mr. Abbazia is currently serving his second year as a member of the executive board and board of trustees of the Union County Heart Association.

He has been interested in the Heart Fund since 1952 when he served as plastic hearts chairman here. In 1953 he was treasurer in the community drive. The drive is confined to the month of February.

Mr. Abbazia is a graduate of Chatham High School and received his bachelor of science degree in business management at Seton Hall University, South Orange. During World War 2, he served in the U.S. Navy. He is proprietor of Done-Well Cleaners on South street.

A Boro resident eighth years, he has participated in many other fund drives including the recent one for Overlook Hospital. He is married and has two daughters, Linda, 5 and Lora, 4.

Parched Gardens Perk-Up After 1.25-inch Rain

Parched gardens and thirsty trees were given a respite on Sunday when nearly 1.25 inches of welcome rain was dumped on the Summit Area.

Although the fall was far from a record for any one day, it was the highest amount of rain to fall in the area since late June.

The downpour, which was accompanied by a lightning and thunderstorm late in the day, did no damage, according to the Fire Department. Except for a few minor power failures which lasted from five to ten minutes in some sections of New Providence, mechanical difficulties stayed at a mimimum.

At times the rain hit deluge proportions and except for large masses of mud washed into the street in the Druid Hill section of the city, no cases of flooding or back-up sewers were reported.

According to Thomas W. Coleman of Commonwealth Water, Sunday's rain succeeded in retarding the amount of water pumped for the day. As this time of year is known as the "low ebb" season because many residents are away and pumping is at a minimum, the next two weeks will tell whether or not the current drought will necessitate any water curbs.

Mr. Coleman added that in 1953 and 1955, described as "severe drought years," Commonwealth always met "its pumping load."

Schools Allowed To Drop Bids on Food Purchases

Under a new ruling passed recently by the State Department of Education, Summit as well as other school boards will not be required in the future to advertise for bids for the purchase of school cafeteria food supplies.

In the past all foodstuffs were purchased by the Board of Education through bids obtained from advertising.

According to Walter S. Eddy, secretary of the Board of Education, the school board is now allowed to appoint an official food purchaser who will be responsible for obtaining prices for all food products. The State Department of Education fixes food supplies as anything that is eaten or drunk or is used in the preparation of food.

The new law also states that food purchases up to $100 may be made by the school board without obtaining quotations providing competitive prices connot be acquired.

Mr. Eddy said the new policy requires that food supplies on which quotations are obtained must be purchased from a vendor giving the lowest price, unless the school board can prove to the State Department of Education that purchase of supplies for a higher price was contingent on quality and service.

In the event that quotations for any food supplies in the amount of $100 or less cannot be obtained, the new policy states, the school board must then file a statement with the State Board giving reasons why no quotation was available.

However, Mr. Eddy said that in some instances, the Board of Education will continue to advertise for bids for such foodstuffs as ice cream, milk and bread, or on any other food supplies where competitive bids would be beneficial.

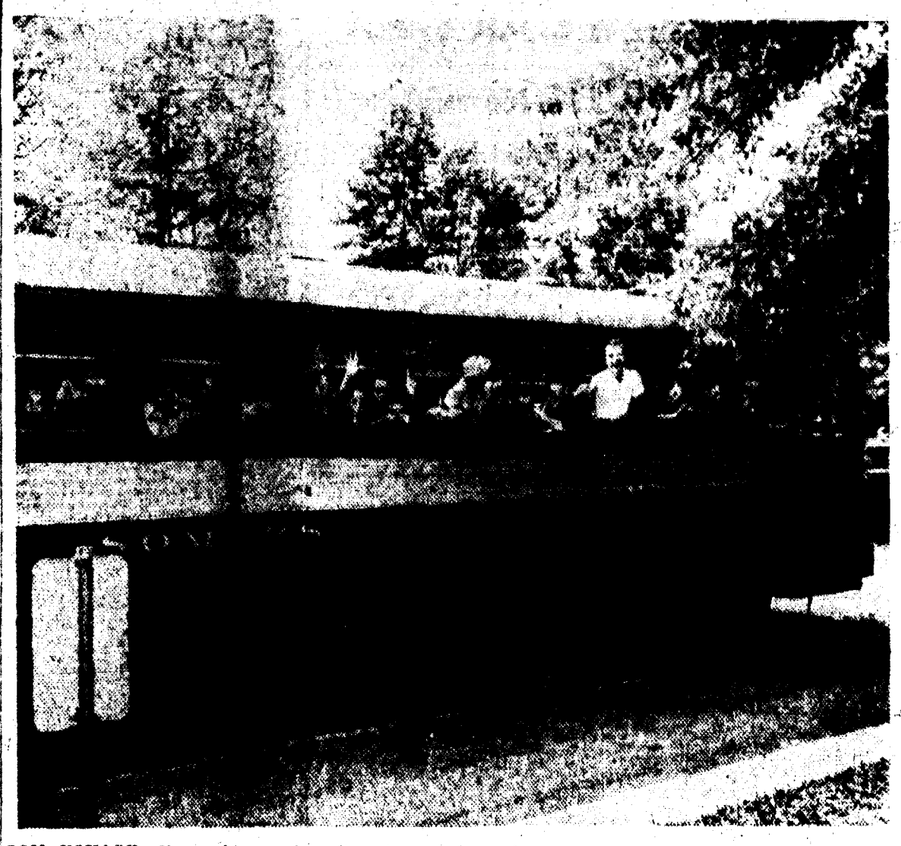

At present five schools in the city have cafeterias, the senior and junior high school, Lincoln school, Washington school, Roosevelt school, Franklin school and the soon to be finished Jefferson school cafeteria.

The new state policy will go into effect when schools open next month.

School X-Ray Dates Set

Chest X-raying of all local high school students and school personnel will be given by the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League, Inc., on December 6, it was announced this week.

The portable X-ray equipment will screen New Providence teachers on December 5 and will be at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School from November 13 to 15.

BON VOYAGE—Clear skies and mellow breezes were all that were needed last Thursday to send the youthful baseball enthusiasts shown above packing off to the Polo Grounds where the New York Giants took on the Chicago Cubs. The annual outing, sponsored by the Board of Recreation's summer playground program, was attended by 129 boys and seven supervisors. Although all brought their lunch, hot dogs, peanuts and soda pop headed the afternoon snack for many. Much to the glee of the local fans, the Giants turned back the invaders from Chicago 7-2. Pair of Mishaps Over 2-Day Span Injure 2 Drivers

Two persons were taken to Overlook Hospital for treatment of injuries last week following a pair of auto accidents here during a two-day span.

The first mishap occurred last Wednesday night on Ashland road when John C. Koch, Jr., of 235 Ashland road was injured after his car rammed another driven by Mary A. Reinheimer of 149 Ashland road. Mr. Koch was treated at the hospital for a cut forehead and bruises about the face. Mrs. Reinheimer was uninjured.

According to police the accident occurred when Mrs. Reinheimer attempted to make a right turn into her driveway and Mr. Koch, who was following her on the street, failed to stop. He told police that when he tried to halt his car, the brakes would not hold. Both cars, which were badly damaged, were going west at the time of the accident.

Says Car Cut Her Off

In the second collision, which occurred on Friday, Mrs. C. Stansbury of Vaux Hall, was injured when the car she was driving jumped the curb at Morris Turnpike and struck the Passaic River bridge.

Mrs. Stansbury told police she lost control of her car when another vehicle, as yet unidentified, cut her off. She was taken to Overlook Hospital by the Chatham Rescue Squad who reported the accident to Summit Police.

Mrs. Stansbury described the car which cut her off as being new and bearing New York license plates. Her own car suffered severe damage to the front end.

City All-Stars Beat Industrials 7-2 at Memorial

A first inning double from the bat of Johnny Pecca which accounted for two runs was all the push needed for the City Leaguers to trounce the Industrial Leaguers 7-2 during the annual all-star game last Wednesday at Memorial Field.

In the second the City Leaguers increased their margin to three runs, with Davenport coming through with a double to score Mallon from first base. In the third frame the City continued to increase their victory margin, with Johnny Fimia belting a home run.

Industrials Surge Back

The Industrial League All-Stars broke the ice in the fourth inning, with Nally, Aptacy, and Laauser hitting successive doubles after two outs, scoring their only runs of the game. In the sixth inning, the City All-Stars scored two runs on two singles, followed by two sacrifice fly-outs.

Davenport went all the way on mound, although the fourth inning surge by the Industrial Leaguers almost upset the winner's composure.

No Pedestrian Deaths in '56 Earn Award

Out of a field of 1,650 cities, Summit was chosen this week to receive the AAA award for no pedestrian deaths in traffic accidents during 1956. The citation was presented to Chief Edward K. Egan, at police headquarters, by Matthew J. Bolger, of the Foundation for Safety, Inc.

In presenting the award, Mr. Bolger noted that the real award to the city was in pedestrian lives saved and the human suffering thus averted.

"Almost every pedestrian accident," Mr. Bolger added, "results in serious injury or death. This makes it essential to place greater emphasis each year on pedestrian protection activities."

Mr. Bolger said both pedestrians and drivers were responsible for the decrease in pedestrian fatalities.

However, four persons were killed and 61 injured in Summit in 1956 as a result of auto accidents.

This amount of deaths was twice as many as occurred in 1955, when two were reported.

During the same year there were 17 pedestrian injuries, as compared to eight in 1955.

Salk Shots for 4,563 Residents Give City Polio-Free Summer

Mass inoculation of children with Salk anti-polio serum last year is credited with having Summit come through the present season with no reportable cases of the disease, according to the annual report of the Board of Health submitted this month to Mayor C. Philip Dean and the Common Council.

Last year the Board of Health provided free polio shots to a total of 4,563 Summit children and expectant mothers. In 1955 the city had seven cases of paralytic polio and last year only two mild, non-paralytic cases were reported. So far this season none have been reported.

The public health picture for Summit in 1956 was remarkably good, according to the report, although there was an outbreak of measles that hit 497 residents as compared with 255 who came down with measles in 1955.

The city had only two whooping cough cases, as against the 39 reported in 1955 and nine of scarlet fever, as against 14 in 1955.

Increases were noted in TB with last year producing 14 cases as compared with 11 the year before. There also was a jump in pneumonia, with seven cases being reported as against four for 1955. Infectious hepatitis also showed a slight increase with eight cases being treated as against six in 1955.

Typhoid Record Marred

A nine-year-old record was marred when one case of typhoid fever was reported last year. The city has not had a smallpox case for 41 years, has had no diptheria for twenty years and no rabies for ten years.

The number of social diseases remained constant with 24 being reported both in 1955 and 1956.

One new disease was recorded when 24 cases of scalp ringworm among school children were reported. The Board of Health made this disease a reportable one and ruled that all school children must be examined under an ultra-violet, or Wood's lamp, by school physicians to determine whether or not ringworm is present. The action stemmed from an outbreak of the disease at Lincoln and Brayton Schools.

1,601 Births For Year

A total of 1,601 babies were born at Overlook Hospital, of which 240 were children of local residents. There were also 59 other births to residents that took place at out-of-town hospitals.

Deaths showed a slight increase with 381 listed for last year as compared with 368 the year previous. Of this number, 160 were local residents who died in the city and 43 were residents who died out of Summit.

There were 36 infant deaths reported from Overlook, as compared with 26 in 1955. Seven of these were resident.

Heart diseases headed the list of local killers with 83 victims. Other causes of death and the number of victims are carcinoma, 35; pneumonia, 18 hemorrhages, 18; hemiplegia and accidents, three each; uremia, two; suicides, three; kidney, three; cerebral thrombosis, seven; pulmonary edema, six; diabetes, two and also a number of other ailments.

Clinics Kept Busy

In its clinics the board gave 925 examinations, 101 smallpox vaccinations, 82 diptheria and whooping cough shots, 45 typhoid immunizations, 79 urine analysis, 815 Wasserman tests, of which 23 were positive.

Forty new babies were admitted to the "keep-well" baby clinic bringing the total under treatment to 166 and 756 patch tests were given, of which 46 were positive.

The public health nurse made a total of 2,711 home calls and 36 calls not at homes.

The health inspector made 85 checks on retail food stores, 17 on fish markets, 26 bakery shops, 63 on restaurants, 103 to luncheonettes, 26 to school cafeterias, 29 to delicatessen stores, 36 to tayerns, eight to cold storage lockers, 23 to laundries and launderettes, 13 to hotels, 45 to tenements, 54 to barber and beauty shops, 96 to public buildings, such as theaters, railroad station and schools, 12 to swimming pools, 21 to rooming houses and 496 to backyards. In the 17th Century the Dutch had a spice monopoly and ruled the market with an iron hand. If the price of cinnamon fell too low in Amsterdam, they burned the spice.

They soaked their nutmegs in milk of lime, a process that did not affect the flavor, but supposedly killed the germ of the nut. This was to prevent the nutmegs from being planted and produced elsewhere.

Co-Founder of Rosary Shrine To Be Honored

Sister Mary Emilienne of the Infant Jesus, O. P., one of the co-foundresses of the Monastery of Our Lady of the Rosary at Summit, will observe the golden jubilee of her religious profession as a nun of the Dominican Order on Saturday.

Sister Mary Emilienne was born in Pawtucket, R. I., daughter of the late Pierre and Thersile (Pepin) Gauthier. Her sister, Mother Mary Imelda of Jesus, O. P., foundress of the monastery, celebrated her golden jubilee four years ago, on August 4. Before her entrance into the monastery, Sister Mary Emilienne attended St. Jean Baptiste parochial school in Pawtucket.

At the age of 16 Sister Emilienne entered the convent of the Dominican Sisters of the Perpetual Rosary at Union City, on August 8 1905. She received the holy habit the following year on August 15, made her temporary profession on December 10, 1907, and on December 11, 1911, made her final profession. On October 2, 1919, Sister Mary Emilienne accompanied her sister, Mother Mary Imelda, the foundress, and twelve other nuns to establish the new foundation at Summit.

During her fifty years of devoted service in the order, Sister Mary Emilienne has served in many capacities, as infirmarian, head chantress, vestiarian, sacristan, and sub-mistress of novices. Sister Emilienne is today very active for her years, carrying the full responsibility of vestiarian of the community.

Car Destroyed by Fire

Police this week were investigating a fire which totally razed an automobile on Orchard street near the Springfield line.

Authorities believe the car was stolen since the radio and four tires had been removed.

Ancient Romans were first to use mattresses, stuffing sacks with reeds, hay, wool or feathers, and sleeping on them in the third century B.C.

A HAPPY BEGINNING — Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Heimbach proudly show some of the wedding presents they received last Friday following their marriage on the "Bride and Groom" TV program. Mrs. Heimbach is the former Miss Carol Peterman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James E. Peterman of Harvey drive. Her husband, who is from Basking Ridge, is in the U. S. Airforce stationed at Stewart Airforce Base, Newburg, N. Y., where the couple will live. (Wolin photo)

Carol Peterman Wed on TV Show To Airforce Man

Miss Carol Louise Peterman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James E. Peterman of Harvey Drive, was married last Friday, to Airman 2/C Peter L. Heimbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Heimbach of Basking Ridge. The double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Arthur P. Foellner, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Quakertown, Pa., was televised on N.B.C.'s "Bride and Groom" program from New York.

Miss Rosemary Peterman was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Wanstall and Miss Carol Turton of Summit, Miss Betty Peterman of Basking Ridge and Mrs. Gilbert E. Dickson of Buzzards Bay, Mass.

Staff Sergeant Harold W. Heimbach, Jr. served as best man for his brother and ushers included Gerald Knapp and Bailey Wood of Basking Ridge, Frederick Peterman, brother of the bride and Airman 1/C Gilbert E. Dickson. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Marie Anne and Harold W. Heimbach 3rd., niece and nephew of the groom, serving as flower girl and ringbearer, completed the wedding party.

The bride, a graduate of Summit High School, has been employed as an editorial copyist by Martindale-Hubbell, Inc. Airman Heimbach attended Drexel Institute and is currently stationed at Stewart Air Force Base, Newburgh, N. Y. where the couple will reside.

Many Gifts for Couple

As is customary on the program, the couple received numerous gifts. These included a wedding trip by air to Bermuda with reservations at the Harmony Hall Hotel, a Polaroid camera, three pairs of Bermuda shorts for each, set of sterling silver, set of china, folding bridge table and four chairs, a pearl necklace, French perfume, a cosmetic case with a two-year supply of cosmetics, a gold charm braclet, sufficient wall paper for a house, a convertible coffee and dining table, an automatic washing machine, a TV set, a wrist watch for each, champagne and caviar.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Turton of Beech Spring Drive apartments, one of the bridesmaids. Miss Tuhton, who said she is 19, stated that she is already engaged.

The couple told the program director that following the wedding trip to Bermuda they will reside in an already purchased and furnished trailer near Stewart Airforce Base and that the trailer will also serve as their home until Mr. Heimbach completes his military service two years from now and during a two-year college course he also plans.

The wedding party, according to the program director, was the largest ever presented on the program. It consisted of five bridesmaids, five ushers, ring bearer and flower girl, maid of honor and best man.

Army Invites Two Local Men to Texas To See Nike Fired

The personnel of the Summit Nike base left this week for Texas and New Mexico for field maneuvers and will be followed next Monday by two local residents invited by the Army to witness actual firing of Nikes and other guided missiles at the Army's Red Canyon arsenal and proving grounds at New Mexico.

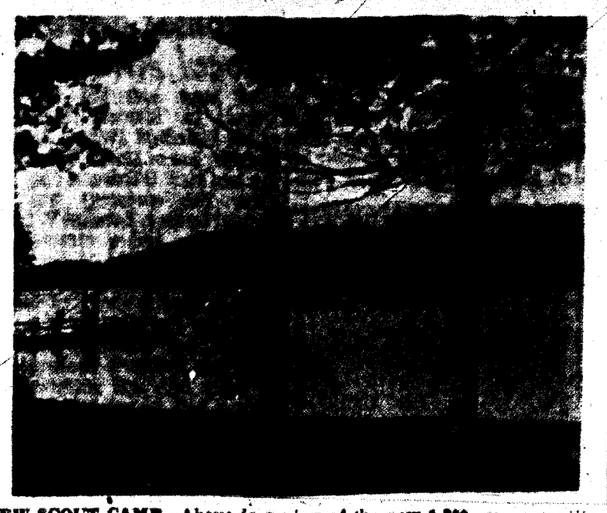

The entire Summit Nike base staff will spend several days in the field receiving instruction in Nikes and the firing of the weapons. Nikes, such as in Summit, are never fired for practice and are only discharged in case of actual enemy attack. Therefore, in order to obtain firing practice and instruction, Army personnel must periodically train in the field at Red Canyon provinggrounds and at the Army's guided missle headquarters at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Texas.

Invited by the Army to visit the New Mexico firing range are Robert F. Sargent of Eastman's, first vice president of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce, and Carl S. Hulett, publisher of The Summit Herald.

Sargent and Hulett will leave Monday, September 16, on what the Army terms "Operation Understanding." They will be taken to McGuire Airforce Base near Hightstown by Army staff car and then flown to Fort Bliss, Texas, where they will make their headquarters, making trips from there to Red Canyon, New Mexico. The pair will return to their homes on Friday, September 20.

"Operation Understanding" was set up by the Army when it began locating its Nikes bases in populated centers of the east and is designed to provide selected civilians with an opportunity to learn about the Nike installation and its use.

Sargent and Hulett were selected to represent Summit by the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce at the request of the Army.

NEW SCOUT CAMP—Above is a view of the new 1,300-acre campsite, which includes a privately-owned 200-acre lake, purchased this year by the Watchung Council, Boy Scouts. The camp is located in the Adirondacks, near Long Lake and Tupper Lake and was originally operated as a wildlife refuge and game preserve. The cost of the site was $80,000.

Area Boy Scouts Buy 1,300-Acre Adirondack Camp

Sherman O. Maxwell, president of the Watchung Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced the completion of arrangements to secure a new campsite for use by Boy Scout troops and Explorer units of the Summit area. The campsite purchase was authorized by the Council on April 17, 1957.

The campsite is located in the Adirondack Mountains of New York State near the town of Long Lake and Tupper Lake at Sabattis, N. Y.

This property of 1,300 acres including a 200-acre lake known as Bear Pond has been known as Sabattis Park and was originally operated as a wilderness refuge and game preserve. Total cost was $80,000.

Clyde F. Benner 21 Ashland road, Council chairman of camping and actiyities revealed that a plan for development will begin soon with the appointment of a special development committee. Plans for use and development will be announced as they progress. Tours to visit the property by local Scouters will be organized during the fall months. No use is planned until facilities have been designed and developed.

It is projected that in order to develop this campsite properly for the future camping needs of the increasing number of Boy Scouts and Explorers of the area that the development program will extend over several years and complete camp use will not be possible for at least three years. The Council believes it has secured what will eventually prove to be one of the finest Boy Scout camps in the country.

Fortnightly Club Juniors Push Child Care Center Plans

Members of the Child Care Center's executive board and steering committee met with representatives of the Junior Fortnightly Club and other interested guests last night to formulate further plans for the expansion of the Center's facilities to a full day basis. This project has been adopted by the club as its entry in the statewide community achievement contest.

This contest, which has been adopted by the junior membership department of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs as a State project for the year, is sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs in cooperation with the Sears Roebuck Foundation. The meeting was held at the Fortnightly clubhouse.

Mrs. Richard Garton, Junior Fortnightly president, acted as hostess for the evening. Following her welcome to the guests and the introduction of other club members present, Mrs. Garton introduced Mrs. William Ruch. Mrs. Ruch, a Junior Fortnightly member, is northern vice project chairman for the state. She explained the contest on a national and state level and described similar projects which have been adopted by other New Jersey junior clubs. Mrs. Richard Boyd, Junior Fortnightly contest chairman, discussed ways in which the club might aid in the realization of the plan to expand the facilities of the Child Care Center.

Mrs. Winthrop C. Lenz, chairman of the Child Care Center board, stated at the meeting that finding a suitable location near playground facilities was the primary problem before the services of the Center could be extended to a full day program. At this time, due to lack of space and facilities, the Center is able to care for only those children who need supervision after school hours. A full time program would enable them to handle pre-school age children as well.

Among the guests at the meeting were Mrs. Aaron Dorsky, director of the Child Care Center, Mrs. A. Chelnov, mother of two children who attend the Center, Mrs. George E. Sawyer, president of the Fortnightly Club, Mrs. Burnard Biggs, junior advisor to the junior club, and Mrs. Howard J. Wallis, who will serve as the Fortnightly Club's representative on the project committee.

Refreshments were served following the meeting. Mrs. Edmund Krauss, Junior Fortnightly welfare chairman, acted as chairman of the refreshments committee. Members of her committee were Mrs. John Closs, Mrs. R. D. Hogan, Mrs. John K. Bangs, and Mrs. Thomas F. Bell.

Our WINKLER Hits the High "C's"

Not the musical variety — but the high "C's" of Comfort, Cleanliness and Convenience. "Since our WINKLER Vertical Model automatic oil furnace was installed we have enjoyed our home ten times as much. This furnace takes up less than 5½ square feet of floor space, and has permitted us to install a lovely 'family' room in our basement. And that WINKLER Low Pressure Oil Burner is a dream . . . so economical and never a minute's trouble. The WINKLER filters the air so well that our home is 100% cleaner than before. Wish we had known about this years ago." That's what housewives by the thousands are saying all over the country.

Model WVO for Basement or Utility Room

In the perimeter system of heating, pipes radiate from a central plenum to exterior walls, and warm air then "blankets" walls to seal out the cold. Also helps keep floors warm. This system, with a WINKLER Oil Fired Forced Warm Air Furnace supplying the heat, and using small pipes, makes it ideal even for basement houses.

WINKLER'S heavy corrugated steel heat exchanger is one of the major reasons for its low cost operation. Thousands of square inches of heat absorption surfaces guarantee quick and efficient heat transfer. Permits maximum heat recovery from the fuel burned . . . reduces fuel bills greatly.

NEXT STEP TO AN ACCIDENT!

Please! Don't post signs on utility company poles... it's dangerous!

● Tacks, nails and other metal objects are a distinct hazard to linemen when climbing poles. This is particularly and dangerously true during night hours or storms when climbing is hardest.

Posting signs on utility poles also is a violation of the law: Section 27:5-1 of the Revised Statutes of the State of New Jersey.

Poles with signs, posters and other unauthorized materials attached to them are unsightly and detract from the orderly appearance of streets and highways.

Please cooperate with your electric company in this vitally important matter.

Radio Personality To Open Meeting Of Woman's Club

Berkeley Heights—"Fun, Fact, and Fiction" will be the topic discussed by Miss Ruth Ballou, radio commentator, book and play reviewer, and writer, when the Woman's Club of Berkeley Heights opens its 57-58 season on Tuesday, September 17, at the Berkeley Heights Library at 12:30 p.m.

Miss Ballou, a graduate of Smith College, has had wide experience in reviewing books and plays as well as in directing and acting in plays. Her professional speaking engagements have included Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, women's clubs, and various religious organizations. She is president of the Woman's Club of Orange, a board member of the Social Welfare Council of the Oranges and Maplewood, an officer of the Y.W.C.A., a Red Cross worker, and a professional director of religious education.

The business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Russell G. Romond, president, and the speaker will be introduced by Mrs. Frantz Bohne, program chairman. The home department will hold a dessert and baked goods sale at this meeting.

The hospitality committee includes Mrs. William Hicks, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Baranoski, Mrs. Robert Chamberlain, Mrs. Herbert Heller, Mrs. Paul Haury, Mrs. George Kempf, Mrs. Robert Seubert, Mrs. Roy Westerberg, and Mrs. George Van Deroef.

Heights, Borough Air Problem of School Vandalism

The problem of damage to school property popped up at board of education meetings in both Berkeley Heights and New Providence this week.

New Providence School Superintendent Allen W. Roberts said vandalism at Lincoln School during the summer necessitated the replacement of 60 broken windows. He said several newly painted doors were marred badly and had to be refinished.

"We haven't been able to determine who has been doing the damage," Mr. Roberts said, "but the law is very clear on matters of vandalism and we certainly intend to take whatever steps we can to prevent this sort of thing."

In Berkeley Heights Monday, Board President John Brown said a boy scout troop, which last spring ripped off a door check, splintering the wood, and tore a telephone from the cafeteria wall in Columbia School, will not be allowed use of school facilities until they pay for damages.

The Women Need Help

Every year about this time, the Summit League of Women Voters quietly asks the community to lend a hand toward financially supporting its program. The League's annual "financial drive" is not much of a "drive" compared to the fund appeals of other organizations in town. The League does not indulge in any door-bell ringing, mail appeals, advertising or other promotional devices. You don't hear much about its needs unless you happen to have a League member in your home or are personally interested in League affairs.

The Herald likes to consider itself a friend of the League of Women Voters because it believes very much in the basic principles upon which the League was founded and in the performance of its Summit branch in the promotion of political education.

The basic philosophy of the League of Women Voters is the premise that citizenship in a free government involves the responsibility to be informed on political issues and government operations at every level from Washington to the local community. The League does this, although, as we have said several times before, we do think that it minimizes local government and concentrates more on a state and national level. There is a definite need for League activities at a city and county level.

The League is strictly non-partisan. It never supports candidates but it does intelligently study issues and qualifications and shares its findings with the electorate. It is the only organization in our town dedicated to the intensive and critical, but unbiased, study of political issues. Its recommendations may not always be right but they are always honest.

To carry on this work for the coming year, the Summit League needs $1,000 from the community. Its total budget for the 1957-58 program is $2,500 but membership fees amount only to $1,500, thus leaving a deficit of $1,000.

The Summit Herald urges its readers to help erase this deficit for it would be unfortunate if our League of Women Voters could not function as it has in the past. The donation need not be large but it must come from many.

A Neat Community Arrangement

It is encouraging to note that in a world where in so many countries truth is forsaken and knowledge is distorted for the benefit of dictatorial government policies that the College Club of Summit choose books, the doors to truth and freedom, as a source of beneficial revenue.

When the club's 22nd annual book sale gets underway on Friday, October 11, Summit residents will again find a collection of new and used books, records and pieces of art to satisfy any taste.

But what is most fitting is the fact the proceeds from these sales go to scholarship activities, so that the fruits of the books may be enjoyed by the younger generation to provide college educations for those who might not otherwise be able to attend.

Also there is great satisfaction in knowing that all types of books are for sale—not just those deemed "acceptable." No limitations are placed so that in among the novels and the light and amusing non-fiction will be works to tax the imagination and stimulate the mind.

Too often we fail to appreciate the fact that we have no limitations placed upon us when we wish to enrich ourselves intellectually and probably only in those parts of the world where the author is told what to write and the reader what to read, would this freedom truly be appreciated. Unfortunately it is true although we enjoy these basic freedoms, we would only be truly aware of them if they were suddenly denied us.

Summit residents can well be proud that such a yearly event garners such keen interest. The sale always provides an opportunity for the browser and the collector to pick up volumes which probably could not be found elsewhere. And it also provides the donor of books to clear away those dust-covered volumes which constantly accumulate in attics and closets.

Booklovers cannot go wrong and in many instances may enjoy a field day through support of this worthwhile activity. We urge all Summit residents to take advantage of this opportunity to add to their own collection of books while at the same time providing funds for the continuance of the club's college scholarship activities. We feel the whole setup is a perfectly neat arrangement.

The Season Changes

On Monday of this week the Autumnal Equinox arrived and the summer officially ended. Weatherwise, the change of seasons will not be too noticeable at first. Still ahead of us are the very warm and often humid days of Indian Summer.

The past summer has been an unusual one. It was the driest in the history of weather records. It was not a particularly hot season and most of the days were usually clear, thus affording an unusual opportunity for vacationers and week-end relaxing.

Those who maintain that half the trouble with life lies in its routine should rejoice that the weather is never a certainty and should look forward to the arrival of fall. The joy of the Temperate Zone is its variety of weather and seasons.

One wearies of warmth at about the time it gets cooler and one tires of the cold at the time spring arrives. Fall has distinct attractions, such as crisp days, brilliant foliage and a general feeling of exhilaration and purpose. Summer with its languid life, its idleness, is gone.

Now that fall is here there is work to be done. Leaves must be raked, storm sash applied to the house, screens stored and warmer clothing made ready for use.

And what's ahead for us, weather-wise? Well, according to the Old Farmer's Almanac, cold weather and snow flurries will arrive in the east as early as October 24 to 31 and will be intensified throughout practically all of November. During the period of December 1 to 7, the Almanac says we may expect a snowstorm that will remain for the rest of the winter. In brief, this coming winter will be "even and fine — many storms but good weather in between. Averages colder than last year, especially in February and, on the whole, more snow."

For the last two years the Almanac has not been too accurate for it has forecast cold and bitter winters with lots of snow and the winters were almost the reverse of that.

Regardless of the Almanac, the Wooley Bears and other weather omens, the best course is to follow the final couplet of a famous weather poem and

Be happy together
Whatever the weather.

Facts on Year-Round Schools
(Berkshire Eagle)

The 12-month school year, which has been talked up occasionally in the Berkshires, is one of those proposals that everyone has some opinion about. Arguments centered on it can go on endlessly, and very often do.

Advocates claim it is the cheapest and easiest way of relieving over-crowding in the schools, since it necessitates no capital outlay. With only the additional operating expense involved in faculty salaries and building maintenance for the whole year, it is argued, a community can enlarge its educational facilities by 25 per cent.

The opposition rejoins that the scheme would be difficult to administer and unpopular with the teachers, children and parents. One of the big objections seems to be that a year-round schedule would make it difficult, if not impossible, for families with children in school to synchronize their vacations.

Until now, either side could be argued successfully, since the desirability of year-round schools has depended so much on personal opinion, on how the innovation would affect the individual speaker. But now there's a move on to obtain some objective facts.

The South Carolina Legislature has voted to establish a model school system to run throughout the year. The purpose is to help determine whether the children and teachers like it, whether it saves money, and its impact on the existing educational system.

This is a sensible and constructive experiment that will be watched with interest in the other 47 states. It is a move that is thoroughly in the impartial, scientific spirit that should pervade modern education—even if it does promise to spoil some good arguments.

Fragile Youth
(Somerville Messenger-Gazette)

Reading over and trying to digest the news that is current, there now and then crop up things a little too complicated to understand to the point of proper conclusion. For instance, this matter of pro and con on covered walkways connecting the various units of Bridgewater Township's projected $3,000,000 high school.

As we understand it, building covered walkways to shield students changing classes in inclement weather is an item estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000.

Most citizens seem to be unhappy in general at what it is costing to build and operate today's schools. But however costly, some citizens interested in the township school situation as it exists think there should be covered walkways included. Others do not. The Board of Education members seem lukewarm about this phase of the construction program, agreeing that the walkways are an expensive item, but saying also that they have been pressured by parents into including them in the plans.

It does seem that in some of today's school building projects we may be going a bit overboard in the matter of niceties in facilities to protect our tender younger generation. We may keep them from becoming dampened or snowed on between classrooms, but what after the dismissal bell rings and the youngsters must run across the yard to buses or down street to their parked convertibles?

Why not shelve the walkways item of $40,000 and expend $1,000 for umbrellas or raincoats as standard school equipment?

LETTERS

For Present School Board

Editor, Summit Herald:

Congratulations on your recent editorial concerning an appointive Board of Education. Seven years ago when we were considering buying a home one factor that we examined very closely was the composition of the local Boards of Education, needless to say, the makeup of Summit's was so outstanding in comparison to surrounding towns we made this our home.

In today's business world many firms request their executives to give generously of their time to civic functions. These same men will probably never run for local office for such as a Board of Education when they can devote their talents elsewhere without having their name and position jeopardized.

We need only point to towns in New Jersey where schools have become crowded, parents irate, and the capable men have resigned because of "rabblerousers." A good example is Bergen County and 80 per cent of its towns. May I further point to the State of Kentucky which is revising its state constitution to take public education out of party politics. A copy of this amendment and its effect according to Louisville Courier Journal is enclosed.

I hope Summit makes its first 57 years 114 years.

Heights Moves to Revise "Antiquated" Police Set-up

Berkeley Heights—The Township Committee Monday decided to "completely revise" what it termed the "antiquated police ordinance in Berkeley Heights."

Meeting informally at the home of Committeeman George Loman who is recovering from injuries sustained in an auto accident almost two months ago, the committee agreed that no further changes in the organizational structure of the department will be made until the ordinance has been revised and recent suggestions by newly-appointed Police Chief Harold Curtis have been carried out.

"Among the items to be considered will be that all promotions and appointments will be made by competitive examinations together with other qualifying factors," a committee spokesman said.

It was understood that the proposed promotion of Sgt. Donald Bryan to captain will be held in abeyance until the planned revisions are completed.

The committee's action came in the wake of attacks on its recent decisions affecting police matters following the death in July of Dominick V. Ryan, who had served as chief almost since the inception of a police force in Berkeley Heights.

Last Wednesday, the committee voted 3 to 1 to authorize Township Attorney Edward Pizzi to draw up a resolution promoting Sgt. Bryan to captain.

He was to fill the post vacated by Chief Curtis who formally assumed the post Wednesday after achieving the highest score in a competitive examination conducted by the New Jersey Police Chiefs Association on September 8.

The initial criticism came from within the committee when Joseph Conner dissented on the Bryan promotion vote. While agreeing Sgt. Bryan deserved a promotion, he claimed the committee should consider a lieutenant rank.

Township Clerk William Russo said the 30-year police ordinance did not provide for such a rank.

The proposed Bryan promotion also came under fire from Charles LaSasso, brother of Capt. Vito LaSasso, who had been serving as acting chief. Mr. LaSasso claimed Sgt. Vito Amodeo, who has served on the force five years longer than Sgt. Bryan, should have been considered for a promotion.

Mayor Arthur A. Manner explained that Sgt. Bryan was selected because he placed second highest on the test. Sgt. Amodeo had declined to take the test although he was one of four police officials eligible. Capt. LaSasso also took the test.

Wallace E. Banta, Democratic candidate for the Township Committee, Saturday attacked the committee for "hurried, arbitrary action" in "trying to push through the appointment of a new police captain."

He said the committee action is the "pattern of the team . . . without prior warning, or even the simplest statement in advance, decisions are made which are far-reaching, political in nature and not in the best interest of the township."

Storm Sewer Proposal to Get Public Hearing

New Providence—A public hearing on a proposed ordinance authorizing construction of a storm sewer along an 1,800 foot section of Union avenue will be held in the Borough Hall on Tuesday, October 1.

Women's Club Units Offer Joint Programs

Berkeley Heights—By intergrating the schedules of the American home and garden departments, the evening membership department of the Berkeley Heights Women's Club endeavors this year to expand its opportunities for participation. Department meetings will be held the last Wednesday of alternate months. Thus, in a group serving mothers of small children and working wives, members may enjoy the benefits of both departments yet surrender only one evening a month for department meetings.

Mrs. Gerald Yakobofsky, chairman for the American home department, and Mrs. William Gorham garden department chairman have announced the following program for the year:

Mr. L. R. Hubbard, Westfield importer, will address the garden department on the topic, "Spring Flowering Bulbs," on October 30 at the home of Mrs. William Gorham.

Robert de Sherbinin of Berkeley Heights will present a program for General Electric to the American home department on November 25 in the library. Entitled, "The Light in your Life," his talk will feature a sound motion picture film.

In December the Garden department will turn its talent and attention to decorating a Christmas tree for the general meeting. The tree will later be donated to Runnell's Hospital.

"School Days," a program on meal planning for school children, will be presented by Public Service to the American home department at the home of Mrs. Gerald Yakobofsky.

Charles Roll from the Berkeley Garden center will give pointers to members of the garden department on "Success with House Plants" on February 26.

The American home department will present its regular meeting to the entire evening membership on March 17 at 8:15 p.m. in the library. The evening's provocative title is "Surprise Night."

The garden department will conclude its season with a talk by Dr. Harold Moldenke, curator of the Trailside Museum in the Watchung Reservation. The program will be held on April 30 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Zeltner. Dr. Moldenke's talk will be supplemented with the use of colored slides.

All programs, unless otherwise specified, will be at 8 p.m.

Democrats Jab Heights GOP on Bogosian Post

Berkeley Heights — Describing the appointment of Anthony Bogosian to the Township Committee as a "brazen nullification of democractic principles," Charles Futcher, Democratic City chairman, in a speech before the Democratic Club of Berkley Heights, denounced the Township Committee as a closed club seeking only selfperpetuation.

"We have heard repeatedly that the committee is a 'team'. A team for what?" asked Mr. Futcher. "Certainly their recent actions do not indicate that Berkeley Heights is their first consideration. The appointment of Anthony Bogosian to the Township Committee is certainly excellent proof of their disinterest in good government.

"It was bad enough when Dally conveniently resigned to make room. But with the prolonged absence of another committeeman, it was incumbent on Mayor Manner and the committee to seek out an appointee qualified to understand municipal problems and to vote with authority.

"Instead," Futcher continued, "Mr. Manner appointed his own hand-picked candidate for township committee-a candidate who barely defeated an independent Republican in the recent primary. Completely disregarded were former, experienced committeemen, and other qualified by long public service. The machine made its candidate the incumbent and expected the town to give him its unreserved blessing."

NOTES ANNIVERSARY — Howard P. Smith of 31 Maple street, New Providence, an engineer with the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. in Jersey City, completed 30 years of service with the company Saturday. He was honored at a luncheon at the Hotel Plaza, Jersey City. Smith has served as a member of the New Providence Board of Education since 1951, was a cub master and scout commissioner chairman of the Boy Scouts from 1947 to 1953 and has been chairman of the Plainfield-New Brunswick Council, H. G. McCully chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America since 1955.

Heights Boy, 17, Fined

Berkeley Heights—A 17-year-old Heights driver will walk for the next thirty days because he drove at 55 miles per hour down a Springfield street having a 25-mile speed limit.

The youth, Heinz J. Steiert, 17, of 122 Mountain avenue, was fined $20 and had his license revoked for a 30-day period on Monday night at Springfield municipal court. The offense took place on September 6.

Route 22 Progress Report Cites New Move by State

Berkeley Heights—Latest alignments in the proposed alternate Route 22 through Berkeley Heights indicate substantial progress in the State Highway Department's attempts to minimize damage to the community, Township Committeeman Luther M. Smythe reported Tuesday.

Mr. Smythe said a "progress report" issued this week by Otto Fritsche, the state's chief highway engineer, "makes it appear that the new Route 102 will bypass Dogwood Lane, Lenape Lane, the Pheasant Hill section and Free Acres."

The report was made by Mr. Fritsche at the request of the township Planning Board.

Mr. Fritsche said more definite information on the final proposed alignment will not be available until contour maps from recent aerial surveys have been completed.

He said the maps may not be completed for several months and that public hearings on the final alignments may not be held for a year or so.

Mr. Smythe told the regular Planning Board meeting Tuesday night that similar requests for progress reports from the state will be made in the future.

"Every time we have had a meeting with the state, highway department officials," he said, "a much better and less damaging proposed alignment has resulted."

Berkeley Heights—Sen. Malcolm Forbes, Republican candidate for governor, will be principal speaker October 26 at a dinner sponsored by the Republicans of Berkeley Heights, Inc., David C. Dally, club president, announced.

Many Toil forLong to Put On Club's Annual Book Sale

The rapidly-approaching College Club book sale will be the culmination of work and effort on the part of many since last February. At that time Mrs. Joseph Schulhoff was appointed co-ordinator, and Mrs. F. J. Koerner assistant co-ordinator, for the sale which is to be held October 12-19 and preceded by a special sale of children's books only on October 11 at 58 Elm street. Shortly thereafter, the committees were set up.

Collection of books, magazines, records, art prints and pictures was started immediately under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. R. Waag and her assistant, Mrs. Frank S. Abercrombie. Those who aided in the "pick-up and carry" activity were: Mrs. Thomas G. Andrian, Mrs. Charles R. Bushong, Mrs. James E. Bryan, Mrs. Robert Dollase, Mrs. Burton Eubank, Mrs. Samuel Hathaway, Mrs. Ray Malone, Mrs. Wilbur A. Osterling, Mrs. Lincoln P. Rice, Mrs. Sidney B. Smith, Mrs. Frank H. Tendick, Jr., Mrs. Webster Van Winkle, and Mrs. George D. Hanchett, Jr.

As soon as books started coming in, they were priced and sorted into categories (for easy selection at sale time) under the leadership of F. J. Koerner and Mrs. Richard Micone. The bargain prices of the books generally range from 10c to $2 (a fraction of the original cost). Mrs. Henry Croix, Mrs. Charles B. Cleaves, Mrs. Joseph Hart and Mrs. Eugene S. Wheeler are playing a prominent role in this exacting effort.

In addition to general pricing, specialists were needed for certain areas. Rare books are being priced by Miss Adeline Pepper, children's books by Mrs. H. William Smith, Jr., and art materials, by Mrs. Hall Shannon.

Early in May the soliciting committee, consisiting of Mrs. Harold H. Young, chairman, and her committee members, Mrs. Robert A. DeVilbiss, Mrs. Fritz O. Robitschek, Mrs. Alistair E. Ritchie and Mrs. Samuel B. McFarlane went into action. First they placed some 1,500 flyers in public buildings, churches and other strategic locations; these flyers asked the community to donate unneeded volumes for sale purposes.

Second, the committee sent a letter to the entire College Club membership, urging 100 per cent participation in the book sale activity; members were asked to give time, books, or cash contributions to this scholarship fund-raising project. Third, the committee placed an ad in the Summit Herald indicating the date, time, and place of the sale. Finally, a second group of flyers was distributed.

The telephone committee canvassed the entire College Club membership for pricing, checking and cashiering volunteers, and for sources of more books from the members, their neighbors and friends. Mrs. William P. Minshall, chairman, was aided in this time-consuming task by the following members of her committee: Mrs. Thomas Darlington, Mrs. Hugh A. Eubank, Mrs. William Hinman, Mrs. J. Warden Cunningham, Mrs. C. Harry Knowles, Mrs. William C. Kreger, Mrs. James W. Welsh, Mrs. Fletcher P. Thornton, Jr., and Mrs. J. Van de Water, all of Summit; Mrs. Thomas A. Kenney of Short Hills; Mrs. Phillip D. Coddington, of Millburn; Mrs. Eugene S. Wheeler of Chatham; Mrs. Fred J. Stevens, Mrs. David Thornburg, and Mrs. Thomas D. Nevins, Jr., all of Berkeley Heights.

As the sale date nears, the premises at 58 Elm street, across the street from the Summit Junior High, is being put into readiness. Now that the shelving committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Rae Young, Jr., has completed its job, and books are being placed on shelves in categories, Mrs. Welland Gay is busy assembling furniture and other property required for the sale.

The activities of all the above have been greatly implemented by many individuals and groups in the Summit area, making this truly a community project.

Pricing and sorting will continue at the sale site Mondays through Thursdays inclusive from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Auf wiedersehen

Au revoir Arrivederci

but not good-bye!

65 years ago we knew what we wanted to be: when Bamberger's grew up we'd be a family of great department stores built to serve New Jersey with the widest choice and most diversified lines of fine goods. We found out there was only one way we could do it — to build Bamberger stores the way we wanted Bamberger's to be. Great stores to hold great selections of our merchandise, equipped to give extensive service and beautiful, too, because shopping should be a fully rewarding adventure . . .

This is the Bamberger's you've found in three of our stores so nearby you've made shopping there an everyday habit. We've grown accustomed to your face . . . and accustomed to your smile! . . . in Bamberger's Plainfield and Morristown and Newark. We're so happy you've discovered our closeness, completeness, the convenience of shopping in these full-fledged Bamberger stores. This is the way it was meant to be, and the reason we're closing the Millburn Home Store (the only store we couldn't build from scratch to be big enough for Bamberger's extraordinary selections and services). You've outgrown the little store in Millburn just as we have, but we're proud and grateful that you're more than ever our customers.

Both of us, it seems, were meant for bigger things. We've already broken ground for the new Bamberger's in Menlo Park, and just yesterday the ink dried on final plans for the building of Bamberger's Monmouth County. Meanwhile we're still expanding, improving, beautifying our mighty Newark store. It's an old Bamberger family saying that anything we can do, we can do better! That's why Bamberger's-New Jersey is the fastest growing department store group in America today.

Our Millburn store closes this Saturday

Summit "Johnny" Does OK in Reading

If "Johnny" goes to Summit schools the chances are that reading is not a great problem for statistics show that the average "Johnny" in local schools can read better now than he did 17 years ago and that he surpasses most kids in the nation in his reading ability.

Superintendent of Schools Roberts v. S. Reed told the Board of Education Tuesday night that the average Summit sixth grade student now has achieved a reading norm of 8.7, which is almost two years above the national norm. In 1940 the local norm for sixth graders was 7 years and 9 months, or one year in advance of the national norm.

The comparisons, Mr. Reed said, were provided by Miss Mae B. Christensen, school reading counselor, during summer work with Dr. E. Elona Sochor, director of the Temple University reading clinic.

SUMMIT'S UNITED CAMPAIGN

September 26, 1957

CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN
GILBERT G. ROESSNER

Everybody....

Summit's United Campaign with contributions of a size, consistent with their incomes, warranted for a combined drive of nine worthy and valuable agencies. There are some givers, however, who give the same amount to United Campaign as they do to individual drives.

There is a growing awareness by donors, workers and agencies of the advantages of United Giving. United Campaign can, and will, be truly successful only when you -- the givers -- give enough as your endorsement of this method of raising the required funds for our agencies.

The goal -- $144,000 -- was determined by the Budget Review Committee as the minimum need for the agencies to carry on their essential services. Won't you pledge your part when your support is solicited?

A suggested guide to giving is 1/2% of annual income for those earning up to $10,000 per year, with a higher ratio for those earning more.

If you believe in United Giving and the merits of United Campaign's member agencies, give -- but give enough.

Don't let your town down!

Sincerely,

GIVE ONCE SUMMIT'S UNITED CAMPAIGN AND FOR ALL

Kaffeeklatsch Group to Hear Own Phone Voice

"Would you like to hear how you sound to others on the telephone?"

The opening program of the YWCA Kaffeeklatsch on Wednesday, October 2, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the auditorium, will deal with the intriguing title of "Your Voice Is You." Presenting this informal and amusing talk will be the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company which will emphasize the importance of the voice in reflecting personality over the telephone.

Cartoons and recordings will be used and suggestions will be made that will help improve one's speech both in telephone usage and in direct contacts. At the close of the talk, members of the audience will be given an opportunity to hear a recording of their own voices.

A long established young adult activity of the YWCA, Kaffeeklatsch, known earlier as "Housewives Holiday," is a weekly program which runs on Wednesday mornings from October through May. It is designed to provide an opportunity for women of this area, meeting over coffee and buns at 10 a.m., to meet old and new friends in a friendly community gathering. Interesting hour programs are planned for each occasion, with two special unusual events during the year. No reservations in advance are required for regular meetings. Co-chairmen for this activity are Mrs. Henry D. Stricker and Mrs. J. M. Macomb of Summit.

So that young mothers may take advantage of this "ladies day out," a child dance and a child rhythm class are available, at a nominal fee, for young children of preschool age during the adult program. Instructors are Mrs. Charlotte Walsh and Miss Capitola Dickerson, respectively. A doctor's certificate is required for participation by children in these two groups. Baby sitting service is also available for children over 18 months.

The ever-present power of the Christ, Truth, to heal sickness and to destroy discord will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the lesson-sermon on "Unreality" will include the following from Luke (13:11-13): "And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (142:31): "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, to-day, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

Boro Chest Fund Opens with Rally On October 8

New Providence — Anthony Cosgrove and Carl Raska, directors of the 1957-58 New Providence Community Campaign, have announced that the campaign will get underway the week of October 6. A kick-off rally will be held on Tuesday, October 8 at 8:30 p.m., at Lincoln School.

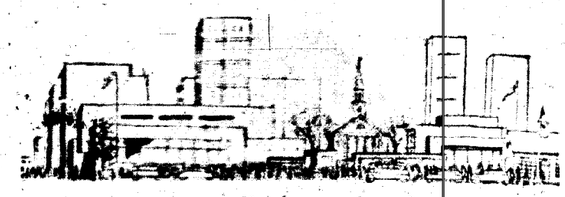

"We can definitely promise a brief to-the-point meeting," said Mr. Cosgrove, "however, it is extremely important that all involved make an effort to attend. Our goal of $15,000 is a realistic one—but we'll need all the enthusiasm and effort we can muster to put it across."

Representatives of the eight members agencies will attend the rally to explain the nature of the services they give to the people of New Providence and answer whatever questions may come up. A new member of the group is the Borough PAL; other members include the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, the YM and YWCA, SAGE, Mental Hygiene Clinic, and Community Service of New Providence.

In addition to representatives of these groups, attending the meeting will be district leaders, captains, and workers. The general public is also invited. District leaders appointed to date include William E. Smock, Dr. E. Barabash, Mrs. William Krucke, Mrs. Dean Stone, Joseph Takacs, Irwin Weber, Mrs. Ralph E. Brown, Thomas J. Kilcullen, Mrs. Robert F. Kinney, Norman Rauscher, Harry Bookus, Robert H. Fox, Mrs. E. R. Daisley, Kenneth R. Robson, and Carl J. Wimley.

Winners Picked In Book Sale Poster Contest

Winners of the poster contest held in conjunction with the 22nd annual College Club book sale to be held at 58 Elm street, October 12-19, were chosen last Thursday. (The general sale is to be preceded by a special sale of children's books only on October 11.) Participants in the contest were ninth grade students in the art classes in the Junior High School.

Arthur E. De Brito, are instructor, arranged and supervised the poster activity. Mrs. Rudolph H. Nichols, Jr., poster chairman for the book sale, said that the posters gave evidence of much artistic ability and that judging was difficult because there were so many posters that showed originality as well as indications of painstaking work.

After the judges, Miss E. Adele Hepbron, head of the Senior High School art department, and Robert Woodward, Junior High School principal, had announced their decisions, the following winners were awarded prizes by Mrs. John S. Tennant, College Club president, and Mrs. Joseph Schulhoff, book sale coordinator: first prize, consisting of five silver dollars and a blue ribbon, was won by Susan Dunne; second prize, consisting of three silver dollars and a red ribbon, was won by Gayle Tator; third prize, consisting of two silver dollars and a white ribbon, was won by Susan Diakos. Honorable mention awards of one dollar each were given to Martha McManc, Karen Roberts and Stuart Russell.

All of the thirty attractive and colorful posters entered in the contest will be distributed throughout the Summit area to herald the rapidly-approaching sale. Merchants and organizations are cooperating by displaying them in their windows and on their bulletin boards. The prize-winning posters may be seen in the windows of the store at the corner of Springfield avenue and Maple street, which site was formerly occupied by Roots.

Mrs. Schulhoff says that College Club members are urgently needed to place books, already priced and categorized, in their proper places on the shelves.

"Music for Fun" Concerts Open Here November 2

Plans for the 1957-58 "Music for Fun" Children's Concerts to be presented here were made at a recent meeting of the concert committee, according to Mrs. George Himadi, chairman, and Mrs. Max Richardson, co-chairman.

The concerts, given by the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, are scheduled for Saturday, November 2 and March 22 at 11 a.m. in the Summit High School auditorium.

The programs presented by the orchestra under the direction of Dr. Samuel Antek will be designed especially for children between the ages of six through 14. Dr. Antek, who is the originator of the title "Music for Fun," is recognized as an authority on concerts for children.

These concerts are on a non-profit basis in order to acquaint as many children as possible with listening to good music. The cost of the tickets is made possible through the financial assistance of sponsors of the concerts, the donations of the Friends of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra and the cooperation of the Musicians Union, Local 16, of Newark.

At the recent meeting of the concert committee it was announced by Mrs. W. C. Harney, subscription chairman, that sponsors are still needed to support the concerts. Checks for one or more subscriptions may be sent to Mrs. Lionel P. Hopkins, treasurer, 96 New England avenue. Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Harney, CR. 3-2966.

October . . .
THE FESTIVE MONTH

Every month has its charms, but October has a festive quality all its own. It is a lavish banquet table filled with delights for the eye! The trees are dressed in their vari-color best, the air has the chilled brightness of a clear sparkling wine, and we—the guest—feel at our spriteliest.

Spring thrills us with its rebirth of green things, summer lulls us with its sweet, sun-washed vacations, winter warms us with its merry holidays. But October is as mellow, rare and satisfying as an old friend, with whom we can share old memories, and build new ones.

Whereas, these nine agencies provide essential services of immeasurable benefit to young people and families directly served by them, and in addition constitutes a vital element in the well-being of our community, and

Whereas, the goal of $144,000 represents the minimum need of the nine agencies in order that they may be able to carry out their essential work;

Now, Therefore, I, C. Philip Dean, Mayor of the City of Summit, New Jersey, do hereby proclaim October 6th through October 20th, 1957, as throughout the City and I do hereby urge all citizens to give generously to Summit's United Campaign and thereby to the nine youth, health and welfare services supported through it. And I do further urge that all citizens, if at all possible, remain at home on Sunday, October 6th, in order to make their pledge when called upon that day by a Campaign worker.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this third day of October, 1957, and have caused the seal of the City of Summit to be hereunto affixed.

C. PHILIP DEAN, Mayor.

VICE-PRESIDENT—The appointment of George E. Engelmann of Summit, as vice-president-administration of Mack Trucks, Inc., was announced this week. He was formerly executive assistant to the president. Bird Authority To Open Season For Nature Club

"East and West from Hudson Bay" will be the first lecture of this season's Audubon Screen Tours sponsored by the Summit Nature Club on Thursday, October 10. The lecture will be delivered by Dr. Arthur A. Allen of Cornell University who is known as the first professor of ornithology in America. He is considered to have contributed more than anyone else in making ornithology a part of the curriculum in colleges and universities and to have trained teachers in the field. Through his books, his articles, especially in the National Geographic magazine and his color-motion picture program, he has stimulated people throughout the continent to enrich their lives with the hobby of wildlife observation.

Dr. Allen's expeditions have taken him from the Andes of Columbia to the tundra of Alaska and Hudson Bay, from the shores of Mexico and the Panama jungles.

Dr. Allen has written many books among which are Stalking Birds with Color-Camera, American Bird Biographies (2 volumes), and The Book of Bird Life, etc. He is well known for his work with Dr. Paul Kellogg in pioneering the recordings of bird songs which are used extensively by schools throughout United States.

"East and West from Hudson Bay" is a color-motion picture with sound recordings of the wild calls and strange songs of the arctic animals. This film was made on his expedition to the tundra of Hudson Bay to the rocky coastline of Labrador.

The highlight of the film is Dr. Allen's solution of an ornithological mystery on this expedition. The mystery began when ornithologists were unable to find any nests of the bristle-thighed curlew in the South Sea where it was first seen in Tahiti in 1769. A number of clues led them to suspect that it few north to nest somewhere in Alaska. It was not proven until Dr. Allen and his expedition discovered the first nest of the bristle-thighed curlew known to science.

The lecture will be shown in the auditorium of the Celanese Corporation of America, Thursday, October 10 at 8:15 p.m.

Admission is by subscription tickets only. For information call Mrs. John R. Whitlock at CRestview 7-2717.

Lincoln School Announces PTA Events for Year

Lincoln School's PTA program will lead off with a reception on Tuesday, October 29, for Charles Hamilton, Lincoln's new principal, according to Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman, PTA program chairmen, who this week announced the schedule of Lincoln PTA events for the year.

A booklet outlining the schedule, together with other pertinent information, will be mailed to all Lincoln School parents. Following are some of the highlights of the year's program.

On October 15, Lincoln School's annual fashion show and bridge benefit will be held for the third year to raise monew for the library fund. Mrs. Ernest Heath is general chairman for this event.

A visiting day at school, an innovation for Lincoln this year, is scheduled for the morning of November 5, Election Day. Mothers and fathers will be invited to come and see their children's classes "in action."

On November 19, there will be an evening meeting, featuring after-dinner coffee and a speaker on "Reading in the Elementary School." Lincoln's annual book sale has been timed to coincide with this meeting and will be held on November 19, 20 and 21.

February 7 will see PTA members dancing to Johnny Almquist's music at the fifth annual dance. A speaker will address the PTA on March 3, and on May 6 the annual meeting will be held.

Field Day has been set for Saturday, May 17, and on May 21, the year's program will conclude with the traditional year-end open house.

Roosevelt PTA Has Record 60 Per Cent Membership

A record 60 per cent of the eligible parents of the Roosevelt School PTA have joined the organization, it was announced this week, following an initial meeting of the group last week.

Among the events planned for the coming year are a spaghetti supper scheduled for November 14, an address by Ralph Sayre, a member of the Board of Education and a talk by a speaker from Bell Telephone Laboratories who will discuss the "Nike" missile.

Prior to the meeting John Gentile, president, led the membership through the school in order to see the improvements which were completed during the summer.

Therapeutic Art Made Available at Overlook Hospital

Maternity patients at Overlook Hospital have been chosen as the first ones to benefit from the activities of the hospital's newly formed art department. Oils and water colors have been donated by members of the medical and nursing staffs and are being hung on the walls of the rooms in maternity, circulated according to the wishes of the patients.

"Art has definite therapeutic value in the care of the sick," remarked a member of the medical staff who noticed the pictures, "I hope the new art department will be able to acquire additional paintings so that any one who comes to Overlook and has to stay for a while may enjoy a painting in his room."

The new department would be pleased to receive any art work as a donation. People interested in art have contributed funds which may be used for the purchase of oils and water colors and the committee would be glad to see any work submitted for the project. Provision has also been made to include art work on consignment which patients might purchase if they wished.

Anyone interested in donating or selling pictures for this purpose should contact William Lutz, purchasing agent at the hospital who is chairman of the art committee. Other committee members are Miss Sally Wallace and Dr. Leonard Berman.

The committee said that the art project has stimulated staff members to want to do art work themselves, and it has arranged to offer classes this fall for those who are interested.

Rotarians Told Meaning of Family Names

Dr. Allen Weatherby, associate professor of English of Drew University, gave local Rotarians an insight into "What's in a Name" at the luncheon meeting last Monday. According to Dr. Weatherby, there is a great deal more to a name than meets the eye.

"Onomastics", or the development of given and proper names through the ages is a science following well-established principles. Tracing the development of modern family names back to primitive man, Dr. Weatherby demonstrated the flexibility, and, at the same time, the limitations of language. He pointed out that modern names are the "outgrowth of highly sophisticated social living" and that every family name in use today can be traced back to animal names, occupations, locations, family relationships, or the characteristics of ancestors. "Drinkwater", for example, comes from a long line of teetotalers.

In an amusing and informative commentary, Dr. Weatherby traced the origins of the family names of Rotarians present at the meeting. Included in the Summit Rotarian membership are names with the meaning "little lover of horses" and "licentious god."

Roselle Park Nips Summit On Last Minute Touchdown

Summit High School dropped a heartbreaking 7-6 game to Roselle Park last Saturday afternoon at Memorial Field gridiron on a touchdown and conversion in the last ten seconds of play. Summit dominated play throughout the first half, thrilling their legion of fans and Boosters with great line play and mixed their offensive plays effectively. Halfway through the first quarter, Norm Lavery recovered a Roselle Park fumble on the forty-five yard line, with Darnell Mallory throwing a pass to halfback Dave Mele on the first play for a twenty yard gain and a first down on the visitors thirty five yard line. Two running plays by Mallory and one by fullback Jim Ginn gave Summit a first down on the twenty four yard line. Coach Howard Anderson substituted Fred White for Ginn, with White driving upfield for a first down on the Parker's two yard line. The first quarter ended at this point, with a Summit score seeming inevitable. After the exchange of goals, Roselle Park repulsed the Maroon drive, stopping two running plays and two pass plays. Roselle Park punted to midfield, with the Hilltoppers storming back on a pass play, Mallory to Gil Owren, plus a holding penalty, and another fine running play with Fred White slamming to a first down on the thirteen. After an incomplete pass play, White crashed through to the five yard line, then followed with another cutback to the one, scoring on the next attempt. Tony Cardone's placement attempt was wide of the goal posts and Summit held a 6-0 lead.

The second half was a sharp reversal of form by both clubs, with the Parkers coming back strong, and the Maroon seeming to tire, losing their sharpness and drive. Summit had the ball for only seven plays in the third period, and only nine in the final session. Summit's superior line play, with Fred Stauder and John Meinke the standouts, kept the Panthers from scoring earlier. The Parker's then tried their pass plays and met with success. Summit had no defense for the Parker air attack, with bullet Bob Lelli completing four passes in their winning drive. Taking the ball on their own thirty yard line, with last than six minutes remaining to the contest, the Parkers marched seventy yards on thirteen plays to score and win. The key play in this drive was a fourth down play, with five yards remaining for a first down. The Parker Captain elected to gamble and was successful, with Lelli hitting Eddie Martin at midfield, going six yards further before Al Allen made the tackle. With a minute remaining to the game Lelli tossed a sixteen yard pass to Joe Donnelly on the eight yard line. The Parkers then attempted a running play with LeRoy Rayford stopping the touchdown bid. Twenty five seconds remained in the game as Lelli tossed the tieing score to Donnelly, with the visitors recording the all-important point after touchdown on a line buck.

The lineup:

Summit Soccermen Down Cranford, Montclair Teams

Summit High School, defending Group 3 soccer champions of New Jersey, began their 1957 soccer season with victories over highly rated Montclair and Cranford.

In their opening contest of the season, the Hilltoppers easily defeated Montclair 6-1, with Ed Betts, centerforward, and Capt. Herb Schmidt, star inside right, the sparkplugs. Betts opened the scoring for the Hilltoppers in the first period, with Summit continuing their spirited play throughout the contest.

Summit scored three more goals in the second period, and two more in the final session. In the second period Schmidt booted home two goals and Betts another as Summit assumed a 4-0 lead. In the third and fourth quarters, Coach Haldenwang cleared his bench, using twenty four players. In the fourth quarter Pete Howley headed in a goal and Druce Osterling put in a rebound for the other two tallies. Montclair's lone score came late in the third period against Warren Deveraus, who had substituted for starting goalie Dave Barr at the half.

Last Thursday, Summit traveled to Cranford to defeat the Blue and Gold 4-0. Superlative play in the goal by Dave Barr made the shutout possible, with Summit's scores coming in the second and fourth periods. Harvey Snyder broke the ice midway through the second quarter with a kick that just eluded the Cranford goalie. Herb Schmidt then added two more goals to his total, one coming the second, the other in the fourth period. Summit's final goal was scored in the fourth quarter by Pete Howley on a set-up by Schmidt.

New PAL Rifle Season Slated To Begin Sunday

All regular shooting members of the Summit PAL Junior Rifle Range have been asked to report to range officers on the same week nights they were assigned last year, with the exception of those assigned Monday and Tuesday, who are all to report on Tuesday nights only, according to a recent announcement.

The rifle club is open to any youngster 12 through 18 years. Registration will be held at 2 p.m., on Sunday, Oct. 6, at PAL headquarters, Union place.

A small fee is charged all members for registration and membership cards. All ammunition, targets, use of club rifles and instructous services are supplied free by the PAL and residents of Summit.

New members, with little or no experience, will start their training session on Sunday, for four consecutive weeks to learn safe and efficient handling of rifles. All trainees are required to attend the four sessions.

The club has also announced that visiting parents are welcome at the range, and a special appeal has been made for assistants, both men and women, to assist. No shooting experience is required.

Dr. Mary Walker, one of the first women to wear pants and other masculine clothing in public, was awarded the Medal of Honor for her services as a physician in the war between the states.

Chubb, Ciba Battle for Lead In Women's Loop

Chubb and Son and Ciba won two games from the Hilltoppers and the Twill Printers, respectively, last week to hold their first place tie in the Summit Women's Recreation Bowling League. Anne Scheippi (482) and Edna Sturcke (402) were the top bowlers for the Chubb team, with Eleanor Stefanek and the highest bowler for the Hilltoppers.

Ciba lost their opening game to the Twill Printers, but came back strong in the middle and closing games, with Kay Harvey (515) and Harriet Ahern (449) the big guns. Evelyn Brunner and Doris Kuzma posted the top series for the Twill Printers. Kay Harvey's sparkling 515 series included a big 217 game in the windup.

The Doyles projected themselves into the fight for top honors by winning three games from Celanese on the bowling of Alice Gavin (499) and Mary Genualdi (439) with Kathy Singer of Celanese rolling a sparkling 486 series in a losing cause.

Ashwood Esso won the opening and middle games from Charline Drugs, with Millie Buczynski sparking the double win with a 448 series, which included a 172 middle game effort. Pearl Petescia was the standout bowler for Charline Drugs, rolling a 436 three-game total. Balish rolled to a three game sweep over the Ray Niede Decorators, with Velma Curry (431) and Francis Marcelliano (448) rolling the top series for their respective teams.

Parents to See Children in New State Film

Many Brayton school parents will see their own children in the movies next Monday night (October 7), when the full color film "This Is New Jersey" is shown at a meeting of the PTA in the Brayton auditorium. John T. Cunningham of Florham Park, historian from whose book the film took its title, will speak. The meeting is at 7:45 p.m.

Highlights of the film, which was produced by the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company as a tribute to the state and its people, include scenes in Brayton school. The cameras also follow a group of youngsters from the school on a trip through Washington's Headquarters and Jockey Hollow National Park in Morristown.

The film tells the story of the state in all its aspects, covering working, living, playing and studying in New Jersey and a fifth area best described as New Jersey's heritage and culture.

Ranging from the Palisades in the north to the tip of Cape May, the camera takes viewers on a tour of the state's farms, industries, resorts and historical sites.

The film has, since its release last March, been one of the most popular documentaries ever produced. It has already been shown more than 4,500 times before more than 300,000 people, with more than 5,500 additional requests for its use now on the books.

The film is designed to give residents of New Jersey an added sense of pride in their state and to give out-of-state visitors a picture of the state different from the one they see from a train window.

A heat wave during the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis led to the birth of iced tea. An English tea exhibitor dismayed at the refusal of fairgoers to drink his hot brew, added ice to strong tea and came up with what proved to be the most popular drink at the exposition.

What makes your electric dollar bigger than all the rest?

The answer's simple. The cost of living has skyrocketed, yet the cost of electricity has hardly moved! Just take a look at the clothes you're wearing. It wasn't too long ago when you could have bought two suits or dresses for the price of one today. Now, count the electrical conveniences in your home—the light you're reading by, the TV in the corner, or the electric range, toaster, washer, dryer and freezer (you could probably name a dozen more). Your electric dollar buys more pleasure and comfort while your other dollars buy less. And you can depend on electricity for even more low cost service in the future.

Electricity is the biggest bargain in the family budget!

YOUNG AND BEAUTIFUL

Perfect right, is the general comment on this newly listed brick front center hall Colonial. Panelled den and recreation room, in Franklin School area. We have a key and 10 minutes is all it will take to inspect, approve and purchase before someone else.

HOLLAND BOUND

The day the owner took title, three weeks ago, to his brand new, custom built, 5-bedroom, 3½-bath, plus panelled family room (25x17) with fireplace on first floor, his company said "You're Holland Bound for three years, leaving Oct. 16." This news was top secret until now. Getting passports and packing is time-consuming, so appointments must be made to inspect this most unusual ultra-executive home in one of Summit's superb locations.

Chamber Issues Tips for Those Buying New Homes

W. Rae Crane, executive secretary of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce, this week made some suggestions to persons who are planning to buy or build a home.

Crane stated that acquiring a home is a complex business transaction. The Chamber executive said that certain major pitfalls can be foreseen and avoided by persons who take the time to study their own situation, and who keep certain factors in mind when selecting or building a home.

Among the important questions cited by the Chamber manager for consideration by future homeowners is the matter of price. Crane stated:

"Three factors enter into this question. The first is the homeowner's annual income, and his prospect for the years to come. The second is the amount of savings available to the homeowner at the time of purchase. The third is the extent of the obligations and commitments in other areas which the homeowner may have, or may reasonably expect in addition to the cost of carrying a home.

"It has sometimes been suggested that, under normal circumstances, a family can buy a home priced at about 2½ times its annual income. For some families, three times the annual income is not excessive, and, in other instances, even 2½ times the annual income may prove to be too risky. Such risks can arise when other large expenditures loom such as medical outlays, or a new business being started by the head of the family that may not earn a profit at the start."

Regarding down payments and mortgages, the Chamber manager noted that the larger the down payment the homeowner can make, the less will be his monthly carrying charges. Also, a mortgage carried over a shorter period of time will cost considerably less in interest charges than a long term mortgage. These factors, however, must be weighed against certain other considerations. The Chamber manager noted:

"It is not wise for a family to divest itself of all its savings in order to make the maximum possible down payment. Many extras can and will arise, for which cash must be available. For example, the purchaser of a new home may find that he wishes to acquire storm windows, electrical appliances and additional landscaping. The purchaser of a second-hand home may have all the necessary screen doors, appliances and landscaping, but may soon be faced with repairs to heating and plumbing installations and the roof. Both purchasers can expect certain costs to attend the closing of the transaction."

The Chamber manager cited the following important factors to keep in mind in selecting a home most suited to the family's needs: accessibility, taxes, land values, zoning protections, characteristics of the neighborhood, availability of public services and public utilities, and schools.

The Chamber executive also cited five important elements that are present in the value of a home. They are: The lot or piece of property; the appearance and architecture of the home; the layout and floor plan of the home; the structural features which have been included; and the mechanical installations. These items should all be carefully checked, and the homeowner should take any deficiencies into consideration in making his decision.

Crane strongly recommended that prospective homeowners retain the services of an attorney in making the transaction for the purchase of the home.

The Chamber manager also encouraged residents of the area to seek information from the Chamber of Commerce on persons or firms with whom the prospective homeowner is not personally familiar. He stated:

"As in all other fields, a small minority of promoters in the home building industry have perpetrated schemes on the public. Homeowners and the reputable building industry will both profit when the homeowner investigates before investing in a new home."

TIME TO COME DOWN—G. William Calnan, the city's new forester, examines a dead tree at the corner of Kent Place boulevard and DeForest avenue in front of the Methodist Church. According to Mr. Calnan, the tree's roots had no place to go and consequently fell victim to starvation. The new post of city forester carries with it the responsibility of caring and preserving some 13,000 city trees.
(Wolin Photo)

Care of 13,000 City Trees Keeps New Forester On Go

Keeping approximately 13,000 street shade trees healthy and fit has become a full-time job for G. William Calnan, Summit's new city forester.

Since much of the community's beauty comes from the shaded tree-lined streets, the city found it necessary last spring to employ a tree expert for their preservation and care and to help combat the Dutch Elm disease. In addition, since many of the city's elms have been struck by the dread disease, it is Mr. Calnan's responsibility to replace, if possible, these tree-barren spots throughout the area.

Ironically, the fate of the many tree replacements by the city during the last few years will not be determined for at least two years because of this summer's severe drought.

However, Mr. Calnan credits city fathers with having the foresight to plan a tree-lined community for the edification of its residents. Since it is not unusual for hilltops, such as Summit, to be devoid of trees, it was this continuous planting that prevented the area from becoming barren.

Prone to Disease

Unfortunately, as Mr. Calnan points out, many of the trees planted were silver maples (weed trees) which are easily prone to disease and susceptible to branch breakage, sewer stoppage and storm damage. However, it is known that many of the city trees are quite aged as was evidenced recently when trees that had to be chopped down in the Waldron and Hobart avenue section were found to be upwards of 250 years old.

Country-bred, outside of Boston as well as in Maine, Mr. Calnan has been a tree enthusiast all his life. As a young man he had no intention to make the care of trees his livelihood until a friend in the service during the Korean war suggested he take the University of Massachusetts short arboricultural course for the care and preservation of trees.

According to Mr. Calnan, the Dutch Elm disease, first found in the New York area in 1930, is a vascular disease, comparable to blood poisoning in a human. The spread of the disease is attributed to the elm bark beetle which seems to act as a common carrier from elm to elm. New England has been hardest hit by this particular tree blight.

City Sets Up Spray Program

As a precaution, the city has set up a spray program and last spring approximately 510 trees were treated. Unfortunately, 18 shade trees have been cut down because they could not be saved and it is estimated that approximately 18 more will also be lost. Whatever program the city adopts to preserve the trees, Mr. Calnan feels it will take three to five years before results are known.

Mr. Calnan works in close cooperation with Herbert Brenn of Jersey Central, whose main job is directing tree topping to prevent overhead wire entanglements.

"Street Raising"

Another of his responsibilities is the "raising of streets", which means tree pruning to permit clear passage of trucks, pedestrians and fire apparatus.

A resident of 317 Springfield avenue, Mr. Calnan has found Summit to be a "friendly town" and is "glad to have the opportunity to preserve some of the finest trees" he has ever seen.

However, he points out that the city needs constant tree planning to preserve its present beauty. "We sometimes forget that if a 100-year-old tree dies, it can never be replaced in our lifetime and its beauty is lost to us forever." Mr. Calnan has taken it upon his shoulders to see that such a catastrophe never overtakes Summit.

At Vermont University

Miss Dianne W. Lundry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lundry of 91 Woodland avenue, is a member of the freshman class at the University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt. She is a graduate of Summit High School.

Reason for Bayonets

Editor, Summit Herald:

We noted with interest your very reasonable editorial on the difficulties of speeding up school integration in the South. There is still another aspect of the problem which adds to the difficulties.

Our organization, as its name implies, has been active in the study of Constitutional problems. There are many who believe that the Supreme Court in its decision on integration actually legislated and thus usurped powers vested in Congress and the States. We concur in this view. Unfortunately, such views have not been publicized in the North but have been spread about in the South.

It is hard to persuade people in the South to submit to the directives of the Court when they feel, perhaps with good reason, that the legality of the decision is in question. Then it indeed takes troops with fixed bayonets to enforce the decision.

DEATHS

Mrs. Edward Beavers

Mrs. Gertrude E. Beavers, wife of Edward G. Beavers of 7 Gary road, died Monday at Overlook Hospital after a brief illness. She was 81.

A native of Allentown, Pa., she moved here about three years ago after residing at Irvington and Lebanon. Mrs. Beavers was a member of the Springfield Methodist Church and its WSCS and Irvington chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Walter Becker of Springfield and Mrs. Stanley C. Vanderhoof of Berkeley Heights; two sisters, Miss Lillian Beers and Mrs. Elizabeth Garrabrandt, both of Ocean Grove; three grandchildren and a great grandchild.

Services were held yesterday at 1 p.m. at Irvington.

Mrs. Florence Long Coggeshall

Mrs. Florence Long Coggeshall of 25 Pine Grove avenue died on Tuesday after a long illness. She was 74.

The widow of Harry Bliss Coggeshall, former Summit building contractor, Mrs. Coggeshall lived her entire life here. She was a member of Calvary Episcopal Church.

She is survived by two sons, Lester L. Coggeshall of Springfield, Penn., and Hubert E. Coggeshall of St. Louis.

Funeral services will be held today at 11 a.m. from the Burroughs and Kohr Funeral Home, 309 Springfield avenue, conducted by Rev. Elmer F. Francis of Calvary Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Fairmount Cemetery, Chatham.

October 24 Deadline Set For Political Releases

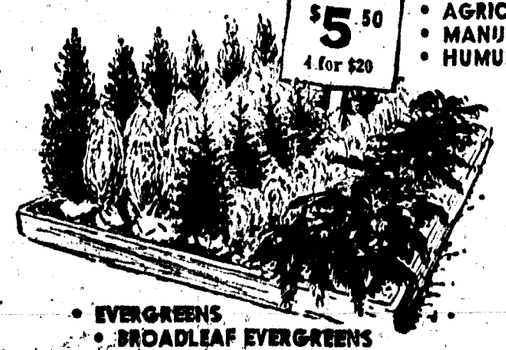

With the imminent approach of the political campaign season, The Summit Herald wishes to remind candidates, their aides and readers, that the deadline for ALL political releases and Letters to the Editor of a political nature will be Thursday, October 24.

The cutting off of all campaign statements other than advertising is a practice adopted by The Herald a few years ago in the interest of fairness to all concerned. Adeadline for political releases eliminates the possibility of last minute statements which can not be answered prior to the election.

The Herald also wishes to remind candidates that letters to the editor submitted on their behalf must not exceed 200 words and are subject to editorial revision.

dinance was introduced regulating the installation of gas heating equipment in the city. Under the proposed ordinance gas heating installations would be subject to the same standards imposed upon oil burner installations in order to secure proper safety precautions.

In addition, Council awarded a contract for cleaning and improvement of Vanderpoel Pond, at River road and Morris-Essex turnpike, to M. J. Merle and Sons of North Arlington, for $1,125.

Special police officers Theodore Meeker and Michael Natisazi were appointed for special guard duty at Ciba Pharmaceuticals, Inc., while the appointments of Alfred Busby and Allen Shaw were rescinded. The name of Henry Murray, deceased, was dropped from the special officers' list.

A livery license was granted to Progressive Hill City Cab Radio Cab, Inc., of 14 Chestnut avenue, for the operation of 2 cabs.

Council was advised by the Planning Board that a request to change a business zone at Miele place and River road to an A-3 residential zone, had been turned down.

Absent from council meeting were Councilmen Hugo Riemer and Carl Foreberg.
