SHADOWS of 1950

FOREWORD

People's lives are woven by the hand of fate just as we hope this 1950 SHADOWS will weave together your many memories of V. H. S. Your joys and your sorrows, your hopes and defeats are herein recorded.

We have wandered bewildered beside you as freshmen, thrilled with you to the soft, slow music of the Prom, groaned with you over laborious homework assignments, laughed with you at a teacher's corny jokes, dreamt with you of future ambitions, fought with you as you gave your all for one of the teams of V. H. S., trembled with you as you delivered your first speech in front of the assembly, worked with you as you overcame the obstacles of a foreign language, and struggled with you through your toughest exam.

We hope the many threads which make up the patterns of your high school lives have been successfully woven together to form a whole cloth.

The Staff

Shadows of our memories that will linger with us always,
Here we find a record of our happy high school days.
A treasure to be cherished and tucked away,
Due for inspection some far off rainy day.
Open this book often and recall your high school years.
We, the staff, offer you a thousand souvenirs in
Shadows.

WE DEDICATE

the 1950 SHADOWS to one who has served us faithfully and well. Mrs. Lissner has won a place in all our hearts as a true friend. Right from the beginning she took us under her wing and guided us through those first confusing weeks.

Although two years elapsed until we were once more fortunate enough to be in her class, she always had a friendly hello and a smile for us in the hall.

In our junior year she took on the added responsibility of advising the cheerleaders and due to her assistance, they were able to work well.

It was a great blow to us when we heard that she was leaving. None of us will ever forget her wonderful personality and the lasting imprint she has made on our lives.

THE FACULTY

We are grateful for the able instruction so unselfishly given to us by our teachers. Their unfailing patience and understanding have been a constant source of inspiration to us and are greatly appreciated. The trials and tribulations they have undergone on our account have nevertheless paid dividends in that we have profited greatly by their untiring efforts.

SENIORS

Another year has drawn to a close and another senior class has found it time to say farewell to their Alma Mater as they start out into the world on their own.

As we begin this new way of life new experiences and obstacles will confront us. The foundations of our lives are laid during our high school years and much of what we are to become in future years is determined by how much we have profited by the knowledge our teachers have tried to impart to us. We have not been an ideal class by any stretch of the imagination; we have had our ups and downs; we have contributed good as well as bad. We have produced some able leaders, able athletes and able trouble makers. From our ranks will come those who shall ascend whatever heights to which they aspire and there are those whose lives the annals of history will by-pass. But great and small alike, the odds are great that whatever we become will have been greatly influenced by how well we have learned what V. H. S. has had to teach us. It was all there for us. . . . How well did we learn? Time alone will tell.

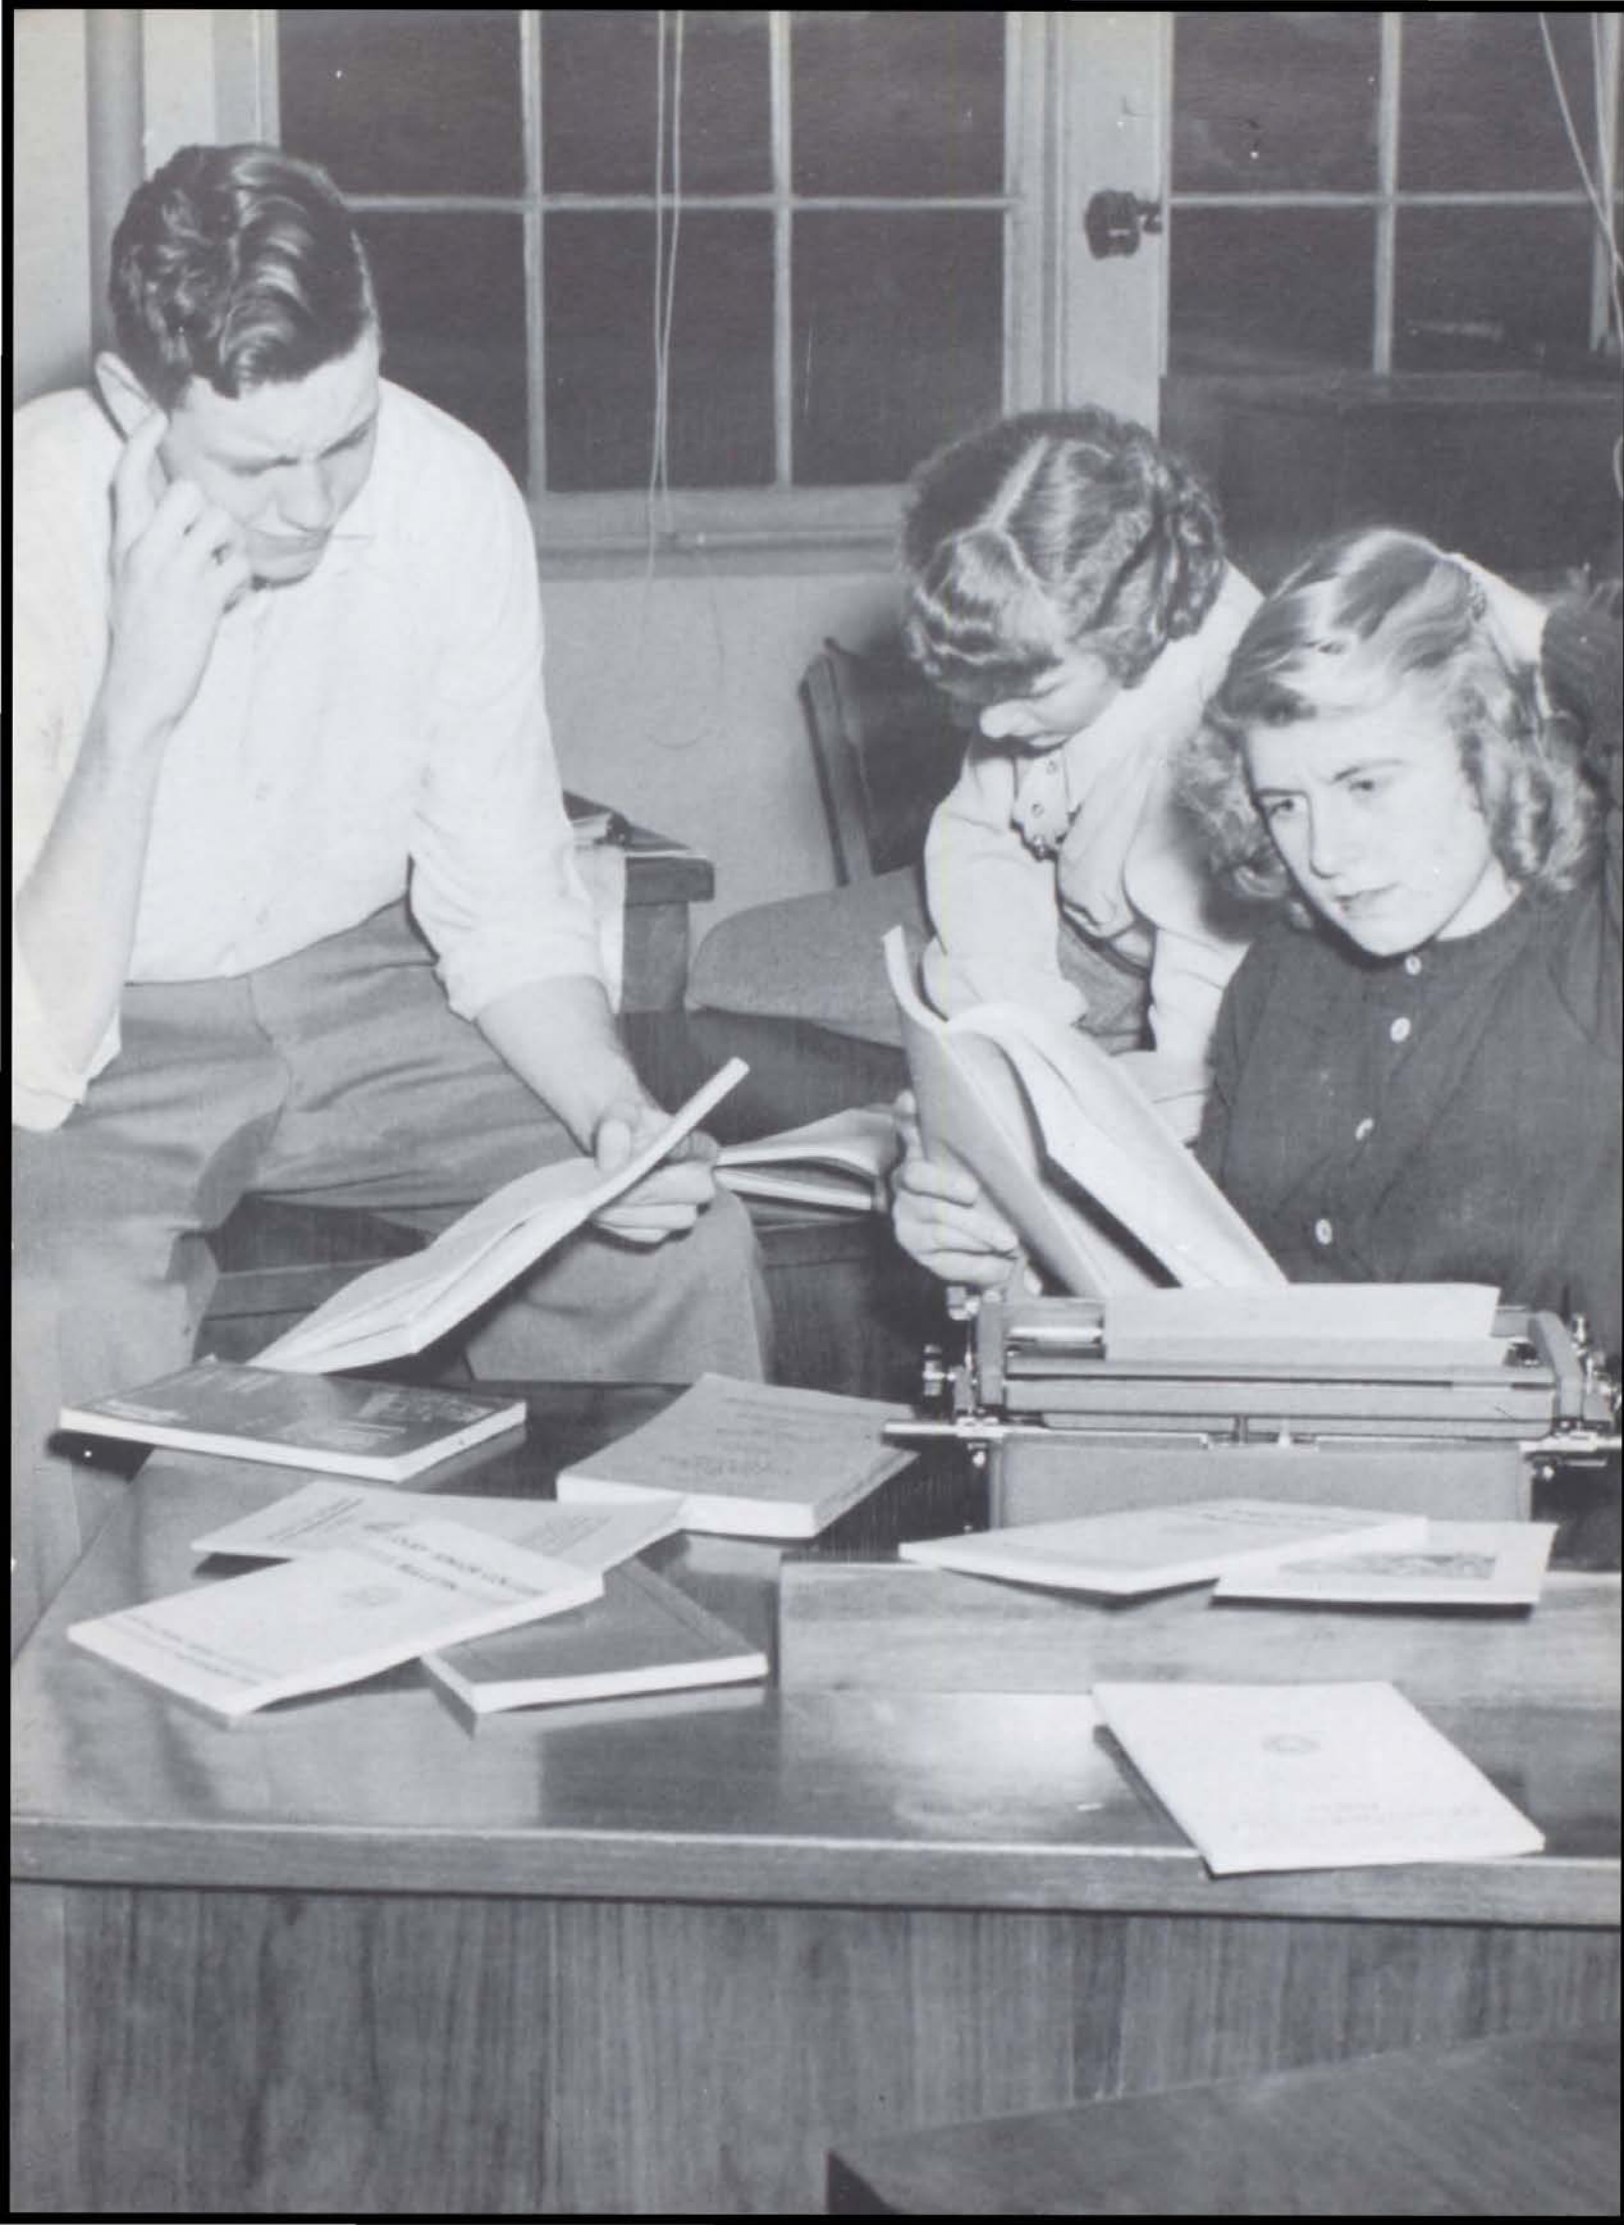

During our four years the teachers have done their utmost to teach us, along with the readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic, other traits and habits we will need as we go through life. We have done our best "to do our worst" in acknowledging, appreciating, and putting into practice these things up until now, but when we stop and take stock of what we will need to see us successfully through the coming years we begin to realize their worth. And only after many years will we appreciate the true value of what we should have learned in high school and the guidance we had there. But now we stand together in tribute to our teachers and we can but say "thank you" for all they have done for us.

May we always cherish vivid and happy recollections of V. H. S. but let each memory be touched with an inkling of regret that the happy days are over. The "do or die for the home team", the dances, all the extra-curricular activities as well as the daily work, all make for scores of memories for each and every one. Most important among these memories will be the friendships. Some will last on into the future and others must be severed as the Graduation march dies out, but each and every friendship, made or broken, has left or taken something in our lives. Despite the diverging paths our lives may take let's hope there will always be room at least for the memories of our high school friendships remembering, "there are good ships and bad ships but no ships like friendship".

Before saying farewell the seniors want to express their deepest gratitude toward the school, the students, and particularly the faculty for doing their best to help us lay good foundations, to start on the road to being men and women who will make the world a better place to live in. We, as a class, feel that we couldn't have been more fortunate in finding a place to grow and learn and so, "with our best endeavor, hail to maroon and white".

The Threads of 1946-47

Long live the class of '50! All good things must come to an end and so we come to our journey's end. We hope that the halls of V.H.S. will forever retain the echoes of the four happy years we spent there.

Down that hall third door on your left . . . could this by any chance be the English room?? No? . . . sorry, lost again. After countless wrong classrooms and red faces we finally acquire a mental floorplan of the vast maze . . . TEN BOOK REPORTS? history cartoons? twenty-four pages of Latin tonight? I'll never graduate!! MMMMmmmm! (Miss Miller thinks it's us making that noise but it's really the machines across the hall) JOKE! "This is the way a chipmunk would look at Latin." The year rolls along . . . The Freshman dance and jacking up the treasury is our big problem . . . "Spring Fantasy" gets under way and the whole shebang is a colossal success with the most interesting decoration a wishing well which we auction to the tune of $2.50. (Can you beat that for enterprising Freshmen?) . . . Despite our social mindedness, we come down to earth to have Lynn Ericson as the only freshman cheerleader and to bring forth a number of athletes headed for future varsity positions. We've really gotten into the swing of things and we're beginning to feel it's OUR Alma Mater but we're certainly looking forward to summer vacation.

Time marches on and before we know it we are Sophomores . . . look at that funny little thing . . . is that a freshman??? Burying ourselves in Latin again we are told that "an ox would look at it this way" (we're progressing backwards!) Sweet Wisteria here we come! The word is "just" j-u-s-t (Kindness of Mr. Butterworth) Oh boy! Here comes a substitute . . . let's try out the latest devices for torturing teachers . . . "This class will report to Mr. Sampson and all future school activities are curtailed until further notice!" . . . these words ring in our surprised ears for quite some time . . . how to learn our manners in one easy lesson, for sponsoring Courtesty Week is no picnic. We certainly make fine (?) examples . . . "Nobody loves me, everybody hates me" 'specially when we're dissecting worms . . . big fat juicy ones and little skinny slimy ones and golly how they wiggle when they squirm . . . that smell follows us wherever we go . . . Ah yes! FORMALDEHYDE! . . . climb aboard the Merry-go-round . . . grab a girl for "Carnival Capers" . . . Exams coming up! Our ticket to the magic world of Upperclassmen and we passed!

Time . . . . .

White, Fifoot and Voss out there shedding their life's blood for the honor of our class and several of our girls cheering them on . . . Ahah! . . . we find a new victim lurking on the horizon . . . Ten years in France . . . wait 'til he has one year of us . . . we refight the Second World War with Mr. Moore . . . You're RATION-ALIZING again, give me your reasons . . . another standardized Geometry test . . . we have the high honor of being in the 30th percentile . . . (coming up in the world) . . . Modern History diverges into the subject of campus life . . . "You'll be Campus Queen the first month and come home in disgrace the second" . . . "Paris in the Spring" La la, La la, . . . Johnny Jenkin wows the assembly as suave Sophisticated Maurice Chevalier . . . Helen Eckert in the latest thing in bathing suits . . . I'm the only girl in the Physics class but I can think of lots easier ways to get my men . . . Mirabel risks her neck to get us a model for our Prom decorations . . . wisteria, wisteria . . . if I never see that stuff again it's too soon . . . Our beautiful Prom but all that work for just one night . . . Once more we wade through exams while wistfully thinking of the lucky departing seniors.

1949-50

The hallowed summit at last! Time is slipping through our fingers as many of our boys play their last varsity games . . . John Jenkin lends his guiding hand to V.H.S. while Phil White strikes a dignified pose and summons the witness to take the stand . . . Guilty or not guilty, that is the question??? . . . My hair is an awful mess . . . is my necktie straight? All spruced up for the senior pictures . . . another Foss Original . . . "Witchy, I'd say" . . . when in the course of inhuman events, it becomes necessary for one person to dissolve the bonds of friendship . . . our beloved Mrs. Lissner is leaving us . . . "Dreamer's Holiday" puts us all in holiday spirits . . . Hear ye, hear ye, Their Majesties: King Hinckley and Queen Garrabrant. No vacation for us, thoughts of college boards haunt us night and day . . . A crop of twin sweaters has sprung up among the senior steadies . . . In the next months we begin to realize the value of the friendships we have made . . . are we actually getting sentimental?? . . . Mr. Hazel fascinates us with his accent and keeps us on our toes . . . I just broke a test tube . . . there goes my deposit . . . I told you not to fool with that faucet . . . Chemistry . . . our masterpieces gain a place in the halls of fame . . . "The Class of 1951 Cordially invites you to the Junior Prom" . . . and we accept wholeheartedly . . . our last high school dance . . . practicing for the climax of our high school career and finally we don our caps and gowns and step forward to receive our cherished diplomas . . . And so out into the strange unknown.

In Memoriam

There are many things for which we will always remember Gordon Clegg. His pleasant disposition, his courtesy, his courage and his sense of true sportsmanship were outstanding. It isn't often that one can find an individual who not only could play a great game of baseball, but could remain a favorite umpire in a sandlot ball game. Such was the personality of Gordie. His decisions were never questioned, everyone being aware of his absolute fairness. Gordie participated in many sports and could always be depended upon as a valuable teammate or as a worthy opponent.

Typical of his alertness was the fact that upon being shown a new game, he would frequently win succeeding games with great consistency, and was quick to see the more subtle factors in such games. This attribute was displayed throughout his school life in that he was continually near the head of the class. When assistance was needed in any group project, Gordie was among the first volunteers.

His pleasant disposition and courtesy were evident even in his appearance. Gordie was sincerely loved by all who knew him and had he entered high school, his circle of friends would have been even greater.

DISPOSING OF SOME

We, the class of 1950, being of sound mind (?) and body (?) do hereby, of our own free will, proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Ahem.

To the class of 1951 (poor souls) we leave these, our most outstanding and treasured talents and possessions: Helen All-husen's position as Mrs. Anthony, Linn Edsall's voice, Tom Frey's good looks, Marilyn Brenner's wardrobe, John Jenkin's fine leadership, Bob Heyer's artistic talent, Todd Martin's floating cartilage, Jerry Foss's antics, Roxy Wiseman's giggles, Johnny Rowley's arguments, Bob DeLuca's smooth dancing, Jean Nuss's beautiful blushes, Ginny Warren's dependability, Lil Duff's quarter-pint voice, Johnny Egner's excuses and Lynn Ericson's terrific smile.

Barb Silverman leaves her wonderful personality to Rita Jay and Karen Tappen. There's enough for both of them! Dave Sampson and Ivan Sachs leave the Sampson-Sachs Studios to Herb Nigh-land and Joe Longo. It will give them something to do on those long winter nights. To Herbie Light, we leave Wilma Loding's gift of gab. He'll talk forever now! Mary Noll leaves a beautiful string of report cards to Roberta and Arlene (as if they needed them) and Carolyn Tileston bequeaths her position with the "Sou-venirs" to Barbara Nedoma. Four mysterious pairs of Adlers with the initials C.K., C.P., D.F., and M.H. in them are left to anyone who can use them. Phil White leaves his football cap-taincy to John Kortright and Jack Kingston, and Phil Weiland be-queaths his position at the head of the soccer squad to Henry Palm. Muffy Conover leaves her inquisitive nature to Ray DeCheser. Let's hope she gets as good results. Marge Marfield leaves one house full of people to anyone that wants it. Heaven help them! Bob Rizzo leaves his job at the Verona Theatre to Stacy Ziegler and to Jack Larkin, Jimmy Brennan regrettably leaves his varsity sweater. To next year's Shadows editor, Joan Sherman leaves a goodly quantity of blood, sweat and tears. Lois Magie leaves an extensive collection of cowboy records to Barbara Bratsch and Joan Rose leaves her blue eyes to Connie Coats. To Rita and Glenna we leave a recording of the two of them saying "Hi" to keep them from wearing their voices out.

LOOSE THREADS

To Mr. Wermuth we leave a football team with as much fight and a little more luck than this year's. To Mr. Burguillos, known to one and all as "Mr. B.", we leave one record of the "Beer Barrel Polka" in remembrance of the Senior-Faculty game. To Mr. Johnson, a homeroom that is not wired up to the lunch bell. To Mr. Wilkin, we leave hopes for fewer and fewer applicants to Siwash University and to Miss Howell, lots of frantic senior girls all worrying about college boards and schedules. We leave to Miss Miller, an automatic note interceptor, to capture some of those violet scented scraps of paper and an English class that will "Be Specific", to Mr. Hazel, we bequeath a "Joisy" accent so that we natives can understand him. To Mr. Anderson we leave a memo pad and to Mr. Sampson we leave many thanks for putting up with us for four years. It wasn't easy!!

To the class of '51 as a whole we leave hopes for as many wonderful times as we've had in VHS, and to end all with bang, we just leave . . . period.

CLASS

Upper classmen at last! Like a dream come true. Whether it be scholastically or athletically, our class really shone. September found our girls in the grandstands yelling for the brawny members of the class who braved the football and soccer fields and at the end of the season, John Kortright and Jackie Kingston were named co-captains of next year's football team, while Henry Palm was elected to head the soccer team. Starting off with a big bang we elected Herby Light, Jimmy Pignatello, and Ray DeCheser to lead the class through this very important year. The class' contribution to student council was Vice-President John Kortright and Secretary Lois Axman while Arlene Graff and Roberta Hochheiser represented us as co-managing editors of the White Hornet.

This year found us struggling with Commercial Law, Physics, Geometry, and Bookkeeping II. The day finally arrived when we were able to display those long awaited class rings. One of our most memorable experiences was the presentation of the radio play "Between Americans" for Madison High School.

The Junior Prom climaxed the end of a wonderful year. The hard working decorating committee transformed the gym into a Hawaiian Island and the dance proved to be a great success.

With the close of this year, we look forward to another year of even greater achievements as seniors.

SOPHOMORE

On the seventh of September in '49
We left glad memories of vacations behind,
We cautiously opened the high school doors
And gazed with awe at the newly waxed floors,
As the day drew nearer to its end
Teachers and pupils sighed with A-men.

As October the 8th gradually drew near Sophomore dance committees pulled into high gear,

While they worked they grinned and bore it
And no one knew how much they adored it,
The "Souvenirs" played their music so sweet
That we all agreed it was quite a treat.

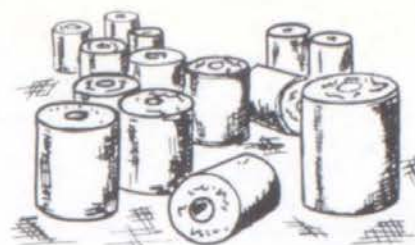

Our teams this year tried their best
And the students behind them cheered with zest,
Although we lost more than we won
We knew our fight was not yet done,
When victory came, we knew then
Verona's team was made of men.

At the end of the year when our term was done
We all readily agreed as SOPH'S we had fun,
Although we had oodles of homework
We never gave up the fight,
We filled our brains with knowledge
And studied day and night.

FRESHMAN

CLASS

Like all freshmen, we too, had our troubles on the first day of school. After wandering aimlessly around the building for the first week, we finally got acquainted, and settled down to work.

The freshman class was well represented in the field of sports. Although our football team was not too successful, we had plenty of spirit, and the boys tried hard. Hoover, J. Heyer, Thompson, Reilly, Longo, Fernald, Dobson, Carlson, McKinley, Cartabona, Weakland, and Gagliano were the squad's outstanding players.

Several boys went out for soccer too. Although they didn't see much action, it looks very promising for the future.

Our boys came out in full force for basketball also. Hoover, Brown, Kott, DiTaranto, Lytle, and others were cheered on to many victories by a peppy squad of freshman cheerleaders. Here's to the future varsity squad.

As a result of seeing the student court in action, the freshmen gave a special assembly. Steve Kott, Barbara Jennings, Charles Opdyke, and Joe Gagliano, under the direction of Mr. Gleason, presented the views of the class, and led a discussion on the functions of the court.

Charles Opdyke, our class president, has done a swell job this year, assisted by Dan Jerbasi, vice-president, and Elaine Schermerhorn, secretary-treasurer.

We hope to be a class that will be a great credit to V.H.S.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

Every other Wednesday at 12:00, anyone walking by Room 24 would see the Student Council getting down to the business at hand, with their competent leader, John Jenkin, presiding. This past year the Council has been working hard trying to solve the many problems that have been arising, and to contribute to the betterment of the school. Whether planning for the annual dance, or taking up the matter of the punishments of the Student Court, the Council has tried to act in a just and democratic manner.

Front row: Marilyn Brenner, Bulletin Board Comm.; Joan Thayer, Cafeteria Patrol; Joan Sherman, Ed. Shadows; Mary Noll, Assembly Comm.; Marge Wheaton, Lost and Found; Lois Axman, Sec. Student Council; John Jenkin, Pres. of Student Council.

L. to r: President of Student Council, John Jenkin; Secretary of Student Council, Lois Axman; Vice-President of Student Council, John Kortright.

THE STUDENT COURT

In its fourth year, the Student Court was up for discussion many times among the students. Two assemblies helped to better acquaint the students with the functions and the principles of the court. The interest displayed by the Freshman Class this year shows that the Student Court has a bright future. The class of 1950 would like to thank the students for their participation and cooperation that will lead toward a better Student Court.

First row: Ray DeCheser, Vice-President; Mary Noll, President; Jean Nuss, Executive Committee. Second row: Phil Weiland, Executive Committee; Joan Garrabrant, Executive Committee; Helen Allhusen, Secretary.

Under the very able guidance of Mr. Butterworth and Miss Fricke, the Dramatic Club has come through another busy and successful year.

Long known to be one of V.H.S.'s largest and most popular clubs, the tradition was well upheld this year by a large membership of combined under- and upper-classmen.

The annual trip to New York to see "Miss Liberty" was eagerly anticipated by the members of the club who were delighted by the play. Throughout the year the club sponsored several assembly programs, including "The Importance of Being Earnest" with the Conservatory Players. This was a delightful whimsical play, greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The year was highlighted by the club's production of "Hangman's Noose," an eerie though hilarious murder mystery.

May the Dramatics Clubs in future years have as much fun and satisfaction in working together as we have had in 1949-1950.

Fifth row: McCarren, Dally, Towne, Sebiri, Baldwin, Hayne, Egner, Hinckly, Bradley, R. Norton, Trackman, Huey, Mr. Schill.

Mrs. Buttermore, Director of the Glee Club.

The glee clubs this year were under the fine direction of Mrs. Buttermore and Miss Shockney. During the year the glee clubs which consist of a girls' glee club and a boys' glee club gave two programs. The first was a Thanksgiving assembly. The selections that were presented by the combined groups included the Lord's Prayer, Hymn of Thanksgiving and We Plow the Fields. The Christmas program included The Praise Carol, Angels Singing O'er Our Plains and Gesu' Bambino. The boys glee club sang We Three Kings and Good King Wenceslas.

The members of the glee club were very fortunate in being able to see the operetta the "New Moon" given by the Montclair Operetta Club at the Mount Hebron High School.

The Glee Clubs have done an excellent job this year and we hope that next year will be just as successful under Mrs. Buttermore's leadership.

Fourth row: Burnett, Evenson, Smith, Smithers, Masuch, Hayne, Howard, Jerbasi, Stagens, Clark, Schumacher.

Under the experienced and capable leadership of Edmund Schill, the Verona High School Band completed a very successful year. Although the band lacked numbers, it made up for it with skillful and enthusiastic players. The band this year made an excellent showing at football games, pep rallies, and concerts in spite of the fact that the rehearsals were very few and very short. Again this year the brass choir from the band played Christmas Carols in front of the high school.

The Orchestra this year, as in past years, registered a very commendable record. Always eager and willing to play for the assemblies, though having only one rehearsal a week, were the members of the orchestra. They put on enjoyable and successful concerts under the direction of Mr. Schill, whom they could not do without. The members of the orchestra who will graduate this year, will look back years from now and again relive the many enjoyable moments which they had.

FOOTBALL

STAND UP AND CHEER

Tom Hatchett comes hard around left end.

Phil White snares a pass all alone.

Verona about to recover a loose ball.

Captained by Phil White, the 1949 football team consisted mostly of underclassmen. Left with only four lettermen from last year's championship squad, coach "Dutch" Wermuth had to build for the future. Although the team was considered green by the experts, the mistakes that cost several games this year will be turned into victories in the coming seasons. Sophomore Quarterback Len Clark developed into a real threat and by the end of the year his passing reminded the fans of last year when George Mills was pitching the pigskin. Halfbacks Jerry Carroll, Pat Sempier and Dick Kephart showed they had what it takes to make the yardage. Don Marriott and Richie Martin were youngsters who gained valuable experience seeing action.

The Junior Class was well represented and like the Sophomores many players saw action for the first time, but having another year at Verona, "Dutch" used them in games to gain experience. The positions on the forward wall were held down by almost all Juniors, Co-Captains elect Jack Kingston and Harold Kortright were the tackles, while Charlie Burst and Herb Light played end and guard respectively. Tom Hatchett was a mainstay in the backfield while big Jack Larkin also saw action on the line. Then there were the Seniors, two of them made first team Suburban Conference. They were Phil White the dependable wingback whose hard running kept Verona's hopes from dying completely and end Jerry Foss who did a remarkable job of snaring passes. Guard George Voss who is noted for his running guard play in the Thanksgiving Day game and diminutive guard Fred Marks were the only experienced seniors with White and Foss.

Although the team only beat two foes and tied another, one of their victories was the upset of the year as they knocked off Glen Ridge which turned out to be the winner of the Suburban Conference. We are certain that the experienced gained by these underclassmen will be a great asset to Verona in football for the 1950 team, and we wish them the best luck ever, but we doubt if they will need it because their experience will be better than their opponent's luck.

SOCCER

The 1949 Soccer Team this year was made up of unusually rugged seniors. There were also capable juniors including Henry Palm (Captain-elect), Ralph Evenson and sophomores including Bob Flynn.

The biggest handicap to the season was the loss of "Doc" Goeltz but John Lenaus did a great job of substituting for "Doc".

With the fans out cheering them on, the boys had a successful season by winning five, losing four and tying two games. The highlight of the campaign was their last game with Chatham, whom they tied 0 to 0 after a hard fight and losing to them earlier in the season 4 to 1.

"Doc's" and Mr. Lenaus' main soccer squad this year consisted of: Captain Phil Weiland, Bob Dietz, Jim Bradley, Bill Wall, Julius Bauerman, John Rowley, Don Wilcox, Dave Fulton, Proctor Baker, Alan Christenson and those mentioned above.

Dave Fulton fights for the ball.

Look out "Wild Bill" Wall is coming at you!

Don Wilcox maneuvers the ball.

BASKETBALL

"Skip" goes over the strategy just before an important game with the starting five.

Skip Smith had to count on his jayvee squad from last year for material for this year's varsity. Phil White, the only returning letterman, formed the nucleus of the team. Besides White who was the high scorer, Seniors Dick Fifoot, Lee Horner and George Voss saw plenty of action. Skip had to think of the future too as Juniors Tom Hatchett, second highest scorer and Carl Mead were in the starting lineup for the Hillbillies. Sophomores Jerry Carroll and Richie Martin gained some experience as they also saw action.

The inexperienced crew made the going tough for some of the highly regarded quintets around this section. Depending on a 2-3 sliding zone defense with White and Fifoot out front and Hatchett, Mead and Horner patrolling the scoring area the Smith-men stopped many a foe cold as they failed to penetrate the defense. Using a fast break on offense the team had one advantage over their opponents, that was speed. The team also depended on the fast break for their scoring punch.

For an inexperienced crew Skip produced some good basketball, as he gave many seniors as even a chance as the underclassmen. The fans didn't give up yelling just because we didn't win a state title.

TRACK

Verona High Track Teams have provided the school with more trophies than any other sports squad. Under the able coaching of "Skip" Smith the Verona thin clads have set an enviable record of eight wins against one loss in Suburban Conference competition. It is expected that the 1950 squad will prove no exception to this rule.

The 1949 squad scored the first "grand slam" in the school's history, winning the Newark Invitation Meet, the Suburban Conference title and for the second year in succession walked off with the State Group I crown.

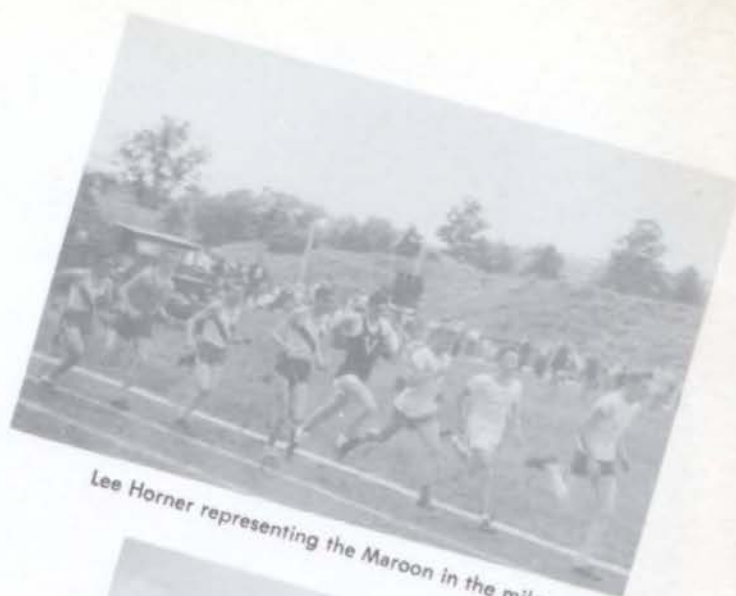

The graduation of such former stars as Alderio, Pringle, Sempier, Davis, Marshall, and Levy will place a heavy burden on the 1950 team. Nevertheless the "Skipper" will probably come up as usual with a well balanced squad. At this writing it appears that the responsibility for maintaining the Maroon and White's supremacy over its rivals will rest on a few returning veterans assisted by a few members of last year's squad who will have improved with experience.

It is expected that Captain George Voss will continue his fine performance in the pole vault with Len Clark being looked to for additional points.

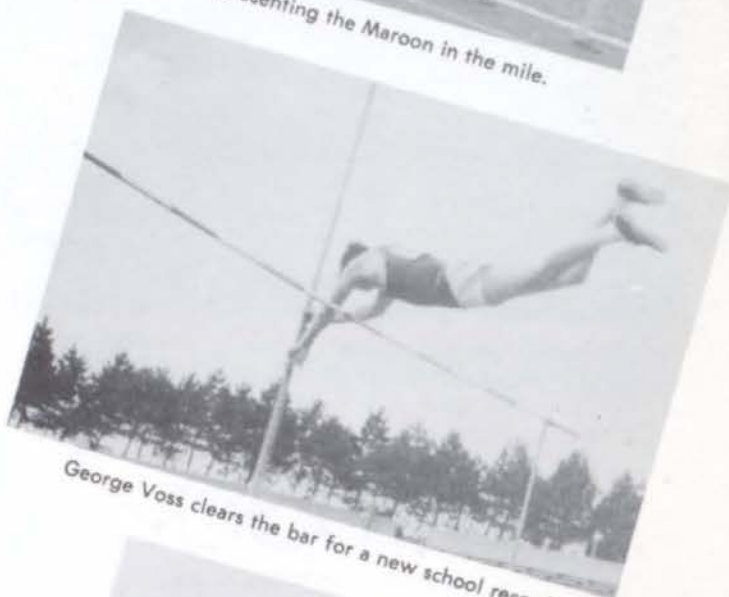

In the hurdles, always a strong point with Smith coached teams, John Jenkins, Tom Hatchett, Jerry Foss, and Buddy Phelps are counted on to put Verona in the win column. The mile and 880 again will be in the capable hands of Lee Horner and Teddy Booth. In the field events Bobby Flynn, Jack Larkin, Robert Gillen, Todd Martin, Bob Dietz and Jack Kingston are the boys who may give us those needed points in a close meet. Only in the dashes will there be a shortage of material with Ken Gillen and Rocco Guido the only 1949 squad members returning with experience in these events.

BASEBALL

The 1950 baseball season will find Coach "Woody" Litwhiler at the reins for his fourth year and the team will be headed for a pretty successful season. In the year that has passed only a few of the men were lost and their replacements should be pretty fair. The main weak spots of the team will be pitching and catching. The V. H. S. Team will definitely feel the loss of pitchers Don Clapp and Fred Brooks but they will have George Watson to do the main amount of pitching and also Jim Bradley will move in from the outfield to do some of the job. Catching will be done probably by a promising young Sophomore Andy Barese or a newcomer to the school Proc Baker. The infield will be rounded out by about the same fellows who played there last year. At first base will be Jim Brennan, at second base probably will be Phil White or Dave Fulton and at third base, Carl Mead. At short stop will be the captain Dick Fifoot, playing his third year of varsity ball. Rounding out the outfield will probably be Don Wilcox in center field, flanked by Harold Kortright and Jerry Carroll. It should be a pretty good team that fields the diamond when the team opens the season early in the Spring. They have good balance and a fair pitching staff but need a good catcher to make them a real Conference threat. Look for a good showing because they'll be in there fighting.

GOLF

With the arrival of good weather in the spring the boys of the golf team will be found putting, driving, and trying to improve their game with their noble coach, "Doc" Goeltz, barking commands over the shoulders of the boys. The graduation of all the lettermen last year will leave the team slightly "green", but we're sure the boys will come through and give their all to a game that is very rapidly becoming a top national sport.

TENNIS

As spring approaches, Verona High's tennis team seems to be of top-flight quality. With returning veterans such as Neil MacLaren, Bob Burnett, Jimmy Hayne and Casper Kaffke among others, they are sure to be headed for a successful year. Coach Carstensen's team is sure to show brilliant performances on their new Verona courts. The courts, being close to the school, will surely help the players and give to them longer practices to help them play "heads-up" games.

BOWLING

This year bowling assumed its first year as an official sport in "ole" VHS and seems to be gaining more popularity with the fellas. This year's team consisted of: Martin Huey, Ross Brown, Buddy Phelps, Jack Cresbaugh, Maurice Robinson, Todd Martin and Allan Christenson, being guided under "Chief" Falconer. Although last year's team laid a course that will be hard to follow, we're sure the boys will come through and be the good competitors that Verona has always been noted for in the other sports.

HI-Y

This year the Verona Hi-Y sponsored by Mr. Burgillos had more members than any previous year. The Club's thirty-five members met every other Wednesday evening in the Library. The officers were: President, Richard Hinckley; Vice-President, Jim Brennan; Secretary, Henry Palm; Treasurer, Ted Booth; and Chaplain, Peter Koch.

The members enjoyed swimming, basketball and television at the "Y" besides having prominent guest speakers from India, Alcholics Annoyomous and world travelers.

The Hi-Y basketball team won the annual Christmas tournament at the Montclair "Y" and the team also captured a championship in the Recreation League.

CHEERLEADING

Cheering is more than fun. Every cheerleader feels connected by a strong bond with the fellows on the gridiron, soccer field or basketball court. We feel a great surge of love for our school, for the maroon and white and a desire to lead Verona's crowds to their fullest vocal capacity.

Led by Lynn Ericson, captain, the Verona atomic-touched girls rooted their teams with all the vivaciousness possible. This year's squad was made up of seven seniors and one sophomore. Four of the girls were veterans from previous years.

Many thanks are given to Mrs. Lissner, who was the original faculty adviser and who backed us to her fullest extent. When it was necessary for her to leave, Miss Johnson took the reins and fell into supervising the club, doing a fine job.

GIRL'S A. A.

At least once a week you can peek into the gym of ol' Verona High and see the girls practicing up on their basketball and volleyball. The gals are trying to keep their figures and meanwhile are having loads of fun. Mrs. Van Houten ably assists the girls in showing them the rules of the game. During the year the girls put on a square dance, the only one of the year, where the gals take the fellas and everyone learns to square dance. The boys may laugh when they see the girls but they have fun practicing their skills in the gym.

One of the members about to score a basket.

Who's open for a pass.

Oh! Grab that ball.

The collage features several black and white photographs from a school dance. At the top left, a couple is shown in a close embrace. Below this, two more couples are posed for a photo. To the right, a large, white, house-shaped prop is decorated with a heart and a circular window. A large, striped archway stands in front of it. In the bottom left, a group of students is on a stage, with one student standing and addressing the group. The bottom right shows a large group of students dancing and socializing. The entire collage is held together by a torn paper effect.

SPINNING A DREAM

Good evening ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience, here's the way the world is spinning tonight—

Capitol Hill: John H. Jenkin, Chairman of the House sub-committee, with Barbara Steinbach as his efficient secretary, has called for an investigation of G. D. Voss Enterprises, Inc. It has been discovered that Voss, along with associates Fifoot, Kaffke, and Rowley has been under-selling the government on the price of gold bricks.

Hollywood: Jerry Foss is co-starred with Marilyn Brenner in the forthcoming production, "The Fevang Story", produced by Bob Rizzo.

Shanghai: The "Blue Shaga" of the Orient Martin Huey has met his match with the able detection of J. Edgar McCarren and detectives DeLuca, Frey, Martin and Phelps.

New York: The Weiland Publishing Co. of this city has hit the best seller list once more with Julius Bauerman's popular novel "The Egg and I."

Neil Morley MacLaren is to be guest conductor at Carnegie Hall this evening with an all star cast including Lynn Edsall, accompanied by the able pianist Mirabel Miller. Marjorie Wheaton of the Metropolitan and Wild Bill Wall and Jim Bradley from Bop City, where Paula Archer has become the famous "hucklebuck" dancer, will also be there. The show is to be televised over the Burnett Channel with Eugene Watson narrating.

Paris: Roxanne Wiseman and Joan Sherman, editors of Mademoiselle Magazine have named Joan Garrabrant and Audrey Cooper as top models of the year.

Verona: Last Saturday Senator Whites' Hillbillies racked up another tally. The V. H. S. marching band under the able direction of "Uncle Dave" Sampson entertained during the half time with choice selections by Thomas Yeaton. Miss Loding, the new history teacher, was seen at the game with Mr. Brennan of the math department.

Chicago: Dr. R. J. Dietz and Dr. C. Richard Hinckley announced today that the Booth Construction Co. has completed the Carver Clinic and that recent Nobel Prize winner, Dave Fulton will dedicate it tomorrow.

Atlantic City: Viewing for recognition in the Miss America Contest here are: Helen Allhusen, Barbara Silverman, Lynn Ericson, Joan Rose, Jean Gulla, Marge Marfield, and Mary Daily.

Moscow: General Lee Horner signed the final peace negotiations with head Reds, Marks and Sachs, concluding three days of fierce fighting which ended abruptly with the dropping of the

Fred Martin Momo Special, a very high powered type bomb.
Flash: Facts and figures from a survey conducted by Ross Brown to find the most perfect body: hair—Janet Heuser; eyes—Midge Conover; smile—Helen Eckert; figure—Thelma Axman; legs—Virginia Warren. The survey also found Joyce Coad, Gonda Christiano and Lillian Duff to be the most petite women in the U.S.A.

Boston: Sonny Watson, manager for the light-weight contender Bobby Kays has declared his boy ready to meet champion Ken Gillen for the Jack Williams Trophy at the Gearly Arena.

Philadelphia: Disc-jockey Johnny Egner of the Bochicchio Broadcasting Co. has chosen the recent top records hits: "Maybe You'll be Thayer," "I Never See Mady Alone," "Gloria," "Margie," "Jeanie, With the Light Brown Hair."

Seen at the Celebrity Club: The famous Broadway "Charleston Dancer" Mary Jane Davies; the wealthy race-track heiress, Sally Cox; the fabulous comedian Cappy Greene; . . . The eminent chemist Anne Kreuder had a slight mishap when she tried to mix chemicals at the dinner table. She was overcome by fumes but the prominent Dr. Gelpke rushed in and saved the day . . . Carolyn Tileston, the well-known night-club singer is now starring at the Celebrity Club, while Don Wilcox is keeping the crowd laughing with his funny jokes.

Around Town: We find Miss Joan Colardeau an up-and-coming kindergarten teacher. As a matter of fact, she is even teaching Faith Driggs' and Pat Heffley's children. Unfortunately, the latter's child is ill, but we feel sure she will recover quickly under the able attendance of nurse Jean Gustavson.

News in the Artist's World: Miss Jeanette Van Duyne held an elaborate art exhibit recently and the lucky winners for first, second and third prize were Robert Heyer, Mary Noll, and Jean Nuss.

Bulletin: We interrupt this program to inform you that Carolyn Bowling has just won the roller derby and a huge celebration will take place at the home of the wealthy Miss Deerman.

Believe it or Not! Fred Stockman has become President of Esso Gasoline Co., and he now has two secretaries, Joan Thompson and Joan Smorol . . . Lois Pisek is now manager of Paramount Theatre in New York. Loretta Lytle has just been voted Miss Goldilocks of 1965, while Carol Lennon is keeping the first place as Sky-lock. Lois Magie and Florence Kearns, two top debutantes, have been having too many good times and are now suffering from nervous breakdowns but will recover quickly under the care of modern "Florence Nightingale", Brownie Grove . . . That's all the news for now folks—farewell, and take it easy, remember, life is just a merry, merry-go-round.
