EDITORIAL

WITH THE COMPLETION of the additions to Verona High School, its students can look forward to a new field of opportunities and a wider scope of achievements. The desire for expansion which is the driving force of youth is somewhat appeased. Their distantly visualized futures have been made much brighter.

However, these futures are not as distant as they seem, for the graduation of students from this school brings them immediately in touch with the future. Many of them will soon definitely break the ties which have bound them to this fundamental, character-forming epoch of their lives, and when they gaze in retrospection upon their high school days, they will value more fully the opportunities of Youth.

So, while we may, let us build on the newly strengthened foundation of our careers a more sturdy structure which will justify the efforts of those who have attempted to aid us in our struggles for success.

History of the Class of 1929

EARLY in September, 1925, the present lordly and dignified Seniors entered the High School as Freshmen. For all our nonchalance, we were, perhaps, a little doubtful of the reception which would be accorded us. We had not long to wait, for on the hike, the first great event of our High School life, we were made to realize how utterly insignificant and worthless a Freshman is.

Soon we elected the following class officers: President, Arthur Griffin; Vice-President, John Moore; Secretary, May King; Treasurer, Russell Purdy.

The Hallowe'en party given by the Seniors and the dances given by the Juniors and Sophomores were very enjoyable events.

Then on April 23, occurred the greatest, most momentous, most delightful social affair of the season—that is, to our minds—the Freshman party. Since the party was to be the same night the parents were to visit the school, we knew that we might expect a large attendance and so must do our best to make our party a success. All agreed that we succeeded in our purpose.

Of course, although it may not seem possible, we did study from time to time. At times (for instance, before examinations) we studied considerably.

Our dean this year and in our Sophomore year was Miss Helen Hosp, to whom great credit is due for her unceasing but vain efforts to make us a respectable, quiet class.

Class Night and Graduation came and almost before we knew it our Freshman year was over.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year, our thoughts turned with pleasure to the coming hike and initiation of Freshmen. We found this hike more enjoyable than the previous one.

In due time we elected officers: William Fismer, president; Edwin Lewis, vice-president; John Moore, secretary; May King treasurer. This year we had an addition to the faculty, Miss Imogene Cook, instructor in mathematics.

The Hallowe'en party given by the Seniors was, as always, an amusing and delightful affair. The next social event was the Juniors' dance. Then we gave ours.

This year we found it necessary to work a little harder. However, we did not let work interfere with our having a good time.

Again Class Night and Graduation came and we realized that another year had rolled by, that we were nearer the coveted position of Seniors.

We came back to start our Junior year, not so loath to return as one might suppose, for we had grown to love Verona High.

Our officers for this year were: President, James McEwan; Vice-President, William Fismer; Secretary-Treasurer, Marie Sonn. Mrs. Edith Burton replaced Miss Grace Wilson as English teacher.

Much to our surprise the hike went off very well without any assistance from us.

The Hallowe'en party as usual was a great success.

For the past two years we had been interested in the annual plays given by the Juniors and Seniors. However, our only part in them had been to sell tickets. This year it was decided to give only one play, the cast of which was to be chosen from the whole school. Marie Sonn was a member of the cast of "Alice-Sit-By-The-Fire" by Barrie, presented in the middle of December.

At Christmas time, the class wrote and produced in Assembly a Christmas play.

After a year of hard work we were delighted but a little apprehensive as Class Night approached. We had the whole responsibility of Class Night on our shoulders. It was at this time that we most appreciated Mrs. Prince, our dean in our Junior and Senior years. Without her we would have found it difficult to make Class Night a success. This was the first time we received knocks individually. But, to compensate us, we knocked the Seniors.

Now we are Seniors, but it is not unalloyed joy for we are sorry at the thought of soon leaving our beloved school.

When we returned this year the addition to the school was completed. Its chief features are a well equipped cafeteria, manual training rooms, and a chemistry and physics laboratory. Naturally, these necessitated many new teachers. Miss Hopper, in charge of the cafeteria, had an assistant in Miss Claussen; Mr. Dwyer, manual training instructor, had Mr. Smith as an assistant; Mr. Renn had charge of the science; Miss Culbertson had taken Miss Batchelder's place as art teacher, and Miss Lynn was assisted in the office by Miss Cussen.

This year we elected the following officers: President, Arthur Roberts; Vice-President, John Moore; Secretary-Treasurer, Marie Sonn; Historian, May King.

This year we gave the Hallowe'en party. We tried to live up to the high standard set by previous classes and believe we succeeded.

The cast for the play this year was chosen from the Junior and Senior classes. "Our Mutual Friend" by Dickens, with six Seniors in the cast, was presented.

The great, never to be forgotten event of the year was our trip to Washington in April. Words fail to describe it.

Quickly the days flew by to the end of our Senior year.

M. K. '29.

The Washington Trip

FOR WEEKS—in fact, months—before the great day arrived, the Seniors had discussed the Washington Trip from all angles, not even omitting the hope that they would be given good “eats,” for we all know what a weakness the Seniors have for food. Time passed not too quickly to suit the impatient Seniors, but soon the day, and finally the hour arrived.

We boarded the 1:33 train at Newark and, after traversing the length of the train and then some, we were finally settled on our way to the “White City.” We passed the time away by playing cards and blowing up balloons and popping them. Two of our talented musicians gave selections on the harmonica and Jew’s harp.

The time passed all too soon and before we realized it, the train drew into the Pennsylvania Station at Washington. On our arrival a bus conveyed us to our hotel.

After dinner we visited the Library of Congress. It is the most elaborately adorned structure conceivable. Here we spent a delightful hour inspecting in the reading room the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, newspapers from all over the United States, paintings, statues, and old coins.

From there we returned to the hotel, and went to our rooms to prepare for bed. Once there, however, some of us changed our minds and decided to stay up all night, but in the wee hours of the morning the sandman made a return trip, and soon we were all in the land of dreams.

A few early risers the next morning took a stroll before breakfast but to most of us bed was more appealing.

After breakfast we were conducted to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, where we saw United States currency of all denominations, and stamps of all kinds.

Following this we visited the Pan-American Building, with its unique structure; the Smithsonian Institute where we saw the flag that inspired the writing of our national anthem, the “state” gowns of the President’s wives, the “Spirit of St. Louis,” and various other things of great interest; the New National Museum the White House in all its splendor; and last, but not least, the Capitol itself. The afternoon was spent in touring the business and residential sections of Washington and in visiting the Arlington Cemetery, Amphitheatre, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the Lincoln Memorial.

In the evening we were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brown at the Fox Theatre; returning to the hotel ready to fall asleep standing on our feet.

Saturday morning arrived too soon for most of us, but, as it was our last day, we were anxious to see as much as possible in so short a time.

In the morning on our way to Mount Vernon we stopped in Alexandria, Virginia, where we visited the Carlyle House; the Washington-Masonic Society-Headquarters; Christ Church, which Washington and his family attended; and also the Old Presbyterian Meeting House. From there we proceeded to Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington. Here we spent a delightful hour inspecting the rooms and grounds of the mansion.

After luncheon we had a few hours to ourselves before train time. These were spent in various ways. A few of us climbed the Washington Monument; others walked around the capitol grounds; still others visited the Washington Airport.

The time for our departure came all too soon, and we sadly bade farewell to Washington. The trip home was most pleasant and we passed away the time by playing cards and games, and talking.

On our arrival in Newark the group broke up, each going to his own home to relate his version of the wonderful trip to many eager listeners.

The Way We Are Not

We're the V. H. S. Seniors—
We don't lag or shirk.
We're very efficient—
Our middle name's "work".
We study hard, just the way
We ought, too.
That's how we got here;
Smashing through!

The Way We Are

We're the V. H. S. Seniors—
We're old at it now.
Somehow we got here,
No one knows how.
We don't do our lessons—BUT
Some think we do.
That's how we got here—
Bluffing through!

(Note: Due to a mistake in printing, the above poems are headed by the wrong titles, OF COURSE, they OUGHT to be just the opposite.)

Senior Class Will

WE, THE CLASS OF '29, of the town of Verona, County of Tunerville, State of Ignorance, Western Hemisphere; being of sound mind, memory, and understanding; do make, publish, and declare the following as and for, our last Will and Testament; that is to say:

First, we give, devise, and bequeath to our Alma Mater the locks for our lockers provided we get our dollar.

Second, we give, devise, and bequeath to our superintendent, Mr. Brown, a soft bed to enable him to have a comfortable position while on night duty at Hotel Driscoll.

Third, we give, devise, and bequeath to Mr. Crane one nice wig to cover his fast-developing bald spot.

Fourth, we give, devise, and bequeath to our class dean, Mrs. Prince, a gallon of Cod Liver Oil to ____ need we say?

Fifth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Miss Markham some turpentine and goose grease for future use in case of poison ivy.

Sixth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Hiss Hosp a straight-jacket to hold her when the fire horn blows.

Seventh, we give, devise, and bequeath to Mr. Wilkin some sleeping powder so he, too, can sleep with the fourth year French class.

Eighth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Mrs. Burton a false face—to use when she has her picture taken.

Ninth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Miss Cook a purse to reimburse her for what she has spent on giving parties this year.

Tenth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Mr. Goeltz a new battery to help him start his car in the rain.

Eleventh, we give, devise, and bequeath to Miss Beck a contract to teach maypole dances to the patients at Overbrook.

Twelfth, we give, devise, and bequeath to Mr. Renn money to complete his correspondence course in dancing.

Thirteenth, we give, devise, and bequeath to the Class of '30 the remains of our Class treasury.

Fourteenth we give, devise, and bequeath to the Class of '31 a sash-weight to hang on the end of their nose.

Fifteenth we give, devise, and bequeath to the Class of '32 a map to find out their place.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal at our residence in the Whitehorne High School on this fourteenth day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-nine.

SENIOR CLASS, '29

ALUMNI NOTES IN THE YEAR BOOK IN 1940

John Moore is doing well in the exporting business and is living in Brookline, Massachusetts, a suburb of Boston.

The Detroit Tigers seem to be headed for another pennant and "Tip" O'Neil still holds down the shortstop job against all comers.

A card arrived from Florida the other day from Arthur Roberts, stating that he is in the hotel business and that the water is just fine.

Crane Shepherd has just built a brand new house in East Orange so the tire business is still holding out.

Edwin Lewis has just been appointed head coach of all athletics at Roselle Park High School.

Frederick Lange is still making teeth for "Verona's 400" or anyone else who needs them.

William Bandel is now head teller in the Verona Trust Company.

Lloyd Anderson is now a headliner in the movies but says television is taking away all the business.

Marion Crawford is no longer somebody's "stenog" but is Mrs. R. T. Steele.

May King teaches English and History in the Dunmore, Penn. High School.

Marjorie Smith has just returned from Africa but expects to resume her missionary duties in a few months.

William Fisser is an industrial engineer but finds time to run out-board motors in his spare time.

Bertha Van Doren is a court stenographer in the United States Circuit Court in Newark.

Florence Genser is the author and composer of several new hits that everyone is whistling.

Lee Hedden's Syncopators still play for dancing at the Roseland Ballroom. He has been offered an engagement abroad.

Marie Sonn also teaches school in one of the Bloomfield Junior High Schools.

Ruth Ashe is married and lives in Washington, D. C. She finds that housekeeping isn't what it is cracked up to be.

George Bandel is now a full-fledged pilot and takes Uncle Sam's mail safely between New York and Boston.

Eileen Brown is the secretary of the Missouri Society with offices on Forty-first Street.

James McEwan was an engineer on the new tunnel between Brooklyn and Staten Island.

Dorothy Williams is a confidential secretary to the state senator from Essex County.

Mildred Noback has forsaken the beauty culture business for matrimony. May she ever happy be!

Arthur Griffin is on the managers' staff at the National Broadcasting Company and sometimes to fill in does some announcing.

The Parent Teacher Association

THE 1928-29 term of Parent-Teacher Meetings was opened on Thursday evening, October 11, 1928 at 7:30 o'clock as an Executive board meeting by Mrs. McEwan, president. Regular meetings were held each month during December and thereafter, excepting January which was omitted because of the prevalence of illness in Verona. The Treasurer reported a balance of $32.80 to begin the year's work.

The important business of this first meeting was the discussion of this association's joining with The State Association, and this step being decided upon, formal application was made by us, and at the November Meeting we were fully accredited members of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers. In accordance with this step our previous secretary and parliamentarian, Mrs. Pilger, was asked to frame the constitution to conform with the State constitution, and several amendments were made to the by-laws. Ten cents per each enrolled member was sent by the Treasurer to the State Treasurer, and five cents per each to the National Treasurer. We are thereby entitled to all State and National Association benefits. Only paid members are eligible to vote. The Treasurer was directed to send two dollars to the County Treasurer for dues.

It was decided to join with the Bloomfield Avenue Parent-Teacher Association in the purchase of card tables sometime during the year, said tables to be the property of both Associations and to be stored in the school.

A cake sale was held in October increasing the balance in the treasury.

The name of the Association was changed to the Parent-Teacher Association of the Henry B. Whitehorne High School of Verona, in accordance with the change in name of the high school.

The death of the President of the School Board, Mr. William A. Smith, was generally mourned by all Verona, and in particular by this Association. A resolution was framed and a copy sent to the bereaved family with expressions of sympathy, and another copy inscribed in the minutes of the Association.

An award was offered by the Association for first place in the annual Public Speaking Contest. Marie Sonn received this award.

The November meeting on November 12 at 7:30 was in the form of a get-together dinner, served by Miss Hopper in the school cafeteria. Mr. Wilkin was toastmaster. Mr. Threlkeld of South Orange was a very able speaker. The dinner was excellent. Music was enjoyed by all under Mrs. Corrigan's leadership and tokens of appreciation of the Association members were presented to Mr. Threlkeld and Miss Hopper during the evening.

The December meeting was a special meeting held jointly with all five Parent-Teacher Associations of Verona. Mrs. Clark of Upper Montclair, county chairman, was present and spoke to us. Miss Charl Williams, Chairman of Education in the National Association, addressed us on the subject, "Why We Need a Regular Department of Education in Washington with a Secretary in the President's Cabinet". Mrs. Harry Dryden as President of the Bloomfield Avenue P. T. A. gave a report on her trip to the convention at Atlantic City.

The February meeting was in the form of a school session on February 18, at 7:30 in the evening. Regular classes were held and the parents were invited to inspect the work. This was followed by a short business meeting.

A card party and dance was held under the auspices of the Association on March 15 for the benefit of the Washington Trip fund. $237.75 was realized from this party. A card party was given by the Scholarship Fund, assisted by all Parent-Teachers Associations on April 12.

A short Latin play was presented by members of the Senior and Junior classes at the March meeting. It proved very entertaining. Miss Littlefield of the Montclair Teacher's College, spoke of "The Teaching of Languages." Mr. Williams of the College Student Council also urged more boys to embrace teaching as a life work.

A benefit performance for the Scholarship Fund was given in the Verona Theatre on the evening of March 12.

A vaudeville show was planned for May 10th. Mr. Roberts acted as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Lange, Mr. McEwan and Mrs. DeCamp. At present writing, that day has not come to pass, but the entertainment, with Mr. Hoffman as coach, promises to be good, and to make a satisfactory close to a busy and successful year for the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

MARIAN L. DRYDEN

Recording Secretary.

Opinions on the Annual

(The following testimonies, entirely unsolicited, speak for themselves. We are receiving hundreds of others like them daily.

PRESIDENT HOOVER—The book possesses qualities deserving the observation and respect of every worthy citizen.

BERNARD SHAW—A book worthy of being Doctor Elliot's "Five-Foot Book-Shelf."

LENINE—It tisky a rejmarkable bookovitch.

THE PRINCE OF WALES—It jolly well breaks the monotony of this tiresome journey—don't y' know.

GHANDI—Entirely too frivolous.

H. CRANE—It goes without saying that it is a book of remarkable high standing.

A. CONAN DOYLE—A book worthy of being taken to the spirit world. Washington rises from his grave to praise it.

SOCCER TEAM

BASEBALL TEAM

Soccer Season 1928-1929

VERONA HIGH SCHOOL'S soccer representatives established a good name for themselves during the soccer season just passed. They played nine games, most of them against Class A teams, all on the opponents' fields. They won three, tied three and lost three. Coach Goeltz deserves great credit for such a team.

The season opened against Montclair, October 3, and the game was tied 1-1. The next game, October 8, found the team more organized but they lost by a last-minute goal to a strong East Orange team, 2-1. October 15 the Verona booters went to Barringer and won their first game 2-0. On the 18th, they travelled to Paterson and played the strong Central High of that city. The outcome was in doubt until Central scored in the last half and won, 1-0. On October 25, Kearney, a very much more experienced team, defeated Verona by 3-0. The next game was with Ridgewood on the 7th of November and Verona was victorious again 2-0. Montclair was played for the second time on November 14, and this time there was no doubt as to who was superior, Verona winning 3-1. Again on November 16, a rejuvenated Barringer team was met and the most exciting game of the year ensued. The final score was 2-2. On November 20, Central was played again. There was great rivalry between the teams and a fast game was the result. The score was 1-1 ending a most successful season.

Verona's goals were scored as follows: Captain Dox, 4; Lewis, 2; Lum, 2; Haight, 2; O'Neil, 1; Duffy, 1. Verona outscored her opponents by 12-11.

Verona players received much credit from opposing coaches for their sportsmanship. The season was the most successful enjoyed by a Verona High Soccer squad.

BASEBALL

This is the first year that Verona High School has had an organized baseball team and it has made an excellent beginning for teams of the future to follow.

Through the generosity of the Board of Education, the team received a fine outlay of suits and an excellent variety of playing equipment.

The team was considered quite strong and made a good showing against much larger schools. Though Captain O'Neil and some other valuable players will be lost, the chances of a successful team next year are very bright.

F. H. '30.

BASKETBALL

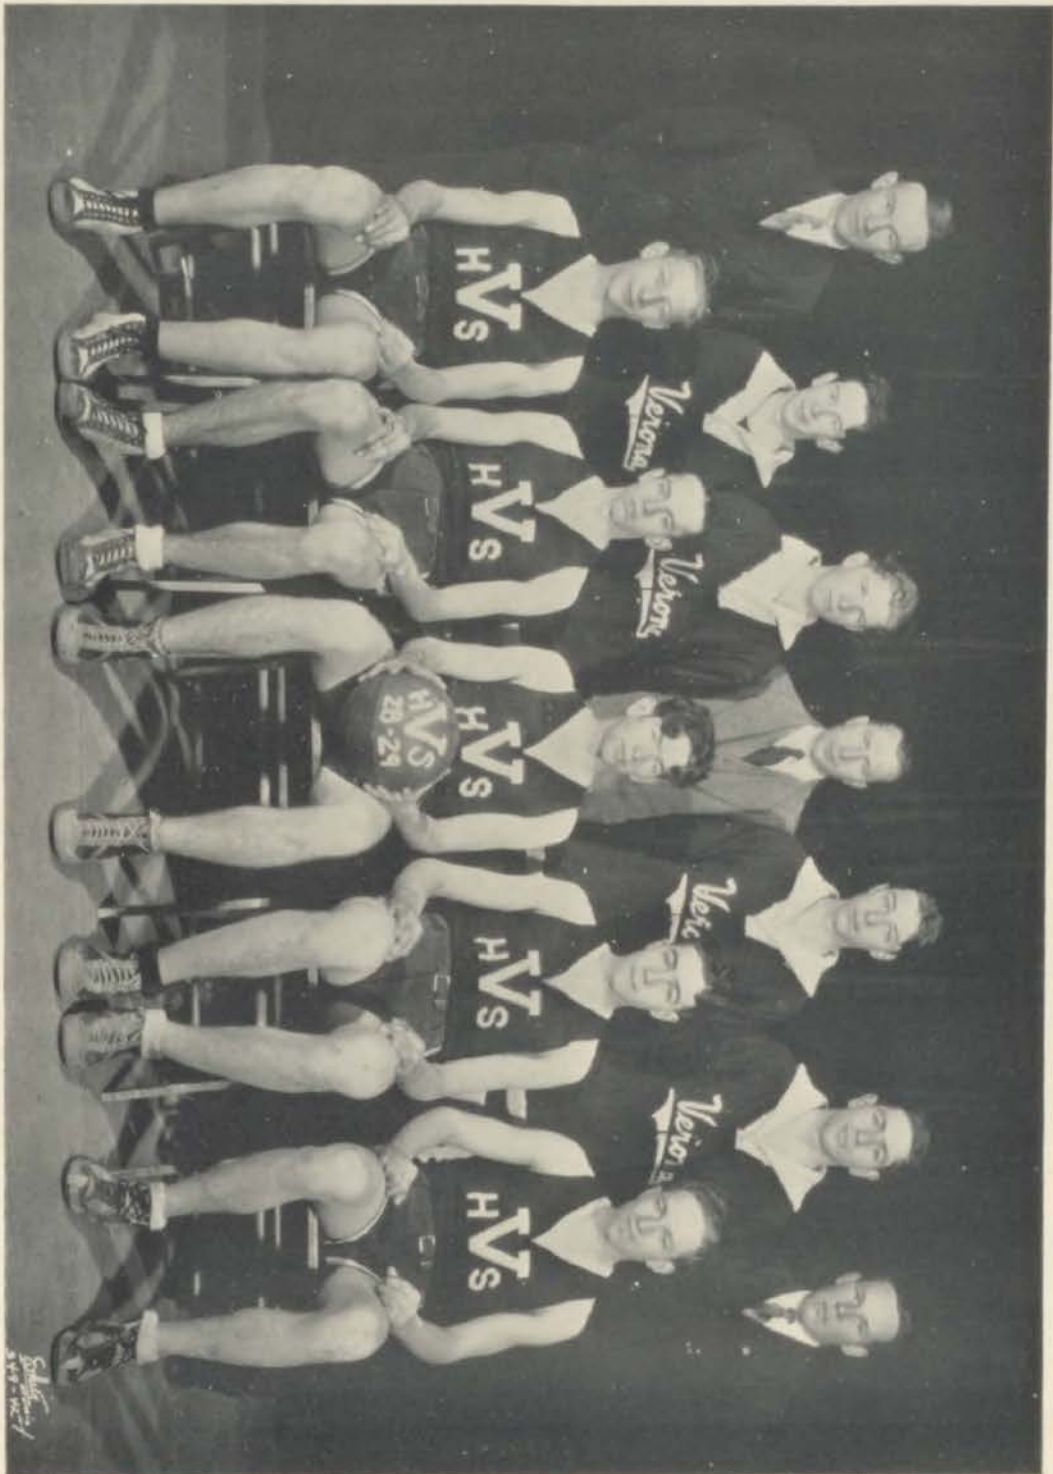

The team which represented Verona High School on the basketball court last season was the most successful in the school's history, and, under the strategic supervision of "Doc" Goeltz and Captain O'Neil, won 16 of 18 games and reached the third round in the state tournament.

The team successfully passed the first two obstacles on its schedule but struck a snag in its third opponent. This game was lost to Montclair by a heart-breaking score of 22-23.

During the week that school was closed, the team stayed at Mr. Goeltz's camp at Mahopac Falls, N. Y., and met three New York State opponents during its visit. Verona was victorious in all these encounters.

The boys then kept Verona's colors on top in the rest of the scheduled games, however, the biggest thrill was in twice subduing our traditional rival, Caldwell High. They were beaten by the scores of 42-36 and 27-26 in hard-fought, exciting games.

Due to this glorious showing and almost spotless record, it was decided to enter the State Tournament. To show their appreciation, the Board of Education presented the team with maroon and white sweaters which they wore during the tournament. As our first opponent we ran into an old acquaintance, Caldwell High. After beating them for a third time we hope they were convinced of their inferiority. Our next game was with Boonton. We won this by a close score. Ahead of us loomed the battle with Woodrow Wilson of Weehawken for the sectional title. The game which was played at Union City was attended by about 400 Verona fans who hoped to see a victorious team. Verona surged ahead at the start but soon the game became a nip and tuck battle. At the end of the third quarter Woodrow Wilson went into the lead. During the final period Verona tried desperately to close the widening gap. However, the opponents could not be held and at the end of the game the score was 30-25 against Verona. We were thus eliminated from the tournament but went down gamely fighting.

BASKETBALL TEAM

As a token of its recognition of the team's value, the Chamber of Commerce presented gold basketballs to the members of Verona's "Wonder Team."

Next year we will be faced with the loss of Captain "Tip" O'Neil but hope to develop another winning team under the guidance of Coach Goeltz and Captain-elect, Donald Haight.

The Girls' Athletic Club

The first meeting of the Girls' Athletic Club was held October 17, 1928. At this meeting the following officers were elected: President, May King; Vice-President, Marie Sonn; Secretary, Edith Lent; Treasurer, Anne Fenton; Recording Secretary, Marjorie Smith.

A bulletin was given to each girl which indicated the activities for the fall, winter and spring terms. This bulletin also explained eligibility requirements for points.

On October 23, the officers of the club drafted the constitution. At a later date this constitution was ratified by all the members.

The season of basketball proved very interesting, especially for the little Freshmen. We really must begin to take notice of them as they came out on top, winning every game in which they participated.

The baseball season then opened and a team from each class was selected. This sport proved to be almost as popular as basketball.

A great deal of the progress we have made has been due to the splendid ability of Miss Beck, our new Athletic Instructor.

The Student Council

THE STUDENT COUNCIL consists of thirteen members representing the student body. At the first meeting which was held on October 9th, the following officers were elected: President, Arthur Roberts; Vice-President, John Dox; Secretary, Miriam Roberts.

Some of the things that we have discussed during the year are conduct at school parties, sports, the publication of "Shadows," and the care of the lockers and school grounds.

An invitation was received and accepted to attend the Student Council Conference which was held at the Hackensack High School. Five of our members attended, and we received many helpful suggestions which could be applied to our own organization.

We decided to have three committees, namely; a Building and Grounds Committee, an Assembly, and a Lunch Committee. These organizations have proved very helpful during the past year.

The school year 1928-29 has been a very active one for the Student Council, and the members wish to express their appreciation to the faculty and student body for their support.

Whitehorne High School Symphony

THROUGHOUT the past year, the High School Symphony, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Corrigan, has had most enjoyable times and has accomplished creditable work.

Every year we have been growing and have added players until we now have twenty-five members.

Our repertoire contained many selections by well known composers. We have played for assemblies and other school functions. The high school feels that this organization is an indispensable asset for an ideal school.

This year the following officers were elected: President, Leroy Hedden; Secretary-Treasurer, Dorothy Brown.

We regret that Mrs. Corrigan will not be among our number next year but we wish to thank her for our enjoyable periods and extend our best wishes to her in the future.

B. V. '29.

Advanced Girls' Glee Club

Due to the large number of girls who appointed Glee Club as their favorite indoor sport, a division of classes became necessary. Junior and Seniors decided to meet on Wednesday, third period. The Freshmen and Sophomores chose Monday, third period, for their meeting.

At the first meeting election of officers took place. The officers for the school year, 1928-29, were: President, Marion Crawford; Vice-President, Helen Marsted; Secretary, Miriam Roberts.

During the past year, under the experienced leadership of Mrs. Corrigan, the Glee Club has sung in concert form.

One of the most important, as well as entertaining, events of the year was the Christmas carolling by the entire organization of Glee Clubs, including boys and girls. The next public performance was the rendering of two selections for the Rotary Club in assembly. And last, but not least, was the evening performance at the Public Speaking Contest.

Although we did not have the annual operetta this year, which in the past has proven very successful, and as this is Mrs. Corrigan's last year here, we wish to thank her for her loyal, entertaining and enjoyable help to us all.

M. R. '30.

Boys' Glee Club

Soon after the opening of school the Boys' Glee Club became organized for the 1928-29 term. Due to the increased size of the Glee Club it was found necessary to divide it into two groups, one which met on Friday, and a larger division meeting on Thursday.

In the Thursday group, composed of upper classmen, Thomas O'Neil was elected president, and Irving Moffatt, secretary. In the other section the officers were, Fred Lange, president, and Donald McGuire, secretary.

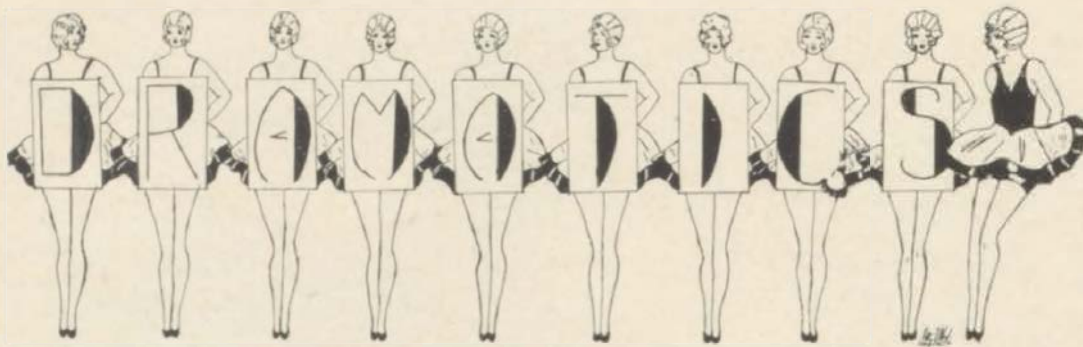

The first public appearance of the Glee Club was made by the upper classmen division, which sang at a meeting of the Verona Rotary Club at Crossways. Our program was heartily applauded and after it Mr. Carl Heller gave a talk telling of his experience in musical training and encouraging us in our work.

Soon the Christmas season approached and with it our annual carol singing tour which proved to be a success.

At our next appearance the entire group sang at the evening session of High School, and following this we sang at the Public Speaking Contest.

We are grieved to learn that this is the last year we will be under Mrs. Corrigan's leadership, but must thank her for the patience and perseverance she has shown us during the last four years.

"OUR MUTUAL FRIEND"

ON the evening of Friday, December seventh, the annual Verona High School play was presented. The name of this year's play was "Our Mutual Friend," one of Dicken's novels dramatized by Harriette Shattuck.

John Harmon's father disinherited his son and made Mr. and Mrs. Boffin, his servants, his heirs. The son, after concealing his whereabouts for years, secured employment under the name of John Rokesmith as Mr. Boffin's secretary, who styled him "Our Mutual Friend." During his secretaryship he boarded at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfer who had two daughters, Belle and Lavvy. In time Rokesmith was recognized by Mr. Boffin who graciously turned his estate back to him.

Rokesmith married one of his landlady's daughters, Bella, and Lavvy the other daughter married George Sampson, her lover.

After the play there was dancing, the music for which was furnished by the Westbrook Society Orchestra.

Mrs. Prince assumed the business responsibility of the play and properties were taken care of by Miss Cook.

Due to the competent coaching of Miss Hosp the play was made a great success.

"PYRAMUS AND THISBE"

Soon after Christmas vacation, the Junior-Senior Latin class, under the direction of Mrs. Burton, presented "Pyramus and Thisbe" from Ovid, for an assembly program. Marie Sonn took the part of Thisbe; Charlotte Wheaton, that of Pyramus; Eldon Earle, that of the lion; and Bertha Hodgson, that of the statue. The lines were spoken in Latin, which seemed to amuse the audience. The play was so well received, that it was repeated at one of the Parent-Teacher meetings, and again for the Latin Club of the Montclair State Teachers' College.

C. M. W. '30.

She was only a Scotchman's daughter so she always held them tight.

When there's nothing more to be done some man does it;
When there's nothing more to be said some woman says it.

I never believe a girl's promise of a kiss until I get it from her own lips.

THE SCHOOL HIKE was held the first week in October and the destination was, as usual, the Hemlocks in Caldwell. This was the first of the season's activities and is especially well remembered by the Freshmen. With what joy did they anticipate the event and with what happiness do they now remember their first school hike and, incidentally, their initiation! After arriving at the Hemlocks the boys played football and the girls played baseball until sundown, when the "inner man" could no longer remain unanswered. Then the Freshmen boys were coaxed to bring in wood for the fire, and all with one accord began to eat. When their hunger was somewhat appeased, the students formed a circle about the fire and the fun began! The worthy Sophomores initiated the Freshmen. Alumni and members of the school are familiar with this practice. But for those who are not familiar with the idea of a school initiation, we recommend an interview with one of the Freshmen who can undoubtedly furnish the necessary information!

THE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Late in October, the Seniors held a Hallowe'en Party in the High School Auditorium. The faculty and members of the school were invited to come in costume. Prizes were awarded for the prettiest, funniest and most original costumes. Dorothy Jacob, who came dressed as an old-fashioned girl, won the prize for the prettiest. Edwin Kautzmer who was dressed in towels to represent "Saturday Night Rain or Shine" won the prize for the funniest. Miss Lynn and Miss Beck, attired as clothes-poles, with wash on the line, were awarded the prize for the most original costume. Mr. Goetz, costumed as a shick, was master of ceremonies. Amid cornstalks and brilliant costumes, all made merry and departed thanking the Seniors for a very enjoyable evening.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

In honor of our very successful basketball team, the Sophomores gave a party, early in March. A few games were played, after which the Racketeers provided music for dancing. Later in the evening, the members of the team and the cheer-leaders were awarded letters. Refreshments consisted of punch and cup-cakes, but for the team, there was a special cake on which the names of the members of the team, Coach Goeltz and Mr. Wilkin were written. The party was a huge success—thanks to the Sophomores.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

The annual public speaking contest was held Friday evening, April 19th. The following seven pupils were the contestants and were coached by Miss Helen Hosp: Marie Sonn, Ruth Ashe, Charlotte Wheaton, Muriel Collins, George Derwig, William Busse and Hugh Lynn. Marie Sonn won the first prize of ten dollars; Ruth Ashe, the second prize of five dollars; and Charlotte Wheaton, honorable mention. The High School Glee Clubs and Orchestra, directed by Mrs. Corrigan offered selections between the recitations.

THIS WAY OUT

About fifteen students took advantage of the opportunity to see the annual musical comedy presented by the Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania. The party was accompanied by Mrs. Noback, Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. McEwan. The name of the play was "This Way Out," and was given Saturday, April 27th at the Metropolitan Opera House. This is the 49th annual production which the club has given. The parts were all taken by boys, in fact, about thirty of them appeared as girls.

On the return trip, only a few came on the same bus. The others were probably lured by the foot-lights of Broadway which they felt it their duty to investigate. However, the group arrived home safely, and who shall say whether they were not the wiser for their afternoon's adventures?

J. V. O. '30.

THE FRESHMAN PARTY

The Freshmen entertained the school on May 17th. A playlet entitled, "Courting Under Difficulties" was presented. Surely the audience encountered no difficulties when it came to laughing! Bill Camarata's orchestra was on hand to provide the music for dancing. Novelty dances were features of the evening entertainment. The refreshments were cake and punch. Judging from their first party, the class of "32" can be counted on to give the school a good time when it comes their turn again.

Mrs. Prince (in civics): "What privileges do churches have which other institutions don't have?"

Henry Leu: "They can stay open on Sundays."

Mr. Renn: "When water becomes ice what is the greatest change that takes place?"

Hugh Lynn: "The change in price."

Miss Cook: "If George had five cents and found ten cents what would he have?"

Jim Fr. "Good luck."

HOW TO GET THE BEST RESULTS

Always try to be a little tardy for each class; this delays the work and puts the teacher in the best of humor.

Don't bother about doing home work. The teacher only gives it for those who like to do it.

Don't be selfish and take all the high marks away from the other fellow. Give him a chance to sleep in class as you have done.

When a member of the faculty lectures you for ringing the fire bell, or some similar offense, smile and pat him playfully on the back to show him that you take it in the right spirit.

When you take a test, ask the teacher for a loan of her knowledge, she will be glad to give it to you.

If you are hungry or in a hurry noontime, go right up to the head of the line. Those in line think it's a good joke.

If you follow these instructions I guarantee that you will get a diploma in nine years or possibly eight and one-half.

GRAMMAR

You see a pretty girl walking down the street;
 If she has silk stockings on, she is feminine.
 If she is singular you become nominative;
 You walk across to her, changing to verbal.
 If she's not objective—you become plural;
 You walk home together—her mother is accusative.
 You become imperative.
 You go in and sit down—her little brother is an indefinite article.
 You talk of the future—she becomes the object.
 You kiss her—she becomes masculine.
 Her father is present—
 Things are tense—
 And you are a past participle.

VERONA THEATRE

Verona, N. J.

The Verona Theatre is a pleasant place to idle away a couple of evenings each week during the warm weather.

We are always booking the best Pictures we can for the Public's benefit; we have also installed sound, readjusted the seats and made numerous other improvements. So help us put it over big this summer.

professional school of technical training in Business Administration

Accountancy

Secretarial Practise

Classes for beginners at Pace Institute prepare high-school graduates for immediate earnings. Many Pace graduates are now treasurers and controllers of large corporations—others are in successful accountancy practise.

Field trips to the offices and plants of the largest organizations in New York City are conducted especially for day students in the Accountancy School and for day students in the Secretarial School.
